CHAPTER 708

MARRIED WOMEN'S PROPERTY

- 708.05 Husband not liable for antenuptial debts of wife.
 708.08 Married women's rights; separate property; release of dower.
 708.09 Same; agreements with husband, power of attorney, etc.
 708.10 Same; construction of law.

708.05 Husband not liable for antenuptial debts of wife.—The husband shall not be liable to pay the debts of the wife contracted before marriage, but the property of the wife shall be subject to such debts.

History.—s. 5, March 6, 1845; RS 2073; GS 2591; RGS 3950; CGL 5869.

708.08 Married women's rights; separate property; release of dower.—

(1) Every married woman is empowered to take charge of and manage and control her separate property, to contract and to be contracted with, to sue and be sued, to sell, convey, transfer, mortgage, use, and pledge her real and personal property and to make, execute, and deliver instruments of every character without the joinder or consent of her husband in all respects as fully as if she were unmarried. Every married woman has and may exercise all rights and powers with respect to her separate property, income, and earnings and may enter into, obligate herself to perform, and enforce contracts or undertakings to the same extent and in like manner as if she were unmarried and without the joinder or consent of her husband. Any claim or judgment against a married woman shall not be a claim or lien against her inchoate right of dower in her husband's separate property. All conveyances, contracts, transfers, or mortgages of real property or any interest in it, executed by a married woman without the joinder of her husband after the effective date of the 1968 Constitution of Florida, are as valid and effective as though the husband had joined.

(2) Any married woman having a right of dower in real property may relinquish it by joining in a conveyance or mortgage of the property or by a separate instrument without the joinder of her husband, executed in the same manner as conveyances.

 cf.—s. 689.01 et seq. Conveyances of real property.
 s. 689.11 Conveyance between husband and wife.
 s. 732.111 Dower and curtesy abolished.

708.09 Same; agreements with husband, power of attorney, etc.—Every married woman may enter into agreements and contracts with her husband, may become the partner of her husband or others, may give a power of attorney to her husband, and may execute powers conferred upon her by her husband, including the power to execute and acknowledge all instruments, including relinquishments of dower, conveying, transferring, or encumbering property, or any interest in it, owned by her, or by herself and her husband as tenants by the entirety, or by her husband. All powers of attorney heretofore executed by a wife to her husband and vice versa, and the execution of all documents executed thereunder, are hereby validated and confirmed.

 cf.—s. 732.111 Dower and curtesy abolished.

708.10 Same; construction of law.—This law shall not be construed as:

- (1) Relieving a husband from any duty of supporting and maintaining his wife and children;
- (2) Abolishing estates by the entireties or any of the incidents thereof;
- (3) Abolishing dower or any of the incidents thereof;
- (4) Changing the rights of either husband or wife to participate in the distribution of the estate of the other upon his death, as may now or hereafter be provided by law;
- (5) Dispensing with the joinder of husband and wife in conveying or mortgaging homestead property.

History.—s. 3, ch. 21932, 1943.
 cf.—s. 732.111 Dower and curtesy abolished.

CHAPTER 709

POWERS OF ATTORNEY AND SIMILAR INSTRUMENTS

- 709.01 Power of attorney; authority of nominee when principal dead.
- 709.015 Power of attorney; authority of agent when principal listed as missing.
- 709.02 Power of appointment; method of release.
- 709.03 Same; property held in trust.
- 709.04 Same; effect of revocation.
- 709.05 Same; prior powers validated.
- 709.06 Same; powers included in law.
- 709.07 Same; effect on title to property.
- 709.08 Durable family power of attorney.

709.01 Power of attorney; authority of nominee when principal dead.—If any agent, constituted by power of attorney or other authority, shall do any act for his principal which would be lawful if such principal were living, the same shall be valid and binding on the estate of said principal, although he or she may have died before such act was done; provided, the party treating with such agent dealt bona fide, not knowing at the time of the doing of such act that such principal was dead. An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent setting forth that he has not or had not, at the time of doing any act pursuant to the power of attorney, received actual knowledge or actual notice of the death of the principal, or notice of any facts indicating his death, shall in the absence of fraud be conclusive proof of the absence of knowledge or notice by the agent of the death of the principal at such time. If the exercise of the power requires the execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable under the laws of this state, such affidavit shall likewise be recordable. No report or listing, either official or otherwise, of "missing" or "missing in action" regarding any person in connection with any activity pertaining to or connected with the prosecution of any hostilities in which the United States is then engaged, as such words "missing" or "missing in action" are used in military parlance, shall constitute or be interpreted as constituting actual knowledge or actual notice of the death of such principal, or notice of any facts indicating the death of such person, or shall operate to revoke the agency.

History.—s. 1, ch. 23011, 1945; s. 1, ch. 67-453.

709.015 Power of attorney; authority of agent when principal listed as missing.—

(1) The acts of an agent under a power of attorney or other authority shall be as valid and as binding on the principal or his estate as if the principal were alive and competent if, in connection with any activity pertaining to hostilities in which the United States is then engaged, the principal is officially listed or reported by a branch of the United States Armed Forces in a missing status as defined in 37 U.S.C. s. 551 or 5 U.S.C. s. 5561, regardless of whether the principal is then dead, alive, or incompetent.

(2) If the exercise of the power of attorney requires the execution and delivery of a recordable instrument, the power of attorney shall be executed with the same formalities as required of the instrument itself and recorded pursuant to the laws of Florida.

(3) Upon request of the person dealing with the agent, the agent shall make an affidavit that he has not received notice, and has no knowledge, that the principal is incompetent. In the absence of fraud, the affidavit shall be conclusively presumed to establish the agent's lack of notice or knowledge of the principal's incompetence.

(4) Homestead property held as tenants by the entireties shall not be conveyed by a power of attorney regulated by this section until 1 year following the first official report or listing of the principal as missing or missing in action. An affidavit of an officer of the armed forces having maintenance and control of the records pertaining to those missing or missing in action that the principal has been in that status for a given period shall be a conclusive presumption of that fact.

(5) This section applies to powers of attorney heretofore and hereafter executed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-33.

709.02 Power of appointment; method of release.—Powers of appointment over any property, real, personal, intangible or mixed, may be released, in whole or in part, by a written instrument signed by the donee or donees of such powers. Such written releases shall be signed in the presence of two witnesses but need not be sealed, acknowledged or recorded in order to be valid, nor shall it be necessary to the validity of such releases for husbands of married donees to join such donees in the execution of releases, in whole or part, of powers of appointment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.03 Same; property held in trust.—If property subject to a power of appointment is held in trust by a person, firm or corporation other than the donee or donees of the power, a written release, in whole or in part, of a power to appoint the same shall be delivered to such trustee or trustees before the written release becomes legally effective. In no other instance shall a delivery of a release, in whole or in part, of a power of appointment be necessary to the validity of such release.

History.—s. 2, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.04 Same; effect of revocation.—Any power of appointment wholly released by a written instrument signed by the donee or donees of such power shall be, in legal effect, completely revoked, and shall not, after such release, be subject to being exercised in any manner whatsoever. Any power of appointment partially released by a written instrument signed by the donee or donees of such power shall be, in legal effect, as to such released part, completely revoked, and shall not after such release be subject to being exercised in any manner whatsoever as to such released part.

History.—s. 3, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.05 Same; prior powers validated.—All releases, in whole or in part, of powers of appointment heretofore executed in a manner that conforms with the provisions of this law be and they are hereby validated and shall be given the same force and effect as if executed subsequently to the effective date of this law.

History.—s. 4, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.06 Same; powers included in law.—Powers of appointment referred to in this law shall include not only those recognized as such by general law but also those designated as such under the Tax Law of the United States.

History.—s. 5, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.07 Same; effect on title to property.—No such release, in whole or in part, of a power of appointment shall affect the title to property of any bona fide purchaser for value who does not have notice or knowledge of such release.

History.—s. 7, ch. 23007, 1945.

709.08 Durable family power of attorney.—

(1) A principal may create a durable family power of attorney designating his spouse, parent, child, whether natural or adopted, brother, or sister his attorney in fact by executing a power of attorney. Such power of attorney shall be in writing, shall state the relationship of the parties, and shall include the words, "This durable family power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal except as provided by statute" or similar words clearly showing the intent of the principal that the power conferred on the attorney in fact shall be exercisable from the date specified in the instrument, notwithstanding a later disability or incapacity of the principal, unless otherwise provided by statute. All acts done by the attorney in fact pursuant to the power conferred during any period of disability or incompetence shall have the same effect, and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives, as if the principal were competent and not disabled.

(2) The durable family power of attorney shall be nondelegable and shall be valid until such time as the donor shall die, revoke the power, or be adjudged incompetent. At any time, a petition to determine competency of the donor or a petition to appoint a guardian for the donor has been filed, the durable family power of attorney shall be temporarily suspended. Notice of the pending petition shall be given to all known donees of the power. The power shall remain suspended until the petition is dismissed, withdrawn, or the donor adjudged competent, at which time the power shall be automatically reinstated and any exercise of the power shall be valid. If the donor is adjudged incompetent, the power shall be automatically revoked.

(3) Property subject to the durable family power of attorney shall include all real and personal property owned by the donor, the donor's interest in all property held in joint tenancy, the donor's interest in all nonhomestead property held in tenancy by the entirety, and all property over which the donor holds a power of appointment. Nothing in this section shall permit the donee of a durable family power of attorney, when the donor is married, to mortgage or convey homestead property without the joinder of the spouse or the spouse's legal guardian, but the joinder may be accomplished through the exercise of a power of attorney.

(4) Whenever an emergency shall arise between the time a petition is filed and an adjudication is made regarding the competency of the donor, the donee of the durable family power of attorney may petition the court for permission to exercise the power. The petition shall specify the emergency, the property involved, and the proposed action of the donee. No exercise of the power by the donee during this time period shall be valid without the permission of the court.

CHAPTER 710
GIFTS TO MINORS

- 710.01 Short title.
- 710.02 Definitions.
- 710.03 Manner of making gifts.
- 710.04 Effect of gift.
- 710.05 Duties and powers of custodian.
- 710.06 Custodian's expenses, compensation, bond and liabilities.
- 710.07 Exemption of third persons from liability.
- 710.08 Resignation, death or removal of custodian; bond; designation of successor custodian.
- 710.09 Accounting by custodian.
- 710.10 Construction.

710.01 Short title.—This act may be cited as the "Florida Gifts to Minors Act."

History.—s. 11, ch. 57-53.

710.02 Definitions.—In this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) An "adult" is a person who has attained the age of 18 years.

(2) A "bank" is a bank, trust company, national banking association, savings or industrial bank.

(3) A "broker" is a person lawfully engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities for the account of others. The term includes a bank which effects such transactions. The term also includes persons lawfully engaged in buying and selling securities for his own account, through a broker or otherwise, as a part of regular business.

(4) A "savings and loan association" is a savings and loan association organized under the laws of this state or the United States, and located in this state.

(5) "Court" means the Circuit Court.

(6) The "custodial property" includes:

(a) All securities, money, life insurance policies and annuity contracts under the supervision of the same custodian for the same minor as a consequence of a gift made to the minor in a manner prescribed by this act;

(b) The income from custodial property; and

(c) The proceeds, immediate and remote, from the sale, exchange, conversion, investment, reinvestment, surrender or other disposition of such securities, money, life insurance policies and annuity contracts and income.

(7) A "custodian" is a person so designated in a manner prescribed by this act.

(8) A "guardian" of a minor includes the general guardian, guardian, tutor or curator of his property, estate or person.

(9) An "issuer" is a person who places or authorizes the placing of his name on a security (other than as a transfer agent) to evidence that it represents a share, participation or other interest in his property or in an enterprise or to evidence his duty or undertaking to perform an obligation evidenced by the security, or who becomes responsible for or in place of any such person.

(10) A "legal representative" of a person is his executor or administrator, general guardian, guardian, committee, conservator, tutor or curator of his property or estate.

(11) A "member" of a minor's family means any of the minor's parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, uncles and aunts, whether of the whole blood or the half blood, or by or through legal adoption.

(12) A "minor" is a person who has not attained the age of 18 years.

(13) A "security" includes any note, stock, treasury stock, bond, debenture, evidence of indebtedness, (certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease), collateral trust certificate, transferable share, voting trust certificate or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a security, or any certificate of interest or participation in, any temporary or interim certificate, receipt or certificate of deposit for, or any warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing. The term does not include a security of which the donor is the issuer. A security is in "registered form" when it specifies a person entitled to it or to the rights it evidences and its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer.

(14) A "transfer agent" is a person who acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities.

(15) A "trust company" is a bank authorized to exercise trust powers in Florida.

(16) "Life insurance policies and annuity contracts" mean only life insurance policies and annuity contracts on the life of a minor or a member of the minor's family as herein defined.

(17) A "credit union" is a credit union organized under the laws of this state or the United States and located in the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-53; s. 1, ch. 61-125; s. 1, ch. 65-354; s. 1, ch. 74-31; s. 1, ch. 74-142.

710.03 Manner of making gifts.—

(1) An adult person may, during his lifetime, make a gift of a security or money, a life insurance policy or an annuity contract to a person who is a minor on the date of the gift:

(a) If the subject of the gift is a security in registered form, by registering it in the name of the donor, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or a trust company, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for ..... under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act";

(b) If the subject of the gift is a security not in registered form, by delivering it to an adult member, other than the donor, of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or trust company, accompanied by a statement of gift in the following form, in substance, signed by the donor and the person designated as custodian:

"GIFT UNDER THE FLORIDA GIFTS TO MINORS ACT

.....(name of donor)..... hereby delivers to .....(name of custodian)..... as custodian for ..... under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act, the following security(ies): (insert an appropriate description of the securities or security delivered sufficient to identify it or them)

.....(signature of donor).....

.....(name of custodian)..... hereby acknowledges receipt of the above described security(ies) as custodian for the above minor under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act.
Dated: .....(signature of custodian).....

(c) If the subject of the gift is money, by paying or delivering it to a broker, savings and loan association, bank, or credit union for credit to an account in the name of the donor, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or a bank with trust powers, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for ..... under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act."

(d) If the subject of the gift is a life insurance policy or an annuity contract, the ownership of the policy or contract shall be registered by the donor of such policy or contract in his own name, in the name of an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor or a bank or trust company, followed by the words "as custodian for .....(name of minor)..... under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act," and such policy or contract shall be delivered to the person in whose name it is thus registered as custodian. If the policy or contract is registered in the name of the donor, as custodian, such registration shall of itself constitute the delivery required by this subsection.

(2) An adult person may, in his will or in a trust agreement, provide for a gift of a security or money, a life insurance policy, or an annuity contract under this act to a person who is a minor on the date of the gift. In such event, the legal representative or trustee, as the case may be, shall make distribution by transferring the subject of the gift to the custodian in the form and manner provided in subsection (1). If the testator or settlor fails to designate a custodian or if the designated custodian is not eligible, dies, or becomes legally incapacitated before the minor attains the age of majority, the guardian of the minor shall be custodian if the minor has a guardian who is otherwise eligible or, if the minor has no guardian, the legal representative or trustee, as the case may be, shall designate the custodian from among those persons eligible to become successor custodian for the minor under this act. The receipt of the custodian constitutes a sufficient release and discharge for the money or security, life insurance policy, or annuity contract distributed to the custodian.

(3) A trustee of a trust heretofore or hereafter created of which a minor is a beneficiary may pay or transfer to a custodian for the minor, in the form and manner prescribed in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1), any money or security, life insurance policy, or annuity contract then distributable to the minor, if the trustee deems it to be for the best interests of the minor and the testator or settlor has not expressly directed otherwise in the trust instrument. The trustee shall designate the guardian of the minor as custodian if the minor has a guardian who is otherwise eligible. If the minor does not have such a guardian, the trustee shall designate the custodian from among those persons eligible to become successor custodian for the minor under this act. The receipt of the custodian constitutes a sufficient release and discharge for the money or security, life insurance policy, or annuity contract distributed to the custodian.

(4) Any gift made in a manner prescribed in subsection (1) may be made to only one minor and only to one person as custodian.

(5) A donor who makes a gift to a minor in a manner prescribed in subsection (1) shall promptly do all things within his power to put the subject of the gift in the possession and control of the custodian, but neither the donor's failure to comply with this subsection, nor his designation of an ineligible person as custodian, nor renunciation by the person designated as custodian affects the consummation of the gift.

710.04 Effect of gift.—

(1) A gift made in a manner prescribed in this act is irrevocable and conveys to the minor indefeasible vested legal title to the custodial property given, but no guardian of the minor has any right, power, duty or authority with respect to the custodial property except as provided in this act.

(2) By making a gift in a manner prescribed in this act, the donor incorporates in his gift all the provisions of this act and grants to the custodian, and to any issuer, transfer agent, bank, broker, savings and loan association, credit union, or third person dealing with a person designated as custodian, the respective powers, rights and immunities provided in this act.

History.—s. 3, ch. 57-53; s. 3, ch. 61-125; s. 3, ch. 65-354; s. 3, ch. 74-142.

710.05 Duties and powers of custodian.—

(1) The custodian shall collect, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property.

(2) The custodian shall pay over to the minor for expenditure by him, or expend for the minor's benefit, so much of or all the custodial property as the custodian deems advisable for the support, maintenance, education and benefit of the minor in the manner, at the time or times, and to the extent that the custodian in his discretion deems suitable and proper, with or without court order, with or without regard to the duty of himself or of any other person to support the minor or his ability to do so, and with or without regard to any other income or property of the minor which may be applicable or available for any such purpose.

(3) The court, on the petition of a parent or guardian of the minor or of the minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years, may order the custodian to pay over to the minor for expenditure by him or to expend so much of or all the custodial property as is necessary for the minor's support, maintenance or education.

(4) To the extent that the custodial property is not so expended, the custodian shall deliver or pay it over to the minor on his attaining the age of 18 years, or, if the minor dies before attaining the age of 18 years, he shall thereupon deliver or pay it over to the estate of the minor. However, as to gifts made prior to July 1, 1973, pursuant to this chapter, for a minor who had not attained 21 years of age prior to

July 1, 1973, such custodial property and accumulations thereon shall not be paid over or delivered by the custodian until the recipient attains 21 years of age, or shall be paid over to the recipient's estate if he dies prior to attaining 21 years of age.

(5) The custodian, notwithstanding statutes restricting investments by fiduciaries, shall invest and reinvest the custodial property as would a prudent man of discretion and intelligence who is seeking a reasonable income and the preservation of his capital, except that he may, in his discretion and without liability to the minor or his estate, retain a security given to the minor in a manner prescribed in this act.

(6) The custodian may sell, exchange, convert or otherwise dispose of custodial property in the manner, at the time or times, for the price or prices and upon the terms he deems advisable. He may vote in person or by general or limited proxy a security which is custodial property. He may consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution or liquidation of an issuer, a security which is custodial property, and to the sale, lease, pledge or mortgage of any property by or to such an issuer, and to any other action by such an issuer. He may execute and deliver any and all instruments in writing which he deems advisable to carry out any of his powers as custodian.

(7) The custodian shall register each security which is custodial property and in registered form in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for ..... under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act." The custodian shall hold all money which is custodial property in an account with a broker, savings and loan association, or bank or in a credit union in the name of the custodian, followed, in substance, by the words: "as custodian for ..... under the Florida Gifts to Minors Act." The custodian shall keep all other custodial property separate and distinct from his own property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property.

(8) The custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property and keep them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years.

(9) A custodian has and holds as powers in trust, with respect to the custodial property, in addition to the rights and powers provided in this act, all the rights and powers which a guardian has with respect to property not held as custodial property.

(10) If the subject of the gift is a life insurance policy or annuity contract, the custodian shall have all the incidents of ownership in such policy or contract which he may hold as custodian, to the same extent as if he were the owner thereof, except that the designated beneficiary of any such policy or contract on the life of the minor shall be the minor's estate and the designated beneficiary of any such policy or contract on the life of a person other than the minor shall be the custodian as custodian for the minor for whom he is acting.

710.06 Custodian's expenses, compensation, bond and liabilities.—

(1) A custodian is entitled to reimbursement from the custodial property for his reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

(2) A custodian may act without compensation for his services.

(3) Unless he is a donor, a custodian may receive from the custodial property reasonable compensation for his services as directed by the donor when the gift is made.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this act, a custodian shall not be required to give a bond for the performance of his duties.

(5) A custodian is not liable for losses to the custodial property unless they result from his bad faith, intentional wrongdoing or gross negligence or from his failure to maintain the standard of prudence in investing the custodial property provided in this act.

History.—s. 5, ch. 57-53.

710.07 Exemption of third persons from liability.—

No issuer, transfer agent, bank, life insurance company, broker, savings and loan association, credit union, or other person acting on the instructions of or otherwise dealing with any person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian is responsible for determining whether the person designated by the purported donor or purporting to act as custodian has been duly designated or whether any purchase, sale or transfer to or by or any other act of any person purporting to act in the capacity of custodian, is in accordance with or authorized by this act, or is obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety under this act of any instrument or instructions executed or given by a person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian, or is bound to see to the application by any person purporting to act in the capacity of a custodian of any money or other property paid or delivered to him.

710.08 Resignation, death or removal of custodian; bond; designation of successor custodian.—

(1) Only an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor, or a trust company is eligible to become successor custodian. A custodian may designate his successor by executing and dating an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor. The instrument of designation may but need not contain the resignation of the custodian. If the custodian does not so designate his successor before he dies or becomes legally incapacitated and the minor has no guardian and has attained the age of 14 years, the minor may designate a successor custodian by executing an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor. A successor custodian has all the rights, powers, duties, and immunities of a custodian designated in a manner prescribed by this subsection.

(2) The designation of a successor custodian takes effect as to each item of the custodial property when the custodian resigns, dies or becomes legally incapacitated and the custodian or his legal representative:

(a) Causes the item, if it is a security and in registered form or a life insurance policy or annuity contract, to be registered with the issuing insurance company, in the case of a life insurance policy or annuity contract, in the name of the successor custodian followed, in substance, by the words: "As custodian for (name of minor) under the Florida Uniform Gifts to Minors Act"; or

(b) Delivers or causes to be delivered to the successor custodian any other item of the custodial property, together with the instrument of designation of the successor custodian or a true copy thereof and any additional instruments required for the transfer thereof to the successor custodian.

(3) A custodian who executes an instrument of designation of his successor containing the custodian's resignation shall promptly do all things within his power to put each item of the custodial property in the possession and control of the successor custodian named in the instrument. The legal representative of a custodian who dies or becomes legally incapacitated shall promptly do all things within his power to put each item of the custodial property in the possession and control of the successor custodian named in an instrument of designation executed by the custodian or, if none, by the minor, if he has no guardian and has attained the age of 14 years, or in the possession and control of the guardian of the minor if he has a guardian. If the custodian has executed more than one instrument of designation, his legal representative shall treat the instrument dated an earlier date as having been revoked by the instrument dated on a later date.

(4) If all persons designated as custodian or successor custodian by the donor, custodian, or any successor custodian are not eligible, die, or become legally incapacitated before the minor attains the age of 18 years, and if the minor has a guardian, the guardian of the minor shall be successor custodian. If the minor has no guardian and if no successor custodian who is eligible and has not died or become legally incapacitated has been or is designated, a donor, his legal representative, the legal representative of the custodian, or an adult member of the minor's family may petition the court for the designation of a successor custodian.

(5) A donor, the legal representative of a donor, a successor custodian, an adult member of the minor's family, a guardian of the minor, or the minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years, may petition the circuit court that, for cause shown in the petition, the custodian be removed and a successor custodian be designated or, in the alternative, that the custodian be required to give bond for the performance of his duties.

(6) Upon the filing of a petition as provided in this section, the circuit court shall grant an order, directed to such persons and returnable on such notice as the court may require, to show cause why the relief prayed for in the petition should not be granted and, in due course, grant such relief as the circuit court finds to be in the best interests of the minor.

710.09 Accounting by custodian.—

(1) The minor, if he has attained the age of 14 years, or the legal representative of the minor, an adult member of the minor's family, or a donor or his legal representative may petition the court for an accounting by the custodian or his legal representative.

(2) The court, in a proceeding under this act or otherwise, may require or permit the custodian or his legal representative to account and, if the custodian is removed, shall so require and order delivery of all custodial property to the successor custodian and the execution of all instruments required for the transfer thereof.

History.—s. 8, ch. 57-53.

710.10 Construction.—This act shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. This act shall not be construed as providing an exclusive method for making gifts to minors.

CHAPTER 712

MARKETABLE RECORD TITLES TO REAL PROPERTY

- 712.01 Definitions.
- 712.02 Marketable record title.
- 712.03 Exceptions to marketability.
- 712.04 Interests extinguished by marketable record title.
- 712.05 Effect of filing notice.
- 712.06 Contents of notice; recording and indexing.
- 712.07 Limitations of actions and recording acts.
- 712.08 Filing false claim.
- 712.09 Extension of 30-year period.
- 712.10 Law to be liberally construed.

712.01 Definitions.—As used in this law:

(1) The term "person" as used herein denotes singular or plural, natural or corporate, private or governmental, including the state and any political subdivision or agency thereof as the context for the use thereof requires or denotes.

(2) "Root of title" means any title transaction purporting to create or transfer the estate claimed by any person and which is the last title transaction to have been recorded at least 30 years prior to the time when marketability is being determined. The effective date of the root of title is the date on which it was recorded.

(3) "Title transaction" means any recorded instrument or court proceeding which affects title to any estate or interest in land.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-133; s. 11, ch. 65-420.

712.02 Marketable record title.—Any person having the legal capacity to own land in this state, who, alone or together with his predecessors in title, has been vested with any estate in land of record for 30 years or more, shall have a marketable record title to such estate in said land, which shall be free and clear of all claims except the matters set forth as exceptions to marketability in s. 712.03. A person shall have a marketable record title when the public records disclosed a record title transaction affecting the title to the land which has been of record for not less than 30 years purporting to create such estate either in:

- (1) The person claiming such estate; or
- (2) Some other person from whom, by one or more title transactions, such estate has passed to the person claiming such estate, with nothing appearing of record, in either case, purporting to divest such claimant of the estate claimed.

History.—s. 2, ch. 63-133.

712.03 Exceptions to marketability.—Such marketable record title shall not affect or extinguish the following rights:

- (1) Estates or interests, easements and use restrictions disclosed by and defects inherent in the muniments of title on which said estate is based beginning with the root of title; provided, however, that a general reference in any of such muniments to easements, use restrictions or other interests created prior to the root of title shall not be sufficient to preserve them unless specific identification by reference to book and page of record or by name of recorded plat be made therein to a recorded title transaction which imposed, transferred or continued such easement, use restrictions or other interests; subject, however, to the provisions of subsection (5).

(2) Estates, interests, claims, or charges preserved by the filing of a proper notice in accordance with the provisions hereof.

(3) Rights of any person in possession of the lands, so long as such person is in such possession.

(4) Estates, interests, claims, or charges arising out of a title transaction which has been recorded subsequent to the effective date of the root of title.

(5) Recorded or unrecorded easements or rights, interest or servitude in the nature of easements, rights-of-way and terminal facilities, including those of a public utility or of a governmental agency, so long as the same are used and the use of any part thereof shall except from the operation hereof the right to the entire use thereof. No notice need be filed in order to preserve the lien of any mortgage or deed of trust or any supplement thereto encumbering any such recorded or unrecorded easements, or rights, interest, or servitude in the nature of easements, rights-of-way, and terminal facilities. However, nothing herein shall be construed as preserving to the mortgagee or grantee of any such mortgage or deed of trust or any supplement thereto any greater rights than the rights of the mortgagor or grantor.

(6) Rights of any person in whose name the land is assessed on the county tax rolls for such period of time as the land is so assessed and which rights are preserved for a period of 3 years after the land is last assessed in such person's name.

(7) State title to lands beneath navigable waters acquired by virtue of sovereignty.

History.—s. 3, ch. 63-133; s. 12, ch. 65-420; s. 1, ch. 73-218; s. 1, ch. 78-288.

712.04 Interests extinguished by marketable record title.—Subject to the matters stated in s. 712.03, such marketable record title shall be free and clear of all estates, interests, claims or charges whatsoever, the existence of which depends upon any act, title transaction, event or omission that occurred prior to the effective date of the root of title. All such estates, interests, claims or charges, however denominated, whether such estates, interests, claims or charges are or appear to be held or asserted by a person sui juris or under a disability, whether such person is within or without the state, whether such person is natural or corporate, or is private or governmental, are hereby declared to be null and void, except that this chapter shall not be deemed to affect any right, title or interest of the United States, Florida or any of its officers, boards, commissions or other agencies reserved in the patent or deed by which the United States, Florida or any of its agencies parted with title.

712.05 Effect of filing notice.—

- (1) Any person claiming an interest in land may preserve and protect the same from extinguishment by the operation of this act by filing for record, during the 30-year period immediately following the effective date of the root of title, a notice, in writing, in accordance with the provisions hereof, which notice shall have the effect of so preserving such claim of right for a period of not longer than 30 years after filing the same unless again filed as required herein. No disability or lack of knowledge of any kind on the part of anyone shall delay the commencement of or suspend the running of said 30-year period. Such notice may be filed for record by the claimant or by any other person acting on behalf of any claimant who is:

- (a) Under a disability,
- (b) Unable to assert a claim on his behalf, or
- (c) One of a class, but whose identity cannot be established or is uncertain at the time of filing such notice of claim for record.

(2) It shall not be necessary for the owner of the marketable record title, as herein defined, to file a notice to protect his marketable record title.

History.—s. 5, ch. 63-133.

712.06 Contents of notice; recording and indexing.—

(1) To be effective, the notice above referred to shall contain:

(a) The name or description of the claimant and the name and particular post-office address of the person filing the claim.

(b) The name and post-office address of an owner, or the name and post-office address of the person in whose name said property is assessed on the last completed tax assessment roll of the county at the time of filing, who, for the purpose of such notice, shall be deemed to be an owner.

(c) A full and complete description of all land affected by such notice, which description shall be set forth in particular terms and not by general reference, but if said claim is founded upon a recorded instrument, then the description in such notice may be the same as that contained in such recorded instrument, provided the same shall be sufficient to identify the property.

(d) A statement of the claim showing the nature, description and extent of such claim, except that it shall not be necessary to show the amount of any claim for money or the terms of payment.

(e) If such claim is based upon an instrument of record, such instrument shall be sufficiently described to identify the same, including reference to the book and page in which the same is recorded.

(f) Such notice shall be acknowledged in the same manner as deeds are acknowledged for record.

(2) Such notice shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county or counties where the land described therein is situated, together with a true copy thereof. The clerk shall enter, record and index said notice in the same manner that deeds are entered, recorded and indexed, as though the claimant were the grantee in the deed and the purported owner were the grantor in a deed, and the clerk shall charge the same fees for recording thereof as are charged for recording deeds. In those counties where the circuit court clerk maintains a tract index, such notice shall also be indexed therein.

(3) The clerk of the circuit court shall, upon such filing, mail by registered or certified mail to the purported owner of said property, as stated in such notice, a copy thereof and shall enter on the original, before recording the same, a certificate showing such mailing. For preparing the certificate, the claimant shall pay to the clerk the service charge as prescribed in s. 28.24(9) and the necessary costs of mailing, in addition to the recording charges as prescribed in s. 28.24(16). If the notice names purported owners having more than one address, the person filing the same shall furnish a true copy for each of the several addresses stated, and the clerk shall send one such copy to the purported owners named at each respective address. Such certificate shall be sufficient if the same reads substantially as follows:

I hereby certify that I did on this ....., mail by registered (or certified) mail a copy of the foregoing notice to each of the following at the address stated:

(Clerk of the circuit court)
of .... County, Florida, By .....
(Deputy clerk)

(4) Failure of any purported owner to receive the mailed notice shall not affect the validity of the notice or vitiate the effect of the filing of such notice.

History.—s. 6, ch. 63-133; s. 5, ch. 77-354.

712.07 Limitations of actions and recording acts.—Nothing contained in this law shall be construed to extend the period for the bringing of an action or for the doing of any other act required under any statute of limitations or to affect the operation of any statute governing the effect of the recording or the failure to record any instrument affecting land. This law shall not vitiate any curative statute.

History.—s. 7, ch. 63-133.

712.08 Filing false claim.—No person shall use the privilege of filing notices hereunder for the purpose of asserting false or fictitious claims to land; and in any action relating thereto if the court shall find that any person has filed a false or fictitious claim, the court may award to the prevailing party all costs incurred by him in such action, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and in addition thereto may award to the prevailing party all damages that he may have sustained as a result of the filing of such notice of claim.

History.—s. 8, ch. 63-133.

712.09 Extension of 30-year period.—If the 30-year period for filing notice under s. 712.05 shall have expired prior to July 1, 1965, such period shall be extended to July 1, 1965.

History.—s. 9, ch. 63-133.

712.10 Law to be liberally construed.—This law shall be liberally construed to effect the legislative purpose of simplifying and facilitating land title transactions by allowing persons to rely on a record title as described in s. 712.02 subject only to such limitations as appear in s. 712.03.

History.—s. 10, ch. 63-133.

713.37 Rule of construction.

713.01 Definitions.—As used in this part:

(1) "Contract" means an agreement for improving real property, written or unwritten, express or implied, and includes extras or change-orders as herein defined.

(2) "Contractor" means a person other than a materialman or laborer who enters into a contract with the owner of real property for improving it, or who takes over from a contractor as above defined the entire remaining work under such contract.

(3) "Contract price" means the amount agreed upon by the contracting parties for performing all labor and services and furnishing all materials covered by their contract and shall be increased or diminished by the price of extras or change orders as herein defined, or by any amounts attributable to changes in the scope of the work or defects in workmanship or materials or any other breaches of the contract; but no penalty or liquidated damages between the owner and a contractor shall diminish the contract price as to any other lienor. If no price is agreed upon by the contracting parties, this term shall mean the value of all labor, services, or materials covered by their contract, with any increases and diminutions, as above provided. Allowance items are a part of the contract when accepted by the owner.

(4) "Direct contract" means a contract as herein defined between the owner and any other person.

(5) "Extras" or "change orders" means labor, services or materials for improving real property authorized by the owner and added to or deleted from labor, services or materials covered by a previous contract between the same parties.

(6) "Furnish materials" means supply materials which are incorporated in the improvement including normal wastage in construction operations; or specially fabricated materials for incorporation in the improvement; or supply materials used for the construction and not remaining in the improvement, subject to diminution by the salvage value of such materials; and includes supplying tools, appliances or machinery used on the particular improvement to the extent of the reasonable rental value for the period of actual use (not determinable by the contract for rental unless the owner is a party thereto), but does not include supplying handtools. The delivery of materials to the site of the improvement shall be prima facie evidence of incorporation of such materials in the improvement.

(7) "Improve" means build, erect, place, make, alter, remove, repair, or demolish any improvement over, upon, connected with, or beneath the surface of real property, or excavate any land, or furnish materials for any of these purposes, or perform any labor or services upon the improvements, including the furnishing of carpet or rugs or appliances that are permanently affixed to the real property; or perform any labor or services or furnish any materials in grading, seeding, sodding, or planting for landscaping purposes, including the furnishing of trees, shrubs, bushes, or plants that are planted on the real property, or in equipping any improvement with fixtures or permanent apparatus.

(8) "Improvement" means any building, structure, construction, demolition, excavation, landscaping, or any part thereof existing, built, erected, placed, made or done on land or other real property for its permanent benefit.

(9) "Laborer" means any person other than an architect, landscape architect, engineer, land surveyor and the like who, under properly authorized contract, personally performs on the site of the improvement labor or services for improving real property and does not furnish materials or labor service of others.

(10) "Lienor" means:

- (a) A contractor,
- (b) A subcontractor,
- (c) A subsubcontractor,
- (d) A laborer,

(e) A materialman who contracts with the owner, a contractor, a subcontractor, or a subsubcontractor, or

(f) A professional lienor under s. 713.03, as each is defined herein, and who has a lien or prospective lien upon real property under part I, and includes his successor in interest. No person shall have a lien under part I, except those specified in this subsection as they are defined in this section.

(11) "Materialman" means any person who furnishes materials under contract to the owner, contractor, subcontractor, or subsubcontractor on the site of the improvement or for direct delivery to the site of the improvement or for specially fabricated materials off the site of the improvement for the particular improvement, and who performs no labor in the installation thereof.

(12) "Owner" means a person who is the owner of any legal or equitable interest in real property, which interest can be sold by legal process, and who enters into a contract for the improvement of the real property. The term does not include any political subdivision, agency, or department of the state, a municipality, or other governmental entity.

(13) "Perform" or "furnish" when used in connection with the words "labor" or "services" or "materials" means performance or furnishing by the lienor or by another for him.

(14) "Real property" means the land that is improved and the improvements thereon, including fixtures, except any such property owned by the state, county, any municipality, school board, or governmental agency, commission or political subdivision.

(15) "Site of the improvement" means the real property which is being improved and on which labor or services are performed or materials furnished in furtherance of the operations of improving such real property. In cases of removal, without demolition and under contract, of an improvement from one lot, parcel or tract of land to another, this term means the real property to which the improvement is removed.

(16) "Subcontractor" means a person other than a materialman or laborer who enters into a contract with a contractor for the performance of any part of such contractor's contract.

(17) "Subsubcontractor" means a person other than a materialman or laborer who enters into a contract with a subcontractor for the performance of any part of such subcontractor's contract.

(18) "Commencement of the improvement" means the time of filing for record of the notice of commencement provided in s. 713.13.

(19) "Lienors giving notice" means any lienor, except a contractor or subcontractor, who has duly and timely served a notice to the owner and, if required, to the contractor, as provided in s. 713.06(2).

(20) "Notice by lienor" means the notice to owner served as provided in s. 713.06(2).

(21) "Notice of commencement" means the notice recorded as provided in s. 713.13 and the giving of notice shall be effective upon the filing in the clerk's office.

(22) "Claim of lien" means the claim recorded as provided in s. 713.08.

(23) "Clerk's office" means the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the real property is located.

(24) "Post" or "posting" means placing the document referred to on the site of the improvement in a conspicuous place on the front of said site and such documents shall be protected from the weather.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 1, ch. 77-353.

Note.—Former s. 84.011.

713.02 Types of lienors and exemptions.—

(1) Persons performing the services described in s. 713.03 shall have rights to a lien on real property as provided in that section.

(2) Persons performing services or furnishing materials for subdivision improvements as described in s. 713.04 shall have rights to a lien on real property as provided in that section.

(3) Persons who are in privity with an owner and who perform labor or services or furnish materials constituting an improvement or part thereof shall have rights to a lien on real property as provided in s. 713.05.

(4) Persons who are not in privity with an owner and who perform labor or services or furnish materials constituting a part of an improvement under the direct contract of another person shall have rights to a lien on real property as provided in s. 713.06.

(5) Any improvement for which the contract price is $2,500 or less shall be exempt from all other provisions of this part I except the provisions of s. 713.05.

(6) In any direct contract the owner may require the contractor to furnish a payment bond as provided in s. 713.23, and upon receipt of the bond the owner shall be exempt from the other provisions of part I as to that direct contract, but this does not exempt the owner from the lien of the contractor no furnishes the bond. The owner may post said bond or a copy thereof. If the bond is provided, it shall secure all liens subsequently accruing under part I as provided in s. 713.23.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 1, ch. 67-210; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 7, ch. 69-97; ss. 2, 17, ch. 77-353; s. 1, ch. 78-397.

Note.—Former s. 84.022.

713.03 Liens for professional services.—

(1) Any person who performs services as architect, landscape architect, engineer or land surveyor, subject to compliance with and the limitations imposed by this part, shall have a lien on the real property improved for any money that shall be owing to him for his services in preparing plans, specifications or drawings used in connection with improving the real property or for his services in supervising any portion of the work of improving the real property, rendered in accordance with his contract and with the direct contract.

(2) Any architect, landscape architect, engineer or land surveyor who has a direct contract and who in the practice of his profession shall perform services, by himself or others, in connection with a specific parcel of real property and subject to said compliances and limitations, shall have a lien upon such real property for the money owing to him for his professional services, regardless of whether such real property is actually improved.

(3) No liens under this section shall be acquired until a claim of lien is recorded. No lienor under this section shall be required to serve a notice to owner as provided in s. 713.06(2) or an affidavit concerning unpaid lienors as provided in s. 713.06(3).

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 1, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 3, ch. 77-353.

Note.—Former s. 84.031.

713.04 Subdivision improvements.—Any lienor who, regardless of whether in privity, performs services or furnishes material to real property for the purpose of making it suitable as the site for the construction of an improvement or improvements shall be entitled to a lien on the real property for any money that shall be owing to him for his services or materials. The work of making real property suitable as the site of an improvement shall include but shall not be limited to the grading, leveling, excavating and filling of land (including the furnishing of fill soil), the grading and paving of streets, curbs and sidewalks, the construction of ditches and other area drainage facilities, and the laying of pipes and conduits for water, gas, electric, sewage and drainage purposes, and construction of canals and shall also include the altering, repairing and redoing of all said things. When such services or materials are placed on land dedicated to the public use and are furnished under contract with the owner of the abutting land, the cost of such services and materials, if unpaid, may be the basis for a lien upon said abutting land. When such services or materials are placed upon land under contract with the owner of such land who subsequently dedicates portions of such lands to public use, the person furnishing the services or materials placed upon the dedicated land shall be entitled to a lien upon the land abutting the dedicated land for the unpaid cost of the services and materials placed upon the dedicated land, or in the case of improvements which serve or benefit real property which is divided by such improvements, to a lien upon each abutting portion for the equitable portion of the full amount due and owing. If the portion of the cost to be borne by each parcel of the lands subject to the same lien is not specified in the contract it shall be prorated equitably among the parcels served or benefited. No lien under this section shall be acquired until a claim of lien is recorded.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 2, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.041.

713.05 Liens of persons in privity.—A materialman or laborer, either of whom is in privity with the owner, or a contractor who complies with the provisions of part I and is subject to the limitations thereof, shall have a lien on the real property improved for any money that is owed to him for labor, services, materials, or other items required by, or furnished in accordance with, the direct contract. No lien under this section shall be acquired until a claim of lien is recorded. A lienor who, as a subcontractor, subsubcontractor, laborer, or materialman not in privity with the owner, commences to furnish labor, services, or material to an improvement and who thereafter becomes in privity with the owner shall have a lien for any money that is owed to him for the labor, services, or materials furnished after he becomes in privity with the owner. A lienor may record one claim of lien to cover his work done both in privity with the owner and not in privity with the owner. No lienor under this section shall be required to serve a notice to owner as provided in s. 713.06(2). A lienor, except a laborer or materialman, who is in privity with the owner and claims a lien under this section shall furnish the contractor's affidavit required in s. 713.06(3)(d). A contractor may claim a lien for any labor, services, or materials furnished by another lienor for which he is obligated to pay the lienor, regardless of the right of the lienor to claim a lien, but if the lienor claims a valid lien, the contractor shall not recover the amount of the lien recovered by the lienor, and the amount of the contractor's claim of lien may be reduced accordingly by court order. No person shall have a lien under this section except those lienors specified in it, as their designations are defined in s. 713.01.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 3, ch. 65-456; s. 2, ch. 67-210; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 4, ch. 77-353.

713.06 Liens of persons not in privity; proper payments.—

(1) A materialman or laborer, either of whom is not in privity with the owner, or a subcontractor or subsubcontractor who complies with the provisions of part I and is subject to the limitations thereof, shall have a lien on the real property improved for any money that is owed to him for labor, services, or materials furnished in accordance with his contract and with the direct contract. The total amount of all liens allowed under part I for furnishing labor, services, or material covered by any certain direct contract shall not exceed the amount of the contract price fixed by the direct contract except as provided in subsection (3). No person shall have a lien under this section except those lienors specified in it, as their designations are defined in s. 713.01.

(2)(a) All lienors under this section, except laborers, as a prerequisite to perfecting a lien under this chapter and recording a claim of lien, shall be required to serve a notice on the owner setting forth the lienor's name and address, a description sufficient for identification of the real property, and the nature of the services or materials furnished or to be furnished. A subcontractor or a materialman to a subcontractor shall serve a copy of the notice on the contractor as a prerequisite to perfecting a lien under this chapter and recording a claim of lien. A materialman to a subcontractor shall also serve a copy of the notice to owner on the subcontractor of the subcontractor as a prerequisite to perfecting a lien under this chapter and recording a claim of lien. The notice must be served before commencing, or not later than 45 days from commencing, to furnish his services or materials, but, in any event, before the date of furnishing the affidavit under subparagraph (3)(d)1. or abandonment, whichever shall occur first. The notice must be served regardless of the method of payments by the owner, whether proper or improper, and shall not give to the lienor serving the notice any priority over other lienors in the same category, and the failure to serve the notice shall be a complete defense to payment by any person, except a person with whom the lienor failing to serve the notice has a contract. The serving of the notice shall not dispense with recording the claim of lien. The notice shall not be a lien, cloud, or encumbrance on the real property nor actual nor constructive notice of any of them.

(b) If the owner, in his notice of commencement, shall have designated a person in addition to himself to receive a copy of such lienor's notice, as provided in s. 713.13(1)(g), the lienor shall mail a copy of his notice to the person so designated. Failure by the lienor to mail such copy, however, shall not invalidate an otherwise valid lien.

(c) The notice may be in substantially the following form:

NOTICE TO OWNER

To (Owner's name and address)

The undersigned hereby informs you that he has furnished or is furnishing services or materials as follows:

(General description of services or materials) for the improvement of the real property identified as (property description) under an order given by.....

Florida law prescribes the serving of this notice and restricts your right to make payments under your contract in accordance with s. 713.06, Florida Statutes.

Copies to: (Lienor's signature and address)

(3) The owner may make proper payments on the direct contract as to lienors under this section, in the following manner:

(a) The owner shall not pay any money on account of a direct contract prior to recording of the notice provided in s. 713.13, and any amount so paid shall be held improperly paid. If the description of the property in the notice prescribed by s. 713.13 is incorrect and the error adversely affects any lienor, payments made on the direct contract shall be held improperly paid to that lienor; but this does not apply to clerical errors when the description listed covers the property where the improvements are.

(b) The owner at any time after recording the notice provided in s. 713.13, may pay to any laborers the whole or any part of the amounts that shall then be due and payable to them respectively for labor or services performed by them and covered by the direct contract, and shall deduct the same from the balance due the contractor under a direct contract.

(c) When any payment becomes due to the contractor on the direct contract, except the final payment:

1. The owner shall pay or cause to be paid, within the limitations imposed by subparagraph 2., the sum then due to each lienor, giving notice prior to the time of the payment. The owner may require (and in such event, the contractor shall furnish as a prerequisite to requiring payment to himself) an affidavit as prescribed in subparagraph (d)1., on any payment made, or to be made, on a direct contract, but the furnishing of the affidavit shall not relieve the owner of his responsibility to pay or cause to be paid all lienors giving notice. The owner shall be under no obligation to any lienor, except laborers, from whom he has not received a notice to owner at the time of making a payment.

2. When the payment due is insufficient to pay all bills of lienors giving notice, the owner shall prorate the amount then due under the direct contract among the lienors giving notice pro rata in the manner prescribed in subsection (4). Lienors receiving money shall execute partial releases as provided in s. 713.20(2), to the extent of the payment received.

3. If any affidavit permitted hereunder recites any outstanding bills for labor, services, or materials, the owner may pay the bills in full direct to the person or firm to whom they are due if the balance due on the direct contract at the time the affidavit is given is sufficient to pay the bills and shall deduct the amounts so paid from the balance of payment due the contractor. This subparagraph shall not create any obligation of the owner to pay any person who is not a lienor giving notice.

4. No person furnishing labor or material, or both, who is required to serve a notice under paragraph (2)(a), and who did not serve the notice and whose time for service has expired shall be entitled to be paid by the owner because he is listed in an affidavit furnished by the contractor under subparagraph (c)1.

(d) When the final payment under a direct contract becomes due the contractor:

1. The contractor shall give to the owner an affidavit stating, if that be the fact, that all lienors under his direct contract have been paid in full or, if the fact be otherwise, showing the name of each lienor who has not been paid in full and the amount due or to become due each for labor, services, or materials furnished. The contractor shall have no lien or right of action against the owner for labor, services, or materials furnished under the direct contract while in default for not giving the owner the affidavit. The contractor shall execute the affidavit and deliver it to the owner at least 5 days before instituting an action as a prerequisite to the institution of any action to enforce his lien under this chapter, even if the final payment has not become due because the contract is terminated for a reason other than completion and regardless of whether the contractor has any lienors working under him or not.

2. If the contractor's affidavit required in this subsection recites any outstanding bills for labor, services, or materials, the owner may, after giving the contractor at least 10 days' written notice, pay such bills in full direct to the person or firm to whom they are due, if the balance due on a direct contract at the time the affidavit is given is sufficient to pay them and lienors giving notice, and shall deduct the amounts so paid from the balance due the contractor. Lienors listed in said affidavit not giving notice, whose 45-day notice time has not expired shall be paid in full or pro rata, as appropriate, from any balance then remaining due the contractor, but no lienor whose notice time has expired shall be paid by the owner or by any other person except the person with whom that lienor has a contract.

3. If the balance due is not sufficient to pay in full all lienors listed in the affidavit and entitled to payment from the owner under this part and other lienors giving notice, the owner shall pay no money to anyone until such time as the contractor has furnished him with the difference; however, if the contractor fails to furnish the difference within 10 days from delivery of the affidavit or notice from the owner to the contractor to furnish the affidavit, the owner shall determine the amount due each lienor and shall disburse to them the amounts due from him on a direct contract in accordance with the procedure established by subsection (4).

4. The owner shall have the right to rely on the contractor's affidavit given under this paragraph in making the final payment, unless there are lienors giving notice who are not listed in the affidavit. If there are lienors giving notice who are not so listed, the owner may pay such lienors and any persons listed in the affidavit that are entitled to be paid by the owner under subparagraph (d)2. and shall thereupon be discharged of any further responsibility under the direct contract, except for any balance that may be due to the contractor.

5. The owner shall retain the final payment due under the direct contract that shall not be disbursed until the contractor's affidavit under subparagraph (d)1. has been furnished to the owner.

6. When final payment has become due to the contractor and the owner fails to withhold as required by subparagraph (d)5., the property improved shall be subject to the full amount of all valid liens of which the owner has notice at the time the contractor furnishes his affidavit.

(e) If the improvement is abandoned before completion, the owner shall determine the amount due each lienor giving notice and shall pay the same in full or prorate in the same manner as provided in subsection (4).

(f) No contractor shall have any right to require the owner to pay any money to him under a direct contract if such money cannot be properly paid by the owner to the contractor in accordance with this section.

(g) Except with written consent of the contractor, before paying any money directly to any lienor except the contractor or any laborer, the owner shall give the contractor at least 10 days' written notice of his intention to do so, and the amount he proposes to pay each lienor.

(h) When the owner has properly retained all sums required in this section to be retained but has otherwise made improper payments, the owner's real property shall be liable to all laborers, subcontractors, subsubcontractors, and materialmen complying with this chapter only to the extent of the retentions and the improper payments, notwithstanding the other provisions of this subsection. Any money paid by the owner on a direct contract, the payment of which is proved to have caused no detriment to any certain lienor, shall be held properly paid as to the lienor, and if any of the money shall be held not properly paid as to any other lienors, the entire benefit of its being held not properly paid as to them shall go to the lienors.

(4)(a) In determining the amounts for which liens between lienors claiming under a direct contract shall be paid by the owner or allowed by the court within the total amount fixed by the direct contract and under the provisions of this section, the owner or court shall pay or allow such liens in the following order:

1. Liens of all laborers.
2. Liens of all persons other than the contractor.
3. Lien of the contractor.

(b) Should the total amount for which liens under such direct contract may be allowed be less than the total amount of liens under such contract in all classes above mentioned, all liens in a class shall be allowed for their full amounts before any liens shall be allowed to any subsequent class. Should the amount applicable to the liens of any single class be insufficient to permit all liens within that class to be allowed for their full amounts, each lien shall be allowed for its pro rata share of the total amount applicable to liens of that class; but if the same labor, services, or materials shall be covered by liens of more than one class, such labor, services, or materials shall be allowed only in the earliest class by which they shall be covered; and also if the same labor, services, or materials shall be covered by liens of two or more lienors of the same class, such labor, services or materials shall be allowed only in the lien of the lienor farthest removed from the contractor. This section shall not be construed to affect the priority of liens derived under separate direct contracts.

713.07 Priority of liens.—

(1) Liens under ss. 713.03 and 713.04 shall attach at the time of recordation of the claim of lien and shall take priority as of that time.

(2) Liens under ss. 713.05 and 713.06 shall attach and take priority as of the time of recordation of the notice of commencement, but in the event a notice of commencement is not filed, then such liens shall attach and take priority as of the time the claim of lien is recorded.

(3) All such liens shall have priority over any conveyance, encumbrance or demand not recorded against the real property prior to the time such lien attached as provided herein, but any conveyance, encumbrance or demand recorded prior to the time such lien attaches and any proceeds thereof, regardless of when disbursed, shall have priority over such liens.

(4) If construction ceases before completion and the owner desires to recommence construction, he may pay all lienors in full or pro rata in accordance with s. 713.06(4) prior to recommencement in which event all liens for the recommenced construction shall take priority from such recommencement; or the owner may record an affidavit in the clerk's office stating his intention to recommence construction and that all lienors giving notice have been paid in full except those listed therein as not having been so paid in which event 30 days after such recording, the rights of any person acquiring any interest, lien or encumbrance on said property or of any lienor on the recommenced construction shall be paramount to any lien on the prior construction unless such prior lienor records a claim of lien within said 30-day period. A copy of said affidavit shall be served on each lienor named therein. Before recommencing, the owner shall record and post a notice of commencement for the recommenced construction, as provided in s. 713.13.

713.08 Claim of lien.—

(1) For the purpose of perfecting his lien under part I, every lienor, including laborers and persons in privity, shall record a claim of lien which shall state:

(a) The name of the lienor and the address where notices or process under this part I may be served on the lienor.

(b) The name of the person with whom the lienor contracted or by whom he was employed.

(c) The labor, services or materials furnished and the contract price or value thereof. Materials specially fabricated at a place other than the site of the improvement for incorporation in the improvement but not so incorporated and the contract price or value thereof shall be separately stated in the claim of lien.

(d) A description of the real property sufficient for identification.

(e) The name of the owner.

(f) The time when the first and the last item of labor or service or materials was furnished.

(g) The amount unpaid the lienor for such labor or services or materials.

(h) If the lien is claimed by a person not in privity with the owner, the date and method of service of the notice to owner. If the lien is claimed by a person not in privity with the contractor or subcontractor, the date and method of service of the copy of the notice on the contractor or subcontractor.

(2) The claim of lien shall be signed and verified by the lienor or his agent acquainted with the facts stated therein.

(3) Such claim of lien shall be sufficient if it is in substantially the following form:

CLAIM OF LIEN

State of .....

County of .....

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared ....., who, being duly sworn, says that he is (the lienor herein) (the agent) (attorney) of the lienor herein ..... whose address is ....., and that in pursuance of a contract with ....., lienor furnished labor, services or materials consisting of ..... on the following described real property in ..... County, Florida: owned by ..... of a total value of $....., of which there remains unpaid $..... and furnished the first of the same on ....., 19 ....., and the last of the same on ....., 19 ....., and (if the lien is claimed by one not in privity with the owner) that the lienor served his notice to owner on ....., 19....., by .....

Sworn to and subscribed before me this ..... day of ....., 19.....

..... (Notary Public).....

My commission expires: .....

(4)(a) The omission of any of the foregoing details or errors in such claim of lien shall not, within the discretion of the trial court, prevent the enforcement of such lien as against one who has not been adversely affected by such omission or error.

(b) Any claim of lien recorded as provided in this part I may be amended at any time during the period allowed for recording such claim of lien, provided, that such amendment shall not cause any person to suffer any detriment by having acted in good faith in reliance upon such claim of lien as originally recorded. Any amendment of the claim of lien shall be recorded in the same manner as is provided for recording the original claim of lien.

(c) Failure to serve any claim of lien in the manner provided in s. 713.18 before recording or within 15 days after recording shall render the claim of lien voidable to the extent that the failure or delay is shown to have been prejudicial to any person entitled to rely on the service.

(5) The claim of lien may be recorded at any time during the progress of the work or thereafter but not later than 90 days after the final furnishing of the labor or services or materials by the lienor; provided if the original contractor defaults or the contract is terminated under s. 713.07(4), no claim for a lien attaching prior to such default shall be recorded after 90 days from the date of such default or 90 days after the final performance of labor or services or furnishing of materials, whichever occurs first. The claim of lien shall be recorded in the clerk's office. If such real property is situated in two or more counties the claim of lien shall be recorded in the clerk's office in each of such counties. The recording of the claim of lien shall be constructive notice to all persons of the contents and effect of such claim. The validity of the lien and the right to record a claim therefor shall not be affected by the insolvency, bankruptcy or death of the owner before the claim of lien is recorded.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 7, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 6, ch. 77-353.
Note.—Former s. 84.081.

713.09 When single claim of lien sufficient.—

(1) A lienor shall be required to record only one claim of lien covering his entire demand against such real property where the amount demanded is for labor or services or materials furnished for more than one improvement on a single lot, parcel, or tract of land, or for a single improvement on contiguous or adjacent lots, parcels, or tracts of land, or for more than one improvement to be operated as a single plant but located on separate lots, parcels, or tracts of land, or for more than one improvement to be operated as separate units on separate lots, parcels, or tracts of land but improved in one continuous building operation, such as, but not limited to, a housing or multiple unit dwelling project, or a multiple separate unit development, and made or to be made in each case under the same direct contract. The claim of lien shall then be applicable to such lots, parcels or tracts of land and the improvements thereon included therein but not previously released in writing, and proof of delivery of materials at the order of the purchaser to any of such lots, parcels or tracts of land shall be prima facie sufficient to support a lien on any or all of such lots, parcels or tracts of land so improved.

(2) In the event the project consists of six or more improvements or one improvement costing more than $50,000, and delivery is to a place, other than the site of improvement, designated by the purchaser, such as, but not limited to, a warehouse, concentration point, cutting or fabricating plant, of materials ordered by the purchaser to be used on one or more of such improvements, there shall be served upon the owner a notice, signed and acknowledged by both the seller and purchaser, substantially as follows:

NOTICE OF DELIVERY

Notice is hereby given that materials having a value of $.....have been delivered by the undersigned vendor to .....(purchaser)..... at .....(address of delivery)....., said materials to be used for construction of improvements upon the following described property situated in ..... County, Florida, to wit:

.....(Vendor).....

.....(Purchaser).....

The service of said notice shall not create a lien, but shall be proof of delivery of the materials referred to in said notice sufficient to support a lien therefor on any or all of such lots, parcels or tracts of land described in said notice; provided, however, that no lien shall attach to any one or more of such lots, parcels or tracts of land by lienors subject thereto until compliance with s. 713.06(2), when required, and s. 713.08, and provided further, that no lien shall attach to any one or more of such lots, parcels or tracts of land previously released in writing or upon which the improvement has been completed for a period of 90 days.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 8, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.091.

713.10 Extent of liens.—Except as provided in s. 713.12, liens under part I of this chapter shall extend to, and only to, the right, title and interest of the person who contracts for the improvement as such right, title and interest exists at the commencement of the improvement or is thereafter acquired in the real property. When an improvement is made by a lessee in accordance with an agreement between such lessee and his lessor, liens shall extend also to the interest of such lessor. In the absence of fraud on the part of the lessor, the interest of the lessor shall not be subject to liens for improvements made by the lessee when the lease is recorded in the clerk's office and the terms of the lease expressly prohibit such liability.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.101.

713.11 Liens for improving land in which the contracting party has no interest.—When the person contracting for improving real property has no interest as owner in the land, no lien shall attach to the land, except as provided in s. 713.12, but if removal of such improvement from the land is practicable, the lien of a lienor shall attach to the improvement on which he has performed labor or services or for which he has furnished materials. The court, in the enforcement of such lien, may order such improvement to be separately sold and the purchaser may remove it within such reasonable time as the court may fix. The purchase price for such improvement shall be paid into court. The owner of the land upon which the improvement was made may demand that the land be restored substantially to its condition before the improvement was commenced, in which case the court shall order its restoration and the reasonable charge therefor shall be first paid out of such purchase price and the remainder shall be paid to lienors and other encumbrancers in accordance with their respective rights.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.111.

713.12 Liens for improving real property under contract with husband or wife on property of the other or of both.—When the contract for improving real property is made with a husband or wife who is not separated and living apart from his or her spouse and the property is owned by the other or by both, the spouse who contracts shall be deemed to be the agent of the other to the extent of subjecting the right, title, or interest of the other in said property to liens under part I of this chapter unless such other shall, within 10 days after learning of such contract, give the contractor and record in the clerk's office, notice of his or her objection thereto.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

713.13 Notice of commencement.

(1) An owner or his authorized agent before actually commencing to improve any real property, or recommencing completion of any improvement after default or abandonment, whether or not a project has a payment bond complying with s. 713.23, shall record a notice of commencement in the clerk's office and forthwith post a certified copy thereof containing the following information:

(a) A description sufficient for identification of the real property to be improved. The description should include the legal description of the property and also should include the street address of the property if available or, if there is no street address available, such additional information as will describe the physical location of the real property to be improved.

(b) A general description of the improvement.

(c) The name and address of the owner as defined in s. 713.01, his interest in the site of the improvement, and the name and address of the fee simple title holder, if other than such owner.

(d) The name and address of the contractor.

(e) The name and address of the surety on the payment bond under s. 713.23, if any, and the amount of such bond.

(f) The name and address of any person making a loan for the construction of the improvements.

(g) The name and address within the state of a person other than himself who may be designated by the owner as the person upon whom notices or other documents may be served under part I of this chapter, and service upon the person so designated shall constitute service upon the owner.

(h) The owner, at his option, may designate a person in addition to himself to receive a copy of the lienor's notice as provided in s. 713.06(2)(b), and if he does so, the name and address of such person shall be included in the notice of commencement.

(2) If the improvement described in said notice is not actually commenced within 30 days after the recording thereof, such notice shall be void and of no further effect.

(3) Neither the recording of a notice of commencement nor the posting of a copy thereof shall constitute a lien, cloud or encumbrance on real property, nor actual nor constructive notice of any of the same.

(4) This section does not apply to an owner who is constructing improvements described in s. 713.04.

(5) Unless otherwise provided in the notice of commencement or a new or amended notice of commencement, any notice of commencement heretofore or hereafter recorded shall not be effective as to any person acquiring title or any interest in real property from the owner or under him after 1 year from the date of recording the notice of commencement.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 9, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 14, ch. 77-353.
Note.—Former s. 84.131.

713.135 Notice of commencement and applicability of mechanic's lien.—

(1) When any person applies for a building permit, the authority issuing such permit shall:

(a) Print on the face of each application and permit in no less than 18-point, capitalized, boldface type: "FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE MECHANICS' LIEN LAW CAN RESULT IN THE PROPERTY OWNER PAYING TWICE FOR BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS."

(b) Provide the applicant with a printed statement stating that the right, title, and interest of the person who has contracted for the improvement may be subject to attachment under the mechanics' lien law. The Division of Consumer Services of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall furnish, for distribution, the statement described in this paragraph, and said statement shall be a summary of the mechanics' lien law. However, failure by the authorities to provide the summary shall not subject the issuing authority to liability.

(c) Inform each applicant who is not the person whose right, title, and interest is subject to attachment that, as a condition to the issuance of a building permit, the applicant shall promise in good faith that the statement shall be delivered to the person whose property is subject to attachment.

(d) When required to do so by ordinance or resolution of the governing body, furnish to the applicant two or more copies of a form of notice of commencement conforming with the provisions of s. 713.13, together with a concise printed statement explaining the provisions of the Florida Mechanics' Lien Law, part I of this chapter, relating to the recording and to the posting of copies of notices of commencement and encouraging the owner to record a notice of commencement and post a copy thereof in accordance with the provisions of s. 713.13.

(2) No issuing authority in subsection (1) shall be held liable in any civil action for the failure of the person whose property is subject to attachment to receive or to be delivered a printed statement stating that the right, title, and interest of the person who has contracted for the improvement may be subject to attachment under the mechanics' lien law.

(3) The several boards of county commissioners, municipal councils, or other similar bodies may by ordinance or resolution establish reasonable fees for furnishing copies of the forms and the printed statement provided in paragraph (1)(d) in an amount not to exceed $2 to be paid by the applicant for each permit in addition to all other costs of the permit; however, no forms or statement need be furnished nor shall such additional fee be obtained from applicants for permits in those cases where the owner of a legal or equitable interest (including that of ownership of stock of a corporate landowner) of the real property to be improved is engaged in the business of construction of buildings for sale to others and intends to make the improvements authorized by the permit on the property and upon completion will offer the improved real property for sale.

(4) This section shall apply to every municipality and county in the state which now or hereafter may have a system of issuing building permits for the construction of improvements or for the alteration or repair of improvements on or to real property located within the geographic limits of the issuing authority.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 67-185; s. 2, ch. 78-397.

713.14 Application of money to materials account.—

(1) Any owner, contractor, subcontractor, or sub-subcontractor, in making any payment under, or properly applicable to, any contract to one with whom he has a running account, or with whom he has more than one contract, or to whom he is otherwise indebted, shall designate the contract under which the payment is made or the items of account to which it is to be applied. If he shall fail to do so or shall make a false designation, he shall be liable to anyone suffering a loss in consequence for the amount of the loss.

(2) When a payment for materials is made to a subcontractor, sub-subcontractor, or materialman, the subcontractor, sub-subcontractor, or materialman shall demand of the person making the payment a designation of the account and the items of account to which the payment is to apply. In any case in which a lien is claimed for materials furnished by a subcontractor, subsubcontractor, or materialman, it shall be a complete defense to the claim to prove that a payment made by the owner to the contractor for the materials has been paid over to the subcontractor, subsubcontractor, or materialman, and to prove also that when such payment was received by such subcontractor, subsubcontractor, or materialman he did not demand a designation of the account and of the items of account to which the payment was to be applied or, receiving a designation of its application to the account for the materials, he failed to apply the payment in accordance therewith. This subsection shall be deemed to be cumulative to any other defenses available to the person paying the materialman, subcontractor, or subsubcontractor.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 7, ch. 77-353.

Note.—Former s. 84.141.

713.15 Repossession of materials not used.—

If for any reason the completion of an improvement is abandoned or though the improvement is completed, materials delivered are not used therefor, a person who has delivered materials for the improvement which have not been incorporated therein and for which he has not received payment may peaceably repossess and remove such materials or replevy the same and thereupon he shall have no lien on the real property or improvements and no right against any persons for the price thereof, but shall have the same rights in regard to the materials as if he had never parted with their possession. This right to repossess and remove or replevy the materials shall not be affected by their sale, encumbrance, attachment, or transfer from the site of improvement, except that if the materials have been so transferred, the right to repossess or replevy them shall not be effective as against a purchaser or encumbrancer thereof in good faith whose interest therein is acquired after such transfer from the site of the improvement or as against a creditor attaching after such transfer. The right of repossession and removal given by this section shall extend only to materials whose purchase price does not exceed the amount remaining due to the person repossessing but where materials have been partly paid for, the person delivering them may repossess them as allowed in this section on refunding the part of the purchase price which has been paid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.151.

713.16 Copy of contract and statements of account may be demanded.—

(1) A copy of the contract of a lienor or owner and a statement of the amount due or to become due if fixed or ascertainable thereon shall be furnished by any party thereto, upon written demand of an owner or a lienor contracting with or employed by the other party to such contract. If the owner or lienor refuses or neglects to furnish such copy of the contract or such statement, or willfully and falsely states the amount due or to become due if fixed or ascertainable under such contract, any person who suffers any detriment thereby shall have a cause of action against the person refusing or neglecting to furnish the same or willfully and falsely stating the amount due or to become due for his damages sustained thereby. The information contained in such copy or statement furnished pursuant to such written demand shall be binding upon the owner or lienor furnishing it unless actual notice of any modification is given to the person demanding the copy or statement before such person acts in good faith in reliance on it. The person demanding such documents shall be required to pay for the reproduction thereof and if such person fails or refuses to do so, he shall be entitled only to inspect such documents at reasonable times and places.

(2) At the time any payment is to be made by the owner to the contractor or directly to a lienor, the owner may in writing demand of any lienor a written statement under oath of his account showing the nature of the labor or services performed and to be performed, the materials furnished and to be furnished, the amount paid on account to date, the amount due, and the amount to become due. Failure or refusal to furnish the statement within 30 days after the demand, or furnishing of a false or fraudulent statement, shall deprive the person so failing or refusing to furnish such statement of his lien.

Note.—Former s. 84.161.

713.17 Materials not attachable for debts of purchaser.—Whenever materials have been furnished to improve real property and payment therefor has not been made or waived, such materials shall not be subject to attachment, execution, or other legal process to enforce any debt due by the purchaser of such materials, except a debt due for the purchase price thereof, so long as in good faith the same are about to be applied to improve the real property; but if the owner has made payment for materials furnished and the materialman has not received payment therefor, such materials shall not be subject to attachment, execution, or other legal process to enforce the debt due for the purchase price.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.171.

713.18 Manner of serving notices, etc.—

(1) Service of notices, claims of lien, affidavits, assignments and other instruments permitted or required hereunder, or copies thereof when so permitted or required, unless otherwise specifically provided in this part I, shall be made by one of the following methods:

(a) By serving in the manner provided by law for the service of process.

(b) By actual delivery to the person to be served; or, if a partnership, to one of the partners; or, if a corporation, to an officer, director, managing agent or business agent thereof.

(c) By mailing the same, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail to the person to be served at his last known address and evidence of delivery.

(d) If none of the foregoing can be accomplished, by posting on the premises.

(2) If the real property is owned by more than one person, a lienor may serve any notices or other papers under part I of this chapter on any one of such owners and this shall be deemed notice to all owners.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 11, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.181.

713.19 Assignment of lien.—A lien or prospective lien, except that of a laborer, may be assigned by the lienor at any time before its discharge. The assignment may be recorded in the clerk's office.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 12, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.191.

713.20 Waiver or release of liens.—

(1) The acceptance by the lienor of an unsecured note for all or any part of the amount of his demand shall not constitute a waiver of his lien therefor unless expressly so agreed in writing, nor shall it in any way affect the period for filing the notice under s. 713.06(2), or the claim of lien under s. 713.08.

(2) Any person other than a laborer may waive his lien under this chapter at any time, either before or after furnishing services or materials. A laborer may waive his lien only to the extent of labor theretofore performed.

(3) Any person may at any time waive, release or satisfy any part of his lien under part I of this chapter, either as to the amount due for labor performed, or for services or materials furnished or to be furnished, or as to any part or parcel of the real property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.202.

713.21 Discharge of lien.—A lien properly perfected under this chapter may be discharged by any of the following methods:

(1) By entering satisfaction of the lien upon the margin of the record thereof in the clerk's office when not otherwise prohibited by law. This satisfaction shall be signed by the lienor, his agent or attorney and attested by said clerk. Any person who executes a claim of lien shall have authority to execute a satisfaction in the absence of actual notice of lack of authority to any person relying on the same.

(2) By the satisfaction of the lienor, duly acknowledged and recorded in the clerk's office. Any person who executes a claim of lien shall have authority to execute a satisfaction in the absence of actual notice of lack of authority to any person relying on the same.

(3) By failure to begin an action to enforce the lien within the time prescribed in this part I.

(4) By an order of the circuit court of the county where the property is located, as provided in this subsection. Upon filing a complaint therefor by any interested party the clerk shall issue a summons to the lienor to show cause within 20 days why his lien should not be enforced by action or vacated and canceled of record. Upon failure of the lienor to show cause why his lien should not be enforced or his failure to commence such action before the return date of the summons the court shall forthwith order cancellation of the lien.

(5) By recording in the clerk's office the original or a certified copy of a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction showing a final determination of the action.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

713.22 Duration of lien.—

(1) No lien provided by part I shall continue for a longer period than 1 year after the claim of lien has been recorded, unless within that time an action to enforce the lien is commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction. The continuation of the lien effected by the commencement of the action shall not be good against creditors or subsequent purchasers for a valuable consideration and without notice, unless a notice of lis pendens is recorded.

(2) An owner or his agent or attorney may elect to shorten the time prescribed in subsection (1) within which to commence an action to enforce any claim of lien or claim against a bond or other security under s. 713.23 or s. 713.24 by recording in the clerk's office a notice in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF CONTEST OF LIEN

To: (Name and address of lienor)....

You are notified that the undersigned contests the claim of lien filed by you on .... 19....., and recorded in .... Book ....., Page ....., of the public records of .... County, Florida, and that the time within which you may file suit to enforce your lien is limited to 60 days from the date of service of this notice. This .... day of .... 19.....

Signed: (Owner or Attorney)....

The lien of any lienor upon whom such notice is served and who fails to institute a suit to enforce his lien within 60 days after service of such notice shall be extinguished automatically. The clerk shall mail a copy of the notice of contest to the lien claimant at the address shown in the claim of lien or most recent amendment thereto and shall certify to such service on the face of such notice and record the notice. Service shall be deemed complete upon mailing.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 13, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 9, ch. 77-353.

Note.—Former s. 84.221.

713.23 Payment bond.—

(1) The payment bond required to exempt an owner under part I shall be furnished by the contractor in at least the amount of the original contract price before commencing the construction of the improvement under the direct contract. The bond shall be executed as surety by a surety insurer authorized to do business in Florida and shall be conditioned that the contractor shall promptly make payments to all lienors under the contractor's direct contract. The owner, contractor, or surety shall furnish a true copy at the cost of reproduction to any lienor demanding it. Any person who fails or refuses to furnish the copy without justifiable cause shall be liable to the lienor demanding the copy for any damages caused by the refusal or failure. If a payment bond is furnished, the owner, within 10 days after receipt of a notice to owner, shall give written notice, to the person who serves such notice to owner, of the existence of the payment bond, including the name and address of the surety and principal under the bond. A lienor, except a laborer, who is not in privity with the contractor shall serve the contractor notice in writing within 45 days after beginning to furnish labor, materials, or supplies that he will look to the contractor's bond for protection on the work. However, if a notice of commencement is not recorded, or a reference to the bond is not given in the notice of commencement, and, in either case, if the lienor not in privity with the contractor is not otherwise notified in writing of the existence of the bond, the lienor not in privity with the contractor shall have 45 days from the date he is notified of the existence of the bond within which to serve the notice. In addition, any lienor who is not in privity with the contractor and who has not received payment shall, within 90 days after performance of the labor or after complete delivery of materials and supplies, serve the contractor with written notice of the performance of the labor or delivery of materials and supplies and the nonpayment. No action for the labor or materials and supplies may be instituted or prosecuted against the contractor unless both notices have been given. No action shall be instituted or prosecuted against the contractor or against the surety on the bond under this section after 1 year from the performance of the labor or completion of delivery of the materials and supplies. Any lienor shall have a direct right of action on the bond against the surety. No bond shall contain any provisions restricting the classes of persons protected thereby or the venue of any proceeding. The surety shall not be entitled to the defense of pro tanto discharge as against any lienor because of changes or modifications in the contract to which the surety is not a party; but the liability of the surety shall not be increased beyond the penal sum of the bond.

(2) The bond shall secure every lien accruing subsequent to its execution and delivery, except that of the contractor. Every claim of lien, except that of the contractor, filed subsequent to execution and delivery of the bond shall be transferred to it with the same effect as liens transferred under s. 713.24. Record notice of the transfer shall be effected by the contractor, or any person having an interest in the property against which the claim of lien has been asserted, by recording in the clerk's office a notice in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF BOND

To ..... (Name and Address of Lienor).....

You are notified that the claim of lien filed by you on....., 19..... and recorded in Official Records Book ..... at page ..... of the public records of ..... County, Florida, is secured by a bond, a copy being attached.

Signed: ..... (Name of person recording notice).....

The notice shall be verified. The clerk shall mail a copy of the notice to the lienor at the address shown in the claim of lien, or most recent amendment to it, and shall certify to the service on the face of the notice and shall record the notice.

(3) A payment bond in substantially the following form shall be sufficient:

PAYMENT BOND

BY THIS BOND We, ....., as Principal, and ....., a corporation, as Surety, are bound to ....., herein called Owner, in the sum of $.....for the payment of which we bind ourselves, our heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, jointly and severally.

THE CONDITION OF THIS BOND is that if Principal:

1. Promptly makes payments to all lienors supplying labor, material, and supplies used directly or indirectly by Principal in the prosecution of the work provided in the contract dated ....., 19 ....., between Principal and Owner for construction of ....., the contract being made a part of this bond by reference, and

2. Pays Owner all loss, damage, expenses, costs, and attorney's fees, including appellate proceedings, that Owner sustains because of default by Principal under the bond, then this bond is void; otherwise it remains in full force.

Any changes in or under the contract documents and compliance or noncompliance with formalities connected with the contract or the changes do not affect Surety's obligation under this bond.

DATED on ....., 19 .....

.....(Principal).....

(SEAL)

.....(SURETY'S NAME).....

By ..... (As Attorney-in-Fact).....

.....(Surety).....

(4) The provisions of s. 713.24(3) shall apply to bonds under this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 14, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 10, ch. 77-353.
Note.—Former s. 84.231.

713.231 Contract disclosures.—Any direct contract between an owner and a contractor shall include a statement which discloses the substance of the provisions of ss. 713.02(6) and 713.23.

History.—s. 16, ch. 77-353.

713.24 Transfer of liens to security.—

(1) Any lien claimed under part I may be transferred, by any person having an interest in the real property upon which the lien is imposed or the contract under which the lien is claimed, from such real property to other security by either:

(a) Depositing in the clerk's office a sum of money, or

(b) Filing in the clerk's office a bond executed as surety by a surety insurer licensed to do business in this state, either to be in an amount equal to the amount demanded in such claim of lien, plus interest thereon at 6 percent per year for 3 years, plus $100 to apply on any court costs which may be taxed in any proceeding to enforce said lien. Such deposit or bond shall be conditioned to pay any judgment or decree which may be rendered for the satisfaction of the lien for which such claim of lien was recorded, and costs not to exceed $100. Upon making such deposit or filing such bond, the clerk shall make and record a certificate showing the transfer of the lien from the real property to the security and mail a copy thereof by registered or certified mail to the lienor named in the claim of lien so transferred, at the address stated therein. Upon filing the certificate of transfer, the real property shall thereupon be released from the lien claimed, and such lien shall be transferred to said security. The clerk shall be entitled to a fee for making and serving the certificate, in the sum of $10. If the transaction involves the transfer of multiple liens, an additional charge of $5 for each additional lien shall be charged. For recording the certificate and approving the bond, the clerk shall receive his usual statutory service charges as prescribed in s. 28.24. Any number of liens may be transferred to one such security.

(2) Any excess of the security over the aggregate amount of any judgments or decrees rendered plus costs actually taxed shall be repaid to the party filing the same or his successor in interest. Any deposit of money shall be considered as paid into court and shall be subject to the provisions of law relative to payments of money into court and the disposition of same.

(3) Any party having an interest in such security or the property from which the lien was transferred may at any time, and any number of times, file a complaint in chancery in the circuit court of the county where such security is deposited for an order to require additional security, reduction of security, change or substitution of sureties, payment or discharge thereof or any other matter affecting said security.

(4) If no proceeding to enforce a transferred lien shall be commenced within the time specified in s. 713.22 or if it appears that the transferred lien has been satisfied of record, the clerk shall return said security upon request of the person depositing or filing the same, or the insurer.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 15, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 6, ch. 77-354.
Note.—Former s. 84.241.

713.25 Applicability of ch. 65-456.—This act shall take effect on July 1, 1965, but shall not apply to any act required to be done within a time period which is running on that date nor shall apply to existing projects where its operation would impair vested rights.

History.—s. 17, ch. 65-456; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.242.

713.26 Redemption and sale.—The right of redemption upon all sales under part I of this chapter shall exist in favor of the person whose interest is sold and may be exercised in the same manner as is or may be provided for redemption of real property from sales under mortgages.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 4, ch. 71-5.
Note.—Former s. 84.251.

713.27 Interplead.—An owner or other person holding funds for disbursement on an improvement shall have the right to interplead such lienor and any other person having or claiming to have an interest in the real property improved or a contract relating to the improvement thereof, whenever there is a dispute between lienors as to the amounts due or to become due them. If the court decrees the interpleader, it may transfer all claims to the funds held by the plaintiff. In such case the court shall require said fund to be deposited in registry of court and, effective upon such deposit, shall decree the real property to be free of all liens and claims of lien of the parties to the suit.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.271.

713.28 Judgments in case of failure to establish liens; personal and deficiency judgments or decrees.—

(1) If a lienor shall fail, for any reason, to establish a lien for the full amount found to be due him in an action to enforce the same under the provisions of part I of this chapter, he may, in addition to the lien decreed in his favor, recover a judgment or decree in such action against any party liable therefor for such sums in excess of the lien as are due him or which he might recover in an action on a contract against any party to the action from whom such sums are due him.

(2) In any action heretofore or hereafter brought a court may, either before or after the final adjudication, award a summary money judgment or decree in favor of any party. This shall not preclude the rendition of other judgments or decrees in the action.

(3) If, upon the sale of the real property under any judgment or decree there is a deficiency of proceeds to pay the amount of such judgment or decree, the judgment or decree may be enforced for the deficiency against any person liable therefor in the same manner and under the same conditions as deficiency decrees in mortgage foreclosures. Any payment made on account of any judgment or decree in favor of a party shall be credited on any other judgment or decree rendered in favor of that party in the same action.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.281.

713.29 Attorney's fees.—In any action brought to enforce a lien under part I, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover a reasonable fee for the services of his attorney for trial and appeal, to be determined by the court, which shall be taxed as part of his costs, as allowed in equitable actions.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 11, ch. 77-353.
Note.—Former s. 84.291.

713.30 Other actions not barred.—This part I shall be cumulative to other existing remedies and nothing contained in part I of this chapter shall be construed to prevent any lienor or assignee under any contract from maintaining an action thereon at law in like manner as if he had no lien for the security of his debt, and the bringing of such action shall not prejudice his rights under part I of this chapter, except as herein otherwise expressly provided.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.301.

713.31 Remedies in case of fraud or collusion.—

(1) When the owner or any lienor shall, by fraud or collusion, deprive or attempt to deprive any lienor of benefits or rights to which such lienor is entitled under this part I by establishing or manipulating the contract price or by giving false affidavits, releases, invoices, worthless checks, statements or written instruments permitted or required under part I of this chapter relating to the improvement of real property hereunder to the detriment of any such lienor, the circuit court in chancery shall have jurisdiction, upon a complaint filed by such lienor, to issue temporary and permanent injunctions, order accountings, grant discovery, utilize all remedies available under creditors' bills and proceedings supplementary to execution, marshal assets and exercise any other appropriate legal or equitable remedies or procedures without regard to the adequacy of a remedy at law or whether or not irreparable damage has or will be done.

(2)(a) Any lien asserted under this part I in which the lienor has willfully exaggerated the amount for which such lien is claimed or in which the lienor has willfully included a claim for work not performed upon or materials not furnished for the property upon which he seeks to impress such lien or in which the lienor has compiled his claim with such willful and gross negligence as to amount to a willful exaggeration shall be deemed a fraudulent lien.

(b) It shall be a complete defense to any action to enforce a lien under this part I, or against any lien in any action in which the validity of the lien is an issue, that the lien is a fraudulent lien and the court so finding is empowered to and shall declare the lien unenforceable and the lienor shall thereupon forfeit his right to any lien on the property upon which he sought to impress such fraudulent lien.

(c) An owner against whose interest a fraudulent lien is filed, or any contractor or subcontractor who suffers damages as a result of the filing of such a fraudulent lien, shall have a right of action for his actual damages occasioned thereby and for punitive damages. Such action may be instituted independently of other action, or in connection with a summons to show cause under s. 713.21, or as a counterclaim or cross-claim to any action to enforce or to determine the validity of such lien. The lienor who files a fraudulent lien shall be liable to the owner or the defrauded party in damages, which shall include court costs, clerk's fees, a reasonable attorney's fee for services in securing the discharge of the lien, the amount of any premium for a bond given to obtain the discharge of the lien, interest on any money deposited for the purpose of discharging the lien, and punitive damages in an amount not exceeding the difference between the amount claimed by the lienor to be due or to become due and the amount actually due or to become due.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 12, ch. 77-353; s. 260, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Former s. 84.311.

713.32 Insurance proceeds liable for demands.—The proceeds of any insurance that by the terms of the policy contract are payable to the owner of improved real property or a lienor and actually received or to be received by him because of the damage, destruction, or removal by fire or other casualty of an improvement on which lienors have furnished labor or services or materials shall, after the owner or lienor, as the case may be, has been reimbursed therefrom for any premiums paid by him, be liable to liens or demands for payment provided by part I to the same extent and in the same manner, order of priority, and conditions as the real property or payments under a direct contract would have been, if the improvement not been so damaged, destroyed, or removed. The insurer may pay the proceeds of the policy of insurance to the insured named in the policy and thereupon any liability of the insurer under part I shall cease. The named insured who receives any proceeds of the policy shall be deemed a trustee of the proceeds, and the proceeds shall be deemed trust funds for the purposes designated by this section for a period of 1 year from the date of receipt of the proceeds. This section shall not apply to that part of the proceeds of any policy of insurance payable to a person, including a mortgagee, who holds a lien perfected before the recording of the notice of commencement or recommencement.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254; s. 13, ch. 77-353.
Note.—Former s. 84.321.

713.33 Disbursing agent and others may rely on owner's notices.—When the proceeds of a construction or improvement loan or any portion thereof are being disbursed by a person other than the owner, any affidavit, notice or other instrument which is permitted or required under this part to be furnished to the owner may be relied upon by such other person in making such disbursements to the same extent as the owner is entitled to rely upon the same.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 84.331.

713.34 Misapplication of funds shall constitute embezzlement.—

(1) For the purpose of this section the net proceeds of a loan shall be deemed to be the amount remaining after deducting from the principal amount of the loan:

(a) Fees and charges legally incident to the procuring of the loan;

(b) The amount required to satisfy prior encumbrances against the real property which is security for such loan and the fees and charges legally incident thereto, if such encumbrances are paid or to be paid with the consent of the lender, from the proceeds of the loan; and

(c) The amount of fees and charges for professional services for which liens are not provided by this part I and which are bona fide rendered in connection with the improving of the real property.

(2) Any person, firm, corporation or agent, officer or employee thereof who procures a loan secured by mortgage or other encumbrance on real property, representing that the net proceeds thereof are to be used for the purpose of improving such real property and who, with intent to defraud, shall use the net proceeds, as defined in subsection (1), or any part thereof for any other purpose than to pay for labor or services performed on, or material furnished for, this specific improvement, while any amount for which he may be or become liable for such labor, services, or materials remains unpaid or while any amount of which he has received notice of nonpayment prescribed by this part I remains unpaid, shall be guilty of embezzlement and shall be prosecuted and, upon conviction, punished in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state; provided, however, that failure to pay for such labor, services or materials furnished for this specific improvement after receipt of such loan shall constitute prima facie evidence of intent to defraud.

(3) Any person, firm, corporation or agent, officer or employee thereof who, with intent to defraud, shall use the proceeds of any payment made to him on account of improving certain real property, for any other purpose than to pay for labor or services performed on or materials furnished for this specific improvement, while any amount for which he may be or become liable for such labor, services, or materials remains unpaid shall be guilty of embezzlement and shall be prosecuted and, upon conviction, punished in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state; provided, however, that failure to pay for such labor, services or materials furnished for this specific improvement after receipt of such proceeds shall constitute prima facie evidence of intent to defraud.

(4) The provisions of subsections (2) and (3) shall not apply to mortgage bankers or their agents, servants or employees for their acts in the usual course of the business of lending or disbursing mortgage funds.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.341.

713.35 Making or furnishing false statement shall constitute perjury.—Any person, firm or corporation who shall willfully make or furnish to another person, firm or corporation, an affidavit containing a false statement in connection with the improvement of real property in this state, knowing that the one to whom it was furnished may rely on it, and the one to whom it was furnished shall part with anything of value relying on the truth of such statement as an inducement to do so, shall be guilty of perjury and shall be prosecuted and, upon conviction, punished in accordance with the provisions of the laws of this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.351.

713.36 Effective date.—Chapter 63-135 shall take effect at 12:01 a.m., October 1, 1963. The rights of all persons with respect to an improvement that has a time of visible commencement prior to October 1, 1963, shall be determined and enforced as provided in former ss. 84.01-84.35, as they existed prior to October 1, 1963. As to all other rights, former ss. 84.01-84.35, Florida Statutes, are repealed concurrently with the effective time of this part I.

History.—s. 3, ch. 63-135; s. 35, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 84.361.

713.37 Rule of construction.—This part shall not be subject to a rule of liberal construction in favor of any person to whom it applies.

History.—s. 15, ch. 77-353.

713.50 Liens upon property.—Liens prior in dignity to all others accruing thereafter shall exist in favor of the following persons, upon the following described personal property under the circumstances hereinafter mentioned in this part II. This part II is limited to liens on personal property and their enforcement and related matters.

History.—ss. 1, 6, ch. 3747, 1887; RS 1726, 1730; s. 1, ch. 5143, 1903; GS 2190, 2196; RGS 3495, 3502; CGL 5349, 5363; s. 44, ch. 16042, 1933; s. 36, ch. 67-254; s. 1, ch. 69-97.

Note.—Former s. 85.01.

713.56 Liens for labor on and with machines, etc.—In favor of any person by himself or others performing any labor upon or with any engine, machine, apparatus, fixture, implement, newspaper or printing material or other property, or doing work in any hotel; upon such engine, machine, material, apparatus, fixture, implement, newspaper or printing material, or other property, and upon the furniture, furnishings and belongings of said hotel.

History.—s. 6, ch. 3747, 1887; RS 1730; s. 1, ch. 4583, 1897; GS 2196; RGS 3503; CGL 5364; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.07.

713.57 Liens for labor on logs and timber.—In favor of any person by himself or others cutting, rafting, running, driving, or performing other labor upon logs or timber of any kind; on such logs and timber, and on any article manufactured therefrom.

History.—s. 7, ch. 3747, 1887; RS 1731; GS 2197; RGS 3504; CGL 5365; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.08.

713.58 Liens for labor or services on personal property.—

(1) In favor of persons performing labor or services for any other person, upon the personal property of the latter upon which the labor or services is performed, or which is used in the business, occupation, or employment in which the labor or services is performed.

(2) It is unlawful for any person, knowingly, willfully, and with intent to defraud, to remove any property upon which a lien has accrued under this section without first making full payment to the person performing labor or services of all sums due and payable for such labor or services or without first having the written consent of such person so performing the labor or services so to remove such property.

(3) In that the possessory right and lien of the person performing labor or services under this section is released, relinquished, and lost by the removal of such property upon which a lien has accrued, it shall be deemed prima facie evidence of intent to defraud if, upon the removal of such property, the person removing such property utters, delivers, or gives any check, draft, or written order for the payment of money in payment of the indebtedness secured by the lien and then stops payment on such check, draft, or written order.

(4) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 3 months.

Note.—Former s. 85.11.

713.61 Liens for manufacturing and repairing articles.—In favor of any person who shall manufacture, alter or repair any article or thing of value; upon such article or thing.

History.—s. 5, ch. 3747, 1887; RS 1735; GS 2201; RGS 3508; CGL 5369; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.12.

713.62 Liens for furnishing articles to be manufactured.—In favor of any person who shall furnish any logs, lumber, clay, sand, stone or other material whatsoever, crude or partially or wholly prepared for use, to any mill or other manufactory to be manufactured into any article of value; upon all such articles furnished and upon all articles manufactured therefrom.

History.—s. 7, ch. 3747, 1887; RS 1736; GS 2202; RGS 3509; CGL 5370; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.13.

713.63 Liens for furnishing locomotives, machinery, etc.—In favor of any person who shall furnish any locomotive or stationary engine, water engine, windmill, car or other machine or parts of machine or instrument for any railroad, telegraph or telephone line, mill, distillery, or other manufactory; upon the articles so furnished.

History.—s. 9, ch. 3747, 1887; RS 1737; GS 2203; RGS 3510; CGL 5371; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.14.

713.64 Liens for furnishing material for vessels.—In favor of any ship chandler, storekeeper or dealer furnishing stores, provisions, rigging or other material to or for the use of any ship, vessel, steamboat or other watercraft; on such ship, vessel, steamboat or other watercraft.

History.—s. 14, ch. 40, 1845; ss. 1-4, ch. 1128, 1861; RS 1738; GS 2204; RGS 3511; CGL 5372; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.15.

713.65 Liens for care and maintenance of animals.—In favor of all persons feeding or caring for the horse or other animal of another, including all keepers of livery, sale or feed or feed stables, for feeding or taking care of any horse or other animal put in their charge; upon such horse or other animal.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3618, 1885; RS 1739; GS 2205; RGS 3512; CGL 5373; s. 1, ch. 25048, 1949; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.16.

713.66 Liens for feed, etc., for racehorses, polo ponies and race dogs.—In favor of any person who shall furnish corn, oats, hay, grain or other feed or feedstuffs or straw or bedding material to or upon the order of the owner, or the agent, bailee, lessee, or custodian of the owner, of any racehorse, polo pony or race dog, for the unpaid portion of the price of such supplies upon every racehorse, polo pony, or race dog which consumes any part of such supplies. All racehorses and race dogs of such owner which are accustomed to consume supplies of the character delivered, which are at the time of the delivery of such supplies upon the premises to which delivery is made, shall be deemed prima facie to have consumed such supplies. Such lien shall remain valid and enforceable for a period of 1 year from the dates of the respective deliveries of such corn, oats, hay, grain, feed or feedstuffs, or straw; and such liens are to be enforced in the manner provided for the enforcement of other liens on personal property in this state. Said liens shall be superior to any and all claims, liens and mortgages, whether recorded or unrecorded, including, but not limited to, any lessor's or vendor's lien, and any chattel mortgage, which theretofore may have been or thereafter may be created against such racehorse, polo pony or race dog, and to the claims of any and all purchases thereof.

Note.—Former s. 85.17.

713.67 Liens for board, lodging, etc., at hotels, etc.—In favor of keepers of hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, and boardinghouses for the board, lodging and occupancy of and for moneys advanced to transient guests or tenants, upon the goods and chattels belonging to such guests or tenants in such hotel, apartment house, roominghouse or boardinghouse, including garage and storeroom. Upon the nonpayment of such sums in accordance with the rules of such hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses or boardinghouses, the keeper thereof may instantly eject such transient guests or tenants therefrom.

History.—s. 6, ch. 1999, 1874; RS 1740; GS 2206; RGS 3513; CGL 5374; s. 44, ch. 16042, 1933; s. 36, ch. 67-254; s. 6, ch. 73-330.

Note.—Former s. 85.18.

713.68 Liens for hotels, apartment houses, roominghouses, boardinghouses, etc.—In favor of any person conducting or operating any hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, boardinghouse or tenement house where rooms or apartments are let for hire or rental on a transient basis. Such lien shall exist on all the property including trunks, baggage, jewelry and wearing apparel, guns and sporting goods, furniture and furnishings and other personal property of any person which property is brought into or placed in any room or apartment of any hotel, apartment house, lodginghouse, roominghouse, boardinghouse or tenement house when such person shall occupy, on a transient basis, such room or apartment as tenant, lessee, boarder, roomer or guest for the privilege of which occupancy money or anything of value is to be paid to the person conducting or operating such hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, lodginghouse, boardinghouse or tenement house. Such lien shall continue and be in full force and effect for the amount payable for such occupancy until the same shall have been fully paid and discharged.

History.—s. 1, ch. 12080, 1927; CGL 5375; s. 36, ch. 67-254; s. 7, ch. 73-330.

Note.—Former s. 85.19.

cf.—s. 212.03 Transient rentals tax.

713.69 Unlawful to remove property upon which lien has accrued.—It is unlawful for any person to remove any property upon which a lien has accrued under the provisions of s. 713.68 from any hotel, apartment house, roominghouse, lodginghouse, boardinghouse or tenement house without first making full payment to the person operating or conducting the same of all sums due and payable for such occupancy or without first having the written consent of such person so conducting or operating such place to so remove such property. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, if the property removed in violation hereof be of the value of $50 or less, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; and if the property so removed should be of greater value than $50 then such person shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 12080, 1927; CGL 5376, 7323; s. 36, ch. 67-254; s. 687, ch. 71-136.

Note.—Former s. 85.20.

713.691 Landlord's lien for rent; exemptions.—

(1) With regard to a residential tenancy, the landlord has a lien on all personal property of the tenant located on the premises for accrued rent due to the landlord under the rental agreement. This lien shall be in addition to any other liens upon such property which the landlord may acquire by law, and may be modified or waived, in whole or in part, by the provisions of a written rental agreement.

(2) When the tenant is the head of a family, personal property owned by him in the value of $1,000 is exempt from the lien provided by this section. This subsection does not authorize an exemption any greater than that which may be available to the tenant in s. 4, Art. X of the State Constitution.

(3) The remedy of distress for rent is abolished with regard to residential tenancies.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-330.

713.70 Lien for service of stallions and other animals.—In favor of owners of stallions, jackasses or bulls, upon the colt or calf of the get of said stallion, jackass or bull, and also upon the mare, jenny or cow served by said stallion, jackass or bull in breeding thereof for the sum stipulated to be paid for the service thereof, by filing at any time within 18 months after the date of service a statement of the account thereof, together with the description as to color and markings of the female served, and the name of the owner at the date of service, in the office of the county clerk of the county wherein the owner of the said female resided at the time of service. Neither the mare, jenny or cow, nor the get thereof, shall be sold within 18 months after the date of service, unless the service fee shall be paid, unless such sale shall be agreed to and approved in writing by the owner of the stallion, jackass or bull at the time of the sale or transfer of the mare, jenny or cow, or offspring thereof. At any time after such mare, jenny or cow shall conceive, anyone having the lien herein provided may enforce the same in the same manner as is now provided by law.

Note.—Former s. 85.21.

713.71 Liens for loans and advances.—Any person who shall procure a loan or advance of money or goods and chattels, wares or merchandise or other things of value, to aid him in the business of planting, farming, timber getting or any other kind of businesses in this state, from any factor, merchant, firm or person in this state, or in the United States or in any foreign country, shall, by part II of this chapter, be held to have given to the lender, lenders, or person making such advance, a statutory lien of prior dignity to all other encumbrances, saving and excepting liens for labor and liens in favor of landlords, upon all the timber-getting, all the crops, and products grown or anything else made or grown by said person, through the assistance of said loan or advances; provided, that the lien above-given shall not be created unless the person obtaining or procuring such loan or advance shall give to the person making such loan or advance an instrument of writing consenting to said lien; and the same shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein such business of planting, farming or timber-getting is conducted.

Note.—Former s. 85.22.

713.73 Priority of foregoing liens.—Liens for labor and liens for material provided for by this law shall take priority among themselves according to the times that the notices required to create such liens respectively were given or were recorded in the cases where record is required; that is to say, each such lien which shall have attached to the property shall be paid before any such lien which shall have subsequently attached thereto, shall be entitled to be paid.

History.—s. 12, ch. 5143, 1903; GS 2209; RGS 3516; CGL 5379; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.24.

713.74 Acquisition of liens by persons in privity with the owner.—As against the owner of personal property upon which a lien is claimed under this part II, the lien shall be acquired by any person in privity with the owner by the performance of the labor or the furnishing of the materials. There shall be no lien upon personal property as against purchasers and creditors without notice unless the person claiming the lien is in possession of the property upon which the lien is claimed. The lien shall continue as long as the possession continues, not to exceed 3 months after performance of the labor or furnishing the material.

History.—RS 1742; s. 1, ch. 4582, 1897; ss. 8, 9, 11, ch. 5143, 1903; GS 2210; RGS 3517; CGL 5380; s. 36, ch. 67-254; s. 4, ch. 69-97.

Note.—Former s. 85.25.

713.75 Acquisition of liens by persons not in privity with the owner.—A person entitled to acquire a lien not in privity with the owner of the personal property shall acquire a lien upon the owner's personal property as against the owner and persons claiming through him by delivery to the owner of a written notice that the person for whom the labor has been performed or the material furnished is indebted to the person performing the labor or furnishing the material in the sum stated in the notice. A person who is performing or is about to perform labor or is furnishing or is about to furnish materials for personal property may deliver to the owner a written cautionary notice that he will do so. A lien shall exist from the time of delivery of either notice for the amount unpaid on the contract of the owner with the person contracting with the lienor and the delivery of the notice shall also create a personal liability against the owner of the personal property in favor of the lienor giving the notice, but not to a greater extent than the amount then unpaid on the contract between the owner and the person with whom the owner contracted. There shall be no lien upon personal property as against creditors and purchasers without notice except under the circumstances and for the time prescribed in s. 713.74 and for the amount of the debt due to the lienor at the time of the service of the notice provided for in this section.

713.76 Release of lien by filing bond.—

(1) Any lienor may release his property from any lien claimed thereon under this part by filing with the clerk of the circuit court a cash or surety bond, payable to the person claiming the lien, in the amount of the final bill, and conditioned for the payment of any judgment which may be recovered on said lien, with costs.

(2) Whenever a lienor brings an action in the appropriate court with respect to any property which has been wrongfully detained by a lienor in violation of this section, the lienor, upon a judgment in the lienor's favor, shall be entitled to damages, reasonable court costs, and attorney's fees sustained by the lienor by reason of such wrongful detention.

(3) Any lienor who, upon the posting of the bond, fails to release or return the property to the lienor pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 8, ch. 1632, 1868; RS 1749; s. 19, ch. 5143, 1903; GS 2225; RGS 3532; CGL 5396; s. 36, ch. 67-254; s. 1, ch. 77-387.

Note.—Former s. 85.27.

713.77 Liens of owners, operators or keepers of camps; ejection of occupants.—Liens prior in dignity to all others except liens for unpaid purchase price shall exist in favor of owners, operators, or keepers of tourist camps or trailer camps for rent owing by and for money or other property advanced to any occupant thereof upon the goods, chattels or other personal property of the occupant of such camp. Upon the nonpayment of such sums in accordance with the rules of such camps, or for failure to observe any provision of this part II or the rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board of Health, the owner, operator or keeper thereof may instantly eject such occupant therefrom; the liens created in favor of owners, operators, or keepers of tourist camps or trailer camps may be enforced in the same manner as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for the enforcement of liens in favor of keepers of hotels and boardinghouses. Nothing in this section, however, shall prevent owners or operators of tourist camps or trailer camps from enforcing any claims for rent under and in the manner provided by landlord and tenant acts of this state.

History.—s. 11, ch. 12419, 1927; s. 1, ch. 19365, 1939; CGL 4149; s. 36, ch. 67-254.

Note.—Former s. 85.28.

713.78 Liens for recovering, towing, or storing vehicles.—

(1) For the purposes of this section, "vehicle" means any mobile item, whether motorized or not, which is mounted on wheels.

(2) Whenever a person regularly engaged in the business of transporting vehicles by wrecker, tow truck, or car carrier recovers, removes, or stores a vehicle upon instructions from:

(a) The owner thereof; or

(b) The owner or lessor, or a person authorized by the owner or lessor, of property on which such vehicle is wrongfully parked, and such removal is done in compliance with s. 715.07; or

(c) Any law enforcement agency, he shall have a lien on such vehicle for a reasonable towing fee and for a reasonable storage fee; except that no storage fee shall be charged if such vehicle is stored for less than 6 hours.

(3)(a) Any person regularly engaged in the business of recovering, towing, or storing vehicles who comes into possession of a vehicle pursuant to subsection (2), and who claims a lien for recovery, towing, or storage services, shall give notice to the registered owner and to all persons claiming a lien thereon, as disclosed by the records in the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles or of a corresponding agency in any other state.

(b) Notice by registered or certified mail shall be sent to the registered owner and to all persons claiming a lien within 14 days of the date of possession. It shall state the fact of possession of the vehicle, that a lien as provided in subsection (2) is claimed, that the lien is subject to enforcement pursuant to law, and that the owner or lienholder, if any, has the right to a hearing as set forth in subsection (4).

(4)(a) The owner of a vehicle removed pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2), or any person claiming a lien, other than the towing-storage operator, within 5 days of the time he has knowledge of the location of said vehicle, may file a complaint in the county court of the county in which the vehicle is stored or in which the owner resides to determine if his property was wrongfully taken or withheld from him.

(b) Upon filing of a complaint, an owner or lienholder may have his vehicle released upon posting with the court a cash or surety bond or other adequate security equal to the amount of the charges for towing or storage to ensure the payment of such charges in the event he does not prevail. At the time of such release, after reasonable inspection, he shall give a receipt to the towing-storage company reciting any claims he has for loss or damage to the vehicle or the contents thereof.

(c) Upon determination of the respective rights of the parties by the court:

1. Should the owner or lienholder prevail, he may collect damages and costs from the party instigating the tow.

2. Should the person instigating the tow prevail, he shall recover his costs.

3. In any event, the final order shall provide for immediate payment in full of recovery, towing, and storage fees by the vehicle owner or lienholder; or the agency ordering the tow; or the owner, lessor, or agent thereof of the property from which the vehicle was removed.

(5) Any vehicle which is stored pursuant to subsection (2) and which remains unclaimed, or for which reasonable towing or storing charges remain unpaid, may be sold by the owner or operator of the storage space after 45 days from the time the vehicle is stored therein. The sale shall be at public auction for cash. Notice of the sale shall be given to the person in whose name the vehicle is registered and to all persons claiming a lien on the vehicle as shown on the records of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles or of the corresponding agency in any other state. Notice shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the owner of the vehicle and the person having the recorded lien on the vehicle at the address shown on the records of the registering agency and shall be mailed not less than 15 days before the date of the sale. After diligent search and inquiry, if the name and address of the registered owner or the owner of the recorded lien cannot be ascertained, the requirements of notice by mail may be dispensed with. In addition to the notice by mail, public notice of the time and place of sale shall be made by publishing a notice thereof one time, at least 10 days prior to the date of the sale, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the sale is to be held or by notices posted for 10 days in three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse, and another in some conspicuous part of the storehouse. The proceeds of the sale, after payment of reasonable towing and storage charges and costs of the sale, shall be deposited with the clerk of the circuit court for the county if the owner is absent, and the clerk shall hold such proceeds subject to the claim of the person legally entitled thereto. The clerk shall be entitled to receive 5 percent of such proceeds for the care and disbursement thereof. The certificate of title issued under this law shall be discharged of all liens except those registered with the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles.

<sup>1</sup>(6) No person regularly engaged in the business of recovering, towing, or storing vehicles shall be liable for damages connected with such services, provided that they have been performed with reasonable care and provided, further, that, in the case of removal of a vehicle upon the request of a person purporting, and reasonably appearing, to be the owner or lessor, or a person authorized by the owner or lessor, of the property from which such vehicle is removed, such removal has been done in compliance with s. 715.07. No person regularly engaged in the business of recovering, towing, or storing vehicles shall operate a wrecker, tow truck, or car carrier unless the name, address, and telephone number of the company performing such service is clearly printed on the side of its vehicle.

Note.—This subsection has been reworded by the editors in order to reconcile amendments by s. 1, ch. 79-244, and s. 1, ch. 79-410. See s. 1.04.

713.801 Definitions.—As used in this part, the following terms shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires another meaning:

(1) "Interest holder" means a person, or his agent, holding, for oil or gas purposes or for any oil or gas pipeline, any interest in the legal or equitable title to any land or any leasehold interest, and shall include purchasers under executory contract, receivers, and trustees.

(2) "Operator" means the person in charge of operations on lands or leaseholds for oil or gas purposes or for any oil or gas pipeline. For the purposes of this part, an operator shall be deemed to be the agent of the interest holder.

(3) "Material" means any machinery, equipment, appliances, buildings, structures, tools, bits, or supplies used in connection with any construction, drilling, or operating upon any land or leasehold for oil or gas purposes or for any oil or gas pipeline.

(4) "Drilling" means drilling, digging, torpedoing, acidizing, perforating, fracturing, testing, logging, cementing, completing, or repairing upon any land or leasehold for oil or gas purposes or for any oil or gas pipeline.

(5) "Operating" means conducting any operation in connection with, or necessary to, the production of oil or gas, either in the development thereof or in working thereon in the subtractive process.

(6) "Construction" means construction, maintenance, operation, or repair in connection with any oil or gas pipeline or in connection with, or necessary for, the production of oil or gas, either in the development thereof or in working thereon in the subtractive process.

(7) "Oil or gas pipeline" means any pipeline laid and designed as a means of transporting natural gas, oil, or gasoline, or their components or derivatives, and the right-of-way therefor.

(8) "Original contractor" means any person for whose benefit a lien is prescribed by the provisions of s. 713.803.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.803 Entitlement to lien.—Any person who, under contract with an interest holder or operator, performs any labor or furnishes any material or service used or furnished to be used:

(1) In the drilling or operating of any oil or gas well upon the land or leasehold of the interest holder or in the construction of any oil or gas pipeline, or shall be entitled to a lien, whether or not a producing well is obtained and whether or not such material is consumed or becomes a part of the completed oil or gas well or oil or gas pipeline, for the amount due him for the performance of such labor or the furnishing of such material or service, but in no case greater than the contract price, with legal interest from the date the same was due.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.805 Property subject to lien.—Liens created under s. 713.803 shall extend to:

(1) The leasehold interest or that portion thereof covered by an assignment, farmout agreement, or operating agreement held by the operator, whichever shall be the lesser interest, held for oil or gas purposes or for any oil or gas pipeline for which the material or service was furnished or for which the labor was performed, and the appurtenances thereunto belonging as title thereto existed on the date such labor was first performed or such material or service was first furnished. However, neither the land itself, apart from the rights granted under an oil or gas lease, nor any mineral interest or royalty interest shall be subject to such lien.

(2) All materials and fixtures owned by the interest holder and used or furnished to be used in the drilling or operating of any oil or gas well, or in the construction of any oil or gas pipeline, located on the land or leasehold held by the interest holder.

(3) All oil or gas wells located on such land or leasehold, the oil or gas produced therefrom, and the proceeds from the sale thereof inuring to those interests subject to such lien.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

713.807 Subcontractors' lien.—Any person who shall, under contract, perform any labor or furnish any material or service as a subcontractor under an original contractor, or for or to an original contractor or subcontractor under an original contractor, shall be entitled to a lien for the amount due him, but in no case greater than the contract price, upon all the property upon which the lien of an original contractor may attach, to the same extent as an original contractor. The lien provided for in this section shall further extend and attach to all materials and fixtures owned by such original contractor or subcontractor to whom the labor, services, or materials were furnished.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.809 Forfeiture or failure of title.—If a lien, as provided for in this part, is imposed on an assignment, farmout agreement, operating agreement, or other equitable interest or legal interest in land or in a leasehold estate, which interest is contingent upon the happening of a condition subsequent, such lien may be perfected and entered against such land or against the leasehold estate, notwithstanding the failure of such interest to ripen into legal title or the failure of such conditions subsequent to be fulfilled.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.811 Notice to purchasers of oil and gas.—

No lien under this part, to the extent that it may extend to oil or gas or the proceeds from the sale thereof, shall be effective against any purchaser of such oil or gas until the purchaser has received proper written notice of said claim. Such notice shall state the name of the claimant and his address, the amount for which the lien is claimed, and a description of the land or leasehold upon which the lien is claimed. Notice shall be delivered personally to the purchaser or by registered or certified mail. A purchaser who has received such notice shall withhold payment for such oil or gas runs to the extent of the lien amount claimed, together with legal interest, until said lien has been satisfied or held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.813 Liability of interest holder to subcontractors.—Nothing in this part shall be deemed to fix a liability upon an interest holder greater than the amount for which the interest holder would be liable to the original contractor. Payment made by the interest holder to the original contractor prior to notice of a subcontractor's lien shall be considered satisfaction of obligations to the extent of such payments. Payments made by the interest holder to a subcontractor pursuant to a valid lien shall be considered satisfaction of obligations owed by the interest holder to the contractor under the contract to the extent of such payments.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.815 Date lien arises.—The liens provided for in this part arise on the date of furnishing of the first item of material or service or the date of performance of the first labor. Upon compliance with the provisions of s. 713.821, such lien shall be preferred to all other titles, charges, liens, or encumbrances which may, subsequent to the date the lien herein provided for arises, attach to or upon any of the property upon which a lien is given by this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.817 Parity of liens; exception.—All liens arising by virtue of this part upon the same property shall be of the same class, except that liens of persons for the performance of labor shall be preferred to all other liens arising by virtue of this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.819 When single claim of lien sufficient.

—All labor performed, and materials and services furnished, by any person entitled to a lien under this part shall, for the purposes of this part, be considered to have been performed or furnished under a single contract, regardless of whether or not the same was performed or furnished at different times or on separate orders. However, no more than 90 days shall have elapsed between the date of performance of such labor or the date of furnishing such materials or services and the date on which labor is next performed or materials or services are next furnished.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.821 Claim of lien.—The manner of perfecting a lien under this part shall be the same as that provided in s. 713.08.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.823 Release of lien by filing bond.—Any licensee may release his property from any lien under this part in the manner provided by s. 713.76.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

713.825 Duration of lien.—No lien provided by this part shall continue for a period longer than 1 year after the claim of lien has been recorded, unless within that time an action to enforce the lien is commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-51.

CHAPTER 715

PROPERTY; GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 715.01 Title to personal property found in public places.
- 715.02 Prohibiting recovery from seller of forfeited deposit or down payment made by check, draft or obligation refused through no fault of seller.
- 715.03 Laundries and drycleaners; disposition of unclaimed articles.
- 715.04 Pawnbrokers; disposition of pledged property for nonpayment of principal or interest.
- 715.041 Recovery of stolen property from pawnbrokers.
- 715.05 Reporting of unclaimed motor vehicles.
- 715.06 Real estate; exploration for minerals.
- 715.065 Jewelry stores; television or radio repair stores; disposition of unclaimed articles.
- 715.07 Vehicles parked on private property; towing.

(1) The title to all personal property found in or upon public conveyances, premises at the time used for business purposes, parks, places of amusement, public recreation areas, and other places open to the public is hereby vested in the finder unless the same be called for or claimed by the rightful owner thereof within 6 months after the finding thereof.

(2) Employees of any state, county, or municipal agency shall be deemed agents of such governmental entity, and personal property found by them during the course of their official duties shall be turned in to the proper person or department designated to receive such property by the said governmental entity. Such property shall be securely kept for the period of time as required by this section, after which time, if unclaimed by the rightful owner, the title to such property shall be vested in the state, county, or municipality and not in the employee.

(3) Employees of public transportation systems shall be deemed agents of such transportation systems, and personal property found on public conveyances, in depots, or in garages of said transportation system shall be turned in to the proper person or department designated to receive such property by the said transportation systems. Such property shall be securely kept for the period of time as required by this section, after which time, if unclaimed by the rightful owner, the title of such property shall be vested in the transportation system and not in the employee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 24313, 1947; s. 1, ch. 78-150.

715.02 Prohibiting recovery from seller of forfeited deposit or down payment made by check, draft or obligation refused through no fault of seller.—In any action by any person against the seller of real property for any share of a forfeited deposit or down payment by a prospective purchaser, no check, draft or other obligation of such prospective purchaser shall be construed to be a deposit and the action shall not be maintained by any person against the seller by reason thereof, if payment of said check, draft or obligation is refused through no fault of the seller, notwithstanding any recitation of a receipt of said deposit in any written agreement.

History.—s. 1, ch. 24304, 1947; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949.

715.03 Laundries and drycleaners; disposition of unclaimed articles.—If any person shall fail to claim any garment, clothing, household article or other articles delivered for laundering, cleaning, or pressing to any laundry or drycleaning establishment for a period of 6 months after the delivery of such article for laundering, cleaning or processing the laundry or drycleaning establishment to whom the garment, clothing or household article is delivered shall have the right to dispose of such garment, clothing or household article by whatsoever means it may choose without incurring liability or responsibility to the owner provided, however, that before such laundry or drycleaning establishment may claim the benefits of this section it shall at the time of the receiving of such garment, clothing or household articles, give to the individual delivering such article notice in writing that the articles so delivered may be disposed of by such laundry or drycleaning establishment unless such articles are reclaimed within 6 months from date of delivery to such laundry or drycleaning establishments. Provided, further, that if any garment, clothing, household article or other articles referred to above is left at a laundry or drycleaning establishment for storage, and insurance is charged for thereon, then, in that event, the said 6 months as set forth above in this section shall not start to run until the period for which the article so insured has expired and when the time for which the insurance on said garment, clothing or household article shall have expired then the laundry or drycleaning establishment may dispose of the property as though no insurance had been placed on said property in the same way as is provided hereinabove in this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-416.

715.04 Pawnbrokers; disposition of pledged property for nonpayment of principal or interest.—

(1) Any article or articles placed with a licensed pawnbroker within this state pledged as security for a loan of money shall be subject to sale and disposal at public or private sale when there has been no payment on account of principal or interest made for a period of 6 months, subject to the provisions of this section.

(2) Every pawn ticket or receipt for such pledge shall have printed thereon the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) which shall constitute notice to the pledgor of such sale and disposal and shall further constitute notice of intention to sell and dispose of the property without further notice to the pledgor, and shall further constitute consent to such sale by the pledgor. Any sale or disposal of property under this section shall terminate all liability of the pledgee to the pledgor and shall vest in a purchaser the right, title and interest of the pledgor and pawnbroker.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 57-811.

(1) Any person who sells property to a pawnbroker or pledges the property as security for a loan shall present either a driver's license or other comparable identification to the pawnbroker. The pawnbroker shall record the date of the transaction, the type of identification, the name and address as it appears on the item of identification, and the identifying number appearing thereon and have the record signed by the person from whom he receives the property. This record shall be made available to any law enforcement agency or officer upon request.

(2) The lawful owner of any stolen property in the possession of a pawnbroker may recover such property by informing any law enforcement agency of the location of such property and providing the agency with proof of ownership of the property provided a timely report of the theft of the property was made to the proper authorities. Upon the receipt of such proof, any law enforcement officer is authorized to recover the property from the pawnbroker, without expense to the lawful owner thereof, unless the pawnbroker presents evidence of having received proof of ownership of such property by the person who sold it to the pawnbroker or pledged the property as security for a loan. Any property recovered from a pawnbroker pursuant to this section shall be returned to the lawful owner subject to its use as evidence in any criminal proceeding.

(3) When the lawful owner recovers stolen property and the person who sold or pledged the stolen property to the pawnbroker is convicted of theft, the court may order the defendant to make restitution pursuant to s. 775.089.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-249.

715.05 Reporting of unclaimed motor vehicles.—

(1) The person in charge of any garage or repair shop or automotive service, storage, or parking place shall report in writing to the city police department, or the nearest police department where the establishment is located outside of an incorporated municipality, and the sheriff's department, the nearest Florida Highway Patrol Office, and the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles on a form prescribed, prepared in quadruplicate, and furnished by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, any motor vehicle involuntarily brought and left unclaimed in his place of business for more than 10 days from date of storage.

(2) When the department receives notice of an unclaimed vehicle as prescribed in subsection (1), it shall search its files to determine the owner's name and if any person has filed a lien upon the vehicle as provided by s. 319.27(2) and (3). Within 10 days of the receipt of the notice, the department shall by certified mail notify the owner and any lienholders shown in its files of the location of the vehicle and of the fact that it is unclaimed.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall apply to any licensed public lodging establishment.

(4) Failure to comply with subsection (1) shall preclude the imposition of any unreasonable storage charges against such vehicle after 3 weeks from the date of storage.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 63-431; s. 1, ch. 65-112; ss. 24, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 79-271.

715.06 Real estate; exploration for minerals.

—Where title to the surface of real property and title to the subsurface and minerals on or under such real property is divided into different ownerships, then the surface owner and his heirs, successors and assigns shall be entitled to explore, drill and prospect such real property, including the subsurface thereof, for all minerals except oil, gas and sulphur without being liable to the owners of the minerals, or any party or parties claiming under such owners, for any damages or for the value of such minerals, as it is usual by customary prospecting methods and procedures to take from such land for the purpose of analyzing and determining the kind and extent thereof.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-120.

715.065 Jewelry stores; television or radio repair stores; disposition of unclaimed articles.—

If any person fails to claim any article of jewelry or other article delivered to a jewelry store or television or radio repair store for repair, cleaning, or adjustment, for a period of 1 year after such delivery, the jewelry store or television or radio repair store shall have the right to dispose of such jewelry or other article by whatever means it may choose, without incurring liability or responsibility to the owner of such jewelry or other article. However, before the jewelry store or television or radio repair store may claim the benefits of this section, it shall, at the time of receiving such jewelry or other article, give to the individual delivering such jewelry or other article notice in writing that the jewelry or other article delivered may be disposed of by the jewelry store or television or radio repair store unless the jewelry or other article is reclaimed within 1 year from the date of delivery. Notice by certified mail shall be given to the person who deposits the jewelry or other article of the intended disposition thereof 15 days prior to said disposition. Any value of the jewelry or other articles sold or disposed of pursuant to this section which is in excess of the costs and expenses incurred by the store shall be tendered to the person who deposited the article, within 15 days after the sale or other disposition of the article.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-255.

715.07 Vehicles parked on private property; towing.—

(1) As used in this section, "vehicle" means any mobile item which normally uses wheels, whether motorized or not.

(2) The owner or lessor of real property, or any person authorized by the owner or lessor, which person may be the designated representative of the condominium association if the real property is a condominium, may cause any vehicle parked on such property without his or her permission to be removed by a person regularly engaged in the business of towing vehicles, without liability for the costs of removal, transportation, or storage or damages caused by such removal, transportation, or storage, under any of the following circumstances:

(a) The towing or removal of any vehicle from private property without the consent of the registered owner or other legally authorized person in control of that vehicle is subject to strict compliance with the following conditions and restrictions:

1. Any towed or removed vehicle must be stored at a site within 5 miles from the point of removal in any county of 500,000 or more, and within 15 miles from the point of removal in any county of less than 500,000 population. That site must be open for the purpose of redemption of vehicles on any day that the person or firm towing said vehicle is open for towing purposes, from 11:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m., and, when closed, shall have prominently posted a sign indicating a telephone number where the operator of the site can be reached at all times. Upon receipt of a telephoned request to open the site to redeem a vehicle, the operator shall have 1 hour to return to the site or he shall be in violation of this section.

2. The person or firm towing or removing the vehicle shall, within 30 minutes of completion of such towing or removal, notify the municipal police department or, in an unincorporated area, the sheriff of such towing or removal, the storage site, the time it was towed or removed, and the make, model, color, and license plate number of that vehicle and shall obtain the name of the person at that department to whom such information was reported and note that name on the trip record.

3. If the registered owner or other legally authorized person in control of the vehicle shall arrive at the scene prior to removal or towing of the vehicle, the vehicle shall be disconnected from the towing or removal apparatus, and that person shall be allowed to remove the vehicle without interference upon the payment of a reasonable service fee of not more than one-half of the posted rate for such towing service as provided in subparagraph 6., for which a receipt shall be given, unless said person refuses to remove the vehicle which is otherwise unlawfully parked.

4. The rebate or payment of money or any other valuable consideration from the individual or firm towing or removing vehicles to the owners or operators of the premises from which the vehicles are towed or removed, for the privilege of removing or towing those vehicles, is prohibited.

5. Except for property appurtenant to and obviously a part of a single-family residence, and except for instances when notice is personally given to the owner or other legally authorized person in control of the vehicle that the area in which that vehicle is parked is reserved or otherwise unavailable for unauthorized vehicles and subject to being removed at the owner's or operator's expense, any property owner or lessor, or person authorized by the property owner or lessor, prior to towing or removing any vehicle from private property without the consent of the owner or other legally authorized person in control of that vehicle, must post a notice meeting the following requirements:

a. The notice must be prominently placed at each driveway access or curb cut allowing vehicular access to the property, within 5 feet from the public right-of-way line. If there are no curbs or access barriers, the signs must be posted not less than one sign each 25 feet of lot frontage.

b. The notice must clearly indicate, in not less than 2-inch high, light-reflective letters on a contrasting background, that unauthorized vehicles will be towed away at the owner's expense. The words "tow-away zone" must be included on the sign in not less than 4-inch high letters.

c. The notice must also provide the name and current telephone number of the person or firm towing or removing the vehicles, if the property owner, lessor, or person in control of the property has a written contract with the towing company.

d. The sign structure containing the required notices must be permanently installed with the bottom of the sign not less than 4 feet above ground level and must be continuously maintained on the property for not less than 24 hours prior to the towing or removal of any vehicles.

e. The local government may require permitting and inspection of these signs prior to any towing or removal of vehicles being authorized.

6. Any person or firm that tows or removes vehicles and proposes to require an owner, operator, or person in control of a vehicle to pay the costs of towing and storage prior to redemption of the vehicle must file and keep on record with the local law enforcement agency a complete copy of the current rates to be charged for such services and post at the storage site an identical rate schedule and any written contracts with property owners, lessors, or persons in control of property which authorize them to remove vehicles as provided in this section.

7. Any person or firm towing or removing any vehicles from private property without the consent of the owner or other legally authorized person in control of the vehicles shall, on any trucks or other vehicles used in said towing or removal, have clearly indicated, in at least 2-inch letters, such person's or firm's name, address, and telephone number on the driver and passenger side doors.

8. Vehicle entry for the purpose of removing the vehicle shall be allowed with reasonable care on the part of the person or firm towing the vehicle. Said person or firm shall be liable for any damage occasioned to the vehicle if such entry is not in accordance with the standard of reasonable care.

9. When a vehicle has been towed or removed pursuant to this section, it must be released to its owner or custodian within ½ hour after requested. Any vehicle owner, custodian, or agent shall have the right to inspect the vehicle before accepting its return, and no release or waiver of any kind which would release the person or firm towing the vehicle from liability for damages noted by the owner or other legally authorized person at the time of the redemption may be required from any vehicle owner, custodian, or agent as a condition of release of the vehicle to its owner. A detailed, signed receipt showing the legal name of the company or person towing or removing the vehicle must be given to the person paying towing or storage charges at the time of payment, whether requested or not.

(b) These requirements shall be the minimum standards and shall not preclude enactment of additional regulations by any municipality or county.

(3) This section shall not apply to law enforcement, firefighting, rescue squad, ambulance, or other emergency vehicles which are marked as such or to property owned by any governmental entity.

(4) When a person improperly causes a vehicle to be removed, such person shall be liable to the owner or lessee of the vehicle for the cost of removal, transportation, and storage; any damages resulting from the removal, transportation, or storage of the vehicle; attorneys' fees; and court costs.

ESCHEATS

- 716.01 Declaration of policy.
- 716.02 Escheat of funds in the possession of federal agencies.
- 716.03 Department to institute proceedings to recover escheated property.
- 716.04 Jurisdiction.
- 716.05 Money recovered to be paid into the state treasury.
- 716.06 Public records.
- 716.07 Recovery of escheated property by claimant.

716.01 Declaration of policy.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state, while protecting the interests of the owners thereof, to possess all unclaimed and abandoned money and property for the benefit of all the people of the state, and this law shall be liberally construed to accomplish such purpose.

History.—s. 1, ch. 24333, 1947.

716.02 Escheat of funds in the possession of federal agencies.—All property within the provisions of subsections (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5), are declared to have escheated, or to escheat, including all principal and interest accruing thereon, and to have become the property of the state.

(1) All money or other property which has remained in, or has been deposited in the custody of, or under the control of, any court of the United States, in and for any district within this state, or which has been deposited with and is in the custody of any depository, registry, clerk or other officer of such court, or the United States treasury, which money or other property the rightful owner or owners thereof, either:

(a) Has been unknown for a period of 5 or more consecutive years; or,

(b) Has died, without having disposed thereof, and without having left heirs, next of kin or distributees, or are declared to have escheated, or to escheat, together with all interest accrued thereon, and to have become the property of the state.

(c) Has made no demand for such money or other property for 5 years;

(2) After June 16, 1947, all money or other property which has remained in, or has been deposited in the custody of, or under the control of, any court of the United States, in and for any district within this state, for a period of 4 years, the rightful owner or owners of which, either:

(a) Shall have been unknown for a period of 4 years; or,

(b) Shall have died without having disposed thereof, and without having left or without leaving heirs, next of kin or distributees; or,

(c) Shall have failed within 4 years to demand the payment or delivery of such funds or other prop-

is hereby declared to have escheated, or to escheat, together with all interest accrued thereon, and to have become the property of the state.

(3) All money or other property which has remained in, or has been deposited in the custody of, or under the control of any officer, department or agency of the United States for 5 or more consecutive years, which money or other property had its situs or source in this state, except as hereinafter provided in subsection (4), the sender of which is unknown, or who sent the money or other property for an unknown purpose, or money which is credited as "unknown," and which said governmental agency is unable to credit to any particular account, or the sender of which has been unknown for a period of 5 or more consecutive years; or when known, has died without having disposed thereof, and without leaving heirs, next of kin or distributees, or for any reason is unclaimed from such governmental agency.

(4) In the event any money is due to any resident of this state as a refund, rebate or tax rebate from the United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the United States Treasurer, or other governmental agency or department, which said resident will, or is likely to have his rights to apply for and secure such refund or rebate barred by any statute of limitations or, in any event, has failed for a period of 1 year after said resident could have filed a claim for said refund or rebate, the Department of Banking and Finance is hereby appointed agent of such resident to demand, file and apply for said refund or rebate, and is hereby appointed to do any act which a natural person could do to recover said money, and it is hereby declared that when the department files said application or any other proceeding to secure said refund or rebate, its agency is coupled with an interest in the money sought and money recovered.

(5) It is the purpose of this chapter to include all funds or other property in the possession of the government of the United States, and of its departments, officers, and agencies, which property has its situs in this state or belonged to a resident thereof, and not to limit the application of this chapter by the naming of any particular agency. This chapter shall include all funds held in the Veterans' Administration, Comptroller of Currency, United States Treasury, Department of Internal Revenue, federal courts, registry of federal courts, and such evidences of indebtedness as adjusted service bonds, old matured debts issued prior to 1917, unclaimed and interest thereon, postal savings bonds, liberty bonds, victory notes, treasury bonds, treasury notes, certificates of indebtedness, treasury bills, treasurer's savings certificates, bonuses and adjusted compensation, allotments, and all unclaimed refunds or rebates of whatever kind or nature, which are subjects of escheat, under the terms of this chapter. Provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any refunds due ratepayers under order of any court of the United States shall become the property of the state.

History.—s. 2, ch. 24333, 1947; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 70-405.

716.03 Department to institute proceedings to recover escheated property.—When there exists, or may exist, escheated funds or property under this chapter, the Department of Banking and Finance shall demand or institute proceedings in the name of the state for an adjudication that an escheat to the state of such funds or property has occurred; and shall take appropriate action to recover such funds or property.

History.—s. 3, ch. 24333, 1947; s. 11, ch. 25035, 1949; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

716.04 Jurisdiction.—Whenever the Department of Banking and Finance is of the opinion an escheat has occurred, or shall occur, of any money or other property deposited in the custody of, or under the control of, any court of the United States, in and for any district within the state, or in the custody of any depository, registry or clerk or other officer of such court, or the treasury of the United States, it shall cause to be filed a complaint in the circuit court of Leon County, or in any other court of competent jurisdiction, to ascertain if any escheat has occurred, and to cause said court to enter a judgment or decree of escheat in favor of the state, with costs, disbursements, and attorney fee.

History.—s. 4, ch. 24333, 1947; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

716.05 Money recovered to be paid into the state treasury.—When any funds or property which have been escheated within the meaning of this chapter, shall have been recovered by the Department of Banking and Finance, it shall first pay all costs incident to the collection and recovery of such funds and property, and shall promptly deposit the remaining balance of said funds or property with the treasurer of the state, to be distributed in accordance with law.

History.—s. 5, ch. 24333, 1947; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

716.06 Public records.—All records in the office of the state treasurer or the Department of Banking and Finance relating to federal funds, pursuant to this chapter, shall be public records.

History.—s. 6, ch. 24333, 1947; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

(1) Any person who claims any property, funds or money delivered to the state treasurer under this chapter, shall, within 5 years from the date of receipt of said property, funds or money, file a verified claim with the state treasurer, setting forth the facts upon which said party claims to be entitled to recover said money or property. The state treasurer, within 5 days after receipt of such claim, shall submit said verified claim or a verified copy thereof, to the Department of Banking and Finance. All claims made for recovery of property, funds or money, not filed within 5 years from the date that said property, funds or money is received by the state treasurer, shall be forever barred, and the treasurer of the state shall be without power to consider or determine any claims so made by any claimant after 5 years from the date that the property, funds or money was received by the state treasurer.

(2) The Comptroller shall approve or disapprove the claim. If the claim is approved, the funds, money, or property of the claimant, less any expenses and costs which shall have been incurred by the state in securing the possession of said property, as provided by this chapter, shall be delivered to him by the State Treasurer upon warrant issued according to law and his receipt taken therefor. If the court finds, upon any judicial review, that the claimant is entitled to the property, money, or funds claimed, and shall render judgment in his or its favor, declaring that the claimant is entitled to said property, funds, or money, then upon presentation of said judgment or a certified copy thereof to the State Comptroller, said Comptroller shall draw his warrant for the amount of money stated in said judgment, without interest or cost to the state, less any sum paid by the state as costs or expenses in securing possession of said property, funds, or money. When payment has been made to any claimant, no action thereafter shall be maintained by any other claimant against the state or any officer thereof, for or on account of said money, property, or funds.

717.01 Short title.—This act may be cited as the "Florida Disposition of Unclaimed Property Act."

History.—s. 31, ch. 61-10.

717.02 Definitions and use of terms.—As used in this act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Banking organization" means any state or national bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, or safe deposit company, whether organized or operated under state or federal law.

(2) "Business association" means any corporation, joint stock company, business trust, partnership, or any association for business purposes of two or more individuals.

(3) "Financial organization" means any savings and loan association, building and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, or investment company, engaged in business in this state, whether organized or operated under state or federal law.

(4) "Holder" means any person in possession of property subject to this act belonging to another, or who is trustee in case of a trust, or indebted to another on an obligation subject to this act.

(5) "Insurance corporation" means any association or corporation transacting within this state the business of insurance on the lives of persons or insurance appertaining thereto, including, but not by way of limitation, endowments and annuities; disability, accident and health insurance; and property, casualty and surety insurance; as all said terms are defined in chapter 624, part V.

(6) "Owner" means a depositor, or a person entitled to receive the funds as reflected on the records of the bank or financial organization, in case of a deposit, a beneficiary in case of a trust, a creditor, claimant, or payee in case of other choses in action, or any person having a legal or equitable interest in property subject to this act, or his legal representative.

(7) "Person" means any individual, business association, government or political subdivision, public corporation, public authority, estate, trust, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(8) "Utility" means any person who owns or operates within this state, for public use, any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, for the production, storage, transmission, sale, delivery or furnishing of electricity, water, steam, or gas, or for the transportation of persons or property.

(9) "Department" means the Department of Banking and Finance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 279, ch. 71-377; s. 1, ch. 77-236.

717.03 Property held by banking or financial organizations.—The following property held or owing by a banking or financial organization is presumed abandoned:

(1) Any demand, savings, or matured time deposit made in this state with a banking organization, together with any interest or dividends thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has, within 10 years:

(a) Increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest;

(b) Corresponded in writing with the banking organization concerning the deposit; or

(c) Otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking organization.

(2) Any funds paid in this state toward the purchase of shares or other interest in a financial organization, or any deposit made therewith in this state, and any interest or dividends thereon, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has, within 10 years:

(a) Increased or decreased the amount of the funds or deposit, or presented an appropriate record for the crediting of interest or dividends;

(b) Corresponded in writing with the financial organization concerning the funds or deposit; or

(c) Otherwise indicated an interest in the fund or deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the financial organization.

(3) Any sum payable on checks certified in this state or on written instruments issued in this state on which a banking or financial organization is directly liable, including by way of illustration but not of limitation, certificates of deposit, drafts, and traveler's checks, that, with the exception of traveler's checks, has been outstanding for more than 10 years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, or, in the case of traveler's checks, that has been outstanding for more than 15 years from the date of issuance, unless the owner has within 10 years, or within 15 years in the case of traveler's checks, corresponded in writing with the banking or financial organization concerning it, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking or financial organization.

(4) Any funds or other personal property, tangible or intangible, removed from a safe-deposit box, or agency or collateral deposit box, in this state on which the lease or rental period has expired due to nonpayment of rental charges or other reason, or any surplus amounts arising from the sale thereof pursuant to law, that have been unclaimed by the owner for more than 7 years from the date on which the lease or rental period expired.

History.—s. 2, ch. 61-10; s. 2, ch. 77-236.

717.04 Unclaimed funds held by insurance corporations.—

(1) LIFE INSURANCE.—

(a) Unclaimed funds, as defined in this subsection, held and owing by a life insurance corporation shall be presumed abandoned if the last known address, according to the records of the corporation, of the person entitled to the funds is within this state. If a person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the funds and no address of such person is known to the corporation or if it is not definite and certain from the records of the corporation what person is entitled to the funds, it is presumed that the last known address of the person entitled to the funds is the same as the last known address of the insured or annuitant according to the records of the corporation.

(b) "Unclaimed funds," as used in subsection (1), means all moneys held and owing by any life insurance corporation, unclaimed and unpaid for more than 7 years after the moneys become due and payable, as established from the records of the corporation, under any life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract which has matured or terminated. A life insurance policy not matured by actual proof of the death of the insured is deemed to be matured, and the proceeds thereof are deemed to be due and payable, if such policy was in force when the insured attained the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based, unless the person appearing entitled thereto has within the preceding 7 years:

1. Assigned, readjusted, or paid premiums on the policy, or subjected the policy to loan; or

2. Corresponded in writing with the life insurance corporation concerning the policy.

(2) INSURANCE OTHER THAN LIFE INSURANCE.—

(a) Unclaimed funds as defined in subsection (1), held and owing by a fire, casualty or surety insurance corporation shall be presumed abandoned if the last known address according to the records of the corporation, of the person entitled to the funds is within this state. If a person other than the insured, the principal, or the claimant is entitled to the funds and no address of such person is known to the corporation or if it is not definite and certain from the records of the corporation what person is entitled to the funds, it is presumed that the last known address of the person entitled to the funds is the same as the last known address of the insured, the principal, or the claimant according to the records of the corporation.

(b) "Unclaimed funds," as used in subsection (2), means all moneys held and owing by any fire, casualty, or surety insurance corporation, unclaimed and unpaid for more than 7 years after the moneys become due and payable, as established from the records of the corporation, either to an insured, a principal, or a claimant under any fire, casualty, or surety insurance policy or contract.

(3) Moneys otherwise payable according to the records of the corporation are deemed due and payable although the policy or contract has not been surrendered as required.

History.—s. 3, ch. 61-10; s. 3, ch. 77-236.

717.05 Deposits and refunds held by utilities.

—The following funds held or owing by any utility are presumed abandoned:

(1) Any deposit made by a subscriber with a utility to secure payment for, or any sum paid in advance for, utility services to be furnished in this state, less any lawful deductions, together with any interest thereon, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled thereto for more than 7 years after the termination of the services for which the deposit or advance payment was made.

(2) Any sum which a utility has been ordered to refund and which was received for utility services rendered in this state, together with any interest thereon, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled thereto for more than 7 years after the date it became payable, in accordance with the final determination or order providing for the refund.

(3) Any sum paid to a utility for a utility service, which service has not, within 7 years of such payment, been rendered.

History.—s. 4, ch. 61-10; s. 4, ch. 77-236.

717.06 Undistributed dividends, distribution of business associations, stock or certificate of ownership.—

(1) Any dividend, profit, distribution, interest, payment on principal, or other sum held or owing by a business association for or to a shareholder, certificate holder, member, bondholder, or other security holder, or a participating patron of a cooperative, who has not claimed it, or corresponded in writing with the business association concerning it, within 7 years after the date prescribed for payment or delivery, is presumed abandoned if:

(a) The records of the business association indicate that the last known address of the apparent owner is in this state.

(b) No address of the apparent owner appears on the records of the business association and:

1. The last known address of the apparent owner is in this state; or

2. The business association is domiciled in this state and has not previously paid the property to the state of the last known address of the apparent owner.

(c) The last known address of the apparent owner, as shown on the records of the holder, is in a state designated by regulation adopted by the department as a state that does not provide by law for the escheat or other disposition of such property to the state, and the business association is domiciled in this state.

(d) The last known address of the apparent owner, as shown on the records of the business association, is in a foreign nation and the business association is domiciled in this state.

(2) When any dividend, profit, distribution, interest, payment on principal, or other sum under subsection (1) is presumed abandoned, the intangible interest in the business association, as evidenced by the stock records or membership records of the association, pursuant to which the sum in subsection (1) became owing to the owner, shall be presumed abandoned at the same time the sum is presumed abandoned. With respect to such interest, the business association shall be deemed the holder.

(3) Any dividend or stock split or exchange, or any distribution held and owing to a person at the time the stock or other security to which it attaches is presumed abandoned, shall also be presumed abandoned as of the same time.

History.—s. 5, ch. 61-10; s. 4, ch. 77-236.

717.07 Property of business associations and banking or financial organizations held in course of dissolution.—All intangible personal property distributable in the course of a voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation, business association, banking organization, credit union, or other financial organization organized under the laws of, or created in, this state that is unclaimed by the owner within 7 years after the date for final distribution, is presumed abandoned.

History.—s. 6, ch. 61-10; s. 4, ch. 77-236.

717.08 Property held by fiduciaries.—All intangible personal property, and any income or increment thereon, held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of another person is presumed abandoned unless the owner has, within 7 years after it becomes payable or distributable, increased or decreased the principal, accepted payment of principal or income, corresponded in writing concerning the property, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the fiduciary:

(1) If the property is held by a banking organization or a financial organization, or by a business association organized under the laws of, or created in, this state;

(2) If it is held by a business association doing business in this state but not organized under the laws of, or created in, this state, and the records of the business association indicate that the last known address of the person entitled thereto is in this state; or

(3) If it is held in this state by any other person.

History.—s. 7, ch. 61-10; s. 4, ch. 77-236.

cf.—s. 733.816 Disposition of unclaimed funds held by personal representatives.

717.09 Property held by state courts and public officers and agencies.—All intangible personal property held for the owner by any court, public corporation, public authority, or public officer of this state, or a political subdivision thereof, that has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than 7 years is presumed abandoned.

History.—s. 8, ch. 61-10; s. 4, ch. 77-236.

717.10 Miscellaneous personal property held for another person.—All intangible personal property, not otherwise covered by this act, including any income or increment thereon and deducting any lawful charges, that is held or owing in this state in the ordinary course of the holder's business and has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than 7 years after it became payable or distributable is presumed abandoned.

History.—s. 9, ch. 61-10; s. 4, ch. 77-236.

717.11 Reciprocity for property presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state.—If specific property which is subject to the provisions of this act is held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is in another state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of that state, the specific property is not presumed abandoned in this state and subject to this act if:

(1) It may be claimed as abandoned or escheated under the laws of such other state; and

(2) The laws of such other state make reciprocal provision that similar specific property is not presumed abandoned or escheatable by such other state when held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is within this state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of this state.

History.—s. 10, ch. 61-10.

717.12 Report of abandoned property.—

(1) Every person holding funds or other property, tangible or intangible, presumed abandoned under this act shall report to the Department of Banking and Finance with respect to the property as herein-after provided.

(2) The report shall be verified and shall include:

(a) The name, if known, and last known address, if any, of each person appearing from the records of the holder to be the owner of any property of the value of $25 or more presumed abandoned under this act;

(b) In case of unclaimed funds of life insurance corporations, the full name of the insured or annuitant and his last known address according to the life insurance corporation's records;

(c) The nature and identifying number, if any, or description of the property and the amount appearing from the records to be due, except that items of value under $25 each may be reported in aggregate;

(d) The date when the property became payable, demandable, or returnable, and the date of the last transaction with the owner with respect to the property; and

(e) Other information which the department prescribes by rule as necessary for the administration of this act.

(3) If the person holding property presumed abandoned is a successor to other persons who previously held the property for the owner, or if the holder has changed his name while holding the property, he shall file with his report all prior known names and addresses of each holder of the property.

(4) The report shall be filed before November 1 of each year as of June 30 next preceding, but the report of insurance corporations shall be filed before May 1 of each year as of December 31 next preceding. The department may postpone the reporting date upon written request by any person required to file a report.

(5) If the holder of property presumed abandoned under this act knows the whereabouts of the owner and if the owner's claim has not been barred by the statute of limitations, the holder shall, before filing the annual report, communicate with the owner and take necessary steps to prevent abandonment from being presumed. The holder shall exercise due diligence to ascertain the whereabouts of the owner.

(6) Verification, if made by a partnership, shall be executed by a partner; if made by an unincorporated association or private corporation, by an officer; and if made by a public corporation, by its chief fiscal officer.

History.—s. 11, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 222, ch. 77-104.

717.13 Notice and publication of lists of abandoned property.

(1) Within 120 days from the filing date as set forth in s. 717.12, the department shall cause notice to be published at least once each week for 2 successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in this state in which is located the last known address of any person to be named in the notice. If no address is listed, or if the address is outside this state, the notice shall be published in the county in which the holder of the abandoned property has his principal place of business within this state.

(2) The published notice shall be entitled "Notice of names of persons appearing to be owners of abandoned property," and shall contain:

(a) The names in alphabetical order and last known addresses, if any, of persons listed in the report and entitled to notice within the county as hereinbefore specified.

(b) A statement that information concerning the amount or description of the property and the name and address of the holder may be obtained by any persons possessing an interest in the property by addressing an inquiry to the department.

(c) A statement that if proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder and if the owner's right to receive the property is not established to the holder's satisfaction within 65 days from the date of the second published notice, the abandoned property will be placed not later than 85 days after such publication date in the custody of the department to which all further claims must thereafter be directed.

(3) The department is not required to publish in such notice any item of less than $25 unless it deems such publication to be in the public interest.

(4) Within 120 days from the final filing date of the report required by s. 717.12, the department shall mail a notice to each person having an address listed therein who appears to be entitled to property of the value of $25 or more presumed abandoned under this act.

(5) The mail notice shall contain:

(a) A statement that, according to a report filed with the department property is being held to which the addressee appears entitled.

(b) The name and address of the person holding the property and any necessary information regarding changes of name and address of the holder.

(c) A statement that, if satisfactory proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder by the date specified in the published notice, the property will be placed in the custody of the department to which all further claims must be directed.

History.—s. 12, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 5, ch. 77-236.

717.131 Petition for administrative declaration of abandoned property.—The holder of any item of personal property, tangible or intangible, may file with the department a petition requesting the department to accept custody of the property, alleging that special circumstances exist, showing compliance with s. 717.12(1), (2), (3), (5) and (6), and attaching proof that a diligent search and inquiry has been made to locate the owner. If the department finds that the proof of diligent search is satisfactory and that acceptance will preserve and protect the interests of the owner and the state, it shall give notice as provided in s. 717.13 and may accept custody of the property prior to the expiration of the statutory waiting period. Upon acceptance by the department, such property is presumed abandoned.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-35; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 6, ch. 77-236.

717.14 Payments or delivery of abandoned property.—Every person who has filed a report as provided by s. 717.12 shall, within 20 days after the time specified in s. 717.13 for claiming the property from the holder, pay or deliver to the department all abandoned property specified in the report, except that, if the owner establishes his right to receive the abandoned property to the satisfaction of the holder within the time specified in s. 717.13, or if it appears that for some other reason the presumption of abandonment is erroneous, the holder need not pay or deliver the property, which will no longer be presumed abandoned, to the department, but in lieu thereof shall file a verified written explanation of the proof of claim or of the error in the presumption of abandonment.

History.—s. 13, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 77-236.

717.15 Relief from liability by payment or delivery.—

(1) Upon the payment or delivery of abandoned property to the department, the state shall assume custody and shall be responsible for the safekeeping thereof. The retention of related pertinent records shall remain the responsibility of the original holder. Any person who pays or delivers abandoned property to the department under this act is relieved of all liability to the extent of the value of the property so paid or delivered for any claim which then exists or which thereafter may arise or be made in respect to the property. Any holder who has paid moneys to the department pursuant to this act may make payment to any person appearing to such holder to be entitled thereto, and upon proof of such payment and proof that the payee was entitled thereto, the department shall forthwith reimburse the holder for the payment.

(2) The holder of any interest under s. 717.06(2) or (3) or s. 717.10 shall deliver a duplicate certificate to the department within the time specified in s. 717.14. Upon delivery to the department, the holder and any transfer agent, registrar, or other person acting for or on behalf of the holder in executing or delivering such duplicate certificate shall be relieved from all liability to any person, including, but not limited to, any person acquiring the certificate presumed abandoned or the certificate issued to the department, for any losses or damages resulting to such person by the issuance and delivery to the department of such duplicate certificate.

History.—s. 14, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 77-236.

717.16 Income accruing after payment or delivery.—When cash property is paid or delivered to the department under this act, the owner is not entitled to receive income or other increments accruing thereafter. When income-producing property other than money is delivered to the department under this act, any dividends, interest, or other increments realized or accruing on such property at or prior to liquidation or conversion thereof into cash shall be credited to the owner's account by the department.

History.—s. 15, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 77-236.

717.17 Periods of limitation not a bar.—The expiration of any period of time specified by statute or court order, during which an action or proceeding may be commenced or enforced to obtain payment of a claim for money or recovery of property, shall not prevent the money or property from being presumed abandoned property, nor affect any duty to file a report required by this act or to pay or deliver abandoned property to the department.

History.—s. 16, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

717.18 Sale of abandoned property.—

(1) All abandoned property, other than money, delivered to the department under this act may be sold by it. All stocks, certificates of ownership, and bonds of value received by the department shall be sold within 1 year from receipt. However, the department shall have the discretion to withhold from sale any abandoned property that the department deems to be of benefit to the people of this state. Any sale of property other than stocks and bonds shall be to the highest bidder at public sale in whatever place in the state affords in its judgment the most favorable market for the property involved. The department may decline the highest bid and reoffer the property for sale if it considers the price bid insufficient. It need not offer any property for sale if, in its opinion, the probable cost of sale exceeds the value of the property.

(2) Any sale held under this section shall be preceded by a single publication of notice thereof, at least 3 weeks in advance of sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is to be sold.

(3) The department may make, execute, and deliver to the purchaser a good and sufficient bill of sale, assignment, or transfer of title of the property sold. If a bond, certificate of shares of stock, or certificate of membership in a corporation or association is sold and assigned, the assignment thereof shall have the same force and effect as though made by the original owner and shall entitle the purchaser to all rights of ownership in and to such certificate. The department shall execute such assignment and transfer as the duly constituted agent and trustee of such original owner.

(4) If the department determines that any property delivered to it pursuant to this act has no apparent value, it may at any time thereafter destroy or dispose of same with the written approval of the Department of State. In that event, no action or proceeding shall be brought or maintained against the state, any state employee, or against the holder on account of any action taken by the department pursuant to this subsection with respect to said property.

History.—s. 17, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 72-192; s. 8, ch. 77-236.

717.19 Deposit of funds.—All funds received under this act, including the proceeds from the sale of abandoned property under s. 717.18, shall forthwith be deposited by the department in the state school fund of the state, except that the department shall retain in a separate account an amount not exceeding $150,000 from which it shall make prompt payment of claims duly allowed by it as hereinafter provided and for all expenses incurred in administering this act. Before making the deposit it shall record the name and last known address of each person appearing from the holders' reports to be entitled to the abandoned property and the name and last known address of each insured person or annuitant, and with respect to each policy or contract listed in the report of an insurance corporation, its number, the name of the corporation, and the amount due. The record shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

History.—s. 18, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 9, ch. 77-236.

717.195 Administration of abandoned property.—Abandoned property under this chapter shall be administered by the Division of Finance of the Department of Banking and Finance and shall be funded from funds available in the regulatory trust fund under the division. An amount equal to the actual costs incurred in the administration of this chapter shall be transferred from the separate account specified in s. 717.19 to the regulatory trust fund annually.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-174; s. 9, ch. 77-236; s. 261, ch. 79-400.

717.20 Claim for abandoned property paid or delivered.—Any person claiming at any time an interest in any property delivered to the state under this act may file a claim thereto or to the proceeds from the sale thereof on the form prescribed by the department.

History.—s. 19, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

717.21 Determination of claims.—

(1) The department shall determine any claim filed under this act.

(2) If the claim is allowed, the department shall make payment forthwith. The claim shall be paid without deduction for costs of notices or sale or for service charges.

History.—s. 20, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 78-95.

717.22 Judicial action upon determination.—

Any person aggrieved by a decision of the department, or as to whose claim the department has failed to act within 90 days after the filing of the claim, may petition for review as provided in chapter 120 to establish his claim. The proceeding shall be brought within 90 days after the decision of the department or within 180 days from the filing of the claim if the department fails to act.

History.—s. 21, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 9, ch. 77-236.

717.23 Election to take payment or delivery.

—The department, after receiving reports of property deemed abandoned pursuant to this act, may decline to receive any property reported which it deems to have a value less than the cost of giving notice and holding sale or it may, if it deems it desirable because of the small sum involved, postpone taking possession until a sufficient sum accumulates.

History.—s. 22, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

717.24 Examination of records.—The department may at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice examine the records of any person if it has reason to believe that such person has failed to report property that should have been reported pursuant to this act. If any person refuses to permit the examination of his records, the department may issue subpoena to compel such person to testify and produce his records; said subpoena to be served by the sheriff of the county where the person resides or may be found. Such person shall be entitled to the same per diem and mileage as witnesses appearing in the circuit court of the state which shall be paid by the state. If any person shall refuse to obey any subpoena so issued or shall refuse to testify or produce his records, the department may present its petition to the circuit court of the county where any such person is served with the subpoena or where he resides, whereupon said court shall issue its rule nisi to such person requiring him to obey forthwith the subpoena issued by the department or show cause why he fails to obey the same, and unless the said person shows sufficient cause for failing to obey the said subpoena, the court shall forthwith direct such person to obey the same, and upon his refusal to comply, he shall be adjudged in contempt of court and shall be punished as the court may direct.

History.—s. 23, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 223, ch. 77-104.

717.25 Proceeding to compel delivery of abandoned property.—If any person refuses to deliver property to the department as required under this act, it shall bring an action in a court of appropriate jurisdiction to enforce such delivery.

History.—s. 24, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

717.27 Penalties.—

(1) Any person who willfully fails to render any report or perform other duties required under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Any person who willfully refuses to pay or deliver abandoned property to the department as required under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) Any person who willfully or fraudulently conceals, destroys, damages, or makes unlawful disposition of any property or of the books, records, or accounts pertaining to property which is subject to the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 26, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 688, ch. 71-136; s. 10, ch. 77-236.

717.28 Rules and regulations.—The department is hereby authorized to make necessary rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 27, ch. 61-10; ss. 12, 35, ch. 69-106.

717.29 Effect of laws of other states.—This act shall not apply to any property that has been presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state prior to September 30, 1961.

History.—s. 28, ch. 61-10.

717.30 Repeal.—This act shall not repeal, but shall be additional and supplemental to the existing provisions of ss. 43.18, 43.19, 402.17, and 550.164 and chapter 716.

History.—s. 30, ch. 61-10; s. 175, ch. 79-164.

718.101 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Condominium Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.102 Purposes.—The purpose of this chapter is:

- (1) To give statutory recognition to the condominium form of ownership of real property.
- (2) To establish procedures for the creation, sale, and operation of condominiums.

Every condominium created and existing in this state shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.103 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Assessment" means a share of the funds required for the payment of common expenses, which from time to time is assessed against the unit owner.
- (2) "Association" means the corporate entity responsible for the operation of a condominium.
- (3) "Board of administration" means the board of directors or other representative body responsible for administration of the association.
- (4) "Conspicuous type" means type in capital letters no smaller than the largest type on the page on which it appears.
- (5) "Bylaws" means the bylaws of the association existing from time to time.
- (6) "Common elements" means the portions of the condominium property not included in the units.
- (7) "Common expenses" means all expenses and assessments properly incurred by the association for the condominium.
- (8) "Common surplus" means the excess of all receipts of the association—including, but not limited to, assessments, rents, profits, and revenues on account of the common elements—over the common expenses.
- (9) "Condominium" means that form of ownership of real property which is created pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and which is comprised of units that may be owned by one or more persons, and there is, appurtenant to each unit, an undivided share in common elements.

(10) "Condominium parcel" means a unit, together with the undivided share in the common elements which is appurtenant to the unit.

(11) "Condominium property" means the lands, leaseholds, and personal property that are subjected to condominium ownership, whether or not contiguous, and all improvements thereon and all easements and rights appurtenant thereto intended for use in connection with the condominium.

(12) "Declaration" or "declaration of condominium" means the instrument or instruments by which a condominium is created, as they are from time to time amended.

(13) "Developer" means a person who creates a condominium or offers condominium parcels for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business, but does not include an owner or lessee of a unit who has acquired his unit for his own occupancy.

(14) "Limited common elements" means those common elements which are reserved for the use of a certain condominium unit or units to the exclusion of other units, as specified in the declaration of condominium.

(15) "Operation" or "operation of the condominium" includes the administration and management of the condominium property.

(16) "Unit" means a part of the condominium property which is subject to exclusive ownership. A unit may be in improvements, land, or land and improvements together, as specified in the declaration.

(17) "Unit owner" or "owner of a unit" means the owner of a condominium parcel.

(18) "Residential condominium" means a condominium consisting of condominium units, any of which are intended for use as a private temporary or permanent residence, except that a condominium is not a residential condominium if the use for which the units are intended is primarily commercial or industrial and not more than three units are intended to be used for private residence, and are intended to be used as housing for maintenance, managerial, janitorial, or other operational staff of the condominium. If a condominium is a residential condominium but contains units intended to be used for commercial or industrial purposes, then, with respect to those units which are not intended for or used as private residences, the condominium is not a residential condominium.

(19) "Time-share estate" means any interest in a unit under which the exclusive right of use, possession, or occupancy of the unit circulates among the various owners of time-share estates in such unit in accordance with a fixed time schedule on a periodically recurring basis for a period of time established by such schedule.

(20) "Time-share unit" means a unit in which time-share estates have been created.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 78-328.

718.104 Creation of condominiums; contents of declaration.—Every condominium created in Florida shall be created pursuant to this chapter.

(1) A condominium may be created on land owned in fee simple or held under a lease complying with the provisions of s. 718.401.

(2) A condominium is created by recording a declaration in the public records of the county where the land is located, executed and acknowledged with the requirements for a deed. All persons having record title to the interest in the land being submitted to condominium ownership, or their lawfully authorized agents, must join in the execution of the declaration.

(3) All persons having any record interest in any mortgage encumbering the interest in the land being submitted to condominium ownership must either join in the execution of the declaration or execute, with the requirements for deed, and record, a consent to the declaration or an agreement subordinating their mortgage interest to the declaration.

(4) The declaration must contain or provide for the following matters:

(a) A statement submitting the property to condominium ownership.

(b) The name by which the condominium property is to be identified, which shall include the word "condominium" or be followed by the words "a condominium."

(c) The legal description of the land and, if a leasehold estate is submitted to condominium, an identification of the lease.

(d) An identification of each unit by letter, name, or number, or combination thereof, so that no unit bears the same designation as any other unit.

(e) A survey of the land and a graphic description of the improvements in which units are located and a plot plan thereof that, together with the declaration, are in sufficient detail to identify the common elements and each unit and their relative locations and approximate dimensions. The survey, graphic description, and plot plan may be in the form of exhibits consisting of building plans, floor plans, maps, surveys, or sketches. If the construction of the condominium is not substantially completed, there shall be a statement to that effect, and, upon substantial completion of construction, the developer or the association shall amend the declaration to include the certificate described below. The amendment may be accomplished by referring to the recording data of a survey of the condominium that complies with the certificate. A certificate of a surveyor authorized to practice in this state shall be included in or attached to the declaration or the survey or graphic description as recorded under s. 718.105 that the construction of the improvements is substantially complete so that the material, together with the provisions of the declaration describing the condominium property, is an accurate representation of the location and dimensions of the improvements and so that the identification, location, and dimensions of the common elements and of each unit can be determined from these materials. Completed units within each substantially completed building in a condominium development may be conveyed to purchasers, notwithstanding that other buildings in the condominium are not substantially completed, provided that all planned improvements, including, but not limited to, landscaping, utility services and access to the unit, and common element facilities serving such building, as set forth in the declaration, are first completed and the declaration of condominium is first recorded and provided that as to the units being conveyed there is a certificate of a surveyor as required above, including certification that all planned improvements, including, but not limited to, landscaping, utility services and access to the unit, and common element facilities serving the building in which the units to be conveyed are located have been substantially completed, and such certificate is recorded with the original declaration or as an amendment to said declaration. This section shall not, however, operate to require development of improvements and amenities declared to be included in future phases pursuant to s. 718.403 prior to conveying a unit as provided herein. For the purposes of this section, a "certificate of a surveyor" means certification by a surveyor in the form provided herein and may include, along with certification by a surveyor, when appropriate, certification by an architect or engineer authorized to practice in this state. Notwithstanding the requirements of substantial completion provided in this section, nothing contained herein shall prohibit or impair the validity of a mortgage encumbering units together with an undivided interest in the common elements as described in a declaration of condominium recorded prior to the recording of a certificate of a surveyor as provided herein.

(f) The undivided share in the common elements appurtenant to each unit stated as percentages or fractions, which, in the aggregate, must equal the whole.

(g) The proportions or percentages of and manner of sharing common expenses and owning common surplus, which, for a residential condominium, must be the same as the undivided shares in the common elements.

(h) The name of the association, which must be a corporation for profit or a corporation not for profit.

(i) Unit owners' membership and voting rights in the association.

(j) The document or documents creating the association, which may be attached as an exhibit.

(k) A copy of the bylaws, which may be attached as an exhibit. Defects or omissions in the bylaws shall not affect the validity of the condominium or title to the condominium parcels.

(l) Other desired provisions not inconsistent with this chapter.

(m) The creation of a nonexclusive easement for ingress and egress over streets, walks, and other rights-of-way serving the units of a condominium, as part of the common elements necessary to provide reasonable access to the public ways, or a dedication of the streets, walks, and other rights-of-way to the public. All easements for ingress and egress shall not be encumbered by any leasehold or lien other than those on the condominium parcels, unless:

1. Any such lien is subordinate to the rights of unit owners, or

2. The holder of any encumbrance or leasehold of any easement has executed and recorded an agreement that the use-rights of each unit owner will not be terminated as long as the unit owner has not been evicted because of a default under the encumbrance or lease, and the use-rights of any mortgagee of a unit who has acquired title to a unit may not be terminated.

(n) If time-share estates will or may be created with respect to any unit in the condominium, a statement in conspicuous type declaring that time-share estates will or may be created with respect to units in the condominium. In addition, the degree, quantity, nature, and extent of the time-share estates that will or may be created shall be defined and described in detail in the declaration, with a specific statement as to the minimum duration of the recurring periods of rights of use, possession, or occupancy that may be created with respect to any unit.

(5) The declaration may include covenants and restrictions concerning the use, occupancy, and transfer of the units permitted by law with reference to real property. However, the rule against perpetuities shall not defeat a right given any person or entity by the declaration for the purpose of allowing unit owners to retain reasonable control over the use, occupancy, and transfer of units.

(6) A person who joins in, or consents to the execution of, a declaration subjects his interest in the condominium property to the provisions of the declaration.

(7) All provisions of the declaration are enforceable equitable servitudes, run with the land, and are effective until the condominium is terminated.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-328; s. 7, ch. 78-340; s. 1, ch. 79-314.

718.1045 Time-share estates; limitation on creation.—No time-share estates shall be created with respect to any condominium unit except pursuant to provisions in the declaration expressly permitting the creation of such estates.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-328.

718.105 Recording of declaration.—

(1) When executed as required by s. 718.104, a declaration together with all exhibits and all amendments is entitled to recordation as an agreement relating to the conveyance of land.

(2) Graphic descriptions of improvements constituting exhibits to a declaration, when accompanied by the certificate of a surveyor required by s. 718.104, may be recorded as a part of a declaration without approval of any public body or officer.

(3) The clerk of the circuit court recording the declaration may, for his convenience, file the exhibits of a declaration which contains graphic descriptions of improvements in a separate book, and shall indicate the place of filing upon the margin of the record of the declaration.

(4) If the declaration or the survey or graphic description of the improvements required under s. 718.104(4)(e) does not have the certificate required, the developer shall deliver to the clerk an estimate of the cost of a final survey or graphic description containing and complying with the certificate prescribed by s. 718.104(4)(e) and shall deposit with the clerk the sum of money specified in the estimate. The clerk shall hold the money until an amendment to the declaration is recorded that complies with the certificate requirements of s. 718.104(4)(e). At that time, the clerk shall pay to the developer or the association presenting the amendment to the declaration the sum of money deposited with him without making any charge for holding the sum, receiving it, or paying out, other than the fees required for recording the condominium documents.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 8, ch. 78-340.

718.106 Condominium parcels; appurtenances; possession and enjoyment.—

(1) A condominium parcel created by the declaration is a separate parcel of real property, even though the condominium is created on a leasehold.

(2) There shall pass with a unit, as appurtenances thereto:

(a) An undivided share in the common elements and common surplus.

(b) The exclusive right to use such portion of the common elements as may be provided by the declaration.

(c) An exclusive easement for the use of the airspace occupied by the unit as it exists at any particular time and as the unit may lawfully be altered or reconstructed from time to time. An easement in airspace which is vacated shall be terminated automatically.

(d) Other appurtenances as may be provided in the declaration.

(3) A unit owner is entitled to the exclusive possession of his unit, subject to the provisions of s. 718.111(5). He shall be entitled to use the common elements in accordance with the purposes for which they are intended, but no use may hinder or encroach upon the lawful rights of other unit owners.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.1065 Restraint upon partition of time-share units.—No action for partition of any time-share unit shall lie.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-328.

718.107 Restraint upon separation and partition of common elements.—

(1) The undivided share in the common elements which is appurtenant to a unit shall not be separated from it and shall pass with the title to the unit, whether or not separately described.

(2) The share in the common elements appurtenant to a unit cannot be conveyed or encumbered except together with the unit.

(3) The shares in the common elements appurtenant to units are undivided, and no action for partition of the common elements shall lie.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.108 Common elements.—

(1) "Common elements" includes within its meaning the following:

(a) The condominium property which is not included within the units.

(b) Easements through units for conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring, and other facilities for the furnishing of utility services to units and the common elements.

(c) An easement of support in every portion of a unit which contributes to the support of a building.

(d) The property and installations required for the furnishing of utilities and other services to more than one unit or to the common elements.

(2) The declaration may designate other parts of the condominium property as common elements.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.109 Legal description of condominium parcels.—

Following the recording of the declaration, a description of a condominium parcel by the number or other designation by which the unit is identified in the declaration, together with the recording data identifying the declaration, shall be a sufficient legal description for all purposes. The description includes all appurtenances to the unit concerned, whether or not separately described, including, but not limited to, the undivided share in the common elements appurtenant thereto.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.110 Amendment of declaration.—

(1) If the declaration fails to provide a method of amendment, the declaration may be amended as to all matters except those described in subsection (4) or subsection (8) if the amendment is approved by the owners of not less than two-thirds of the units.

(2) An amendment, other than amendments made by the developer pursuant to ss. 718.104 and 718.403 and any rights the developer may have in the declaration to amend without consent of the unit owners, shall be evidenced by a certificate of the association which shall include the recording data identifying the declaration and shall be executed in the form required for the execution of a deed. Amendments by the developer must be evidenced in writing, but a certificate of the association is not required.

(3) An amendment of a declaration is effective when properly recorded in the public records of the county where the declaration is recorded.

(4) Unless otherwise provided in the declaration as originally recorded, no amendment may change the configuration or size of any condominium unit in any material fashion, materially alter or modify the appurtenances to the unit, or change the proportion or percentage by which the owner of the parcel shares the common expenses and owns the common surplus unless the record owner of the unit and all record owners of liens on it join in the execution of the amendment and unless all the record owners of all other units approve the amendment.

(5) If it appears that through scrivener's error a unit has not been designated as owning an appropriate undivided share of the common elements or does not bear an appropriate share of the common expenses or that all the common expenses or interest in the common surplus or all of the common elements in the condominium have not been distributed in the declaration, so that the sum total of the shares of common elements which have been distributed or the sum total of the shares of the common expenses or ownership of common surplus fails to equal 100 percent, or if it appears that more than 100 percent of common elements or common expenses or ownership of the common surplus have been distributed, the error may be corrected by filing an amendment to the declaration approved by the board of administration or a majority of the unit owners. To be effective, the amendment must be executed by the association and the owners of the units and the owners of mortgages thereon affected by the modifications being made in the shares of common elements, common expenses, or common surplus. No other unit owner is required to join in or execute the amendment.

(6) The common elements designated by the declaration may be enlarged by an amendment to the declaration. The amendment must describe the interest in the property and must submit the property to the terms of the declaration. The amendment must be approved and executed as provided in this section. The amendment divests the association of title to the land and vests title in the unit owners as part of the common elements, without naming them and without further conveyance, in the same proportion as the undivided shares in the common elements that are appurtenant to the unit owned by them.

(7) The declarations, bylaws, and common elements of two or more independent condominiums of a single complex may be merged to form a single condominium, upon the approval of 80 percent of all the unit owners of each condominium and of all record owners of liens and upon the recording of new or amended articles of incorporation, declarations, and bylaws.

(8) Unless otherwise provided in the declaration as originally recorded, no amendment to the declaration may permit time-share estates to be created in any unit of the condominium, unless the record owner of each unit of the condominium and the record owners of liens on each unit of the condominium join in the execution of the amendment.

(9) Any vote to amend the declaration of condominium relating to a change in percentage of ownership in the common elements or sharing of the common expense shall be conducted by secret ballot.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 8, ch. 77-221; s. 6, ch. 77-222; s. 5, ch. 78-328; s. 2, ch. 78-340.

718.111 The association.—

(1) The operation of the condominium shall be by the association, which must be a corporation for profit or a corporation not for profit. However, any association which was in existence on January 1, 1977, need not be incorporated. The owners of units shall be shareholders or members of the association. The officers and directors of the association have a fiduciary relationship to the unit owners. An association may operate more than one condominium.

(2) The association may contract, sue, or be sued with respect to the exercise or nonexercise of its powers. For these purposes, the powers of the association include, but are not limited to, the maintenance, management, and operation of the condominium property. After control of the association is obtained by unit owners other than the developer, the association may institute, maintain, settle, or appeal actions or hearings in its name on behalf of all unit owners concerning matters of common interest, including, but not limited to, the common elements; the roof and structural components of a building or other improvements; mechanical, electrical, and plumbing elements serving an improvement or a building; representations of the developer pertaining to any existing or proposed commonly used facilities; and protesting ad valorem taxes on commonly used facilities. If the association has the authority to maintain a class action, the association may be joined in an action as representative of that class with reference to litigation and disputes involving the matters for which the association could bring a class action. Nothing herein limits any statutory or common law right of any individual unit owner or class of unit owners to bring any action which may otherwise be available.

(3) A unit owner does not have any authority to act for the association by reason of being a unit owner.

(4) The powers and duties of the association include those set forth in this section and those set forth in the declaration and bylaws, if not inconsistent with this chapter.

(5) The association has the irrevocable right to access to each unit during reasonable hours, when necessary for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of any common elements or for making emergency repairs necessary to prevent damage to the common elements or to another unit or units.

(6) The association has the power to make and collect assessments and to lease, maintain, repair, and replace the common elements.

(7) The association shall maintain accounting records for each condominium it manages in the county where the condominium is located, according to good accounting practices. The records shall be open to inspection by unit owners or their authorized representatives at reasonable times, and written summaries of them shall be supplied at least annually to unit owners or their authorized representatives. Failure to permit inspection of the association's accounting records by unit owners or their authorized representatives entitles any person prevailing in an enforcement action to recover reasonable attorney's fees from the person in control of the books and records who, directly or indirectly, knowingly denies access to the books and records for inspection. The records shall include, but are not limited to:

(a) A record of all receipts and expenditures.

(b) An account for each unit, designating the name and current mailing address of the unit owner, the amount of each assessment, the dates and amounts in which the assessments come due, the amount paid upon the account, and the balance due.

(8) The association has the power, unless prohibited by the declaration, articles of incorporation, or bylaws of the association, to purchase units in the condominium and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, and convey them.

(9)(a) The association shall use its best efforts to obtain and maintain adequate insurance to protect the association and the common elements. A copy of each policy of insurance in effect shall be made available for inspection by unit owners at reasonable times.

(b) All hazard policies issued to protect condominium buildings shall provide that the word "building" wherever used in the policy shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to, fixtures, installations, or additions comprising that part of the building within the unfinished interior surfaces of the perimeter walls, floors, and ceilings of the individual units initially installed or replacements thereof, in accordance with the original plans and specifications. With respect to the coverage provided for by this paragraph, the unit owners shall be considered additional insureds under the policy.

(10) Unless prohibited by the declaration, the association has the authority, without the joinder of any unit owner, to modify or move any easement for ingress and egress or for the purposes of utilities if the easement constitutes part of or crosses the condominium property. This subsection does not authorize the association to modify or move any easement created in whole or in part for the use or benefit of anyone other than the unit owners, or crossing the property of anyone other than the unit owners, without their consent or approval as required by law or the instrument creating the easement. Nothing in this subsection affects the minimum requirements of s. 718.104(4)(m).

(11) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter, an association may operate residential condominiums in a phase project initially created pursuant to former s. 711.64, and may continue to so operate said project as though it was a single condominium for purposes of financial matters, including budgets, assessments, accounting, record keeping, and similar matters, if provision is made for such consolidated operation in the applicable declarations of each such condominium as initially recorded or in the bylaws as initially adopted. Notwithstanding any provision in this chapter, common expenses for residential condominiums in such a project being operated by a single association may be assessed against all unit owners in such project pursuant to the proportions or percentages established therefor in the declarations as initially recorded or in the bylaws as initially adopted, subject, however, to the limitations of ss. 718.116 and 718.302.

(12) The association has the power to purchase any land or recreation lease upon the approval of two-thirds of the unit owners of each condominium, unless a different number or percentage is provided in the declaration or declarations.

(13) Within 60 days following the end of the fiscal or calendar year or annually on such date as is otherwise provided in the bylaws of the association, the board of administration of the association shall mail or furnish by personal delivery to each unit owner a complete financial report of actual receipts and expenditures for the previous 12 months. The report shall show the amounts of receipts by accounts and receipt classifications and shall show the amounts of expenses by accounts and expense classifications including, if applicable, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) Costs for security;
- (b) Professional and management fees and expenses;
- (c) Taxes;
- (d) Costs for recreation facilities;
- (e) Expenses for refuse collection and utility services;
- (f) Expenses for lawn care;
- (g) Costs for building maintenance and repair;
- (h) Insurance costs;
- (i) Administrative and salary expenses; and

(j) General reserves, maintenance reserves, and depreciation reserves.

718.112 Bylaws.—

(1) The administration of the association and the operation of the condominium property shall be governed by bylaws, which shall be set forth in or included as an exhibit to the declaration. No modification of or amendment to the bylaws is valid unless set forth in or annexed to a recorded amendment to the declaration. The method of amending bylaws shall be governed by separate provisions for amending bylaws and not by the method for amending the declaration.

(2) The bylaws shall provide for the following, and if they do not do so, shall be deemed to include the following:

(a) The form of administration of the association shall be described, indicating the title of the officers and board of administration and specifying the powers, duties, manner of selection and removal, and compensation, if any, of officers and boards. In the absence of such a provision, the board of administration shall be composed of five members, except in the case of condominiums having five or fewer units, in which case one owner of each unit shall be a member of the board of administration. In the absence of provisions to the contrary in the bylaws, the board of administration shall have a president, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall perform the duties of such officers customarily performed by officers of corporations. Unless prohibited in the bylaws, the board of administration may appoint other officers and grant them the duties it deems appropriate. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the officers shall serve without compensation and at the pleasure of the board of administration.

(b)1. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the percentage of unit owners or voting rights required to make decisions and to constitute a quorum shall be a majority of the units, and decisions shall be made by owners of a majority of the units represented at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Unit owners may vote by proxy.

2. Any proxy given shall be effective only for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawfully adjourned meetings thereof. In no event shall any proxy be valid for a period longer than 90 days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. Every proxy shall be revocable at any time at the pleasure of the unit owner executing it.

(c) Meetings of the board of administration shall be open to all unit owners. Adequate notice of all meetings shall be posted conspicuously on the condominium property at least 48 hours in advance, except in an emergency. Notice of any meeting in which assessments against unit owners are to be considered for any reason shall specifically contain a statement that assessments will be considered and the nature of any such assessments.

(d) There shall be an annual meeting of the unit owners. Unless the bylaws provide otherwise, vacancies on the board of administration caused by the expiration of a director's term shall be filled by electing new board members. If there is no provision in the bylaws for terms of the members of the board of administration, the terms of all members of the board of administration shall expire upon the election of their successors at the annual meeting. The bylaws shall not restrict any unit owner desiring to be a candidate for board membership from being nominated from the floor. The bylaws shall provide the method of calling meetings of unit owners, including annual meetings. Written notice shall be given to each unit owner and shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the condominium property at least 14 days prior to the annual meeting. Unless a unit owner waives in writing the right to receive notice of the annual meeting by mail, the notice of the annual meeting shall be sent by mail to each unit owner, and the post office certificate of mailing shall be retained as proof of such mailing. Unit owners may waive notice of specific meetings and may take action by written agreement without meetings, if allowed by the bylaws, the declaration of condominium, or any Florida statute.

(e) The minutes of all meetings of unit owners and the board of administration shall be kept in a book available for inspection by unit owners, or their authorized representatives, and board members at any reasonable time. The association shall retain these minutes for a period of not less than 7 years.

(f) The board of administration shall mail a meeting notice and copies of the proposed annual budget of common expenses to the unit owners not less than 30 days prior to the meeting at which the budget will be considered. If the bylaws or declaration provides that the budget may be adopted by the board of administration, then the unit owners shall be given written notice of the time and place of the meeting of the board of administration which will consider the budget. The meeting shall be open to the unit owners. If an adopted budget requires assessment against the unit owners in any fiscal or calendar year exceeding 115 percent of the assessments for the preceding year, the board, upon written application of 10 percent of the unit owners to the board, shall call a special meeting of the unit owners within 30 days, upon not less than 10 days' written notice to each unit owner. At the special meeting, unit owners shall consider and enact a budget. Unless the bylaws require a larger vote, the adoption of the budget shall require a vote of not less than a majority vote of all unit owners. The board of administration may propose a budget to the unit owners at a meeting of members or in writing, and if the budget or proposed budget is approved by the unit owners at the meeting or by a majority of all unit owners in writing, the budget shall be adopted. In determining whether assessments exceed 115 percent of similar assessments in prior years, any authorized provisions for reasonable reserves for repair or replacement of the condominium property, anticipated expenses by the condominium association which are not anticipated to be incurred on a regular or annual basis, or assessments for betterments to the condominium property shall be excluded from the computation. However, as long as the developer is in control of the board of administration, the board shall not impose an assessment for any year greater than 115 percent of the prior fiscal or calendar year's assessment without approval of a majority of all unit owners.

(g) Subject to the provisions of s. 718.301, any member of the board of administration may be recalled and removed from office with or without cause by the vote or agreement in writing by a majority of all unit owners. A special meeting of the unit owners to recall a member or members of the board of administration may be called by 10 percent of the unit owners giving notice of the meeting as required for a meeting of unit owners, and the notice shall state the purpose of the meeting.

(h) The manner of collecting from the unit owners their shares of the common expenses shall be stated in the bylaws. Assessments shall be made against unit owners not less frequently than quarterly, in an amount no less than required to provide funds in advance for payment of all of the anticipated current operating expenses and for all of the unpaid operating expenses previously incurred.

(i) The method by which the bylaws may be amended consistent with the provisions of this chapter shall be stated. If the bylaws fail to provide a method of amendment, the bylaws may be amended if the amendment is approved by owners of not less than two-thirds of the units. No bylaw shall be revised or amended by reference to its title or number only. Proposals to amend existing bylaws shall contain the full text of the bylaws to be amended; new words shall be inserted in the text underlined, and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. However, if the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the proposed amendment, it is not necessary to use underlining and hyphens as indicators of words added or deleted, but, instead, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment in substantially the following language: "Substantial rewording of bylaw ..... for present text." Nonmaterial errors or omissions in the bylaw process shall not invalidate an otherwise properly promulgated amendment.

(j) If the transfer, lease, sale, or sublease of units is subject to approval of any body, no fee shall be charged in connection with a transfer, sale, or approval in excess of the expenditures reasonably required for the transfer or sale, and this expense shall not exceed $50. No charge shall be made in connection with an extension or renewal of a lease.

(k) The proposed annual budget of common expenses shall be detailed and shall show the amounts budgeted by accounts and expense classifications, including, if applicable, but not limited to those expenses listed in s. 718.504(20). In addition to annual operating expenses, the budget shall include reserve accounts for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance. These accounts shall include, but not be limited to, roof replacement, building painting, and pavement resurfacing. The amount to be reserved shall be computed by means of a formula which is based upon estimated life and estimated replacement cost of each reserve item. This subsection shall not apply to budgets in which the level of assessments has been guaranteed pursuant to s. 718.116(8) prior to October 1, 1979, provided that the absence of reserves is disclosed to purchasers, or to budgets in which the members of an association have, by a two-thirds vote at a duly called meeting of the association, determined for a fiscal year to provide no reserves or reserves less adequate than required by this subsection.

(1) The fidelity bonding of all officers or directors of any association existing on or after October 1, 1978, who control or disburse funds of the association. The association shall bear the cost of bonding. This paragraph shall not apply to associations operating a condominium consisting of 50 units or less; however, any condominium association may bond any officer of the association, and said association shall bear the cost of bonding.

(3) The bylaws may provide for the following:

(a) A method of adopting and amending administrative rules and regulations governing the details of the operation and use of the common elements.

(b) Restrictions on, and requirements for the use, maintenance, and appearance of, the units and the use of the common elements.

(c) Other provisions not inconsistent with this chapter or with the declaration as may be desired.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 5, ch. 77-221; ss. 3, 4, ch. 77-222; s. 1, ch. 78-340; s. 6, ch. 79-314.

718.113 Maintenance; limitation upon improvement.

(1) Maintenance of the common elements is the responsibility of the association. The declaration may provide that limited common elements shall be maintained by those entitled to use the limited common elements.

(2) There shall be no material alteration or substantial additions to the common elements except in a manner provided in the declaration.

(3) A unit owner shall not make any alterations to his unit which would remove any portion of, or make any additions to, common elements or do anything which would adversely affect the safety or soundness of the common elements or any portion of the condominium property which is to be maintained by the association.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.114 Association powers.—An association has the power to enter into agreements, to acquire leaseholds, memberships, and other possessory or use interests in lands or facilities such as country clubs, golf courses, marinas, and other recreational facilities. It has this power whether or not the lands or facilities are contiguous to the lands of the condominium, if they are intended to provide enjoyment, recreation, or other use or benefit to the unit owners. All of these leaseholds, memberships, and other possessory or use interests existing or created at the time of recording the declaration must be stated and fully described in the declaration. Subsequent to the recording of the declaration, the association may not acquire or enter into agreements acquiring these leaseholds, memberships, or other possessory or use interests except as authorized by the declaration. The declaration may provide that the rental, membership fees, operations, replacements, and other expenses are common expenses and may impose covenants and restrictions concerning their use and may contain other provisions not inconsistent with this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 4, ch. 79-314.

718.115 Common expenses and common surplus.

(1) Common expenses include the expenses of the operation, maintenance, repair, or replacement of the common elements, costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the association, and any other expense designated as common expense by this chapter, the declaration, the documents creating the condominium, or the bylaws.

(2) Funds for the payment of common expenses shall be collected by assessments against unit owners in the proportions or percentages provided in the declaration. In a residential condominium, unit owners' shares of common expenses shall be in the same proportions as their ownership interest in the common elements.

(3) Common surplus is owned by unit owners in the same shares as their ownership interest in the common elements.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

718.116 Assessments; liability; lien and priority; interest; collection.

(1)(a) A unit owner, regardless of how title is acquired, including a purchaser at a judicial sale, shall be liable for all assessments coming due while he is the unit owner. In a voluntary conveyance, the grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the grantor for his share of the common expenses up to the time of the conveyance, without prejudice to any right the grantee may have to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee.

(b) With respect to each time-share unit, each owner of a time-share estate therein shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all assessments and other charges levied pursuant to the declaration or bylaws against or with respect to that unit, except to the extent that the declaration or bylaws may provide to the contrary.

(2) The liability for assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any common elements or by abandonment of the unit for which the assessments are made.

(3) Assessments and installments on them not paid when due bear interest at the rate provided in the declaration, from the due date until paid. This rate may not exceed the rate allowed by law, and, if no rate is provided in the declaration, then interest shall accrue at the legal rate.

(4)(a) The association has a lien on each condominium parcel for any unpaid assessments with interest and, if the declaration so allows, for reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the association incident to the collection of the assessment or enforcement of the lien. The lien is effective from and after recording a claim of lien in the public records in the county in which the condominium parcel is located, stating the description of the condominium parcel, the name of the record owner, the amount due, and the due dates. The lien is in effect until all sums secured by it have been fully paid or until barred by chapter 95. The claim of lien includes only assessments which are due when the claim is recorded. A claim of lien must be signed and acknowledged by an officer or agent of the association. Upon payment, the person making the payment is entitled to a satisfaction of the lien. By recording a notice in substantially the following form, a unit owner or his agent or attorney may require the association to enforce a recorded claim of lien against his condominium parcel:

NOTICE OF CONTEST OF LIEN

TO: (Name and address of association).....

You are notified that the undersigned contests the claim of lien filed by you on ..... 19....., and recorded in Official Records Book ..... at Page ....., of the public records of ..... County, Florida, and that the time within which you may file suit to enforce your lien is limited to 90 days from the date of service of this notice.

Executed this ..... day of ....., 19.....

Signed: (Owner or Attorney).....

(b) The Clerk of the Circuit Court shall mail a copy of the recorded notice of contest to the lien claimant at the address shown in the claim of lien or most recent amendment to it, shall certify to the service on the face of the notice, and shall record the notice. Service is complete upon mailing. After service, the association has 90 days in which to file an action to enforce the lien, and if the action is not filed within the 90-day period, the lien is void.

(5)(a) The association may bring an action in its name to foreclose a lien for assessments in the manner a mortgage of real property is foreclosed and may also bring an action to recover a money judgment for the unpaid assessments without waiving any claim of lien.

(b) No foreclosure judgment may be entered until at least 30 days after the association gives written notice to the unit owner of its intention to foreclose its lien to collect the unpaid assessments. If this notice is not given at least 30 days before the foreclosure action is filed, and if the unpaid assessments, including those coming due after the claim of lien is recorded, are paid before the entry of a final judgment of foreclosure, the association shall not recover attorney's fees or costs. The notice must be given by delivery of a copy of it to the unit owner or by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the unit owner. If, after diligent search and inquiry, the association cannot find the unit owner or a mailing address at which the unit owner will receive the notice, the court may proceed with the foreclosure action and may award attorney's fees and costs as permitted by law. The notice requirements of this subsection are satisfied if the unit owner records a Notice of Contest of Lien as provided in subsection (4).

(c) If the unit owner remains in possession of the unit and the claim of lien is foreclosed, the court, in its discretion, may require the unit owner to pay a reasonable rental for the unit, and the association is entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent.

(d) The association, unless prohibited by the declaration, the documents creating the association, or its bylaws, has the power to purchase the condominium parcel at the foreclosure sale and to hold, lease, mortgage, or convey it.

(6) When the mortgagee of a first mortgage of record, or other purchaser, of a condominium unit obtains title to the condominium parcel as a result of foreclosure of the first mortgage, or, if the declaration so provides, as a result of a deed given in lieu of foreclosure, such acquirer of title and his successors and assigns shall not be liable for the share of common expenses or assessments by the association pertaining to the condominium parcel or chargeable to the former unit owner of the parcel which became due prior to acquisition of title as a result of the foreclosure, unless the share is secured by a claim of lien for assessments that is recorded prior to the recording of the foreclosed mortgage. The unpaid share of common expenses or assessments are common expenses collectible from all of the unit owners, including such acquirer and his successors and assigns. If the declaration so provides, the foregoing provision may apply to any mortgage of record and shall not be restricted to first mortgages of record. A first mortgagee acquiring title to a condominium parcel as a result of foreclosure, or a deed in lieu of foreclosure, may not, during the period of its ownership of such parcel, whether or not such parcel is unoccupied, be excused from the payment of some or all of the common expenses coming due during the period of such ownership.

(7) Any unit owner has the right to require from the association a certificate showing the amount of unpaid assessments against him with respect to his condominium parcel. The holder of a mortgage or other lien of record has the same right as to any condominium parcel upon which he has a lien.

(8) No unit owner may be excused from the payment of his share of the common expense of a condominium unless all unit owners are likewise proportionately excused from payment, except as provided in subsection (6) and in the following cases:

(a) If the declaration so provides, a developer or other person owning condominium units offered for sale may be excused from the payment of the share of the common expenses and assessments related to those units for a stated period of time subsequent to the recording of the declaration of condominium. The period must terminate no later than the first day of the fourth calendar month following the month in which the closing of the purchase and sale of the first condominium unit occurs. However, the developer must pay the portion of common expenses incurred during that period which exceed the amount assessed against other unit owners.

(b) A developer or other person owning condominium units or having an obligation to pay condominium expenses may be excused from the payment of his share of the common expense which would have been assessed against those units during the period of time that he shall have guaranteed to each purchaser in the purchase contract, declaration, or prospectus, or by agreement between the developer and a majority of the unit owners other than the developer, that the assessment for common expenses of the condominium imposed upon the unit owners would not increase over a stated dollar amount and shall have obligated himself to pay any amount of common expenses incurred during that period and not produced by the assessments at the guaranteed level receivable from other unit owners.

(9) Any unit owner shall have the right to require from the association a certificate showing the amount of unpaid assessments against him with respect to his condominium parcel. The holder of a mortgage or other lien shall have the same right as to any condominium parcel upon which he has a lien. Any person other than the owner who relies upon such certificate shall be protected thereby.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 9, ch. 77-221; s. 7, ch. 77-222; s. 6, ch. 78-328.

718.117 Termination.—

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the declaration, the condominium property may be removed from the provisions of this chapter only by consent of all of the unit owners, evidenced by a recorded instrument to that effect, and upon the written consent by all of the holders of recorded liens affecting any of the condominium parcels.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the declaration as originally recorded or as amended pursuant to s. 718.110(5), upon removal of the condominium property from the provisions of this chapter, the condominium property is owned in common by the unit owners in the same undivided shares as each owner previously owned in the common elements. All liens shall be transferred to the undivided share in the condominium property attributable to the unit originally encumbered by the lien in its same priority.

(3) The termination of a condominium does not bar the creation of another condominium affecting all or any portion of the same property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.118 Equitable relief.—In the event of substantial damage to or destruction of all or a substantial part of the condominium property, and if the property is not repaired, reconstructed, or rebuilt within a reasonable period of time, any unit owner may petition a court for equitable relief, which may include a termination of the condominium and a partition.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.119 Limitation of liability.—

(1) The liability of the owner of a unit for common expenses is limited to the amounts for which he is assessed for common expenses from time to time in accordance with this chapter, the declaration, and bylaws.

(2) The owner of a unit may be personally liable for the acts or omissions of the association in relation to the use of the common elements, but only to the extent of his pro rata share of that liability in the same percentage as his interest in the common elements, and then in no case shall that liability exceed the value of his unit.

(3) In any legal action in which the association may be exposed to liability in excess of insurance coverage protecting it and the unit owners, the association shall give notice of the exposure within a reasonable time to all unit owners, and they shall have the right to intervene and defend.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 6, ch. 77-221; s. 5, ch. 77-222.

718.120 Separate taxation of condominium parcels; survival of declaration after tax sale.—

(1) Ad valorem taxes and special assessments by taxing authorities shall be assessed against the condominium parcels and not upon the condominium property as a whole. Each condominium parcel shall be separately assessed for ad valorem taxes and special assessments as a single parcel. The taxes and special assessments levied against each condominium parcel shall constitute a lien only upon the condominium parcel assessed and upon no other portion of the condominium property.

(2) All provisions of a declaration relating to a condominium parcel which has been sold for taxes or special assessments survive and are enforceable after the issuance of a tax deed or master's deed, upon foreclosure of an assessment, a certificate or lien, a tax deed, tax certificate, or tax lien, to the same extent that they would be enforceable against a voluntary grantee of the title immediately prior to the delivery of the tax deed, master's deed, or clerk's certificate of title as provided in s. 197.281.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.121 Liens.—

(1) Subsequent to recording the declaration and while the property remains subject to the declaration, no liens of any nature are valid against the condominium property as a whole except with the unanimous consent of the unit owners. During this period, liens may arise or be created only against individual condominium parcels.

(2) Labor performed on or materials furnished to a unit shall not be the basis for the filing of a lien pursuant to the Mechanics' Lien Law against the unit or condominium parcel of any unit owner not expressly consenting to or requesting the labor or materials. Labor performed on or materials furnished to the common elements are not the basis for a lien on the common elements, but if authorized by the association, the labor or materials are deemed to be performed or furnished with the express consent of each unit owner and may be the basis for the filing of a lien against all condominium parcels in the proportions for which the owners are liable for common expenses.

(3) If a lien against two or more condominium parcels becomes effective, each owner may relieve his condominium parcel of the lien by exercising any of the rights of a property owner under chapter 713, or by payment of the proportionate amount attributable to his condominium parcel. Upon the payment, the lienor shall release the lien of record for that condominium parcel.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.122 Unconscionability of certain leases; rebuttable presumption.—

(1) A lease pertaining to use by condominium unit owners of recreational or other common facilities, irrespective of the date on which such lease was entered into, is presumptively unconscionable if all of the following elements exist:

(a) The lease was executed by persons none of whom at the time of the execution of the lease were elected by condominium unit owners, other than the developer, to represent their interests;

(b) The lease requires either the condominium association or the condominium unit owners to pay real estate taxes on the subject real property;

(c) The lease requires either the condominium association or the condominium unit owners to insure buildings or other facilities on the subject real property against fire or any other hazard;

(d) The lease requires either the condominium association or the condominium unit owners to perform some or all maintenance obligations pertaining to the subject real property or facilities located upon the subject real property;

(e) The lease requires either the condominium association or the condominium unit owners to pay rents to the lessor for a period of 21 years or more;

(f) The lease provides that failure of the lessee to make payments of rents due under the lease either creates, establishes, or permits establishment of a lien upon individual condominium units of the condominium to secure claims for rent;

(g) The lease requires an annual rental which exceeds 25 percent of the appraised value of the leased property as improved, provided that, for purposes of this paragraph, "annual rental" means the amount due during the first 12 months of the lease for all units, regardless of whether such units were in fact occupied or sold during that period, and "appraised value" means the appraised value placed upon the leased property the first tax year after the sale of a unit in the condominium;

(h) The lease provides for a periodic rental increase based upon reference to a price index; and

(i) The lease or other condominium documents require that every transferee of a condominium unit must assume obligations under the lease.

(2) The Legislature expressly finds that many leases involving use of recreational or other common facilities by residents of condominiums were entered into by parties wholly representative of the interests of a condominium developer at a time when the condominium unit owners not only did not control the administration of their condominium, but also had little or no voice in such administration. Such leases often contain numerous obligations on the part of either or both a condominium association and condominium unit owners with relatively few obligations on the part of the lessor. Such leases may or may not be unconscionable in any given case. Nevertheless, the Legislature finds that a combination of certain onerous obligations and circumstances warrants the establishment of a rebuttable presumption of unconscionability of certain leases, as specified in subsection (1). The presumption may be rebutted by a lessor upon the showing of additional facts and circumstances to justify and validate what otherwise appears to be an unconscionable lease under this section. Failure of a lease to contain all the enumerated elements shall neither preclude a determination of unconscionability of the lease nor raise a presumption as to its conscionability. It is the intent of the Legislature that this section is remedial and does not create any new cause of action to invalidate any condominium lease, but shall operate as a statutory prescription on procedural matters in actions brought on one or more causes of action existing at the time of the execution of such lease.

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-221.

718.123 Right of owners to peaceably assemble.—

(1) All common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities serving any condominium shall be reserved exclusively for the use and benefit of the unit owners and their invited guests. Each association shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations pertaining to the use of such common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities. The use of such common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities shall be subject only to those rules and regulations as are adopted by the association; however, such rules and regulations shall not unreasonably restrict any unit owner's right to peaceably assemble or right to invite public officers or candidates for public office to appear and speak on common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities.

(2) Any owner prevented from exercising rights guaranteed by subsection (1) may bring an action in the appropriate court of the county in which the alleged infringement occurred, and, upon favorable adjudication, the court shall enjoin the enforcement of any provision contained in any condominium document or rule which operates to deprive the owner of such rights.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-222; s. 262, ch. 79-400.

718.124 Limitation on actions by association.—The statute of limitations for any actions in law or equity which a condominium association or a cooperative association may have shall not begin to run until the unit owners have elected a majority of the members of the board of administration.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-222; s. 263, ch. 79-400.

718.125 Attorney's fees.—If a contract or lease between a condominium unit owner or association and a developer contains a provision allowing attorney's fees to the developer, should any litigation arise under the provisions of the contract or lease, the court shall also allow reasonable attorney's fees to the unit owner or association when the unit owner or association prevails in any action by or against the unit owner or association with respect to the contract or lease.

History.—s. 9, ch. 78-340.

718.126 Application of chapter 78-340, Laws of Florida.—The amendments to this chapter by chapter 78-340, Laws of Florida, shall apply to all contracts in effect on the effective date of chapter 78-340 and to all contracts entered into after the effective date of chapter 78-340.

History.—s. 11, ch. 78-340.

PART II

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF DEVELOPERS

- 718.201 Taxes; bond for payment of liability during construction.
 718.202 Sales or reservation deposits prior to closing.
 718.203 Warranties.

(1) Prior to the commencement of any construction activity with respect to a proposed condominium apartment development, the developer thereof shall post a bond or place an amount of money in escrow as provided in this section, conditioned for payment to the tax collector in the county in which the property or parcel lies, or his successor, upon default in payment of property taxes or special assessments assessed against the property or parcel prior to time of closing with a unit owner. The developer may select whether to post a bond or place an amount of money in escrow, but, if such selection is not made and bond posted or amount of money placed in escrow prior to the beginning of construction, the tax collector or his successor shall make the selection and require compliance with the provisions of this section. However, the developer shall be exempt from the provisions of this section upon furnishing to the clerk of the circuit court evidence of payment of all taxes and assessments due on the property or parcel.

(2) The bond required to be posted or the amount of money required to be placed in escrow under the provisions of this section shall be in the amount equal to 110 percent of the total ad valorem tax liability against the property or parcel in the year immediately preceding the year in which construction is proposed to be commenced. Such bond or account in escrow shall be posted or placed, as appropriate, with the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which the property or parcel lies.

(3) No interest shall be paid upon any bond posted or sum of money placed in escrow under the provisions of this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

718.202 Sales or reservation deposits prior to closing.—

(1) If a developer contracts to sell a condominium parcel and the construction, furnishing, and landscaping of the property submitted to condominium ownership has not been substantially completed in accordance with the plans and specifications and representations made by the developer in the disclosures required by this chapter, the developer shall pay into an escrow account established with a bank or trust company having trust powers, an attorney who is a member of The Florida Bar, a real estate broker registered under chapter 475, or a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property in the State of Florida, all payments up to 10 percent of the sale price received by the developer from the buyer towards the sale price. The escrow agent shall give to the purchaser a receipt for the deposit, upon request. The escrowed funds may be deposited in separate accounts or in common escrow or trust accounts or commingled with other escrow or trust accounts handled by or received by the escrow agent. The escrow agent may invest the escrow funds in securities of the United States or any agency thereof or in savings or time deposits in institutions insured by an agency of the United States. Funds shall be released from escrow as follows:

(a) If a buyer properly terminates the contract pursuant to its terms or pursuant to this chapter, the funds shall be paid to the buyer together with any interest earned.

(b) If the buyer defaults in the performance of his obligations under the contract of purchase and sale, the funds shall be paid to the developer together with any interest earned.

(c) If the contract does not provide for the payment of any interest earned on the escrowed funds, interest shall be paid to the developer at the closing of the transaction.

(d) If the funds of a buyer have not been previously disbursed in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, they may be disbursed to the developer by the escrow agent at the closing of the transaction, unless prior to the disbursement the escrow agent receives from the buyer written notice of a dispute between the buyer and developer.

(2) All payments in excess of the 10 percent of the sale price described in subsection (1) received prior to completion of construction by the developer from the buyer on a contract for purchase of a condominium parcel shall be held in a special escrow account by the developer or his agent and may not be used by the developer prior to closing the transaction, except as provided in subsection (3) or except for refund to the buyer. If the money remains in this special account for more than 3 months and earns interest, the interest shall be paid as provided in subsection (1).

(3) If the contract for sale of the condominium unit so provides, the developer may withdraw escrow funds in excess of 10 percent of the purchase price from the special account required by subsection (2) when the construction of improvements has begun. He may use the funds in the actual construction and development of the condominium property in which the unit to be sold is located. However, no part of these funds may be used for salaries, commissions, or expenses of salesmen or for advertising purposes. A contract which permits use of the advance payments for these purposes shall include the following legend conspicuously printed or stamped in boldface type on the first page of the contract and immediately above the place for signature of the buyer: ANY PAYMENT IN EXCESS OF 10 PERCENT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE MADE TO DEVELOPER PRIOR TO CLOSING PURSUANT TO THIS CONTRACT MAY BE USED FOR CONSTRUCTION PURPOSES BY THE DEVELOPER.

(4) "Completion of construction" means issuance of a certificate of occupancy for the entire building or improvement, or the equivalent authorization issued by the governmental body having jurisdiction, and, in jurisdictions where no certificate of occupancy or equivalent authorization is issued, it means substantial completion of construction, finishing, and equipping of the building or improvements according to the plans and specifications.

(5) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section renders the contract voidable by the buyer, and, if voided, all sums deposited or advanced under the contract shall be refunded with interest at the highest rate then being paid on savings accounts, excluding certificates of deposit, by savings and loan associations in the area in which the condominium property is located.

(6) If a developer enters into a reservation agreement, the developer shall pay into an escrow account established with a trust company, a bank having trust powers, an attorney who is a member of The Florida Bar, a real estate broker registered under chapter 475, or a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property in this state all reservation deposit payments. The escrow agent shall give to the prospective purchaser a receipt for the deposit upon request. The funds in escrow may be deposited in separate accounts or in common escrow or trust accounts handled by or received by the escrow agent and may be placed in either interest-bearing or noninterest-bearing accounts, provided that the funds shall at all reasonable times be available for withdrawal in full by the escrow agent. Upon written request to the escrow agent by the prospective purchaser or developer, the funds shall be immediately and without qualification refunded in full to the prospective purchaser. Upon such refund, any interest shall be paid to the prospective purchaser, unless otherwise provided in the reservation agreement. Upon the execution of a purchase agreement for a unit, any funds paid by the purchaser as a deposit to reserve the unit pursuant to a reservation agreement, and any interest thereon, shall cease to be subject to the provisions of this subsection and shall instead be subject to the provisions of subsections (1)-(5).

(7) Any developer who willfully fails to pay all required funds into the escrow accounts required by this section is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 7, ch. 79-314.

718.203 Warranties.—

(1) The developer shall be deemed to have granted to the purchaser of each unit an implied warranty of fitness and merchantability for the purposes or uses intended as follows:

(a) As to each unit, a warranty for 3 years commencing with the completion of the building containing the unit.

(b) As to the personal property that is transferred with, or appurtenant to, each unit, a warranty which is for the same period as that provided by the manufacturer of the personal property, commencing with the date of closing of the purchase or the date of possession of the unit, whichever is earlier.

(c) As to all other improvements for the use of unit owners, a 3-year warranty commencing with the date of completion of the improvements.

(d) As to all other personal property for the use of unit owners, a warranty which shall be the same as that provided by the manufacturer of the personal property.

(e) As to the roof and structural components of a building or other improvements and as to mechanical, electrical, and plumbing elements serving improvements or a building, except mechanical elements serving only one unit, a warranty for a period beginning with the completion of construction of each building or improvement and continuing for 3 years thereafter or 1 year after owners other than the developer obtain control of the association, whichever occurs last, but in no event more than 5 years.

(f) As to all other property which is conveyed with a unit, a warranty to the initial purchaser of each unit for a period of 1 year from the date of closing of the purchase or the date of possession, whichever occurs first.

(2) The contractor and all subcontractors and suppliers grant to the developer and to the purchaser of each unit implied warranties of fitness as to the work performed or materials supplied by them as follows:

(a) For a period of 3 years from the date of completion of construction of a building or improvement, a warranty as to the roof and structural components of the building or improvement and mechanical and plumbing elements serving a building or an improvement, except mechanical elements serving only one unit.

(b) For a period of 1 year after completion of all construction, a warranty as to all other improvements and materials.

(3) "Completion of a building or improvement" means issuance of a certificate of occupancy for the entire building or improvement, or the equivalent authorization issued by the governmental body having jurisdiction, and in jurisdictions where no certificate of occupancy or equivalent authorization is issued, it means substantial completion of construction, finishing, and equipping of the building or improvement according to the plans and specifications.

(4) These warranties are conditioned upon routine maintenance being performed, unless the maintenance is an obligation of the developer or a developer-controlled association.

(5) The warranties provided by this section shall inure to the benefit of each owner and his successor owners and to the benefit of the developer.

(6) Nothing in this section affects a condominium as to which rights are established by contracts for sale of 10 percent or more of the units in the condominium by the developer to prospective unit owners prior to July 1, 1974, or as to condominium buildings on which construction has been commenced prior to July 1, 1974.

(7) Residential condominiums may be covered by an insured warranty program underwritten by a licensed insurance company registered in this state, provided that such warranty program meets the minimum requirements of this chapter; to the degree that such warranty program does not meet the minimum requirements of this chapter, such requirements shall apply.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-221; s. 8, ch. 77-222; s. 3, ch. 78-340; s. 9, ch. 79-314.

PART III

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF ASSOCIATION

- 718.301 Transfer of association control.
- 718.302 Agreements entered into by the association.
- 718.3025 Agreements for operation, maintenance, or management of condominiums; specific requirements.
- 718.303 Obligations of owners.
- 718.304 Association's right to amend declaration of condominium.

718.301 Transfer of association control.—

(1) When unit owners other than the developer own 15 percent or more of the units in a condominium that will be operated ultimately by an association, the unit owners other than the developer shall be entitled to elect no less than one-third of the members of the board of administration of the association. Unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association:

(a) Three years after 50 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(b) Three months after 90 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(c) When all the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business; or

(d) When some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business,

whichever occurs first. The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of administration of an association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least 5 percent, in condominiums with fewer than 500 units, and 2 percent, in condominiums with more than 500 units, of the units in a condominium operated by the association.

(2) Within 60 days after the unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect a member or members of the board of administration of an association, the association shall call, and give not less than 30 days' or more than 40 days' notice of, a meeting of the unit owners to elect the members of the board of administration. The meeting may be called and the notice given by any unit owner if the association fails to do so.

(3) If a developer holds units for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following actions may be taken without approval in writing by the developer:

(a) Assessment of the developer as a unit owner for capital improvements.

(b) Any action by the association that would be detrimental to the sales of units by the developer.

However, an increase in assessments for common expenses without discrimination against the developer shall not be deemed to be detrimental to the sales of units.

(4) Prior to, or not more than 60 days after, the time that unit owners other than the developer elect a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association, the developer shall relinquish control of the association, and the unit owners shall accept control. Simultaneously, the developer shall deliver to the association all property of the unit owners and of the association held or controlled by the developer, including, but not limited to, the following items, if applicable, as to each condominium operated by the association:

(a)1. The original or a photocopy of the recorded declaration of condominium and all amendments thereto. If a photocopy is provided, it shall be certified by affidavit of the developer, or an officer or agent of the developer, as being a complete copy of the actual recorded declaration.

2. A certified copy of the association's articles of incorporation, or if the association was created prior to the effective date of this act and it is not incorporated, then copies of the documents creating the association.

3. A copy of the bylaws.

4. The minute books, including all minutes, and other books and records of the association, if any.

5. Any house rules and regulations which have been promulgated.

(b) Resignations of officers and members of the board of administration who are required to resign because the developer is required to relinquish control of the association.

(c) An audit and accounting, which need not be certified, for all association funds, performed by an auditor independent of the developer, including capital accounts, reserve accumulations in accordance with s. 718.504(20)(c) 1.k., and contributions.

(d) Association funds or control thereof.

(e) All tangible personal property that is property of the association, represented by the developer to be part of the common elements or ostensibly part of the common elements, and an inventory of that property.

(f) A copy of the plans and specifications utilized in the construction or remodeling of improvements and the supplying of equipment to the condominium and in the construction and installation of all mechanical components serving the improvements and the site, with a certificate in affidavit form of the developer, his agent, or an architect or engineer authorized to practice in this state that such plans and specifications represent, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the actual plans and specifications utilized in the construction and improvement of the condominium property and for the construction and installation of the mechanical components serving the improvements. If the condominium property has been declared a condominium more than 3 years after the completion of construction or remodeling of the improvements, the requirements of this paragraph shall not apply.

(g) Insurance policies.

(h) Copies of any certificates of occupancy which may have been issued for the condominium property.

(i) Any other permits issued by governmental bodies applicable to the condominium property in force or issued within 1 year prior to the date the unit owners other than the developer take control of the association.

(j) All written warranties of the contractor, subcontractors, suppliers, and manufacturers, if any, that are still effective.

(k) A roster of unit owners and their addresses and telephone numbers, if known, as shown on the developer's records.

(l) Leases of the common elements and other leases to which the association is a party.

(m) Employment contracts or service contracts in which the association is one of the contracting parties or service contracts in which the association or the unit owners have an obligation or responsibility, directly or indirectly, to pay some or all of the fee or charge of the person or persons performing the service.

(n) All other contracts to which the association is a party.

718.302 Agreements entered into by the association.—

(1) Any grant or reservation made by a declaration, lease, or other document, and any contract made by an association prior to assumption of control of the association by unit owners other than the developer, that provides for operation, maintenance, or management of a condominium association or property serving the unit owners of a condominium shall be fair and reasonable, and may be canceled by unit owners other than the developer:

(a) If the association operates only one condominium and the unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of the association, or if unit owners other than the developer own not less than 75 percent of the units in the condominium, the cancellation shall be by concurrence of the owners of not less than 75 percent of the units other than the units owned by the developer. If a grant, reservation, or contract is so canceled and the unit owners other than the developer have not assumed control of the association, the association shall make a new contract or otherwise provide for maintenance, management, or operation in lieu of the canceled obligation, at the direction of the owners of not less than a majority of the units in the condominium other than the units owned by the developer.

(b) If the association operates more than one condominium and the unit owners other than the developer have not assumed control of the association, and if unit owners other than the developer own at least 75 percent of the units in a condominium operated by the association, any grant, reservation, or contract for maintenance, management, or operation of buildings containing the units in that condominium or of improvements used only by unit owners of that condominium may be canceled by concurrence of the owners of at least 75 percent of the units in the condominium other than the units owned by the developer. No grant, reservation, or contract for maintenance, management, or operation of recreational areas or any other property serving more than one condominium, and operated by more than one association, may be canceled except pursuant to paragraph (d). If a grant, reservation, or contract is canceled under this provision, the association shall provide for maintenance, management, or operation of the property in a manner consented to by the owners of not less than a majority of the units in the condominium other than the units owned by the developer.

(c) If the association operates more than one condominium and the unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of the association, the cancellation shall be by concurrence of the owners of not less than 75 percent of the total number of units in all condominiums operated by the association other than the units owned by the developer.

(d) If the owners of units in a condominium have the right to use property in common with owners of units in other condominiums and those condominiums are operated by more than one association, no grant, reservation, or contract for maintenance, management, or operation of the property serving more than one condominium may be canceled until unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of all of the associations operating the condominiums that are to be served by the recreational area or other property, after which cancellation may be effected by concurrence of the owners of not less than 75 percent of the total number of units in those condominiums other than units owned by the developer.

(e)1. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, a developer may obligate an association under a lease agreement or other contractual agreement for vending equipment to be used in common by unit owners or for space at the condominium property whereupon vending equipment will be used in common by unit owners, and such lease or agreement shall not be subject to cancellation as provided herein, provided that:

a. The agreement is with an entity which is duly licensed to transact business in the state and independent of the developer. As used in this paragraph, "independent of the developer" means that the developer has no direct or indirect financial interest in the entity and is not related by blood or marriage to any person who does have a direct or indirect interest in the entity;

b. The terms and conditions of the agreement, including but not limited to the amount of rental fees and other costs, are fair and reasonable and in substantial conformity with those prevailing in agreements for similar purposes in the locality;

c. The agreement is for an initial term not exceeding 4 years or, if for a longer term, shall be enforceable for no longer than 4 years, and no renewal or extension of the agreement can be effective other than by mutual consent;

d. The vending equipment contemplated by the agreement is new and unused when originally installed on the condominium property and meets applicable nationally recognized standards for fitness and safety;

e. The association has no obligation under the agreement to maintain or repair the vending equipment, and the owner thereof is obligated to make periodic inspections (not less frequently than monthly) and to ensure that all of the same remain in good working order; and

f. The agreement contains the entire understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matters covered thereby, without the necessity of reference to, or dependence upon, any other oral or written understanding.

2. As used in this paragraph, the term "vending equipment" shall mean any machine by which a service or product is dispensed, whether such machine is operated by coin, electronic ticket, or token.

(2) Any grant or reservation made by a declaration, lease, or other document, and any contract made by an association, whether before or after assumption of control of the association by unit owners other than the developer, that provides for operation, maintenance, or management of a condominium association or property serving the unit owners of a condominium shall not be in conflict with the powers and duties of the association or the rights of the unit owners as provided in this chapter. This subsection is intended only as a clarification of existing law.

(3) Any grant or reservation made by a declaration, lease, or other document, and any contract made by an association prior to assumption of control of the association by unit owners other than the developer, shall be fair and reasonable.

(4) It is declared that the public policy of this state prohibits the inclusion or enforcement of escalation clauses in management contracts for condominiums, and such clauses are hereby declared void for public policy. For the purposes of this section, an escalation clause is any clause in a condominium management contract which provides that the fee under the contract shall increase at the same percentage rate as any nationally recognized and conveniently available commodity or consumer price index.

(5) Any action to compel compliance with the provisions of this section or of s. 718.301 may be brought pursuant to the summary procedure provided for in s. 51.011. In any such action brought to compel compliance with the provisions of s. 718.301, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 11, ch. 79-314.

718.3025 Agreements for operation, maintenance, or management of condominiums; specific requirements.—

(1) No written contract between a party contracting to provide maintenance or management services and an association which contract provides for operation, maintenance, or management of a condominium association or property serving the unit owners of a condominium shall be valid or enforceable unless the contract:

(a) Specifies the services, obligations, and responsibilities of the party contracting to provide maintenance or management services to the unit owners.

(b) Specifies those costs incurred in the performance of those services, obligations, or responsibilities which are to be reimbursed by the association to the party contracting to provide maintenance or management services.

(c) Provides an indication of how often each service, obligation, or responsibility is to be performed, whether stated for each service, obligation, or responsibility or in categories thereof.

(d) Specifies a minimum number of personnel to be employed by the party contracting to provide maintenance or management services for the purpose of providing service to the association.

(e) Discloses any financial or ownership interest which the developer, if the developer is in control of the association, holds with regard to the party contracting to provide maintenance or management services.

(2) In any case in which the party contracting to provide maintenance or management services fails to provide such services in accordance with the contract, the association is authorized to procure such services from some other party and shall be entitled to collect any fees or charges paid for service performed by another party from the party contracting to provide maintenance or management services.

(3) Any services or obligations not stated on the face of the contract shall be unenforceable.

History.—s. 5, ch. 78-340; s. 12, ch. 79-314.

718.303 Obligations of owners.—

(1) Each unit owner and each association shall be governed by, and shall comply with the provisions of, this chapter, the declaration, the documents creating the association, and the association bylaws. Actions for damages or for injunctive relief, or both, for failure to comply with these provisions may be brought by the association or by a unit owner against:

(a) The association.

(b) A unit owner.

(c) Directors designated by the developer, for actions taken by them prior to the time control of the association is assumed by unit owners other than the developer.

(d) Any director who willfully and knowingly fails to comply with these provisions.

The prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees. This relief does not exclude other remedies provided by law.

(2) A provision of this chapter may not be waived if the waiver would adversely affect the rights of a unit owner or the purpose of the provision, except that unit owners or members of a board of administration may waive notice of specific meetings in writing if provided by the bylaws. Any instrument given in writing by the unit owner to an escrow agent may be relied upon by an escrow agent, whether or not such instruction and the payment of funds thereunder might constitute a waiver of any provision of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

718.304 Association's right to amend declaration of condominium.—

amendment to the declaration, or the other documents required to create a condominium, in the manner provided in the declaration to amend the declaration, or, if none is provided, then by vote of a majority of the unit owners. The amendment is effective when passed and approved and a certificate of the amendment is executed and recorded as provided in s. 718.104. This procedure for amendment cannot be used if such an amendment would materially or adversely affect property rights of unit owners, unless the affected unit owners consent in writing. This subsection does not restrict the powers of the association to otherwise amend the declaration, or other documentation, but authorizes a simple process of amendment requiring a lesser vote for the purpose of curing defects, errors, or omissions when the property rights of unit owners are not materially or adversely affected.

(2) If there is an omission or error in a declaration of condominium, or other documents required to establish the condominium, which would affect the valid existence of the condominium and which may not be corrected by the amendment procedures in the declaration or this chapter, then the Circuit Courts have jurisdiction to entertain petitions of one or more of the unit owners therein, or of the association, to correct the error or omission, and the action may be a class action. The court may require that one or more methods of correcting the error or omission be submitted to the unit owners to determine the most acceptable correction. All unit owners and the association must be joined as parties to the action. Service of process on owners may be by publication, but the plaintiff shall furnish all unit owners not personally served with process with copies of the petition and final decree of the court by certified mail, return receipt requested, at their last known residence address. If an action to determine whether the declaration or other condominium documents comply with the mandatory requirements for the formation of a condominium contained in this chapter is not brought within 3 years of the filing of the declaration, the declaration and other documents shall be effective under this chapter to create a condominium, whether or not the documents substantially comply with the mandatory requirements of this chapter. However, both before and after the expiration of this 3-year period, Circuit Courts have jurisdiction to entertain petitions permitted under this subsection for the correction of the documentation, and other methods of amendment may be utilized to correct the errors or omissions at any time.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

PART IV

SPECIAL TYPES OF CONDOMINIUMS

- 718.401 Leaseholds.
- 718.402 Conversion of existing improvements to condominium.
- 718.403 Phase condominiums.

718.401 Leaseholds.—A condominium may be created on lands held by a developer under lease or may include recreational facilities or other common elements or commonly used facilities on a leasehold, if, on the date the first unit is conveyed by the developer to a bona fide purchaser, the lease has an unexpired term of at least 50 years. If rent under the lease is payable by the association or by the unit owners, the lease shall include the following requirements:

(1) The leased land must be identified by a description that is sufficient to pass title, and the leased personal property must be identified by a general description of the items of personal property and the approximate number of each item of personal property that the developer is committing to furnish for each room or other facility. In the alternative, the personal property may be identified by a representation as to the minimum amount of expenditure that will be made to purchase the personal property for the facility. Unless the lease is of a unit, the identification of the land shall be supplemented by a survey showing the relation of the leased land to the land included in the common elements. This provision shall not prohibit adding additional land or personal property in accordance with the terms of the lease, provided there is no increase in rent or material increase in maintenance costs to the individual unit owner.

(2) The lease shall not contain a reservation of the right of possession or control of the leased property by the lessor or any person other than unit owners or the association, and shall not create rights to possession or use of the leased property in any parties other than the association or unit owners of the condominium to be served by the leased property, unless the reservations and rights created are conspicuously disclosed. Any provision for use of the leased property by anyone other than unit owners of the condominium to be served by the leased property shall require the other users to pay a fair and reasonable share of the maintenance and repair obligations and other exactions due from users of the leased property.

(3) The lease shall state the minimum number of unit owners that will be required, directly or indirectly, to pay the rent under the lease and the maximum number of units that will be served by the leased property. The limitation of the number of units to be served shall not preclude enlargement of the facilities leased and an increase in their capacity, if approved by the association operating the leased property after unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of the association.

(4)(a) In any action by the lessor to enforce a lien for rent payable or in any action by the association or a unit owner with respect to the obligations of the lessee or the lessor under the lease, the unit owner or the association may raise any issue or interpose any defenses, legal or equitable, that he or it may have with respect to the lessor's obligations under the lease. If the unit owner or the association initiates any action or interposes any defense other than payment of rent under the lease, the unit owner or the association shall, upon service of process upon the lessor, pay into the registry of the court any allegedly accrued rent and the rent which accrues during the pendency of the proceeding, when due. If the unit owner or the association fails to pay the rent into the registry of the court, it shall constitute an absolute waiver of the unit owner's or association's defenses other than payment, and the lessor shall be entitled to default. The unit owner or the association shall notify the lessor of any deposits. When the unit owner or the association has deposited the required funds into the registry of the court, the lessor may apply to the court for disbursement for all or part of the funds shown to be necessary for the payment of taxes, mortgage payments, maintenance and operating expenses, and other necessary expenses incident to maintaining and equipping the leased facilities. The court, after an evidentiary hearing, may award all or part of the funds on deposit to the lessor for such purpose. The court shall require the lessor to post bond or other security, as a condition to the release of funds from the registry, when the value of the leased land and improvements, apart from the lease itself, is inadequate to fully secure the sum of existing encumbrances on the leased property and the amounts released from the court registry.

(b) When the association or unit owners have deposited funds into the registry of the court pursuant to this subsection and the unit owners and association have otherwise complied with their obligations under the lease or agreement, other than paying rent into the registry of the court rather than to the lessor, the lessor cannot hold the association or unit owners in default on their rental payments, nor may the lessor file liens or initiate foreclosure proceedings against unit owners. If the lessor in violation of this subsection, attempts such liens or foreclosures, then the lessor may be liable for damages plus attorney's fees and costs that the association or unit owners incurred in satisfying said liens or foreclosures.

(c) Nothing in this subsection shall affect litigation commenced prior to October 1, 1979.

(5) If the lease is of recreational facilities or other commonly used facilities that are not completed, rent shall not commence until some of the facilities are completed. Until all of the facilities leased are completed, rent shall be prorated and paid only for the completed facilities in the proportion that the value of the completed facilities bears to the estimated value, when completed, of all of the facilities that are leased. The facilities shall be complete when they have been constructed, finished, and equipped and are available for use.

(6)(a) A lease of recreational or other commonly used facilities entered into by the association prior to the time the control of the association is turned over to unit owners other than the developer shall grant to the lessee an option to purchase the leased property, payable in cash, on any anniversary date of the beginning of the lease term after the tenth anniversary, at a price then determined by agreement. If there is no agreement as to the price, then the price shall be determined by arbitration.

(b) If the lessor wishes to sell his interest and has received a bona fide offer to purchase it, the lessor shall send the association and each unit owner a copy of the executed offer. For 90 days following receipt of the offer by the association, the association has the option to purchase the interest on the terms and conditions in the offer. The option shall be exercised, if at all, by notice in writing given to the lessor within the 90-day period. If the association does not exercise the option, the lessor shall have the right, for a period of 60 days after the 90-day period has expired, to complete the transaction described in the offer to purchase. If for any reason such transaction is not concluded within the 60 days, the offer shall have been abandoned, and the provisions of this subsection shall be reimposed.

(c) The option shall be exercised upon approval by owners of two-thirds of the units served by the leased property.

(d) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply if the lessor is the Government of the United States or the State of Florida or any political subdivision thereof or, in the case of an underlying land lease, a person or entity which is not the developer or directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the developer and did not obtain, directly or indirectly, ownership of the leased property from the developer.

(7) The lease or a subordination agreement executed by the lessor must provide either:

(a) That any lien which encumbers a unit for rent or other moneys or exactions payable is subordinate to any mortgage held by an institutional lender, or

(b) That, upon the foreclosure of any mortgage held by an institutional lender or upon delivery of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, the lien for the unit owner's share of the rent or other exactions shall not be extinguished, but shall be foreclosed and unenforceable against the mortgagee with respect to that unit's share of the rent and other exactions which mature or become due and payable on or before the date of the final judgment of foreclosure, in the event of foreclosure, or on or before the date of delivery of the deed in lieu of foreclosure. The lien may, however, automatically and by operation of the lease or other instrument, reattach to the unit and secure the payment of the unit's proportionate share of the rent or other exactions coming due subsequent to the date of final decree of foreclosure or the date of delivery of the deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(8)(a) It is declared that the public policy of this state prohibits the inclusion or enforcement of escalation clauses in leases or agreements for recreational facilities, land, or other commonly used facilities serving condominiums, and such clauses are hereby declared void for public policy. For the purposes of this section, an escalation clause is any clause in a condominium lease or agreement which provides that the rental under the lease or agreement shall increase at the same percentage rate as any nationally recognized and conveniently available commodity or consumer price index.

(b) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply if the lessor is the Government of the United States or the State of Florida or any political subdivision thereof or any agency of any political subdivision thereof.

718.402 Conversion of existing improvements to condominium.—

(1) A developer may create a condominium by converting existing, previously occupied improvements to such ownership by complying with part I of this chapter.

(2)(a) If existing improvements are converted to ownership as a residential condominium, each residential tenant of the existing improvements shall have the right to extend an expiring lease or tenancy upon the same terms for a period that will expire no later than 180 days after written notice to the tenant of the intended conversion. A tenant must give written notice to the developer of his intention to extend his lease or tenancy within 30 days after he receives notice of the intended conversion.

(b) Any discount to an existing tenant on the purchase price of a condominium parcel in a conversion of existing improvements shall be offered for a period of not less than 60 days from the date of first offering to such tenant.

(3)(a) It is the policy of this state that provisions of contracts, leases, or other undertakings which allow landlords or developers, at their option, to cancel and terminate the terms of such leases upon the conversion of the property and improvements to condominium ownership upon less than 120 days' notice to the tenant are against public policy. Any provisions in any contract, lease, or undertaking which provides for cancellation or termination of the term of any lease for an apartment or other residence at the option of the landlord or developer for reason of its intended conversion to a condominium form of ownership without at least 120 days' notice shall be unenforceable except in the following cases:

1. If the term of the lease has less than 150 days remaining after such notification is given.

2. If the lease grants the tenant an option to purchase the apartment or other residence in which he resides at a price equal to or less than that offered to nontenants, which option is exercisable by the tenant during a period of not less than 90 days after the mailing of a notice of the intended conversion to the tenant.

3. If the lease provides that the lessor or developer shall not convert to condominium ownership except with the consent of the tenants of not less than 60 percent of the apartments or other dwellings in improvements intended to be converted. For the purpose of this vote, unoccupied apartments or dwellings shall be counted and the developer or lessor may vote those apartments.

(b) If the lease provides for a notification to the tenant of less than 120 days and if the term of the lease has more than 150 days remaining after notification is given, notification of termination to the tenant will be effective if the notice provides that the tenant shall have 150 days or more before cancellation or termination becomes effective.

(c) Leases executed subsequent to the developer's or landlord's announcement of intention to convert to condominium ownership may provide for cancellation or termination upon not less than 60 days' notice to the tenant, provided the landlord conspicuously discloses in the lease the intention to convert the property containing the leased premises to condominium ownership and that the lease may be canceled upon 60 days' notice to the tenant.

(d) The notice requirements of this subsection shall not apply to a lease entered into simultaneously with, or subsequent to, a contract to purchase the unit.

(4) All notices to tenants shall be given when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the tenant at his last known residence, which may be the address of the property subject to the lease, sent by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid. Notice may not be waived by a tenant unless the tenant's lease states that the building is to be converted.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 14, ch. 79-314.

718.403 Phase condominiums.—

(1) A developer may develop a condominium in phases, if the original declaration of condominium submitting the initial phase to condominium ownership provides for and describes in detail all anticipated phases; the impact, if any, which the completion of subsequent phases would have upon the initial phase; and the time period within which each phase must be completed.

(2) The original declaration of condominium shall describe:

(a) The land which may become part of the condominium and the land on which each phase is to be built. The descriptions shall include metes and bounds or other legal descriptions of the land for each phase, plot plans, and surveys.

(b) The number and general size of units to be included in each phase.

(c) Each unit's percentage ownership in the common elements as each phase is added.

(d) The recreation areas and facilities to be owned as common elements by all unit owners and all personal property to be provided and a description of those facilities or areas which may not be built or provided if any phase or phases are not developed and added as a part of the condominium.

(e) The membership vote and ownership in the association attributable to each unit in each phase and the results if any phase or phases are not developed and added as a part of the condominium.

(f) Whether or not time-share estates will or may be created with respect to units in any phase, and if so, the degree, quantity, nature, and extent of such estates, specifying the minimum duration of the recurring periods of rights of use, possession, or occupancy that may be established with respect to any unit.

(3) The developer shall notify owners of existing units of the commencement of, or the decision not to add, one or more additional phases. Notice shall be by certified mail addressed to each owner at the address of his unit or at his last known address.

(4) If one or more phases are not built, the units which are built are entitled to 100 percent ownership of all common elements within the phases actually developed and added as a part of the condominium.

(5) If the declaration requires the developer to convey any additional lands or facilities to the condominium after the completion of the first phase and he fails to do so within the time specified, or within a reasonable time if none is specified, then any owner of a unit or the association may enforce such obligations against the developer or bring an action against the developer for damages caused by the developer's failure to convey to the association such additional lands or facilities.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 718.110, amendments adding phases to a condominium shall not require the execution of such amendments or consents thereto by unit owners other than the developer, unless the amendment permits the creation of time-share estates in any unit of the additional phase of the condominium and such creation is not authorized by the original declaration.

PART V

REGULATION AND DISCLOSURE PRIOR TO SALE OF RESIDENTIAL CONDOMINIUMS

- 718.501 Regulation by Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums.
- 718.502 Filing prior to sale or lease.
- 718.503 Disclosure prior to sale.
- 718.504 Prospectus or offering circular.
- 718.505 Good faith effort to comply.
- 718.506 Publication of false and misleading information.
- 718.507 Zoning and building.
- 718.508 Regulation by Division of Hotels and Restaurants.

718.501 Regulation by Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums.—

(1) The Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums of the Department of Business Regulation, referred to as the division in this part, in addition to other powers and duties prescribed by chapter 478, has the power to enforce and insure compliance with the provisions of this chapter and rules promulgated pursuant hereto relating to the development, construction, sale, lease, ownership, operation, and management of residential condominium units. In performing its duties, the division shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) The division shall receive, and may investigate pursuant to the authority specified in s. 478.151, complaints relating to the violation of the provisions of this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant hereto, including disputes arising from the internal affairs and management of condominium associations, and may conduct informal hearings for the purpose of seeking amicable settlement of disputes and voluntary compliance with the provisions of law.

(b) Notwithstanding any remedies available to unit owners and associations, if the division has reasonable cause to believe that a violation of any provision of this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant hereto has occurred, the division may institute enforcement proceedings in its own name against any developer or association, or its assignees or agents, as follows:

1. The division may issue cease and desist orders pursuant to s. 478.171.
2. The division may bring an action in circuit court for declaratory relief, injunctive relief, or restitution on behalf of a class of unit owners or lessees.
3. The division may impose civil penalties against any developer or association, or its assignees or agents, for violations of this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant hereto. A penalty may be imposed on the basis of each day of continuing violation, but in no event shall the penalty for any offense exceed $5,000. All amounts collected shall be deposited with the Treasurer to the credit of the Florida Land Sales and Condominiums Trust Fund. If a developer fails to pay the civil penalty, the division shall thereupon issue an order directing that such developer cease and desist from further operation until such time as the civil penalty is paid and may pursue enforcement of the penalty in a court of competent jurisdiction. If an association fails to pay the civil penalty, the division shall thereupon pursue enforcement in a court of competent jurisdiction. In order to permit the developer or association an opportunity either to appeal such decision administratively or to seek relief in a court of competent jurisdiction, the order imposing the civil penalty or the cease and desist order shall not become effective until 20 days after the date of such order. Any action commenced by the division shall be brought in the county in which the division has its executive offices or in the county where the violation occurred.

(c) The division is authorized to prepare and disseminate a prospectus and other information to assist prospective owners, purchasers, lessees, and developers of residential condominiums in assessing the rights, privileges, and duties pertaining thereto.

(d) The division is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations, pursuant to chapter 120, necessary to implement, enforce, and interpret this chapter.

(e) The division shall furnish each association which pays the fees required by subsection (3)(a) a copy of this part and all amendments prior to the date they become effective.

(2)(a) There is hereby created an advisory board to advise the division in carrying out its duties, to be composed of seven members, of which three members shall be citizens from the condominium development industry, two members shall be nondeveloper unit owners who are association board members, and two members shall be nondeveloper unit owners who are not association officers or board members. Members of the advisory board shall be appointed by the Secretary of Business Regulation to serve at his pleasure. The advisory board shall assist and advise the division in residential condominium problems and, when possible, shall arbitrate controversies between unit owners and their associations.

(b) At the discretion of the board, in arbitrating controversies between unit owners and their associations, the board is authorized to utilize hearing officers as described in s. 120.65. The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 120. Neither the findings of fact nor the conclusions of law, administrative rulings, or orders of the hearing officer or the commission shall be binding upon the parties unless agreed to by the parties, in writing, at the time of the hearing; and all proceedings in the courts of this state involving the same parties or any of them and the arbitrated disputes shall commence and proceed de novo. The proceedings shall not be transcribed by a court reporter unless provided by the affected parties at their own expense. The board may reject or modify the conclusion of law and interpretation of administrative rules submitted by the hearing officer, but may not reject the findings of fact unless the board first determines from a review of the complete record that the findings of fact were not based upon competent substantial evidence or that the proceedings upon which the findings were based did not comply with essential requirements of law.

(3)(a) Each condominium association shall pay to the division, on or before January 1 of each year, an annual fee in the amount of 50 cents for each residential unit in condominiums operated by the association. If the fee is not paid by June 1, then the association shall be assessed a penalty of 10 percent of the amount due, and the association shall not have standing to maintain or defend any action in the courts of Florida until the amount due plus any penalty is paid.

(b) Any person filing a complaint with the division under this section shall pay a filing fee of $10 for each complaint.

(c) All fees shall be deposited in the Land Sales Trust Fund as provided by law.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

718.502 Filing prior to sale or lease.—

(1) A developer of a residential condominium shall file with the division one copy of each of the documents and items required to be furnished to a buyer or lessee by ss. 718.503 and 718.504, if applicable. Until the developer has so filed, a contract for sale or lease of a unit for more than 5 years shall be voidable by the purchaser or lessee prior to the closing of his purchase or lease of a unit.

(2) Prior to filing as required by subsection (1), a developer shall not offer a contract for purchase or lease of a unit for more than 5 years but may accept deposits for reservations upon filing with the Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums of the Department of Business Regulation an escrow agreement and reservation agreement form. The division shall notify the developer within 20 days of receipt of the reservation filing of any deficiencies contained therein. Such notification shall not preclude the determination of reservation filing deficiencies at a later date, nor shall it relieve the developer of any responsibility under the law. The escrow agreement and the reservation agreement form shall include a statement of the right of the prospective purchaser to an immediate unqualified refund of the reservation deposit moneys upon written request to the escrow agent by the prospective purchaser or the developer. The reservation agreement form shall also include the following:

(a) A statement of the obligation of the developer to file condominium documents with the division prior to entering into a binding purchase or lease agreement for more than 5 years.

(b) A statement of the right of the prospective purchaser to receive all condominium documents as required by this chapter.

(c) The name and address of the escrow agent and a statement that the prospective purchaser may obtain a receipt from the agent upon request.

(d) A statement as to whether the developer assures that the purchase price represented in or pursuant to the reservation agreement will be the price in the contract for purchase and sale, or that the price represented may be exceeded within a stated amount or percentage, or that no assurance is given as to the price in the contract for purchase or sale.

(3) Upon filing as required by subsection (1), the developer shall pay to the division a filing fee of $10 for each residential unit to be sold by the developer which is described in the documents filed. If the condominium is to be built or sold in phases, the fee shall be paid prior to offering for sale units in any subsequent phase.

(4) Any developer who complies with this section shall not be required to file with any other division or agency of this state for approval to sell the units in the condominium, the information for the condominium for which he filed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 8, ch. 79-314.

718.503 Disclosure prior to sale.—

(1) CONTENTS OF CONTRACTS.—Any contracts for the sale of a unit or a lease thereof for an unexpired term of more than 5 years shall contain:

(a) The following legend in conspicuous type: THIS AGREEMENT IS VOIDABLE BY BUYER BY DELIVERING WRITTEN NOTICE OF THE BUYER'S INTENTION TO CANCEL WITHIN 15 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT BY THE BUYER, AND RECEIPT BY BUYER OF ALL OF THE ITEMS REQUIRED TO BE DELIVERED TO HIM BY THE DEVELOPER UNDER SECTION 718.503, FLORIDA STATUTES. BUYER MAY EXTEND THE TIME FOR CLOSING FOR A PERIOD OF NOT MORE THAN 15 DAYS AFTER THE BUYER HAS RECEIVED ALL OF THE ITEMS REQUIRED. BUYER'S RIGHT TO VOID THIS AGREEMENT SHALL TERMINATE AT CLOSING.

(b) The following caveat in conspicuous type shall be placed upon the first page of the contract: ORAL REPRESENTATIONS CANNOT BE RELIED UPON AS CORRECTLY STATING THE REPRESENTATIONS OF THE DEVELOPER. FOR CORRECT REPRESENTATIONS, REFERENCE SHOULD BE MADE TO THIS CONTRACT AND THE DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY SECTION 718.503, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO BE FURNISHED BY A DEVELOPER TO A BUYER OR LESSEE.

(c) If the unit has been occupied by someone other than the buyer, a statement that the unit has been occupied.

(d) If the contract is for the sale or transfer of a unit subject to a lease, the contract shall include as an exhibit a copy of the executed lease and shall contain within the text in conspicuous type: THE UNIT IS SUBJECT TO A LEASE (OR SUBLEASE).

(e) If the contract is for the lease of a unit for a term of 5 years or more, the contract shall include as an exhibit a copy of the proposed lease.

(f) If the contract is for the sale or lease of a unit that is subject to a lien for rent payable under a lease of a recreational facility or other commonly used facility, the contract shall contain within the text the following statement in conspicuous type: THIS CONTRACT IS FOR THE TRANSFER OF A UNIT THAT IS SUBJECT TO A LIEN FOR RENT PAYABLE UNDER A LEASE OF COMMONLY USED FA-

CILITIES. FAILURE TO PAY RENT MAY RESULT IN FORECLOSURE OF THE LIEN.

(g) The contract shall state the name and address of the escrow agent required by s. 718.202 and shall state that the purchaser may obtain a receipt for his deposit from the escrow agent upon request.

(h) If the contract is for the sale or transfer of a unit in a condominium in which time-share estates have or may be created, the contract shall contain within the text in conspicuous type: UNITS IN THIS CONDOMINIUM ARE SUBJECT TO TIME-SHARE ESTATES.

(2) COPIES OF DOCUMENTS TO BE FURNISHED TO PROSPECTIVE BUYER OR LESSEE.

—Until such time as the developer has furnished the documents listed below to a person who has entered into a contract to purchase a unit or lease it for more than 5 years, the contract may be voided by such person, entitling such person to a refund of any deposit together with interest thereon as provided in s. 718.202. The contract may be terminated by written notice from the proposed buyer or lessee delivered to the developer within 15 days after the buyer or lessee receives all of the documents required by this section. The documents to be delivered to the prospective buyer are the prospectus or disclosure statement with all exhibits, if the development is subject to the provisions of s. 718.504, or, if not, then copies of the following which are applicable:

(a) The declaration of condominium, or the proposed declaration if the declaration has not been recorded, which shall include the certificate of a surveyor approximately representing the locations required by s. 718.104.

(b) The documents creating the association.

(c) The bylaws.

(d) The ground lease or other underlying lease of the condominium.

(e) The management contract, maintenance contract, and other contracts for management of the association and operation of the condominium and facilities used by the unit owners having a service term in excess of 1 year, and any management contracts that are renewable.

(f) The estimated operating budget for the condominium and a schedule of expenses for each type of unit.

(g) The lease of recreational and other facilities that will be used only by unit owners of the subject condominium.

(h) The lease of recreational and other common facilities that will be used by unit owners in common with unit owners of other condominiums.

(i) The form of unit lease if the offer is of a leasehold.

(j) Any declaration of servitude of properties serving the condominium but not owned by unit owners or leased to them or the association.

(k) If the development is to be built in phases or if the association is to manage more than one condominium, a description of the plan of phase development or the arrangements for the association to manage two or more condominiums.

(l) If the condominium is a conversion of existing improvements, a statement of the condition of the improvements and of inspection for termite damage and treatment thereof.

(m) The form of agreement for sale or lease of units.

(n) A copy of the floor plan of the unit and the plot plan showing the location of the residential buildings and the recreation and other common areas.

(o) A copy of all covenants and restrictions which will affect the use of the property and which are not contained in the foregoing.

(3) OTHER DISCLOSURE.—

(a) If condominium parcels are offered for sale or lease prior to completion of construction of the units and of improvements to the common elements, or prior to completion of remodeling of previously occupied buildings, the developer shall make available to each prospective purchaser or lessee, for his inspection at a place convenient to the site, a copy of the complete plans and specifications for the construction or remodeling of the unit offered to him and of the improvements to the common elements appurtenant to the unit.

(b) Sales brochures, if any, shall be provided to each purchaser, and the following caveat in conspicuous type shall be placed on the inside front cover or on the first page containing text material of the sales brochure, or otherwise conspicuously displayed: ORAL REPRESENTATIONS CANNOT BE RELIED UPON AS CORRECTLY STATING REPRESENTATIONS OF THE DEVELOPER. FOR CORRECT REPRESENTATIONS, MAKE REFERENCE TO THIS BROCHURE AND TO THE DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY SECTION 718.503, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO BE FURNISHED BY A DEVELOPER TO A BUYER OR LESSEE. If time-share estates have or may be created with respect to any unit in the condominium, such sales brochure shall contain the following statement in conspicuous type: UNITS IN THIS CONDOMINIUM ARE SUBJECT TO TIME-SHARE ESTATES.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 8, ch. 78-328; s. 16, ch. 79-314.

718.504 Prospectus or offering circular.—Every developer of a residential condominium which contains more than twenty residential units, or which is part of a group of residential condominiums which will be served by property to be used in common by unit owners of more than twenty residential units, shall prepare a prospectus or offering circular and file it with the Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums prior to entering into an enforceable contract of purchase and sale of any unit or lease of a unit for more than 5 years, and furnish a copy of the prospectus or offering circular to each buyer. The prospectus or offering circular may include more than one condominium, although not all such units are being offered for sale as of the date of the prospectus or offering circular. The prospectus or offering circular must contain the following information:

(1) The front cover or the first page must contain only:

(a) The name of the condominium.

(b) The following statements in conspicuous type:

1. THIS PROSPECTUS (OFFERING CIRCULAR)

LAR) CONTAINS IMPORTANT MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED IN ACQUIRING A CONDOMINIUM UNIT.

2. THE STATEMENTS CONTAINED HEREIN ARE ONLY SUMMARY IN NATURE. A PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER SHOULD REFER TO ALL REFERENCES, ALL EXHIBITS HERETO, THE CONTRACT DOCUMENTS, AND SALES MATERIALS.

3. ORAL REPRESENTATIONS CANNOT BE RELIED UPON AS CORRECTLY STATING THE REPRESENTATIONS OF THE DEVELOPER. REFER TO THIS PROSPECTUS (OFFERING CIRCULAR) AND ITS EXHIBITS FOR CORRECT REPRESENTATIONS.

(2) Summary: The next page must contain all statements required to be in conspicuous type in the prospectus or offering circular.

(3) A separate index of the contents and exhibits of the prospectus.

(4) Beginning on the first page of the text (not including the summary and index), a description of the condominium, including, but not limited to, the following information:

(a) Its name and location.

(b) A description of the condominium property, including, without limitation:

1. The number of buildings, the number of units in each building, the number of bathrooms and bedrooms in each unit, and the total number of units.

2. The page in the condominium documents where a copy of the plot plan and survey of the condominium is located.

3. The estimated latest date of completion of constructing, finishing, and equipping. In lieu of a date, a statement that the estimated date of completion of the condominium is in the purchase agreement and a reference to the article or paragraph containing that information.

(c) The maximum number of units that will use facilities in common with the condominium. If the maximum number of units will vary, a description of the basis for variation and the minimum amount of dollars per unit to be spent for additional recreational facilities, or enlargement of such facilities. If the addition or enlargement of facilities will result in a material increase of a unit owner's maintenance expense or rental expense, if any, the maximum increase and limitations thereon shall be stated.

(5)(a) A statement in conspicuous type describing whether the condominium is created and being sold as fee simple interests or as leasehold interests. If the condominium is created or being sold on a leasehold, the location of the lease in the disclosure materials shall be stated.

(b) If time-share estates are or may be created with respect to any unit in the condominium, a statement in conspicuous type stating that time-share estates are created and being sold in units in the condominium.

(6) A description of the recreational and other commonly used facilities that will be used only by unit owners of the condominium, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Each room and its intended purposes, location, approximate floor area, and capacity in numbers of people.

(b) Each swimming pool, as to its general location, approximate size and depths, approximate deck size and capacity, and whether heated.

(c) Additional facilities, as to the number of each facility, its approximate location, approximate size, and approximate capacity.

(d) A general description of the items of personal property and the approximate number of each item of personal property that the developer is committing to furnish for each room or other facility or, in the alternative, a representation as to the minimum amount of expenditure that will be made to purchase the personal property for the facility.

(e) The estimated date when each room or other facility will be available for use by the unit owners.

(f)1. An identification of each room or other facility to be used by unit owners that will not be owned by the unit owners or the association;

2. A reference to the location in the disclosure materials of the lease or other agreements providing for the use of those facilities; and

3. A description of the terms of the lease or other agreements, including the length of the term; the rent payable, directly or indirectly, by each unit owner, and the total rent payable to the lessor, stated in monthly and annual amounts for the entire term of the lease; and a description of any option to purchase the property leased under any such lease, including the time the option may be exercised, the purchase price or how it is to be determined, the manner of payment, and whether the option may be exercised for a unit owner's share or only as to the entire leased property.

(g) A statement as to whether the developer may provide additional facilities not described above; their general locations and types; improvements or changes that may be made; the approximate dollar amount to be expended; and the maximum additional common expense or cost to the individual unit owners that may be charged during the first annual period of operation of the modified or added facilities.

Descriptions as to locations, areas, capacities, numbers, volumes, or sizes may be stated as approximations or minimums.

(7) A description of the recreational and other facilities that will be used in common with other condominiums, which require the payment of the maintenance and expenses of such facilities, either directly or indirectly, by the unit owners. The description shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) Each building and facility committed to be built.

(b) Facilities not committed to be built except under certain conditions, and a statement of those conditions or contingencies.

(c) As to each facility committed to be built, or which will be committed to be built upon the happening of one of the conditions in paragraph (b), a statement of whether it will be owned by the unit owners having the use thereof or by an association or other entity which will be controlled by them, or others, and the location in the exhibits of the lease or other document providing for use of those facilities.

(d) The year in which each facility will be available for use by the unit owners or, in the alternative, the maximum number of unit owners in the project at the time each of all of the facilities is committed to be completed.

(e) A general description of the items of personal property, and the approximate number of each item of personal property, that the developer is committing to furnish for each room or other facility or, in the alternative, a representation as to the minimum amount of expenditure that will be made to purchase the personal property for the facility.

(f) If there are leases, a description thereof, including the length of the term, the rent payable, and a description of any option to purchase.

Descriptions shall include location, areas, capacities, numbers, volumes, or sizes, and may be stated as approximations or minimums.

(8) Recreation lease or associated club membership:

(a) If any recreational facilities or other facilities offered by the developer and available to, or to be used by, unit owners are to be leased or have club membership associated, the following statement in conspicuous type shall be included: THERE IS A RECREATIONAL FACILITIES LEASE ASSOCIATED WITH THIS CONDOMINIUM; or, THERE IS A CLUB MEMBERSHIP ASSOCIATED WITH THIS CONDOMINIUM. There shall be a reference to the location in the disclosure materials where the recreation lease or club membership is described in detail.

(b) If it is mandatory that unit owners pay a fee, rent, dues, or other charges under a recreational facilities lease or club membership for the use of facilities, there shall be in conspicuous type the applicable statement:

1. MEMBERSHIP IN THE RECREATIONAL FACILITIES CLUB IS MANDATORY FOR UNIT OWNERS; or

2. UNIT OWNERS ARE REQUIRED, AS A CONDITION OF OWNERSHIP, TO BE LESSEES UNDER THE RECREATIONAL FACILITIES LEASE; or

3. UNIT OWNERS ARE REQUIRED TO PAY THEIR SHARE OF THE COSTS AND EXPENSES OF MAINTENANCE, MANAGEMENT, UPKEEP, REPLACEMENT, RENT, AND FEES UNDER THE RECREATIONAL FACILITIES LEASE (OR THE OTHER INSTRUMENTS PROVIDING THE FACILITIES); or

4. A similar statement of the nature of the organization or the manner in which the use rights are created, and that unit owners are required to pay.

Immediately following the applicable statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the development is described in detail shall be stated.

(c) If the developer, or any other person other than the unit owners and other persons having use rights in the facilities, shall reserve, or be entitled to receive, any rent, fee, or other payment for the use of the facilities, then there shall be the following statement in conspicuous type: THE UNIT OWN-

ERS OR THE ASSOCIATION(S) MUST PAY RENT OR LAND-USE FEES FOR RECREATIONAL OR OTHER COMMONLY USED FACILITIES. Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the rent or land-use fees are described in detail shall be stated.

(d) If, in any recreation format, whether leasehold, club, or other, any person other than the association shall have the right to a lien on the units to secure the payment of assessments, rent, or other exactions, there shall appear a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form:

1. THERE IS A LIEN OR LIEN RIGHT AGAINST EACH UNIT TO SECURE THE PAYMENT OF RENT AND OTHER EXACTIONS UNDER THE RECREATION LEASE. THE UNIT OWNER'S FAILURE TO MAKE THESE PAYMENTS MAY RESULT IN FORECLOSURE OF THE LIEN; or

2. THERE IS A LIEN OR LIEN RIGHT AGAINST EACH UNIT TO SECURE THE PAYMENT OF ASSESSMENTS OR OTHER EXACTIONS COMING DUE FOR THE USE, MAINTENANCE, UPKEEP, OR REPAIR OF THE RECREATIONAL OR COMMONLY USED FACILITIES. THE UNIT OWNER'S FAILURE TO MAKE THESE PAYMENTS MAY RESULT IN FORECLOSURE OF THE LIEN.

Immediately following the applicable statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the lien or lien right is described in detail shall be stated.

(9) If the developer or any other person shall have the right to increase or add to the recreational facilities at any time after the establishment of the condominium whose unit owners have use rights therein, without the consent of the unit owners or associations being required, there shall appear a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form: RECREATIONAL FACILITIES MAY BE EXPANDED OR ADDED WITHOUT CONSENT OF UNIT OWNERS OR THE ASSOCIATION(S). Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where such reserved rights are described shall be stated.

(10) A statement of whether the developer's plan includes a program of leasing units rather than selling them, or leasing units and selling them subject to such leases. If so, there shall be a description of the plan, including the number and identification of the units and the provisions and term of the proposed leases, and a statement in boldface type that: THE UNITS MAY BE TRANSFERRED SUBJECT TO A LEASE.

(11) The arrangements for management of the association and maintenance and operation of the condominium property and of other property that will serve the unit owners of the condominium property, and a description of the management contract and all other contracts for these purposes having a term in excess of 1 year, including the following:

- (a) The names of contracting parties.
- (b) The term of the contract.
- (c) The nature of the services included.
- (d) The compensation, stated on a monthly and annual basis, and provisions for increases in the compensation.

(e) A reference to the volumes and pages of the condominium documents and of the exhibits containing copies of such contracts.

Copies of all described contracts shall be attached as exhibits. If there is a contract for the management of the condominium property, then a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form shall appear, identifying the proposed or existing contract manager: THERE IS (IS TO BE) A CONTRACT FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY WITH (NAME OF THE CONTRACT MANAGER). Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials of the contract for management of the condominium property shall be stated.

(12) If the developer or any other person or persons other than the unit owners has the right to retain control of the board of administration of the association for a period of time which can exceed 1 year after the closing of the sale of a majority of the units in that condominium to persons other than successors or alternate developers, then a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form shall be included: THE DEVELOPER (OR OTHER PERSON) HAS THE RIGHT TO RETAIN CONTROL OF THE ASSOCIATION AFTER A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS HAVE BEEN SOLD. Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where this right to control is described in detail shall be stated.

(13) If there are any restrictions upon the sale, transfer, conveyance, or leasing of a unit, then a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form shall be included: THE SALE, LEASE, OR TRANSFER OF UNITS IS RESTRICTED OR CONTROLLED. Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the restriction, limitation, or control on the sale, lease, or transfer of units is described in detail shall be stated.

(14) If the condominium is part of a phase project, there shall be a statement to that effect and a complete description of the phasing.

(15) If the condominium is created by conversion of existing improvements, the following information shall be stated concerning the improvements:

- (a) The date and type of construction.
- (b) The prior use.
- (c) The condition of the roof and the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, and structural elements, which statement shall be substantiated by attaching a copy of a certificate of a registered architect or engineer.
- (d) Whether there is termite damage, and that termite infestation, if any, has been properly treated. The statement shall be substantiated by including, as an exhibit, a copy of an inspection report by a certified pest control operator.

(e) A caveat that there are no warranties unless they are expressly stated in writing by the developer.

(16) A summary of the restrictions, if any, to be imposed on units concerning the use of any of the condominium property, including statements as to whether there are restrictions upon children and pets, and reference to the volumes and pages of the condominium documents where such restrictions are found, or if such restrictions are contained elsewhere, then a copy of the documents containing the restrictions shall be attached as an exhibit.

(17) If there is any land that is offered by the developer for use by the unit owners and that is neither owned by them nor leased to them, the association, or any entity controlled by unit owners and other persons having the use rights to such land, a statement shall be made as to how such land will serve the condominium. If any part of such land will serve the condominium, the statement shall describe the land and the nature and term of service, and the declaration or other instrument creating such servitude shall be included as an exhibit.

(18) The manner in which utility and other services, including, but not limited to, sewage and waste disposal, water supply, and storm drainage will be provided, and the person or entity furnishing them.

(19) An explanation of the manner in which the apportionment of common expenses and ownership of the common elements has been determined.

(20) An estimated operating budget for the condominium and the association, and a schedule of the unit owner's expenses shall be attached as an exhibit and shall contain the following information:

(a) The estimated monthly and annual expenses of the condominium and the association that are collected from unit owners by assessments.

(b) The estimated monthly and annual expenses of each unit owner for a unit, other than assessments payable to the association, payable by the unit owner to persons or entities other than the association, and the total estimated monthly and annual expense. There may be excluded from this estimate expenses that are personal to unit owners, which are not uniformly incurred by all unit owners or which are not provided for or contemplated by the condominium documents, including, but not limited to, the costs of private telephone; maintenance of the interior of condominium units, which is not the obligation of the association; maid or janitorial services privately contracted for by the unit owners; utility bills billed directly to each unit owner for utility services to his unit; insurance premiums other than those incurred for policies obtained by the condominium; and similar personal expenses of the unit owner. A unit owner's estimated payments for assessments shall also be stated in the estimated amounts for the times when they will be due.

(c) The estimated items of expenses of the condominium and the association, except as excluded under paragraph (b), including, but not limited to, the following items, which shall be stated either as an association expense collectible by assessments or as unit owners' expenses payable to persons other than the association:

1. Expenses for the association and condominium:
  - a. Administration of the association.
  - b. Management fees.
  - c. Maintenance.
  - d. Rent for recreational and other commonly used facilities.

- e. Taxes upon association property.
- f. Taxes upon leased areas.
- g. Insurance.
- h. Security provisions.
- i. Other expenses.
- j. Operating capital.
- k. Reserves.
- l. Fees payable to the division.
- 2. Expenses for a unit owner:
  - a. Rent for the unit, if subject to a lease.
  - b. Rent payable by the unit owner directly to the lessor or agent under any recreational lease or lease for the use of commonly used facilities, which use and payment is a mandatory condition of ownership and is not included in the common expense or assessments for common maintenance paid by the unit owners to the association.
- (d) The estimated amounts shall be stated for a period of at least 12 months and may distinguish between the period prior to the time unit owners other than the developer elect a majority of the board of administration and the period after that date.
- (21) A schedule of estimated closing expenses to be paid by a buyer or lessee of a unit and a statement of whether title opinion or title insurance policy is available to the buyer and, if so, at whose expense.
- (22) The identity of the developer and the chief operating officer or principal directing the creation and sale of the condominium and a statement of its and his experience in this field.
- (23) Copies of the following, to the extent they are applicable, shall be included as exhibits:
  - (a) The declaration of condominium, or the proposed declaration if the declaration has not been recorded.
  - (b) The articles of incorporation creating the association.
  - (c) The bylaws of the association.
  - (d) The ground lease or other underlying lease of the condominium.
  - (e) The management agreement and all maintenance and other contracts for management of the association and operation of the condominium and facilities used by the unit owners having a service term in excess of 1 year.
  - (f) The estimated operating budget for the condominium and the required schedule of unit owners' expenses.
  - (g) A copy of the floor plan of the unit and the plot plan showing the location of the residential buildings and the recreation and other common areas.
  - (h) The lease of recreational and other facilities that will be used only by unit owners of the subject condominium.
  - (i) The lease of facilities used by owners and others.
  - (j) The form of unit lease, if the offer is of a leasehold.
  - (k) A declaration of servitude of properties serving the condominium but not owned by unit owners or leased to them or the association.
  - (l) The statement of condition of the existing building or buildings, if the offering is of units in an operation being converted to condominium ownership.

(m) The statement of inspection for termite damage and treatment of the existing improvements, if the condominium is a conversion.

(n) The form of agreement for sale or lease of units.

(o) A copy of the agreement for escrow of payments made to the developer prior to closing.

(p) A copy of the documents containing any restrictions on use of the property required by subsection (16).

(24) Any prospectus or offering circular complying, prior to the effective date of this act, with the provisions of former ss. 711.69 and 711.802 may continue to be used without amendment or may be amended to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 9, ch. 78-328; s. 17, ch. 79-314.

718.505 Good faith effort to comply.—If a developer, in good faith, has attempted to comply with the requirements of this part, and if, in fact, he has substantially complied with the disclosure requirements of this chapter, nonmaterial errors or omissions in the disclosure materials shall not be actionable.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.506 Publication of false and misleading information.—

(1) Any person who, in reasonable reliance upon any material statement or information that is false or misleading and published by or under authority from the developer in advertising and promotional materials, including, but not limited to, a prospectus, the items required as exhibits to a prospectus, brochures, and newspaper advertising, pays anything of value toward the purchase of a condominium parcel located in this state shall have a cause of action to rescind the contract or collect damages from the developer for his loss prior to the closing of the transaction. After the closing of the transaction, the purchaser shall have a cause of action against the developer for damages under this section from the time of closing until 1 year after the date upon which the last of the events described in paragraphs (a) through (d) shall occur:

(a) The closing of the transaction;

(b) The first issuance by the applicable governmental authority of a certificate of occupancy or other evidence of sufficient completion of construction of the building containing the unit to allow lawful occupancy of the unit. In counties or municipalities in which certificates of occupancy or other evidences of completion sufficient to allow lawful occupancy are not customarily issued, for the purpose of this section, evidence of lawful occupancy shall be deemed to be given or issued upon the date that such lawful occupancy of the unit may first be allowed under prevailing applicable laws, ordinances, or statutes;

(c) The completion by the developer of the common elements and such recreational facilities, whether or not the same are common elements, which the developer is obligated to complete or provide under the terms of the written contract or written agreement for purchase or lease of the unit; or

(d) In the event there shall not be a written contract or agreement for sale or lease of the unit, then the completion by the developer of the common elements and such recreational facilities, whether or not the same are common elements, which the developer would be obligated to complete under any rule of law applicable to the developer's obligation.

Under no circumstances shall a cause of action created or recognized under this section survive for a period of more than 5 years after the closing of the transaction.

(2) In any action for relief under this section or under s. 718.503, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.507 Zoning and building.—All laws, ordinances, and regulations concerning buildings or zoning shall be construed and applied with reference to the nature and use of such property, without regard to the form of ownership. No law, ordinance, or regulation shall establish any requirement concerning the use, location, placement, or construction of buildings or other improvements which are, or may thereafter be, subjected to the condominium form of ownership, unless such requirement shall be equally applicable to all buildings and improvements of the same kind not then, or thereafter to be, subjected to the condominium form of ownership.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

718.508 Regulation by Division of Hotels and Restaurants.—In addition to the authority, regulation, or control exercised by the Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums pursuant to this act with respect to condominiums, buildings included in a condominium property shall be subject to the authority, regulation, or control of the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Department of Business Regulation, to the extent provided for in chapter 399.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 719.101 Short title.
- 719.102 Purpose.
- 719.103 Definitions.
- 719.104 Cooperatives; access to units; records; financial reports.
- 719.105 Cooperative parcels; appurtenances; possession and enjoyment.
- 719.106 Bylaws; cooperative ownership.
- 719.107 Common expenses; assessment.
- 719.108 Rents and assessments; liability; lien and priority; interest; collection; cooperative ownership.
- 719.109 Right of owners to peaceably assemble.
- 719.110 Limitation on actions by association.
- 719.111 Attorney's fees.
- 719.112 Unconscionability of certain leases; rebuttable presumption.

719.101 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Cooperative Act."

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222.

719.102 Purpose.—The purpose of this chapter is to give statutory recognition to the cooperative form of ownership of real property. It shall not be construed as repealing or amending any law now in effect, except those in conflict herewith, and any such conflicting laws shall be affected only insofar as they apply to cooperatives.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222.

719.103 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Assessment" means a share of the funds required for the payment of common expenses, which from time to time is assessed against the unit owner.

(2) "Association" means the corporation for profit or not for profit that owns the record interest in the cooperative property or a leasehold of the property of a cooperative and that is responsible for the operation of the cooperative.

(3) "Board of administration" means the board of directors or other body responsible for administration of the association.

(4) "Bylaws" means the bylaws for the government of the cooperative, as they exist from time to time.

(5) "Common areas" means the portions of the cooperative property not included in the units.

(6) "Common expenses" means the expenses for which the unit owners are liable to the association.

(7) "Common surplus" means the excess of all receipts of the association—including, but not limited to, assessments, rents, profits, and revenues on account of the common areas—over the amount of common expenses.

(8) "Cooperative" means that form of ownership of improved real property under which there are units subject to ownership by one or more owners, and the ownership is evidenced by an ownership interest in the association and a lease or other muniment of title or possession granted by the association as the owner of all the cooperative property.

(9) "Cooperative documents" means:

(a) The documents that create a cooperative, including, but not limited to, articles of incorporation of the association, bylaws, and the ground lease or other underlying lease, if any.

(b) The document evidencing a unit owner's membership or share in the association.

(c) The document recognizing a unit owner's title or right of possession to his unit.

(10) "Cooperative parcel" means a unit, together with the undivided share in the assets of the association which is appurtenant to the unit.

(11) "Cooperative property" means the lands, leaseholds, and personal property subject to cooperative ownership and all other property owned by the association.

(12) "Developer" means a person who creates a cooperative or who offers cooperative parcels for sale or lease in the ordinary course of business, but does not include the owner or lessee of a unit who has acquired or leased his unit for his own occupancy.

(13) "Operation" or "operation of the cooperative" includes the administration and management of the cooperative property.

(14) "Unit" means a part of the cooperative property which is subject to exclusive use and possession. A unit may be improvements, land, or land and improvements together, as specified in the cooperative documentation.

(15) "Unit owner" or "owner of a unit" means the person holding a lease or other muniment of title or possession of a unit that is granted by the association as the owner of the cooperative property.

(16) "Residential cooperative" means a cooperative consisting of cooperative units, any of which are intended for use as a private residence, domicile, or homestead. A cooperative is not a residential cooperative if the use of the units is intended as primarily commercial or industrial and not more than three units are intended to be used for private residence, domicile, or homestead, or if the units are intended to be used as housing for maintenance, managerial, janitorial, or other operational staff of the cooperative. If a cooperative is a residential cooperative under this definition, but has units intended to be commercial or industrial, then the cooperative is a residential cooperative with respect to those units intended for use as a private residence, domicile, or homestead, but not a residential cooperative with respect to those units intended for use commercially or industrially.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

719.104 Cooperatives; access to units; records; financial reports.—

(1) The association has the irrevocable right of access to each unit from time to time during reasonable hours when necessary for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of any structural components of the building or of any mechanical, electrical, or plumbing elements. The access must be necessary to prevent damage to the building or to another unit.

(2) The association shall maintain accounting records according to generally accepted accounting practices. The records shall be open to inspection by unit owners or their authorized representatives at reasonable times, and written summaries shall be supplied at least annually to unit owners or their authorized representatives. The records shall include:

(a) A record of all receipts and expenditures.

(b) An account for each unit, designating the name and address of the unit owner, the amount of each assessment, the dates and amounts in which the assessments are due, the amounts paid upon the account, and the balance due.

(3) A copy of each insurance policy obtained by the association shall be made available for inspection at reasonable times by unit owners.

(4) Failure of the association to permit inspection of its records by unit owners or their authorized representatives entitles any unit owners prevailing in an action for enforcement of the right to inspect records to recover reasonable attorney's fees from the association.

(5) Within 60 days following the end of the fiscal or calendar year or annually on such date as is otherwise provided in the bylaws of the association, the board of administration of the association shall mail or furnish by personal delivery to each unit owner a complete financial report of actual receipts and expenditures for the previous 12 months. The report shall show the amounts of receipts by accounts and receipt classifications and shall show the amounts of expenses by accounts and expense classifications including, if applicable, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) Costs for security;
- (b) Professional and management fees and expenses;
- (c) Taxes;
- (d) Costs for recreation facilities;
- (e) Expenses for refuse collection and utility services;
- (f) Expenses for lawn care;
- (g) Costs for building maintenance and repair;
- (h) Insurance costs;
- (i) Administrative and salary expenses;
- (j) General reserves, maintenance reserves, and depreciation reserves.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 79-284.

719.105 Cooperative parcels; appurtenances; possession and enjoyment.—

(1) Each unit has, as appurtenances thereto:

(a) Evidence of membership, ownership of shares, or other interest in the association.

(b) An undivided share in the assets of the association.

(c) The exclusive right to use that portion of the common areas as may be provided by the cooperative documents.

(d) An undivided share in the common surplus attributable to the unit.

(e) Any other appurtenances provided for in the cooperative documents.

(2) Each unit owner is entitled to the exclusive possession of his unit. He is entitled to use the common areas in accordance with the purposes for which they are intended, but no use may hinder or encroach upon the rights of other unit owners.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222.

719.106 Bylaws; cooperative ownership.—

(1) The bylaws or other cooperative documents include the following provisions:

(a) The form of administration of the association shall be described, providing for the titles of the officers and for a board of administration and specifying the powers, duties, manner of selection and removal, and compensation, if any, of officers and board members. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the board of administration shall be composed of five members, except in the case of cooperatives having five or fewer units, in which case one owner of each unit shall be a member of the board of administration. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the board of administration shall have a president, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall perform the duties of those offices customarily performed by officers of corporations, and these officers shall serve without compensation and at the pleasure of the board of administration. Unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, the board of administration may appoint and designate other officers and grant them those duties it deems appropriate.

(b) The owners of a majority of the units constitute a quorum. Decisions shall be made by owners of a majority of the units represented at a meeting at which a quorum is present. In addition, provision shall be made in the bylaws for definition and use of proxy. However, no one person may be designated to hold more than five proxies for any purpose unless the cooperative has been registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Any proxy given shall be effective only for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawfully adjourned meetings thereof. In no event shall any proxy be valid for a period longer than 90 days after the date of the first meeting for which it was given. Every proxy shall be revocable at any time at the pleasure of the unit owner executing it.

(c) Meetings of the board of administration shall be open to all unit owners, and notice of meetings shall be posted in a conspicuous place upon the cooperative property at least 48 hours in advance, except in an emergency. Notice of any meeting in which assessments against unit owners are to be considered for any reason shall specifically contain a statement that assessments will be considered and the nature of any such assessments.

(d) Unit owners shall meet at least once each calendar year, and the meeting shall be the annual meeting. All members of the board of administration shall be elected at the annual meeting unless the bylaws provide for staggered election terms or for their election at another meeting. The bylaws shall not restrict any unit owner desiring to be a candidate for board membership from being nominated from the floor. The bylaws shall provide the method for calling the unit owners to meetings, including annual meetings. The method shall provide at least 14 days' written notice to each unit owner in advance of the meeting and require the posting in a conspicuous place on the cooperative property of a notice of the meeting at least 14 days prior to the meeting. Unless a unit owner waives in writing the right to receive notice of the annual meeting by certified mail, the notice of the annual meeting shall be sent by certified mail to each unit owner, and the mailing constitutes notice. These meeting requirements do not prevent unit owners from waiving notice of meetings or from acting by written agreement without meetings, if allowed by the bylaws or the other cooperative documents or by this chapter.

(e) Minutes of all meetings of unit owners and of the board of administration shall be kept in a businesslike manner and shall be available for inspection by unit owners, or their authorized representative, and board members at reasonable times. The association shall retain these minutes for a period of not less than 7 years.

(f)1. Copies of a proposed annual budget of common expenses shall be mailed to the unit owners not less than 30 days prior to the meeting at which the budget will be considered, together with the notice of that meeting.

2. The board of administration shall mail a meeting notice and copies of the proposed annual budget of common expenses to the unit owners not less than 30 days prior to the meeting at which the budget will be considered. If the bylaws or other cooperative documents provide that the budget may be adopted by the board of administration, then the unit owners shall be given written notice of the time and place at which the meeting of the board of administration to consider the budget will be held. The meeting shall be open to the unit owners.

3. If a budget is adopted by the board of administration which requires assessment against the unit owners in any fiscal or calendar year exceeding 115 percent of such assessments for the preceding year, a special meeting of the unit owners shall be held upon written application of 10 percent of the unit owners. Not less than 10 days' written notice shall be given to each unit owner, but the meeting shall be held within 30 days of delivery of such application to the board of administration or any member thereof. At the special meeting, unit owners may consider and enact a revision of the budget or recall any or all members of the board of administration and elect their successors, unless at that time the developer is in control of the board of administration. In either case, unless the bylaws shall require a larger vote, the revision of the budget or the recall of any or all members of the board of administration shall require a vote of not less than a majority of the whole number of votes of all unit owners.

4. The board of administration may, in any event, propose a budget to the unit owners at a meeting of members or by writing, and if the budget or proposed budget is approved by the unit owners at the meeting or by a majority of their whole number in writing, that budget shall not thereafter be examined by the unit owners nor shall the board of administration be recalled under the terms of this section.

5. In determining whether assessments exceed 115 percent of similar assessments for prior years, there shall be excluded from the computation any provision for reasonable reserves made by the board of administration for repair or replacement of cooperative property or for anticipated expenses by the association which are not anticipated to be incurred on a regular or annual basis, and the computation shall not include assessment for betterments to the cooperative property, if the bylaws so provide or allow the establishment of reserves or assessments for betterments to be imposed by the board of administration. However, as long as the developer is in control of the board of administration, the board shall not impose an assessment for any year greater than 115 percent of the prior fiscal or calendar year's assessment without approval of a majority of all unit owners.

(g) The manner of collecting from the unit owners their shares of the common expenses shall be stated. Assessments shall be made against unit owners not less frequently than quarterly, in amounts no less than are required to provide funds in advance for payment of all of the anticipated current operating expense and for all of the unpaid operating expense previously incurred.

(h) If the transfer, lease, or sublease of a unit is subject to approval of any body, no fee may be charged in connection with a transfer or approval in excess of the expenditures reasonably required for the transfer or $50, whichever is less. No charge may be made in connection with an extension or renewal of a lease or sublease.

if the amendment is approved by owners of not less than two-thirds of the units. No bylaw shall be revised or amended by reference to its title or number only. Proposals to amend existing bylaws shall contain the full text of the bylaws to be amended; new words shall be inserted in the text underlined, and words to be deleted shall be lined through with hyphens. However, if the proposed change is so extensive that this procedure would hinder, rather than assist, the understanding of the proposed amendment, it is not necessary to use underlining and hyphens as indicators of words added or deleted, but, instead, a notation must be inserted immediately preceding the proposed amendment in substantially the following language: "Substantial rewording of bylaw. See bylaw..... for present text." Nonmaterial errors or omissions in the bylaw process shall not invalidate an otherwise properly promulgated amendment.

(j) The officers and directors of the association have a fiduciary relationship to the unit owners.

(k) Subject to the provisions of s. 719.301, any member of the board of administration may be recalled and removed from office with or without cause by the vote or agreement in writing by a majority of all unit owners. A special meeting of the unit owners to recall a member or members of the board of administration may be called by 10 percent of the unit owners giving notice of the meeting as required for a meeting of unit owners, and the notice shall state the purpose of the meeting.

(l) The proposed annual budget of common expenses shall be detailed and shall show the amounts budgeted by accounts and expense classifications, including, if applicable, but not limited to, those expenses listed in s. 719.504(20). In addition to annual operating expenses, the budget shall include reserve accounts for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance. These accounts shall include, but not be limited to, roof replacement, building painting, and pavement resurfacing. The amount to be reserved shall be computed by means of a formula which is based upon estimated life and estimated replacement cost of each reserve item. This subsection shall not apply to budgets in which the members of an association have by a two-thirds vote at a duly called meeting of the association determined for a fiscal year to provide no reserves or reserves less adequate than required by this subsection.

(m) The association has the power to purchase any land or recreation lease upon the approval of two-thirds of the unit owners, unless a different number or percentage is provided in the bylaws or other cooperative documents.

(2) The bylaws may provide for the following:

(a) A method of adopting and of amending administrative rules and regulations governing the details of the operation and use of the common areas.

(b) Restrictions on, and requirements respecting, the use and maintenance of the units and the use of the common areas, not inconsistent with the cooperative documents, designed to prevent unreasonable interference with the use of the units and common areas.

(c) Other provisions not inconsistent with this chapter or with the cooperative documents as may be desired.

(3) Unless otherwise provided in the cooperative documents as originally recorded, no amendment thereto may change the configuration or size of any cooperative unit in any material fashion, materially alter or modify the appurtenances of the unit, or change the proportion or percentage by which the owner of the parcel shares the common expenses and owns the common surplus, unless the record owner of the unit and all record owners of liens on it join in the execution of the amendment and unless all other units approve the amendment.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 79-284.

719.107 Common expenses; assessment.—

(1) Common expenses shall include:

(a) The expenses of the operation, maintenance, repair, or replacement of the cooperative property.

(b) Costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the association.

(c) Any other expense designated as common expense by this chapter or the cooperative documents.

(2) Funds for the payment of common expenses shall be collected by assessments against unit owners in the proportions or percentages of sharing common expenses provided in the cooperative documents.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

719.108 Rents and assessments; liability; lien and priority; interest; collection; cooperative ownership.—

(1) A unit owner, regardless of how title is acquired, including, without limitation, a purchaser at a judicial sale, shall be liable for all rents and assessments coming due while he is the owner of a unit. In a voluntary conveyance, the grantee shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid rents and assessments against the grantor for his share of the common expenses up to the time of the voluntary conveyance, without prejudice to the rights of the grantee to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefor.

(2) The liability for rents and assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any common areas or by abandonment of the unit for which the rents and assessments are made.

(3) Unpaid rents and assessments and installments thereon shall bear interest from the date due until paid. The rate shall be as provided in the cooperative documents, not to exceed the maximum lawful rate, and, if no rate is provided, then at the legal rate.

(4) The association shall have a lien on each cooperative parcel for any unpaid rents and assessments, plus interest, against the unit owner of the cooperative parcel. If authorized by the cooperative documents, said lien shall also secure reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the association incident to the collection of the rents and assessments or enforcement of such lien.

(5) Liens for rents and assessments may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the association, in like manner as a foreclosure of a mortgage on real property. In any foreclosure, the unit owner shall pay a reasonable rental for the cooperative parcel, if so provided in the cooperative documents, and the plaintiff in the foreclosure is entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent. The association has the power, unless prohibited by the cooperative documents, to bid on the cooperative parcel at the foreclosure sale and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage, or convey it. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid rents and assessments may be maintained without waiving the lien securing them.

(6) Any unit owner has the right to require from the association a certificate showing the amount of unpaid rents and assessments against him with respect to his cooperative parcel. The association is bound by the certificate to any person who relies upon the certificate other than the owner.

(7) The remedies provided in this section do not exclude other remedies provided by the cooperative documents and permitted by law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

719.109 Right of owners to peaceably assemble.—

(1) All common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities serving any cooperative shall be reserved exclusively for the use and benefit of the unit owners and their invited guests. Each association shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations pertaining to the use of such common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities. The use of such common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities shall be subject only to those rules and regulations as are adopted by the association; however, such rules and regulations shall not unreasonably restrict any unit owner's right to peaceably assemble or right to invite public officers or candidates for public office to appear and speak on common elements, common areas, and recreational facilities.

(2) Any owner prevented from exercising rights guaranteed by subsection (1) may bring an action in the appropriate court of the county in which the alleged infringement occurred, and, upon favorable adjudication, the court shall enjoin the enforcement of any provision contained in any cooperative document or rule which operates to deprive the owner of such rights.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-222; s. 265, ch. 79-400.

719.110 Limitation on actions by association.—The statute of limitations for any actions in law or equity which a condominium association or a cooperative association may have shall not begin to run until the unit owners have elected a majority of the members of the board of administration.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-222; s. 266, ch. 79-400.

719.111 Attorney's fees.—

(1) If a contract or lease between a cooperative unit owner or association and a developer contains a provision allowing attorney's fees to the developer, should any litigation arise under the provisions of the contract or lease, the court shall also allow reasonable attorney's fees to the unit owner or association when the unit owner or association prevails in any action by or against the unit owner or association with respect to the contract or lease.

(2) This section shall apply to all contracts in effect on June 19, 1978, and to all contracts entered into after June 19, 1978.

History.—ss. 10, 11, ch. 78-340.

719.112 Unconscionability of certain leases; rebuttable presumption.—

(1) The Legislature expressly finds that many leases involving use of recreational or other common facilities by residents of cooperatives were entered into by parties wholly representative of the interests of a cooperative developer at a time when the cooperative unit owners not only did not control the administration of their cooperative but also had little or no voice in such administration. Such leases often contain numerous obligations on the part of either or both a cooperative association and cooperative unit owners with relatively few obligations on the part of the lessor. Such leases may or may not be unconscionable in any given case. Nevertheless, the Legislature finds that a combination of certain onerous obligations and circumstances warrants the establishment of a rebuttable presumption of unconscionability of certain leases, as specified in subsection (2). The presumption may be rebutted by a lessor upon the showing of additional facts and circumstances to justify and validate what otherwise appears to be an unconscionable lease under this section. Failure of a lease to contain all the enumerated elements shall neither preclude a determination of unconscionability of the lease nor raise a presumption as to its unconscionability. It is the intent of the Legislature that this section is remedial and does not create any new cause of action to invalidate any cooperative lease, but shall operate as a statutory prescription on procedural matters in actions brought on one or more causes of action existing at the time of the execution of such lease.

(2) A lease pertaining to use by cooperative unit owners of recreational or other common facilities, irrespective of the date on which such lease was entered into, is presumptively unconscionable if all of the following elements exist:

(a) The lease was executed by persons none of whom at the time of the execution of the lease were elected by cooperative unit owners, other than the developer, to represent their interests.

(b) The lease requires either the cooperative association or the cooperative unit owners to pay real estate taxes on the real property which is the subject of the lease.

(c) The lease requires either the cooperative association or the cooperative unit owners to insure buildings or other facilities on the real property which is the subject of the lease against fire or any other hazard.

(d) The lease requires either the cooperative association or the cooperative unit owners to perform some or all maintenance obligations pertaining to the real property which is the subject of the lease or facilities located upon such real property.

(e) The lease requires either the cooperative association or the cooperative unit owners to pay rent to the lessor for a period of 21 years or more.

(f) The lease provides that failure of the lessee to make payment of rent due under the lease either creates, establishes, or permits establishment of a lien upon individual cooperative units of the cooperative to secure claims for rent.

(g) The lease requires an annual rental which exceeds 25 percent of the appraised value of the leased property as improved. For purposes of this paragraph, "annual rental" means the amount due during the first 12 months of the lease for all units, regardless of whether such units were in fact occupied or sold during that period, and "appraised value" means the appraised value placed upon the leased property the first tax year after the sale of a unit in the cooperative.

(h) The lease provides for a periodic rental increase based upon reference to a price index.

(i) The lease or other cooperative documents require that every transferee of a cooperative unit must assume obligations under the lease.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-284.

PART II

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF DEVELOPERS

719.201 Taxes, bond for payment of liability during construction.

719.202 Sales or reservation deposits prior to closing.

719.203 Warranties.

719.201 Taxes, bond for payment of liability during construction.—

(1) Prior to the commencement of any construction activity with respect to a proposed cooperative apartment development, the developer thereof shall post a bond or place an amount of money in escrow, as provided in this section, conditioned for payment to the tax collector in the county in which the property or parcel lies, or his successor, upon default in payment of property taxes or special assessments assessed against the property or parcel prior to the time of closing with a unit owner. The developer may select whether to post a bond or place an amount of money in escrow, but if such selection is not made and bond posted or amount of money placed in escrow prior to the beginning of construction, the tax collector or his successor shall make the selection and require compliance with the provisions of this section. However, the developer shall be exempt from the provisions of this section upon furnishing to the clerk of the circuit court evidence of payment of all taxes and assessments due on the property or parcel.

(2) The bond required to be posted or the amount of money required to be placed in escrow under the provisions of this section shall be in the amount equal to 110 percent of the total ad valorem tax liability against the property or parcel in the year immediately preceding the year in which construction is proposed to be commenced. Such bond or account in escrow shall be posted or placed, as appropriate, with the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which the property or parcel lies.

(3) No interest shall be paid upon any bond posted or sum of money placed in escrow under the provisions of this section.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

719.202 Sales or reservation deposits prior to closing.—

(1) If a developer contracts to sell a cooperative and the construction, furnishing, and landscaping of the property submitted to cooperative ownership has not been substantially completed in accordance with the plans and specifications and representations made by the developer in the disclosures required by this chapter, the developer shall pay into an escrow account established with a bank or trust company having trust powers, an attorney who is a member of The Florida Bar, a real estate broker registered under chapter 475, or a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property in the State of Florida, all payments up to 10 percent of the sale price received by the developer from the buyer towards the sale price. The escrow agent shall give to the purchaser a receipt for the deposit, upon request. The escrowed funds may be deposited in separate accounts or in common escrow or trust accounts or commingled with other escrow or trust accounts handled by or received by the escrow agent. The escrow agent may invest the escrow funds in securities of the United States or an agency thereof or in savings or time deposits in institutions insured by an agency of the United States. Funds shall be released from the escrow as follows:

(a) If a buyer properly terminates the contract pursuant to its terms or pursuant to this chapter, the funds shall be paid to the buyer together with any interest earned.

(b) If the buyer defaults in the performance of his obligations under the contract of purchase and sale, the funds shall be paid to the developer together with any interest earned.

(c) If the contract does not provide for the payment of any interest earned on the escrowed funds, interest shall be paid to the developer at the closing of the transaction.

(d) If the funds of a buyer have not been previously disbursed in accordance with the provisions of this subsection, they may be disbursed to the developer by the escrow agent at the closing of the transaction, unless prior to the disbursement the escrow agent receives from the buyer written notice of a dispute between the buyer and developer.

(2) All payments in excess of the 10 percent of the sale price described in subsection (1) received prior to completion of construction by the developer from the buyer on a contract for purchase of a cooperative shall be held in a special escrow account by the developer or his agent and may not be used by the developer prior to closing the transaction, except as provided in subsection (3) or except for refund to the buyer. If the money remains in this special account for more than 3 months and earns interest, the interest shall be paid as provided in subsection (1).

(3) If the contract for sale of the cooperative so provides, the developer may withdraw escrow funds in excess of 10 percent of the purchase price from the special account required by subsection (2) when the construction of improvements has begun. He may use the funds in the actual construction and development of the cooperative property in which the unit to be sold is located. However, no part of these funds may be used for salaries, commissions, or expenses of salesmen or for advertising purposes. A contract which permits use of the advance payments for these purposes shall include the following legend conspicuously printed or stamped in boldface type on the first page of the contract and immediately above the place for signature of the buyer: ANY PAYMENT IN EXCESS OF 10 PERCENT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE MADE TO DEVELOPER PRIOR TO CLOSING PURSUANT TO THIS CONTRACT MAY BE USED FOR CONSTRUCTION PURPOSES BY THE DEVELOPER.

(4) "Completion of construction" means issuance of a certificate of occupancy for the entire building or improvement, or the equivalent authorization issued by the governmental body having jurisdiction, and in jurisdictions where no certificate of occupancy or equivalent authorization is issued, it means substantial completion of construction, finishing, and equipping of the building or improvements according to the plans and specifications.

(5) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section renders the contract voidable by the buyer, and, if voided, all sums deposited or advanced under the contract shall be refunded with interest at the highest rate then being paid on savings accounts, excluding certificates of deposit, by savings and loan associations in the area in which the cooperative property is located.

(6) If a developer enters into a reservation agreement, the developer shall pay into an escrow account established with a trust company, a bank having trust powers, an attorney who is a member of The Florida Bar, a real estate broker registered under chapter 475, or a title insurance company authorized to insure title to real property in this state all reservation deposit payments. The escrow agent shall give to the prospective purchaser a receipt for the deposit upon request. The funds in escrow may be deposited in separate accounts or in common escrow or trust accounts handled by or received by the escrow agent and may be placed in either interest-bearing or noninterest-bearing accounts, provided that the funds shall at all reasonable times be available for withdrawal in full by the escrow agent. Upon written request to the escrow agent by the prospective purchaser or developer, the fund shall be immediately and without qualification refunded in full to the prospective purchaser. Upon such refund, any interest shall be paid to the prospective purchaser, unless otherwise provided in the reservation agreement. Upon execution of a purchase agreement for a unit, any funds paid by the purchaser as a deposit to reserve the unit pursuant to a reservation agreement, and any interest thereon, shall cease to be subject to the provisions of this subsection and shall instead be subject to the provisions of subsections (1)-(5).

(7) Any developer who willfully fails to pay all required funds into the escrow accounts required by this section is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 4, ch. 79-284.

719.203 Warranties.—

(1) The developer shall be deemed to have granted to the purchaser of each unit an implied warranty of fitness and merchantability for the purposes or uses intended as follows:

(a) As to each unit, a warranty for 3 years commencing with the completion of the building containing the unit.

(b) As to the personal property that is transferred with, or appurtenant to, each unit, a warranty which is for the same period as that provided by the manufacturer of the personal property, commencing with the date of closing of the purchase or the date of possession of the unit, whichever is earlier.

(c) As to all other improvements for the use of unit owners, a 3-year warranty commencing with the date of completion of the improvements.

(d) As to all other personal property for the use of unit owners, a warranty which shall be the same as that provided by the manufacturer of the personal property.

(e) As to the roof and structural components of a building or other improvements and as to mechanical, electrical, and plumbing elements serving improvements or a building, except mechanical elements serving only one unit, a warranty for a period beginning with the completion of construction of each building or improvement and continuing for 3 years thereafter or 1 year after owners other than the developer obtain control of the association, whichever occurs first.

(f) As to all other property which is conveyed with a unit, a warranty to the initial purchaser of each unit for a period of 1 year from the date of closing of the purchase or the date of possession, whichever occurs first.

(2) The contractor and all subcontractors and suppliers grant to the developer and to the purchaser of each unit implied warranties of fitness as to the work performed or materials supplied by them as follows:

(a) For a period of 3 years from the date of completion of construction of a building or improvement, a warranty as to the roof and structural components of the building or improvement and mechanical and plumbing elements serving a building or an improvement, except mechanical elements serving only one unit.

(b) For a period of 1 year after completion of all construction, a warranty as to all other improvements and materials.

(3) "Completion of a building or improvement" means issuance of a certificate of occupancy for the entire building or improvement, or the equivalent authorization issued by the governmental body having jurisdiction, and in jurisdictions where no certificate of occupancy or equivalent authorization is issued, it means substantial completion of construction, finishing, and equipping of the building or improvement according to the plans and specifications.

(4) These warranties are conditioned upon routine maintenance being performed, unless the maintenance is the obligation of the developer or a developer-controlled association.

(5) The warranties provided by this section shall inure to the benefit of each owner and his successor owners and to the benefit of the developer.

(6) Nothing in this section affects a cooperative as to which rights are established by contracts for sale of 10 percent or more of the units in the cooperative by the developer to prospective unit owners prior to July 1, 1974, or as to cooperative buildings on which construction has been commenced prior to July 1, 1974.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222; s. 6, ch. 79-284.

PART III

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF ASSOCIATION

719.301 Transfer of association control.

719.302 Agreements entered into by the association.

719.303 Obligations of owners.

719.304 Association's right to amend cooperative documents.

719.301 Transfer of association control.—

(1) When unit owners other than the developer own 15 percent or more of the units in a cooperative that will be operated ultimately by an association, the unit owners other than the developer shall be entitled to elect not less than one-third of the members of the board of administration of the association. Unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect not less than a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association:

(a) Three years after 50 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(b) Three months after 90 percent of the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(c) When all the units that will be operated ultimately by the association have been completed; or

(d) When some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the developer in the ordinary course of business,

whichever occurs first. The developer is entitled to elect at least one member of the board of administration of an association as long as the developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business any unit in a cooperative operated by the association.

(2) Within 60 days after the unit owners other than the developer are entitled to elect a member or members of the board of administration of an association, the association shall call, and give not less than 30 days' or more than 40 days' notice of, a meeting of the unit owners to elect the members of the board of administration. The meeting may be called and the notice given by any unit owner if the association fails to do so.

(3) If a developer holds units for sale in the ordinary course of business, none of the following actions may be taken without approval in writing by the developer:

(a) Assessment of the developer as a unit owner for capital improvements.

(b) Any action by the association that would be detrimental to the sales of units by the developer. However, an increase in assessments for common expenses without discrimination against the developer shall not be deemed to be detrimental to the sales of units.

(4) Prior to, or not more than 60 days after, the time that unit owners other than the developer elect a majority of the members of the board of administration of an association, the developer shall relinquish control of the association, and the unit owners shall accept control. Simultaneously, the developer shall deliver to the association all property of the unit owners and of the association held or controlled by the developer, including, but not limited to, the following items, if applicable, as to each cooperative operated by the association:

(a)1. The original or a photocopy of the recorded cooperative documents and all amendments thereto. If a photocopy is provided, it shall be certified by affidavit of the developer, or an officer or agent of the developer, as being a complete copy of the actual recorded cooperative documents.

2. A certified copy of the association's articles of incorporation, or if it is not incorporated, then copies of the documents creating the association.

3. A copy of the bylaws.

4. The minute books, including all minutes, and other books and records of the association, if any.

5. Any house rules and regulations which have been promulgated.

(b) Resignations of officers and members of the board of administration who are required to resign because the developer is required to relinquish control of the association.

(c) An audit and accounting, which need not be certified, for all association funds, performed by an auditor independent of the developer, including capital accounts, reserve accumulations in accordance with s. 719.504(20)(c)1.k., and contributions.

(d) Association funds or control thereof.

(e) All tangible personal property that is property of the association, represented by the developer to be part of the common areas or ostensibly part of the common areas, and an inventory of that property.

(f) A copy of the plans and specifications utilized in the construction or remodeling of improvements and the supplying of equipment to the cooperative and in the construction and installation of all mechanical components serving the improvements and the site, with a certificate in affidavit form of the developer, his agent, or an architect or engineer authorized to practice in this state that such plans and specifications represent, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the actual plans and specifications utilized in the construction and improvement of the cooperative property and for the construction and installation of the mechanical components serving the improvements. If the cooperative property has been organized as a cooperative more than 3 years after the completion of construction or remodeling of the improvements, the requirements of this paragraph shall not apply.

(g) Insurance policies.

(h) Copies of any certificates of occupancy which may have been issued for the cooperative property.

(i) Any other permits issued by governmental bodies applicable to the cooperative property in force or issued within 1 year prior to the date the unit owners other than the developer take control of the association.

(j) All written warranties of the contractor, subcontractors, suppliers, and manufacturers, if any, that are still effective.

(k) A roster of unit owners and their addresses and telephone numbers, if known, as shown on the developer's records.

(l) Leases of the common areas and other leases to which the association is a party.

(m) Employment contracts or service contracts in which the association is one of the contracting parties or service contracts in which the association or the unit owners have an obligation or responsibility, directly or indirectly, to pay some or all of the fee or charge of the person or persons performing the service.

(n) All other contracts to which the association is a party.

719.302 Agreements entered into by the association.—

(1) Any grant or reservation made by a cooperative document, lease, or other document, and any contract made by an association prior to assumption of control of the association by unit owners other than the developer, that provides for operation, maintenance, or management of a cooperative association or property serving the unit owners of a cooperative shall be fair and reasonable, and may be canceled by unit owners other than the developer:

(a) If the association operates only one cooperative and the unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of the association, or if unit owners other than the developer own not less than 75 percent of the units in the cooperative, the cancellation shall be by concurrence of the owners of not less than 75 percent of the units other than the units owned by the developer. If a grant, reservation, or contract is so canceled and the unit owners other than the developer have not assumed control of the association, the association shall make a new contract or otherwise provide for maintenance, management, or operation in lieu of the canceled obligation, at the direction of the owners of not less than a majority of the units in the cooperative other than the units owned by the developer.

(b) If the association operates more than one cooperative and the unit owners other than the developer have not assumed control of the association, and if unit owners other than the developer own at least 75 percent of the units in a cooperative operated by the association, any grant, reservation, or contract for maintenance, management, or operation of buildings containing the units in that cooperative or of improvements used only by unit owners of that cooperative may be canceled by concurrence of the owners of at least 75 percent of the units in the cooperative other than the units owned by the developer. No grant, reservation, or contract for maintenance, management, or operation of recreational areas or any other property serving more than one cooperative, and operated by more than one association, may be canceled except pursuant to paragraph (d). If a grant, reservation, or contract is canceled under this provision, the association shall provide for maintenance, management, or operation of the property in a manner consented to by the owners of not less than a majority of the units in the cooperative other than the units owned by the developer.

(c) If the association operates more than one cooperative and the unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of the association, the cancellation shall be by concurrence of the owners of not less than 75 percent of the total number of units in all cooperatives operated by the association other than the units owned by the developer.

(d) If the owners of units in a cooperative have the right to use property in common with owners of units in other cooperatives and those cooperatives are operated by more than one association, no grant, reservation, or contract for maintenance, management, or operation of the property serving more than one cooperative may be canceled until unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of all of the associations operating the cooperatives that are to be served by the recreational area or other property, after which cancellation may be effected by concurrence of the owners of not less than 75 percent of the total number of units in those cooperatives other than units owned by the developer.

(2) Any grant or reservation made by a declaration, lease, or other document, and any contract made by an association, whether before or after assumption of control of the association by unit owners other than the developer, that provides for operation, maintenance, or management of a cooperative association or property serving the unit owners of a cooperative shall not be in conflict with the powers and duties of the association or the rights of unit owners as provided in this chapter. This subsection is intended only as a clarification of existing law.

(3) Any grant or reservation made by a cooperative document, lease, or other document, and any contract made by an association prior to assumption of control of the association by unit owners other than the developer, shall be fair and reasonable.

(4) It is declared that the public policy of this state prohibits the inclusion or enforcement of escalation clauses in management contracts for cooperatives, and such clauses are hereby declared void for public policy. For the purposes of this section, an escalation clause is any clause in a cooperative management contract which provides that the fee under the contract shall increase at the same percentage rate as any nationally recognized and conveniently available commodity or consumer price index.

(5) Any action to compel compliance with the provisions of this section or of s. 719.301 may be brought pursuant to the summary procedure provided for in s. 51.011. In any such action brought to compel compliance with the provisions of s. 719.301, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 8, ch. 79-284.

719.303 Obligations of owners.—

(1) Each unit owner and each association shall be governed by, and shall comply with the provisions of, this chapter, the cooperative documents, the documents creating the association, and the association bylaws. Actions for damages or for injunctive relief, or both, for failure to comply with these provisions may be brought by the association or by a unit owner against:

- (a) The association.
- (b) A unit owner.

(c) Directors designated by the developer, for actions taken by them prior to the time control of the association is assumed by unit owners other than the developer.

(d) Any director who willfully and knowingly fails to comply with these provisions.

The prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees. This relief does not exclude other remedies provided by law.

(2) A provision of this chapter may not be waived if the waiver would adversely affect the rights of a unit owner or the purpose of the provision, except that unit owners or members of a board of administration may waive notice of specific meetings in writing if provided by the bylaws. Any instrument given in writing by the unit owner to an escrow agent may be relied upon by an escrow agent, whether or not such instruction and the payment of funds thereunder might constitute a waiver of any provision of this chapter.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

(1) If there is an omission or error in any cooperative document, or in other documents required by law to establish the cooperative, the association may correct the error or omission by an amendment to the cooperative document, or the other documents required to create a cooperative, in the manner provided in the declaration to amend the declaration, or, if none is provided, then by vote of a majority of the unit owners. The amendment is effective when passed and approved. This procedure for amendment cannot be used if such an amendment would materially or adversely affect property rights of unit owners, unless the affected owners consent in writing. This subsection does not restrict the powers of the association to otherwise amend the cooperative documents, or other documentation, but authorizes a simple process of amendment requiring a lesser vote for the purpose of curing defects, errors, or omissions when the property rights of unit owners are not materially or adversely affected.

(2) If there is an omission or error in a cooperative document, or other documents required to establish the cooperative, which would affect the valid existence of the cooperative and which may not be corrected by the amendment procedures in the cooperative documents or this chapter, then the Circuit Courts have jurisdiction to entertain petitions of one or more of the unit owners therein, or of the association, to correct the error or omission, and the action may be a class action. The court may require that one or more methods of correcting the error or omission be submitted to the unit owners to determine the most acceptable correction. All unit owners and the association must be joined as parties to the action. Service of process on owners may be by publication, but the plaintiff shall furnish all unit owners not personally served with process with copies of the petition and final decree of the court by certified mail, return receipt requested, at their last known residence address. If an action to determine whether the cooperative documents or other documents comply with the mandatory requirements for the formation of a cooperative contained in this chapter is not brought within 3 years of the filing of the cooperative documents, the cooperative documents and other documents shall be effective under this chapter to create a cooperative, whether or not the documents substantially comply with the mandatory requirements of this chapter. However, both before and after the expiration of this 3-year period, Circuit Courts have jurisdiction to entertain petitions permitted under this subsection for the correction of the documentation, and other methods of amendment may be utilized to correct the errors or omissions at any time.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 224, ch. 77-104.

PART IV*SPECIAL TYPES OF COOPERATIVES

719.401 Leaseholds.

719.402 Conversion of existing improvements to cooperative.

719.403 Phase cooperatives.

719.401 Leaseholds.—A cooperative may be created on lands held by a developer under lease or may include recreational facilities or other common elements or commonly used facilities on a leasehold, if, on the date the first unit is conveyed by the developer to a bona fide purchaser, the lease has an unexpired term of at least 50 years. If rent under the lease is payable by the association or by the unit owners, the lease shall include the following requirements:

(1) The leased land must be identified by a description that is sufficient to pass title, and the leased personal property must be identified by a general description of the items of personal property and the approximate number of each item of personal property that the developer is committing to furnish for each room or other facility. In the alternative, the personal property may be identified by a representation as to the minimum amount of expenditure that will be made to purchase the personal property for the facility. Unless the lease is of a unit, the identification of the land shall be supplemented by a survey showing the relation of the leased land to the land included in the common areas. This provision shall not prohibit adding additional land or personal property in accordance with the terms of the lease, provided there is no increase in rent or material increase in maintenance costs to the individual unit owner.

(2) The lease shall not contain a reservation of the right of possession or control of the leased property by the lessor or any person other than unit owners or the association, and shall not create rights to possession or use of the leased property in any parties other than the association or unit owners of the cooperative to be served by the leased property, unless the reservations and rights created are conspicuously disclosed. Any provision for use of the leased property by anyone other than unit owners of the cooperatives to be served by the leased property shall require the other users to pay a fair and reasonable share of the maintenance and repair obligations and other exactions due from users of the leased property.

(3) The lease shall state the minimum number of unit owners that will be required, directly or indirectly, to pay the rent under the lease and the maximum number of units that will be served by the leased property. The limitation of the number of units to be served shall not preclude enlargement of the facilities leased and an increase in their capacity, if approved by the association operating the leased property after unit owners other than the developer have assumed control of the association.

(4)(a) In any action by the lessor to enforce a lien for rent payable or in any action by the association or a unit owner with respect to the obligations of the lessee or the lessor under the lease, the unit owner or the association may raise any issue or interpose any defenses, legal or equitable, that he or it may have with respect to the lessor's obligations under the lease. If the unit owner or the association initiates any action or interposes any defense other than payment of rent under the lease, the unit owner or the association shall, upon service of process upon the lessor, pay into the registry of the court any allegedly accrued rent and the rent which accrues during the pendency of the proceeding, when due. If the unit owner or the association fails to pay the rent into the registry of the court, it shall constitute an absolute waiver of the unit owner's or association's defenses other than payment, and the lessor shall be entitled to default. The unit owner or the association shall notify the lessor of any deposits. When the unit owner or the association has deposited the required funds into the registry of the court, the lessor may apply to the court for disbursement for all or part of the funds shown to be necessary for the payment of taxes, mortgage payments, maintenance and operating expenses, and other necessary expenses incident to maintaining and equipping the leased facilities. The court, after an evidentiary hearing, may award all or part of the funds on deposit to the lessor for such purpose. The court shall require the lessor to post bond or other security, as a condition to the release of funds from the registry, when the value of the leased land and improvements, apart from the lease itself, is inadequate to fully secure the sum of existing encumbrances on the leased property and the amounts released from the court registry.

(b) When the association or unit owners have deposited funds into the registry of the court pursuant to this subsection, and the unit owners and association have otherwise complied with their obligations under the lease or agreement, other than paying rent into the registry of the court rather than to the lessor, the lessor cannot hold the association or unit owners in default on their rental payments nor may the lessor file liens or initiate foreclosure proceedings against unit owners. If the lessor, in violation of this subsection, attempts such liens or foreclosures, then the lessor may be liable for damages plus attorney's fees and costs which the association or unit owners incurred in satisfying said liens or foreclosures.

(c) Nothing in this subsection enacted to be effective October 1, 1979, shall affect litigation commenced prior to such date.

(5) If the lease is of recreational facilities or other commonly used facilities that are not completed, rent shall not commence until some of the facilities are completed. Until all of the facilities leased are completed, rent shall be prorated and paid only for the completed facilities in the proportion that the value of the completed facilities bears to the estimated value, when completed, of all of the facilities that are leased. The facilities shall be complete when they have been constructed, finished, and equipped and are available for use.

(6)(a) A lease of recreational or other commonly used facilities entered into by the association prior to the time the control of the association is turned over to unit owners other than the developer shall grant to the lessee an option to purchase the leased property, payable in cash on any anniversary date of the beginning of the lease term after the 10th anniversary, at a price then determined by agreement. If there is no agreement as to the price, then the price shall be determined by arbitration.

(b) If the lessor wishes to sell his interest and has received a bona fide offer to purchase it, the lessor shall send the association and each unit owner a copy of the executed offer. For 90 days following receipt of the offer by the association, the association has the option to purchase the interest on the terms and conditions in the offer. The option shall be exercised, if at all, by notice in writing given to the lessor within the 90-day period. If the association does not exercise the option, the lessor shall have the right, for a period of 60 days after the 90-day period has expired, to complete the transaction described in the offer to purchase. If for any reason such transaction is not concluded within the 60 days, the offer shall have been abandoned, and the provisions of this subsection shall be reimposed.

(c) The option shall be exercised upon approval by owners of two-thirds of the units served by the leased property.

(d) The provisions of this subsection shall not apply if the lessor is the Government of the United States or the State of Florida or any political subdivision thereof or, in the case of an underlying land lease, a person or entity which is not the developer or directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the developer and did not obtain, directly or indirectly, ownership of the leased property from the developer.

(7) The lease or a subordination agreement executed by the lessor must provide either:

(a) That any lien which encumbers a unit for rent or other moneys or exactions payable is subordinate to any mortgage held by an institutional lender, or

er's share of the rent or other exactions shall not be extinguished, but shall be foreclosed and unenforceable against the mortgagee with respect to that unit's share of the rent and other exactions which mature or become due and payable on or before the date of the final judgment of foreclosure, in the event of foreclosure, or on or before the date of delivery of the deed in lieu of foreclosure. The lien may, however, automatically and by operation of the lease or other instrument, reattach to the unit and secure the payment of the unit's proportionate share of the rent or other exactions coming due subsequent to the date of final decree of foreclosure or the date of delivery of the deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(8) It is declared that the public policy of this state prohibits the inclusion or enforcement of escalation clauses in leases or agreements for recreational facilities, land, or other commonly used facilities serving cooperatives, and such clauses are hereby declared void for public policy. For the purposes of this section, an escalation clause is any clause in a cooperative lease or agreement which provides that the rental under the lease or agreement shall increase at the same percentage rate as any nationally recognized and conveniently available commodity or consumer price index.

719.402 Conversion of existing improvements to cooperative.—

(1) A developer may create a cooperative by converting existing, previously occupied improvements to such ownership by complying with part I of this chapter.

(2)(a) If existing improvements are converted to ownership as a residential cooperative, each residential tenant of the existing improvements shall have the right to extend an expiring lease or tenancy upon the same terms for a period that will expire no later than 180 days after written notice to the tenant of the intended conversion. A tenant must give written notice to the developer of his intention to extend his lease or tenancy within 30 days after he receives notice of the intended conversion.

(b) Any discount to an existing tenant on the purchase price of a cooperative parcel in a conversion of existing improvements shall be offered for a period of not less than 60 days from the date of first offering to such tenant.

(3)(a) It is the policy of this state that provisions of contracts, leases, or other undertakings which allow landlords or developers, at their option, to cancel and terminate the terms of such leases upon the conversion of the property and improvements to cooperative ownership upon less than 120 days' notice to the tenant are against public policy. Any provisions in any contract, lease, or undertaking which provides for cancellation or termination of the term of any lease for an apartment or other residence at the option of the landlord or developer for reason of its intended conversion to a cooperative form of ownership without at least 120 days' notice shall be unenforceable except in the following cases:

1. If the term of the lease has less than 150 days remaining after such notification is given.
2. If the lease grants the tenant an option to purchase the apartment or other residence in which he resides at a price equal to or less than that offered to non-tenants, which option is exercisable by the tenant during a period of not less than 90 days after the mailing of a notice of the intended conversion to the tenant.

3. If the lease provides that the lessor or developer shall not convert to cooperative ownership except with the consent of the tenants of not less than 60 percent of the apartments or other dwellings in improvements intended to be converted. For the purpose of this vote, unoccupied apartments or dwellings shall be counted and the developer or lessor may vote those apartments.

(b) If the lease provides for a notification to the tenant of less than 120 days and if the term of the lease has more than 150 days remaining after notification is given, notification of termination to the tenant will be effective if the notice provides that the tenant shall have 150 days or more before cancellation or termination becomes effective.

(c) Leases executed subsequent to the developer's or landlord's announcement of intention to convert to cooperative ownership may provide for cancellation or termination upon not less than 60 days' notice to the tenant, provided the landlord conspicuously discloses in the lease the intention to convert the property containing the leased premises to cooperative ownership and that the lease may be canceled upon 60 days' notice to the tenant.

(d) The notice requirements of this subsection shall not apply to a lease entered into simultaneously with, or subsequent to, a contract to purchase the unit.

(4) All notices to tenants shall be given when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the tenant at his last known residence, which may be the address of the property subject to the lease, sent by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid. Notice may not be waived by a tenant unless the tenant's lease states that the building is to be converted.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 10, ch. 79-284.

719.403 Phase cooperatives.—

(1) A developer may develop a cooperative in phases, if the original cooperative documents submitting the initial phase to cooperative ownership provide for and describe in detail all anticipated phases, the impact, if any, which the completion of subsequent phases would have upon the initial phase, and the time period within which each phase must be completed.

(2) The original cooperative documents shall describe:

(a) The land which may become part of the cooperative and the land on which each phase is to be built. The descriptions shall include metes and bounds or other legal descriptions of the land for each phase, plot plans, and surveys.

(b) The number and general size of units to be included in each phase.

(c) Each unit's percentage ownership in the common areas as each phase is added.

(d) The recreation areas and facilities to be owned as common areas by all unit owners and all personal property to be provided and those facilities or areas which may not be built or provided if any phase or phases are not developed and added as a part of the cooperative.

(e) The membership vote and ownership in the association attributable to each unit in each phase and the results if any phase or phases are not developed and added as a part of the cooperative.

(3) The developer shall notify owners of existing units of the commencement of, or the decision not to add, one or more additional phases. Notice shall be by certified mail addressed to each owner at the address of his unit or at his last known address.

(4) If one or more phases are not built, the units which are built are entitled to 100 percent ownership of all common areas within the phases actually developed and added as a part of the cooperative.

(5) If the cooperative documents require the developer to convey any additional lands or facilities to the cooperative after the completion of the first phase and he fails to do so within the time specified, or within a reasonable time if none is specified, then any owner of a unit or the association may enforce such obligations against the developer or bring an action against the developer for damages caused by the developer's failure to convey to the association such additional lands or facilities.

(6) Amendments adding phases to a cooperative shall not require the execution of such amendments or consents thereto by unit owners other than the developer.

PART V

REGULATION AND DISCLOSURE PRIOR TO SALE OF RESIDENTIAL COOPERATIVES

- 719.501 Regulation by Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums.
- 719.502 Filing prior to sale or lease.
- 719.503 Disclosure prior to sale.
- 719.504 Prospectus or offering circular.
- 719.505 Good faith effort to comply.
- 719.506 Publication of false and misleading information.
- 719.507 Zoning and building.
- 719.508 Regulation by Division of Hotels and Restaurants.

719.501 Regulation by Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums.—

(1) The Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums of the Department of Business Regulation, referred to as the division in this part, in addition to other powers and duties prescribed by chapter 478, has the power to enforce and insure compliance with the provisions of this chapter and rules promulgated pursuant hereto relating to the development, construction, sale, lease, ownership, operation, and management of residential cooperative units. In performing its duties, the division shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) The division shall receive, and may investigate pursuant to the authority specified in s. 478.151, complaints relating to the violation of the provisions of this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant hereto, including disputes arising from the internal affairs and management of cooperative associations, and may conduct informal hearings for the purpose of seeking amicable settlement of disputes and voluntary compliance with the provisions of law.

(b) Notwithstanding any remedies available to unit owners and associations, if the division has reasonable cause to believe that a violation of any provision of this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant hereto has occurred, the division may institute enforcement proceedings in its own name against any developer or association, or its assignees or agents, as follows:

1. The division may issue cease and desist orders pursuant to s. 478.171.

2. The division may bring an action in circuit court for declaratory relief, injunctive relief, or restitution on behalf of a class of unit owners or lessees.

3. The division may impose civil penalties against any developer or association, or its assignees or agents, for violations of this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant hereto. A penalty may be imposed on the basis of each day of continuing violation, but in no event shall the penalty for any offense exceed $5,000. All amounts collected shall be deposited with the Treasurer to the credit of the Florida Land Sales and Condominiums Trust Fund. If a developer fails to pay the civil penalty, the division shall thereupon issue an order directing that such developer cease and desist from further operation until such time as the civil penalty is paid and may pursue enforcement of the penalty in a court of competent jurisdiction. If an association fails to pay the civil penalty, the division shall thereupon pursue enforcement in a court of competent jurisdiction. In order to permit the developer or association an opportunity either to appeal such decision administratively or to seek relief in a court of competent jurisdiction, the order imposing the civil penalty or the cease and desist order shall not become effective until 20 days after the date of such order. Any action commenced by the division shall be brought in the county in which the division has its executive offices or in the county where the violation occurred.

(c) The division is authorized to prepare and disseminate a prospectus and other information to assist prospective owners, purchasers, lessees, and developers of residential cooperatives in assessing the rights, privileges, and duties pertaining thereto.

(d) The division is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations, pursuant to chapter 120, necessary to implement, enforce, and interpret this chapter.

(e) The division shall furnish each association which pays the fees required by subsection (3)(a) a copy of this part and all amendments prior to the date they become effective.

<sup>1</sup>(2) There is hereby created an advisory board to advise the division in carrying out its duties, to be composed of seven members, of which three members shall be citizens from the cooperative development industry, two members shall be nondeveloper unit owners who are association board members, and two members shall be nondeveloper unit owners who are not association officers or board members. Members of the advisory board shall be appointed by the Secretary of Business Regulation to serve at his pleasure and shall be confirmed by the Senate. The advisory board shall assist and advise the division in residential cooperative problems and, when possible, shall arbitrate controversies between unit owners and their associations.

(3)(a) Each cooperative association shall pay to the division, on or before January 1 of each year, an annual fee in the amount of 50 cents for each residential unit in cooperatives operated by the association. If the fee is not paid by June 1, then the association shall be assessed a penalty of 10 percent of the amount due, and the association shall not have the standing to maintain or defend any action in the courts of this state until the amount due is paid.

(b) Any person filing a complaint with the division under this section shall pay a filing fee of $10 for each complaint.

(c) All fees shall be deposited in the Land Sales Trust Fund as provided by law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 33, ch. 79-4; s. 11, ch. 79-284.

719.502 Filing prior to sale or lease.—

(1) A developer of a residential cooperative shall file with the division one copy of each of the documents and items required to be furnished to a buyer or lessee by ss. 719.503 and 719.504, if applicable. Until the developer has so filed, a contract for sale or lease of a unit for more than 5 years shall be voidable by the purchaser or lessee prior to the closing of his purchase or lease of a unit.

(2) Prior to filing as required by subsection (1), a developer shall not offer a contract for purchase or lease of a unit for more than 5 years but may accept deposits for reservations upon filing with the Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums of the Department of Business Regulation an escrow agreement and reservation agreement form. The division shall notify the developer within 20 days of receipt of the reservation filing of any deficiencies contained therein. Such notification shall not preclude the determination of reservation filing deficiencies at a later date, nor shall it relieve the developer of any responsibility under the law. The escrow agreement and the reservation agreement form shall include a statement of the right of the prospective purchaser to an immediate unqualified refund of the reservation deposit moneys upon written request to the escrow agent by the prospective purchaser or the developer. The reservation agreement form shall also include the following:

(a) A statement of the obligation of the developer to file cooperative documents with the division prior to entering into a binding purchase or lease agreement for more than 5 years.

(b) A statement of the right of the prospective purchaser to receive all cooperative documents as required by this chapter.

(c) The name and address of the escrow agent and a statement that the prospective purchaser may obtain a receipt from the agent upon request.

(d) A statement as to whether the developer assures that the purchase price represented in or pursuant to the reservation agreement will be the price in the contract for purchase and sale, or that the price represented may be exceeded within a stated amount or percentage, or that no assurance is given as to the price in the contract for purchase and sale.

(3) Upon filing as required by subsection (1), the developer shall pay to the division a filing fee of $10 for each residential unit to be sold by the developer which is described in the documents filed. If the cooperative is to be built or sold in phases, the fee shall be paid prior to offering for sale units in any subsequent phase.

(4) Any developer who complies with this section shall not be required to file with any other division or agency of this state for approval to sell the units in the cooperative, the information for the cooperative for which he filed.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 5, ch. 79-284.

719.503 Disclosure prior to sale.—

(1) CONTENTS OF CONTRACTS.—Any contracts for the sale of a unit or a lease thereof for an unexpired term of more than 5 years shall contain:

(a) The following legend in conspicuous type: THIS AGREEMENT IS VOIDABLE BY BUYER BY DELIVERING WRITTEN NOTICE OF THE BUYER'S INTENTION TO CANCEL WITHIN 15 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT BY THE BUYER, AND RECEIPT BY BUYER OF ALL OF THE ITEMS REQUIRED TO BE DELIVERED TO HIM BY THE DEVELOPER UNDER SECTION 719.503, FLORIDA STATUTES. BUYER MAY EXTEND THE TIME FOR CLOSING FOR A PERIOD OF NOT MORE THAN 15 DAYS AFTER THE BUYER HAS RECEIVED ALL OF THE ITEMS REQUIRED. BUYER'S RIGHT TO VOID THIS AGREEMENT SHALL TERMINATE AT CLOSING.

(b) The following caveat in conspicuous type shall be placed upon the first page of the contract: ORAL REPRESENTATIONS CANNOT BE RELIED UPON AS CORRECTLY STATING THE REPRESENTATIONS OF THE DEVELOPER. FOR CORRECT REPRESENTATIONS, REFERENCE SHOULD BE MADE TO THIS CONTRACT AND THE DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY SECTION 719.503, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO BE FURNISHED BY A DEVELOPER TO A BUYER OR LESSEE.

(c) If the unit has been occupied by someone other than the buyer, a statement that the unit has been occupied.

(d) If the contract is for the sale or transfer of a unit subject to a lease, the contract shall include as an exhibit a copy of the executed lease and shall contain within the text in conspicuous type: THE UNIT IS SUBJECT TO A LEASE (OR SUBLEASE).

(e) If the contract is for the lease of a unit for a term of 5 years or more, the contract shall include as an exhibit a copy of the proposed lease.

(f) If the contract is for the sale or lease of a unit that is subject to a lien for rent payable under a lease of a recreational facility or other common areas, the contract shall contain within the text the following statement in conspicuous type: THIS CONTRACT IS FOR THE TRANSFER OF A UNIT THAT IS SUBJECT TO A LIEN FOR RENT PAYABLE UNDER A LEASE OF COMMON AREAS. FAILURE TO PAY RENT MAY RESULT IN FORECLOSURE OF THE LIEN.

(g) The contract shall state the name and address of the escrow agent required by s. 719.202 and shall state that the purchaser may obtain a receipt for his deposit from the escrow agent, upon request.

(2) COPIES OF DOCUMENTS TO BE FURNISHED TO PROSPECTIVE BUYER OR LESSEE.—Until such time as the developer has furnished the documents listed below to a person who has entered into a contract to purchase a unit or lease it for more than 5 years, the contract may be voided by such person, entitling such person to a refund of any deposit together with interest thereon as provided in s. 719.202. The contract may be terminated by written notice from the proposed buyer or lessee delivered to the developer within 15 days after the buyer or lessee receives all of the documents required by this section. The documents to be delivered to the prospective buyer are the prospectus or disclosure statement with all exhibits, if the development is subject to the provisions of s. 719.504, or, if not, then copies of the following which are applicable:

(a) The cooperative documents, or the proposed cooperative documents if the documents have not been recorded, which shall include the certificate of a surveyor approximately representing the locations required by s. 719.104.

(b) The documents creating the association.

(c) The bylaws.

(d) The ground lease or other underlying lease of the cooperative.

(e) The management contract, maintenance contract, and other contracts for management of the association and operation of the cooperative and facilities used by the unit owners having a service term in excess of 1 year, and any management contracts that are renewable.

(f) The estimated operating budget for the cooperative and a schedule of expenses for each type of unit.

(g) The lease of recreational and other facilities that will be used only by unit owners of the subject cooperative.

(h) The lease of recreational and other common areas that will be used by unit owners in common with unit owners of other cooperatives.

(i) The form of unit lease if the offer is of a leasehold.

(j) Any declaration of servitude of properties serving the cooperative but not owned by unit owners or leased to them or the association.

(k) If the development is to be built in phases or if the association is to manage more than one cooperative, a description of the plan of phase development or the arrangements for the association to manage two or more cooperatives.

(l) If the cooperative is a conversion of existing improvements, a statement of the condition of the improvements and of inspection for termite damage and treatment thereof.

(m) The form of agreement for sale or lease of units.

(n) A copy of the floor plan of the unit and the plot plan showing the location of the residential buildings and the recreation and other common areas.

(o) A copy of all covenants and restrictions which will affect the use of the property and which are not contained in the foregoing.

(3) OTHER DISCLOSURE.—

(a) If cooperative parcels are offered for sale or lease prior to completion of construction of the units and of improvements to the common areas, or prior to completion of remodeling of previously occupied buildings, the developer shall make available to each prospective purchaser or lessee, for his inspection at a place convenient to the site, a copy of the complete plans and specifications for the construction or remodeling of the unit offered to him and of the improvements to the common areas appurtenant to the unit.

(b) Sales brochures, if any, shall be provided to each purchaser, and the following caveat in conspicuous type shall be placed on the inside front cover or on the first page containing text material of the sales brochure, or otherwise conspicuously displayed: ORAL REPRESENTATIONS CANNOT BE RELIED UPON AS CORRECTLY STATING REPRESENTATIONS OF THE DEVELOPER. FOR CORRECT REPRESENTATIONS, MAKE REFERENCE TO THIS BROCHURE AND TO THE DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY SECTION 719.503, FLORIDA STATUTES, TO BE FURNISHED BY A DEVELOPER TO A BUYER OR LESSEE.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 12, ch. 79-284.

Note.—The cross reference is erroneous.

719.504 Prospectus or offering circular.—Every developer of a residential cooperative which contains more than twenty residential units, or which is part of a group of residential cooperatives which will be served by property to be used in common by unit owners of more than twenty residential units, shall prepare a prospectus or offering circular and file it with the Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums prior to entering into an enforceable contract of purchase and sale of any unit or lease of a unit for more than 5 years, and furnish a copy of the prospectus or offering circular to each buyer. The prospectus or offering circular may include more than one cooperative, although not all such units are being offered for sale as of the date of the prospectus or offering circular. The prospectus or offering circular must contain the following information:

(1) The front cover or the first page must contain only:

(a) The name of the cooperative.

(b) The following statements in conspicuous type:

1. THIS PROSPECTUS (OFFERING CIRCULAR) CONTAINS IMPORTANT MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED IN ACQUIRING A COOPERATIVE UNIT.

2. THE STATEMENTS CONTAINED HEREIN ARE ONLY SUMMARY IN NATURE. A PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER SHOULD REFER TO ALL REFERENCES, ALL EXHIBITS HERETO, THE CONTRACT DOCUMENTS, AND SALES MATERIALS.

3. ORAL REPRESENTATIONS CANNOT BE RELIED UPON AS CORRECTLY STATING THE REPRESENTATIONS OF THE DEVELOPER. REFER TO THIS PROSPECTUS (OFFERING CIRCULAR).

LAR) AND ITS EXHIBITS FOR CORRECT REPRESENTATIONS.

(2) Summary: The next page must contain all statements required to be in conspicuous type in the prospectus or offering circular.

(3) A separate index of the contents and exhibits of the prospectus.

(4) Beginning on the first page of the text (not including the summary and index), a description of the cooperative, including, but not limited to, the following information:

(a) Its name and location.

(b) A description of the cooperative property, including, without limitation:

1. The number of buildings, the number of units in each building, the number of bathrooms and bedrooms in each unit, and the total number of units.

2. The page in the cooperative documents where a copy of the survey and plot plan of the cooperative is located.

3. The estimated latest date of completion of constructing, finishing, and equipping. In lieu of a date, a statement that the estimated date of completion of the cooperative is in the purchase agreement and a reference to the article or paragraph containing that information.

(c) The maximum number of units that will use facilities in common with the cooperative. If the maximum number of units will vary, a description of the basis for variation and the minimum amount of dollars per unit to be spent for additional recreational facilities, or enlargement of such facilities. If the addition or enlargement of facilities will result in a material increase of a unit owner's maintenance expense or rental expense, if any, the maximum increase and limitations thereon shall be stated.

(5) A statement in conspicuous type describing whether the cooperative is created and being sold as fee simple interests or as leasehold interests. If the cooperative is created or being sold on a leasehold, the location of the lease in the disclosure materials shall be stated.

(6) A description of the recreational and other common areas that will be used only by unit owners of the cooperative, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Each room and its intended purposes, location, approximate floor area, and capacity in numbers of people.

(b) Each swimming pool, as to its general location, approximate size and depths, approximate deck size and capacity, and whether heated.

(c) Additional facilities, as to the number of each facility, its approximate location, approximate size, and approximate capacity.

(d) A general description of the items of personal property and the approximate number of each item of personal property that the developer is committing to furnish for each room or other facility or, in the alternative, a representation as to the minimum amount of expenditure that will be made to purchase the personal property for the facility.

(e) The estimated date when each room or other facility will be available for use by the unit owners.

(f)1. An identification of each room or other facility to be used by unit owners that will not be owned by the unit owners or the association;

2. A reference to the location in the disclosure materials of the lease or other agreements providing for the use of those facilities; and

3. A description of the terms of the lease or other agreements, including the length of the term; the rent payable, directly or indirectly, by each unit owner, and the total rent payable to the lessor, stated in monthly and annual amounts for the entire term of the lease; and a description of any option to purchase the property leased under any such lease, including the time the option may be exercised, the purchase price or how it is to be determined, the manner of payment, and whether the option may be exercised for a unit owner's share or only as to the entire leased property.

(g) A statement as to whether the developer may provide additional facilities not described above, their general locations and types, improvements or changes that may be made, the approximate dollar amount to be expended, and the maximum additional common expense or cost to the individual unit owners that may be charged during the first annual period of operation of the modified or added facilities.

Descriptions as to locations, areas, capacities, numbers, volumes, or sizes may be stated as approximations or minimums.

(7) A description of the recreational and other facilities that will be used in common with other cooperatives which require the payment of the maintenance and expenses of such facilities, either directly or indirectly, by the unit owners. The description shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) Each building and facility committed to be built.

(b) Facilities not committed to be built except under certain conditions, and a statement of those conditions or contingencies.

(c) As to each facility committed to be built, or which will be committed to be built upon the happening of one of the conditions in paragraph (b), a statement of whether it will be owned by the unit owners having the use thereof or by an association or other entity which will be controlled by them, or others, and the location in the exhibits of the lease or other document providing for use of those facilities.

(d) The year in which each facility will be available for use by the unit owners or, in the alternative, the maximum number of unit owners in the project at the time each of all of the facilities is committed to be completed.

(e) A general description of the items of personal property, and the approximate number of each item of personal property, that the developer is committing to furnish for each room or other facility or, in the alternative, a representation as to the minimum amount of expenditure that will be made to purchase the personal property for the facility.

(f) If there are leases, a description thereof, including the length of the term, the rent payable, and a description of any option to purchase.

Descriptions shall include location, areas, capacities, numbers, volumes, or sizes, and may be stated as approximations or minimums.

(8) Recreation lease or associated club membership:

(a) If any recreational facilities or other common areas offered by the developer and available to, or to be used by, unit owners are to be leased or have club membership associated, the following statement in conspicuous type shall be included: THERE IS A RECREATIONAL FACILITIES LEASE ASSOCIATED WITH THIS COOPERATIVE; or, THERE IS A CLUB MEMBERSHIP ASSOCIATED WITH THIS COOPERATIVE. There shall be a reference to the location in the disclosure materials where the recreation lease or club membership is described in detail.

(b) If it is mandatory that unit owners pay a fee, rent, dues, or other charges under a recreational facilities lease or club membership for the use of facilities, there shall be in conspicuous type the applicable statement:

1. MEMBERSHIP IN THE RECREATIONAL FACILITIES CLUB IS MANDATORY FOR UNIT OWNERS; or

2. UNIT OWNERS ARE REQUIRED, AS A CONDITION OF OWNERSHIP, TO BE LESSEES UNDER THE RECREATIONAL FACILITIES LEASE; or

3. UNIT OWNERS ARE REQUIRED TO PAY THEIR SHARE OF THE COSTS AND EXPENSES OF MAINTENANCE, MANAGEMENT, UPKEEP, REPLACEMENT, RENT, AND FEES UNDER THE RECREATIONAL FACILITIES LEASE (OR THE OTHER INSTRUMENTS PROVIDING THE FACILITIES); or

4. A similar statement of the nature of the organization or manner in which the use rights are created, and that unit owners are required to pay.

Immediately following the applicable statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the development is described in detail shall be stated.

(c) If the developer, or any other person other than the unit owners and other persons having use rights in the facilities, shall reserve, or be entitled to receive, any rent, fee, or other payment for the use of the facilities, then there shall be the following statement in conspicuous type: THE UNIT OWNERS OR THE ASSOCIATION(S) MUST PAY RENT OR LAND-USE FEES FOR RECREATIONAL OR OTHER COMMON AREAS. Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the rent or land-use fees are described in detail shall be stated.

(d) If, in any recreation format, whether leasehold, club, or other, any person other than the association shall have the right to a lien on the units to secure the payment of assessments, rent, or other exactions, there shall appear a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form:

1. THERE IS A LIEN OR LIEN RIGHT AGAINST EACH UNIT TO SECURE THE PAYMENT OF RENT AND OTHER EXACTIONS UNDER THE RECREATION LEASE. THE UNIT

OWNER'S FAILURE TO MAKE THESE PAYMENTS MAY RESULT IN FORECLOSURE OF THE LIEN; or

2. THERE IS A LIEN OR LIEN RIGHT AGAINST EACH UNIT TO SECURE THE PAYMENT OF ASSESSMENTS OR OTHER EXACTIONS COMING DUE FOR THE USE, MAINTENANCE, UPKEEP, OR REPAIR OF THE RECREATIONAL OR COMMONLY USED AREAS. THE UNIT OWNER'S FAILURE TO MAKE THESE PAYMENTS MAY RESULT IN FORECLOSURE OF THE LIEN.

Immediately following the applicable statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the lien or lien right is described in detail shall be stated.

(9) If the developer or any other person shall have the right to increase or add to the recreational facilities at any time after the establishment of the cooperative whose unit owners have use rights therein, without the consent of the unit owners or associations being required, there shall appear a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form: RECREATIONAL FACILITIES MAY BE EXPANDED OR ADDED WITHOUT CONSENT OF UNIT OWNERS OR THE ASSOCIATION(S). Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where such reserved rights are described shall be stated.

(10) A statement of whether the developer's plan includes a program of leasing units rather than selling them, or leasing units and selling them subject to such leases. If so, there shall be a description of the plan, including the number and identification of the units and the provisions and term of the proposed leases, and a statement in boldface type that: THE UNITS MAY BE TRANSFERRED SUBJECT TO A LEASE.

(11) The arrangements for management of the association and maintenance and operation of the cooperative property and of other property that will serve the unit owners of the cooperative property, and a description of the management contract and all other contracts for these purposes having a term in excess of 1 year, including the following:

(a) The names of contracting parties.

(b) The term of the contract.

(c) The nature of the services included.

(d) The compensation, stated on a monthly and annual basis, and provisions for increases in the compensation.

(e) A reference to the volumes and pages of the cooperative documents and of the exhibits containing copies of such contracts.

Copies of all described contracts shall be attached as exhibits. If there is a contract for the management of the cooperative property, then a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form shall appear, identifying the proposed or existing contract manager: THERE IS (IS TO BE) A CONTRACT FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE COOPERATIVE PROPERTY WITH (NAME OF THE CONTRACT MANAGER). Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials of the contract for management of the cooperative property shall be stated.

(12) If the developer or any other person or persons other than the unit owners has the right to retain control of the board of administration of the association for a period of time which can exceed 1 year after the closing of the sale of a majority of the units in that cooperative to persons other than successors or alternate developers, then a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form shall be included: THE DEVELOPER (OR OTHER PERSON) HAS THE RIGHT TO RETAIN CONTROL OF THE ASSOCIATION AFTER A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS HAVE BEEN SOLD. Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where this right to control is described in detail shall be stated.

(13) If there are any restrictions upon the sale, transfer, conveyance, or leasing of a unit, then a statement in conspicuous type in substantially the following form shall be included: THE SALE, LEASE, OR TRANSFER OF UNITS IS RESTRICTED OR CONTROLLED. Immediately following this statement, the location in the disclosure materials where the restriction, limitation, or control on the sale, lease, or transfer of units is described in detail shall be stated.

(14) If the cooperative is part of a phase project, there shall be a statement to that effect and a complete description of the phasing.

(15) If the cooperative is created by conversion of existing improvements, the following information shall be stated concerning the improvements:

- (a) The date and type of construction.
- (b) The prior use.
- (c) The condition of the roof and the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, and structural elements, which statement shall be substantiated by attaching a copy of a certificate of a registered architect or engineer.
- (d) Whether there is termite damage and that termite infestation, if any, has been properly treated. The statement shall be substantiated by including, as an exhibit, a copy of an inspection report by a certified pest control operator.

(e) A caveat that there are no warranties unless they are expressly stated in writing by the developer.

(16) A summary of the restrictions, if any, to be imposed on units concerning the use of any of the cooperative property, including statements as to whether there are restrictions upon children and pets, and reference to the volumes and pages of the cooperative documents where such restrictions are found, or if such restrictions are contained elsewhere, then a copy of the documents containing the restrictions shall be attached as an exhibit.

(17) If there is any land that is offered by the developer for use by the unit owners and that is neither owned by them nor leased to them, the association, or any entity controlled by unit owners and other persons having the use rights to such land, a statement shall be made as to how such land will serve the cooperative. If any part of such land will serve the cooperative, the statement shall describe the land and the nature and term of service, and the cooperative documents or other instrument creating such servitude shall be included as an exhibit.

(18) The manner in which utility and other services, including, but not limited to, sewage and waste disposal, water supply, and storm drainage will be provided, and the person or entity furnishing them.

(19) An explanation of the manner in which the apportionment of common expenses and ownership of the common areas has been determined.

(20) An estimated operating budget for the cooperative and the association, and a schedule of the unit owner's expenses shall be attached as an exhibit and shall contain the following information:

(a) The estimated monthly and annual expenses of the cooperative and the association that are collected from unit owners by assessments.

(b) The estimated monthly and annual expenses of each unit owner for a unit, other than assessments payable to the association, payable by the unit owner to persons or entities other than the association, and the total estimated monthly and annual expense. There may be excluded from this estimate expenses that are personal to unit owners, which are not uniformly incurred by all unit owners, or which are not provided for or contemplated by the cooperative documents, including, but not limited to, the costs of private telephone; maintenance of the interior of cooperative units, which is not the obligation of the association; maid or janitorial services privately contracted for by the unit owners; utility bills billed directly to each unit owner for utility services to his unit; insurance premiums other than those incurred for policies obtained by the cooperative; and similar personal expenses of the unit owner. A unit owner's estimated payments for assessments shall also be stated in the estimated amounts for the times when they will be due.

(c) The estimated items of expenses of the cooperative and the association, except as excluded under paragraph (b), including, but not limited to, the following items, which shall be stated either as an association expense collectible by assessments or as unit owners' expenses payable to persons other than the association:

- 1. Expenses for the association and cooperative:
  - a. Administration of the association.
  - b. Management fees.
  - c. Maintenance.
  - d. Rent for recreational and other commonly used areas.
  - e. Taxes upon association property.
  - f. Taxes upon leased areas.
  - g. Insurance.
  - h. Security provisions.
  - i. Other expenses.
  - j. Operating capital.
  - k. Reserves.
- 1. Fee payable to the division.
- 2. Expenses for a unit owner:
  - a. Rent for the unit, if subject to a lease.
  - b. Rent payable by the unit owner directly to the lessor or agent under any recreational lease or lease for the use of commonly used areas, which use and payment is a mandatory condition of ownership and is not included in the common expense or assessments for common maintenance paid by the unit owners to the association.

(d) The estimated amounts shall be stated for a period of at least 12 months and may distinguish between the period prior to the time unit owners other than the developer elect a majority of the board of administration and the period after that date.

(21) A schedule of estimated closing expenses to be paid by a buyer or lessee of a unit and a statement of whether title opinion or title insurance policy is available to the buyer and, if so, at whose expense.

(22) The identity of the developer and the chief operating officer or principal directing the creation and sale of the cooperative and a statement of its and his experience in this field.

(23) Copies of the following, to the extent they are applicable, shall be included as exhibits:

(a) The cooperative documents, or the proposed cooperative documents if the documents have not been recorded.

(b) The articles of incorporation creating the association.

(c) The bylaws of the association.

(d) The ground lease or other underlying lease of the cooperative.

(e) The management agreement and all maintenance and other contracts for management of the association and operation of the cooperative and facilities used by the unit owners having a service term in excess of 1 year.

(f) The estimated operating budget for the cooperative and the required schedule of unit owners' expenses.

(g) A copy of the floor plan of the unit and the plot plan showing the location of the residential buildings and the recreation and other common areas.

(h) The lease of recreational and other facilities that will be used only by unit owners of the subject cooperative.

(i) The lease of facilities used by owners and others.

(j) The form of unit lease, if the offer is of a leasehold.

(k) A declaration of servitude of properties serving the cooperative but not owned by unit owners or leased to them or the association.

(l) The statement of condition of the existing building or buildings, if the offering is of units in an operation being converted to cooperative ownership.

(m) The statement of inspection for termite damage and treatment of the existing improvements, if the cooperative is a conversion.

(n) The form of agreement for sale or lease of units.

(o) A copy of the agreement for escrow of payments made to the developer prior to closing.

(p) A copy of the documents containing any restrictions on use of the property required by subsection (16).

(24) Any prospectus or offering circular complying with the provisions of former ss. 711.69 and 711.802 prior to the effective date of this act may continue to be used without amendment, or may be amended to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 13, ch. 79-284.

719.505 Good faith effort to comply.—If a developer, in good faith, has attempted to comply with the requirements of this part, and if, in fact, he has substantially complied with the disclosure requirements of this chapter, nonmaterial errors or omissions in the disclosure materials shall not be actionable.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-222.

719.506 Publication of false and misleading information.—

(1) Any person who, in reasonable reliance upon any material statement or information that is false or misleading and published by or under authority from the developer in advertising and promotional materials, including, but not limited to, a prospectus, the items required as exhibits to a prospectus, brochures, and newspaper advertising, pays anything of value toward the lease of a cooperative parcel located in this state shall have a cause of action to rescind the contract or collect damages from the developer for his loss prior to the closing of the transaction. After the closing of the transaction, the lessee shall have a cause of action against the developer for damages under this section from the time of closing until 1 year after the date upon which the last of the events described in paragraphs (a) through (d) shall occur:

(a) The closing of the transaction;

(b) The first issuance by the applicable governmental authority of a certificate of occupancy or other evidence of sufficient completion of construction of the building containing the unit to allow lawful occupancy of the unit. In counties or municipalities in which certificates of occupancy or other evidences of completion sufficient to allow lawful occupancy are not customarily issued, for the purpose of this section, evidence of lawful occupancy shall be deemed given or issued upon the date that such lawful occupancy of the unit may first be allowed under prevailing applicable laws, ordinances, or statutes;

(c) The completion by the developer of the common areas and such recreational facilities, whether or not the same are common areas, which the developer is obligated to complete or provide under the terms of the written contract or written agreement for purchase or lease of the unit; or

(d) In the event there shall not be a written contract or agreement for sale or lease of the unit, then the completion by the developer of the common areas and such recreational facilities, whether or not the same are common areas, which the developer would be obligated to complete under any rule of law applicable to the developer's obligation.

Under no circumstances shall a cause of action created or recognized under this section survive for a period of more than 5 years after the closing of the transaction.

(2) In any action for relief under this section or under s. 719.503, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222.

719.507 Zoning and building.—All laws, ordinances, and regulations concerning buildings or zoning shall be construed and applied with reference to the nature and use of such property, without regard to the form of ownership. No law, ordinance, or regulation shall establish any requirement concerning the use, location, placement, or construction of buildings or other improvements which are, or may thereafter be, subjected to the cooperative form of ownership, unless such requirement shall be equally applicable to all buildings and improvements of the same kind not then, or thereafter to be, subjected to the cooperative form of ownership.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222.

719.508 Regulation by Division of Hotels and Restaurants.—In addition to the authority, regulation, or control exercised by the Division of Florida Land Sales and Condominiums pursuant to this act with respect to cooperatives, buildings included in a cooperative property shall be subject to the authority, regulation, or control of the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Department of Business Regulation, to the extent provided for in chapter 509 and chapter 399.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-222.

STATUTE OF FRAUDS, FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES, AND GENERAL ASSIGNMENTS

CHAPTER 725

UNENFORCEABLE CONTRACTS

- 725.01 Promise to pay another's debt, etc.
- 725.03 Newspaper subscription.
- 725.04 Voluntary payment; pleading.
- 725.05 Satisfaction for less than amount due.
- 725.06 Construction contracts; limitation on indemnification.
- 725.07 Discrimination on basis of sex, marital status, or race forbidden.

725.01 Promise to pay another's debt, etc.—No action shall be brought whereby to charge any executor or administrator upon any special promise to answer or pay any debt or damages out of his own estate, or whereby to charge the defendant upon any special promise to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another person or to charge any person upon any agreement made upon consideration of marriage, or upon any contract for the sale of lands, tenements or hereditaments, or of any uncertain interest in or concerning them, or for any lease thereof for a period longer than 1 year, or upon any agreement that is not to be performed within the space of 1 year from the making thereof, or whereby to charge any health care provider upon any guarantee, warranty, or assurance as to the results of any medical, surgical, or diagnostic procedure performed by any physician licensed under chapter 458, osteopath licensed under chapter 459, chiropractor licensed under chapter 460, podiatrist licensed under chapter 461, or dentist licensed under chapter 466, unless the agreement or promise upon which such action shall be brought, or some note or memorandum thereof shall be in writing and signed by the party to be charged therewith or by some other person by him thereunto lawfully authorized.

History.—s. 10, Nov. 15, 1828; RS 1995; GS 2517; RGS 3872; CGL 5779; s. 10, ch. 75-9.

725.03 Newspaper subscription.—No person shall be liable to pay for any newspaper, periodical or other like matter, unless he shall subscribe for or order the same in writing.

History.—s. 1, ch. 379, 1851; RS 1997; GS 2519; RGS 3874; CGL 5781.

725.04 Voluntary payment; pleading.—When a suit is instituted by a party to a contract to recover a payment made pursuant to the contract and by the terms of the contract there was no enforceable obligation to make the payment or the making of the payment was excused, the defense of voluntary payment may not be interposed by the person receiving payment to defeat recovery of the payment.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 21902, 1943; s. 1, ch. 29737, 1955; s. 41, ch. 67-254.
Note.—Former s. 52.24.

725.05 Satisfaction for less than amount due.—When the amount of any debt or obligation is liquidated, the parties may satisfy the debt by a written instrument other than by endorsement on a check for less than the full amount due.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-94.

725.06 Construction contracts; limitation on indemnification.—Any portion of any agreement or contract for, or in connection with, any construction, alteration, repair, or demolition of a building, structure, appurtenance, or appliance, including moving and excavating connected with it, or any guarantee of, or in connection with, any of them, between an owner of real property and an architect, engineer, general contractor, subcontractor, sub-subcontractor, or materialman, or between any combination thereof, wherein any party referred to herein obtains indemnification from liability for damages to persons or property caused in whole or in part by any act, omission, or default of that party arising from the contract or its performance shall be void and unenforceable unless:

(1) The contract contains a monetary limitation on the extent of the indemnification and shall be a part of the project specifications or bid documents, if any, or

(2) The person indemnified by the contract gives a specific consideration to the indemnitor for the indemnification that shall be provided for in his contract and section of the project specifications or bid documents, if any.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-52.
Note.—Former s. 768.085.

725.07 Discrimination on basis of sex, marital status, or race forbidden.—

(1) No person, as defined in s. 1.01(3) shall discriminate against any person based on sex, marital status, or race in the areas of loaning money, granting credit, or providing equal pay for equal services performed.

(2) Any violation of this section may be brought in the courts of this state by the individual upon whom the discrimination has been perpetrated in a civil action, and said individual shall be entitled to collect, not only compensatory damages, but, in addition thereto, punitive damages and reasonable attorney fees for a violation of this section.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 73-251.

CHAPTER 726

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES, SALES, AND LOANS

- 726.01 Fraudulent conveyances void.
 726.07 Fraudulent conveyance void against subsequent purchasers.
 726.08 Conveyances with power of revocation void against subsequent purchasers.
 726.09 Fraudulent loans void.
 726.10 Watches, used; sales regulated.

726.01 Fraudulent conveyances void.—Every feoffment, gift, grant, alienation, bargain, sale, conveyance, transfer and assignment of lands, tenements, hereditaments, and of goods and chattels, or any of them, or any lease, rent, use, common or other profit, benefit or charge whatever out of lands, tenements, hereditaments or goods and chattels, or any of them, by writing or otherwise, and every bond, note, contract, suit, judgment and execution which shall at any time hereafter be had, made or executed, contrived or devised of fraud, covin, collusion or guile, to the end, purpose or intent to delay, hinder or defraud creditors or others of their just and lawful actions, suits, debts, accounts, damages, demands, penalties or forfeitures, shall be from henceforth as against the person or persons, or bodies politic or corporate, his, her or their successors, executors, administrators and assigns, and every one of them so intended to be delayed, hindered or defrauded, deemed, held, adjudged and taken to be utterly void, frustrate and of none effect, any pretense, color, feigned consideration, expressing of use or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that this section, or anything therein contained, shall not extend to any estate or interest in lands, tenements, hereditaments, leases, rents, uses, commons, profits, goods or chattels which shall be had, made, conveyed or assured if such estate shall be, upon good consideration and bona fide, lawfully conveyed or assured to any person or persons, or body politic or corporate, not having at the time of such conveyance or assurance to them made any manner of notice or knowledge of such covin, fraud or collusion as aforesaid, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

726.07 Fraudulent conveyance void against subsequent purchasers.—Every feoffment, deed, conveyance, mortgage, grant, charge, lease, transfer, assignment, estate, encumbrance, interest, and limitation of use or uses of, in or out of any lands, tenements or other hereditaments whatsoever, which shall at any time hereafter be had, made, executed or contrived for the intent and purpose of defrauding and deceiving such person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, as shall afterward purchase the same lands, tenements and hereditaments, or any part thereof, or any estate, interest, rent, property, right or commodity, in, to or out of the same, or any part thereof, so formerly conveyed, granted, leased, charged, transferred, assigned, encumbered or limited in use, shall be deemed, adjudged, taken and held as against the person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns, and against all and every person and persons lawfully having or claiming by, from, through or under them, or any of them who shall have so purchased for money or other good consideration the same lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any part thereof, or any estate, right, interest, profit, benefit or commodity, in, to or out of the same, to be utterly void, frustrate and of none effect, any pretense, feigned consideration or expressing of use or uses to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that nothing in this section contained shall extend or be construed to impeach, make void or frustrate any conveyance, assignment or lease, assurance, grant, charge, lease, estate, interest or limitation, or use or uses of, in, to or out of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, which shall be made upon and for good consideration and bona fide, to any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

726.08 Conveyances with power of revocation void against subsequent purchasers.—If any person or persons shall make any conveyance, gift, grant, demise, charge, limitation of use or uses, or assurance of, in or out of any lands, tenements or hereditaments, with any clause, provision, article or condition of revocation, determination or alteration at his, her or their will or pleasure, of such conveyance, gift, assurance, grant, demise, charge, limitation of use or uses contained in the same, or in any other writing whatever of, in or out of the said lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any part and parcel of them, and after such conveyance, grant, gift, demise, charge, limitation of uses or assurance so made or had, shall or do bargain, sell, demise, grant, convey, transfer or charge the same lands, tenements or hereditaments, or any part or parcel thereof, or any estate, right or interest in the same to any other person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, for money or other good consideration (the said first conveyance, assurance, gift, grant, demise, charge or limitation not being revoked, made void or altered according to the power and authority reserved or expressed in and by the said first conveyance or other writing), then the said former conveyance, assurance, grant, demise, charge or limitations, as touching the said lands, tenements and hereditaments and estate, right or interest in the same so afterward bargained, sold, granted, conveyed, demised, transferred or charged, as against the said bargainees, vendees, grantees, lessees and every of them, their heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns, and as against all and every person and persons who shall or may lawfully claim by, through, from or under them, or any of them, shall be deemed, taken and adjudged to be void and of none effect.

History.—s. 3, Jan. 28, 1823; RS 1993; GS 2515; RGS 3870; CGL 5777.

726.09 Fraudulent loans void.—When any loan of goods and chattels shall be pretended to have been made to any person with whom or those claiming under him, possession shall have remained for the space of 2 years without demand and pursued by due process of law on the part of the pretended lender, or where any reservation or limitation shall be pretended to have been made of a use or property by way of condition, reversion, remainder or otherwise in goods and chattels, and the possession thereof shall have remained in another as aforesaid, the same shall be taken, as to the creditors and purchasers of the persons aforesaid so remaining in possession, to be fraudulent within this chapter, and the absolute property shall be with the possession, unless such loan, reservation or limitation of use or property were declared by will or deed in writing proved and recorded.

(1) The purpose of this law is to identify all watches other than new, with a label or designation of "used" in order to safeguard the public from being misled in purchasing used, rebuilt or reconditioned watches as new.

(2) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation engaged in the business of buying or selling watches, or any agent or servant thereof, who shall sell or exchange, or offer for sale or exchange, expose for sale or exchange, possess with the intent to sell or exchange, or display with the intent to sell or exchange any used watch, shall affix and keep affixed to the same a tag with the word "used" clearly and legibly written or printed thereon, and the said tag shall be so placed that the word "used" shall be in plain sight at all times.

(3) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation engaged in the business of buying or selling watches, or any agent or servant thereof, who shall sell a used watch or in any other way pass title thereto shall deliver to the vendee a written invoice bearing the words "used watch" in bold letters larger than any of the other written matter upon said invoice. Said invoice shall further set forth the name and address of the vendor, the name and address of the vendee, the date of the sale, the name of the watch or its maker, and the serial numbers, if any, and any other distinguishing numbers or identification marks upon its case and movement. If the serial numbers or other distinguishing numbers or identification marks shall have been erased, defaced, removed, altered or covered, said invoice shall so state.

The vendor shall keep on file a duplicate of said invoice for at least 2 years from the date of the sale thereof, which shall be open to inspection during all business hours by the sheriff or any prosecuting officer of the county in which the vendor is engaged in business.

(4) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation, or any agent or servant thereof, who may advertise or display in any manner a used watch for sale or exchange shall state clearly in such advertisement or display that said watch is a used watch.

(5) A watch shall be deemed to be used if:

(a) It as a whole or the case thereof or the movement thereof has been previously sold to or acquired by any person who bought or acquired the same for his use or the use of another, but not for resale; provided, however, that a watch which has been so sold or acquired and is thereafter returned either through an exchange or for credit to the original individual, firm, partnership, association or corporation who sold or passed title to such watch within 10 days after the sale or acquisition thereof, shall not be deemed to be a used watch for the purpose of this section, if such vendor shall keep a written or printed record setting forth the name of the purchaser thereof, the date of the sale or transfer thereof and the serial number, if any, on the case and the movement, and any other distinguishing numbers or identification marks, which said record shall be kept for at least 2 years from the date of such sale or transfer and shall be open for inspection during all business hours by the sheriff or any prosecuting officer of the county in which such vendor is engaged in business; or,

(b) Its case serial numbers or movement numbers or other distinguishing numbers or identification marks shall be erased, defaced, removed, altered or covered; or,

(c) Its movement is more than 5 years old and has been repaired by any person or persons, including the vendor. Cleaning and oiling a watch movement or recasing the movement in a new case shall not be deemed a watch repair for the purpose of this section.

(6) Any person, firm, partnership, association or corporation, or any agent or servant thereof, who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 22040, 1943; s. 689, ch. 71-136.

GENERAL ASSIGNMENTS

- 727.01 To be in writing and to contain no preferences.
- 727.02 Oath of assignor.
- 727.03 Record of assignment and oath.
- 727.04 Qualifications of assignee.
- 727.05 Notice of assignment.
- 727.06 Disposition of property.
- 727.07 Semiannual statements.
- 727.08 Application for discharge of assignee.

727.01 To be in writing and to contain no preferences.—No assignment made for the benefit of creditors shall be valid in this state, except the same shall be made in writing and shall provide for an equal distribution of all the assignor's real and personal property, except such as is exempted by law from forced sale, among the several creditors of the said assignor in equal proportion to their respective demands.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2307; GS 2926; RGS 4666; CGL 6752.

727.02 Oath of assignor.—The said assignor shall make and subscribe an oath in writing before any officer authorized to administer oaths in the county in which he lives and does business, or of the county or counties wherein is situated the property assigned, not more than 10 days after the assignment, that he has placed or assigned, and that the true intention of his assignment was to place in the hands of his assignee all of his property of every description, except such as is exempt by law from forced sale, to be divided among the creditors in proportion to their respective demands.

History.—s. 2, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2308; GS 2927; RGS 4667; CGL 6753.

727.03 Record of assignment and oath.—Both the said deed of assignment and oath of assignor shall be recorded in the office or offices of the clerk or clerks of the county or counties in which the property assigned is situated.

History.—s. 3, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2309; GS 2928; RGS 4668; CGL 6754.

727.04 Qualifications of assignee.—No one shall be selected and appointed as assignee by the assignor, in such assignment, who does not give bond to be approved by the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein the assignor lives or does business, or of the county wherein is situated the property assigned, payable to the governor of Florida, in double the value of the property assigned, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties devolved on him as such assignee, said bond to be filed in the office aforesaid, immediately upon the assignee's taking possession of the assigned property.

History.—s. 4, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2310; GS 2929; RGS 4669; CGL 6755.

727.05 Notice of assignment.—Said assignee immediately upon taking possession of the assigned property shall give notice by publication in a newspaper, published in the county where the assigned property is situated or wherein a portion of the same is, once a week for 4 consecutive weeks, to all the creditors of the assignor, of the fact of the assignment, and calling upon said creditors to file with him within 60 days, if such creditors reside in the state, or if beyond the limits of the state, within 4 months, sworn statements of their claims against said assignor, and he shall send by mail a copy of the newspaper containing said notice to each of the said creditors, as far as he may know them.

727.06 Disposition of property.—The said assignee shall, as soon as the foregoing provisions have been complied with, proceed to dispose of all the property mentioned in the deed of assignment to him, to the best interest of all the parties concerned, either at public or private sale, as to him may seem best, and to collect and to recover by law, or otherwise, all debts due the assignor in the same manner as said assignor might or could do in his own right if such assignment had not been made, and for this purpose said assignee may employ an attorney to prosecute such claims.

History.—s. 7, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2312; GS 2931; RGS 4671; CGL 6757.

727.07 Semiannual statements.—Semiannually, as long as shall be necessary after his appointment, said assignee shall file his sworn statement in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, of all his doings and financial transactions as said assignee.

History.—s. 8, ch. 3891, 1889; RS 2313; GS 2932; RGS 4672; CGL 6758.

727.08 Application for discharge of assignee.—After the final statement of the assignee of all the matters pertaining to his position, he may, after publication for 30 days in a newspaper in the county where he published his notice mentioned in s. 727.05, apply by petition to the judge of the circuit court of said circuit for his letters of discharge as said assignee, and if the said circuit judge shall be satisfied that the said assignee has complied with his duties as such assignee, he shall then grant him such letters as prayed for.

PART III NOTICE AND REPRESENTATION (ss. 731.301-731.303)

PART I

SHORT TITLE, CONSTRUCTION

- 731.005 Short title.
- 731.011 Determination of substantive rights; procedures.
- 731.102 Construction against implied repeal.
- 731.103 Evidence as to death or status.
- 731.104 Verification of documents.
- 731.105 In rem proceeding.
- 731.106 Assets of nondomiciliaries.
- 731.107 Adversary proceedings.
- 731.109 Seal of the court.
- 731.110 Caveat; proceedings.
- 731.111 Notice to creditors.

731.005 Short title.—Chapters 731-735 shall be known and may be cited as the Florida Probate Code and herein referred to as "the code" in this act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 1, ch. 75-220.

731.011 Determination of substantive rights; procedures.—The Florida Probate Code shall become effective on January 1, 1976. The substantive rights of all persons that have vested prior to January 1, 1976, shall be determined as provided in former chapters 731-737 and chapters 744-746 as they exist prior to January 1, 1976. The procedures for the enforcement of substantive rights that have vested before January 1, 1976, shall be as provided in this code.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-106; ss. 2, 113, ch. 75-220.

731.102 Construction against implied repeal.—This code is intended as unified coverage of its subject matter. No part of it shall be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if that construction can reasonably be avoided.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 2, ch. 75-220.

731.103 Evidence as to death or status.—In proceedings under this code, the rules of evidence in civil actions are applicable unless specifically changed by the code. The following additional rules relating to determination of death and status are applicable:

(1) An authenticated copy of a death certificate issued by an official or agency of the place where the death purportedly occurred is prima facie proof of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent.

(2) A copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that a person is alive, missing, detained, or, from the facts related, presumed dead is prima facie evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report.

(3) A person who is absent from the place of his last known domicile for a continuous period of 5 years and whose absence is not satisfactorily explained after diligent search and inquiry is presumed to be dead. His death is presumed to have occurred at the end of the period unless there is evidence establishing that death occurred earlier.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 2, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.34.

731.104 Verification of documents.—When verification of a document is required in this code or by rule, the document filed shall include an oath or affirmation or the following statement: "Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true, to the best of my knowledge and belief." Any person who shall willfully include a false statement in the document shall be guilty of perjury and upon conviction shall be punished accordingly.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 2, ch. 75-220.

731.105 In rem proceeding.—Probate proceedings are in rem proceedings.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-220.

(1) For purposes of aiding the determination concerning location of assets that may be relevant in cases involving nondomiciliaries, a debt in favor of a nondomiciliary, other than one evidenced by investment or commercial paper or other instrument, is located in the county where the debtor resides or, if the debtor is a person other than an individual, at the place where the debtor has its principal office. Commercial paper, investment paper, and other instruments are located where the instrument is at the time of death.

(2) When a nonresident decedent who is a citizen of the United States or a citizen or subject of a foreign country provides in his will that the testamentary disposition of his tangible or intangible personal property having a situs within this state, or of his real property in this state, shall be construed and regulated by the laws of this state, the validity and effect of the dispositions shall be determined by Florida law. The court may, and in the case of a decedent who was at the time of his death a resident of a foreign country the court shall, direct the personal representative appointed in this state to make distribution directly to those designated by the decedent's will as beneficiaries of the tangible or intangible property or to the persons entitled to receive the decedent's personal estate under the laws of the decedent's domicile, as the case may be.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

731.107 Adversary proceedings.—The rules of civil procedure shall be applied in any adversary proceeding in probate.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-220.

731.109 Seal of the court.—For the purposes of this code, the seal of the clerk of the circuit court is the seal of the court.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-220.

731.110 Caveat; proceedings.—

(1) If any creditor of the estate of a decedent is apprehensive that an estate, either testate or intestate, will be administered without his knowledge, or if any person other than a creditor is apprehensive that an estate may be administered, or that a will may be admitted to probate, without his knowledge, he may file a caveat with the court.

(2) No caveat shall be effective unless it contains a statement of the interest of the caveator in the estate, the name and specific residence address of the caveator, and, if the caveator, other than a state agency, is a nonresident of the county, the additional name and specific residence address of some person residing in the county, designated as the agent of the caveator, upon whom service may be made.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-220; s. 2, ch. 77-87.

731.111 Notice to creditors.—

(1) When a notice to creditors is required, a personal representative shall publish a notice once a week for 2 consecutive weeks, two publications being sufficient, in a newspaper published in the county where the estate is administered or, if there is no newspaper published in the county, in a newspaper of general circulation in that county. Proof of publication shall be filed. The notice shall notify all persons having claims or demands against the estate to file their claims with the clerk within 3 calendar months from the time of the first publication of the notice.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Department of Revenue shall not be barred from filing a claim against the estate of a decedent for taxes due under chapter 199 after the expiration of the 3-month period, provided the department files its claim within 30 days after the filing of the inventory by the personal representative.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 79-68.

PART II*DEFINITIONS*731.201 General definitions.

731.201 General definitions.—Subject to additional definitions in subsequent chapters that are applicable to specific chapters or parts, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this code and chapters 737, 738, and 744:

(1) "Authenticated," when referring to copies of documents or judicial proceedings required to be filed with the court under this code, shall mean a certified copy or a copy authenticated according to s. 1733 or s. 1741, Title 28, U.S.C.

(2) "Beneficiary" means heir at law, in an intestate estate; devisee, in a testate estate; and the owner of a beneficial interest, in a trust. The term does not apply to an heir at law, devisee, or owner of a beneficial interest in a trust after his interest in the estate or trust has been satisfied.

(3) "Child" includes a person entitled to take as a child under this code by intestate succession from the parent whose relationship is involved, and excludes any person who is only a stepchild, a foster child, a grandchild, or a more remote descendant.

(4) "Claims" means liabilities of the decedent, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, and funeral expenses. The term does not include expenses of administration or estate, inheritance, succession, or other death taxes.

(5) "Clerk" means the clerk or deputy clerk of the court.

(6) "Court" means the circuit court.

(7) "Curator" means a person appointed by the court to take charge of the estate of a decedent until letters are issued.

(8) "Devise," when used as a noun, means a testamentary disposition of real or personal property and, when used as a verb, means to dispose of real or personal property by will. The term includes "gift," "give," "bequeath," "bequest," and "legacy."

(9) "Devisee" means a person designated in a will to receive a devise. In the case of a devise to an existing trust or trustee, or to a trustee of a trust described by will, the trust or trustee is the devisee. The beneficiaries of the trust are not devisees.

(10) "Distributee" means a person who has received estate property from a personal representative other than as a creditor or purchaser. A testamentary trustee is a distributee only to the extent of distributed assets or increments to them remaining in his hands. A beneficiary of a testamentary trust to whom the trustee has distributed property received from a personal representative is a distributee. For purposes of this provision, "testamentary trustee" includes a trustee to whom assets are transferred by will, to the extent of the devised assets.

(11) "Domicile" shall be a person's usual place of dwelling and shall be synonymous with "residence."

(12) "Estate" means property of a decedent that is the subject of administration.

(13) "Exempt property" means the property of a decedent's estate which is described in s. 732.402.

(14) "File" means to file with the court or clerk.

(15) "Foreign personal representative" means a personal representative of another state or a foreign country.

(16) "Formal notice" means notice under subsection 731.301(1).

(17) "Grantor" means one who creates or adds to a trust and includes "settlor" or "trustor" and a testator who creates or adds to a trust.

(18) "Heirs" or "heirs at law" means those persons, including the surviving spouse, who are entitled under the statutes of intestate succession to the property of a decedent.

(19) "Incompetent" means a minor or a person adjudicated incompetent.

(20) "Informal notice" or "notice" means notice under subsection 731.301(2).

(21) "Interested person" means any person who may reasonably be expected to be affected by the outcome of the particular proceeding involved. In any proceeding affecting the estate or the rights of a beneficiary in the estate, the personal representative of the estate shall be deemed to be an interested person. The term does not include an heir at law or a devisee who has received his distribution. The meaning, as it relates to particular persons, may vary from time to time and must be determined according to the particular purpose of, and matter involved in, any proceedings.

(22) "Letters" means authority granted by the court to the personal representative to act on behalf of the estate of the decedent and refers to what has been known as letters testamentary and letters of administration. All letters shall be designated "letters of administration."

(23) "Other state" means any state of the United States other than Florida and includes the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any territory or possession subject to the legislative authority of the United States.

(24) "Parent" excludes any person who is only a stepparent, foster parent, or grandparent.

(25) "Personal representative" means the fiduciary appointed by the court to administer the estate and refers to what has been known as an administrator, administrator cum testamento annexo, administrator de bonis non, ancillary administrator, ancillary executor, or executor.

(26) "Petition" means a written request to the court for an order.

(27) "Probate of will" means all steps necessary to establish the validity of a will and to admit a will to probate.

(28) "Property" means both real and personal property or any interest in it and anything that may be the subject of ownership.

(29) "Residence" means a person's usual place of dwelling and is synonymous with "domicile."

(30) "Security" means a security as defined in s. 517.02(1).

(31) "Security interest" means a security interest as defined in s. 671.201.

(32) "Trust" means an express trust, private or charitable, with additions to it, wherever and however created. It also includes a trust created or determined by a judgment or decree under which the trust is to be administered in the manner of an express trust. "Trust" excludes other constructive trusts, and it excludes resulting trusts; conservatorships; personal representatives; custodial arrangements pursuant to the Florida Gifts to Minors Act; business trusts providing for certificates to be issued to beneficiaries; common trust funds; land trusts under s. 689.05; trusts created by the form of the account or by the deposit agreement at a financial institution; voting trusts; security arrangements; liquidation trusts; trusts for the primary purpose of paying debts, dividends, interest, salaries, wages, profits, pensions, or employee benefits of any kind; and any arrangement under which a person is nominee or escrowee for another.

(33) "Trustee" includes an original, additional, surviving, or successor trustee, whether or not appointed or confirmed by court.

(34) "Will" means an instrument, including a codicil, executed by a person in the manner prescribed by this code, which disposes of his property on or after his death and includes an instrument which merely appoints a personal representative or revokes or revises another will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 4, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.03.

PART III

NOTICE AND REPRESENTATION

731.301 Notice; method and time; proof.

731.302 Waiver and consent by interested person.

731.303 Representation.

(1) FORMAL NOTICE.—

(a) When formal notice of a petition or other proceeding is required, the petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition to any interested person or his attorney, if he has appeared by attorney or requested that notice be sent to his attorney. The petition shall be served:

1. By any form of mail requiring a signed receipt, as follows:

a. On his attorney of record, if any, or to the post office address given in his demand for notice, if any;

b. On an individual, other than an incompetent, by mailing a copy to his dwelling house or usual place of abode or to the place where he regularly conducts his business or profession;

c. On an incompetent person, by mailing a copy to the incompetent, to the person having custody of the incompetent, and to any legal guardian of the incompetent, at their respective dwelling houses, usual places of abode, or regular places of business or profession;

d. On a corporation, by mailing a copy to the corporation at its last known address; or

2. As provided in chapter 48; or

3. In the circumstances provided in chapter 49, in the manner provided therein.

(b) If there is no answer served on the petitioner within 20 days from the service of the petition, the petition shall be considered ex parte. If an answer is served, a hearing shall be set and reasonable notice given.

(c) If service is made under subparagraph 2. or subparagraph 3., proof shall be made as provided in chapter 48 or chapter 49. If service is made by mail under subparagraph 1., proof shall be by a verified statement of the person mailing service who shall attach the signed receipt or other evidence satisfactory to the court that delivery was made to, or refused by, the addressee or his agent.

(d) Formal notice shall be sufficient to acquire jurisdiction over the person receiving formal notice to the extent of the person's interest in the estate.

(2) INFORMAL NOTICE.—

(a) When informal notice of a petition or other proceeding is required or permitted, it shall be served on the person or his attorney as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure relating to service of pleadings.

(b) Proof of service shall be made by filing an attorney's certificate of service or, if filed by a person who is not a member of The Florida Bar, by a verified statement.

(3) EFFECT OF NOTICE.—Persons given notice of any petition shall be bound by all orders entered on the petition.

(4) INFORMAL NOTICE REQUIRED.—Unless otherwise specifically provided, informal notice of every petition affecting property rights or interests must be given to interested persons.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 5, ch. 75-220; s. 3, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.28.

731.302 Waiver and consent by interested person.—Unless this code specifically provides otherwise, an interested person, including a guardian ad litem, administrator ad litem, guardian of the property, personal representative, trustee, or other fiduciary, or a sole holder or all coholders of a power of revocation or a power of appointment, may waive any right or notice, and may consent to any action or proceeding which may be required or permitted by this code.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 6, ch. 75-220; s. 4, ch. 77-87; s. 267, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.28.

731.303 Representation.—In proceedings involving estates of decedents or trusts, the following apply:

(1) Interests to be affected shall be described in pleadings that give information by name or class, by reference to the instrument creating the interests, or in another appropriate manner.

(2) Persons are bound by orders binding others in the following cases:

(a) Orders binding the sole holder or all coholders of a power of revocation or a general power of appointment, including one in the form of a power of amendment, bind other persons to the extent that their interests (as objects, takers in default, or otherwise) are subject to the power.

(b) To the extent there is no conflict of interest between them or among the persons represented:

1. Orders binding a guardian of the property bind the ward whose estate he controls.

2. Orders binding a trustee bind beneficiaries of the trust in proceedings to probate a will, in establishing or adding to a trust, in reviewing the acts or accounts of a prior fiduciary, and in proceedings involving creditors or other third parties.

3. Orders binding a personal representative bind persons interested in the undistributed assets of a decedent's estate, in actions or proceedings by or against the estate.

(c) An unborn or unascertained person who is not otherwise represented is bound by an order to the extent that his interest is represented by another party having the same or greater quality of interest in the proceeding.

(3) Orders binding a guardian of the person shall not bind the ward.

(4) Notice is required as follows:

(a) Notice as prescribed by s. 731.301 shall be given to every interested person, or to one who can bind the interested person as described in paragraphs (2)(a) or (2)(b). Notice may be given both to the interested person and to another who can bind him.

(b) Notice is given to unborn or unascertained persons who are not represented pursuant to paragraphs (2)(a) or (2)(b) by giving notice to all known persons whose interests in the proceedings are the same as, or of a greater quality than, those of the unborn or unascertained persons.

(5) If the court determines that representation of the interest would otherwise be inadequate, the court may, at any time, appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of an incompetent person, an unborn or unascertained person, or a person whose identity or address is unknown. If not precluded by conflict of interest, a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-220; s. 5, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

PART I

INTESTATE SUCCESSION

- 732.101 Intestate estate.
- 732.102 Share of spouse.
- 732.103 Share of other heirs.
- 732.104 Inheritance per stirpes.
- 732.105 Halfblood.
- 732.106 Afterborn heirs.
- 732.107 Escheat.
- 732.108 Adopted persons and persons born out of wedlock.
- 732.109 Debts to decedent.
- 732.1101 Aliens.
- 732.111 Dower and curtesy abolished.

732.101 Intestate estate.—

(1) Any part of the estate of a decedent not effectively disposed of by will passes to the decedent's heirs as prescribed in the following sections of this code.

(2) The decedent's death is the event that vests the heirs' right to intestate property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.23.

732.102 Share of spouse.—

(1) The intestate share of the surviving spouse is:

(a) If there is no surviving lineal descendant of the decedent, the entire intestate estate.

(b) If there are surviving lineal descendants of the decedent, all of whom are lineal descendants of the surviving spouse also, the first $20,000 of the intestate estate, plus one-half of the balance of the intestate estate. Property allocated hereunder to the surviving spouse to satisfy the $20,000 shall be valued at the fair market value on the date of the decedent's death.

(c) If there are surviving lineal descendants, one or more of whom are not lineal descendants of the surviving spouse, one-half of the intestate estate.

(2) The court shall allot the property to which the spouse is entitled, treating all beneficiaries equitably.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.23.

732.103 Share of other heirs.—The part of the intestate estate not passing to the surviving spouse under s. 732.102, or the entire intestate estate if there is no surviving spouse, descends as follows:

(1) To the lineal descendants of the decedent.

(2) If there is no lineal descendant, to the decedent's father and mother equally, or to the survivor of them.

(3) If there is none of the foregoing, to the decedent's brothers and sisters and the descendants of deceased brothers and sisters.

(4) If there is none of the foregoing, the estate shall be divided, one-half of which shall go to the decedent's paternal, and the other half to the decedent's maternal, kindred in the following order:

(a) To the grandfather and grandmother equally, or to the survivor of them.

(b) If there is no grandfather or grandmother, to uncles and aunts and descendants of deceased uncles and aunts of the decedent.

(c) If there is no paternal kindred or if there is no maternal kindred, the estate shall go to such of the kindred as shall survive in the order aforesaid.

(5) If there is no kindred of either part, the whole of such property shall go to the kindred of the last deceased spouse of the decedent as if the deceased spouse had survived the decedent and then died intestate entitled to the estate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.23.

732.104 Inheritance per stirpes.—Descent shall be per stirpes, whether to lineal descendants or to collateral heirs.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 9, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.25.

732.105 Halfblood.—When property descends to the collateral kindred of the intestate and part of the collateral kindred are of the whole blood to the intestate and the other part of the halfblood, those of the halfblood shall inherit only half as much as those of the whole blood; but if all are of the halfblood they shall have whole parts.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 10, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.24.

732.106 Afterborn heirs.—Heirs of the decedent conceived before his death, but born thereafter, inherit intestate property as if they had been born in the decedent's lifetime.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 10, ch. 75-220; s. 6, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.11.

732.107 Escheat.—

(1) When a person leaving an estate dies without being survived by any person entitled to it, the property shall escheat to the state.

(2)(a) In this event, or when doubt exists about the existence of any person entitled to the estate, the personal representative shall institute a proceeding for the determination of beneficiaries, as provided in this code, within 1 year after letters have been issued to him, and notice shall be served on the Department of Legal Affairs. If the personal representative fails to institute the proceeding within the time fixed, it may be instituted by the Department of Legal Affairs.

(b) On or before January 15 of each year, each court shall furnish to the department a list of all estates being administered in which no person appears to be entitled to the property and the personal representative has not instituted a proceeding for the determination of beneficiaries.

(3) If the court determines that there is no person entitled to the estate and that the estate escheats, the property shall be sold and the proceeds paid to the Treasurer of the state and deposited by him in the State School Fund within a reasonable time to be fixed by the court.

(4) At any time within 10 years after the granting of letters, a person claiming to be entitled to the estate of the decedent may petition to reopen the administration and assert his rights to escheated property. If the claimant is entitled to any of the estate of the decedent, the court shall fix the amount to which he is entitled, and it shall be repaid to him with interest at the legal rate by the officials charged with the disbursement of state school funds. If no claim is asserted within the time fixed, the title of the state to the property and the proceeds shall become absolute.

(5) The Department of Legal Affairs shall represent the state in all proceedings concerning escheated estates.

(6) Except as herein provided, escheated estates shall be administered as other estates.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 10, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.33.

732.108 Adopted persons and persons born out of wedlock.—

(1) For the purpose of intestate succession by or from an adopted person, the adopted person is a lineal descendant of the adopting parent and is one of the natural kindred of all members of the adopting parent's family, and he is not a lineal descendant of his natural parents, nor is he one of the kindred of any member of his natural parent's family or any prior adoptive parent's family, except that:

(a) Adoption of a child by the spouse of a natural parent has no effect on the relationship between the child and the natural parent or the natural parent's family.

(b) Adoption of a child by a natural parent's spouse who married the natural parent after the death of the other natural parent has no effect on the relationship between the child and the family of the deceased natural parent.

(2) For the purpose of intestate succession in cases not covered by subsection (1), a person born out of wedlock is a lineal descendant of his mother and is one of the natural kindred of all members of the mother's family. The person is also a lineal descendant of his father and is one of the natural kindred of all members of the father's family, if:

(a) The natural parents participated in a marriage ceremony before or after the birth of the person born out of wedlock, even though the attempted marriage is void.

(b) The paternity of the father is established by an adjudication before or after the death of the father.

(c) The paternity of the father is acknowledged in writing by the father.

Note.—Created from former ss. 731.29, 731.30.

732.109 Debts to decedent.—A debt owed to the decedent shall not be charged against the intestate share of any person except the debtor. If the debtor does not survive the decedent, the debt shall not be taken into account in computing the intestate share of the debtor's heirs.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 11, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 736.01.

732.1101 Aliens.—No person is disqualified to take as an heir because he, or a person through whom he claims, is, or has been, an alien.

PART II

ELECTIVE SHARE OF SURVIVING SPOUSE

- 732.201 Right to elective share.
- 732.205 Elective share; restricted to Florida resident decedent.
- 732.206 Property entering into computation.
- 732.207 Amount of the elective share.
- 732.208 Interests in addition to elective share.
- 732.209 From what assets payable.
- 732.210 By whom exercisable.
- 732.211 Effect of exercise on testamentary or statutory disposition.
- 732.212 Time of election.
- 732.213 Preexisting right to dower.
- 732.214 Proceedings on the election.
- 732.215 Effect of elective share on taxes.

732.201 Right to elective share.—The surviving spouse of a person who dies domiciled in Florida shall have the right to a share of the estate of the deceased spouse as provided in this part, to be designated the elective share.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 13, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.34.

732.205 Elective share; restricted to Florida resident decedent.—No elective share in Florida property of a decedent not domiciled in Florida shall exist.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220; s. 8, ch. 77-87.

732.206 Property entering into computation.—The elective share shall be computed by taking into account all property of the decedent wherever located that is subject to administration except real property not located in Florida.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

732.207 Amount of the elective share.—The elective share shall consist of an amount equal to 30 percent of the fair market value on the date of death of all assets referred to in s. 732.206, computed after deducting from the total value of the assets all valid claims against the estate paid or payable from the estate.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

732.208 Interests in addition to elective share.—The elective share shall be in addition to exempt property and allowances as provided in part IV.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

732.209 From what assets payable.—

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the will of the decedent, the elective share shall be paid from assets passing under the will which, but for the election, would have passed outright to the surviving spouse and then, to the extent such assets are insufficient, from assets in the order prescribed in s. 733.805.

(2) If property must otherwise be sold to provide the elective share, the person who would otherwise have been entitled to the property may pay the amount assessed against the property interest to the personal representative and receive the property.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

732.210 By whom exercisable.—The right of election may be exercised:

- (1) By the surviving spouse.
- (2) By a guardian of the property of the surviving spouse. The court having jurisdiction of the probate proceeding shall determine the election as the best interests of the surviving spouse require.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

732.211 Effect of exercise on testamentary or statutory disposition.—If an election is filed, the remaining assets of the estate after payment of the elective share shall be distributed as though the surviving spouse had predeceased the decedent.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

732.212 Time of election.—The election shall be filed within 4 months from the date of the first publication of notice of administration, but, if a proceeding occurs involving the construction, admission to probate, or validity of the will or on any other matter affecting the estate whereby the complete extent of the estate subject to the elective share may be in doubt, the surviving spouse shall have 40 days from the date of termination of all the proceedings in which to elect.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

732.213 Preexisting right to dower.—Whether or not her husband's estate is administered, dower of the widow of any man who died before October 1, 1973, shall be barred in any real property conveyed by her husband before his death and without her relinquishment of dower unless within 3 years after her husband's death she records with the clerk for the county where the real property is located an instrument executed by her describing the property in a manner sufficient to give constructive notice if contained in a recorded deed. The instrument shall name the record owner or owners of the property, state the date of the husband's death and his place of residence at the time of his death, and indicate that she has elected to take dower or that she may elect to do so. Nothing in this section shall extend the time for election, dispense with the necessity of filing an election in the court where the deceased husband's estate is being, or will be, administered, or dispense with the necessity of petitions for assignment of dower as formerly provided for in ss. 733.10 and 733.11. No dower shall be barred because of this section if the instrument was filed for record before January 1, 1973.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 14, 15, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former ss. 731.35 and 732.203.
cf.—s. 732.111 Dower and curtesy abolished.

732.214 Proceedings on the election.—On petition of the personal representative or the surviving spouse and after notice and hearing, the court shall determine the amount of the elective share and order its payment in cash or in kind within a time certain from the assets of the estate subject to the elective share. No distribution shall be required until 6 months from the date of death, when no federal estate tax return is required to be filed, or until the tax return is timely filed, when required. The order may provide for partial distributions. On petition of any interested party after notice, the court may suspend distribution of the elective share or any part of it until final settlement of the federal estate tax liability of the estate. Assets distributed in kind shall be distributed at fair market value on the date of distribution.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

732.215 Effect of elective share on taxes.—In any case in which the election of the elective share by the surviving spouse shall have the effect of increasing any estate, inheritance, or other death tax, the share of the surviving spouse shall bear the additional tax.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-220.

PART III

PRETERMITTED SPOUSE AND CHILDREN

732.301 Pretermitted spouse.

732.302 Pretermitted children.

732.301 Pretermitted spouse.—When a person marries after making a will and the spouse survives the testator, the surviving spouse shall receive a share in the estate of the testator equal in value to that which the surviving spouse would have received if the testator had died intestate, unless:

- (1) Provision has been made for, or waived by, the spouse by prenuptial or postnuptial agreement;
- (2) The spouse is provided for in the will; or
- (3) The will discloses an intention not to make provision for the spouse.

The share of the estate that is assigned to the pretermitted spouse shall be obtained in accordance with s. 733.805.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 16, ch. 75-220; s. 9, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.10.

732.302 Pretermitted children.—When a testator omits to provide in his will for any of his children born or adopted after making the will and the child has not received a part of the testator's property equivalent to a child's part by way of advancement, the child shall receive a share of the estate equal in value to that he would have received if the testator had died intestate, unless:

- (1) It appears from the will that the omission was intentional; or
- (2) The testator had one or more children when the will was executed and devised substantially all his estate to the other parent of the pretermitted child.

The share of the estate that is assigned to the pretermitted child shall be obtained in accordance with s. 733.805.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 16, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.11.

PART IV

EXEMPT PROPERTY AND ALLOWANCES

732.401 Descent of homestead.

732.4015 Devise of homestead.

732.402 Exempt property.

732.403 Family allowance.

732.401 Descent of homestead.—

(1) If not devised as permitted by law and the Florida Constitution, the homestead shall descend in the same manner as other intestate property; but if the decedent is survived by a spouse and lineal descendants, the surviving spouse shall take a life estate in the homestead, with a vested remainder to the lineal descendants in being at the time of the decedent's death.

(2) If the decedent was domiciled in Florida and resided on real property that the decedent and the surviving spouse owned as tenants by the entirety, the real property shall not be homestead property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 17, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.27.

732.4015 Devise of homestead.—As provided by the Florida Constitution, the homestead shall not be subject to devise if the owner is survived by a spouse or minor child, except that the homestead may be devised to the owner's spouse if there is no minor child.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 18, 30, ch. 75-220.
cf.—s. 4, Art. X, State Constitution.

732.402 Exempt property.—In addition to the homestead property passing under the law and the State Constitution, and to the family allowance under s. 732.403, the surviving spouse of a decedent who was domiciled in Florida at the time of his death is entitled, subject to any perfected security interest, to automobiles and household furniture, furnishings, and appliances in the decedent's usual place of abode, up to a net value of $5,000. In addition, the surviving spouse is entitled to personal effects of the decedent up to a net value of $1,000, unless the personal effects are otherwise specifically disposed of by will. If there is no surviving spouse, minor children of the decedent are entitled jointly to the same exemptions. Rights to exempt property have priority over all claims against the estate other than a perfected security interest in any item of exempt property. These rights are in addition to any benefit or share passing to the surviving spouse or minor children by the will of the decedent, unless such will provides otherwise, or by intestate succession or elective share.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 19, ch. 75-220; s. 10, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 734.08.
cf.—s. 222.16 Wages and unemployment compensation not subject to administration.

732.403 Family allowance.—In addition to homestead and exempt property, if the decedent was domiciled in Florida at the time of his death, the surviving spouse and the decedent's lineal heirs whom the decedent was obligated to support or who were in fact being supported by him are entitled to a reasonable allowance in money out of the estate for their maintenance during administration. After notice and hearing, the court may order this allowance to be paid as a lump sum or in periodic installments. The allowance shall not exceed a total of $6,000. It shall be paid to the surviving spouse, if living, for the use of the spouse and dependent lineal heirs. If the surviving spouse is not living, it shall be paid to the lineal heirs or to the persons having their care and custody. If any lineal heir is not living with the surviving spouse, the allowance may be made partly to the lineal heir or his guardian or other person having his care and custody and partly to the surviving spouse, as the needs of the dependent lineal heir and the surviving spouse appear. The family allowance shall have the priority established by s. 733.707. The family allowance is not chargeable against any benefit or share passing to the surviving spouse or to the dependent lineal heirs by intestate succession, elective share, or the will of the decedent, unless the will otherwise provides. The death of any person entitled to a family allowance terminates his right to the part of the allowance not paid. For purposes of this section, the term "lineal heir" or "lineal heirs" means lineal ascendants and lineal descendants of the decedent.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 19, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 733.20.

PART V WILLS

- 732.501 Who may make a will.
- 732.502 Execution of wills.
- 732.503 Self-proof of will.
- 732.504 Who may witness.
- 732.505 Revocation by writing.
- 732.506 Revocation by act.
- 732.507 Effect of subsequent marriage, birth, or dissolution of marriage.
- 732.508 Revival by revocation.
- 732.509 Revocation of codicil.
- 732.5105 Republication of wills by codicil.
- 732.511 Republication of wills by reexecution.
- 732.512 Incorporation by reference.
- 732.513 Devises to trustee.
- 732.514 Vesting of devises.
- 732.515 Separate writing identifying devises of tangible property.
- 732.5165 Effect of fraud, duress, mistake, and undue influence.
- 732.517 Penalty clause for contest.

732.501 Who may make a will.—Any person 18 or more years of age who is of sound mind may make a will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.04.

732.502 Execution of wills.—Every will must be in writing and executed as follows:

(1)(a) Testator's signature.—

1. The testator must sign the will at the end; or
2. The testator's name must be subscribed at the end of the will by some other person in the testator's presence and by his direction.

(b) Witnesses.—The testator's:

1. Signing, or
2. Acknowledgment:
  - a. That he has previously signed the will, or
  - b. That another person has subscribed the testator's name to it, must be in the presence of at least two attesting witnesses.

(c) Witnesses' signatures.—The attesting witnesses must sign the will in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other.

(2) Any will, other than a holographic or nuncupative will, executed by a nonresident of Florida, either before or after this law takes effect, is valid as a will in this state if valid under the laws of the state or country where the testator was at the time of execution. A will in the testator's handwriting that has been executed in accordance with subsection (1) shall not be considered a holographic will.

(3) No particular form of words is necessary to the validity of a will if it is executed with the formalities required by law.

(4) A codicil shall be executed with the same formalities as a will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 21, ch. 75-220; s. 11, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.07.

732.503 Self-proof of will.—A will or codicil executed in conformity with subsections 732.502(1) and (2) may be made self-proved at the time of its execution or at any subsequent date by the acknowledgment of it by the testator and the affidavits of the witnesses, each made before an officer authorized to administer oaths and evidenced by the officer's certificate attached to or following the will, in substantially the following form:

State of .....

County of .....

We, ....., and ..... the testator and the witnesses, respectively, whose names are signed to the attached or foregoing instrument, having been sworn, declared to the undersigned officer that the testator, in the presence of witnesses, signed the instrument as his last will (codicil), that he (signed) (or directed another to sign for him), and that each of the witnesses, in the presence of the testator and in the presence of each other, signed the will as a witness.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 21, ch. 75-220; s. 12, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 731.071.

732.504 Who may witness.—

- (1) Any person competent to be a witness may act as a witness to a will.
- (2) A will or codicil, or any part of either, is not invalid because the will or codicil is signed by an interested witness.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 22, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 268, ch. 79-400.

732.505 Revocation by writing.—A will or codicil, or any part of either, is revoked:

(1) By a subsequent inconsistent will or codicil, even though the subsequent inconsistent will or codicil does not expressly revoke all previous wills or codicils, but the revocation extends only so far as the inconsistency exists.

(2) By a subsequent written will, codicil, or other writing declaring the revocation, if the same formalities required for the execution of wills are observed in the execution of the will, codicil, or other writing.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 23, ch. 75-220; s. 13, ch. 77-87; s. 269, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Created from former ss. 731.12, 731.13.

732.506 Revocation by act.—A will or codicil is revoked by the testator, or some other person in his presence and at his direction, by burning, tearing, canceling, defacing, obliterating, or destroying it with the intent, and for the purpose, of revocation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 23, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.14.

732.507 Effect of subsequent marriage, birth, or dissolution of marriage.—

(1) Neither subsequent marriage nor subsequent marriage and birth or adoption of lineal descendants shall revoke the prior will of any person, but the pretermitted child or spouse shall inherit as set forth in ss. 732.301 and 732.302, regardless of the prior will.

(2) All wills made by husband and wife whose marriage has been subsequently dissolved or who become divorced shall become void by means of the dissolution of marriage or divorce as the will affects the surviving divorced spouse.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former ss. 731.10, 731.101, 731.11.

732.508 Revival by revocation.—

(1) The revocation by the testator of a will that revokes a former will shall not revive the former will, even though the former will is in existence at the date of the revocation of the subsequent will.

(2) The revocation of a codicil to a will does not revoke the will, and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, it shall be presumed that in revoking the codicil the testator intended to reinstate the provisions of a will or codicil that were changed or revoked by the revoked codicil, as if the revoked codicil had never been executed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 25, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.15.

732.509 Revocation of codicil.—The revocation of a will revokes all codicils to that will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.16.

732.5105 Republication of wills by codicil.—The execution of a codicil referring to a previous will has the effect of republishing the will as modified by the codicil.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.17.

732.511 Republication of wills by reexecution.—If a will has been revoked or if it is invalid for any other reason, it may be republished and made valid by its reexecution or the execution of a codicil republishing it with the formalities required by this law for the execution of wills.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.18.

732.512 Incorporation by reference.—

(1) A writing in existence when a will is executed may be incorporated by reference if the language of the will manifests this intent and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification.

(2) A will may dispose of property by reference to acts and events which have significance apart from their effect upon the dispositions made by the will, whether they occur before or after the execution of the will or before or after the testator's death. The execution or revocation of a will or trust by another person is such an event.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 27, ch. 75-220.

732.513 Devises to trustee.—

(1) A valid devise may be made to the trustee of a trust that is evidenced by a written instrument in existence at the time of making the will, or by a written instrument subscribed concurrently with making of the will, if the written instrument is identified in the will.

(2) The devise shall not be invalid for any or all of the following reasons:

(a) Because the trust is amendable or revocable, or both, by any person.

(b) Because the trust has been amended or revoked in part after execution of the will or a codicil to it.

(c) Because the trust instrument or any amendment to it was not executed in the manner required for wills.

(d) Because the only res of the trust is the possible expectancy of receiving, as a named beneficiary, death benefits as described in s. 733.808, and even though the testator or other person has reserved any or all rights of ownership in such death benefit policy, contract, or plan, including the right to change the beneficiary.

(e) Because of any of the provisions of s. 689.075.

(3) The devise shall dispose of property under the terms of the instrument that created the trust as theretofore or thereafter amended.

(4) An entire revocation of the trust by an instrument in writing before the testator's death shall invalidate the devise or bequest.

(5) Unless the will provides otherwise, the property devised shall not be held under a testamentary trust of the testator but shall become a part of the principal of the trust to which it is devised.

(6) This section shall be cumulative to all laws touching upon the subject matter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 3, ch. 75-74; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.17.

732.514 Vesting of devises.—The death of the testator is the event that vests the right to devise unless the testator in his will has provided that some other event must happen before a devise shall vest.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 28, 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former ss. 731.21 and 733.102.

732.515 Separate writing identifying devisees of tangible property.—A will may refer to a written statement or list to dispose of items of tangible personal property not otherwise specifically disposed of by the will, other than money and property used in trade or business. To be admissible under this section as evidence of the intended disposition, the writing must be signed by the testator and must describe the items and the devisees with reasonable certainty. The writing may be referred to as one in existence at the time of the testator's death. It may be prepared before or after the execution of the will. It may be altered by the testator after its preparation. It may be a writing that has no significance apart from its effect upon the dispositions made by the will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 29, ch. 75-220.

732.5165 Effect of fraud, duress, mistake, and undue influence.—A will is void if the execution is procured by fraud, duress, mistake, or undue influence. Any part of the will is void if so procured, but the remainder of the will not so procured shall be valid if it is not invalid for other reasons.

History.—s. 31, ch. 75-220.

732.517 Penalty clause for contest.—A provision in a will purporting to penalize any interested person for contesting the will or instituting other proceedings relating to the estate is unenforceable.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

- 732.6005 Rules of construction and intention.
- 732.601 Simultaneous Death Law.
- 732.603 Antilapse; deceased devisee; class gifts.
- 732.604 Failure of testamentary provision.
- 732.605 Change in securities; accessions; nonademption.
- 732.606 Nonademption of specific devisees in certain cases; sale by guardian of the property; unpaid proceeds of sale, condemnation, or insurance.
- 732.607 Exercise of power of appointment.
- 732.608 Construction of generic terms.
- 732.609 Ademption by satisfaction.
- 732.611 Devises to be per stirpes.

732.6005 Rules of construction and intention.—

(1) The intention of the testator as expressed in his will controls the legal effect of his dispositions. The rules of construction expressed in this part shall apply unless a contrary intention is indicated by the will.

(2) Subject to the foregoing, a will is construed to pass all property which the testator owns at his death, including property acquired after the execution of the will.

732.601 Simultaneous Death Law.—

(1) When title to property or its devolution depends on priority of death and there is insufficient evidence that the persons have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property of each person shall be disposed of as if he had survived, except as provided otherwise in this law.

(2) When two or more beneficiaries are designated to take successively by reason of survivorship under another person's disposition of property and there is insufficient evidence that the beneficiaries died otherwise than simultaneously, the property thus disposed of shall be divided into as many equal parts as there are successive beneficiaries and the parts shall be distributed to those who would have taken if each designated beneficiary had survived.

(3) When there is insufficient evidence that two joint tenants or tenants by the entirety died otherwise than simultaneously, the property so held shall be distributed one-half as if one had survived and one-half as if the other had survived. If there are more than two joint tenants and all of them so died, the property thus distributed shall be in the proportion that one bears to the whole number of joint tenants.

(4) When the insured and the beneficiary in a policy of life or accident insurance have died and there is insufficient evidence that they died otherwise than simultaneously, the proceeds of the policy shall be distributed as if the insured had survived the beneficiary.

(5) This law shall not apply in the case of wills, living trusts, deeds, or contracts of insurance in which provision has been made for distribution of property different from the provisions of this law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 34, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.05.

732.603 Antilapse; deceased devisee; class gifts.—Unless a contrary intention appears in the will:

(1) If a devisee who is a grandparent, or a lineal descendant of a grandparent, of the testator:

- (a) Is dead at the time of the execution of the will,
- (b) Fails to survive the testator, or
- (c) Is required by the will to be treated as if he predeceased the testator, then the descendants of the devisee take per stirpes in place of the deceased devisee. A person who would have been a devisee under a class gift if he had survived the testator shall be a devisee for purposes of this section whether his death occurred before or after the execution of the will.

(2) If a devisee who is not a grandparent, or a descendant of a grandparent, of the testator:

- (a) Is dead at the time of the execution of the will,
- (b) Fails to survive the testator, or
- (c) Is required by the will to be treated as if he predeceased the testator, then the testamentary disposition to the devisee shall lapse unless an intention to substitute another in his place appears in the will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 36, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.20.

732.604 Failure of testamentary provision.—

(1) Except as provided in s. 732.603, if a devise other than a residuary devise fails for any reason, it becomes a part of the residue.

(2) Except as provided in s. 732.603, if the residue is devised to two or more persons and the share of one of the residuary devisees fails for any reason, his share passes to the other residuary devisee, or to the other residuary devisees in proportion to their interests in the residue.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

732.605 Change in securities; accessions; nonademption.—

(1) If the testator intended a specific devise of certain securities rather than their equivalent value, the specific devisee is entitled only to:

(a) As much of the devised securities as is a part of the estate at the time of the testator's death.

(b) Any additional or other securities of the same entity owned by the testator because of action initiated by the entity, excluding any acquired by exercise of purchase options.

(c) Securities of another entity owned by the testator as a result of a merger, consolidation, reorganization, or other similar action initiated by the entity.

(2) Distributions before death of a specifically devised security not provided for in subsection (1) are not part of the specific devise.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

732.606 Nonademption of specific devises in certain cases; sale by guardian of the property; unpaid proceeds of sale, condemnation, or insurance.—

(1) If specifically devised property is sold by a guardian of the property for the care and maintenance of the ward or if a condemnation award or insurance proceeds are paid to a guardian of the property as a result of condemnation, fire, or casualty, the specific devisee has the right to a general pecuniary devise equal to the net sale price, the condemnation award, or the insurance proceeds. This subsection does not apply if, subsequent to the sale, condemnation, or casualty, it is adjudicated that the disability of the testator has ceased and the testator survives the adjudication by 1 year. The right of the specific devisee under this subsection is reduced by any right he has under subsection (2).

(2) A specific devisee has the right to the remaining specifically devised property and:

(a) Any balance of the purchase price owing from a purchaser to the testator at death because of sale of the property plus any security interest.

(b) Any amount of a condemnation award for the taking of the property unpaid at death.

(c) Any proceeds unpaid at death on fire or casualty insurance on the property.

(d) Property owned by the testator at his death as a result of foreclosure, or obtained instead of foreclosure, of the security for the specifically devised obligation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 38, ch. 75-220.

732.607 Exercise of power of appointment.—

A general residuary clause in a will, or a will making general disposition of all the testator's property, does not exercise a power of appointment held by the testator unless specific reference is made to the power or there is some other indication of intent to include the property subject to the power.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 38, ch. 75-220.

732.608 Construction of generic terms.—

Adopted persons and persons born out of wedlock are included in class gift terminology and terms of relationship, in accordance with rules for determining relationships for purposes of intestate succession.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 38, ch. 75-220.

732.609 Ademption by satisfaction.—

Property that a testator gave to a person in the testator's lifetime is treated as a satisfaction of a devise to that person, in whole or in part, only if the will provides for deduction of the lifetime gift, the testator declares in a contemporaneous writing that the gift is to be deducted from the devise or is in satisfaction of the devise, or the devisee acknowledges in writing that the gift is in satisfaction. For purposes of part satisfaction, property given during the testator's lifetime is valued at the time the devisee came into possession or enjoyment of the property or at the time of the death of the testator, whichever occurs first.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 38, ch. 75-220.

732.611 Devises to be per stirpes.—

Unless the will provides otherwise, all devises shall be per stirpes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 38, ch. 75-220.

PART VII

CONTRACTUAL ARRANGEMENTS RELATING TO DEATH

732.701 Agreements concerning succession.

732.702 Waiver of right to elect and of other rights.

732.701 Agreements concerning succession.—

(1) No agreement to make a will, to give a devise, not to revoke a will, not to revoke a devise, not to make a will, or not to make a devise shall be binding or enforceable unless the agreement is in writing and signed by the agreeing party in the presence of two attesting witnesses.

(2) The execution of a joint will or mutual wills neither creates a presumption of a contract to make a will nor creates a presumption of a contract not to revoke the will or wills.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 39, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.051.

732.702 Waiver of right to elect and of other rights.—

(1) The right of election of a surviving spouse, the rights of the surviving spouse as intestate successor or as a pretermitted spouse, and the rights of the surviving spouse to homestead, exempt property, and family allowance, or any of them, may be waived, wholly or partly, before or after marriage, by a written contract, agreement, or waiver, signed by the waiving party. Unless it provides to the contrary, a waiver of "all rights," or equivalent language, in the property or estate of a present or prospective spouse, or a complete property settlement entered into after, or in anticipation of, separation, dissolution of marriage, or divorce, is a waiver of all rights to elective share, intestate share, pretermitted share, homestead property, exempt property, and family allowance by each spouse in the property of the other and a renunciation by each of all benefits that would otherwise pass to either from the other by intestate succession or by the provisions of any will executed before the waiver or property settlement.

(2) Each spouse shall make a fair disclosure to the other of his or her estate if the agreement, contract, or waiver is executed after marriage. No disclosure shall be required for an agreement, contract, or waiver executed before marriage.

(3) No consideration other than the execution of the agreement, contract, or waiver shall be necessary to its validity, whether executed before or after marriage.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 39, ch. 75-220; s. 14, ch. 77-87.

PART VIII*GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 732.801 Disclaimer of interests in property passing by will or intestate succession or under certain powers of appointment.
- 732.802 Murderer.
- 732.803 Charitable devises.
- 732.804 Provisions relating to cremation.

732.801 Disclaimer of interests in property passing by will or intestate succession or under certain powers of appointment.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

(a) "Beneficiary" means a person who would succeed to an interest in property in any manner described in subsection (2).

(b) "Decedent" means the person by whom an interest in property was created or from whom it would have been received by a beneficiary.

(c) "Power of appointment" means any power described in subparagraph (d)3.

(d) An "interest in property" that may be disclaimed shall include:

1. The whole of any property, real or personal, legal or equitable, present or future interest, or any fractional part, share, or portion of property or specific assets thereof.

2. Any estate in the property.

3. Any power to appoint, consume, apply, or expend property, or any other right, power, privilege, or immunity relating to it.

(2) SCOPE OF RIGHT TO DISCLAIM.—

(a) A beneficiary may disclaim his succession to any interest in property that, unless disclaimed, would pass to the beneficiary:

1. By intestate succession or devise.

2. Under descent of homestead, exempt property, or family allowance or under s. 222.13.

3. Through exercise or nonexercise of a power of appointment exercisable by will.

4. Through testamentary exercise or nonexercise of a power of appointment exercisable by either deed or will.

5. As beneficiary of a testamentary trust.

6. As a beneficiary of a testamentary gift to any nontestamentary trust.

7. As donee of a power of appointment created by will.

8. By succession in any manner described in this subsection to a disclaimed interest.

9. In any manner not specifically enumerated herein under a testamentary instrument.

(b) Disclaimer may be made for a minor, incompetent, incapacitated person, or deceased beneficiary by the guardian or personal representative if the court having jurisdiction of the estate of the minor, incompetent, incapacitated person, or deceased beneficiary finds that the disclaimer:

1. Is in the best interests of those interested in the estate of the beneficiary and of those who take the beneficiary's interest by virtue of the disclaimer and

2. Is not detrimental to the best interests of the beneficiary.

The determination shall be made on a petition filed for that purpose and served on all interested persons. If ordered by the court, the guardian or personal representative shall execute and record the disclaimer on behalf of the beneficiary within the time and in the manner in which the beneficiary could disclaim if he were living, of legal age, and competent.

(3) DISPOSITION OF DISCLAIMED INTERESTS.—

(a) Unless the decedent or a donee of a power of appointment has otherwise provided by will or other appropriate instrument with reference to the possibility of a disclaimer by the beneficiary, the interest disclaimed shall descend, be distributed, or otherwise be disposed of in the same manner as if the disclaimant had died immediately preceding the death or other event that caused him to become finally ascertained as a beneficiary and his interest to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity. The disclaimer shall relate to that date for all purposes, whether recorded before or after the death or other event. An interest in property disclaimed shall never vest in the disclaimant. If the provisions of s. 732.603 would have been applicable had the disclaimant in fact died immediately preceding the death or other event, they shall be applicable to the disclaimed interest.

(b) Unless his disclaimer instrument so provides, a beneficiary who disclaims any interest that would pass to him in any manner described in subsection (2) shall not be excluded from sharing in any other interest to which he may be entitled in any manner described in the subsection, including subparagraph (2)(a)8., even though the interest includes disclaimed assets by virtue of the beneficiary's disclaimer.

(4) FORM, FILING, RECORDING, AND SERVICE OF DISCLAIMER INSTRUMENTS.—

(a) To be a disclaimer, a writing shall declare the disclaimer and its extent, describe the interest in property disclaimed, and be signed, witnessed, and acknowledged in the manner provided for the conveyance of real property.

(b) A disclaimer shall be effective and irrevocable when the instrument is recorded by the clerk where the estate of the decedent is or has been administered. If no administration has been commenced, recording may be made with the clerk of any county where venue of administration is proper.

(c) The person disclaiming shall deliver or mail a copy of the disclaimer instrument to the personal representative, trustee, or other person having legal title to, or possession of, the property in which the disclaimed interest exists. No representative, trustee, or other person shall be liable for any otherwise proper distribution or other disposition made without actual notice of the disclaimer or, if the disclaimer is waived or barred as hereinafter provided, for any otherwise proper distribution or other disposition made in reliance on the disclaimer, if the distribution or disposition is made without actual notice of the facts constituting the waiver or barring the right to disclaim.

(5) TIME FOR RECORDING DISCLAIMER.—A disclaimer shall be recorded at any time after the creation of the interest, but in any event within 9 months after the event giving rise to the right to disclaim, including the death of the decedent; or, if the disclaimant is not finally ascertained as a beneficiary or his interest has not become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity at the death of the decedent, then the disclaimer shall be recorded not later than 6 months after the event that would cause him to become finally ascertained and his interest to become indefeasibly fixed both in quality and quantity. However, a disclaimer may be recorded at any time after the creation of the interest, upon the written consent of all interested parties as provided in section 731.302.

(6) WAIVER OR BAR TO RIGHT TO DISCLAIMER.—

(a) The right to disclaim otherwise conferred by this section shall be barred if the beneficiary is insolvent at the time of the event giving rise to the right to disclaim and also by:

1. Making a voluntary assignment or transfer of, a contract to assign or transfer, or an encumbrance of, an interest in real or personal property.

2. Giving a written waiver of the right to disclaim the succession to an interest in real or personal property.

3. Making any sale or other disposition of an interest in real or personal property pursuant to judicial process by the beneficiary before he has recorded a disclaimer.

(b) The acceptance, assignment, transfer, encumbrance, or written waiver of the right to disclaim a part of an interest in property, or the sale pursuant to judicial process of a part of an interest in property, shall not bar the right to disclaim any other part of the interest in property.

(7) EFFECT OF RESTRAINTS.—The right to disclaim granted by this section shall exist irrespective of any limitation imposed on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of an express or implied spendthrift provision or similar restriction.

(8) RIGHT TO DISCLAIM UNDER OTHER LAW NOT ABRIDGED.—This law shall not abridge the right of any person to disclaim, renounce, alienate, release, or otherwise transfer or dispose of any interest in property under any other existing or future law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 40, ch. 75-220; s. 15, ch. 77-87.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.37.

732.802 Murderer.—A person convicted of the murder of a decedent shall not be entitled to inherit from the decedent or to take any part of his estate as a devisee. The part of the decedent's estate to which the murderer would otherwise be entitled shall pass to the persons entitled to it as though the murderer had died during the lifetime of the decedent.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.31.

732.803 Charitable devises.—

(1) If a testator dies leaving lineal descendants or a spouse and his will devises part or all of the testator's estate:

(a) To a benevolent, charitable, educational, literary, scientific, religious, or missionary institution, corporation, association, or purpose,

(b) To this state, any other state or country, or a county, city, or town in this or any other state or country, or

(c) To a person in trust for any such purpose or beneficiary, whether or not the trust appears on the face of the instrument making the devise, the devise shall be avoided in its entirety if one or more of the lineal descendants or a spouse who would receive any interest in the devise, if avoided, files written notice to this effect in the administration proceeding within 4 months after the date letters are issued, unless:

(d) The will was duly executed at least 6 months before the testator's death, or

(e) The testator made a valid charitable devise in substantially the same amount for the same purpose or to the same beneficiary, or to a person in trust for the same purpose or beneficiary, as was made in the last will or by a will or a series of wills duly executed immediately next to the last will, one of which was executed more than 6 months before the testator's death.

(2) The testator's making of a codicil that does not substantially change a charitable devise as herein defined within the 6-month period before the testator's death shall not render the charitable gift voidable under this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 42, ch. 75-220; s. 16, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 731.19.

732.804 Provisions relating to cremation.—The fact that cremation occurred pursuant to a provision of a will or any written contract signed by the decedent in which he expressed his intent that his body be cremated is a complete defense to a cause of action against the personal representative or person providing the services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 43, ch. 75-220.

PART IX

PRODUCTION OF WILLS

732.901 Production of wills.

732.901 Production of wills.—

(1) The custodian of a will must deposit the will with the clerk of the court having venue of the estate of the decedent within 10 days after receiving information that the testator is dead. Willful failure to do so shall render the custodian responsible for all costs and damages sustained by anyone if the court finds that the custodian had no just or reasonable cause for withholding the deposit of the will.

(2) By petition and notice of it served on him, the custodian of any will may be compelled to produce and deposit the will as provided in subsection (1). All costs, damages, and a reasonable attorney's fee shall be adjudged to petitioner against the delinquent custodian if the court finds that the custodian had no just or reasonable cause for withholding the deposit of the will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 44, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.22.

PART X

ANATOMICAL GIFTS

- 732.910 Legislative declaration.
- 732.911 Definitions.
- 732.912 Persons who may make an anatomical gift.
- 732.913 Persons who may become donees; purposes for which anatomical gifts may be made.
- 732.914 Manner of executing anatomical gifts.
- 732.915 Delivery of document.
- 732.916 Amendment or revocation of the gift.
- 732.917 Rights and duties at death.
- 732.918 Eye banks.
- 732.9185 Corneal removal by medical examiners.
- 732.919 Enucleation of eyes by licensed funeral directors.
- 732.921 Plastic pouches and uniform organ donor cards provided with driver's license; issuance, reissuance, or renewal.

732.910 Legislative declaration.—Because of the rapid medical progress in the fields of tissue and organ preservation, transplantation of tissue, and tissue culture, and because it is in the public interest to aid the development of this field of medicine, the Legislature in enacting this part intends to encourage and aid the development of reconstructive medicine and surgery and the development of medical research by facilitating premortem and postmortem authorizations for donations of tissue and organs. It is the purpose of this part to regulate only the gift of a body or parts of a body to be made after the death of a donor.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.21.

732.911 Definitions.—For the purpose of this part:

(1) "Bank" or "storage facility" means a facility licensed, accredited, or approved under the laws of any state for storage of human bodies or parts thereof.

(2) "Donor" means an individual who makes a gift of all or part of his body.

(3) "Hospital" means a hospital licensed, accredited, or approved under the laws of any state and includes a hospital operated by the United States Government or a state, or a subdivision thereof, although not required to be licensed under state laws.

(4) "Physician" or "surgeon" means a physician or surgeon licensed to practice under chapter 458 or chapter 459 or similar laws of any state. "Surgeon" includes dental or oral surgeon.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.22.

732.912 Persons who may make an anatomical gift.—

(1) Any person who may make a will may give all or part of his body for any purpose specified in s. 732.910, the gift to take effect upon death.

(2) In the order of priority stated and in the absence of actual notice of contrary indications by the decedent or actual notice of opposition by a member of the same or a prior class, any of the following persons may give all or any part of the decedent's body for any purpose specified in s. 732.910:

- (a) The spouse;
- (b) An adult son or daughter;
- (c) Either parent;
- (d) An adult brother or sister; or
- (e) A guardian of the person of the decedent at the time of his death;

but no gift shall be made by the spouse if any adult son or daughter objects.

(3) If the donee has actual notice of contrary indications by the decedent or objection of an adult son or daughter or that a gift by a member of a class is opposed by a member of the same or a prior class, the donee shall not accept the gift.

(4) The persons authorized by subsection (2) may make the gift after death or immediately before death.

(5) A gift of all or part of a body authorizes any examination necessary to assure medical acceptability of the gift for the purposes intended.

(6) The rights of the donee created by the gift are paramount to the rights of others, except as provided by s. 732.917.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 45, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.23.

732.913 Persons who may become donees; purposes for which anatomical gifts may be made.—The following persons may become donees of gifts of bodies or parts of them for the purposes stated:

(1) Any hospital, surgeon, or physician for medical or dental education or research, advancement of medical or dental science, therapy, or transplantation.

(2) Any accredited medical or dental school, college, or university for education, research, advancement of medical or dental science, or therapy.

(3) Any bank or storage facility for medical or dental education, research, advancement of medical or dental science, therapy, or transplantation.

(4) Any specified individual for therapy or transplantation needed by him.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 45, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 736.24.

732.914 Manner of executing anatomical gifts.—

(1) A gift of all or part of the body under subsection 732.912(1) may be made by will. The gift becomes effective upon the death of the testator without waiting for probate. If the will is not probated or if it is declared invalid for testamentary purposes, the gift is nevertheless valid to the extent that it has been acted upon in good faith.

(2)(a) A gift of all or part of the body under subsection 732.912(1) may also be made by a document other than a will. The gift becomes effective upon the death of the donor. The document must be signed by the donor in the presence of two witnesses who shall sign the document in his presence. It may be a card designed to be carried on the person. If the donor cannot sign, the document may be signed for him at his direction and in his presence and the presence of two witnesses who must sign the document in his presence. Delivery of the document of gift during the donor's lifetime is not necessary to make the gift valid.

(b) The following form of written instrument shall be sufficient for any person to give all or part of his body for the purposes of this part:

UNIFORM DONOR CARD

The undersigned hereby makes this anatomical gift, if medically acceptable, to take effect on death. The words and marks below indicate my desires:
I give:

(a) _____ any needed organs or parts;
(b) _____ only the following organs or parts

[Specify the organ(s) or part(s)]

for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, medical research, or education;

(c) _____ my body for anatomical study if needed. Limitations or special wishes, if any:

[If applicable, list specific donee]

Signed by the donor and the following witnesses in the presence of each other:

(Signature of donor)	(Date of birth of donor)
(Date signed)	(City and State)
(Witness)	(Witness)
(Address)	(Address)

(3) The gift may be made to a specified donee or without specifying a donee. In the latter case, the gift may be accepted by the attending physician as donee upon or following the donor's death. If the gift is made to a specified donee who is not available at the time and place of death, the attending physician may accept the gift as donee upon or following death in the absence of any expressed indication that the donor desired otherwise. The physician who becomes a donee under this subsection shall not participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection 732.917(2), the donor may designate in his will or other document of gift the surgeon or physician to carry out the appropriate procedures. In the absence of a designation or if the designee is not available, the donee or other person authorized to accept the gift may employ or authorize any surgeon or physician for the purpose.

(5) Any gift by a person designated in subsection 732.912(2) shall be made by a document signed by him or made by his telegraphic, recorded telephonic, or other recorded message.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 45, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 736.25.

732.915 Delivery of document.—If the gift is made by the donor to a specified donee, the document, other than a will, may be delivered to the donee to expedite the appropriate procedures immediately after death, but delivery is not necessary to the validity of the gift. The document may be deposited in any hospital, bank, storage facility, or registry office that accepts such documents for safekeeping or for facilitation of procedures after death. On request of any interested party upon or after the donor's death, the person in possession shall produce the document for examination.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 45, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 736.26.

732.916 Amendment or revocation of the gift.—

(1) If the will or other document has been delivered to a specified donee, the donor may amend or revoke the gift by:

(a) The execution and delivery to the donee of a signed statement.

(b) An oral statement made in the presence of two persons and communicated to the donee.

(c) A statement during a terminal illness or injury addressed to an attending physician and communicated to the donee.

(d) A signed document found on his person or in his effects.

(2) A document of gift that has not been delivered to the donee may be revoked by the donor in the manner set out in subsection (1) or by destruction, cancellation, or mutilation of the document.

(3) Any gift made by a will may also be amended or revoked in the manner provided for amendment or revocation of wills or as provided in subsection (1).

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 113, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 736.27.

732.917 Rights and duties at death.—

(1) The donee may accept or reject the gift. If the donee accepts a gift of the entire body or a part of the body to be used for scientific purposes other than a transplant, he may authorize embalming and the use of the body in funeral services, subject to the terms of the gift. If the gift is of a part of the body, the donee shall cause the part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation upon the death of the donor and before or after embalming. After removal of the part, custody of the remainder of the body vests in the surviving spouse, next of kin, or other persons under obligation to dispose of the body.

(2) The time of death shall be determined by a physician who attends the donor at his death or, if there is no such physician, the physician who certifies the death. This physician shall not participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part.

(3) A person who acts in good faith and without negligence in accord with the terms of this part or under the anatomical gift laws of another state or a foreign country is not liable for damages in any civil action or subject to prosecution for his acts in any criminal proceeding.

(4) The provisions of this part are subject to the laws of this state prescribing powers and duties with respect to autopsies.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 45, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.28.

732.918 Eye banks.—

(1) Any state, county, district, or other public hospital may purchase and provide the necessary facilities and equipment to establish and maintain an eye bank for restoration of sight purposes.

(2) The Department of Education may have prepared, printed, and distributed:

(a) A form document of gift for a gift of the eyes.

(b) An eye bank register consisting of the names of persons who have executed documents for the gift of their eyes.

(c) Wallet cards reciting the document of gift.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 45, ch. 75-220; s. 462, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.29.

732.9185 Corneal removal by medical examiners.—

(1) In any case in which a patient is in need of corneal tissue for a transplant, a district medical examiner or an appropriately qualified designee with training in ophthalmologic techniques may, upon request of any eye bank authorized under s. 732.918, provide the cornea of a decedent whenever all of the following conditions are met:

(a) A decedent who may provide a suitable cornea for the transplant is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner and an autopsy is required in accordance with s. 406.11.

(b) No objection by the next of kin of the decedent is known by the medical examiner.

(c) The removal of the cornea will not interfere with the subsequent course of an investigation or autopsy.

(2) Neither the district medical examiner nor his appropriately qualified designee nor any eye bank authorized under s. 732.918 may be held liable in any civil or criminal action for failure to obtain consent of the next of kin.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-172; s. 1, ch. 78-191.

732.919 Enucleation of eyes by licensed funeral directors.—In respect to a gift of an eye as provided for in this part, a licensed funeral director as defined in chapter 470 who has completed a course in eye enucleation and has received a certificate of competence from the Department of Ophthalmology of the University of Florida School of Medicine or the University of Miami School of Medicine may enucleate eyes for gift after proper certification of death by a physician and in compliance with the intent of the gift as defined in this chapter. No properly certified funeral director acting in accordance with the terms of this part shall have any civil or criminal liability for eye enucleation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 45, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.31.

732.921 Plastic pouches and uniform organ donor cards provided with driver's license; issuance, reissuance, or renewal.—

(1) Whenever any person applies for or requests issuance, reissuance, or renewal of any driver's license, the Division of Driver Licenses, Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, may cause to be furnished to that person a form, authorized under the provisions of s. 732.914, for the gift of all or a part of the donor's body, conditioned upon the donor's death. The form may be given to the applicant by an employee of the division. The Division of Driver Licenses may furnish to any person the necessary literature and material on anatomical gifts and may provide a small pouch of plastic, vinyl, or other suitable material that can be used to conveniently enclose both the driver's license and uniform donor card. This pouch should be of a design approved by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. This program will be at no cost to the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles. The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may provide the necessary supplies, pouches, forms, and other accessories through funds appropriated from general revenue or contributions from interested voluntary, nonprofit organizations. The Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles shall incur no liability in connection with the performance of any acts authorized herein.

(2) The Division of Driver Licenses of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall cooperate in the promulgation of rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this section according to the provisions of chapter 120.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-71; s. 1, ch. 77-16; s. 463, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 733.101 Venue of probate proceedings.
- 733.103 Effect of probate.
- 733.104 Suspension of statutes of limitation in favor of the personal representative.
- 733.105 Determination of beneficiaries.
- 733.106 Costs and attorney fees.
- 733.107 Burden of proof in contests.
- 733.109 Revocation of probate.

733.101 Venue of probate proceedings.—

(1) The venue of probate of all wills and granting of letters shall be:

(a) In the county in this state where the decedent had his domicile.

(b) If the decedent had no domicile in this state, then in any county where the decedent was possessed of any property.

(c) If the decedent had no domicile in this state and possessed no property in this state, then in the county where any debtor of the decedent resides.

(2) For the purpose of this section, a married woman whose husband is an alien or a nonresident of Florida may establish or designate a separate domicile in this state.

(3) When any proceeding is filed laying venue in the wrong county, the court may transfer the action in the same manner as provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure. Any action taken by the court or the parties before the transfer is not affected because of the improper venue.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 46, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.06.

733.103 Effect of probate.—

(1) Until admitted to probate in this state or in the state where the decedent was domiciled, the will shall be ineffective to prove title to, or the right to possession of, property of the testator.

(2) In any collateral action or proceeding relating to devised property, the probate of a will in Florida shall be conclusive of its due execution; that it was executed by a competent testator, free of fraud, duress, mistake, and undue influence; and of the fact that the will was unrevoked on the testator's death.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 48, ch. 75-220; s. 17, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.26.

733.104 Suspension of statutes of limitation in favor of the personal representative.—

(1) If a person entitled to bring an action dies before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement of the action and the cause of action survives, the action may be commenced by his personal representative after the expiration and within 12 months from the date of the decedent's death.

(2) If a person against whom a cause of action exists dies before the expiration of the time limited for commencement of the action and the cause of action survives, claim shall be filed on the cause of action, and it shall then proceed as other claims against the estate, notwithstanding the expiration of the time limited for commencement of the action.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 48, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.27.

733.105 Determination of beneficiaries.—

(1) When property passes by intestate succession or under a will to a person not sufficiently identified in the will and the personal representative is in doubt about:

- (a) Who is entitled to receive it or part of it, or
- (b) The shares and amounts that any person is entitled to receive, the personal representative may file a petition setting forth the names, residences, and post-office addresses of all persons in interest, except creditors of the decedent, so far as known or ascertainable by diligent search and inquiry, and the nature of their respective interests, designating those who are believed by him to be minors or incompetents and stating whether those so designated are under legal guardianship in this state. If the personal representative believes that there are, or may be, persons whose names are not known to him who have claims against, or interest in, the estate as heirs or devisees, the petition shall so state.

(2) After formal notice and hearing, the court shall enter an order determining the heirs or devisees or the shares and amounts they are entitled to receive, or both. Any personal representative who makes distribution or takes any other action pursuant to the order shall be fully protected.

(3) When it is necessary to determine who are or were the heirs or devisees, the court may make a determination, on the petition of any interested person, in like proceedings and after formal notice, irrespective of whether the estate of the deceased person is administered or, if administered, whether the administration of the estate has been closed or the personal representative discharged. A separate civil action may be brought under this subsection when an estate is not being administered.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 48, ch. 75-220; s. 226, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 734.25.

733.106 Costs and attorney fees.—

(1) In all probate proceedings costs may be awarded as in chancery actions.

(2) A person nominated as personal representative of the last known will, or any proponent of the will if the person so nominated does not act within a reasonable time, if in good faith justified in offering the will in due form for probate, shall receive his costs and attorney fees out of the estate even though he is unsuccessful.

(3) Any attorney who has rendered services to an estate may apply for an order awarding attorney fees, and after informal notice to the personal representative and all persons bearing the impact of the payment the court shall enter its order on the petition.

(4) When costs and attorney fees are to be paid out of the estate, the court may, in its discretion, direct from what part of the estate they shall be paid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 49, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.14.

733.107 Burden of proof in contests.—In all proceedings contesting the validity of a will, the burden shall be upon the proponent of the will to establish prima facie its formal execution and attestation. Thereafter, the contestant shall have the burden of establishing the grounds on which the probate of the will is opposed or revocation sought.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 50, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.31.

733.109 Revocation of probate.—

(1) Any interested person, including a beneficiary under a prior will, except those barred under s. 733.212 or s. 733.2123, may, before final discharge of the personal representative, petition the court in which the will was admitted to probate for revocation of probate.

(a) The petition shall state the interest of the petitioner and the grounds for revocation.

(b) The petition shall be served upon the personal representative and all interested persons by formal notice, and thereafter proceedings shall be conducted as an adversary proceeding under the rules of civil procedure.

(2) Pending the determination of any petition for revocation of probate, the personal representative shall proceed with the administration of the estate as if no revocation proceeding had been commenced, except that no distribution may be made to devisees in contravention of the rights of those who, but for the will, would be entitled to the property disposed of.

(3) Revocation of probate of a will shall not affect or impair the title to the property theretofore purchased in good faith for value from the personal representative.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 50, ch. 75-220; s. 18, ch. 77-87; s. 227, ch. 77-104.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.30.

PART II

COMMENCING ADMINISTRATION

- 733.201 Proof of wills.
- 733.202 Petition.
- 733.203 Notice; when required.
- 733.204 Probate of a will written in a foreign language.
- 733.205 Probate of notarial will.
- 733.206 Probate of will of resident after foreign probate.
- 733.207 Establishment and probate of lost or destroyed will.
- 733.208 Discovery of later will.
- 733.209 Estates of missing persons.
- 733.212 Notice of administration; filing of objections and claims.
- 733.2123 Adjudication before issuance of letters.
- 733.213 Probate as prerequisite to petition for construction of will.

733.201 Proof of wills.—

(1) Self-proved wills executed in accordance with this code may be admitted to probate without further proof.

(2) A will may be admitted to probate upon the oath of any attesting witness taken before any circuit judge, commissioner appointed by the court, or clerk.

(3) If it appears to the court that the attesting witnesses cannot be found or that they have become incompetent after the execution of the will or their testimony cannot be obtained within a reasonable time, a will may be admitted to probate upon the oath of the personal representative nominated by the will as provided in subsection (2), whether or not he is interested in the estate, or of any person having no interest in the estate under the will, that he believes the writing exhibited to be the true last will of the decedent.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 51, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.24.

733.202 Petition.—

(1) A verified petition for administration may be filed by any interested person.

(2) The petition for administration shall contain:

(a) A statement of the interest of the petitioner, his name and address, and the name and office address of his attorney.

(b) The name, last known address, and date and place of death of the decedent and the state and county of the decedent's domicile.

(c) So far as is known, the names and addresses of the beneficiaries and the ages of any who are minors.

(d) A statement showing venue.

(e) The priority under part III of the person whose appointment as the personal representative is sought.

(f) A statement of the approximate value and nature of the assets so the clerk can ascertain the amount of the filing fee and the court can determine the amount of any bond authorized by this code.

(3) If the decedent was a nonresident of this state, the petition shall state whether domiciliary proceedings are pending in another state or country, if known, and, if so, the name and address of the foreign personal representative and the court issuing letters.

(4) In an intestate estate, the petition shall:

(a) State that after the exercise of reasonable diligence the petitioner is unaware of any unrevoked wills or codicils or, if the petitioner is aware of any unrevoked wills or codicils, why the wills or codicils are not being probated, or

(b) Otherwise give the facts concerning the will or codicil.

(5) In a testate estate, the petition shall:

(a) Identify all unrevoked wills and codicils being presented for probate.

(b) State that the petitioner is unaware of any other unrevoked will or codicil or, if the petitioner is aware of any other unrevoked will or codicil, why the other will or codicil is not being probated.

(c) State that the original of the decedent's last will is in the possession of the court or accompanies the petition or that an authenticated copy of a will probated in another jurisdiction accompanies the petition.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 52, ch. 75-220; s. 19, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.43.

733.203 Notice; when required.—

(1) If a caveat has been filed by an heir or a devisee under a will other than that being offered for probate, the procedure provided for in s. 733.2123 shall be followed.

(2) Except as may otherwise be provided in this part, no notice need be given of the petition for administration or of the order granting letters when it appears that the petitioner is entitled to preference of appointment. Before letters shall be granted to any person who is not entitled to preference, formal notice shall be served on all known persons qualified to act as personal representative and entitled to preference equal to or greater than the applicant, unless those entitled to preference waive it in writing.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 53, ch. 75-220; s. 20, ch. 77-87; s. 227, ch. 77-104.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.69.

733.204 Probate of a will written in a foreign language.—

(1) No will written in a foreign language shall be admitted to probate unless it is accompanied by a true and complete English translation.

(2) In admitting the will to probate, the court shall establish its correct English translation. If the original will is not or cannot be filed, a photographic copy of the original will shall be filed. At any time during the administration any interested person may have the correctness of the translation, or any part, redetermined after formal notice to all other interested persons. No personal representative who complies in good faith with the English translation of the will as may then be established by the court shall thereafter be held liable as a result of having done so.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 54, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

733.205 Probate of notarial will.—

(1) When a copy of a notarial will in the possession of a notary entitled to its custody in a foreign state or country, the laws of which state or country require that the will remain in the custody of such notary, duly authenticated by the notary, whose official position, signature, and seal of office are further authenticated by an American consul, vice consul, or other American consular officer within whose jurisdiction the notary is a resident, is presented to the court, it may be admitted to probate if the original could have been admitted to probate in this state.

(2) The duly authenticated copy shall be prima facie evidence of its purported execution and of the facts stated in the certificate in compliance with subsection (1).

(3) Any interested person notified may oppose the probate of such notarial will or may petition for revocation of probate of such notarial will, as in the case of original probate of a will in this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 55, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.37.

733.206 Probate of will of resident after foreign probate.—

(1) If a will of any person who dies a resident of this state is admitted to probate in any other state or country through inadvertence, error, or omission before probate in this state, the will may be admitted to probate in this state if the original could have been admitted to probate in this state.

(2) An authenticated copy of the will, foreign proof of the will, the foreign order of probate, and any letters issued shall be filed instead of the original will and shall be prima facie evidence of its execution and admission to foreign probate.

(3) Any interested person may oppose the probate of the will, or may petition for revocation of the probate of the will, as in the case of the original probate of a will in this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 56, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.35.

733.207 Establishment and probate of lost or destroyed will.—

(1) The establishment and probate of a lost or destroyed will shall be in one proceeding. The court shall recite, and thereby establish and preserve, the full and precise terms and provisions of the will in the order admitting it to probate.

(2) The petition for probate of a lost or destroyed will shall contain a copy of the will or its substance. The testimony of each witness must be reduced to writing and filed and shall be evidence in any contest of the will if the witness has died or moved from the state.

(3) No lost or destroyed will shall be admitted to probate unless formal notice has been given to those who, but for the will, would be entitled to the property thereby devised. The content of the will must be clearly and distinctly proved by the testimony of two disinterested witnesses, or, if a correct copy is provided, it shall be proved by one disinterested witness.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 57, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.27.

733.208 Discovery of later will.—On the discovery of a later will or codicil expressly or impliedly revoking the probated will in whole or in part, pending or during administration, any interested person may offer the later will for probate. The proceedings shall be similar to those for revocation of probate. No later will or codicil may be offered after the closing of the estate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 58, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.32.

733.209 Estates of missing persons.—The estates of missing persons shall be administered in the same manner as other estates. A petition for administration of the estate shall request entry of an order declaring the death of a missing person prior to appointing a personal representative and commencing administration.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.53.

733.212 Notice of administration; filing of objections and claims.—

(1) The personal representative shall promptly publish a notice of administration and serve a copy of the notice on the surviving spouse and all beneficiaries known to the personal representative by mail in the manner provided for service of formal notice, unless served under s. 733.2123. He may similarly serve other heirs or devisees under a known prior will. The notice shall contain the name of the decedent, the file number of the estate, the court in which the proceedings are pending and its address, the name and address of the personal representative, and the name and address of the personal representative's attorney and state that the publication of the notice has begun. The notice shall require all interested persons to file with the court, within 3 months of the first publication of the notice:

(a) All claims against the estate.

(b) Any objection by an interested person to whom notice was mailed that challenges the validity of the will, the qualifications of the personal representative, venue, or jurisdiction of the court.

(2) Publication shall be once a week for 2 consecutive weeks, two publications being sufficient, in a newspaper published in the county where the estate is administered or, if there is no newspaper published in the county, in a newspaper of general circulation in that county. Proof of publication shall be filed.

(3) Objections under paragraph (1)(b), by persons to whom notice was mailed, that are not filed within 3 months following the date of first publication of the notice are forever barred. Claims under paragraph (1)(a) are barred as provided in s. 733.702.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 60, ch. 75-220; s. 227, ch. 77-104.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.28.

733.2123 Adjudication before issuance of letters.—A petitioner may serve formal notice of his petition for administration on interested persons. No person who is served with formal notice of the petition for administration prior to the issuance of letters or who has waived notice may challenge the validity of the will, testacy of the decedent, qualifications of the personal representative, venue, or jurisdiction of the court, except in connection with the proceedings before issuance of letters.

History.—s. 60, ch. 75-220.

733.213 Probate as prerequisite to petition for construction of will.—No pleading seeking construction of a will may be maintained until the will has first been probated.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 61, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.42.

PART III

PRIORITY TO ADMINISTER AND QUALIFICATIONS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

- |         |   |
|---------|---|
| 733.301 | Preference in appointment of personal representative. |
| 733.302 | Who may be appointed personal representative.         |
| 733.303 | Persons not qualified.                                |
| 733.304 | Nonresidents.   |
| 733.305 | Trust companies and other corporations.               |
| 733.306 | Effect of appointment of debtor.                      |
| 733.307 | Succession of administration.                         |
| 733.308 | Administrator ad litem.                               |
| 733.309 | Executor de son tort.                                 |

733.301 Preference in appointment of personal representative.—In the granting of letters, the following preferences shall be observed:

(1) In testate estates:

(a) The personal representative, or his successor, nominated by the will or pursuant to a power conferred in the will.

(b) The person selected by a majority in interest of the persons entitled to the estate.

(c) A devisee under the will. If more than one devisee applies, the court may exercise its discretion in selecting the one best qualified.

(2) In intestate estates:

(a) The surviving spouse.

(b) The person selected by a majority in interest of the heirs.

(c) The heir nearest in degree. If more than one applies, the court may exercise its discretion in selecting the one best qualified for the office.

(3) A guardian of the property of a ward who if competent would be entitled to appointment as, or to select, a personal representative may exercise the right to select the personal representative.

(4) In either a testate or an intestate estate, if no application is made by any of the persons named in subsections (1) or (2), the court shall appoint a capable person; but no person may be appointed under this subsection:

(a) Who works for, or holds public office under, the court.

(b) Who is employed by, or holds office under, any judge exercising probate jurisdiction.

(5) After letters have been granted in either a testate or an intestate estate, if a person who was entitled to, and has not waived, preference over the person appointed at the time of his appointment and on whom formal notice was not served seeks the appointment, the letters granted may be revoked and the person entitled to preference may have letters granted to him after formal notice and hearing.

(6) After letters have been granted in either a testate or an intestate estate, if any will is subsequently admitted to probate the letters shall be revoked and new letters granted as provided in subsection (1).

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 62, ch. 75-220; s. 21, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.44.

733.302 Who may be appointed personal representative.—Subject to the limitations in this part, any person sui juris who is a resident of Florida at the time of the death of the person whose estate he seeks to administer is qualified to act as personal representative in Florida. A person who has been convicted of a felony or who, from sickness, intemperance, or want of understanding, is incompetent to discharge the duties of a personal representative is not qualified.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 63, ch. 75-220; s. 5, ch. 79-343.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.45.

733.303 Persons not qualified.—

(1) A person is not qualified to act as a personal representative if:

(a) He has been convicted of a felony.

(b) He is mentally or physically unable to perform the duties.

(c) He is under the age of 18 years.

(2) If the person named as personal representative in the will is not qualified, letters shall be granted as provided in s. 733.301.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 63, ch. 75-220; s. 22, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.46.

733.304 Nonresidents.—A person who is not domiciled in the state cannot qualify as personal representative unless the person is:

(1) A legally adopted child or adoptive parent of the decedent;

(2) Related by lineal consanguinity to the decedent;

(3) A spouse or a brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece of the decedent, or someone related by lineal consanguinity to any such person; or

(4) The spouse of a person otherwise qualified under this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 63, ch. 75-220; s. 6, ch. 79-343.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.47.

733.305 Trust companies and other corporations.—

(1) All trust companies incorporated under the laws of the state and all national banking associations authorized and qualified to exercise fiduciary powers in Florida shall be entitled to act as personal representatives and curators of estates.

(2) When a qualified corporation has been named as a personal representative in a will and thereafter transfers its business and assets to, consolidates or merges with, or is in any manner provided by law succeeded by, another qualified corporation, on the death of the testator, the successor corporation may qualify, and the court may issue letters to the successor corporation unless the will provides otherwise.

(3) A corporation authorized and qualified to act as a personal representative as a result of merger or consolidation shall succeed to the rights and duties of all predecessor corporations as the personal representative of estates upon filing proof in the court, and without a new appointment. A purchase of substantially all the assets and the assumption of substantially all the liabilities shall be deemed a merger for the purpose of this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 63, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.49.

733.306 Effect of appointment of debtor.—

The appointment of a debtor as personal representative shall not extinguish the debt due to the decedent. This section shall not prevent a testator from releasing a debtor by will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 63, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.51.

733.307 Succession of administration.—No personal representative of a personal representative as such shall be authorized to administer the estate of the first decedent. On the death of the sole or surviving personal representative, the court shall appoint a successor personal representative to complete the administration of the estate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 64, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.52.

733.308 Administrator ad litem.—When it is necessary that an estate be represented and there is no personal representative of the estate, the court shall appoint an administrator ad litem without bond for that particular proceeding. The fact that the personal representative is seeking reimbursement for claims against the decedent paid by the personal representative does not require appointment of an administrator ad litem.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 65, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.55.

733.309 Executor de son tort.—No person shall be liable to a creditor of a decedent as executor de son tort, but any person taking, converting, or intermeddling with the property of a decedent shall be liable to the personal representative or curator, when appointed, for the value of all the property so taken or converted and for all damages to the estate caused by his wrongful action. This section shall not be construed to prevent a creditor of a decedent from suing anyone in possession of property fraudulently conveyed by the decedent to set aside the fraudulent conveyance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 65, ch. 75-220.

PART IV

APPOINTMENT OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE; BONDS

- 733.401 Issuance of letters.
- 733.402 Bond of personal representative; when required; form.
- 733.403 Amount of bond.
- 733.404 Liability of surety.
- 733.405 Release of surety.

733.401 Issuance of letters.—

- (1) After the petition for administration is filed:
  - (a) The will, if any, shall be proved as provided elsewhere in this code and shall be admitted to probate.
  - (b) The court shall appoint the person entitled and qualified to be personal representative.
  - (c) The court shall determine the amount of any bond required under this part. The clerk may approve the bond in the amount determined by the court and shall not charge a service fee.
  - (d) Any required oath or designation of, and acceptance by, a resident agent shall be filed.
- (2) Upon compliance with all of the foregoing, letters shall be issued to the personal representative.
- (3) Mistaken noncompliance with any of the requirements of subsection (1) shall not be jurisdictional.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 66, ch. 75-220; s. 23, ch. 77-87.

733.402 Bond of personal representative; when required; form.—

- (1) Unless the testator waived the requirement, every person to whom letters are granted shall execute and file a bond with surety, as defined in s. 45.011, to be approved by the clerk. The bond shall be payable to the Governor and his successors in office, conditioned on the performance of all duties as personal representative according to law. The bond must be joint and several.
- (2) No bond executed by a personal representative or curator shall be void or invalid because of an informality in it or an informality or illegality in the appointment of the fiduciary. The bond shall have the same force as if the appointment had been legally made and the bond executed in proper form.
- (3) The requirements of this section shall not apply to banks and trust companies authorized by law to act as personal representative.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 67, ch. 75-220; s. 24, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 732.61.

733.403 Amount of bond.—

(1) All bonds required by this part shall be in the penal sum that the court deems sufficient after consideration of the gross value of the estate, the relationship of the personal representative to the beneficiaries, exempt property and any family allowance, the type and nature of assets, and liens and encumbrances on the assets.

(2) On petition by any interested person or on the court's own motion, the court may waive the requirement of filing a bond, require a personal representative or curator to give bond, increase or decrease the bond, or require additional surety.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 67, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former ss. 732.63, 732.64, 732.66.

733.404 Liability of surety.—No surety for any personal representative or curator shall be charged beyond the assets of an estate because of any omission or mistake in pleading or of false pleading of the personal representative or curator.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 68, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.65.

733.405 Release of surety.—

(1) On petitioning the surety, or the personal representative of a surety, on the bond of any personal representative or curator shall be entitled as a matter of right to be released from future liability upon the bond.

(2) Pending the hearing of the petition, the court may restrain the principal from acting in his representative capacity, except to preserve the estate.

(3) On hearing, the court shall enter an order prescribing the amount of the new bond for the personal representative or curator and the date when the bond shall be filed. If the principal fails to give the new bond, he shall be removed at once, and further proceedings shall be had as in cases of removal.

(4) The original surety or sureties shall be liable for all acts of the personal representative or surety until he has given the new bond and, after the giving of the new bond, shall remain liable for all the principal's acts to the time of the filing and approval of the new bond. The new surety shall be liable for the principal's acts only after the filing and approval of the new bond.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 68, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.68.

PART V

CURATORS; SUCCESSOR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES; REMOVAL

- 733.501 Curators.
- 733.502 Resignation of personal representative.
- 733.503 Appointment of successor upon resignation.
- 733.504 Causes of removal of personal representative.
- 733.505 Jurisdiction in removal proceedings.
- 733.506 Proceedings for removal.

- 733.507 Administration following resignation or removal.
 733.508 Accounting upon removal.
 733.509 Surrender of assets upon removal.

733.501 Curators.—

(1) When it is necessary, the court may appoint a curator and issue letters of curatorship to take charge of the estate of a decedent until letters are granted. If the person entitled to letters is a resident of the county where the property is situated, no curator shall be appointed until formal notice is given to the person so entitled to letters. On appointment, the court shall direct the person in possession of the effects of the decedent to deliver them to the curator. The order may be enforced by contempt.

(2) If there is great danger that the property or any part of it is likely to be wasted, destroyed, or removed beyond the jurisdiction of the court and if the appointment of a curator would be delayed by giving notice, the court may appoint a curator without giving notice.

(3) On special order of the court, the curator may be authorized to perform any duty or function of a personal representative.

(4) Bond shall be required of the curator as the court deems necessary to secure the property. No bond shall be required of banks and trust companies as curators.

(5) The curator shall file an inventory of the property within 20 days. When the personal representative qualifies, the curator shall immediately account and deliver all assets of the estate in his hands to the personal representative within 20 days, and in default shall be subject to the provisions of this code relating to removal of personal representatives.

(6) Curators shall be allowed reasonable compensation for their services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 69, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.21.

733.502 Resignation of personal representative.—A personal representative may resign and be relieved of his office. Notice of the petition shall be given to all interested persons. Before relieving the personal representative from his duties and obligations, the court shall require him to file a true and correct account of his administration and deliver to his successor or to his joint personal representative all of the property of the decedent and all records concerning the estate. The acceptance of the resignation, after compliance with this section, shall not exonerate any personal representative or his surety from liability previously incurred.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 69, ch. 75-220; s. 25, ch. 77-87.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.09.

733.503 Appointment of successor upon resignation.—If there is no joint personal representative, a successor must be appointed and qualified before a personal representative may be relieved of his duties and obligations as provided in s. 733.502.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 69, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.10.

733.504 Causes of removal of personal representative.—A personal representative may be removed and his letters revoked for any of the following causes, and the removal shall be in addition to any penalties prescribed by law:

- (1) Adjudication of incompetency.
- (2) Physical or mental incapacity rendering him incapable of the discharge of his duties.
- (3) Failure to comply with any order of the court, unless the order has been superseded on appeal.
- (4) Failure to account for the sale of property or to produce and exhibit the assets of the estate when so required.
- (5) The wasting or maladministration of the estate.
- (6) Failure to give bond or security for any purpose.
- (7) Conviction of a felony.
- (8) Insolvency of, or the appointment of a receiver or liquidator for, any corporate personal representative.
- (9) The holding or acquiring by the personal representative of conflicting or adverse interests against the estate that will or may adversely interfere with the administration of the estate as a whole. This cause of removal shall not apply to the surviving spouse because of the exercise of the right to the elective share, family allowance, or exemptions, as provided elsewhere in this code.

(10) Revocation of the probate of the decedent's will that authorized or designated the appointment of such personal representative.

(11) Removal of domicile from Florida, if the personal representative is no longer qualified under part III of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 69, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.11.

733.505 Jurisdiction in removal proceedings.—A petition for removal shall be filed in the court issuing the letters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.12.

733.506 Proceedings for removal.—Proceedings for removal may be commenced by the court or by any interested person or joint personal representative.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 71, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.13.

733.507 Administration following resignation or removal.—When a personal representative has resigned or is removed and there is a remaining personal representative, no other personal representative shall be appointed unless the will otherwise requires. The remaining personal representative, together with any successor personal representative, if appointed, shall complete the administration of the estate. If the resigned or removed personal representative is a sole personal representative, the court shall appoint a successor personal representative as provided in s. 733.301.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 72, ch. 75-220; s. 26, ch. 77-87.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.14.

733.508 Accounting upon removal.—A removed personal representative shall file a full, true, and correct account of his administration within 30 days after his removal.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.15.

733.509 Surrender of assets upon removal.—The removed personal representative shall deliver to the remaining or successor personal representative all of the property of the decedent and all records, documents, papers, and other property of or concerning the estate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 73, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.16.

PART VI

DUTIES AND POWERS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE

- 733.601 Time of accrual of duties and powers.
- 733.602 General duties.
- 733.603 Personal representative to proceed without court order.
- 733.604 Inventory.
- 733.605 Appraisers.
- 733.606 Supplementary inventory.
- 733.607 Possession of estate.
- 733.608 General power of the personal representative.
- 733.609 Improper exercise of power; breach of fiduciary duty.
- 733.610 Sale, encumbrance or transaction involving conflict of interest.
- 733.611 Persons dealing with the personal representative; protection.
- 733.612 Transactions authorized for the personal representative; exceptions.
- 733.613 Personal representative's right to sell real property.
- 733.614 Powers and duties of successor personal representative.
- 733.615 Joint personal representatives; when joint action required.
- 733.616 Powers of surviving personal representatives.
- 733.617 Compensation of personal representatives and professionals.
- 733.6175 Proceedings for review of employment of agents and compensation of personal representatives and employees of estate.
- 733.619 Individual liability of personal representative.

733.601 Time of accrual of duties and powers.—The duties and powers of a personal representative commence upon his appointment. The powers of a personal representative relate back in time to give acts by the person appointed, occurring before appointment and beneficial to the estate, the same effect as those occurring thereafter. Before issuance of letters, a person named executor in a will may carry out written instructions of the decedent relating to his body and funeral and burial arrangements. A personal representative may ratify and accept acts on behalf of the estate done by others when the acts would have been proper for a personal representative.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 74, ch. 75-220.

733.602 General duties.—

(1) A personal representative is a fiduciary who shall observe the standards of care applicable to trustees as described by s. 737.302. A personal representative is under a duty to settle and distribute the estate of the decedent in accordance with the terms of the decedent's will and this code as expeditiously and efficiently as is consistent with the best interests of the estate. He shall use the authority conferred upon him by this code, the authority in the will, if any, and the authority of any order in proceedings to which he is party, for the best interests of interested persons.

(2) A personal representative shall not be liable for any act of administration or distribution if the act was authorized at the time. Subject to other obligations of administration, a probated will is authority to administer and distribute the estate according to its terms. An order of appointment of a personal representative is authority to distribute apparently intestate assets to the heirs of the decedent if, at the time of distribution, the personal representative is not aware of a proceeding challenging intestacy or a proceeding questioning his appointment or fitness to continue. Nothing in this section affects the duty of the personal representative to administer and distribute the estate in accordance with the rights of interested persons.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 74, ch. 75-220; s. 27, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 270, ch. 79-400.

733.603 Personal representative to proceed without court order.—A personal representative shall proceed expeditiously with the settlement and distribution of a decedent's estate and, except as otherwise specified by this code or ordered by the court, shall do so without adjudication, order, or direction of the court. He may invoke the jurisdiction of the court to resolve judicial questions concerning the estate or its administration.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

733.604 Inventory.—

(1) Within 60 days after issuance of letters, a personal representative who is not a curator or a successor to another personal representative who has previously discharged the duty shall file an inventory of property of the estate, listing it with reasonable detail and including for each listed item its estimated fair market value at the date of the decedent's death.

(2) The personal representative shall send a copy of the inventory to interested persons who request it.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 76, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 733.03.

733.605 Appraisers.—The personal representative may employ a qualified and disinterested appraiser to assist him in ascertaining the fair market value of any asset at the date of the decedent's death or any other date that may be appropriate, the value of which may be subject to reasonable doubt. Different persons may be employed to appraise different kinds of assets included in the estate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 76, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former ss. 733.04, 733.05.

733.606 Supplementary inventory.—If the personal representative learns of any property not included in the original inventory or that the estimated value or description indicated in the original inventory for any item is erroneous or misleading, he shall file a supplementary inventory showing the estimated value of the new item at the date of the decedent's death or the revised estimated value or description and furnish copies to interested persons who requested a copy of the inventory.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 76, ch. 75-220.

733.607 Possession of estate.—Except as otherwise provided by a decedent's will, every personal representative has a right to, and shall take possession or control of, the decedent's property, except the homestead, but any real property or tangible personal property may be left with, or surrendered to, the person presumptively entitled to it unless possession of the property by the personal representative will be necessary for purposes of administration. The request by a personal representative for delivery of any property possessed by a beneficiary is conclusive evidence that the possession of the property by the personal representative is necessary for the purposes of administration, in any action against the beneficiary for possession of it. The personal representative shall take all steps reasonably necessary for the management, protection, and preservation of the estate until distribution. He may maintain an action to recover possession of property or to determine the title to it.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 28, ch. 77-87.

Note.—Created from former s. 733.01.

733.608 General power of the personal representative.—All real and personal property of the decedent, except the homestead, within this state and the rents, income, issues, and profits from it shall be assets in the hands of the personal representative:

(1) For the payment of devises, debts, family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges, and expenses of administration.

(2) To enforce contribution and equalize advancement.

(3) For distribution.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 29, ch. 77-87.

Note.—Created from former s. 733.01(1).

733.609 Improper exercise of power; breach of fiduciary duty.—If the exercise of power concerning the estate is improper or in bad faith, the personal representative is liable to interested persons for damage or loss resulting from a breach of his fiduciary duty to the same extent as a trustee of an express trust. In all actions challenging the proper exercise of a personal representative's powers, the court shall award taxable costs as in chancery actions, including attorney's fees.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 78, ch. 75-220.

733.610 Sale, encumbrance or transaction involving conflict of interest.—Any sale or encumbrance to the personal representative or his spouse, agent, or attorney, or any corporation or trust in which he has a substantial beneficial interest, or any transaction that is affected by a conflict of interest on the part of the personal representative, is voidable by any interested person except one who has consented after fair disclosure, unless:

(1) The will or a contract entered into by the decedent expressly authorized the transaction; or

(2) The transaction is approved by the court after notice to interested persons.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 78, ch. 75-220.

733.611 Persons dealing with the personal representative; protection.—Except as provided in subsection 733.613(1), a person who in good faith either assists a personal representative or deals with him for value is protected as if the personal representative properly exercised his power. The fact that a person knowingly deals with the personal representative does not alone require the person to inquire into the existence of his power, the limits on his power, or the propriety of its exercise. A person is not bound to see to the proper application of estate assets paid or delivered to the personal representative. The protection here expressed extends to instances in which a procedural irregularity or jurisdictional defect occurred in proceedings leading to the issuance of letters, including a case in which the alleged decedent is alive. The protection here expressed is not by substitution for that provided in comparable provisions of the laws relating to commercial transactions and laws simplifying transfers of securities by fiduciaries.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 78, ch. 75-220; s. 30, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

733.612 Transactions authorized for the personal representative; exceptions.—Except as otherwise provided by the will or by order of court, and subject to the priorities stated in s. 733.805, without order of court, a personal representative, acting reasonably for the benefit of the interested persons, may properly:

(1) Retain assets owned by the decedent, pending distribution or liquidation, including those in which the personal representative is personally interested or that are otherwise improper for trust investments.

(2) Perform or compromise, or, when proper, refuse performance of, the decedent's contracts. In performing enforceable contracts by the decedent to convey or lease real property, among other possible courses of action, the personal representative may:

(a) Convey the real property for cash payment of all sums remaining due or for the purchaser's note for the sum remaining due, secured by a mortgage on the land.

(b) Deliver a deed in escrow, with directions that the proceeds, when paid in accordance with the escrow agreement, be paid to the distributees of the decedent, as designated in the escrow agreement.

(3) Receive assets from fiduciaries or other sources.

(4) If funds are not needed to meet debts and expenses currently payable and are not immediately distributable, deposit or invest liquid assets of the estate, including moneys received from the sale of other assets, in federally insured interest-bearing accounts, readily marketable secured loan arrangements, or other prudent investments that would be reasonable for use by trustees.

(5) Acquire or dispose of an asset, excluding real property in this or another state, for cash or on credit and at public or private sale, and manage, develop, improve, exchange, partition, or change the character of an estate asset.

(6) Make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures; demolish improvements; or erect new party walls or buildings.

(7) Enter into a lease, as lessor or lessee, for a term within, or extending beyond, the period of administration, with or without an option to renew.

(8) Enter into a lease or arrangement for exploration and removal of minerals or other natural resources or enter into a pooling or unitization agreement.

(9) Abandon property when it is valueless or so encumbered, or in such condition, that it is of no benefit to the estate.

(10) Vote, or refrain from voting, stocks or other securities in person or by general or limited proxy.

(11) Pay calls, assessments, and other sums chargeable or accruing against, or on account of, securities, unless barred by the provisions relating to claims.

(12) Hold property in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the interest of the estate, but the personal representative is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the property so held.

(13) Insure the assets of the estate against damage, loss, and liability and insure himself against liability to third persons.

(14) Borrow money, with or without security, to be repaid from the estate assets or otherwise, other than real property, and advance money for the protection of the estate.

(15) Extend, renew, or in any manner modify any obligation owing to the estate. If the personal representative holds a mortgage, security interest, or other lien upon property of another person, he may accept a conveyance or transfer of encumbered assets from the owner in satisfaction of the indebtedness secured by its lien instead of foreclosure.

(16) Pay taxes, assessments, and other expenses incident to the administration of the estate.

(17) Sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights or consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise.

(18) Allocate items of income or expense to either estate income or principal, as permitted or provided by law.

(19) Employ persons, including attorneys, accountants, auditors, investment advisors, and others, even if they are one and the same as the personal representative or are associated with the personal representative, to advise or assist the personal representative in the performance of his administrative duties; act upon the recommendations of such employed persons without independent investigation; and, instead of acting personally, employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary. Any fees and compensation paid to any such person who is the same as, associated with, or employed by, the personal representative shall be taken into consideration in determining the personal representative's compensation.

(20) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the personal representative in the performance of his duties.

(21) Sell, mortgage, or lease any personal property of the estate or any interest in it for cash, credit, or for part cash or part credit, and with or without security for the unpaid balance.

(22) Continue any unincorporated business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of his death:

(a) In the same business form for a period of not more than 4 months from the date of his appointment, if continuation is a reasonable means of preserving the value of the business, including good will.

(b) In the same business form for any additional period of time that may be approved by order of court.

(23) Provide for exoneration of the personal representative from personal liability in any contract entered into on behalf of the estate.

(24) Satisfy and settle claims and distribute the estate as provided in this code.

(25) Enter into agreements with the proper officer or department head, commissioner, or agent of any department of the government of the United States, waiving the statute of limitations concerning the assessment and collection of any federal tax or any deficiency in a federal tax.

(26) Make part distribution to the beneficiaries of any part of the estate not necessary to satisfy claims, expenses of administration, taxes, family allowance, exempt property, and an elective share, in accordance with the decedent's will or as authorized by operation of law.

(27) Execute any instruments necessary in the exercise of the personal representative's powers.

733.613 Personal representative's right to sell real property.—

(1) When a personal representative of a decedent dying intestate, or whose testator has not conferred upon him a power of sale or whose testator has granted a power of sale but his power is so limited by the will or by operation of law that it cannot be conveniently exercised, shall consider that it is for the best interest of the estate and of those interested in it that real property be sold, the personal representative may sell it at public or private sale. No title shall pass until the sale is authorized or confirmed by the court. Petition for authorization or confirmation of sale shall set forth the reasons for the sale, a description of the property sold or to be sold, and the price and terms of the sale. Except when interested persons have joined in the petition for sale of real property or have consented to the sale, notice of the petition shall be given. No bona fide purchaser shall be required to examine any proceedings before the order of sale.

(2) When a decedent's will confers specific power to sell or mortgage real property or a general power to sell any asset of the estate, the personal representative may sell, mortgage, or lease, without authorization or confirmation of court, any real property of the estate or any interest therein for cash or credit, or for part cash and part credit, and with or without security for unpaid balances. The sale, mortgage, or lease need not be justified by a showing of necessity, and the sale pursuant to power of sale shall be valid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 78, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 733.23.

733.614 Powers and duties of successor personal representative.—A successor personal representative has the same power and duty as the original personal representative to complete the administration and distribution of the estate as expeditiously as possible, but he shall not exercise any power made personal to the personal representative named in the will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 78, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.10.

733.615 Joint personal representatives; when joint action required.—If two or more persons are appointed joint personal representatives, and unless the will provides otherwise, the concurrence of all is required on all acts connected with the administration and distribution of the estate. This restriction does not apply when any joint personal representative receives and receipts for property due the estate, when the concurrence of all cannot readily be obtained in the time reasonably available for emergency action necessary to preserve the estate, or when a joint personal representative has been delegated to act for the others.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.50.

733.616 Powers of surviving personal representatives.—Unless the terms of the will otherwise provide, every power exercisable by joint personal representatives may be exercised by the one or more remaining after the appointment of one or more is terminated, and if one or more, but not all, nominated as joint personal representatives are not appointed, those appointed may exercise all the powers incident to the office.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 732.52.

733.617 Compensation of personal representatives and professionals.—

(1) Personal representatives, attorneys, accountants, and appraisers and other agents employed by the personal representative shall be entitled to reasonable compensation. Reasonable compensation shall be based on one or more of the following:

(a) The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the service properly.

(b) The likelihood that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the person.

(c) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar services.

(d) The amount involved and the results obtained.

(e) The time limitations imposed by the circumstances.

(f) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the decedent.

(g) The experience, reputation, diligence, and ability of the person performing the services.

(2) If a will provides for compensation of the personal representative either directly or conditionally and there is no contract with the decedent regarding compensation, he may renounce the provisions and be entitled to reasonable compensation. A personal representative also may renounce his right to all or any part of the compensation. A renunciation may be filed with the court.

(3) If the personal representative is a member of The Florida Bar and has rendered legal services in connection with his official duties, he shall be allowed a fee therefor, determined as provided in subsection (1).

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 80, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 76-172.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.01.

733.6175 Proceedings for review of employment of agents and compensation of personal representatives and employees of estate.—After notice to all affected interested persons and upon petition of an interested person bearing all or part of the impact of the payment of compensation to the personal representative or any person employed by him, the propriety of such employment and the reasonableness of such compensation or payment may be reviewed by the court. The burden of proof of propriety of such employment and the reasonableness of the compensation shall be upon the personal representative and the person employed by him. Any person who is determined to have received excessive compensation from an estate for services rendered may be ordered to make appropriate refunds.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76-172.

733.619 Individual liability of personal representative.—

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, a personal representative is not individually liable on a contract, except a contract for attorney's fee, properly entered into in his fiduciary capacity in the administration of the estate unless he fails to reveal his representative capacity and identify the estate in the contract.

(2) A personal representative is individually liable for obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the estate only if he is personally at fault.

(3) Claims based on contracts, except a contract for attorney's fee, entered into by a personal representative in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the estate, or on torts committed in the course of estate administration, may be asserted against the estate by proceeding against the personal representative in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the personal representative is individually liable therefor.

(4) Issues of liability as between the estate and the personal representative individually may be determined in a proceeding for accounting, surcharge, or indemnification, or other appropriate proceeding.

History.—s. 82, ch. 75-220; s. 32, ch. 77-87; s. 228, ch. 77-104.

PART VII

CREDITORS' CLAIMS

733.701	Notifying creditors.
733.702	Limitations on presentation of claims.
733.703	Form and manner of presenting claim.
733.704	Amendment of claims.
733.705	Payment of and objection to claims.
733.706	Executions and levies.
733.707	Order of payment of expenses and obligations.
733.708	Compromise.
733.709	Claims undisposed of after 1 year.
733.710	Limitations against unadministered estates.

733.701 Notifying creditors.—Unless the proceedings are under chapter 734 or chapter 735, every personal representative shall cause notice of administration to be published under section 733.212, notifying creditors of the decedent and others to present their claims within 3 months after the date of the first publication of such notice or be forever barred.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 83, ch. 75-220; s. 33, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 733.15.

733.702 Limitations on presentation of claims.—

(1) No claim or demand against the decedent's estate that arose before the death of the decedent, including claims of the state and any of its subdivisions, whether due or not, direct or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, and no claim for personal property in the possession of the personal representative or for damages, including, but not limited to, actions founded on fraud or other wrongful act or omission of the decedent, shall be binding on the estate, on the personal representative, or on any beneficiary, unless presented:

(a) Within 3 months from the time of the first publication of the notice of administration, even though the personal representative has recognized the claim or demand by paying a part of it or interest on it or otherwise. The personal representative may settle in full any claim without the necessity of the claim being filed when the settlement has been approved by the beneficiaries adversely affected according to the priorities provided in this code and when the settlement is made within the statutory time for filing claims; or he may file a proof of claim of all claims he has paid or intends to pay.

(b) Within 3 years after the decedent's death, if notice of administration has not been published.

(2) No cause of action heretofore or hereafter accruing, including, but not limited to, actions founded upon fraud or other wrongful act or omission, shall survive the death of the person against whom the claim may be made, whether an action is pending at the death of the person or not, unless the claim is filed in the manner provided in this part and within the time limited.

(3) Nothing in this section affects or prevents:

(a) A proceeding to enforce any mortgage, security interest, or other lien on property of the decedent.

(b) To the limits of casualty insurance protection only, any proceeding to establish liability of the decedent or the personal representative for which he is protected by the casualty insurance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 84, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 733.16.

733.703 Form and manner of presenting claim.—A creditor shall file with the clerk a written statement of the claim, indicating its basis, the name and address of the creditor or his agent or attorney, and the amount claimed. The claim is presented when filed. If a claim is not yet due, the date when it will become due shall be stated. If the claim is contingent or unliquidated, the nature of the uncertainty shall be stated. If the claim is secured, the security shall be described. Failure to describe correctly the security, the nature of any uncertainty, or the due date of a claim not yet due does not invalidate the presentation made. A creditor shall deliver a copy of the claim to the clerk who shall furnish the copy to the personal representative and note the fact on the original.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 84, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 733.16.

733.704 Amendment of claims.—If a bona fide attempt to file a claim is made by a creditor but the claim is defective as to form, the court may permit the amendment of the claim at any time.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 733.17.

733.705 Payment of and objection to claims.—

(1) No personal representative shall be compelled to pay the debts of the decedent until after the expiration of 4 months from the first publication of notice of administration. If any person brings an action against a personal representative within the 4 months on any claim to which the personal representative has filed no objection, the plaintiff shall not receive any costs or attorneys' fees if he prevails, nor shall the judgment change the class of the claim for payment under this code.

(2) On or before the expiration of 4 months from the first publication of notice of administration, a personal representative or other interested person may file a written objection to any claim. An objection filed to an unmatured claim matures it for the purpose of bringing an action on it. If an objection is filed, the person filing it shall serve a copy of the objection by registered or certified mail to the address of the claimant as shown on the claim or delivery to the claimant to whose claim he objects or the claimant's attorney of record, if any, not later than 10 days after it has been filed, and also on the personal representative if the objection is filed by any interested person other than the personal representative. Failure to serve a copy of the objection constitutes an abandonment of the objection.

(3) The claimant shall be limited to 30 days from the date of service of an objection within which to bring an independent action upon the claim. For good cause, the court may extend the time for filing an objection to any claim or the time for serving the objection, and may likewise extend the time for filing an action or proceeding after objection is filed. The extension of time shall be granted only after notice. No action or proceeding shall be brought against the personal representative after the time limited above. If an objection is filed to the claim of any creditor and an action is brought by the creditor to establish his claim, a judgment establishing the claim shall give it no priority over claims of the same class to which it belongs.

(4) No interest shall be paid by the personal representative or allowed by the court on a claim until the expiration of 5 calendar months from the first publication of the notice of administration, unless the claim is founded on a written obligation of the decedent providing for the payment of interest. Interest shall be paid by the personal representative on written obligations of the decedent providing for the payment of interest. On all other claims, interest shall be allowed and paid beginning 5 months from the first publication of the notice of administration.

(5) The court may determine all issues concerning claims or matters not requiring trial by jury.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220; s. 34, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 733.18.

733.706 Executions and levies.—Except upon approval by the court, no execution or other process shall issue on or be levied against property of the estate. Claims on all judgments against a decedent shall be filed in the same manner as other claims against estates of decedents. This section shall not be construed to prevent the enforcement of mortgages, security interests, or liens encumbering specific property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 733.19.

733.707 Order of payment of expenses and obligations.—

(1) The personal representative shall pay the expenses of the administration and obligations of the estate in the following order:

(a) Class 1.—Costs, expenses of administration, and compensation of personal representatives and their attorneys' fees.

(b) Class 2.—Reasonable funeral, interment, and grave-marker expenses, whether paid by a guardian under subsection 744.501(21), the personal representative, or any other person, not to exceed the aggregate of $1,500.

(c) Class 3.—Debts and taxes with preference under federal law.

(d) Class 4.—Reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last 60 days of the last illness of the decedent, including compensation of persons attending him.

(e) Class 5.—Family allowance.

(f) Class 6.—Debts acquired after death by the continuation of the decedent's business, in accordance with subsection 733.612(22), but only to the extent of the assets of that business.

(g) Class 7.—All other claims, including those founded on judgments or decrees rendered against the decedent during his lifetime, and any excess over the sums allowed in paragraphs (b) and (d).

(2) After paying any preceding class, if the estate is insufficient to pay all of the next succeeding class, the creditors of the latter class shall be paid ratably in proportion to their respective claims.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220; s. 35, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 733.20.

733.708 Compromise.—When a proposal is made to compromise any claim, whether in suit or not, by or against the estate of a decedent or to compromise any question concerning the distribution of a decedent's estate, the court may enter an order authorizing the compromise if satisfied that the compromise will be for the best interest of the beneficiaries. The order shall relieve the personal representative of liability or responsibility for the compromise. Claims against the estate may not be compromised until after the time for filing objections to claims has expired. Notice must be given to those who have filed objection to the claim proposed to be compromised.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 733.21.

733.709 Claims undisposed of after 1 year.—When a person has filed a claim against an estate and the claim has not been paid, settled, or otherwise disposed of and no proceeding is pending for the enforcement or compulsory payment of it at the expiration of 1 year from the date the claim was filed, the claim shall be forever barred. No action shall thereafter be brought to enforce it. This section shall not affect the lien of any duly recorded mortgage or security interest or the lien of any person in possession of personal property or the right to foreclose and enforce the mortgage or lien.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 733.211.

733.710 Limitations against unadministered estates.—Three years after the death of a person, his estate shall not be liable in any cause of action if no letters have been issued in Florida within the 3-year period. This section shall not affect the lien of any duly recorded mortgage or security interest or the lien of any person in possession of personal property or the right to foreclose and enforce the mortgage or lien.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 50, ch. 75-220; s. 36, ch. 77-87.
Note.—Created from former s. 734.29(1).

PART VIII

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR DISTRIBUTION

- |         |   |
|---------|---|
| 733.801 | Delivery of devises and distributive shares.                            |
| 733.802 | Proceedings for compulsory payment of devises or distributive interest. |
| 733.803 | Encumbered property; liability for payment.                             |
| 733.805 | Order in which assets are appropriated.                                 |
| 733.806 | Advancement.  |
| 733.808 | Death benefits; disposition of proceeds.                                |
| 733.809 | Right of retainer.  |

- 733.810 Distribution in kind; valuation.
- 733.811 Distribution; right or title of distributee.
- 733.812 Improper distribution; liability of distributee.
- 733.813 Purchasers from distributees protected.
- 733.814 Partition for purpose of distribution.
- 733.815 Private agreements among distributees.
- 733.816 Disposition of unclaimed funds held by personal representatives.
- 733.817 Apportionment of estate taxes.

733.801 Delivery of devises and distributive shares.—No personal representative shall be required to pay or deliver any devise or distributive share or to surrender possession of any land to any beneficiary until the expiration of 5 months from the granting of letters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.02.

733.802 Proceedings for compulsory payment of devises or distributive interest.—

(1) Before final distribution, no personal representative shall be compelled:

- (a) To pay a devise in money before the final settlement of his accounts,
- (b) To deliver specific personal property devised that may have come into his hands, unless the personal property is exempt personal property,
- (c) To pay all or any part of a distributive share in the personal estate of a decedent, or
- (d) To surrender land to any beneficiary, unless the beneficiary files a petition setting forth the facts that entitle him to relief and stating that the property will not be required for the payment of debts, family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, elective share of the surviving spouse, charges, or expenses of administration or for providing funds for contribution or enforcing equalization in case of advancements.

(2) An order directing the surrender of real property or the delivery of personal property shall describe the property to be surrendered or delivered. The order shall be conclusive in favor of bona fide purchasers for value from the beneficiary or distributee as against the personal representative and all other persons claiming by, through, under, or against the decedent or his estate.

(3) If the administration of the estate has not been completed before the entry of an order of partial distribution, the court may require the person entitled to distribution to give a bond with sureties as prescribed in s. 45.011, conditioned on the making of due contribution for the payment of devises, family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, elective share of the spouse, charges, expenses of administration, and equalization in case of advancements, plus any interest on them.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220; s. 37, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 272, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.03.

733.803 Encumbered property; liability for payment.—The specific devisee of any encumbered property shall be entitled to have the encumbrance on devised property paid at the expense of the residue of the estate only when the will shows such an intent. A general direction in the will to pay debts does not show such an intent.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 86, ch. 75-220.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.051.

733.805 Order in which assets are appropriated.—

(1) If a testator makes provision by his will, or designates the funds or property to be used, for the payment of debts, estate and inheritance taxes, family allowance, exempt property, elective share charges, expenses of administration, and devises, they shall be paid out of the funds or from the property or proceeds as provided by the will so far as sufficient. If no provision is made or any fund designated, or if it is insufficient, the property of the estate shall be used for such purposes, except as otherwise provided in s. 733.817 with respect to estate, inheritance, and other death taxes, and to raise the shares of a pretermitted spouse and children, in the following order:

- (a) Property not disposed of by the will.
- (b) Property devised to the residuary devisee or devisees.
- (c) Property not specifically or demonstratively devised.
- (d) Property specifically or demonstratively devised.

(2) Demonstrative devises shall be classed as general devises upon the failure or insufficiency of funds or property out of which payment should be made, to the extent of the insufficiency. Devises to the decedent's surviving spouse, given in satisfaction of, or instead of, the surviving spouse's statutory rights in the estate, shall not abate until other devises of the same class are exhausted. Devises given for a valuable consideration shall abate with other devises of the same class only to the extent of the excess over the amount of value of the consideration until all others of the same class are exhausted. Except as herein provided, devises shall abate equally and ratably and without preference or priority as between real and personal property. When property that has been specifically devised or charged with a devise is sold or taken by the personal representative, other devisees shall contribute according to their respective interests to the devisee whose devise has been sold or taken, and before distribution the court shall determine the amounts of the respective contributions, and they shall be paid or withheld before distribution is made.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 88, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.05.

733.806 Advancement.—If a person dies intestate as to all his estate, property that he gave in his lifetime to an heir is treated as an advancement against the latter's share of the estate only if declared in a contemporaneous writing by the decedent or acknowledged in writing by the heir. The property advanced shall be valued at the time the heir came into possession or enjoyment of the property or at the time of the death of the decedent, whichever first occurs. If the recipient of the property does not survive the decedent, the property shall not be taken into account in computing the intestate share to be received by the recipient's descendants unless the declaration or acknowledgment provides otherwise.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.07.

733.808 Death benefits; disposition of proceeds.—

(1) Death benefits of any kind, including, but not limited to, proceeds of:

- (a) An individual life insurance policy;
- (b) A group life insurance policy;
- (c) An employees' trust or under a contract purchased by an employees' trust forming part of a pension, stock-bonus, or profit-sharing plan;
- (d) An annuity or endowment contract; and
- (e) A health and accident policy, may be made payable to the trustee under a trust agreement or declaration of trust in existence at the time of the death of the insured, employee, or annuitant. The death benefits shall be held and disposed of by the trustee in accordance with the terms of the trust as they appear in writing on the date of the death of the insured, employee, or annuitant. It shall not be necessary to the validity of the trust agreement or declaration of trust, whether revocable or irrevocable, that it have a trust corpus other than the right of the trustee to receive death benefits.

(2) Death benefits of any kind, including, but not limited to, proceeds of:

- (a) An individual life insurance policy;
- (b) A group life insurance policy;
- (c) An employees' trust, or under a contract purchased by an employees' trust, forming part of a pension, stock-bonus, or profit-sharing plan;
- (d) An annuity or endowment contract; and
- (e) A health and accident policy, may be made payable to the trustee named, or to be named, in a written instrument that is admitted to probate as the last will of the insured, the owner of the policy, the employee covered by the plan or contract, or any other person, whether or not the will is in existence at the time of designation. Upon the admission of the will to probate, the death benefits shall be paid to the trustee, to be held, administered, and disposed of in accordance with the terms of the trust or trusts created by the will.

(3) In the event no trustee makes proper claim to the proceeds from the insurance company or other obligor within a period of 6 months after the date of the death of the insured, employee, or annuitant, or if satisfactory evidence is furnished to the insurance company or such obligor within that period that there is, or will be, no trustee to receive the proceeds, payment shall be made by the insurance company or obligor to the personal representative of the person making such designation, unless otherwise provided by agreement with the insurer or other obligor during the lifetime of the insured, employee, or annuitant.

(4) Death benefits payable as provided in subsections (1), (2) or (3), unless paid to a personal representative under the provisions of subsection (3), shall not be deemed to be part of the estate of the testator or an intestate estate, and shall not be subject to any obligation to pay transfer or estate taxes, debts, or other charges enforceable against the estate to any greater extent than if such proceeds were payable directly to the beneficiaries named in the trust.

(5) The death benefits so held in trust may be commingled with any other assets that may properly come into the trust.

(6) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity of any designation of a beneficiary of proceeds heretofore made that designates as beneficiary the trustee of any trust established under a trust agreement or declaration of trust or by will.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 38, ch. 77-87.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.172.

733.809 Right of retainer.—The amount of a noncontingent indebtedness of a beneficiary to the estate, if due, or its present value, if not due, may be offset against the beneficiary's interest, but the beneficiary has the benefit of any defense that would be available to him in a direct proceeding for recovery of the debt.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 39, ch. 77-87.

733.810 Distribution in kind; valuation.—

(1) Unless a general power of sale is conferred or a contrary intention is indicated by the will or unless assets are otherwise disposed of under the provisions of this code, the distributable assets of a decedent's estate shall be distributed in kind through application of the following provisions:

(a) Any family allowance or devise payable in money may be satisfied by value in kind if:

1. The person entitled to the payment has not demanded cash;

2. The property distributed in kind is valued at fair market value as of the date of its distribution; and

3. No residuary devisee has requested that the asset remain a part of the residue of the estate.

(b) When it is not practicable to distribute undivided interests in a residuary property, the property shall be converted into cash for distribution.

(2) When the personal representative, trustee, or other fiduciary under a will or trust instrument is required to, or has an option to, satisfy a devise or transfer in trust to, or for the benefit of, the surviving spouse with assets of the estate or trust in kind, at values as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, the personal representative, trustee, or other fiduciary shall, unless the will or trust instrument otherwise provides, satisfy the devise or transfer in trust by distribution of assets, including cash, fairly representative of the appreciated or depreciated value of all property available for distribution in satisfaction of the devise or transfer in trust, taking into consideration any gains and losses realized from the sale, prior to distribution of the marital interest, of any property not specifically, generally, or demonstratively devised.

(3) With the consent of all beneficiaries affected, a personal representative or a trustee is authorized to distribute any distributable assets, non-pro rata among the beneficiaries entitled thereto.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 92, ch. 75-220; s. 40, ch. 77-87.

Note.—Created from former s. 734.031.

733.811 Distribution; right or title of distributee.—Proof that a distributee has received an instrument transferring assets in kind or payment in distribution or possession of specific property from a personal representative is conclusive evidence that the distributee has succeeded to the interest of the estate in the distributed assets, as against all persons interested in the estate, but the personal representative may recover the assets or their value if the distribution was improper.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

733.812 Improper distribution; liability of distributee.—Unless the distribution or payment no longer can be questioned because of adjudication, estoppel, or limitations, a distributee of property improperly distributed or paid or a claimant who was improperly paid, if he has the property, is liable to return the property improperly received and its income since distribution to the personal representative or to the beneficiaries entitled to it. If he does not have the property, then he is liable to return the value of the property improperly received at the date of disposition and its income and gain received by him.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 92, ch. 75-220.

733.813 Purchasers from distributees protected.—If property distributed in kind, or a security interest therein, is acquired by a purchaser or lender for value from a distributee who has received an instrument of distribution or possession from the personal representative, the purchaser or lender takes title free of any claims of the estate and incurs no personal liability to the estate, whether or not the distribution was proper. To be protected under this provision a purchaser or lender need not inquire whether a personal representative acted properly in making the distribution in kind.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

733.814 Partition for purpose of distribution.—When two or more heirs or devisees are entitled to distribution of undivided interests in any property, the personal representative or one or more of the beneficiaries may petition the court before closing the estate to make partition. After formal notice to the interested beneficiaries, the court shall partition the property in the same manner as provided by law for civil actions of partition. The court may direct the personal representative to sell any property that cannot be partitioned without prejudice to the owners and that cannot conveniently be allotted to any one party.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

733.815 Private agreements among distributees.—Subject to the rights of creditors and taxing authorities, competent interested persons may agree among themselves to alter the interests, shares, or amounts to which they are entitled under the will or under the laws of intestacy in a written contract executed by all who are affected. The personal representative shall abide by the terms of the agreement, subject to his obligation to administer the estate for the benefit of creditors, to pay all taxes and costs of administration, and to carry out the responsibilities of his office for the benefit of any beneficiaries of the decedent who are not parties to the agreement. Personal representatives are not required to see to the performance of trusts if the trustee is another person who is willing to accept the trust. Trustees of a testamentary trust are beneficiaries for the purposes of this section. Nothing herein relieves trustees of any duties owed to beneficiaries of trusts.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 94, ch. 75-220.

733.816 Disposition of unclaimed funds held by personal representatives.—

(1) In all cases in which there are unclaimed funds in the hands of a personal representative that cannot be distributed or paid to the lawful owner because of inability to find him or because no lawful owner is known, the court shall order the personal representative to deposit the funds with the clerk and receive a receipt, and the clerk shall deposit the funds in the registry of the court to be disposed of as follows:

(a) If the value of the funds is $50 or less, the clerk shall post a notice for 30 days at the courthouse door giving the amount involved, the name of the personal representative, and the other pertinent information that will put interested persons on notice.

(b) If the value of the funds is over $50, the clerk shall publish the notice once a month for 2 consecutive months in a newspaper of general circulation in the county.

After the expiration of 6 months from the posting or first publication, the clerk shall deposit the funds with the State Treasurer after deducting his fees and the costs of publication.

(2) Upon receipt of the funds, the State Treasurer shall deposit them to the credit of the State School Fund, to become a part of the school fund. All interest and all income that may accrue from the money while so deposited shall belong to the fund. The funds so deposited shall constitute and be a permanent appropriation for payments by the State Treasurer in obedience to court orders entered as provided by subsection (3).

(3) Within 10 years from the date of deposit with the State Treasurer, on written petition to the court that directed the deposit of the funds and informal notice to the Department of Legal Affairs, and after proof of his right to them, any person entitled to the funds before or after payment to the State Treasurer and deposit as provided by subsection (1) may obtain an order of court directing the payment of the funds to him. All funds deposited with the State Treasurer and not claimed within 10 years from the date of deposit shall escheat to the state for the benefit of the State School Fund.

(1) Any estate, inheritance, or other death tax levied or assessed under the tax laws of this or any other state, political subdivision, or country or under any United States revenue act concerning any property included in the gross estate under the law shall be apportioned in the following manner:

(a) If a part of the estate passed under a will as a specific devise or general devise or in any other nonresiduary form, exclusive of property over which the decedent had a power of appointment as defined from time to time under the estate tax laws of the United States, the net amount of the tax attributable to it shall be charged to and paid from the residuary estate without requiring contribution from persons receiving the interests, except as otherwise directed by the will. In the event the residuary estate is insufficient to pay the tax attributable to the interests, any balance of the tax shall be equitably apportioned among the recipients of the interests in the proportions that the value of each interest included in the measure of the tax bears to the total of all interests so included, except as otherwise directed by the will.

(b) If a part of the estate passed under the will as a residuary interest, exclusive of property over which the decedent had power of appointment, the net amount of tax attributable to it shall be equitably apportioned among the residuary beneficiaries in the proportions that the value of the residuary interest of each included in the measure of the tax bears to the total of all residuary interests so included, except as otherwise directed by the will. When a residuary interest is an interest in income or an estate for years or for life or other temporary interest, the tax attributable to it shall be charged to corpus and not apportioned between temporary and remainder interests.

(c) If a part of the property concerning which the tax is levied or assessed is held under the terms of any trust created inter vivos or is subject to a power of appointment, the net amount of the tax attributable to it shall be charged to and paid from the part of the corpus of the trust property or the property subject to the power of appointment included in the measure of the tax, as the case may be, and shall not be apportioned between temporary and remainder interests, except as otherwise directed by the trust instrument concerning the fund established by it or by the will.

(d) Real property homesteads that are exempt from execution by law shall be exempt from apportionment of taxes. Persons taking an interest in the homesteads shall not be liable for apportionment of taxes on account of the homesteads. The net amount of the tax attributable to homestead property shall be paid from other assets of the probate or intestate estate in the order as directed by will or, if not so provided, in the following order:

1. Property not disposed of by the will.
2. Property devised to the residuary devisee.
3. Property not specifically or demonstratively devised.
4. Property specifically or demonstratively devised.

(e) The balance of the net amount of the tax, including, but not limited to, any tax imposed concerning gifts in contemplation of death, jointly held properties passing by survivorship, property passing by intestacy, or insurance, shall be equitably apportioned among, and paid by, the recipients and beneficiaries of the properties or interests, in the proportion that the value of the property or interest of each included in the measure of the tax bears to the total value of all the properties and interests included in the measure of the tax, except as otherwise directed by the will. When a property or interest is an interest in income or an estate for years or for life or other temporary interest, the amount charged to such recipients or beneficiaries shall not be apportioned between temporary and remainder estates but shall be charged to and paid out of the corpus of the property or fund.

(f) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to require the personal representative to pay any estate, inheritance, or other death taxes levied or assessed by any foreign country, unless specific directions to that effect are contained in the will.

(2) As used in this section:

(a) The net amount of tax attributable to the interests encompassed by any one of paragraphs (1)(a) through (e) shall be the part of the net amount of the tax as finally determined, with interest on it, as the value of interests included in the measure of the tax and included in the paragraph bears to the amount of the net estate, except that, in the case of an inheritance or similar tax, the tax that is imposed on each beneficiary's interest, as determined under the law of the state, country, or political subdivision then under consideration, shall be deemed the tax attributable to the interest.

(b) The term "net estate" shall mean the gross estate, as defined by the estate, inheritance, or death tax laws of the particular state, country, or political subdivision whose tax is being apportioned, less the deductions, other than the specific exemption, allowed. All proportions based on net estate shall be determined without regard to any diminution in deductions resulting from the charge of any part of the tax to a deductible interest.

(c) The term "included in the measure of the tax" shall not include any property or interest, whether passing under the will or not, to the extent the property or interest is exempt or is initially deductible from the gross estate, without regard to any subsequent diminution of the deduction by reason of the charge of any part of the tax to the property or interest.

(d) The word "value" shall mean the pecuniary worth of the interest involved as finally determined for purposes of the estate, death, or inheritance tax then under consideration, without regard to any diminution of it by reason of the charge of any part of tax.

(e) Except when the will or other governing instrument otherwise provides, in the event a credit is given under the estate tax laws of the United States for any estate, inheritance, or death taxes paid to other countries or political subdivisions, the credit shall be apportioned among the recipients of interests finally charged with the payment of the foreign tax in reduction of any United States estate tax chargeable to the recipients or interests, whether or not the United States estate tax is attributable to the foreign interests. Any excess of the credit shall be applied in reduction of the part of United States estate tax chargeable to residue, and any excess of the credit over the United States estate tax chargeable to residue shall be apportioned ratably among those persons or interests finally charged with the balance of the payment of United States estate tax.

(3) Unless otherwise directed by the will, the tax shall be paid by the personal representative out of the estate. In all cases in which any property required to be included in the gross estate does not come into the possession of the personal representative, he shall recover:

(a) From the fiduciary in possession of the corpus of the trust or of property subject to the power of appointment in cases in which property of a trust created inter vivos or property subject to a power of appointment is included in the gross estate; and

(b) In all other cases, from the recipient or beneficiaries of property or interests with respect to which the tax is levied or assessed, the proportionate amount of the tax payable by the fiduciary or persons with which they are chargeable under the provisions of this act, unless relieved of the duty as provided in subsection (6). This subsection shall not authorize the recovery of any taxes from any company issuing insurance included in the gross estate, or from any bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or similar institution with respect to any account in the name of the decedent and any other person that passed by operation of law on the decedent's death. If the fiduciary brings an action to recover a share of tax apportioned to an interest not within his control, the judgment he obtains may include costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

(4) No personal representative or other fiduciary shall be required to transfer any property until the amount of any tax due from the transferee is paid or, if the apportionment of tax has not been determined, until adequate security is furnished for the payment. The fiduciary shall not be required to distribute assets that he reasonably anticipates may be necessary to pay any state or federal taxes.

(5) After the amount of all estate, inheritance, and death taxes is finally determined, the personal representative or other fiduciary shall petition for an order of apportionment and shall give formal notice of the petition and the hearing to all interested persons. The personal representative shall be entitled, and it shall be his duty, except as provided in subsection (6), to attempt to effect apportionment as determined by the order, and the apportionment shall be prima facie correct in proceedings in any court or jurisdiction. The personal representative shall not be required to seek collection of any portion of tax attributable to any interest not within his control until after entry of the order.

(6)(a) A personal representative or other fiduciary who has the duty under this section of collecting the apportioned tax from persons interested in the estate may be relieved of the duty to collect the tax by an order of the court finding:

1. That the estimated court costs and attorney fees in collecting the apportioned tax from a person interested in the estate will approximate the amount of the recovery.

2. That the person interested in the estate is a resident of a foreign country other than Canada and refuses to pay the apportioned tax on demand.

3. That it is impracticable to enforce contribution of the apportioned tax against any person interested in the estate in view of the improbability of obtaining a judgment or the improbability of collection under any judgment that might be obtained, or otherwise.

(b) The fiduciary shall not be liable for failure to attempt to enforce collection if the attempt would in fact have been economically impracticable. Nothing in this section shall limit the right of any person who is charged with more than the amount of the tax apportionable to him to obtain contribution from those who shall not have paid the full amount of the tax apportionable to them, and that right is hereby conferred.

(c) If a fiduciary obtains an order described above, the share of tax to which it refers shall be paid from assets of the estate in the order provided by s. 733.805. Any apportioned tax that is not collected shall also be paid from assets in the same order.

PART IX

CLOSING ESTATES

733.901 Distribution; final discharge.

733.903 Subsequent administration.

733.901 Distribution; final discharge.—

(1) When a personal representative has completed administration except for distribution, he shall file a final accounting and a petition for discharge that shall contain:

(a) A complete report of all receipts and disbursements since the date of the last annual accounting or, if none, from the commencement of administration.

(b) A statement that he has fully administered the estate by making payment, settlement, or other disposition of all claims and debts that were presented and the expenses of administration.

(c) The proposed distribution of the assets of the estate.

(d) Any prior distributions that have been made.

(e) A statement that objections to this report or proposed distribution of assets be filed within 30 days.

The final accounting and petition for discharge shall be filed and served on all interested persons within 12 months after issuance of letters, unless the time is extended by the court for cause shown after notice to interested persons. The petition shall state the status of the estate and the reasons for the extension.

(2) If no objection to the accounting or petition for discharge has been filed within 30 days from the date of service of copies on interested persons, or if service has been waived, the personal representative may distribute the estate according to the plan of distribution set forth in the petition without a court order. The assets shall be distributed free from the claims of any interested person and, upon receipt of evidence that the estate has been properly distributed and that claims of creditors have been paid or otherwise disposed of, the court shall enter an order discharging the personal representative and releasing the surety on any bond.

(3) If an objection to the petition for discharge has been filed within the time allowed, the court shall determine the plan of distribution and, upon receipt of evidence that the estate has been properly distributed and that claims of creditors have been paid or otherwise disposed of, the court shall enter an order discharging the personal representative and releasing the surety on any bond.

(4) The 30-day period contained in subsection (2) may be waived upon written consent of all interested persons.

(5) The discharge of the personal representative shall release the personal representative of the estate and shall bar any action against the personal representative, as such or individually, and his surety.

CHAPTER 734

PROBATE CODE: FOREIGN PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES;
ANCILLARY ADMINISTRATION

PART I GENERAL PROVISIONS (ss. 734.101-734.104)

PART II JURISDICTION OVER FOREIGN PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES
(ss. 734.201, 734.202)

PART I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 734.101 Foreign personal representative.
 734.102 Ancillary administration.
 734.104 Foreign wills; admission to record; effect on title.

734.101 Foreign personal representative.—

(1) Personal representatives who produce authenticated copies of probated wills or letters of administration duly obtained in any state or territory of the United States may maintain actions in the courts of this state.

(2) Personal representatives appointed in any state or country may be sued in this state concerning property in this state and may defend actions or proceedings brought in this state.

(3) Debtors who have not received a written demand for payment from a personal representative or curator appointed in this state within 60 days after appointment of a personal representative in any other state or country, and whose property in Florida is subject to a mortgage or other lien securing the debt held by the foreign personal representative, may pay the foreign personal representative after the expiration of 60 days from the date of his appointment. Thereafter, a satisfaction of the mortgage or lien executed by the foreign personal representative, with an authenticated copy of his letters or other evidence of authority attached, may be recorded in the public records. The satisfaction shall be an effective discharge of the mortgage or lien, irrespective of whether the debtor making payment had received a written demand before paying the debt.

(4) All persons indebted to the estate of a decedent, or having possession of personal property belonging to the estate, who have received no written demand from a personal representative or curator appointed in this state for payment of the debt or the delivery of the property are authorized to pay the debt or to deliver the personal property to the foreign personal representative after the expiration of 60 days from the date of his appointment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 98, ch. 75-220.
Note.—Created from former s. 734.30.

734.102 Ancillary administration.—

(1) If a nonresident of this state dies leaving assets in this state, credits due him from residents in this state, or liens on property in this state, a personal representative specifically designated in the decedent's will to administer the Florida property shall be entitled to have ancillary letters issued to him, if qualified to act in Florida. Otherwise, the foreign personal representative of the decedent's estate shall be entitled to have letters issued to him, if qualified to act in Florida. If the foreign personal representative is not qualified to act in Florida and the will names an alternate or successor who is qualified to act in Florida, the alternate or successor shall be entitled to have letters issued to him. Otherwise, those entitled to a majority interest of the Florida property may have letters issued to a personal representative selected by them who is qualified to act in Florida. If the decedent dies intestate and the foreign domiciliary personal representative is not qualified to act in Florida, the order of preference for appointment of a personal representative as prescribed in this code shall apply. If ancillary letters are applied for by other than the domiciliary personal representative, prior notice shall be given to any domiciliary personal representative.

(2) To entitle the applicant to ancillary letters, an authenticated copy of so much of the domiciliary proceedings shall be filed as will show either:

- (a) The will, petition for probate, order admitting the will to probate, and letters, if there are such; or
- (b) The petition for letters and the letters.

(3) On filing the authenticated copy of a probated will, including any probated codicils, the court shall determine if the will and the codicils, if any, comply with subsections 732.502(1) or (2). If they comply, the court shall admit the will and any codicils to record.

(4) The ancillary personal representative shall give bond as do personal representatives generally. All proceedings for appointment and administration of the estate shall be as similar to those in original administrations as possible.

(5) After the payment of all expenses of administration and claims against the estate, the court may order the remaining property held by the ancillary personal representative transferred to the domiciliary personal representative or distributed to the heirs or devisees.

(6) Ancillary personal representatives shall have the same rights, powers, and authority as other personal representatives in Florida to manage and settle estates; to sell, lease, or mortgage local property; and to raise funds for the payment of debts, claims, and devises in the domiciliary jurisdiction. No property shall be sold, leased, or mortgaged to pay a debt or claim that is barred by any statute of limitation or of nonclaim of this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 98, ch. 75-220; s. 43, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 734.31.

734.104 Foreign wills; admission to record; effect on title.—

(1) An authenticated copy of the will of a nonresident that devises real property in this state, or any right, title, or interest in the property, may be admitted to record in any county of this state where the property is located at any time after 3 years from the death of the decedent or at any time after the domiciliary personal representative has been discharged if there has been no proceeding to administer the estate of the decedent in this state, provided:

(a) The will complies with s. 732.502 as to form and manner of execution; and

(b) The will has been admitted to probate in the proper court of any other state, territory, or country.

(2) A petition to admit a foreign will to record may be filed by any person and shall be accompanied by authenticated copies of the foreign will, the petition for probate, and the order admitting the will to probate. If no petition is required as a prerequisite to the probate of a will in the jurisdiction where the will of the nonresident was probated, upon proof by affidavit or certificate that no petition is required, an authenticated copy of the will may be admitted to record without an authenticated copy of a petition for probate, and the order admitting the will to record in this state shall recite that no petition was required in the jurisdiction of original probate.

(3) If the court finds that this section has been complied with, it shall enter an order admitting the foreign will to record.

(4) When admitted to record, the foreign will shall be as valid and effectual to pass title to real property and any right, title, or interest therein as if the will had been admitted to probate in this state.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-106; s. 98, ch. 75-220; s. 45, ch. 77-87; s. 229, ch. 77-104; s. 15, ch. 79-221; s. 274, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Created from former s. 736.06.

PART II*JURISDICTION OVER FOREIGN PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

734.201 Jurisdiction by act of foreign personal representative.

734.202 Jurisdiction by act of decedent.

734.201 Jurisdiction by act of foreign personal representative.—A foreign personal representative submits personally to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state in any proceeding concerning the estate by:

(1) Filing authenticated copies of the domiciliary proceedings under s. 734.103.

(2) Receiving payment of money or taking delivery of personal property, under s. 734.101.

(3) Doing any act as a personal representative in this state that would have given the state jurisdiction over him as an individual.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 99, ch. 75-220.

734.202 Jurisdiction by act of decedent.—In addition to jurisdiction conferred by s. 734.201, a foreign personal representative is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state to the same extent that his decedent was subject to jurisdiction immediately before death.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

CHAPTER 735

PROBATE CODE: FAMILY ADMINISTRATION AND SMALL ESTATES

PART I FAMILY ADMINISTRATION (ss. 735.101-735.107)

PART II SUMMARY ADMINISTRATION (ss. 735.201-735.209)

PART III DISPOSITION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY
WITHOUT ADMINISTRATION (ss. 735.301, 735.302)

PART I

FAMILY ADMINISTRATION

- 735.101 Family administration; nature of proceedings.
 735.103 Petition for family administration.
 735.107 Family administration distribution.

735.101 Family administration; nature of proceedings.—Family administration may be had in the administration of a decedent's estate when it appears:

(1) In an intestate estate, that the heirs at law of the decedent consist solely of a surviving spouse, lineal descendants, and lineal ascendants, or any of them.

(2) In a testate estate, that the beneficiaries under the will consist of a surviving spouse, lineal descendants, and lineal ascendants, or any of them, and that any specific or general devise to others constitutes a minor part of the decedent's estate.

(3) In a testate estate, that the decedent's will does not direct administration as required by chapter 733.

(4) That the value of the gross estate, as of the date of death, for federal estate tax purposes is less than $60,000.

(5) That the entire estate consists of personal property or, if real property forms part of the estate, that administration under chapter 733 has proceeded to the point that all claims of creditors have been processed or barred.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 101, ch. 75-220.

735.103 Petition for family administration.—A verified petition for family administration shall contain, in addition to the statements required by s. 733.202, the following:

(1) Facts showing that petitioners are entitled to family administration, as provided in s. 735.101.

(2) A complete list of the assets of the gross estate for federal estate tax purposes and their estimated value.

(3) An appropriate statement that the estate is not indebted or that provision for payment of debts has been made or the claims are barred.

(4) A proposed schedule of distribution of all assets to those entitled thereto as surviving spouse, heirs, beneficiaries, or creditors.

The petition shall be signed and verified by all beneficiaries and the surviving spouse, if any. The petition may be signed on behalf of a minor or an incompetent by his legal guardian or, if none, by his natural guardian.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 102, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

735.107 Family administration distribution.—

(1) Upon filing the petition for family administration, the will, if any, shall be proved in accordance with chapter 733 and be admitted to probate.

(2) If the estate consists of personal property only, then, after such hearing as the court may require, an order of family administration may be entered allowing immediate distribution of the assets to the persons entitled to them.

(3) The order of family administration and the distribution so entered shall have the following effect:

(a) Those to whom specified parts of the decedent's estate are assigned by the order shall be entitled to receive and collect the parts and to have the parts transferred to them. They may maintain actions to enforce the right.

(b) Debtors of the decedent, those holding property of the decedent, and those with whom securities or other property of the decedent are registered are authorized and empowered to comply with the order by paying, delivering, or transferring to those specified in the order the parts of the decedent's estate assigned to them by the order, and the persons so paying, delivering, or transferring shall not be accountable to anyone else for the property.

(c) After the entry of the order, bona fide purchasers for value from those to whom property of the decedent may be assigned by the order shall take the property free of all claims of creditors of the decedent and all rights of the surviving spouse and all other heirs and devisees.

(d) Property of the decedent that is not exempt from claims of creditors and that remains in the hands of those to whom it may be assigned by the order shall continue to be liable for claims against the decedent until barred as provided in this law.

(e) The petitioners for the order of family administration shall be personally liable for all lawful claims against the estate of the decedent, but only to the extent of the value of the estate of the decedent actually received by each petitioner, exclusive of the property exempt from claims of creditors under the Constitution and statutes of Florida.

(f) After 3 years from the death of the decedent, neither his estate nor those to whom it may be assigned shall be liable for any claim against the decedent, unless proceedings have been taken for the enforcement of the claim.

(g) Any heir or devisee of the decedent who was lawfully entitled to share in the estate but was not included in the order of family administration and distribution may enforce his rights against those who procured the order in appropriate proceedings and, when successful, shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees as an element of costs.

(4)(a) If the estate of the decedent includes real property and administration under chapter 733 has proceeded to the point that all claims of creditors have been processed or barred, or upon the satisfaction of all claims of creditors, if any, and after such hearing as the court may require, an order of family administration may be entered and the personal representative authorized to make distribution of the assets to the persons entitled to them. Upon evidence satisfactory to the court that distribution has been made, the court shall enter an order discharging the personal representative.

(b) Any heir or devisee of the decedent who was lawfully entitled to share in the estate but who was not included in the order of family administration and distribution may enforce his rights against those who procured the order in appropriate proceedings and, when successful, shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees as an element of costs.

History.—s. 103, ch. 75-220; s. 46, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

PART II

SUMMARY ADMINISTRATION

- 735.201 Summary administration; nature of proceedings.
- 735.202 May be administered in the same manner as other estates.
- 735.203 Petition for summary administration.
- 735.2055 Filing of petition.
- 735.206 Summary administration distribution.
- 735.209 Joinder of heirs, etc., in summary administration.

735.201 Summary administration; nature of proceedings.—Summary administration may be had in the administration of a decedent's estate when it appears:

(1) In a testate estate, that the decedent's will does not direct administration as required by chapter 733.

(2) That the value of the entire estate subject to administration in this state, less the value of property exempt from the claims of creditors, does not exceed $10,000 or that the decedent has been dead for more than 3 years.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 105, ch. 75-220.

735.202 May be administered in the same manner as other estates.—The estate may be administered in the same manner as the administration of any other estate, or it may be administered as provided in this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 735.02.

735.203 Petition for summary administration.—

(1) A petition for summary administration may be filed by any beneficiary, heir at law, or person nominated as personal representative in the decedent's will offered for probate and shall be signed and verified by:

(a) The surviving spouse, if any; the heirs at law or beneficiaries who are sui juris; and the guardians of any heirs at law or beneficiaries who are not sui juris; or

(b) The persons described by s. 735.209.

(2) A petition for summary administration shall contain, in addition to the statements required by paragraphs 733.202(2)(b) and (c), the following:

(a) Facts showing that petitioners are entitled to summary administration as provided in s. 735.201.

(b) A complete list of the assets of the estate and their estimated value, together with those assets claimed to be exempt.

(c) A statement that the estate is not indebted or that provision for payment of debts has been made.

(d) A proposed schedule of distribution of all assets to those entitled thereto as surviving spouse, beneficiaries, or creditors.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 107, ch. 75-220; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 735.05.

735.2055 Filing of petition.—The petition for summary administration may be filed at any stage of the administration of an estate if it appears that at the time of filing the estate would qualify.

History.—s. 47, ch. 77-87.

735.206 Summary administration distribution.—

(1) Upon the filing of the petition for summary administration, the will, if any, shall be proved in accordance with chapter 733 and be admitted to probate.

(2) After such hearing as the court may require, an order of summary administration may be entered allowing immediate distribution of the assets to the persons entitled to them.

(3) The order of summary administration and distribution so entered shall have the following effect:

(a) Those to whom specified parts of the decedent's estate, including exempt property, are assigned by the order shall be entitled to receive and collect the parts and to have the parts transferred to them. They may maintain actions to enforce the right.

(b) Debtors of the decedent, those holding property of the decedent, and those with whom securities or other property of the decedent are registered are authorized and empowered to comply with the order by paying, delivering, or transferring to those specified in the order the parts of the decedent's estate assigned to them by the order, and the persons so paying, delivering, or transferring shall not be accountable to anyone else for the property.

(c) After the entry of the order, bona fide purchasers for value from those to whom property of the decedent may be assigned by the order shall take the property free of all claims of creditors of the decedent and all rights of the surviving spouse and all other heirs and devisees.

(d) Property of the decedent that is not exempt from claims of creditors and that remains in the hands of those to whom it may be assigned by the order shall continue to be liable for claims against the decedent until barred as provided in this law.

(e) The petitioners for the order of summary administration shall be personally liable for all lawful claims against the estate of the decedent, but only to the extent of the value of the estate of the decedent actually received by each petitioner, exclusive of the property exempt from claims of creditors under the Constitution and statutes of Florida.

(f) After 3 years from the death of the decedent, neither his estate nor those to whom it may be assigned shall be liable for any claim against the decedent, unless proceedings have been taken for the enforcement of the claim.

(g) Any heir or devisee of the decedent who was lawfully entitled to share in the estate but who was not included in the order of summary administration and distribution may enforce his rights in appropriate proceedings against those who procured the order and, when successful, shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees as an element of costs.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 108, ch. 75-220; s. 48, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 735.07.

735.209 Joinder of heirs, etc., in summary administration.—

(1) When any heir, devisee, or surviving spouse is authorized or required under this part to join in any agreement or petition and any such person has died, become incompetent or is a minor, or has conveyed or transferred all of his or her interest in the property of the estate, then:

- (a) The heirs, devisees, and surviving spouse, if any, of a deceased person,
- (b) The personal representative, if any, of the estate of a deceased person,
- (c) The guardian of an incompetent or minor, or
- (d) The grantee or transferee of any of them shall be authorized to join in such agreement or petition instead of the heir, devisee, or surviving spouse.

(2) The joinder in, or consent to, a petition for summary administration is not required of an heir or beneficiary who will receive his full distributive share under the proposed distribution. Any beneficiary not joining or consenting shall receive formal notice of the petition.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 109, ch. 75-220; s. 49, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 735.14.

PART III

DISPOSITION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY WITHOUT ADMINISTRATION

- 735.301 Disposition without administration.
- 735.302 Income tax refunds in certain cases.

735.301 Disposition without administration.—

(1) No administration shall be required or formal proceedings instituted upon the estate of a decedent leaving only personal property exempt under the provisions of s. 732.402, personal property exempt from the claims of creditors under the Constitution of Florida, and nonexempt personal property the value of which does not exceed the sum of the amount of preferred funeral expenses and reasonable and necessary medical and hospital expenses of the last 60 days of the last illness.

(2) Upon informal application by affidavit, letter, or otherwise by any interested party, and if the court is satisfied that subsection (1) is applicable, the court, by letter or other writing under the seal of the court, may authorize the payment, transfer, or disposition of the personal property, tangible or intangible, belonging to the decedent to those persons entitled.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation paying, delivering, or transferring property under the authorization shall be forever discharged from any liability thereon.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 111, ch. 75-220; s. 50, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 275, ch. 79-400.

735.302 Income tax refunds in certain cases.—

(1) In any case when the United States Treasury Department determines that an overpayment of federal income tax exists and the person in whose favor the overpayment is determined is dead at the time the overpayment of tax is to be refunded, and irrespective of whether the decedent had filed a joint and several or separate income tax return, the amount of the overpayment, if not in excess of $500, may be refunded as follows:

- (a) Directly to the surviving spouse on his or her verified application; or
- (b) If there is no surviving spouse, to one of decedent's children who is designated in a verified application purporting to be executed by all of the decedent's children over the age of 14 years.

In either event, the application must show that the decedent was not indebted, that provision has been made for the payment of the decedent's debts, or that the entire estate is exempt from the claims of creditors under the Constitution and statutes of the state, and that no administration of the estate, including summary administration, has been initiated and that none is planned, to the knowledge of the applicant.

(2) If a refund is made to the surviving spouse or designated child pursuant to the application, the refund shall operate as a complete discharge to the United States from liability from any action, claim, or demand by any beneficiary of the decedent or other person. Nothing in this section shall be construed as establishing the ownership or rights of any person in the refund so distributed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 112, ch. 75-220; s. 51, ch. 77-87; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

PART I

TRUST REGISTRATION

- 737.101 Principal place of administration of trust; duty to register trust.
- 737.105 Qualification of foreign trustee.

737.101 Principal place of administration of trust; duty to register trust.—

(1) Unless otherwise designated in the trust agreement, the principal place of administration of a trust is the trustee's usual place of business where the records pertaining to the trust are kept or, if he has no place of business, the trustee's residence.

(2) If not otherwise designated in the trust instrument in the case of cotrustees, the principal place of administration is:

- (a) The usual place of business of the corporate trustee, if there is but one corporate cotrustee;
- (b) The usual place of business or residence of the individual trustee who is a professional fiduciary, if there is but one such person and no corporate cotrustee; or otherwise,

(c) The usual place of business or residence of any of the cotrustees as agreed upon by them.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 1, ch. 75-221; s. 1, ch. 77-344.
cf.—s. 731.201 General definitions.

737.105 Qualification of foreign trustee.—Unless otherwise doing business in this state, local qualification by a foreign trustee is not required in order for the trustee to receive distribution from a local estate. Nothing in this chapter shall affect the provisions of s. 660.10.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 1, ch. 75-221.

PART II

JURISDICTION OF COURTS

- 737.201 Court powers over trusts.
- 737.202 Trust proceedings; venue.
- 737.203 Trust proceedings; dismissal of matters relating to foreign trusts.
- 737.204 Proceedings for review of employment of agents and review of compensation of trustee and employees of trust.

737.205 Trust proceedings; commencement.

737.201 Court powers over trusts.—

(1) The proceedings that may be maintained under this section are those concerning the administration and distribution of trusts, the declaration of rights, and the determination of any other matters involving trustees and beneficiaries of trusts. These include, but are not limited to, proceedings to:

- (a) Appoint or remove a trustee.
- (b) Review trustees' fees and to review and settle interim or final accounts.
- (c) Ascertain beneficiaries; determine any question arising in the administration or distribution of any trust, including questions of construction of trust instruments; instruct trustees; and determine the existence or nonexistence of any immunity, power, privilege, duty, or right.

(2) A proceeding under this section does not result in continuing supervisory proceedings. The management and distribution of a trust estate, submission of accounts and reports to beneficiaries, payment of trustee's fees and other obligations of a trust, acceptance and change of trusteeship, and other aspects of the administration of a trust shall proceed expeditiously, consistent with the terms of the trust, free of judicial intervention and without order, approval, or other action of any court, subject to the jurisdiction of the court invoked by interested parties or otherwise exercised as provided by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 2, ch. 75-221; s. 3, ch. 77-344.

737.202 Trust proceedings; venue.—Venue for actions and proceedings concerning trusts, including those under s. 737.201, may be laid in:

- (1) Any county where the venue is proper under chapter 47.
- (2) Any county where the beneficiary suing or being sued resides or has its principal place of business.
- (3) The county where the trust has its principal place of administration.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 4, ch. 77-344.

737.203 Trust proceedings; dismissal of matters relating to foreign trusts.—Over the objection of a party, the court shall not entertain proceedings under s. 737.201 for a trust registered, or having its principal place of administration, in another state unless all interested parties could not be bound by litigation in the courts of the state where the trust is registered or has its principal place of administration. The court may condition a stay or dismissal of a proceeding under this section on the consent of any party to jurisdiction of the state where the trust is registered or has its principal place of business, or the court may grant a continuance or enter any other appropriate order.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

737.204 Proceedings for review of employment of agents and review of compensation of trustee and employees of trust.—After notice to all interested persons, the court may review the propriety of employment by a trustee of any person, including any attorney, auditor, investment advisor, or other specialized agent or assistant, and the reasonableness of the compensation of any person so employed and of the compensation determined by the trustee for his own services. A person who has received excessive compensation from a trust may be ordered to make a refund of the excess.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 4, ch. 75-221.

737.205 Trust proceedings; commencement.—Proceedings concerning trusts shall be commenced by filing a complaint and shall be governed by the Rules of Civil Procedure.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 4, ch. 75-221.

PART III

DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF TRUSTEES

- 737.301 General duties not limited.
- 737.302 Trustee's standard of care and performance.
- 737.303 Duty to inform and account to beneficiaries.
- 737.304 Duty to provide bond.
- 737.305 Trustee's duty concerning location of trust.
- 737.3053 Trustee's duty to distribute trust income.
- 737.3055 Trustee's duty to ascertain marketable title of trust real property.
- 737.306 Personal liability of trustee to third parties.
- 737.307 Limitations on proceedings against trustees after beneficiary receives account.

737.301 General duties not limited.—Except as specifically provided, the general duty of the trustee to administer a trust diligently for the benefit of the beneficiaries is not altered by this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

737.302 Trustee's standard of care and performance.—Except as otherwise provided by the trust instrument, the trustee shall observe the standards in dealing with the trust assets that would be observed by a prudent trustee dealing with the property of another. If the trustee has special skills, or is named trustee on the basis of representations of special skills or expertise, he is under a duty to use those skills.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 6, ch. 75-221.

737.303 Duty to inform and account to beneficiaries.—The trustee shall keep the beneficiaries of the trust reasonably informed of the trust and its administration. In addition:

(1) Within 30 days after his acceptance of the trust, the trustee shall inform the current income beneficiaries and vested remaindermen in writing of his acceptance of the trust and of his name and address.

(2) Upon reasonable request, the trustee shall provide a beneficiary as defined under ss. 731.201 and 731.303 with a copy of the trust instrument that describes or affects his interest.

(3) Upon reasonable request, the trustee shall provide any vested beneficiary with relevant information about the assets of the trust and the particulars relating to administration.

(4) A vested beneficiary is entitled to a statement of the accounts of the trust annually and upon termination of the trust or upon change of the trustee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 6, ch. 75-221; s. 5, ch. 77-344.

737.304 Duty to provide bond.—A trustee need not provide bond to secure performance of his duties unless this is required by the trust instrument, reasonably requested by a beneficiary, or found by the court to be necessary to protect the interests of beneficiaries who are not able to protect themselves and whose interests otherwise are not adequately represented. On application of the trustee or other interested person, the court may excuse a requirement of bond, increase or reduce the amount of the bond, release the surety, or permit the substitution of another bond with the same or different sureties. If bond is required, it shall be filed in the clerk's office in the county where the trust has its principal place of business, in amounts and with surety as provided in s. 45.011 and conditioned on the faithful performance of the trust.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 6, ch. 75-221; s. 6, ch. 77-344.

737.305 Trustee's duty concerning location of trust.—A trustee is under a continuing duty to administer the trust at a place appropriate to the purposes of the trust and its sound, efficient management. If the principal place of administration becomes inappropriate for any reason, the court may enter an order for the purposes of furthering efficient administration and the interests of beneficiaries, including, if appropriate, removal of the trustee and appointment of a trustee in another state. Trust provisions relating to the place of administration and to changes in the place of administration or of trustee shall control, unless compliance would be contrary to efficient administration or the purposes of the trust. Views of adult beneficiaries shall be given weight in determining the suitability of the trustee and the place of administration.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-221; s. 7, ch. 77-344.

737.3053 Trustee's duty to distribute trust income.—If a will or trust instrument granting income to the grantor's or testator's spouse for life with a general power of appointment in the spouse is silent as to the time of distribution of income and the frequency thereof, the trustee shall distribute all net income to the income beneficiary, as defined in chapter 738, no less frequently than annually. This provision shall apply to any trust established before, on, or after the effective date hereof unless the trust instrument expressly directs or permits net income to be distributed less frequently than annually.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-343.

737.3055 Trustee's duty to ascertain marketable title of trust real property.—A trustee holding title to real property received from a settlor or estate shall not be required to obtain title insurance or proof of marketable title until a marketable title is required for a sale or conveyance of the real property.

History.—s. 4, ch. 79-343.

737.306 Personal liability of trustee to third parties.—

(1) Unless otherwise provided in the contract, a trustee is not personally liable on contracts, except contracts for attorneys' fees, properly entered into in his fiduciary capacity in the course of administration of the trust estate unless he fails to reveal his representative capacity and identify the trust estate in the contract.

(2) A trustee is personally liable for obligations arising from ownership or control of property of the trust estate or for torts committed in the course of administration of the trust estate only if he is personally at fault.

(3) Claims based on contracts, except contracts for attorneys' fees, entered into by a trustee in his fiduciary capacity, on obligations arising from ownership or control of the trust estate, or on torts committed in the course of trust administration may be asserted against the trust estate by proceeding against the trustee in his fiduciary capacity, whether or not the trustee is personally liable.

(4) Issues of liability between the trust estate and the trustee individually may be determined in a proceeding for accounting, surcharge, or indemnification, or in any other appropriate proceeding.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-221; s. 8, ch. 77-344.

737.307 Limitations on proceedings against trustees after beneficiary receives account.—Unless previously barred by adjudication, consent, or limitations, an action against a trustee for breach of trust is barred for any beneficiary who has received a final, annual, or periodic account or other statement fully disclosing the matter unless a proceeding to assert the claim is commenced within 6 months after receipt of the final, annual, or periodic account or statement. In any event, and notwithstanding lack of full disclosure, all claims against a trustee who has issued a final account or statement received by the beneficiary and has informed the beneficiary of the location and availability of records for his examination are barred as provided in chapter 95. A beneficiary has received a final account or statement if, being an adult, it is received by him or if, being a minor or disabled person, it is received by his representative as described in s. 731.303.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-221.

PART IV

POWERS OF TRUSTEES

- 737.401 Powers of trustee conferred by trust or by law.
- 737.402 Powers of trustees conferred by this part.
- 737.403 Power of court to permit deviation or to approve transactions involving conflict of interest.
- 737.404 Powers exercisable by joint trustees; liability.
- 737.405 Third persons protected.
- 737.406 Application of this part.
- 737.407 Final accounting under Trust Accounting Law required.

737.401 Powers of trustee conferred by trust or by law.—The trustee has all powers conferred upon him by this part, unless limited in the trust instrument.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-221; s. 9, ch. 77-344.

737.402 Powers of trustees conferred by this part.—

(1) From the time of creation of the trust until final distribution of the assets of the trust, a trustee has the power to perform every act that a prudent trustee would perform for the purposes of the trust, without court authorization, including, but not limited to, the powers specified in subsection (2).

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the trust instrument, a trustee has the power:

(a) To collect, hold, and retain trust assets received from a settlor until disposition of the assets should be made. The assets may be retained even though they include an asset in which the trustee is personally interested.

(b) To hold without liability, other than that involved in holding property legal for investment of trust funds, any and all property received from or through the settlor of the trust, whether or not permissible for investment of funds of that particular trust, and any property lawfully coming into the hands of the trustees instead of or in substitution therefor, including the power to exchange capital stock of any bank or trust company, including capital stock of the corporate trustee, for capital stock in any registered bank holding company if the bank holding company is subject to the provisions of Title 12, U.S.C., s. 1841 et seq., as amended, commonly known as the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956. This provision shall not be construed to cover reinvestments of cash made by the trustee except the purchase of fractional shares and the exercise of rights acquired in the exchange.

(c) To receive additions to the assets of the trust.

(d) To continue or participate in the operation of any business or other enterprise and to effect incorporation, dissolution, or other change in the form of the organization of the business or enterprise.

(e) To acquire an undivided interest in a trust asset in which the trustee holds an undivided interest in any trust capacity.

(f) To invest and reinvest trust assets in accordance with the provisions of the trust or as provided by law.

(g) If a bank, to deposit trust funds in another department of the same entity or in a bank that is affiliated with the trustee bank.

(h) To acquire or dispose of an asset for cash or on credit at a public or private sale; to manage, develop, improve, exchange, partition, change the character of, or abandon a trust asset or any interest in it; and to encumber, mortgage, or pledge a trust asset for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the trustee.

(i) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, or to raze existing, or erect new, party walls or buildings.

(j) To subdivide, develop, or dedicate land to public use; to make, or obtain the vacation of, plats and adjust boundaries; to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; or to dedicate easements to public use without consideration.

(k) To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust.

(l) To enter into a lease or arrangement for exploration and removal of minerals or other natural resources or enter into a pooling or unitization agreement.

(m) To grant an option involving disposition of a trust asset or to take an option for the acquisition of any asset.

(n) To vote a security, in person or by general or limited proxy, or not to vote a security.

(o) To pay calls, assessments, and any other sums chargeable or accruing against, or on account of, securities.

(p) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights and consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise.

(q) To hold property in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the trust so that title to the property may pass by delivery, but the trustee is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the property so held.

(r) To insure the assets of the trust against damage or loss and insure the trustee against liability with respect to third persons.

(s) To borrow money, to be repaid from trust assets or otherwise, and to advance money for the protection of the trust and for all expenses, losses, and liabilities sustained in the administration of the trust or because of the holding or ownership of any trust assets, for which advances, with any interest, the trustee has a lien on the trust assets as against the beneficiary.

(t) To pay or contest any claim; to settle a claim by or against the trust by compromise, arbitration, or otherwise; and to release any claim belonging to the trust in whole or in part to the extent that the claim is uncollectible.

(u) To pay taxes, assessments, compensation of the trustee, and other expenses incurred in the collection, care, administration, and protection of the trust.

(v) To allocate items of income or expense to either trust income or principal, as provided by law.

(w) To pay any sum distributable to a beneficiary under legal disability to the beneficiary or by paying the sum for the use of the beneficiary either to a legal representative appointed by the court or, if none, to a relative; and, when income is directed to be paid to minors, apply and expend it for their benefit either with or without the intervention of a guardian.

(x) To effect distribution of property and money in divided or undivided interests and to adjust resulting differences in valuation.

(y) To employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisors, or agents, even if they are the trustee or associated with the trustee, to advise or assist the trustee in the performance of his administrative duties; to act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and, instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary.

(z) To prosecute or defend actions, claims, or proceedings for the protection of trust assets and of the trustee in the performance of his duties.

(aa) To execute and deliver all instruments that will accomplish or facilitate the exercise of the powers vested in the trustee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 691.03.

737.403 Power of court to permit deviation or to approve transactions involving conflict of interest.—

(1) This part does not affect the power of the court to relieve a trustee for cause from any restrictions on his power that would otherwise be placed upon him by the trust or by this part.

(2) If the duty of the trustee and his individual interest or his interest as trustee of another trust conflict in the exercise of a trust power, the power may be exercised only by court authorization, except as provided in s. 737.402(2)(a), (e), (g), (s) and (y). Under this section, personal profit or advantage to an affiliated or subsidiary company or association is personal profit to any corporate trustee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-221.

737.404 Powers exercisable by joint trustees; liability.—

(1) Any power vested in three or more trustees may be exercised by a majority, but a trustee who has not joined in exercising a power is not liable to the beneficiaries or to others for the consequences of the exercise, and a dissenting trustee is not liable for the consequences of an act in which he joins at the direction of the majority of the trustees if he expressed his dissent in writing to any of his cotrustees at or before the time of the joinder.

(2) If two or more trustees are appointed to perform a trust and any of them is unable or refuses to accept the appointment or, having accepted, ceases to be a trustee, the surviving or remaining trustees shall perform the trust and succeed to all the powers, duties, and discretionary authority given to the trustees jointly.

(3) This section does not excuse a cotrustee from liability for failure either to participate in the administration of the trust or to attempt to prevent a breach of trust.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 691.04.

737.405 Third persons protected.—With respect to a third person dealing with a trustee or assisting a trustee in the conduct of a transaction, the existence of trust powers and their proper exercise by the trustee may be assumed without inquiry. The third person is not bound to inquire whether the trustee has power to act or is properly exercising the power. A third person without actual knowledge that the trustee is exceeding his powers or improperly exercising them is as fully protected in dealing with the trustee as if the trustee possessed and properly exercised the powers he purports to exercise. A third person is not bound to assure the proper application of trust assets paid or delivered to the trustee.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 10, ch. 75-221; s. 10, ch. 77-344.

737.406 Application of this part.—Except as specifically provided in the trust, the provisions of this part apply to any trust established before or after the effective date of this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

737.407 Final accounting under Trust Accounting Law required.—For the purpose of concluding the accounting of trusts being administered under the Trust Accounting Law, all trustees shall submit a final accounting, to be approved by the court, within 1 year from January 1, 1976.

History.—s. 19, ch. 75-221; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 11, ch. 77-344.
Note.—Former s. 738.151.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS

- 737.501 Definitions.
- 737.502 Application of this part.
- 737.503 Trustee of a private foundation trust or a split interest trust.
- 737.504 Powers and duties of trustee of a private foundation trust or a split interest trust.
- 737.505 Notice that this part does not apply.
- 737.506 Power to amend trust instrument.
- 737.507 Power of court to permit deviation.
- 737.508 Release; property and persons affected; manner of effecting.
- 737.509 Election to come under this part.
- 737.510 Supervision by public charitable organization.
- 737.511 Interpretation.

737.512 Inapplicability to certain trusts.

737.501 Definitions.—As used in this part:

(1) Unless otherwise indicated, section references relate to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in effect on January 1, 1971, and the references are to sections of Title 26 of the United States Code as in effect on that date.

(2) "Charitable organization" means an organization described in s. 501(c)(3) and exempt from tax under s. 501(a).

(3) "Private foundation trust" means a trust, including a trust described in s. 4947(a)(1), as defined in s. 509(a).

(4) "Split interest trust" means a trust for individual and charitable beneficiaries that is subject to the provisions of s. 4947(a)(2).

(5) "State attorney" means:

(a) The state attorney for the judicial circuit having original jurisdiction of the trust if the trust is registered.

(b) The state attorney for the judicial circuit where the trustee is domiciled or has his principal place of business if the trust is not registered.

(6) "Trust" means an express trust created by a trust instrument, including a will.

(7) "Trustee" means the trustee, trustees, person, or persons possessing a power or powers referred to in this part concerning a private foundation trust or a split interest trust.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 691.11.

737.502 Application of this part.—Except as otherwise provided in the trust, the provisions of this part apply to all private foundation trusts and split interest trusts, whether created or established before or after November 1, 1971, and to all trust assets acquired by the trustee before or after November 1, 1971.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 691.12.

737.503 Trustee of a private foundation trust or a split interest trust.—Except as provided in s. 737.505, F.S., the trustee of a private foundation trust or a split interest trust has the duties and powers conferred on him by this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 691.13.

737.504 Powers and duties of trustee of a private foundation trust or a split interest trust.—

(1) In the exercise of his powers, including the powers granted by this part, a trustee has a duty to act with due regard to his obligation as a fiduciary, including a duty not to exercise any power in such a way as to:

(a) Deprive the trust of an otherwise available tax exemption, deduction, or credit for tax purposes.

(b) Deprive a donor of a trust asset or tax deduction or credit.

(c) Operate to impose a tax upon a donor, trust, or other person.

"Tax" includes, but is not limited to, any federal, state, or local excise, income, gift, estate, or inheritance tax.

(2) Except as provided in s. 737.505, F.S., a trustee of a private foundation trust shall make distributions at such time and in such manner as not to subject the trust to tax under s. 4942.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) and in s. 737.505, F.S., a trustee of a private foundation trust, or a split interest trust to the extent that the split interest trust is subject to the provisions of s. 4947(a)(2), in the exercise of his powers shall not:

(a) Engage in any act of self dealing as defined in s. 4941(d).

(b) Retain any excess business holdings as defined in s. 4943(c).

(c) Make any investments in a manner that subjects the foundation to tax under s. 4944.

(d) Make any taxable expenditures as defined in s. 4945(d).

(4) Paragraphs (3)(b) and (c) shall not apply to a split interest trust if:

(a) All the income interest, and none of the remainder interest, of the trust is devoted solely to one or more of the purposes described in s. 170(c)(2)(B), and all amounts in the trust for which a deduction was allowed under ss. 170, 545(b)(2), 556(b)(2), 642(c), 2055, 2106(a)(2), or 2522 have an aggregate fair market value of not more than 60 percent of the aggregate fair market value of all amounts in the trust; or

(b) A deduction was allowed under ss. 170, 545(b)(2), 556(b)(2), 642(c), 2055, 2106(a)(2), or 2522 for amounts payable under the terms of the trust to every remainder beneficiary, but not to any income beneficiary.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 691.14.

737.505 Notice that this part does not apply.

—In the case of a power to make distributions, if the trustee determines that the governing instrument contains provisions that are more restrictive than s. 737.504(2), F.S., or if the trust contains other powers, inconsistent with the provisions of s. 737.504(3), F.S., that specifically direct acts by the trustee, the trustee shall notify the state attorney within 6 months after November 1, 1971, or when the trust becomes subject to this part, whichever last occurs. Section 737.504, F.S., shall not apply to any trust for which notice has been given unless the trust is amended to comply with the terms of this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 691.15.

737.506 Power to amend trust instrument.—

(1) In the case of a trust that is solely for a named charitable organization or organizations and for which the trustee does not possess any discretion concerning the distribution of income or principal among two or more such organizations, the trustee may amend the governing instrument to comply with the provisions of subsection 737.504(2), F.S., with the consent of the named charitable organization or organizations.

(2) In the case of a charitable trust that is not subject to the provisions of subsection (1), the trustee may amend the governing instrument to comply with the provisions of subsection 737.504(2), F.S., with the consent of the state attorney.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 691.16.

737.507 Power of court to permit deviation.—

This part does not affect the power of a court to relieve a trustee from any restrictions on his powers and duties that are placed upon him by the governing instrument or applicable law for cause shown and upon complaint of the trustee, state attorney, or an affected beneficiary and notice to the affected parties.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 691.17.

737.508 Release; property and persons affected; manner of effecting.—

(1) The trustee of a trust, all of the unexpired interests in which are devoted to one or more charitable purposes, may release a power to select charitable donees unless the creating instrument provides otherwise.

(2) The release of a power to select charitable donees may apply to all or any part of the property subject to the power and may reduce or limit the charitable organizations, or classes of charitable organizations, in whose favor the power is exercisable.

(3) A release shall be effected by a duly acknowledged written instrument signed by the trustee and delivered as provided in subsection (4).

(4) Delivery of a release shall be accomplished as follows:

(a) If the release is accomplished by specifying a charitable organization or organizations as beneficiary or beneficiaries of the trust, by delivery of a copy of the release to each designated charitable organization.

(b) If the release is accomplished by reducing the class of permissible charitable organizations, by delivery of a copy of the release to the state attorney.

(5) If a release is accomplished by specifying a public charitable organization or organizations as beneficiary or beneficiaries of the trust, the trust at all times thereafter shall be operated exclusively for the benefit of, and be supervised by, the specified public charitable organization or organizations.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 691.18.

737.509 Election to come under this part.—

With the consent of that organization or organizations, a trustee of a trust for the benefit of a public charitable organization or organizations may come under subsection 737.508(5), F.S., by filing with the state attorney an election, accompanied by the proof of required consent. Thereafter the trust shall be subject to subsection 737.508(5) and s. 737.510, F.S.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 691.19.

737.510 Supervision by public charitable organization.—

(1) The trustee of a trust subject to the supervision by a specified public charitable organization or organizations, as provided in subsection 737.508(5),

F.S., shall file with each specified charitable organization:

(a) A true copy of the governing instrument with a verified written report setting forth complete information concerning the nature of the assets and liabilities at the delivery of the release pursuant to subsection 737.508(4), F.S., or the filing of the election under s. 737.509, F.S.

(b) An annual report within 4½ months following the close of each year setting forth a complete statement of receipts, disbursements, assets with cost and market value of each asset, and liabilities.

(c) Such other information as may be necessary to compel proper administration of the trust.

(2) By delivery of the release or execution of the election, as the case may be, the trustee and each specified public charitable organization, by accepting delivery of the release as provided in subsection 737.508(4), F.S., or by consenting to the election in s. 737.509, F.S., agree that the public charitable organization or organizations shall have:

(a) The power and duty to compel the proper administration of the trust.

(b) The power to inspect the books, records, memoranda, papers, documents of title, and evidence of assets, liabilities, receipts, or disbursements in the possession or control of the trustee or other person having custody of the books and records.

(c) The power to require such other information as may be necessary to compel proper administration of the trust.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 691.20.

737.511 Interpretation.—This part shall be interpreted to effectuate the intent of the state to preserve, foster, and encourage gifts to, or for the benefit of, charitable organizations.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 691.21.

737.512 Inapplicability to certain trusts.—This part shall not apply to any trust to the extent that a court shall determine, in a proceeding initiated before November 1, 1971, that the application would be contrary to the terms of the instrument governing the trust and that it may not properly be changed to conform to the provisions of this part, but nothing herein shall be construed as creating or imposing on the trustee of any trust any obligation to initiate a proceeding to obtain any court determination with respect to the application of the provisions of this part.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-221.

- 738.15 Application of this chapter.

738.01 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Income beneficiary" means the person to whom income is presently payable or for whom it is accumulated for distribution as income.

(2) "Inventory value" means the cost of property purchased by the trustee and the market value of other property at the time it became subject to the trust.

(3) "Remainderman" means the person entitled to principal, including income that has been accumulated and added to principal.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 13, ch. 75-221; s. 2, ch. 77-254.

Note.—Created from former s. 690.02.

cf.—s. 731.201 General definitions.

738.02 Duty of trustee for receipts and expenditures.—

(1) A trust shall be administered with due regard to the respective interests of income beneficiaries and remaindermen. A trust is so administered with respect to the allocation of receipts and expenditures if a receipt is credited, or an expenditure is charged, to income or principal, or partly to each:

(a) In accordance with the terms of the trust instrument, notwithstanding contrary provisions of this chapter;

(b) In accordance with the provisions of this chapter, in the absence of any contrary terms of the trust instrument; or

(c) If neither of the preceding rules of administration is applicable, in accordance with what is reasonable and equitable in view of:

1. The interests of those entitled to income as well as of those entitled to principal, and

2. The manner in which men of ordinary prudence would act in the management of the property of another.

(2) If the trust instrument gives the trustee discretion in crediting a receipt or charging an expenditure to income or principal, or partly to each, no inference of imprudence or partiality arises from the fact that the trustee has made an allocation contrary to a provision of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 13, ch. 75-221.

738.03 Income; principal; charges.—

(1) "Income" is the return in money or property derived from the use of principal, including return received as:

(a) Rent of real or personal property, including sums received for cancellation or renewal of a lease.

(b) Interest on money lent, including sums received as consideration for the privilege of prepayment of principal, except as provided in s. 738.07(1) on bond premium and bond discount.

(c) Income earned during administration of a decedent's estate as provided in s. 738.05.

(d) Corporate distributions as provided in s. 738.06.

(e) Accrued increment on bonds or other obligations issued at discount as provided in s. 738.07(2).

(f) Receipts from business and farming operations, as provided in s. 738.08.

(g) Receipts from disposition of natural resources, as provided in ss. 738.09 and 738.10.

(h) Receipts from other principal subject to depletion, as provided in s. 738.11.

(i) Receipts from disposition of underproductive property as provided in s. 738.12.

(2) "Principal" is the property that has been set aside by the owner or the person legally empowered so that it is held in trust eventually to be delivered to a remainderman, while the return or use of the principal is in the meantime taken or received by, or held for accumulation for, an income beneficiary. "Principal" includes:

(a) Consideration received by the trustee on the sale or other transfer of principal, on repayment of a loan, or as a refund, replacement, or change in the form of principal.

(b) Proceeds of property taken in eminent domain proceedings.

(c) Proceeds of insurance upon property forming part of the principal, except proceeds of insurance upon a separate interest of an income beneficiary.

(d) Stock dividends, receipts on liquidation of a corporation, and other corporate distributions as provided in s. 738.06.

(e) Receipts from the disposition of corporate securities as provided in s. 738.07.

(f) Royalties and other receipts from disposition of natural resources as provided in ss. 738.09 and 738.10.

(g) Receipts from other principal subject to depletion, as provided in s. 738.11.

(h) Any profit resulting from any change in the form of principal, except as provided in s. 738.12 on underproductive property.

(i) Receipts from disposition of underproductive property, as provided in s. 738.12.

(j) Any allowances for depreciation established under s. 738.08 and paragraph 738.13(1)(b).

(3) After determining income and principal in accordance with the trust instrument or this chapter, the trustee shall charge expenses and other charges to income or principal as provided in s. 738.13.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 14, ch. 75-221; s. 3, ch. 77-254.
Note.—Created from former s. 690.04.

738.04 When right to income arises; apportionment of income.—

(1) An income beneficiary is entitled to income from the date specified in the trust instrument or, if none is specified, from the date an asset becomes subject to the trust. In the case of an asset becoming subject to a trust by reason of a will, it becomes subject to the trust at the date of the death of the testator even though there is an intervening period of administration of the testator's estate.

(2) In the administration of a decedent's estate or upon an asset becoming subject to a trust by reason of a will:

(a) Receipts due but not paid at the date of death of the testator are principal.

(b) Receipts in the form of periodic payments, including rent, interest, or annuities, except as provided in paragraph (c) and other than corporate distributions to stockholders, distributions from mutual funds, and dividends from savings banks and savings and loan associations, not due at the date of the death of the testator shall be treated as accruing from day to day. That part of the receipt accruing before the date of death is principal and the balance is income.

(c) Anything contained in this subsection to the contrary notwithstanding, proceeds from a qualified pension or profit-sharing plan, including, but not limited to, corporate plans, partnership and individual self-employment retirement plans, and individual retirement accounts, as those terms are used in the Internal Revenue Code of the United States as from time to time amended, which are received or paid in installments or annuity payments shall be principal, except to the extent of interest or other income earned on such proceeds after the death of the testator.

(3) In all other cases, any receipt from an income-producing asset is income even though the receipt was earned or accrued in whole or in part before the date when the asset became subject to the trust.

(4) On termination of an income interest, the income beneficiary whose interest is terminated, or his estate, is entitled to:

(a) Income undistributed on the date of termination.

(b) Income due but not paid to the trustee on the date of termination.

(c) Income in the form of periodic payments, including rent, interest, or annuities, other than corporate distributions to stockholders, distributions from mutual funds, and dividends from savings banks and savings and loan associations, not due on the date of termination, accrued from day to day.

(5) Corporate distributions to stockholders, distributions from mutual funds, and dividends from savings banks and savings and loan associations shall be treated as due on the day fixed by the corporation for determination of stockholders of record entitled to distribution or, if no date is fixed, on the date of declaration of the distribution by the corporation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 14, ch. 75-221; s. 1, ch. 77-254; s. 276, ch. 79-400.
Note.—Created from former s. 690.05.

738.05 Income earned during administration of a decedent's estate.—

(1) Unless the will otherwise provides, and subject to subsection (2), all expenses incurred in connection with the settlement of a decedent's estate, including debts, funeral expenses, estate and other death taxes, family allowances, fees of attorneys and personal representatives, and court costs shall be charged against the principal of the estate.

(2) Unless the will otherwise provides, income from the assets of a decedent's estate after the death of the testator and before distribution, including income from property used to discharge liabilities, shall be determined in accordance with the rules applicable to a trustee under this chapter and distributed as follows:

(a) To specific devisees, the income from the property bequeathed or devised to them respectively, including an appropriate portion of interest accrued since the death of the testator, and less taxes, the cost of ordinary repairs, other expenses of management and operation of the property, and taxes imposed on income, excluding taxes on capital gains, that accrue during the period of administration.

(b) To all other devisees, except devisees of pecuniary bequests not in trust, the balance of the income, including interest accrued since the death of the testator, and less the balance of taxes, the cost of ordinary repairs, other expenses of management and operation of all property from which the estate is entitled to income, and taxes imposed on income, excluding taxes on capital gains, that accrue during the period of administration, in proportion to their respective interests in the undistributed assets of the estate computed at times of distribution on the basis of inventory value.

(3) Income received by a trustee under paragraph (2)(b) shall be treated as income of the trust.

(4) Unless the will otherwise provides, interest and penalties attributable to estate and other death taxes may be charged against either the principal or income of the estate in the sole discretion of the personal representative.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 14, ch. 75-221; s. 1, ch. 79-343.

738.06 Corporate distributions.—

(1) Corporate distributions of shares of the distributing corporation, including distributions in the form of a stock split or stock dividend, are principal. A right to subscribe to shares or other securities issued by the distributing corporation accruing to stockholders on account of their stock ownership and the proceeds of any sale of the right are principal.

(2) Except to the extent that the corporation indicates that some part of a corporate distribution is a settlement of preferred or guaranteed dividends accrued since the trustee became a stockholder or is, instead, a settlement of an ordinary cash dividend, a corporate distribution is principal if the distribution is pursuant to:

(a) A call of shares.

(b) A merger, consolidation, reorganization, or other plan by which assets of the corporation are acquired by another corporation.

(c) A total or partial liquidation of the corporation, including any distribution which the corporation indicates is a distribution in total or partial liquidation.

(d) Any distribution of assets pursuant to a judgment or final administrative order by a governmental agency ordering distribution of the particular assets.

(3) Distributions made from ordinary income by a regulated investment company, or by a trust qualifying and electing to be taxed under federal law as a real estate investment trust, are income. All other distributions made by the company or trust, including distributions from capital gains, depreciation, or depletion, whether in the form of cash, an option to take new stock or cash, or an option to purchase additional shares, are principal.

(4) Except as provided in subsections (1), (2), and (3), all corporate distributions are income, including:

(a) Cash dividends.

(b) Distributions of, or rights to subscribe to, shares or securities or obligations of corporations other than the distributing corporation and the proceeds of the rights or property distributions.

(c) Constructive dividends of ordinary income from Subchapter S corporations, reduced by losses passing to the shareholder.

Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), if the distributing corporation gives a stockholder an option to receive a distribution either in cash or in its own shares, the distribution chosen is income.

(5) The trustee may rely upon any statement of the distributing corporation about any fact relevant under any provision of this chapter concerning the source or character of dividends or distributions of corporate assets.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 14, ch. 75-221; s. 230, ch. 77-104; s. 4, ch. 77-254; s. 277, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Created from former s. 690.06.

738.07 Bond premium and discount.—

(1) Bonds or other obligations for the payment of money are principal at their inventory value. No provision shall be made for amortization of bond premiums or for accumulation for discount. The proceeds of sale, redemption, or other disposition of the bonds or obligations are principal.

(2) The increment in value of a bond or other obligation for the payment of money bearing no stated interest but payable at a future time in excess of the price at which it was issued or purchased, if purchased after issuance, is distributable as income. If the increment in value accrues and becomes payable pursuant to a fixed schedule of appreciation, it may be distributed to the beneficiary who was the income beneficiary at the time of increment from the first principal cash available or, if none is available, when the increment is realized by sale, redemption, or other disposition. When unrealized increment is distributed as income but out of principal, the principal shall be reimbursed for the increment when realized.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 14, ch. 75-221; s. 5, ch. 77-254; s. 278, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Created from former s. 690.07.

738.08 Business and farming operations.—

(1) If a trustee uses any part of the principal in the continuance of a business of which the settlor was a sole proprietor or a partner, the net profits of the business, computed in accordance with accounting principles for a comparable business, are income. If a loss results in any fiscal or calendar year, the loss falls on principal and shall not be carried into any other fiscal or calendar year for purposes of calculating net income.

(2) Generally accepted accounting principles shall be used to determine income from an agricultural or farming operation, including the raising of animals or the operation of a nursery.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 15, ch. 75-221.

Note.—Created from former ss. 690.08, 690.09.

738.09 Disposition of natural resources.—

(1) If any part of the principal consists of a right to receive royalties, overriding or limited royalties, working interests, production payments, net profit interests, or other interests in minerals or other natural resources in, on, or under land, the receipts from taking the natural resources from the land shall be allocated as follows:

(a) If received as rent on a lease or extension payments on a lease, the receipts are income.

(b) If received from a production payment, the receipts are income to the extent of any factor for interest or its equivalent provided in the governing instrument. The fraction of the balance of the receipts that the unrecovered cost of the production payment bears to the balance owed on the production payment, exclusive of any factor for interest or its equivalent, shall be allocated to principal. The receipts not allocated to principal are income.

(c) If received as a royalty, overriding or limited royalty, or bonus, or from a working, net profit, or any other interest in minerals or other natural resources, receipts not provided for in the preceding paragraphs shall be apportioned on a yearly basis in accordance with this paragraph, whether or not any natural resource was being taken from the land at the time the trust was established. There shall be added to principal as an allowance for depletion the part of the gross receipts that is allowed to the trust as a deduction for depletion in computing taxable income for federal income tax purposes. The balance of the gross receipts is income after payment of all direct and indirect expenses.

(2) If a trustee on January 1, 1976, held an asset of depletable property of a type specified in this section, he shall allocate receipts from the property in the manner used before January 1, 1976, but for all depletable property acquired after January 1, 1976, by an existing or new trust, the method of allocation provided herein shall be used.

(3) This section does not apply to timber, water, soil, sod, dirt, turf, or mosses.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 16, ch. 75-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 690.10.

738.10 Timber, etc.—If any part of the principal consists of land from which merchantable timber, water, soil, sod, dirt, turf, or mosses may be removed, the receipts from taking the item from the land shall be allocated in accordance with paragraph 738.02(1)(c).

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 16, ch. 75-221.

738.11 Other property subject to depletion.—Except as provided in ss. 738.09 and 738.10, if the principal consists of property subject to depletion, including leaseholds, patents, copyrights, royalty rights, and rights to receive payments on a contract for deferred compensation, receipts from the property not in excess of 5 percent per year of its inventory value are income and the balance is principal.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 16, ch. 75-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 690.11.

738.12 Underproductive property.—

(1)(a) If the total principal of a trust does not in any year yield a net income of at least 3 percent of its market value (including as income the value of any beneficial use of the property by the income beneficiary), the trustee shall pay to the income beneficiary an amount equal to 3 percent of the value of the principal, based upon the market value at the calendar year end. This amount shall be paid to the income beneficiary using the first principal cash available.

(b) In the event of a termination or initiation of a trust, or the termination of a beneficial income interest of a trust, for a period of less than 12 months, the amount to be paid to the income beneficiary shall be prorated proportionately with the length of the time of his interest in the trust and in accordance with section 738.03.

(2) Upon the sale of the property the income beneficiary shall not be entitled to any portion of the proceeds of sale, except that any amount determined in subsection (1) that remains unpaid at the time of sale shall be paid therefrom.

(3) If by the terms of the trust any portion of the income is to be retained by the trustee or disposed of other than by payment to an income beneficiary, such portion of the amount determined in subsection (1) shall be retained or disposed of as provided by the terms of the trust.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 16, ch. 75-221; s. 6, ch. 77-254.
Note.—Created from former s. 690.12.

738.13 Charges against income and principal.—

(1) The following charges shall be made against income:

(a) Ordinary expenses incurred in connection with the administration, management, or preservation of the trust property, including regularly recurring taxes assessed against any part of the principal; water rates; premiums on insurance taken upon the interests of the income beneficiary, remainderman, or trustee; interest paid by the trustee, except interest or penalties on estate or other death taxes; and ordinary repairs.

(b) Only when specifically required by the instrument, a reasonable allowance for depreciation on property subject to depreciation under accounting principles, but no allowance shall be made for depreciation of that part of any real property used by a beneficiary as a residence or for depreciation of any property held by the trustee on January 1, 1976, for which the trustee is not then making an allowance for depreciation.

(c) One-half of court costs, attorney's fees, and fees on periodic judicial accounting, unless the court directs otherwise.

(d) Court costs, attorney's fees, and other fees on other accountings or judicial proceedings if the matter primarily concerns the income interest, unless the court directs otherwise.

(e) One-half of the trustee's regular compensation, whether based on a percentage of principal or income, and all expenses reasonably incurred for current management of principal and application of income.

(f) Any tax levied upon receipts defined as income under this chapter or the trust instrument and payable by the trustee.

(2) If charges against income are of unusual amount, the trustee may charge them over a reasonable period of time, by means of reserves or other reasonable means, and withhold from distribution sufficient sums to regularize distributions.

(3) The following charges shall be made against principal:

(a) Trustee's compensation not chargeable to income under paragraphs (1)(d) and (e), special compensation of trustees, expenses reasonably incurred in connection with principal, court costs and attorney's fees primarily concerning matters of principal, and trustee's compensation computed on principal as an acceptance, distribution, or termination fee.

(b) Charges not provided for in subsection (1), including the cost of investing and reinvesting principal; the payments on principal of an indebtedness, including a mortgage amortized by periodic payments of principal; expenses for preparation of property for rental or sale; and, unless the court directs otherwise, expenses incurred in maintaining or defending any action to construe the trust, protect it or the property, or assure the title of any trust property.

(c) Extraordinary repairs or expenses incurred in making a capital improvement to principal, including special assessments; but a trustee may establish an allowance for depreciation out of income to the extent permitted by paragraph (1)(b) and by s. 738.08.

(d) Any tax levied upon profit, gain, or other receipts allocated to principal, notwithstanding denomination of the tax as an income tax by the taxing authority.

(e) If an estate or inheritance tax is levied in respect of a trust in which both an income beneficiary and a remainderman have an interest, any amount apportioned to the trust, other than penalties and interest thereon, even though the income beneficiary also has rights in the principal. Unless otherwise provided in the trust instrument, any interest or penalties attributable to such estate or inheritance taxes and paid by the trust shall be charged against either the income or principal of the trust in the sole discretion of the trustee.

(4) Regularly recurring charges payable from income shall be apportioned to the same extent and in the same manner that income is apportioned under s. 738.04.

Note.—Created from former s. 690.13.

738.14 Expenses; nontrust estates.—

(1) The provisions of s. 738.13, so far as applicable, and excepting those dealing with costs of, or assessments for, improvements to property, shall govern the apportionment of expenses between tenants and remaindermen when no trust has been created, subject to any agreement of the parties or specific direction of the taxing or other statutes, but when either tenant or remainderman has incurred an expense for the benefit of his own estate without the consent or agreement of the other, he shall pay such expense in full.

(2) Subject to the exceptions stated in subsection (1), the cost of, or special taxes or assessments for, an improvement representing an addition of value to property forming part of the principal shall be paid by the tenant when the improvement is not reasonably expected to outlast the estate of the tenant. In all other cases a part only shall be paid by the tenant, while the remainder shall be paid by the remainderman. The part payable by the tenant shall be ascertained by taking that percentage of the total that is found by dividing the present value of the tenant's estate by the present value of an estate of the same form as that of the tenant except that it is limited for a period corresponding to the reasonably expected duration of the improvement. The computation of present values of the estates shall be made on the expectancy basis set forth in the official mortality tables, and no other evidence of duration or expectancy shall be considered.

741.01 County court judge or clerk of the circuit court to issue marriage license; fee.—

(1) Every marriage license shall be issued by a county court judge or clerk of the circuit court under his hand and seal. Said county court judge or clerk of the circuit court shall issue such license, upon application therefor, if there appears to be no impediment to the marriage. The county court judge or clerk of the circuit court shall collect and receive a fee of $2 for receiving the application for the issuance of a marriage license.

ance of a marriage license.

(2) The fee charged for each marriage license issued in the state shall be increased by the sum of $5. This fee shall be collected upon receipt of the application for the issuance of a marriage license. The Executive Office of the Governor shall establish a trust fund for the purpose of collecting and disbursing funds generated from the increase in marriage license fees. Such funds generated shall be directed to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for the specific purpose of funding spouse abuse centers, and the funds shall be appropriated in a "Grants-in-Aids" category to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, Aging and Adult Services, for the purpose of funding spouse abuse centers.

History.—s. 2, Nov. 2, 1829; s. 2, ch. 3720, 1887; s. 1, ch. 3890, 1889; RS 2055; GS 2574; RGS 3933; CGL 5848; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-3; s. 1, ch. 74-372; s. 8, ch. 78-281; s. 143, ch. 79-190; s. 7, ch. 79-402.

741.02 Additional fee.—Upon the receipt of each application for the issuance of a marriage license, the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court shall, in addition to the fee allowed by s. 741.01, collect and receive an additional fee of $3, to be distributed as provided by s. 382.24.

History.—s. 1, ch. 11869, 1927; CGL 5851; s. 7, ch. 22000, 1943; s. 1, ch. 67-520; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.03 County court judge or clerk of the circuit court not to send out marriage license signed in blank.—It is unlawful for any county court judge or clerk of the circuit court in the state to send out of his office any marriage license signed in blank to be issued upon application to persons not in the office of the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 7828, 1919; CGL 5849; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.04 Marriage license issued.—

(1) No county court judge or clerk of the circuit court in this state shall issue a license for the marriage of any person unless there shall be first presented and filed with him an affidavit in writing, signed by both parties to the marriage, made and subscribed before some person authorized by law to administer an oath, reciting the true and correct ages of such parties; unless both such parties shall be over the age of 18 years, except as provided in s. 741.0405; and unless one party is a male and the other party is a female.

(2) No marriage license shall be issued by any county court judge or clerk of the circuit court in this state after application therefor until after expiration of 3 days, including the day application is made to the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court by the parties seeking to be married for the issuance of a marriage license, and it shall be the duty of the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court in counties which have less than 50,000 residents pursuant to the last decennial census to post a true copy of said application at the front door of the courthouse in the county where said application was made for a period of 3 days prior to the issuance of said marriage license, which said 3 days shall include day of application therefor.

cf.—s. 741.0405 When license may issue to minors.
s. 741.08 Necessity of license.

741.0405 When marriage license may be issued to persons under 18 years.—

(1) If either of the parties shall be under the age of 18 years but at least 16 years of age, the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court shall issue a license for the marriage of such party only if there is first presented and filed with him the written consent of the parents or guardian of such minor to such marriage, acknowledged before some officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments and administer oaths. However, the license shall be issued without parental consent when both parents of such minor are deceased at the time of making application or when such minor has been married previously.

(2) The county court judge of any county in the state may, in the exercise of his discretion, issue a license to marry to any male or female under the age of 18 years, upon application of both parties sworn under oath that they are the parents of a child.

(3) When the fact of pregnancy is verified by the written statement of a licensed physician, the county court judge of any county in the state may, in his discretion, issue a license to marry:

(a) To any male or female under the age of 18 years upon application of both parties sworn under oath that they are the expectant parents of a child; or

(b) To any female under the age of 18 years and male over the age of 18 years upon the female's application sworn under oath that she is an expectant parent.

(4) No license to marry shall be granted to any person under the age of 16 years, with or without the consent of the parents, except as provided in subsections (2) and (3).

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-266.

741.041 Marriage license application valid for 30 days.—Marriage license applications shall be valid only for a period of 30 days after receipt by an applicant, and no clerk of the circuit court shall issue a license for the marriage of two people more than 30 days after the application was received by the applicant.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-139; s. 279, ch. 79-400.

741.05 Penalty for violation of ss. 741.03, 741.04.—Any county court judge, clerk of the circuit court, or other person who shall violate any provision of ss. 741.03 and 741.04 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 3, ch. 7828, 1919; CGL 7517; s. 692, ch. 71-136; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.051 Marriage licenses; conditions precedent to issuance; certificate of physician.—Every person making application for license to marry shall file with the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court, as a condition precedent to the issuance of any such license, a certificate from a duly licensed physician, which certificate shall state that the applicant has been given an approved serological test for syphilis and found not to be infected with syphilis, or if so infected, not to be in a stage of infection which is or may become communicable to the marital partner. Said serological test shall be made not more than 60 days prior to the date of application for a license to marry.

History.—ss. 1, 15, ch. 22738, 1945; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372; s. 3, ch. 78-266.

741.052 Same; serological tests.—The certificate of the duly licensed physicians, as aforesaid, shall be accompanied by a statement by the person making the standard serological test or from the person in charge of the laboratory making the test, setting forth the name of the test, the result of the test, the date it was made, the name and address of the physician who submitted the sample of blood for the test, and the name and address of the person whose blood was tested. In submitting the blood specimen the physician shall designate that this is a premarital test and the statement from the laboratory shall show that this was a premarital test.

History.—s. 2, ch. 22738, 1945.

741.053 Same; forms to be prescribed.—The certificate of a physician and the statement constituting the laboratory report on the serological test shall each be on a form to be provided by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and distributed to the offices of all county court judges and clerks of the circuit courts and to all laboratories, hospitals or clinics in the state approved by the department.

History.—s. 3, ch. 22738, 1945; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372; s. 464, ch. 77-147.

741.054 Same; making of tests.—For the purpose of this law a standard serological test shall be a test for syphilis approved by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and an approved laboratory shall be the department laboratory, any of its branches, or any other laboratory licensed or operated in accordance with the laws of this state or of the state in which it is located; provided, however, that the serological test or tests shall be such as will exclude the possibility that the disease as shown by said test or tests is some other disease than syphilis.

History.—s. 4, ch. 22738, 1945; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 465, ch. 77-147.

741.055 Same; affidavit of positive report.—

In any case where such examinations and tests have been made and certificate or certificates have been refused because one or both of the applicants have been found to be infected with syphilis, the county court judge shall nevertheless be authorized and empowered on application of both parties to such marriage to issue the license without the certificate of a physician if the judge is satisfied by affidavit or other proof that the female is pregnant; providing that all other requirements of the marriage laws have been complied with and that the public health and welfare will not be injuriously affected thereby. In every such case, however, the county court judge shall transmit to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services a transcript of the court record and file a copy of the order of the court in lieu of the physician's certificate. The court when it is deemed necessary may, to the extent authorized by law or rules of court, order all the proceedings instituted under the provisions of this section to be confidential and private. There shall be no fee for the court proceedings authorized in this section.

History.—s. 5, ch. 22738, 1945; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 466, ch. 77-147.

741.056 Same; no charge for laboratory test.

—All serological tests required by this law on blood specimens submitted to the laboratory of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or to any of its authorized branches shall be made without charge. The fee of the physician for making the examinations and issuance of the certificate required by this law shall not exceed the sum usually charged for office visits.

History.—s. 6, ch. 22738, 1945; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 467, ch. 77-147.

741.057 Same; filing of certificates.—The physician's certificate and the laboratory report shall be filed with the transcripts of court proceedings in the office of the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court for a period of not less than 60 days, after which time they may be destroyed at the discretion of the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court.

History.—s. 7, ch. 22738, 1945; s. 1, ch. 61-17; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.058 Same; limitation on licenses.—From and after the effective date of this law, marriage licenses shall be valid only for a period of 30 days after issuance, and no person shall perform any ceremony of marriage after the expiration date of such license. The county court judge or clerk of the circuit court shall recite on each marriage license the final date that such is so valid.

History.—s. 8, ch. 22738, 1945; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.059 Same; use of information by department.—The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be authorized to use the information derived from premarital serological tests for such follow-up procedures as are required by law or deemed necessary by said department for the protection of the public health.

History.—s. 9, ch. 22738, 1945; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 468, ch. 77-147.

741.0591 Penalties for violation of law.—Any applicant for a marriage license, physician, or representative of a laboratory who shall misrepresent his identity or any of the facts called for by the certificate form or laboratory report form as provided for in s. 741.053. Any clerk of the circuit court or county court judge or his deputy who shall issue a marriage license without having received the physician's certificate, laboratory report or order from the court, or who shall have reason to believe that any of the facts have been misrepresented and shall nevertheless issue a marriage license, or any person who shall otherwise fail to comply with the provisions of this law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 10, ch. 22738, 1945; s. 693, ch. 71-136; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

Note.—Former s. 741.0510.

741.0592 Same; reports confidential.—Physicians' certificates, laboratory reports and court orders and all information therein contained shall be confidential and shall not be divulged to, or open to inspection by, any person outside the office of the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court other than the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or local health officers or their duly authorized representatives. Any person who shall divulge such information or open for inspection such certificates, laboratory reports or court orders, without authority, to any person not by law entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 11, ch. 22738, 1945; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 694, ch. 71-136; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372; s. 469, ch. 77-147.

Note.—Former s. 741.0511.

741.0593 Penalty for violation of ss. 741.051-741.0592.—Any person who enters into the contract of marriage without having first complied with ss. 741.051-741.0592 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 12, ch. 22738, 1945; s. 695, ch. 71-136; s. 178, ch. 73-333.

Note.—Former s. 741.0512.

741.07 Persons authorized to solemnize matrimony.—

(1) All regularly ordained ministers of the gospel or elders in communion with some church, or other ordained clergy, and all judicial officers, clerks of the circuit courts, and notaries public of this state may solemnize the rights of matrimonial contract, under the regulations prescribed by law. Nothing in this section shall make invalid a marriage which was solemnized by any member of the clergy, or as otherwise provided by law prior to July 1, 1978.

(2) Any marriage which may be had and solemnized among the people called "Quakers," or "Friends," in the manner and form used or practiced in their societies, according to their rites and ceremonies, shall be good and valid in law; and wherever the words "minister" and "elder" are used in this chapter, they shall be held to include all of the persons connected with the Society of Friends, or Quakers, who perform or have charge of the marriage ceremony according to their rites and ceremonies.

History.—s. 1, Nov. 2, 1829; s. 2, ch. 1127, 1861; RS 2056; GS 2575; RGS 3934; CGL 5853; s. 1, ch. 28104, 1953; s. 1, ch. 74-372; s. 1, ch. 78-15.

741.08 Marriage not to be solemnized without a license.—Before any of the persons named in s. 741.07 shall solemnize any marriage, he shall require of the parties a marriage license issued according to the requirements of s. 741.01, and within 10 days after solemnizing the marriage he shall make a certificate thereof on the license, and shall transmit the same to the office of the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court from which it issued.

History.—ss. 2, 3, Nov. 2, 1829; s. 1, ch. 3890, 1889; RS 2057; GS 2576; RGS 3935; CGL 5854; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.09 Record of license and certificate.—The county court judge and clerk of the circuit court shall keep in good and substantially bound books a correct record of all marriage licenses issued, with the names of the parties and the date of issuing, and upon the return of the license and certificate shall enter therein the name of the person solemnizing the marriage and the date of marriage and of the return.

History.—s. 3, Nov. 2, 1829; s. 1, ch. 3890, 1889; RS 2058; GS 2577; RGS 3936; CGL 5855; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.10 Proof of marriage where no certificate available.—When any marriage is or has been solemnized by any of the persons named in s. 741.07, and such person has not made a certificate thereof on the marriage license as required by s. 741.08, or when the marriage license has been lost, or when by reason of death or other cause the proper certificate cannot be obtained, the marriage may be proved by affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths made by two competent witnesses who were present and saw the marriage ceremony performed, which affidavit may be filed and recorded in the office of the county court judge or clerk of the circuit court from which the marriage license issued, with the same force and effect as in cases in which the proper certificate has been made, returned and recorded.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3126, 1879; RS 2059; GS 2578; RGS 3937; CGL 5856; s. 28, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 74-372.

741.21 Incestuous marriages prohibited.—A man may not marry any woman to whom he is related by lineal consanguinity, nor his sister, nor his aunt, nor his niece. A woman may not marry any man to whom she is related by lineal consanguinity, nor her brother, nor her uncle, nor her nephew.

History.—RS 2602; GS 3525; RGS 5415; CGL 7558.

741.211 Common law marriages void.—No common law marriage entered into after January 1, 1968, shall be valid, except that nothing contained in this section shall affect any marriage which, though otherwise defective, was entered into by the party asserting such marriage in good faith and in substantial compliance with this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-571.

741.23 Husband not liable for wife's torts.—The common law rule whereby a husband is liable for the torts of his wife is hereby abrogated.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26829, 1951.

741.24 Civil action against parents; willful destruction or theft of property by minor.—

(1) Any municipal corporation, county, school district, or department of Florida; any person, partnership, corporation, or association; or any religious organization, whether incorporated or unincorporated, shall be entitled to recover damages in an appropriate action at law in an amount not to exceed $2,500, in a court of competent jurisdiction, from the parents of any minor under the age of 18 years, living with the parents, who shall maliciously or willfully destroy or steal property, real, personal, or mixed, belonging to such municipal corporation, county, school district, department of the state, person, partnership, corporation, association, or religious organization.

(2) The recovery shall be limited to the actual damages in an amount not to exceed $2,500, in addition to taxable court costs.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 31400, 1956; s. 40, ch. 67-254; s. 1, ch. 67-404; s. 1, ch. 77-366; s. 280, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Former s. 45.20.

741.30 Petition for order to restrain abusive spouse.—Any person who has filed a complaint of spouse abuse with a law enforcement agency and who files a verified petition alleging spouse abuse with the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein the person filing the verified petition resides shall be entitled to have the court issue a restraining order with such terms and conditions as the court deems advisable with respect to the facts alleged in the verified petition. The verified petition shall contain the date, time, and place of the alleged spouse abuse, the law enforcement agency which investigated the complaint, and the circumstances of the spouse abuse which occurred. The verified petition shall be in the following form:

PETITION FOR AN ORDER TO RESTRAIN AN ABUSIVE SPOUSE

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Petitioner .....(Name)....., who was sworn and says that the following statement is true.

The petitioner has filed a complaint with .....(law enforcement agency)..... alleging that petitioner was abused by respondent spouse at .....(place)..... on .....(date)..... at .....(time)..... in the following manner: .....(circumstances).....

Petitioner seeks an order restraining the respondent spouse from abusing the petitioner and providing for any other terms and conditions that the court deems advisable with respect to the facts alleged in the petition.

.....(Signature of Petitioner).....

Sworn to and subscribed on ....., 19.....

.....(Notary Public).....

My Commission Expires:

Notice that a restraining order has been issued shall be served upon the spouse complained against. When the court issues the restraining order without a hearing, the court, if requested by the spouse complained against, shall provide a hearing as soon as reasonably possible but not later than 20 days after the date of the issuance of the order. The issuance of such an order shall not require that the party alleging spouse abuse be represented by an attorney, nor shall such a restraining order be conditioned upon any dissolution of marriage proceedings.

CHAPTER 742

DETERMINATION OF PATERNITY

- 742.011 Determination of paternity proceedings; Circuit Court jurisdiction.
 742.021 Same; venue, process, complaint.
 742.031 Same; hearings; court orders, support, hospital expenses, etc.
 742.041 Same; monthly contributions.
 742.06 Same; jurisdiction retained for future orders.
 742.07 Effect of adoption.
 742.08 Default of support payments.
 742.09 Publishing names; penalty.
 742.091 Marriage of parents.
 742.10 Chapter in lieu of other proceedings.
 742.11 Presumed legitimacy of child conceived by means of artificial insemination.

742.011 Determination of paternity proceedings; Circuit Court jurisdiction.—Any unmarried woman who shall be pregnant or delivered of a child may bring proceedings in the Circuit Court, in chancery, to determine the paternity of such child.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26949, 1951; s. 5, ch. 75-166.

742.021 Same; venue, process, complaint.—The proceedings shall be by verified complaint filed in the circuit court of the county in which the woman resides or of the county in which the alleged father resides. The complaint shall aver sufficient facts charging the paternity of the child. Process directed to the defendant shall issue forthwith requiring the defendant to file his written defenses to the complaint in the same manner as suits in chancery. Upon application and proof under oath, the court may issue a writ of ne exeat against the defendant on such terms and conditions and conditioned upon bond in such amount as the court may determine.

History.—s. 2, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.031 Same; hearings; court orders, support, hospital expenses, etc.—Hearings for the purpose of establishing or refuting the allegations of the complaint and answer shall be held in the chambers and may be restricted to such persons, in addition to the parties involved and their counsel, as the judge in his discretion may direct. The court shall determine the issues of paternity of the child, and the ability of the parents and each of them to support the child and if the court shall find the defendant to be the father of the child he shall so order and shall further order the defendant to pay the complainant, her guardian or such other person assuming responsibility for the child as the judge may direct, such sum or sums as shall be sufficient to pay reasonable attorney's fee, hospital or medical expenses, cost of confinement and any other expenses incident to the birth of such child. In addition the court shall order the defendant to pay periodically for the support of such child such sums as shall be fixed by the court in accordance with the provisions of this act, and also all taxable costs of the proceedings. Upon request of either party, the issue of the paternity of such child may be tried by jury and the chancellor shall transfer the cause for the determination of such issue.

History.—s. 3, ch. 26949, 1951; s. 1, ch. 59-45.

742.041 Same; monthly contributions.—

(1) The court shall order the defendant to pay monthly for the care and support of such child the following amounts:

(a) From date of birth to 6th birthday—$40 per month.

(b) From 6th birthday to 12th birthday—$60 per month.

(c) From 12th birthday to 15th birthday—$90 per month.

(d) From 15th birthday to 18th birthday—$110 per month.

(2) Such amounts may be increased or reduced by the judge in his discretion depending upon the circumstances and ability of the defendant.

History.—s. 4, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.06 Same; jurisdiction retained for future orders.—The court shall retain jurisdiction of the cause for the purpose of entering such other and further orders as changing circumstances of the parties may in justice and equity require.

History.—s. 5, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.07 Effect of adoption.—Upon the adoption of a child, for whom support has been ordered, by some person other than the father, the liability of the father for the support of the child shall be terminated.

History.—s. 6, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.08 Default of support payments.—Upon default in payment of any moneys ordered by the court to be paid, the court may enter a judgment for the amount in default which shall be a lien upon all property of the defendant both real and personal. Willful failure to comply with an order of the court shall be deemed a contempt of the court entering the order and shall be punished as such. The court may require bond of the defendant for the faithful performance of his obligation under the order of the court in such amount and upon such conditions as the court shall direct.

History.—s. 7, ch. 26949, 1951.

742.09 Publishing names; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for the owner, publisher, manager, or operator of any newspaper, magazine, radio station, or other publication of any kind whatsoever, or any other person responsible therefor, or any radio broadcaster, to publish the name of any of the parties to any court proceeding instituted or prosecuted under this act; and any person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 8, ch. 26949, 1951; s. 697, ch. 71-136.

742.091 Marriage of parents.—If the mother of any child born out of wedlock and the reputed father shall at any time after its birth intermarry, the child shall in all respects be deemed and held legitimate, and upon the payment of all costs and attorney fees as determined by the court, the cause shall be dismissed and the bond provided for in s. 742.021 shall be void. The record of the proceedings in such cases shall be sealed against public inspection in the interests of the child.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-267; s. 6, ch. 75-166.

742.10 Chapter in lieu of other proceedings.

—This chapter shall be in lieu of any other proceedings provided by law for the determination of paternity and support of children born out of wedlock.

History.—s. 9, ch. 26949, 1951; s. 10, ch. 27991, 1953; s. 7, ch. 75-166.

742.11 Presumed legitimacy of child conceived by means of artificial insemination.—Any child born within wedlock who has been conceived by the means of artificial insemination is irrebuttably presumed to be legitimate, provided that both husband and wife have consented in writing to the artificial insemination.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-104.

CHAPTER 743

DISABILITY OF NONAGE OF MINORS REMOVED

- 743.01 Removal of disabilities of married minors.
- 743.04 Removal of disabilities of persons entitled to benefits under the "Home, Farm and Business Loans Act."
- 743.05 Removal of disabilities of minors; borrowing money for educational purposes.
- 743.06 Removal of disabilities of minors; donation of blood without parental consent.
- 743.064 Emergency medical care or treatment to minors without parental consent.
- 743.065 Unwed pregnant minor or minor mother; consent to medical services for minor or minor's child valid.
- 743.07 Rights, privileges, and obligations of persons 18 years of age or older.

743.01 Removal of disabilities of married minors.—The disability of nonage of a minor who is married or has been married or subsequently becomes married, including one whose marriage is dissolved, or who is widowed, or widowed, is removed. The minor may assume the management of his estate, contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, and perform all acts that he could do if not a minor.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 7364, 1917; RGS 3962, 3963; s. 1, ch. 9286, 1923; CGL 5881, 5882, 5883; s. 1, ch. 22750, 1945; s. 1, ch. 71-147; s. 1, ch. 73-300.

743.04 Removal of disabilities of persons entitled to benefits under the "Home, Farm and Business Loans Act."—A minor authorized to participate in the rights, privileges, and benefits conferred by chapter 37 of Title 38 U. S. C., "Home, Farm and Business Loans Act," is authorized to make and execute all contracts necessary for the full utilization of the rights, privileges, and benefits conferred under said chapter if the person is otherwise competent to make and execute contracts. The contracts so made shall have the same effect as though they were the contracts of persons who were not minors.

History.—s. 1, ch. 23873, 1947; s. 24, ch. 69-353; s. 2, ch. 71-147.

743.05 Removal of disabilities of minors; borrowing money for educational purposes.—For the purpose of borrowing money for their own higher educational expenses, the disability of nonage of minors is removed for all persons who have reached 16 years of age. Such minors are authorized to make and execute promissory notes, contracts, or other instruments necessary for the borrowing of money for this purpose. The promissory notes, contracts, or other instruments so made shall have the same effect as though they were the obligations of persons who were not minors. No such obligation shall be valid if the interest rate on it exceeds 7 percent a year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-268; s. 1, ch. 69-105; s. 2, ch. 71-147.

743.06 Removal of disabilities of minors; donation of blood without parental consent.—Any minor who has reached the age of 17 years may give consent to the donation, without compensation therefor, of his blood and to the penetration of tissue which is necessary to accomplish such donation. Such consent shall not be subject to disaffirmance because of minority, unless the parent or parents of such minor specifically object, in writing, to the donation or penetration of the skin.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-430; s. 1, ch. 76-13.

743.064 Emergency medical care or treatment to minors without parental consent.—

(1) The absence of parental consent notwithstanding, a physician licensed under chapter 458 or an osteopathic physician licensed under chapter 459 may render emergency medical care or treatment to any minor who has been injured in an accident or who is suffering from an acute illness, disease, or condition if, within a reasonable degree of medical certainty, delay in initiation of emergency medical care or treatment would endanger the health of the minor, and provided such emergency medical care or treatment is administered in a hospital licensed by the state under chapter 395 or in a college health service.

(2) This section shall apply only when parental consent cannot be immediately obtained for one of the following reasons:

(a) The minor's condition has rendered him unable to reveal the identity of his parents, guardian, or legal custodian, and such information is unknown to any person who accompanied the minor to the hospital.

(b) The parents, guardian, or legal custodian cannot be immediately located by telephone at their place of residence or business.

(3) Notification shall be accomplished as soon as possible after the emergency medical care or treatment is administered. The hospital records shall reflect the reason such consent was not initially obtained and shall contain a statement by the attending physician that immediate emergency medical care or treatment was necessary for the patient's health. The hospital records shall be open for inspection by the person legally responsible for the minor.

(4) No physician, hospital, or college health service shall incur civil liability by reason of having rendered emergency medical care or treatment pursuant to this section, provided such treatment or care was rendered in accordance with acceptable standards of medical practice.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-302.

743.065 Unwed pregnant minor or minor mother; consent to medical services for minor or minor's child valid.—

(1) An unwed pregnant minor may consent to the performance of medical or surgical care or services relating to her pregnancy by a hospital or clinic or by a physician licensed under chapter 458 or chapter 459, and such consent is valid and binding as if she had achieved her majority.

(2) An unwed minor mother may consent to the performance of medical or surgical care or services for her child by a hospital or clinic or by a physician licensed under chapter 458 or chapter 459, and such consent is valid and binding as if she had achieved her majority.

(3) Nothing in this act shall affect the provisions of s. 390.001.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-302.

743.07 Rights, privileges, and obligations of persons 18 years of age or older.—

(1) The disability of nonage is hereby removed for all persons in this state who are 18 years of age or older, and they shall enjoy and suffer the rights, privileges, and obligations of all persons 21 years of age or older except as otherwise excluded by the State Constitution immediately preceding the effective date of this section.

(2) This section shall not prohibit any court of competent jurisdiction from requiring support for a dependent person beyond the age of 18 years; and any crippled child as defined in chapter 391 shall receive benefits under the provisions of said chapter until age 21, the provisions of this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

(3) This section shall operate prospectively and not retrospectively, and shall not affect the rights and obligations existing prior to July 1, 1973.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 73-21.
cf.—s. 1.01 Minor defined.

744.101 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the "Florida Guardianship Law."

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.01.

744.1011 Effective date; substantive rights; procedures.—This act shall take effect January 1, 1976. The substantive rights of all persons that have vested prior to January 1, 1976 shall be determined as provided in former chapters 744-746, Florida Statutes, as they exist prior to January 1, 1976. The procedures for the enforcement of substantive rights which have vested prior to January 1, 1976, shall be as provided in this act.

History.—s. 27, ch. 75-222.

744.102 Definitions.—Unless the context requires otherwise, when used in this law:

(1) A "guardian" is one to whom the law has entrusted the custody and control of the person or property, or both, of an incompetent. "Guardian" may mean curator, conservator, or committee, if appointed in another state.

(2) A "guardian ad litem" is one appointed by a court in which particular litigation is pending to represent a ward in that litigation.

(3) A "foreign guardian" is one appointed in another state or country.

(4) A "testamentary guardian" is one appointed for the person or property, or both, of a minor child by the will of its parent.

(5) An "incompetent" is a person who, because of minority, senility, lunacy, insanity, imbecility, idiocy, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, or other physical or mental incapacity, is incapable of either managing his property or caring for himself, or both.

(6) A "minor" is a person under 18 years of age whose disabilities have not been removed by marriage or otherwise.

(7) "Property" means realty, personalty, and choses in action or any interest in them, legal or equitable, and also claims or rights of action arising in tort.

(8) A "ward" is an incompetent for whom a guardian has been appointed.

(9) "Limited guardian" means a person to whom the law has entrusted only the property of an incompetent that is received from sources other than the incompetent's wages or earnings.

(10) "Standby guardian" means a person empowered to assume the duties of guardianship or limited guardianship upon the death or adjudication of incompetency of the last surviving natural or adoptive parent of an incompetent.

(11) "Corporate guardian" means a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Florida and having trust powers.

(12) "Nonprofit corporate guardian" means a nonprofit corporation organized for religious or charitable purposes and existing under the laws of this state.

(13) "Estate" includes the property of a ward subject to administration.

(14) "Clerk" means the clerk or deputy clerk of the court.

(15) "Court" means the circuit court.

(16) "Next of kin" means those persons who would be heirs at law of the ward or alleged incompetent if such person were deceased and includes the lineal descendants of such ward or alleged incompetent person.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 2, ch. 75-222; s. 231, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 79-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.03.
cf.—s. 731.201 General definitions.

744.1025 Additional definitions.—The definitions contained in the Florida Probate Code shall be applicable to the Florida Guardianship Law, unless the context requires otherwise, insofar as such definitions do not conflict with definitions contained in this law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-221.

744.103 Guardians of incompetent world war veterans.—The provisions of this law shall extend to incompetent world war veterans, provided for in chapters 293 and 294 or any amendment or revision of them. The provisions of this law are cumulative to those chapters. Any conflict between chapters 293 and 294, or any amendment or revision of them, and this law shall be resolved by giving effect to those chapters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 2, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.05.

744.104 Verification of documents.—When verification of a document is required in this chapter or by rule, the document filed shall include an oath or affirmation or the following statement: "Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing, and the facts alleged are true to the best of my knowledge and belief." Any person who shall willfully include a false statement in the document shall be guilty of perjury and upon conviction shall be punished accordingly.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 2, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.37.

744.105 Costs.—In all guardianship proceedings, costs may be awarded as in chancery actions. When the costs are to be paid out of the estate of the ward, the court may direct from what part of the estate the costs shall be paid.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.47.

744.106 Notice and virtual representation.—The provisions for notice and virtual representation in ss. 731.301, 731.302 and 731.303 are applicable to this chapter.

History.—s. 4, ch. 75-222.

744.107 Visitors.—The court may appoint a visitor to interview the ward and report to the court the well-being of the ward. The court shall not appoint as a visitor a family member or any person with a personal interest in the proceedings. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, a visitor may be allowed a reasonable fee as determined by the court and paid from the assets of the ward. No full-time state, county, or city employee or officer shall be paid a fee for such visitation and report.

History.—ss. 18, 26, ch. 75-222.

744.108 Guardians' fee.—A guardian of the person or of the property shall receive a reasonable fee for his services to be fixed by the court after such notice as the court shall require.

History.—ss. 18, 26, ch. 75-222.

PART II

VENUE

- 744.201 Change of domicile of ward.
744.202 Venue.

744.201 Change of domicile of ward.—The domicile of a resident ward is the county where the guardian of the person was lawfully appointed. For cause, the court may authorize a change of domicile of the ward.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 5, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.10.

744.202 Venue.—

(1) The venue in proceedings for the appointment of a guardian shall be:

(a) If the incompetent is a resident of this state, in the county where the incompetent resides.

(b) If the incompetent is not a resident of this state, in any county in Florida where property of the incompetent is located.

(c) If the incompetent is not a resident of this state and owns no property in this state, in the county where any debtor of the incompetent resides.

(2) When the domicile of an incompetent is changed to another county, the guardian of the person of the incompetent may have the venue of the guardianship changed to the county of the acquired domicile.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 5, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.11.

PART III

TYPES OF GUARDIANSHIP

- 744.301 Natural guardians.
744.303 Limited guardianship.
744.304 Standby guardianship.
744.305 Nonprofit corporate guardianship.
744.306 Foreign guardians.
744.307 Foreign guardian may manage the property of nonresident ward.
744.308 Resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.

744.301 Natural guardians.—

(1) The mother and father jointly are natural guardians of their own children and of their adopted children, during minority. If one parent dies, the natural guardianship shall pass to the surviving parent, and the right shall continue even though the surviving parent remarries. If the marriage between the parents is dissolved, the natural guardianship shall belong to the parent to whom the custody of the child is awarded. If the parents are given joint custody, then both shall continue as natural guardians. If the marriage is dissolved and neither the father nor the mother is given custody of the child, neither shall act as natural guardian of the child. The mother of a child born out of wedlock is the natural guardian of the child.

(2) The natural guardian or guardians are authorized, on behalf of any of their minor children, to settle and consummate a settlement of any claim or cause of action accruing to any of their minor children for damages to the person or property of any of said minor children and to collect, receive, manage, and dispose of the proceeds of any such settlement and of any other real or personal property distributed from an estate or trust or proceeds from a life insurance policy to, or otherwise accruing to the benefit of, the child during minority, when the amount involved in any instance does not exceed $5,000, without appointment, authority, or bond.

(3) All instruments executed by a natural guardian under the powers provided for in subsection (2) shall be binding on the ward.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-166; s. 7, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-190; s. 3, ch. 79-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.13.

744.303 Limited guardianship.—

(1) When it appears to the satisfaction of the court that an incompetent is over the age of 18 years and wholly or substantially self-supporting by means of compensation from employment, the court may appoint a limited guardian of the property for the person to receive, manage, disburse, and account for only the property of the incompetent that is received from other than the incompetent's wages or earnings.

(2) An incompetent for whom a limited guardian of the property has been appointed shall have the right to receive and expend the compensation from his employment. He shall also have the power to contract or otherwise legally bind himself for any sum of money not exceeding 1 month's wages and earnings from his employment or $300, whichever is greater.

(3) A limited guardian shall have the same duties and responsibilities as are otherwise provided by law for guardians of property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.71.

744.304 Standby guardianship.—

(1) Upon petition or consent of both parents, natural or adoptive, if living, or of the surviving parent, a standby guardian of the person or property of an incompetent may be appointed by the court. The court may also appoint an alternate to the guardian to act if the standby guardian shall renounce, die, or become incapacitated after the death of the last surviving parent of the incompetent person.

(2) The standby guardian or alternate shall be empowered to assume the duties of his office immediately on the death or adjudication of incompetency of the last surviving natural or adoptive parent of the incompetent, subject only to confirmation of his appointment by the court within 30 days following the assumption of guardianship duties. If the incompetent person is over the age of 18 years, the court shall conduct a hearing as provided in s. 744.331 before confirming the appointment of the standby guardian.

(3) After the appointment of a standby guardian, the court shall have jurisdiction over the incompetent person for whom the guardian has been appointed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.72.

744.305 Nonprofit corporate guardianship.—

(1) A nonprofit corporation organized for religious or charitable purposes and existing under the laws of this state may be appointed guardian of the person or property, or both, of an incompetent person.

(2) A nonprofit corporation as above defined may be appointed guardian of the property in a voluntary guardianship proceeding.

(3) A nonprofit corporation as above defined appointed as guardian of the person or property, or both, shall not be entitled to receive any compensation for serving in the capacity of guardian but may be allowed its costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, if any.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.73.

744.306 Foreign guardians.—

(1) Foreign guardians who produce authenticated orders appointing them guardians, curators, conservators, or committees, duly obtained in any state, territory, or country, shall be authorized to maintain actions in the courts of this state.

(2) Guardians appointed in any state, territory, or country may be sued in this state concerning the property or person of the ward in this state and may defend any action or proceeding in this state.

(3) Debtors who have received no written demand for payment from a guardian appointed in this state within 60 days after the appointment of a guardian, curator, conservator, or committee in any state, territory, or country other than this state, and whose property in Florida is subject to a mortgage or other lien securing the debt held by the foreign guardian, curator, conservator, or committee, may pay the debt to the foreign guardian, curator, conservator, or committee after the expiration of 60 days from the date of his appointment. A satisfaction of the mortgage or lien, executed after the 60 days have expired by the foreign guardian, curator, conservator, or committee, with an authenticated copy of the letters or other evidence of authority of the foreign guardian, curator, conservator, or committee attached, may be recorded in the public records of this state and shall constitute an effective discharge of the mortgage or lien, irrespective of whether the debtor had received written demand before paying the debt.

(4) All persons indebted to a ward, or having possession of personal property belonging to a ward, who have received no written demand for payment of the indebtedness or the delivery of the property from a guardian appointed in this state are authorized to pay the indebtedness or to deliver the personal property to the foreign guardian, curator, conservator, or committee after the expiration of the 60 days from the date of his appointment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.15.

744.307 Foreign guardian may manage the property of nonresident ward.—

(1) A guardian of the property of a nonresident ward, duly appointed by a court of another state, territory, or country, who desires to manage any part or all of the property of the ward located in Florida, may file a petition showing his appointment, describing the property, stating its estimated value, and showing the indebtedness, if any, existing against the ward in this state, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(2) The guardian shall designate a resident agent as required by the Rules of Probate and Guardianship Procedure.

(3) The guardian shall file authenticated copies of his letters of guardianship or other authority and of his bond or other security. The court shall determine if the foreign bond or other security is sufficient to guarantee the faithful management of the ward's property in this state. The court may require a new guardian's bond in this state in the amount it deems necessary and conditioned for the proper management and application of the property of the ward coming into the custody of the guardian in this state.

(4) Thereafter, the guardianship shall be governed by the law concerning guardianships.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.16.

744.308 Resident guardian of the property of nonresident incompetent.—

(1) The court may appoint a resident of Florida as guardian of a nonresident incompetent's property upon the petition of a relative, next friend, or creditor of the incompetent, regardless of whether he has a foreign guardian or not. The foreign guardian, if there is one, may also petition for the appointment of the resident guardian.

(2) The petition for the appointment of a resident guardian for the property of a nonresident incompetent shall be in writing and shall be prepared in accordance with the requirements of s. 744.334.

(3) If it is alleged that the incompetency is due to mental or physical incapacity, the petition shall be accompanied by an authenticated copy of the adjudication of unsoundness of mind or of physical incapacity from the qualified authorities in the state, territory, or country where the incompetent is domiciled, and shall state whether the incompetent is in the custody of any person or institution and, if so, the name and post-office address of the custodian. The adjudication shall constitute prima facie proof of the incompetency.

(4) If the question about the mental or physical incapacity of a nonresident is presented while he is temporarily residing in Florida and he is not under an adjudication of incompetency made in some other state, territory, or country, the procedure for the appointment of a resident guardian of his property shall be the same as though he were a resident of Florida.

(5) When the ground for the appointment of the guardian is minority or incompetency previously adjudicated in another state, territory, or country, notice of the hearing shall be served personally or by registered mail on the incompetent and his legal custodian, if any, and also on one or more members of his family or relatives, if any are known to the petitioner, at least 20 days before the hearing.

(6) In the appointment of the guardian the court shall be governed by s. 744.312.

(7) The duties, powers, and liabilities for the custody, control, management, and disposition of his ward's property and removal, accounting, and discharge shall be governed by the law applicable to resident guardians of property of resident wards.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 7, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

GUARDIANS

744.309 Who may be appointed guardian of a resident incompetent.

744.312 Considerations in appointment of guardian.

744.313 Letters of guardianship.

744.309 Who may be appointed guardian of a resident incompetent.—

(1) RESIDENT.—

(a) Any resident of this state who is sui juris is qualified to act as guardian of the person or property of an incompetent.

(b) No judge shall act as guardian after this law becomes effective, except when he is related to the ward by blood, marriage, or adoption.

(2) NONRESIDENT.—A nonresident who is sui juris may be appointed guardian of the person or property of a resident incompetent if the nonresident is:

(a) Related by lineal consanguinity to the incompetent.

(b) A spouse or a brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece of the incompetent.

(c) A legally adopted child or adoptive parent of the incompetent.

(d) A spouse of a person qualified under this subsection.

(3) GUARDIAN OF THE PERSON AND PROPERTY.—The guardian of the person and the guardian of the property may be the same person.

(4) DISQUALIFIED PERSONS.—No person who has been convicted of a felony or who, from sickness, intemperance, or want of understanding, is incapable of discharging the duties of a guardian shall be appointed to act as guardian.

(5) TRUST COMPANY OR NATIONAL BANK.—A trust company incorporated under Florida law, or a national banking association authorized and qualified to exercise fiduciary powers in Florida, may act as guardian of the property of an incompetent.

(6) CORPORATE.—A corporation as prescribed in s. 744.305 may be appointed guardian of the person or property, or both, of an incompetent.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 8, ch. 75-222; s. 4, ch. 79-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.27.

744.312 Considerations in appointment of guardian.—

(1) The court may appoint any person who is qualified to act as guardian, whether related to the ward or not.

(2) The court shall give consideration to the appointment of:

(a) One of the next of kin of the incompetent who is a fit and proper person and qualified to act.

(b) Any person designated as guardian in any will in which the incompetent is a beneficiary.

(3) The court shall also:

(a) Consider the wishes expressed by the incompetent as to who shall be appointed guardian, and

(b) Give weight to the appointment of an individual, or corporation as described in s. 744.102(11), nominated by the incompetent prior to the filing of the petition for a finding of incompetency, if at the time of nomination:

1. The incompetent was 18 or more years of age and had sufficient mental capacity to make an intelligent choice, and

2. The nomination is contained in a writing signed by him in the presence of at least two attesting witnesses present at the same time.

(4) The provisions of subsections (1)-(3) notwithstanding, and subject to the provisions of s. 744.309, a surviving parent may name by will a guardian for the person or property of a minor child to serve during the child's minority or any part of it. Such person or persons named shall be appointed by the court unless the court determines that such appointment would be contrary to the best interests of the minor. The guardian so appointed shall be subject to the law in the same manner as other guardians.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 5, ch. 79-221.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.35.

744.313 Letters of guardianship.—Letters of guardianship shall be issued to the guardian of the person or of the property, or both. Failure to issue letters shall not affect the validity of the order appointing the guardian.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; s. 12, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.40.

PART V

APPOINTMENT

- 744.331 Adjudication of persons mentally or physically incompetent; procedure.
- 744.334 Petition for appointment of guardian; contents.
- 744.337 Notice of hearing.
- 744.341 Voluntary guardianship.
- 744.344 Order of appointment.
- 744.347 Oath of guardian.
- 744.351 Bond of guardian.
- 744.354 Validity of bond.
- 744.357 Liability of surety.

744.331 Adjudication of persons mentally or physically incompetent; procedure.—No guardian of the person or of the property, or both, of a person alleged to be mentally or physically incompetent shall be appointed until after the person has been adjudicated to be incompetent in proceedings instituted for that purpose, in the following manner:

(1) When a person is believed to be incompetent because of mental illness, sickness, excessive use of alcohol or drugs, or other mental or physical condition, so that he is incapable of caring for himself or managing his property or is likely to dissipate or lose his property or inflict harm on himself or others, a verified petition may be filed where the alleged incompetent resides or is found, for a judicial inquiry into the mental or physical condition, or both, of the alleged incompetent.

(2) The petition may be filed by:

(a) The mother, father, brother, sister, husband, wife, adult child, or next of kin of the alleged incompetent.

(b) Any three citizens of the state.

(c) Any person who requests the examination of himself, if he presents a certificate of a physician authorized to practice medicine in this state certifying the reason that he believes the petitioner to be incompetent.

(d) The medical director of any state correctional institution, concerning any person at the institution.

(3) Every petition shall allege the name, approximate age, address if known, and nature of the disability of the alleged incompetent, and the names and addresses of the next of kin of the alleged incompetent, if known to petitioner.

(4) When a petition is filed, the court shall set a date for a hearing. Notice shall be given in writing to the alleged incompetent and to one or more members of his family, if any other than the petitioner are known to be residing in the county, and to such persons as the court may direct, notifying them that application has been made for an inquiry into either the mental or physical condition, or both, of the alleged incompetent and that a hearing on the application will be held at the time and place specified in the notice. The hearings shall be conducted in as informal a manner as may be consistent with orderly procedure and in a physical setting not likely to have a harmful effect on the mental health of the alleged incompetent. An opportunity to be represented by counsel shall be afforded to every alleged incompetent, and if he cannot afford an attorney the court shall appoint one.

(5)(a) The judge shall appoint an examining committee consisting of one responsible citizen and two practicing physicians who shall not be associated with each other in the practice of medicine. The citizen appointed shall not be associated with, or employed by, either physician. The examining committee shall proceed to examine the person to ascertain his mental and physical condition within a reasonable time after notice of its appointment. No petitioner shall serve as a member of the examining committee.

(b) If the examining committee considers the person under examination to be incompetent, it shall determine his age, whether his condition is acute or chronic, and the apparent cause of the condition. The report shall cover the findings of the committee, be signed by each member of the examining committee, and be transmitted immediately to the court. If the report of the examiners is that the alleged incompetent is not mentally or physically incompetent, the court shall dismiss the petition.

(c) The committee and any attorney appointed under subsection (4) shall be entitled to reasonable fees to be determined by the court and paid from the general fund of the county where the alleged incompetent was domiciled at the time the petition was filed. The county shall have a right of a creditor's claim against the guardianship assets for any amounts paid under this section. The county shall file its claim within 90 days of the adjudication of incompetency, and, if the county does not file its claim within such 90 days, the county is thereafter barred. Upon petition by the county for payment of the claim as provided in s. 744.387(5), the county shall be satisfied out of the assets of the estate. The board of county commissioners shall keep a record of such payments and may file its claim for reimbursement at any time after a guardian has been appointed.

(6) Except as otherwise specified, the procedure shall be governed by rules applicable in guardianships generally.

(7) If the court finds that the person under investigation is incompetent, mentally or physically, or both, the judgment shall state the nature and extent of the incompetency. If the court finds that the person is not incompetent, it shall dismiss the petition.

(8) After a judgment adjudicating a person to be mentally or physically incompetent is filed, the person shall, for the duration of the incompetency, be presumed to be incapable of managing his own affairs or of making any gift, contract, or instrument in writing that is binding on him or his estate. The filing of the judgment shall be notice of the incapacity.

(9) When a person is adjudicated mentally or physically incompetent, a guardian of the person shall be appointed, and a guardian of the property may be appointed.

History.—ss. 9, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 4, ch. 77-328; s. 1, ch. 78-342; s. 6, ch. 79-221.

744.334 Petition for appointment of guardian; contents.—Every petition for the appointment of a guardian shall be verified by the petitioner and shall contain statements, to the best of petitioner's knowledge and belief, showing the name, age, residence, and post-office address of the alleged incompetent; the nature of his incapacity; the type of guardianship desired; the approximate value and description of his property; the residence and post-office address of the petitioner; and the names and addresses of the next of kin of the incompetent, if known to the petitioner.

History.—ss. 11, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 7, ch. 79-221.

(1) When the petition for the appointment of a guardian alleges that the person has been adjudicated to be physically or mentally incompetent, or both, the court shall hear the petition without notice if it is filed and heard upon the conclusion of the hearing in which the person is so adjudicated. If it is heard on a later date, reasonable notice of the hearing shall be served on the incompetent, next of kin, and such other persons as the court may direct.

(2) When the petition alleges that the incapacity is minority and the petitioner is not the parent and the parents of the minor are living, reasonable notice of the hearing shall be given to them. When a parent applies for appointment as guardian of his minor child, no notice is necessary unless the other parent is living and refuses to consent to the appointment.

History.—ss. 11, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-328; s. 8, ch. 79-221.

744.341 Voluntary guardianship.—

(1) Without adjudication of incompetency, the court shall appoint a guardian of the estate of a resident or nonresident person who, though mentally competent, is incapable of the care, custody, and management of his estate by reason of age or physical infirmity and who has voluntarily petitioned for the appointment. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate of a licensed physician that he has examined the petitioner and that the petitioner is competent to understand the nature of the guardianship and his delegation of authority. Notice of hearing on any petition for appointment and for authority to act shall not be required, except that notice shall be given to the ward and to any person to whom the ward requests that notice be given. Such request may be made in the petition for appointment of guardian or in a subsequent written request for notice signed by the ward.

(2) Any guardian appointed under this section shall have the same duties and responsibilities as are provided by law as to guardians of property generally.

History.—ss. 11, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 9, ch. 79-221.

744.344 Order of appointment.—At the hearing on the petition for the appointment of a guardian, the court shall hear the evidence on the question of the competency of the person who is the subject of the hearing. An order previously adjudicating a person to be incompetent shall constitute conclusive proof of incompetency until the competency of the person has been restored. The court may hear testimony on the question of who is entitled to preference in the appointment of a guardian. Any person interested may intervene in the proceedings. If the court finds that the person who is the subject of the hearing is incompetent, it shall appoint a guardian of the person or of the property, or both, as it may deem necessary. The order shall state the specific nature of the incapacity found. The order shall specify the amount of the bond to be given by the guardian.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 12, 26, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.34.

744.347 Oath of guardian.—Before exercising his authority as guardian, every guardian shall take an oath that he will faithfully perform his duties as guardian. This oath is not jurisdictional.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 19, 26, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.36.

744.351 Bond of guardian.—

(1) Before entering on his duties, every person appointed a guardian of the property of a ward in Florida shall file a bond with surety as prescribed in s. 45.011 to be approved by the clerk. The bond shall be payable to the Governor of the state and his successors in office, conditioned on the faithful performance of all duties by the guardian. In form the bond shall be joint and several. When the petitioner requests a waiver of bond, the court may waive a bond.

(2) When the sureties on a bond are natural persons, the guardian shall be required to file with his annual returns proof satisfactory to the court that the sureties are alive and solvent.

(3) The penal sum of a guardian's bond shall be fixed by the court, and it must be in an amount not less than the full amount of the cash on hand and on deposit belonging to the ward, plus the value of the notes and bonds owned by the ward that are payable to bearer.

(4) For good cause, the court may require, or increase or reduce the amount of, bond or change or release the surety.

(5) Banks and trust companies authorized by law to be guardians shall not be required to file bonds.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 19, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-342.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.38.

744.354 Validity of bond.—No bond executed by any guardian shall be invalid because of an informality in it or because of an informality or illegality in the appointment of the guardian. The bond shall have the same force and effect as if the bond had been executed in proper form and the appointment had been legally made.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 19, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.42.

744.357 Liability of surety.—No surety for a guardian shall be charged beyond the assets of the ward's property.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 19, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.43.

- 744.454 Guardian forbidden to borrow or purchase.
- 744.457 Conveyance of various property rights.

744.461 Purchasers and lenders protected.

744.361 Duties and powers of guardian of the person.—

(1) It is the duty of the guardian of the person to take care of the person of the ward, to treat him humanely, and, if he is a minor, to see that he is properly educated and that he has the opportunity to learn a trade, occupation, or profession.

(2) The guardian of the person shall be entitled to the custody of the ward, but shall not have power to bind the ward or his property or to represent him in any legal proceedings pertaining to his property.

(3) In case of an adult ward, the guardian shall honor the ward's preferences as to place and standard of living, either as had been expressed or demonstrated by the ward prior to the determination of his incompetency, or as currently expressed by the ward, insofar as such a request is reasonable. Such preference should be compatible with the ward's present resources and place and standard of living prior to the determination of his incompetency and shall be subject to review by the court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 6, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former ss. 744.48, 744.49.

744.364 Periodic examination of ward.—

(1) Unless the court enters an order declaring that it is not necessary, or unless the ward is maintained in an institution operated by the state, the guardian of the person of a person adjudged physically or mentally incompetent shall cause the person to be examined annually by a licensed physician concerning the mental and physical condition of the ward.

(2) The guardian of the property may expend up to $150 from the ward's estate, without prior court approval, for the professional examinations under subsection (1). When the cost of the examination exceeds $150, the guardian shall obtain prior court authorization for the expenditure. If the ward's estate has insufficient assets to pay the expense of the examinations, the guardian shall report the insufficiency and obtain an order permitting him to apply for financial relief from state or county funds, as provided by laws concerning the care of indigent persons.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 6, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former ss. 744.481, 744.483.

744.367 Duty to file report.—On or before April 1 of each year, the guardian of the person shall file reports with the court including:

(1) The name and address of all places where the ward was maintained during the preceding year.

(2) The length of stay of the ward at each place.

(3) A resume of any professional medical treatment given to the ward during the preceding year.

(4) A brief resume of the guardian's activity and visits to check on the progress and condition of the ward.

(5) An evaluation by the guardian of whether or not the ward is competent to such an extent that he should be restored.

(6) A written report and evaluation from the examining physician, including, among other things, recommendations for treatment, prognosis, and indications for restoration.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 6, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.482.

744.371 Relief to be granted.—If it appears from the guardian's report and the medical report filed as required in s. 744.367 that:

- (1) The condition of the ward requires further examination;
- (2) Any change of care, maintenance, or treatment is needed;
- (3) The ward is qualified for restoration; or
- (4) His condition or maintenance requires the performance or doing of any other thing for the best interest of ward, the guardian shall petition for the needed matters. The court shall enter such orders, with or without notice to interested persons, as may be proper.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 6, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.484.

744.374 Payments to guardian of the person.—If the guardian of the person of the ward is other than the guardian of the property, either guardian may petition for an order directing the guardian of the property to pay to the guardian of the person periodic amounts for the support, care, maintenance, and education of the ward. The amount may be increased or decreased from time to time. If an order is made, the receipt of the guardian of the person for payments made shall be a sufficient discharge of the guardian of the property. He shall not be bound to see to the application of the payments.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 6, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.50.

744.377 Duties of guardian of the property.—

- (1) It is the duty of the guardian of the property of the ward:
  - (a) To protect and preserve the property and to invest it prudently as defined in s. 737.302, apply it as provided in s. 744.397, and account for it faithfully.
  - (b) To perform all other duties required of him by law.
  - (c) At the termination of the guardianship, to deliver the assets of the ward to the person lawfully entitled to them.
- (2) The guardian shall observe the standards in dealing with the guardianship property that would be observed by a prudent man dealing with the property of another, and, if the guardian has special skills or is named guardian on the basis of representations of special skills or expertise, he is under a duty to use those skills.
- (3) The guardian shall take possession of all of the ward's property and of the rents, income, issues, and profits from it, whether accruing before or after his appointment, and of the proceeds arising from the sale, lease, or mortgage of the property or of any part. All of the property and the rents, income, issues, and profits from it shall be assets in the hands of the guardian for the payment of debts, taxes, claims, charges, and expenses of the guardianship and for the care, support, maintenance, and education of the ward or his dependents, as authorized by law or approved by the court.

(4) Within 60 days after his appointment, the guardian shall file a complete inventory of the property that has come to his knowledge and of any cause of action on which his ward has a right to sue.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 12, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former ss. 744.51, 744.52, 744.53.

744.381 Appraisals.—When the court deems it necessary, appraisers may be appointed to appraise the property of the ward.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.54.

744.384 Subsequently discovered or acquired property.—If the guardian learns of any property that is not included in previous inventories, the property shall be inventoried within 30 days after the discovery or acquisition.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 14, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 744.59.

744.387 Settlement of claims.—

(1) When a settlement of any claim by or against the guardian of the property of the ward, whether arising as a result of personal injury or otherwise, and whether arising before or after appointment of a guardian, is proposed, but before an action to enforce it is begun, on petition by the guardian stating the facts of the claim, question, or dispute and the proposed settlement, and on any evidence that is introduced, the court may enter an order authorizing the settlement if satisfied that the settlement will be for the best interest of the ward. The order shall relieve the guardian from any further responsibility in connection with the claim or dispute when the settlement has been made in accordance with the order. The order authorizing the settlement may also determine whether an additional bond is required and, if so, shall fix the amount of it.

(2) In the same manner as provided in subsection (1) or as authorized by s. 744.301, the natural guardians or guardian of a minor may settle any claim by or on behalf of a minor that does not exceed $5,000 without bond. A legal guardianship of the property shall be required when the amount of the net settlement to the ward exceeds $5,000.

(3)(a) No settlement after an action has been commenced by or on behalf of a minor or other incompetent shall be effective unless approved by the court having jurisdiction of the action.

(b) In the event of settlement or judgment in favor of the minor or other incompetent, the court may authorize the natural guardians or guardian, or a guardian appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction, to collect the amount of the settlement or judgment and to execute a release or satisfaction. When the amount of net settlement to the ward or judgment exceeds $5,000 and no guardian has been appointed, the court shall require the appointment of a guardian of the property.

(4) In making a settlement under court order as provided in this section, the guardian is authorized to execute any instrument that may be necessary to effect the settlement. When executed the instrument shall be a complete release of the person making the settlement.

(5) Upon the filing of a claim by the county for reimbursement for the payment of reasonable fees awarded to any person under s. 744.331(5), the court shall enter an order authorizing immediate payment out of the assets or income of the estate of all amounts that have been required to be advanced by the county.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 14, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 3, ch. 78-342; s. 10, ch. 79-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.60.

744.391 Actions by and against guardian or ward.—If an action is brought by the guardian against the ward, or vice versa, or if the interest of the guardian is adverse to that of his ward, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed to represent the ward in that particular litigation. Judgments in favor of the ward shall become the property of the ward without the necessity for any assignment by the guardian or receipt by the ward upon termination of guardianship. The guardian may receive payment and satisfy any judgment in behalf of the ward without joinder by the ward.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.61.

744.394 Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of guardian.—If a person entitled to bring an action is declared incompetent before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement of it and the cause of the action survives, the action may be commenced by the guardian of the property after such expiration and within 1 year from the date of the order appointing him or the time otherwise limited by law, whichever is longer.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 16, 26, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.62.

744.397 Application of income of property of ward.—

(1) The court may authorize the guardian of the property to apply the income from the ward's property, first to his care, support, education, and maintenance, and then for the care, support, education, maintenance, cost of final illness, and cost of funeral and burial or cremation of the parent, spouse, or dependents, if any, of the ward, to the extent necessary. If the income is not sufficient for these purposes, the court may authorize the expenditure of part of the principal for such purposes from time to time.

(2) The word "dependents," as used in subsection (1) means, in addition to those persons who are legal dependents of a ward under existing law, the person or persons whom the ward is morally or equitably obligated to aid, assist, maintain, or care for, including, but not limited to, such persons as the indigent husband of the ward, based upon the showing of an existing need and an ability of the estate of the ward to pay for, provide, or furnish the aid, assistance, maintenance, or care without unreasonably jeopardizing the care, support, and maintenance of the ward.

(3) If the ward is a minor and his parents are able to care for him and to support, maintain, and educate him, the guardian of the property of the minor shall not so use his ward's property unless directed or authorized to do so by the court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 16, 26, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.64.

744.421 Petition for support of ward's dependents.—Any person dependent on the ward for support may petition for an order directing the guardian of the property to contribute to the support of the dependent person from the property of the ward. The court may enter an order for suitable support and education of the dependent person out of the ward's property. The grant or denial of an order for support shall not preclude a further petition for increase, decrease, modification, or termination of allowance for support by either the petitioner or the guardian. The order for support shall be valid for payments made pursuant to it, but no valid payments can be made after the termination of the guardianship. The receipt of the petitioner shall be a sufficient release of the guardian for payments made pursuant to the order. If the property of the ward is derived in whole or in part from payments of compensation, adjusted compensation, pension, insurance, or other benefits made directly to the guardian by the Veterans Administration, notice of the application for support shall be given by the applicant to the office of the Veterans Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the court is located and the chief attorney for the Division of Veterans' Affairs of the Department of Community Affairs in this state at least 15 days before the hearing on the application.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 16, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 78-305.

Note.—Created from former s. 744.65.

744.424 Attorney's fees and expenses.—

(1) An attorney who has been employed by a guardian and rendered service to the ward, or to the guardian in the ward's behalf, may petition for attorney's fees. After notice to the guardian, the court shall make an order on the petition.

(2) In annual and final returns the guardian shall be entitled to credit for reasonable sums that he has paid to an attorney for expenses and services rendered to the ward or to the guardian on behalf of the ward and to credit for his own reasonable expenses in connection with the guardianship. Objections may be made to the allowance of the items in the manner specified in the Rules of Probate and Guardianship Procedure, unless the items have been previously allowed.

(3) If the guardian is a practicing attorney at law in this state and has rendered legal services in connection with his guardianship duties, he shall be allowed reasonable fees in addition to his expenses and compensation provided by law for him as guardian.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 16, 26, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 745.33.

744.427 Annual returns.—

(1) The annual return shall be filed on or before April 1 of each year or 90 days after termination of the ward's fiscal year and, in his return, a guardian of the property shall render a full and correct account of the receipts and disbursements of all his ward's property of which he has control and shall include a statement of the ward's assets.

(2) Substantiating papers shall not be filed with accountings, but pertinent substantiating papers and records shall be available at a trial of objections to accountings, and all substantiating papers and records shall be preserved by the guardian for 3 years after his discharge.

(3) Within 30 days after the return has been filed, a person interested as creditor or otherwise may file written objections to any item, specifying the grounds of objection. No item previously approved by the court on notice shall be subject to objection.

(4) If a guardian fails to file his annual return, any person interested may file a written demand for service of a copy of the return. The demand shall contain the post-office address of the person filing it. If any demand is on file at the time the return is filed, the guardian shall serve a copy of the return upon the person who filed the demand and shall file proof of service of it.

(5) If objections are filed, the guardian or the objecting person, after the expiration of the time for filing objections and on reasonable notice to the other, may apply to the court for a hearing. After the hearing, the court shall enter an order sustaining or overruling the objections.

(6) If no objection is filed to any return within the time for filing objections, the court shall examine the return and enter its order approving it or requiring proof of the items.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 16, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 745.25.

744.431 Order requiring return; contempt.—

When a guardian fails to file the annual return, the court shall order him to make the return within 15 days from the service of the order upon him or show cause why he should not be compelled to do so. A copy of the order shall be served on the guardian or on his resident agent. If the guardian fails to file his return within the time specified by the order without good cause, the court may cite him for contempt of court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 17, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 745.29.

744.434 Production of assets.—On the petition of a creditor or other interested person or on its own motion, the court may require a guardian of the property to produce satisfactory evidence that the assets of the ward are in his possession or under his control. If it deems it necessary or proper, the court may order the guardian to produce the assets for the inspection of the creditor, another interested person, or the court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 17, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 745.30.

744.437 Annual appearance of the guardian.—

The court may require every guardian to appear before the court at the time the guardian files his annual return or at such other time as the court determines, in order for the court to inquire as to any matter relating to the physical and financial well-being of the ward.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 17, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 11, ch. 79-221.

744.441 Powers of guardian upon court approval.—After obtaining approval of the court in accordance with s. 744.447, a guardian of the property may:

(1) Perform, compromise, or refuse performance of a ward's contracts that continue as obligations of the estate, as he may determine under the circumstances.

(2) Execute any power of appointment or other power that the ward might have lawfully exercised, consummated, or executed if competent, if the best interest of the ward requires such execution.

(3) Make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures; demolish any improvements; or raze existing, or erect new, party walls or buildings.

(4) Subdivide, develop, or dedicate land to public use; make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries; adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration; or dedicate easements to public use without consideration.

(5) Enter into a lease as lessor or lessee for any purpose, with or without option to purchase or renew, for a term within, or extending beyond, the period of guardianship.

(6) Enter into a lease or arrangement for exploration and removal of minerals or other natural resources or enter into a pooling or unitization agreement.

(7) Abandon property when, in the opinion of the guardian, it is valueless or is so encumbered or in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate.

(8) Pay calls, assessments, and other sums chargeable or accruing against, or on account of, securities.

(9) Borrow money, with or without security, to be repaid from the estate assets or otherwise and advance money for the protection of the estate.

(10) Effect a fair and reasonable compromise with any debtor or obligor or extend, renew, or in any manner modify the terms of any obligation owing to the estate.

(11) Prosecute or defend claims or proceedings in any jurisdiction for the protection of the estate and of the guardian in the performance of his duties.

(12) Sell, mortgage, or lease any real or personal property of the estate, including homestead property, or any interest therein for cash or credit, or for part cash and part credit, and with or without security for unpaid balances.

(13) Continue any unincorporated business or venture in which the ward was engaged.

(14) Purchase the entire fee simple title to real estate in Florida in which the guardian has no interest, but the purchase may be made only for a home for the ward, to protect the home of the ward or his interest, or as a home for his dependent family. If the ward is a married person adjudged incompetent and the home of the ward or of the dependent family of the ward is owned by the ward and spouse as an estate by the entirety and the home is sold pursuant to the authority of subsection (12), the court may authorize the investment of any part or all of the proceeds from the sale toward the purchase of a fee simple title to real estate in Florida for a home for the ward or the dependent family of the ward as an estate by the entirety owned by the ward and spouse. If the guardian is authorized to acquire title to real estate for the ward or dependent family of the ward as an estate by the entirety in accordance with the preceding provisions, the conveyance shall be in the name of the ward and spouse and shall be effective to create an estate by the entirety in the ward and spouse.

(15) Exercise any option contained in any policy of insurance payable to, or insuring to the benefit of, the ward.

(16) Pay reasonable funeral, interment, and grave-marker expenses for the ward from the ward's estate, in an amount not to exceed $1,500.

(17) Make gifts of the ward's property to members of the ward's family in estate and income tax planning procedures.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 22, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 77-328; s. 281, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Created from former ss. 745.03(2),(3), 745.20, 745.23.

744.444 Power of guardian without court approval.—Without obtaining court approval, a guardian of the property may:

(1) Retain assets owned by the ward.

(2) Receive assets from fiduciaries or other sources.

(3) Vote stocks or other securities in person or by general or limited proxy or not vote stocks or other securities.

(4) Insure the assets of the estate against damage, loss, and liability and insure himself against liability as to third persons.

(5) Execute and deliver in his name as guardian any instrument necessary or proper to carry out and give effect to this section.

(6) Pay taxes and assessments on the ward's property.

(7) Pay valid encumbrances against the ward's property in accordance with their terms, but no prepayment shall be made without prior court approval.

(8) Pay reasonable living expenses for the ward, taking into consideration the accustomed standard of living, age, health, and financial condition of the ward.

(9) Elect whether to dissent from a will under the provisions of s. 732.210(2) or assert any other right or choice available to a surviving spouse in the administration of a decedent's estate.

(10) Deposit or invest liquid assets of the estate, including moneys received from the sale of other assets, in federally insured interest-bearing accounts, readily marketable secured loan arrangements, or other prudent investments.

(11) Pay incidental expenses in the administration of the estate.

(12) Sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights and consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise.

(13) Employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisors, or agents, even if they are associated with the guardian, where reasonably necessary, to advise or assist the guardian in the performance of his administrative duties.

(14) Execute and deliver in his name as guardian any instrument necessary or proper to carry out the orders of the court.

(15) Hold a security in the name of a nominee or in other form without disclosure of the interest of the ward, but the guardian is liable for any act of the nominee in connection with the security so held.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 23, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 3, ch. 77-328; s. 282, ch. 79-400.

744.447 Petition for authorization to act.—

(1) Application for authorization to perform, or confirmation of, any acts under s. 744.441 shall be by petition stating the facts showing the expediency or necessity for the action, a description of any property involved, and the price and terms of a sale, mortgage, or other contract.

(2) No notice of a petition to authorize a sale of perishable personal property or of property rapidly deteriorating shall be required. Notice of a petition to perform any other acts under s. 744.441 shall be given to the guardian of the person and to those interested persons who have filed requests for notices and copies of pleadings, as provided in the Florida Rules of Probate and Guardianship Procedure.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 24, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 12, ch. 79-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 745.06.

744.451 Order.—

(1) If a sale or mortgage is authorized, the order shall describe the property, and

(a) If the property is authorized for sale at private sale, the order shall fix the price and the terms of sale.

(b) If the sale is to be public, the order shall state that the sale shall be made to the highest bidder and the court reserves the right to reject all bids.

(2) An order for any other act permitted under s. 744.441 shall describe the permitted act and authorize the guardian to perform it.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 24, 26, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 745.09.

744.454 Guardian forbidden to borrow or purchase.—No guardian shall purchase property or borrow money from his ward unless the property is sold at public sale and then only if the guardian is a spouse, parent, child, brother, or sister of the ward or a cotenant of the ward in the property to be sold.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 24, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

Note.—Created from former s. 745.14.

744.457 Conveyance of various property rights.—

(1)(a) All legal or equitable interests in real and personal property owned as an estate by the entirety by an incompetent for whom a guardian of the property has been appointed may be sold, transferred, conveyed, or mortgaged in accordance with s. 744.447, if the spouse who is not incompetent joins in the sale, transfer, conveyance, or mortgage of the property. When both spouses are incompetent, the sale, transfer, conveyance, or mortgage shall be by the guardians only. The sale, transfer, conveyance, or mortgage may be accomplished by one instrument or by separate instruments.

(b) In ordering or approving the sale and conveyance of the real or personal property owned by the ward and his spouse as an estate by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship, the court may provide that one-half of the net proceeds of the sale shall go to the guardian of the property of the ward and the other one-half to the ward's spouse, or the court may provide for the proceeds of the sale to retain the same character as to survivorship as the original asset.

(c) The guardian of the property of the incompetent shall collect all payments coming due on intangible property, such as notes and mortgages and other securities, and shall retain one-half of all principal and interest payments so collected and shall pay the other one-half of the collections to the spouse who is not incompetent. If both spouses are incompetent, the guardian of either shall collect the payments, retain one-half of the principal and interest payments, and pay the other one-half to the guardian of the other spouse.

(d) The spouse of the incompetent shall collect all payments of rents on real estate held as an estate by the entirety and, after paying all charges against the property, such as taxes, insurance, maintenance, and repairs, shall retain one-half of the net rents so collected and pay the other one-half to the guardian of the property of the spouse who is incompetent. If both spouses are incompetent, the guardian of either may collect the rent, pay the charges, retain one-half of the net rent, and pay the other one-half to the guardian of the other spouse.

(2) In determining the value of life estates or remainder interests, the American Experience Mortality Tables may be used.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the court in its discretion from appointing a sole guardian to serve as guardian for both spouses.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 24, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 13, ch. 79-221.

Note.—Created from former s. 745.15.

744.461 Purchasers and lenders protected.—

No person purchasing or leasing from, or taking a mortgage, pledge, or other lien from, a guardian shall be bound to see that the money or other things of value paid to the guardian are actually needed or properly applied. The person is not otherwise bound as to the proprieties or expedencies of the acts of the guardian.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 24, 26, ch. 75-222.

Note.—Created from former s. 745.21.

PART VII

TERMINATION

- 744.464 Restoration to mental or physical competency; procedure.
- 744.467 Resignation of guardian.
- 744.471 Appointment of successor.
- 744.474 Reasons for removal of guardian.
- 744.477 Proceedings for removal.
- 744.511 Accounting upon removal.
- 744.514 Surrender of assets upon removal.
- 744.517 Proceedings for commitment.
- 744.521 Termination of guardianship.

- 744.524 Termination of guardianship on change of domicile of resident ward.
- 744.527 Final returns and application for discharge; hearing.
- 744.531 Order of discharge.

744.464 Restoration to mental or physical competency; procedure.—

(1)(a) When a person has been declared incompetent and is hospitalized at a treatment facility and becomes capable of managing his own affairs, he may be issued a certificate of competency signed by three members of the medical staff at the treatment facility. The certificate shall be attested by the administrator of the treatment facility, shall be admissible in evidence in any hearing for the restoration to competency of the person, and shall be prima facie proof that the person is competent.

(b) A certificate of competency may also be issued at a designated receiving facility upon the recommendation of two members of the medical staff and a third responsible person. The certificate shall be attested by the administrator of the receiving facility, be admissible in evidence in any hearing for the restoration to competency of the person, and be prima facie proof that the person is competent.

(2) Upon issuance of a certificate of competency, it shall be sent to the court where the person was originally found incompetent. Upon receipt of the certificate, the court shall file it and notify the guardian of the incompetent person and the state attorney of the judicial circuit in the county of the person's residence. The state attorney shall represent the state and shall, within 20 days, file any objections he has to the restoration to competency of the person named in the certificate. The state attorney may file a waiver of objection before the expiration of the 20-day period. If no objections are filed within the time allowed or if a waiver of objection is filed, the person named in the certificate shall automatically be restored to competency on the basis of the certificate, and an order to that effect shall be entered. If an objection to restoration is made by the state attorney, a copy of the objection shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the person named in the certificate or his next of kin or legal guardian, with a notice that a petition for restoration of competency may be filed on behalf of the incompetent person.

(3) In case of indigency, the court may appoint an attorney to represent the incompetent. The attorney shall be entitled to a reasonable fee to be allowed by the court and paid by the governing body of the county from the general fund.

(4) Any relative, spouse, or friend of an incompetent person may petition in the county where the person was adjudged incompetent or where the person is living on the date of the petition to determine whether he is still incompetent and unable to manage his affairs.

(a) The petition shall be verified and shall allege facts upon which to base an order restoring the person to competency. The proceeding shall be ex parte, but a copy of the petition shall be served on the state attorney of the judicial circuit where the petition is filed, and he shall represent the state. If a guardian has been appointed for the person or property of the incompetent person, service of a copy of the petition for restoration shall be made upon the guardian. Proof of service of copies of the notice, certificates, and petition shall be by affidavit and filed with the court.

(b) Upon filing of the petition and reasonable notice to the state attorney and guardian of the incompetent, the court shall hold a hearing to determine the person's competency.

(c) If the court finds that the person is of sound mind and capable of managing his own affairs an order shall be entered that:

1. The person is of sound mind and capable of managing his own affairs.

2. The person shall be immediately restored to his personal liberty.

(d) A certified copy of the order shall be sent to the county where the incompetency proceeding was held if different from the county where the restoration proceedings were held.

(5)(a) After a judgment of physical incompetency has been entered, if the person becomes able to care for his property, he or one or more of his family or next of kin may file a petition setting forth the recovery of the person and the reasons why he should be restored to his former status.

(b) The court shall set a time for a hearing, and reasonable notice of the hearing shall be given to the incompetent person, if he is not the petitioner, and to one or more members of his family.

(c) If the court finds that the person has regained ability to care for his property, an order to that effect shall be entered, and the person, insofar as his person and property are concerned, shall occupy the same status as though he had never been adjudicated physically incompetent.

History.—ss. 10, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

744.467 Resignation of guardian.—A guardian may resign and be relieved of his guardianship after the notice that the court may require and notice to the surety on his bond. Before entering an order relieving the guardian, the court shall require him to file a true and correct account of his guardianship and to deliver to the successor guardian all property of the ward, all records concerning the property of the ward or of the guardianship, and all money due to the ward from him. Before entering the order, the court shall be satisfied that the interest of the ward will not be placed in jeopardy by the resignation. The acceptance of the resignation shall not exonerate the guardian or his surety from any liability previously incurred.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 19, 26, ch. 75-222; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.01.

744.471 Appointment of successor.—A successor guardian must be appointed and duly qualified before a guardian shall be relieved of his duties and obligations as provided in the preceding section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.02.

744.474 Reasons for removal of guardian.—A guardian may be removed for any of the following reasons, and the removal shall be in addition to any other penalties prescribed by law:

- (1) Fraud in obtaining his appointment.
- (2) Failure to discharge his duties.
- (3) Abuse of his powers.
- (4) Insanity or other incompetency.
- (5) Habitual drunkenness or continued sickness rendering him incapable of the discharge of his duties.

- (6) Failure to comply with any order of the court.
- (7) Failure to return schedules of property sold or accounts of sales of property or to produce and exhibit the ward's assets when so required.

- (8) The wasting, embezzlement, or other mismanagement of the ward's property.

- (9) Failure to give bond or security for any purpose when required by the court or failure to file with his annual returns the evidence required by s. 744.351 that the sureties on his bond are alive and solvent.

- (10) Conviction of a felony.

- (11) Appointment of a receiver or liquidator for any corporate guardian.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.03.

744.477 Proceedings for removal.—Proceedings for removal may be instituted by the court or by any surety or other interested person. Reasonable notice shall be given to the guardian. On the hearing, the court may enter an order that is proper under the pleadings and the evidence.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.04.

744.511 Accounting upon removal.—A removed guardian shall file a true, complete, and final account of his guardianship within 20 days after his removal.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.05.

744.514 Surrender of assets upon removal.—The successor guardian shall demand of the removed guardian or his heirs, personal representative, or surety all the property of the ward and all records with all money due the ward by him. The removed guardian or his heirs, personal representative, or surety shall turn over the items to his duly qualified successor.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.06.

744.517 Proceedings for commitment.—If a removed guardian fails to file a true, complete, and final account of his guardianship, to turn over to his successor all the property of his ward and all records that are in his control and that concern the property of the ward, or to pay over to the successor guardian all money due the ward by him, the court shall commit the removed guardian until he complies with the requirements indicated. If cause is shown for the default, the court shall set a reasonable time within which to comply, and, on failure to comply with this or any subsequent order, the removed guardian may be committed until he does comply. Proceedings for the commitment of a defaulting guardian may be instituted by the court, by any interested person, or by a successor guardian.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former ss. 746.07, 746.08.

744.521 Termination of guardianship.—

When a ward becomes sui juris, the property of a ward has been lawfully exhausted, or the ward dies or is restored to competency, the guardian of the property shall file a final return and receive his discharge. The court may require proof of the removal of incompetency or of the need of the continuance of the guardianship.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.12.

744.524 Termination of guardianship on change of domicile of resident ward.—When the domicile of a resident ward has been changed in accordance with s. 744.201, and the foreign court having jurisdiction over the ward at his new domicile has appointed a guardian of the property of the ward and the guardian has qualified and posted a bond in an amount required by the foreign court, the Florida guardian of the property of the ward may file his final accountings and close the Florida guardianship. The Florida guardian shall cause a notice to be published once a week for 2 consecutive weeks, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, that he has filed his accounting and will apply for discharge on a day certain and that jurisdiction of the ward will be transferred to the state of foreign jurisdiction. If an objection is filed to the termination of the Florida guardianship, the court shall hear the objection and enter an order either sustaining or overruling the objection. Upon the disposition of all objections filed, or if no objection is filed, final settlement shall be made by the Florida guardian. On proof that the remaining assets in the guardianship have been received by the foreign guardian, the Florida guardian shall be discharged. The entry of the order terminating the Florida guardianship shall not exonerate the guardian or his surety from any liability previously incurred.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.121.

744.527 Final returns and application for discharge; hearing.—

(1) When the need for a guardianship terminates, the guardian shall promptly file his final returns. If no objections are filed and if it appears that the guardian has made full and complete distribution to the person entitled and has otherwise faithfully discharged his duties, the court shall approve the final returns. If objections are filed, the court shall conduct a hearing in the same manner as provided for a hearing on objections to annual returns.

(2) The guardian applying for discharge is authorized to retain from the funds in his possession a sufficient amount to pay the final costs of administration, including guardian and attorney's fees regardless of the death of the ward, accruing between the filing of his final returns and the order of discharge.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-106; ss. 21, 26, ch. 75-222.
Note.—Created from former s. 746.13.

744.531 Order of discharge.—If the court is satisfied that the guardian has faithfully discharged his duties, has rendered a complete and accurate final return, and has delivered the assets of the ward to the person entitled, the court shall enter an order of discharge. The discharge shall operate as a release from the duties of the guardianship and as a bar to any action against the guardian or his surety unless the action is commenced within 1 year from the date of the order.

- 747.033 Oath.
- 747.034 Bond.
- 747.035 Rights, powers, and duties of conservator.
- 747.036 Resignation or removal of conservator.
- 747.04 Termination of conservatorship.
- 747.051 Summary procedure.
- 747.052 Procedure for order authorizing action by wife or next of kin.

747.01 Who are absentees under this law.—

(1) Any person serving in or with the Armed Forces of the United States, in or with the Red Cross, in or with the Merchant Marine or otherwise, during any period of time when a state of hostilities exists between the United States and any other power and for 1 year thereafter, who has been reported or listed as missing in action, interned in a neutral country, beleaguered, besieged or captured by the enemy, shall be an "absentee" within the meaning of this law; and,

(2) Any resident of this state, or any person owning property herein, who disappears under circumstances indicating that he may have died, either naturally, accidentally or at the hand of another, or may have disappeared as the result of mental derangement, amnesia or other mental cause, shall also be an "absentee" within the meaning of this law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 22888, 1945; s. 1, ch. 67-458.

747.011 Absentee incompetent for certain purposes.—An "absentee" as defined in s. 747.01 is considered incompetent for the purposes of s. 4, Art. X, State Constitution.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-103.

747.02 Jurisdiction.—The circuit court has jurisdiction to appoint a conservator of the estate of an absentee as defined in s. 747.01 upon a showing that:

- (1)(a)1. The absentee has an interest in any form of property in this state; or
- 2. The absentee is a legal resident of this state; or
- 3. The wife or next of kin of the absentee is a legal resident of this state; and
- (b) The absentee has not provided an adequate power of attorney authorizing another to act in his behalf with regard to such property or interest or the term of any such power of attorney has expired; and

(2) A necessity exists for providing care for the property or estate of the absentee or care for or judgments concerning his wife and children or, if he has no wife and children, his mother or his father.

History.—s. 2, ch. 22888, 1945; s. 2, ch. 71-103.

747.03 Petition.—

(1) The jurisdiction of the court shall be invoked by the filing of a petition by any person who would have an interest in the property or estate of the absentee were such absentee deceased or any person who is dependent on said absentee for his maintenance or support.

(2) The petition shall be sworn to by the petitioner and shall state:

(a) The names, addresses, and ages of the spouse, children, mother, father, brothers, and sisters, or, if none of these is living, the next of kin, of the absentee;

(b) The name, address, and age of any other person who would have an interest in the property or the estate of the absentee if he were deceased;

(c) The exact circumstances which cause the person missing to be an absentee under s. 747.01 including the date he was first known to be missing, interned, beleaguered, etc.;

(d) The necessity for establishing a conservatorship;

(e) Whether or not the person alleged to be an absentee has a will and the whereabouts of said will; and

(f) A statement of all property constituting an asset of the alleged absentee's estate or in which he has any interest and the approximate value of same.

History.—s. 3, ch. 22888, 1945; s. 5, ch. 71-103.

747.031 Notice; hearing.—

(1) Notice of the hearing on the petition to appoint a conservator shall be given to all persons named in the petition by registered mail or certified mail with return receipt requested.

(2) The judge shall hear evidence on the question of whether the person alleged to be missing, interned, beleaguered, etc., is an absentee as defined by s. 747.01 and on the question of who is entitled to appointment as conservator. Any person interested in such proceedings may intervene with leave of the court.

(3) The court may in its discretion appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the alleged absentee at the hearing.

History.—s. 6, ch. 71-103.

747.032 Order of appointment.—

(1) If, after hearing, the court is satisfied that the person alleged to be an absentee is an absentee as defined in s. 747.01 and that it is necessary that a conservatorship be established, he shall appoint a conservator of the estate and property of said absentee to take charge of the absentee's estate and property under the supervision, and subject to the further orders, of the court.

(2) In the appointment of a conservator, the court shall give due consideration to the appointment of one of the next of kin of the absentee if such next of kin is a fit and proper person and is qualified to act.

History.—s. 7, ch. 71-103.

747.033 Oath.—Every conservator, before exercising his authority as conservator, shall take oath that he will faithfully perform his duties as conservator and that he will render true accounts whenever required according to law, which oath may be administered by any officer authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this state. Such oath shall be filed with the court.

History.—s. 8, ch. 71-103.

747.034 Bond.—The court may require the conservator to post a bond as required for a guardian under ss. 744.38 and 744.39. All provisions of chapter 744 which are applicable to bonds are applicable to the bond of the conservator required under this chapter.

History.—s. 9, ch. 71-103.

747.035 Rights, powers, and duties of conservator.—

(1) The conservator shall have all the rights, powers, and duties of a guardian of the property as established in chapters 744 and 745 and an absentee and an absentee's dependents shall be entitled to all benefits accruing to a ward or a ward's dependents under said chapters.

(2) The circuit court shall have the same responsibility as to a conservatorship as it has with respect to the guardianship of the property under said chapters.

History.—s. 10, ch. 71-103; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

747.036 Resignation or removal of conservator.—The provision for resignation and removal of a guardian of the property in chapter 746 shall apply in the circuit court to resignation and removal of a conservator.

History.—s. 11, ch. 71-103.

747.04 Termination of conservatorship.—

(1) At any time upon petition signed by the absentee, or on petition of an attorney in fact acting under an adequate power of attorney granted by the absentee, the court shall direct the termination of the conservatorship and the transfer of all property held thereunder to the absentee or to the designated attorney in fact.

(2) Likewise, if at any time subsequent to the appointment of a conservator it shall appear that the absentee has died and an executor or administrator has been appointed for his estate, the court shall direct the termination of the conservatorship and the transfer of all property of the deceased absentee held thereunder to such executor or administrator.

(3) When the need for a conservatorship terminates, the conservator shall promptly file his final returns and his application for discharge with the court. If it appears to the court that the returns are correct and that the conservator has made full and complete transfer of the absentee's assets as directed, the court may approve the returns and discharge the conservator. If objections to the returns are filed, the circuit judge shall conduct a hearing under the same conditions for a hearing on objections to annual returns.

(4) Such discharge shall operate as a release from the duties of the conservatorship and as a bar to any suit against said conservator or his surety, unless such suit is commenced within 1 year from the date of discharge.

History.—s. 4, ch. 22888, 1945; s. 12, ch. 71-103.

747.051 Summary procedure.—

(1) If the wife of any person defined as an absentee in s. 747.01(1), or his next of kin if said absentee has no wife, shall wish to sell or transfer any property of the absentee which has a gross value of less than $5,000, or shall require the consent of the absentee in any matter regarding the absentee's children or in any other matter in which the gross value of the subject matter is less than $5,000, she may apply to the circuit court for an order authorizing said sale, transfer, or consent without opening a full conservatorship proceeding as provided by this chapter. She may make the application without the assistance of an attorney. Said application shall be made by petition on the following form, which form shall be made readily available to the applicant by the clerk of the circuit court:

In the Circuit Court

In re: (Absentee), case number .....

PETITION FOR SUMMARY RELIEF

The above named, ....., being by me duly sworn, says the foregoing petition is true and correct to the best of his/her knowledge and belief.

(Notary Public or County Court Judge)

My commission expires .....

(2) The court shall, without hearing or notice, enter an order on said petition if it deems the relief requested in said petition necessary to protect the best interests of the absentee or his dependents.

(3) Such order shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the proceedings and the authority of the petitioner to make a conveyance or transfer of the property or to give the absentee's consent in any matter prescribed by subsection (1).

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-103; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

747.052 Procedure for order authorizing action by wife or next of kin.—

(1) If the spouse, or the next of kin if there is no spouse, of any person defined as an absentee under s. 747.01(1), shall wish to sell, lease, or mortgage specific property having a gross value of $5,000 or more owned by the absentee or in which the absentee had an interest, or take specific action with respect to the absentee's interest having a gross value of $5,000 or more, she may petition the circuit court for an order authorizing the action with respect to such property or interest.

(2) The petition shall be sworn to by the petitioner and shall state:

(a) The names, addresses, and ages of the spouse, children, mother, father, brothers, and sisters, or, if none of these is living, the next of kin, of the absentee;

(b) The name, address, and age of any other person who would have an interest in the property or the estate of the absentee if he were deceased;

(c) The exact circumstances which cause the person missing to be an absentee under s. 747.01, including the date he was first known to be missing, interned, beleaguered, etc.;

(d) The reasons for the action for which the petition seeks authorization;

(e) Whether or not the person alleged to be an absentee has a will and the whereabouts of said will and contents if known; and

(f) A statement of all property constituting an asset of the alleged absentee's estate or in which he has any interest and the approximate value of same.

(3) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given to all persons named in the petition by registered mail or certified mail with return receipt requested.

(4) The judge shall hear evidence on the question of whether the person alleged to be missing, interned, beleaguered, etc., is an absentee as defined by s. 747.01 and on the question of whether the action in question should be authorized. Any person interested in such proceedings may intervene with leave of the court.

(5) The court may in its discretion appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the alleged absentee at the hearing.

(6) If, after hearing, the court is satisfied that the person alleged to be an absentee is an absentee as defined in s. 747.01, that the action in question should be authorized, and that there is no necessity for a full conservatorship as provided by s. 747.03, the court shall enter an order appointing the petitioner as conservator for the purposes of the action which is the subject of the petition and authorizing the conservator to take the action requested in the petition. The court shall require the conservator to account for the proceeds of the sale, lease, or other action, but the conservator shall not be required to subject the other property of the absentee to a conservatorship proceeding. The court may retain jurisdiction of the proceeding to make such further orders as it deems proper.

History.—s. 4, ch. 71-103.

PART II

CURATORS

- 747.06 Appointment of curator; petition.
- 747.07 Curator; hearing; notice and order.
- 747.08 Curator; hearings; testimony; decree.
- 747.09 Curator; appointment of guardian ad litem.
- 747.10 Curator; appointment of committee of inquiry.
- 747.11 Curator; effect of decree.
- 747.12 Bond of curator.
- 747.13 Court to direct allowance for ward.
- 747.14 Special curator.
- 747.15 Curator's account; procedure for confirmation.
- 747.16 Audit and examination of accounts.
- 747.17 Curator and guardian, if any, to be discharged upon recovery.
- 747.18 Curators, powers and duties.
- 747.19 Curatorship; review by court.

747.06 Appointment of curator; petition.—

The jurisdiction of the court shall be invoked by the filing of a petition in the circuit court of the county of his or her residence by the person for whose property a curator is sought; or by either the father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife or child or next of kin of such person; and, if any such relative fails to act, then by the sheriff of the county of the domicile or residence of such person, which petition shall set forth the facts and reasons why it is proper, appropriate or reasonably necessary for the best interest of such person that such appointment be made. The petition shall state names and addresses of all members of the immediate family and the names and addresses of husband or wife and next of kin, as particularly as is known to the petitioner.

History.—s. 2, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.07 Curator; hearing; notice and order.—

(1) The appointment shall be made only after a hearing upon due notice to one or more members of his or her family; or, if not a member of a family, to one or more relatives, or after such personal or such published notice as may be required by an order of court.

(2) The court shall by order determine what members of the family or relatives shall be given notice of the hearing and may determine the manner of giving such notice.

History.—s. 3, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.08 Curator; hearings; testimony; decree.—

(1) The person against whom the petition is presented shall attend or be summoned to attend or be given notice of the hearing of the petition before the court.

(2) At such hearing the court may take the testimony of all the parties in interest who shall appear and such witnesses as any member of his family whom he may see fit to call or summons.

(3) If the court on such hearing shall find that the petition is well-founded, then the court shall appoint a curator of the estate of such person, herein referred to as a ward. Any person interested may intervene in such proceedings with leave of court.

(4) The testimony adduced at the hearing shall be transcribed and filed unless the court shall find it to be unnecessary, and so order.

History.—s. 4, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.09 Curator; appointment of guardian ad litem.—The court may in its discretion appoint a guardian ad litem to represent at the hearing the person against whom the proceedings are taken.

History.—s. 5, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.10 Curator; appointment of committee of inquiry.—The court shall appoint a committee consisting of two practicing physicians to inquire into the report of its findings upon the question of the disability of such person.

History.—s. 6, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.11 Curator; effect of decree.—From and after the rendition of the decree appointing a curator, such person for whom appointed shall be a ward of the court appointing such curator, and the ward shall be wholly incapable of making any contract or gift whatever, or any instrument in writing, of legal force and effect, except after leave of court is granted upon a hearing after notice to the curator and such next of kin as the court shall order given notice of application.

History.—s. 7, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.12 Bond of curator.—

(1) The curator so appointed shall, before entering upon his duties, file with the clerk of the court a good and sufficient bond, approved by the clerk, with such surety or sureties as required of a guardian's bond, payable to the governor of the state and his successors in office, in such penal sum as the court shall determine by order and conditioned to faithfully perform his duties according to the requirements of law and orders of the court.

(2) The court may at any time require of the said curator such additional or larger bond as may seem to be proper or necessary to protect the interests of the ward.

History.—s. 8, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.13 Court to direct allowance for ward.—The court appointing such curator shall have full power over the estate of the ward and allowances to or for the said ward, and may allow and assess against the estate of the ward all reasonable costs incurred in procuring the appointment of said curator and during the curatorship; and shall have full power to enter a decree for the selling, mortgaging, or leasing of the real or personal property of the said ward, after the court shall have made an affirmative finding that a mortgage, sale or lease for such purposes is reasonably necessary or expedient:

- (1) For the maintenance and support of the ward or to secure advances for the same; or
- (2) To discharge existing liens; or
- (3) To protect the ward's estate;

Such sale, mortgaging or leasing shall be upon such terms and rates as shall be approved by the court, but no property of the ward shall be mortgaged at a rate of interest greater than 6 percent per annum.

History.—s. 9, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.14 Special curator.—After a curator is appointed and qualified he may move the court for the appointment of a "special curator," to prosecute any causes of action, suits or claims or to recover any property or other assets of the ward or to establish any rights in respect to the ward's estate, and such appointee shall have such powers, duties and responsibilities in respect thereto as the court shall prescribe, to the same extent and with the same limitations as would the principal curator.

History.—s. 10, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.15 Curator's account; procedure for confirmation.—Every curator shall file annually, and as often as otherwise ordered, in the court making said appointment, a full accounting of the administration of said trust. The curator shall present his accounts to the court in debit and credit form and shall petition the court to have them examined, approved and confirmed finally. The court shall by order direct to whom and what notice, if any, shall be given of the hearing of the petition or motion for approval.

History.—s. 11, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.16 Audit and examination of accounts.—

(1) After filing proof of the service of the notice, the court may thereupon examine or audit the accounts, or may appoint an examiner or auditor to examine and audit such accounts and report thereon to the court.

(2) After the examination or audit of any accounting is completed, the court shall approve or disapprove the same, or any item thereof; and the court may at any time before the curator has been finally discharged, after notice, enter judgment against the curator and his sureties for failing to comply with or abide by the terms and conditions of his bond.

(3) The cost of the audit or examination shall be paid out of the estate, as the decree of the court shall otherwise direct.

(4) Upon the death or restoration to legal capacity of the ward, the curator shall file in the office of the clerk of the circuit court a full and complete account of such items and matters as were not included in any former account confirmed finally.

History.—ss. 12, 13, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.17 Curator and guardian, if any, to be discharged upon recovery.—If, at any time the ward shall become able to properly care for himself or his property, he may petition the court, setting forth such fact; and, after a hearing, of which due notice shall be given to the curator and some one or more of the family or next of kin of the said person, as the court shall order, and after the appearance of the ward before the court, if the court shall find that the said person has regained the ability to properly care for his property, the court shall decree accordingly, and shall thereafter discharge the curator upon the rendition of a proper accounting and after same has been confirmed after notice and hearing.

History.—s. 14, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.18 Curators, powers and duties.—Except as herein otherwise provided, a curator shall have the powers and be subject to the same duties over and concerning the property of a ward as may be by law had and exercised by the guardians of the property of infants, and the court shall have and exercise the same powers touching such curator and the property of such person as may be by law had and exercised touching the guardian of the property of infants.

History.—s. 15, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.19 Curatorship; review by court.—Any orders or decrees of the circuit court relating to a curatorship may be reviewed as are other orders and decrees in equity, and such an appeal may be taken by any person as next friend of the ward after obtaining leave of the chancellor or by the curator or by the petitioner.

History.—s. 16, ch. 25376, 1949.

TITLE XLIV

TORTS

CHAPTER 767

DAMAGE BY DOGS

- 767.01 Owners responsible.
- 767.02 Sheep-killing dogs not to roam about.
- 767.03 Good defense for killing dog.
- 767.04 Liability of owners.
- 767.05 Owner's liability.
- 767.07 Interpretation.

767.01 Owners responsible.—Owners of dogs shall be liable for any damage done by their dogs to sheep or other domestic animals or livestock, or to persons.

History.—RS 2341; ch. 4979, 1901; GS 3142; RGS 4957; CGL 7044.

767.02 Sheep-killing dogs not to roam about.—It is unlawful for any dog known to have killed sheep to roam about over the country unattended by a keeper. Any such dog found roaming over the country unattended shall be deemed a run-about dog, and it is lawful to kill such dog.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4185, 1893; GS 3143; RGS 4958; CGL 7045.

767.03 Good defense for killing dog.—In any action for damages or of a criminal prosecution against any person for killing or injuring a dog, satisfactory proof that said dog had been or was killing cattle or sheep shall constitute a good defense to either of such actions.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4978, 1901; GS 3144; RGS 4959; CGL 7046; s. 1, ch. 79-315.

767.04 Liability of owners.—The owners of any dog which shall bite any person, while such person is on or in a public place, or lawfully on or in a private place, including the property of the owner of such dogs, shall be liable for such damages as may be suffered by persons bitten, regardless of the former viciousness of such dog or the owners' knowledge of such viciousness. A person is lawfully upon private property of such owner within the meaning of this act when he is on such property in the performance of any duty imposed upon him by the laws of this state or by the laws or postal regulations of the United States, or when he is on such property upon invitation, expressed or implied, of the owner thereof; provided, however, no owner of any dog shall be liable for any damages to any person or his property when such person shall mischievously or carelessly provoke or aggravate the dog inflicting such damage; nor shall any such owner be so liable if at the time of any such injury he had displayed in a prominent place on his premises a sign easily readable including the words "Bad Dog."

History.—s. 1, ch. 25109, 1949.

767.05 Owner's liability.—An owner or keeper of any dog that kills, wounds, or harasses any dairy cattle shall be jointly and severally liable to the owner of such animal for all damages done by such dog, and it is not necessary to prove notice to or knowledge by any such owner or keeper of such dog that the dog was mischievous or disposed to kill or worry any dairy cattle.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-315.

Note.—The words "and it is not necessary to prove" were substituted for "without proving" by the editors.

767.07 Interpretation.—Section 767.05 is supplemental to all other laws relating to dogs not expressly referred to therein and shall not be construed to modify, repeal, or in any way affect any part or provision of any such laws not expressly repealed therein or to prevent municipalities from prohibiting, licensing, or regulating the running at large of dogs within their respective limits by law or ordinance now or hereafter provided.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-315.

Note.—Former s. 54.28.

768.042 Damages.—

(1) In any action brought in the circuit court to recover damages for personal injury or wrongful death, the amount of general damages shall not be stated in the complaint, but the amount of special damages, if any, may be specifically pleaded and the requisite jurisdictional amount established for filing in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any complaint filed prior to May 20, 1975.

History.—ss. 8, 9, ch. 75-9.

768.043 Remittitur and additur actions arising out of operation of motor vehicles.—

(1) In any action for the recovery of damages based on personal injury or wrongful death arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle, whether in tort or in contract, wherein the trier of fact determines that liability exists on the part of the defendant and a verdict is rendered which awards money damages to the plaintiff, it shall be the responsibility of the court, upon proper motion, to review the amount of such award to determine if such amount is clearly excessive or inadequate in light of the facts and circumstances which were presented to the trier of fact. If the court finds that the amount awarded is clearly excessive or inadequate, it shall order a remittitur or additur, as the case may be. If the party adversely affected by such remittitur or additur does not agree, the court shall order a new trial in the cause on the issue of damages only.

(2) In determining whether an award is clearly excessive or inadequate in light of the facts and circumstances presented to the trier of fact and in determining the amount, if any, that such award exceeds a reasonable range of damages or is inadequate, the court shall consider the following criteria:

(a) Whether the amount awarded is indicative of prejudice, passion, or corruption on the part of the trier of fact.

(b) Whether it clearly appears that the trier of fact ignored the evidence in reaching the verdict or misconceived the merits of the case relating to the amounts of damages recoverable.

(c) Whether the trier of fact took improper elements of damages into account or arrived at the amount of damages by speculation or conjecture.

(d) Whether the amount awarded bears a reasonable relation to the amount of damages proved and the injury suffered.

(e) Whether the amount awarded is supported by the evidence and is such that it could be adduced in a logical manner by reasonable persons.

(3) It is the intent of the Legislature to vest the trial courts of this state with the discretionary authority to review the amounts of damages awarded by a trier of fact, in light of a standard of excessiveness or inadequacy. The Legislature recognizes that the reasonable actions of a jury are a fundamental precept of American jurisprudence and that such actions should be disturbed or modified only with caution and discretion. However, it is further recognized that a review by the courts in accordance with the standards set forth in this section provides an additional element of soundness and logic to our judicial system and is in the best interests of the citizens of Florida.

768.045 Nonjoinder of liability insurers.—

(1) No liability insurer shall be joined as a party defendant in an action to determine the insured's liability; however, each insurer which does or may provide liability insurance coverage to pay all or a portion of a judgment which might be entered in the action shall file a statement of a corporate officer setting forth the following information regarding each known policy of insurance:

- (a) The name of the insurer.
- (b) The name of each insured.
- (c) The limits of liability coverage.

(d) A statement of any policy or coverage defense which said insurer reasonably believes is available to said insurer at the time of filing the statement.

(2) The statement required under subsection (1) shall be amended immediately upon discovery of facts calling for an amendment.

(3) If the statement or amendment indicates that a policy or coverage defense has been or will be asserted, then the insurer may be joined as a party.

(4) After the rendition of a verdict or, if the case is tried without a jury, a final judgment by the court, the insurer may be joined as a party, and judgment may be entered by the court based on the statement required by this section.

(5) The rules of discovery shall be available to discover the existence and policy provisions of liability insurance coverage.

History.—s. 39, ch. 77-468.

768.07 Liability for injury to employees.—If any person is injured by a railroad company by the running of the locomotives or cars, or other machinery of such company, he being at the time of such injury an employee of the company, and the damage was caused by negligence of another employee, and without fault or negligence on the part of the person injured, his employment by the company shall be no bar to a recovery. No contract which restricts such liability shall be legal or binding.

History.—s. 3, ch. 4071, 1891; GS 3150; RGS 4966; CGL 7053. cf.—s. 769.06 Contracts limiting liability.

768.08 Liability of corporations having relief department for injury to employees; contracts in violation of act void.—Any person, association of persons, or corporation that has, or shall hereafter have, a relief department for the benefit of their or its employees, or which shall contribute any money or other thing of value to any relief society or association for the benefit of their or its employees, to which such employee may also contribute any money, or other thing of value, shall not be relieved of liability to such employee, or in case of his death to any person authorized by law to sue for such death, for the negligent injury or killing of such employee, because such employee may have been a member of or contributed to any such relief department, or received any benefits therefrom, but such employee, and in case of his death any person or persons authorized by law to sue for such death, shall be entitled to demand, sue for and recover any benefit that such employee may have been entitled to receive by reason of having been a member of or contributed to any such relief department, society or association, and such employee, and in case of his death any person authorized by law to sue for such death, shall be entitled to institute suit against any such person, association of persons or corporations, and to recover for any injury suffered by such employee and for the death of such employee, suffered through the negligence of such person, association of persons, or corporation, and any contract, stipulation or provision in violation of this section is declared to be null and void.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6520, 1913; RGS 4967; CGL 7054.

768.10 Pits and holes not to be left open.—It is not lawful for any company or individual to leave open any pit or other hole outside of an enclosure of a greater depth and breadth than 2 feet; provided, however, such pit or hole may be left open by enclosing the same with a fence or other enclosure that would be a safeguard against horses, cattle or other domestic animals falling into the same; provided further, that this section shall not apply to pits or holes made by any company or individual while bona fide engaged in actual mining operations, such pits and holes to be enclosed as herein provided when said mining operations shall cease or be discontinued.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4051, 1891; GS 3152; RGS 4969; CGL 7056.

768.11 Pits and holes; measure of damages.—Any company or individual who may leave open pits or other holes contrary to the provisions of s. 768.10 shall be liable in damages to any person injured thereby in an amount double the actual damages sustained, which may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

History.—s. 2, ch. 4051, 1891; GS 3153; RGS 4970; CGL 7057.

768.12 Motor vehicle colliding with any animal at large on a public highway.—Whenever a motor vehicle collides with any animal at large on a public highway of this state, and the operator of the motor vehicle dies as a result of the collision, the owner of such animal shall have no cause of action against the personal representative of the estate of the said deceased operator on account of any injuries to, or the death of, such animal, resulting from the collision.

cf.—s. 356.04 et seq. Railroad killing stock.

768.13 Good Samaritan Act; immunity from civil liability.—

(1) This act shall be known and cited as the "Good Samaritan Act."

(2) Any person, including those licensed to practice medicine, who gratuitously and in good faith renders emergency care or treatment at the scene of an emergency outside of a hospital, doctor's office, or other place having proper medical equipment, without objection of the injured victim or victims thereof, shall not be held liable for any civil damages as a result of such care or treatment or as a result of any act or failure to act in providing or arranging further medical treatment where the person acts as an ordinary reasonably prudent man would have acted under the same or similar circumstances.

(3) Any person, including those licensed to practice veterinary medicine, who gratuitously and in good faith renders emergency care or treatment to an injured animal at the scene of an emergency on or adjacent to a roadway shall not be held liable for any civil damages as a result of such care or treatment or as a result of any act or failure to act in providing or arranging further medical treatment where the person acts as an ordinary reasonably prudent man would have acted under the same or similar circumstances.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 65-313; s. 1, ch. 78-334.

768.14 Suit by state; waiver of sovereign immunity.—Suit by the state or any of its agencies or subdivisions to recover damages in tort shall constitute a waiver of sovereign immunity from liability and suit for damages in tort to the extent of permitting the defendant to counterclaim for damages resulting from the same transaction or occurrence.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-2204.

768.151 Waiver of sovereign immunity; revival of certain causes.—The waiver of sovereign immunity authorized by chapter 69-116, Laws of Florida (former s. 768.15), is revived as to causes of action arising during the period from July 1, 1969, to July 1, 1970, and the courts of this state shall have continuing jurisdiction over such actions until final judgment and satisfaction thereof. If any such action heretofore filed has been dismissed or otherwise disposed of on the grounds that chapter 69-116, Laws of Florida, was repealed by chapter 69-357, Laws of Florida, such action shall be reinstated by order of the court upon the filing of a petition by the plaintiff during the period between July 1, 1971, and July 1, 1972. Any person who has not heretofore filed suit but who claims a right of action pursuant to chapter 69-116, Laws of Florida, during its effective period shall have the right to file same at any time after July 1, 1971, but before July 1, 1972. Any action prosecuted under this section shall be subject to all provisions of chapter 69-116, Laws of Florida.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-165.

768.16 Short title.—Sections 768.16-768.27 may be cited as the "Florida Wrongful Death Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.17 Legislative intent.—It is the public policy of the state to shift the losses resulting when wrongful death occurs from the survivors of the decedent to the wrongdoer. Sections 768.16-768.27 are remedial and shall be liberally construed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.18 Definitions.—As used in ss. 768.16-768.27:

(1) "Survivors" means the decedent's spouse, minor children, parents, and, when partly or wholly dependent on the decedent for support or services, any blood relatives and adoptive brothers and sisters. It includes the illegitimate child of a mother, but not the illegitimate child of the father unless the father has recognized a responsibility for the child's support.

(2) "Minor children" means dependent unmarried children under 21 years of age, notwithstanding the age of majority.

(3) "Support" includes contributions in kind as well as money.

(4) "Services" means tasks, usually of a household nature, regularly performed by the decedent that will be a necessary expense to the survivors of the decedent. These services may vary according to the identity of the decedent and survivor and shall be determined under the particular facts of each case.

(5) "Net accumulations" means the part of the decedent's expected net business or salary income, including pension benefits, that the decedent probably would have retained as savings and left as part of his estate if he had lived his normal life expectancy. "Net business or salary income" is the part of the decedent's probable gross income after taxes, excluding income from investments continuing beyond death, that remains after deducting the decedent's personal expenses and support of survivors, excluding contributions in kind.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35; s. 66, ch. 77-121; s. 40, ch. 77-468.

cf.—s. 1.01 Definition of minor.

s. 743.07 Rights, privileges and obligations of persons 18 years of age or older.

768.19 Right of action.—When the death of a person is caused by the wrongful act, negligence, default, or breach of contract or warranty of any person, including those occurring on navigable waters, and the event would have entitled the person injured to maintain an action and recover damages if death had not ensued, the person or watercraft that would have been liable in damages if death had not ensued shall be liable for damages as specified in this act notwithstanding the death of the person injured, although death was caused under circumstances constituting a felony.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.20 Parties.—The action shall be brought by the decedent's personal representative, who shall recover for the benefit of the decedent's survivors and estate all damages, as specified in this act, caused by the injury resulting in death. When a personal injury to the decedent results in his death, no action for the personal injury shall survive, and any such action pending at the time of death shall abate. The wrongdoer's personal representative shall be the defendant if the wrongdoer dies before or pending the action. A defense that would bar or reduce a survivor's recovery if he were the plaintiff may be asserted against him, but shall not affect the recovery of any other survivor.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.21 Damages.—All potential beneficiaries of a recovery for wrongful death, including the decedent's estate, shall be identified in the complaint, and their relationships to the decedent shall be alleged. Damages may be awarded as follows:

(1) Each survivor may recover the value of lost support and services from the date of the decedent's injury to his death, with interest, and future loss of support and services from the date of death and reduced to present value. In evaluating loss of support and services, the survivor's relationship to the decedent, the amount of the decedent's probable net income available for distribution to the particular survivor, and the replacement value of the decedent's services to the survivor may be considered. In computing the duration of future losses, the joint life expectancies of the survivor and the decedent and the period of minority, in the case of healthy minor children, may be considered.

(2) The surviving spouse may also recover for loss of the decedent's companionship and protection and for mental pain and suffering from the date of injury.

(3) Minor children of the decedent may also recover for lost parental companionship, instruction, and guidance and for mental pain and suffering from the date of injury.

(4) Each parent of a deceased minor child may also recover for mental pain and suffering from the date of injury.

(5) Medical or funeral expenses due to the decedent's injury or death may be recovered by a survivor who has paid them.

(6) The decedent's personal representative may recover for the decedent's estate the following:

(a) Loss of earnings of the deceased from the date of injury to the date of death, less lost support of survivors excluding contributions in kind, with interest. If the decedent's survivors include a surviving spouse or lineal descendants, loss of net accumulations beyond death and reduced to present value may also be recovered.

(b) Medical or funeral expenses due to the decedent's injury or death that have become a charge against his estate or that were paid by or on behalf of decedent, excluding amounts recoverable under subsection (5).

(c) Evidence of remarriage of the decedent's spouse is admissible.

(7) All awards for the decedent's estate are subject to the claims of creditors who have complied with the requirements of probate law concerning claims.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.22 Form of verdict.—The amounts awarded to each survivor and to the estate shall be stated separately in the verdict.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.23 Protection of minors and incompetents.—The court shall provide protection for any amount awarded for the benefit of a minor child or an incompetent pursuant to the Florida Guardianship Law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.24 Death of a survivor before judgment.—A survivor's death before final judgment shall limit the survivor's recovery to lost support and services to the date of his death. The personal representative shall pay the amount recovered to the personal representative of the deceased survivor.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.25 Court approval of settlements.—While an action under this act is pending, no settlement as to amount or apportionment among the beneficiaries which is objected to by any survivor or which affects a survivor who is a minor or an incompetent shall be effective unless approved by the court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.26 Litigation expenses.—Attorneys' fees and other expenses of litigation shall be paid by the personal representative and deducted from the awards to the survivors and the estate in proportion to the amounts awarded to them, but expenses incurred for the benefit of a particular survivor or the estate shall be paid from their awards.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.27 Effective date.—Sections 768.16-768.27 shall take effect on July 1, 1972, and shall not apply to deaths occurring before that date.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-35.

768.28 Waiver of sovereign immunity in tort actions; recovery limits; limitation on attorney fees; statute of limitations; exclusions.—

(1) In accordance with s. 13, Art. X, State Constitution, the state, for itself and for its agencies or subdivisions, hereby waives sovereign immunity for liability for torts, but only to the extent specified in this act. Actions at law against the state or any of its agencies or subdivisions to recover damages in tort for money damages against the state or its agencies or subdivisions for injury or loss of property, personal injury, or death caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any employee of the agency or subdivision while acting within the scope of his office or employment under circumstances in which the state or such agency or subdivision, if a private person, would be liable to the claimant in accordance with the general laws of this state, may be prosecuted subject to the limitations specified in this act.

(2) As used in this act, "state agencies or subdivisions" include the executive departments, the Legislature, the judicial branch, and the independent establishments of the state; counties and municipalities; and corporations primarily acting as instrumentalities or agencies of the state, counties, or municipalities.

(3) Except for a municipality, the affected agency or subdivision may, at its discretion, request the assistance of the Department of Insurance in the consideration, adjustment, and settlement of any claim under this act.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, any state agency or subdivision of the state shall have the right of appealing any award, compromise, settlement, or determination to the court of appropriate jurisdiction.

(5) The state and its agencies and subdivisions shall be liable for tort claims in the same manner and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances, but liability shall not include punitive damages or interest for the period prior to judgment. Neither the state nor its agencies or subdivisions shall be liable to pay a claim or a judgment by any one person which exceeds the sum of $50,000 or any claim or judgment, or portions thereof, which, when totaled with all other claims or judgments paid by the state or its agencies or subdivisions arising out of the same incident or occurrence, exceeds the sum of $100,000. However, a judgment or judgments may be claimed and rendered in excess of these amounts and may be settled and paid pursuant to this act up to $50,000 or $100,000, as the case may be, and that portion of the judgment that exceeds these amounts may be reported to the Legislature, but may be paid in part or in whole only by further act of the Legislature. The limitations of liability set forth in this subsection shall apply to the state and its agencies and subdivisions whether or not the state or its agencies or subdivisions possessed sovereign immunity prior to July 1, 1974.

(6) An action shall not be instituted on a claim against the state or one of its agencies or subdivisions unless the claimant presents the claim in writing to the appropriate agency, and also, except as to any claim against a municipality, presents such claim in writing to the Department of Insurance, within 3 years after such claim accrues and the Department of Insurance or the appropriate agency denies the claim in writing. The failure of the Department of Insurance or the appropriate agency to make final disposition of a claim within 6 months after it is filed shall be deemed a final denial of the claim for purposes of this section. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to such claims as may be asserted by counterclaim pursuant to s. 768.14.

(7) In actions brought pursuant to this section, process shall be served upon the head of the agency concerned and also, except as to a defendant municipality, upon the Department of Insurance, and the department or the agency concerned shall have 30 days within which to plead thereto.

(8) No attorney may charge, demand, receive, or collect, for services rendered, fees in excess of 25 percent of any judgment or settlement.

(9) No officer, employee, or agent of the state or its subdivisions shall be held personally liable in tort for a final judgment which has been rendered against him for any injuries or damages suffered as a result of any act, event, or omission of action in the scope of his employment or function, unless such officer, employee, or agent acted in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property.

(10) Laws allowing the state or its agencies or subdivisions to buy insurance are still in force and effect and are not restricted in any way by the terms of this act.

(11) Every claim against the state or one of its agencies or subdivisions for damages for a negligent or wrongful act or omission pursuant to this section shall be forever barred unless the civil action is commenced by filing a complaint in the court of appropriate jurisdiction within 4 years after such claim accrues.

(12) No action may be brought against the state or any of its agencies or subdivisions by anyone who unlawfully participates in a riot, unlawful assembly, public demonstration, mob violence, or civil disobedience if the claim arises out of such riot, unlawful assembly, public demonstration, mob violence, or civil disobedience. Nothing in this act shall abridge traditional immunities pertaining to statements made in court.

(13) The state and its agencies and subdivisions are authorized to be self-insured, to enter into risk management programs, or to purchase liability insurance for whatever coverage they may choose, or to have any combination thereof, in anticipation of any claim, judgment, and claims bill which they may be liable to pay pursuant to this section. Agencies or subdivisions, and sheriffs for the purpose of police professional liability only, which are subject to homogeneous risks may purchase insurance jointly or may join together as self-insurers to provide other means of protection against tort claims, any charter provisions or laws to the contrary notwithstanding. Sheriffs may join together as self-insurers to provide coverage for police professional liability claims only.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-313; s. 1, ch. 74-235; ss. 1-3, ch. 77-86; s. 9, ch. 79-139; s. 1, ch. 79-253; s. 284, ch. 79-400.

768.30 Effectiveness.—Section 768.28 shall take effect on July 1, 1974, for the executive departments of the state and on January 1, 1975, for all other agencies and subdivisions of the state, and shall apply only to incidents occurring on or after those dates.

History.—s. 4, ch. 73-313; s. 3, ch. 74-235.

768.31 Contribution among tortfeasors.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—This act shall be cited as the "Uniform Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act."

(2) RIGHT TO CONTRIBUTION.—

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this act, when two or more persons become jointly or severally liable in tort for the same injury to person or property, or for the same wrongful death, there is a right of contribution among them even though judgment has not been recovered against all or any of them.

(b) The right of contribution exists only in favor of a tortfeasor who has paid more than his pro rata share of the common liability, and his total recovery is limited to the amount paid by him in excess of his pro rata share. No tortfeasor is compelled to make contribution beyond his own pro rata share of the entire liability.

(c) There is no right of contribution in favor of any tortfeasor who has intentionally (willfully or wantonly) caused or contributed to the injury or wrongful death.

(d) A tortfeasor who enters into a settlement with a claimant is not entitled to recover contribution from another tortfeasor whose liability for the injury or wrongful death is not extinguished by the settlement or in respect to any amount paid in a settlement which is in excess of what was reasonable.

(e) A liability insurer who by payment has discharged in full or in part the liability of a tortfeasor and has thereby discharged in full its obligation as insurer is subrogated to the tortfeasor's right of contribution to the extent of the amount it has paid in excess of the tortfeasor's pro rata share of the common liability. This provision does not limit or impair any right of subrogation arising from any other relationship.

(f) This act does not impair any right of indemnity under existing law. When one tortfeasor is entitled to indemnity from another, the right of the indemnity obligee is for indemnity and not contribution, and the indemnity obligor is not entitled to contribution from the obligee for any portion of his indemnity obligation.

(g) This act shall not apply to breaches of trust or of other fiduciary obligation.

(3) PRO RATA SHARES.—In determining the pro rata shares of tortfeasors in the entire liability:

(a) Their relative degrees of fault shall be the basis for allocation of liability.

(b) If equity requires, the collective liability of some as a group shall constitute a single share.

(c) Principles of equity applicable to contribution generally shall apply.

(4) ENFORCEMENT.—

(a) Whether or not judgment has been entered in an action against two or more tortfeasors for the same injury or wrongful death, contribution may be enforced by separate action.

(b) When a judgment has been entered in an action against two or more tortfeasors for the same injury or wrongful death, contribution may be enforced in that action by judgment in favor of one against other judgment defendants, by motion upon notice to all parties to the action.

(c) If there is a judgment for the injury or wrongful death against the tortfeasor seeking contribution, any separate action by him to enforce contribution must be commenced within 1 year after the judgment has become final by lapse of time for appeal or after appellate review.

(d) If there is no judgment for the injury or wrongful death against the tortfeasor seeking contribution, his right of contribution is barred unless he has either:

1. Discharged by payment the common liability within the statute of limitations period applicable to claimant's right of action against him and has commenced his action for contribution within 1 year after payment, or

2. Agreed, while action is pending against him, to discharge the common liability and has within 1 year after the agreement paid the liability and commenced his action for contribution.

(e) The recovery of a judgment for an injury or wrongful death against one tortfeasor does not of itself discharge the other tortfeasors from liability for the injury or wrongful death unless the judgment is satisfied. The satisfaction of the judgment does not impair any right of contribution.

(f) The judgment of the court in determining the liability of the several defendants to the claimant for an injury or wrongful death shall be binding as among such defendants in determining their right to contribution.

(5) RELEASE OR COVENANT NOT TO SUE.—When a release or a covenant not to sue or not to enforce judgment is given in good faith to one of two or more persons liable in tort for the same injury or the same wrongful death:

(a) It does not discharge any of the other tortfeasors from liability for the injury or wrongful death unless its terms so provide, but it reduces the claim against the others to the extent of any amount stipulated by the release or the covenant, or in the amount of the consideration paid for it, whichever is the greater; and,

(b) It discharges the tortfeasor to whom it is given from all liability for contribution to any other tortfeasor.

(6) UNIFORMITY OF INTERPRETATION.—This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states that enact it.

(7) PENDING CAUSES OF ACTION.—This act shall apply to all causes of action pending on June 12, 1975, wherein the rights of contribution among joint tortfeasors is involved and to cases thereafter filed.

768.40 Medical review committee, immunity from liability.—

(1) As used in this section, the term "medical review committee" or "committee" shall mean a committee of a state or local professional society of health care providers or of a medical staff of a licensed hospital or nursing home, provided the medical staff operates pursuant to written bylaws that have been approved by the governing board of the hospital or nursing home, which committee is formed to evaluate and improve the quality of health care rendered by providers of health service or to determine that health services rendered were professionally indicated or were performed in compliance with the applicable standard of care or that the cost of health care rendered was considered reasonable by the providers of professional health services in the area. The term "health care providers" means physicians licensed under chapter 458, osteopaths licensed under chapter 459, podiatrists licensed under chapter 461, dentists licensed under chapter 466, chiropractors licensed under chapter 460, or pharmacists licensed under chapter 465.

(2) There shall be no monetary liability on the part of, and no cause of action for damages shall arise against, any member of a duly appointed medical review committee for any act or proceeding undertaken or performed within the scope of the functions of any such committee if the committee member acts without malice or fraud. This immunity shall apply only to actions by providers of health services, and in no way shall this section render any medical review committee immune from any action in tort or contract brought by a patient or his successors or assigns. The provisions of this section do not affect the official immunity of an officer or employee of a public corporation.

(3) This section shall not be construed to confer immunity from liability on any professional society or hospital or upon any health professional while performing services other than as a member of a medical review committee. In any case in which, but for the enactment of the preceding provisions of this section, a cause of action would arise against a hospital, professional society, or an individual health professional, such cause of action shall exist as if the preceding provisions had not been enacted.

(4) The proceedings and records of committees as described in the preceding subsections, shall not be subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action against a provider of professional health services arising out of the matters which are the subject of evaluation and review by such committee, and no person who was in attendance at a meeting of such committee shall be permitted or required to testify in any such civil action as to any evidence or other matters produced or presented during the proceedings of such committee or as to any findings, recommendations, evaluations, opinions, or other actions of such committee or any members thereof. However, information, documents, or records otherwise available from original sources are not to be construed as immune from discovery or use in any such civil action merely because they were presented during proceedings of such committee, nor should any person who testifies before such committee or who is a member of such committee be prevented from testifying as to matters within his knowledge, but the said witness cannot be asked about his testimony before such a committee or opinions formed by him as a result of said committee hearings.

768.41 Internal risk management program.—

(1) Every hospital licensed pursuant to ch. 395, ambulatory surgical center as defined in this subsection, health maintenance organization certificated under part II of chapter 641, other facility providing in-house patient care, or other similar facility shall, as a part of its administrative functions, establish an internal risk management program which shall include the following components:

(a) The investigation and analysis of the frequency and causes of general categories and specific types of adverse incidents causing injury to patients;

(b) The development of appropriate measures to minimize the risk of injuries and adverse incidents to patients through the cooperative efforts of all personnel;

(c) The analysis of patient grievances which relate to patient care and the quality of medical services; and

(d) The development and implementation of an incident reporting system based upon the affirmative duty of all health care providers and all agents and employees of the health care facility to report injuries and adverse incidents to the hospital risk manager.

As used in this section, "ambulatory surgical center" means a facility the primary purpose of which is to provide elective surgical care and in which the patient is admitted to and discharged from said facility within the same working day, and which is not part of a hospital. However, an office maintained by a physician or dentist for the practice of medicine or dentistry shall not be construed to be an ambulatory surgical center.

(2) The risk management program shall be the responsibility of the governing board of the health care facility. When practical, two or more health care facilities may combine their risk management activities. Regardless of the method selected to carry out the program, one or more individuals shall be designated "risk manager" for the purposes of this part.

(3) In addition to the programs mandated by this act, other innovative approaches intended to reduce the frequency and severity of medical malpractice and patient injury claims shall be encouraged and their implementation and operation facilitated. Such additional approaches may include extending risk management programs to health care providers' offices and the assuming of provider liability by a health care facility for acts or omissions occurring within the facility.

(4) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative

Services shall, after consulting with the Department of Insurance, promulgate rules governing the establishment of such internal risk management programs to meet the needs of individual establishments. The Department of Insurance shall assist the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in preparing such rules. Each internal risk management program shall include the use of incident reports to be filed with an individual of responsibility who is competent in risk management techniques in the employ of each establishment, such as an insurance coordinator, or who is retained by said establishment as a consultant. Said individual shall have free access to all establishment medical records, and the rules promulgated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall so provide. The incident reports shall be considered to be a part of the work papers of the attorney defending the establishment in litigation relating thereto and shall be subject to discovery, but not be admissible as evidence in court, nor shall any person filing an incident report be subject to civil suit for libel by virtue of such incident report. As a part of each internal risk management program, the incident reports shall be utilized to develop categories of incidents which identify problem areas. Once identified, procedures shall be adjusted to correct said problem areas. Any such hospital, ambulatory surgical center, health maintenance organization, or other similar facility may join with like entities for a combined risk management program.

768.44 Medical liability mediation panels; membership; hearings.—

(1)(a) Any person or his representative claiming damages by reason of injury, death, or monetary loss on account of alleged malpractice by any medical or osteopathic physician, podiatrist, hospital, or health maintenance organization against whom he believes there is a reasonable basis for a claim shall submit such claim to an appropriate medical liability mediation panel before that claim may be filed in any court of this state.

(b) Claims shall be made on forms provided by the circuit court and shall be filed initially with the clerk of that court, with copies mailed to the person against whom the claim is made and to the administrative board licensing such professional. Service of process shall be effected as provided by law. Constructive service of process may be effected as provided by law.

(c) All parties named as defendants in the claim shall file an answer to such claim within 20 days of the date of service. No other pleadings shall be allowed. If no answer is filed within such time limit, the jurisdiction of the mediation panel over the subject matter shall terminate, and the parties may proceed in accordance with law.

(2) The chief judge of each judicial circuit shall prepare a list of persons available to serve on medical liability mediation panels whose purpose shall be to hear, and facilitate the disposition of, all medical malpractice actions arising within the jurisdiction of the circuit. The number of persons on the list shall be determined by the chief judge, but they shall be in sufficient numbers to efficiently carry out the intent of this section. Each hearing, as hereinafter provided for, shall be before a three-member panel, hereinafter referred to as the "panel," "mediation panel," or "hearing panel," composed as follows: A judicial referee, who shall be the presiding member of the hearing panel; a licensed physician; and an attorney. The judicial referee shall be a circuit judge. Such appointments of judicial referees shall be made by a "blind" system. The other panel members shall be selected in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) A list of physicians licensed to practice under chapter 458, chapter 459, or chapter 461 shall be prepared by the chief judge. In making the list, the chief judge may accept the recommendations of any recognized professional society representing practitioners licensed under any such chapter. The list shall, if possible, be divided into lists of physicians according to the particular specialty of each.

(b) A list of qualified attorneys shall be prepared by the chief judge. In making the list, the chief judge may accept the recommendations of recognized professional legal societies.

(c) Names of physicians and attorneys may be added to, or taken off, the panel list at any time by the chief judge at his discretion; however, all names added to the list shall be placed at the bottom of the list.

(d) A physician or attorney selected to be on the hearing panel for a particular case may disqualify himself or be challenged for cause.

(e) A filing fee not to exceed $25 shall be established by the chief judge in each circuit and shall be paid to the clerk of the circuit court. The filing fee shall be used to meet such incidental expenses as the panel may incur.

(f) Within 30 days after service of process, the parties shall file with the clerk a document designating the type of medical specialist who should hear the claim. In the event the parties do not agree on the specialist, the judicial referee shall make the determination. In no event shall more than one medical practitioner serve on a mediation panel.

(g) If both parties agree upon a doctor and an attorney to serve on the hearing panel, they may so stipulate. In the event no agreement is reached within 10 days after determination of the specialty of medical practice involved, the clerk shall mail to the parties and the panel members hereinafter described the names, selected at random, of five attorneys who are members of the hearing panel list and the names, selected at random, of five physicians of the designated specialty who are members of the hearing panel list or, if it is impractical to designate the physicians by specialty, the names, selected at random, of five physicians without regard to specialty. Thereafter, the panel members so selected shall have 10 days within which to disqualify themselves, and the parties shall have the same time in which to challenge panel members for cause. A decision on challenges for cause shall be made by agreement or by the judicial referee. If there are disqualifications or challenges for cause, the clerk shall appoint additional panel members as required. Thereafter, from the lists of five attorneys and five physicians, the parties shall agree on one attorney and one physician to serve on the hearing panel. If the parties are unable to agree, each side shall then strike names alternately from the attorneys' list and from the physicians' list separately, with the claimant striking first, until each side has stricken two names from each list. The remaining attorney and physician shall serve on the hearing panel.

(h) After selection of the panelists, the judicial referee and either party may question the physician and attorney to determine if either of them has a state of mind regarding the subject matter at issue, the case at hand, or any parties directly or indirectly involved in said case, that will prevent him from acting with impartiality. Upon a determination by the judicial referee that either panelist cannot act with complete impartiality, the judicial referee shall remove said panelist.

(i) Each of the non-judicial panelists shall be paid $100 per day for expenses for each day or portion of a day spent upon the hearing panel. The court shall assess both parties equally for the payment of such expenses to the panelists.

(3) The clerk shall, with the advice and cooperation of the parties and their counsel, fix a date, time, and place for a hearing on the claim before the hearing panel. The hearing shall be held within 120 days of the date the claim was filed with the clerk unless, for good cause shown upon order of the judicial referee, such time is extended. Such extension shall not exceed 6 months from the date the claim is filed. If no hearing on the merits is held within 10 months of the date the claim is filed, the jurisdiction of the mediation panel on the subject matter shall terminate, and the parties may proceed in accordance with law.

(4) The filing of the claim shall toll any applicable statute of limitations, and such statute of limitations shall remain tolled until the hearing panel issues its written decision or the jurisdiction of the panel is otherwise terminated. In any event, a party shall have 60 days from the date the decision of the hearing panel is mailed to the parties or the date on which the jurisdiction of the panel is otherwise terminated in which to file a complaint in circuit court.

(5) All parties shall be allowed to utilize any discovery procedure provided by the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. Any motion for relief arising out of the use of such discovery procedure shall be decided by the judicial referee. The judicial referee may in his discretion make reasonable limitations on the extent of discovery.

(6) The claim shall be submitted to the hearing panel under such procedural rules as may be established by the Supreme Court; however, strict adherence to the rules of procedure and evidence applicable in civil cases shall not be required. Witnesses may be called; all testimony shall be under oath; testimony may be taken either orally before the panel or by deposition; copies of records, x-rays, and other documents may be produced and considered by the panel; and the right to subpoena witnesses and evidence shall obtain as in all other proceedings in the circuit court. The right of cross-examination shall obtain as to all witnesses who testify in person. Both parties shall be entitled, individually and through counsel, to make opening and closing statements. No transcript or record of the proceedings shall be required, but any party may have the proceedings transcribed or recorded. The judge presiding at the hearing shall not preside at any trial arising out of the claim or hear any application in the case not connected with the hearing itself. No other hearing panel member shall participate in a trial arising out of the claim, either as counsel or witness.

(7) Within 30 days after the completion of any hearing, the hearing panel shall file a written decision with the clerk of the court who shall thereupon mail copies to all parties concerned and their counsel. The panel shall decide the issue of liability and shall state its conclusion in substantially the following language:

(a) "We find the defendant was actionably negligent in his care or treatment of the patient and we, therefore, find for the plaintiff"; or

(b) "We find the defendant was not actionably negligent in his care or treatment of the patient and we, therefore, find for the defendant."

The decision shall be signed by all members of the hearing panel; however, any member of the panel may file a written concurring or dissenting opinion.

(8) After a finding of liability, if the adverse parties agree, the panel may continue mediation for the purpose of assisting the parties in reaching a settlement. In such event, the panel shall also make a recommendation as to a reasonable range of damages, if any, which should be awarded in the case. The recommendation as to damages shall include, in simple, concise terms, some breakdown as to the portion of the recommended damages attributable to:

(a) Past and estimated future health or custodial care expenses attributable to the alleged malpractice, or

(b) Any of the other elements of damage:

1. Enumerated in s. 768.21 for wrongful death, or
2. Recognized by the Florida Standard Jury Instructions as elements of damages in injuries due to negligence.

However, the panel shall not have the right to determine punitive damages. Any findings of damages shall not be admissible in evidence in a subsequent trial.

(9) No member of the hearing panel shall be liable in damages for libel, slander, or defamation of character of any party to the mediation proceedings for any action taken or recommendation made by such member acting within his official capacity as a member of the hearing panel.

(10) The provisions of subsections (1) through (9) shall not be applicable to any case in which formal suit has been instituted prior to the effective date of those subsections, which shall be July 1, 1975.

768.45 Medical negligence; standards of recovery, etc.—

(1) In any action for recovery of damages based on the death or personal injury of any person in which it is alleged that such death or injury resulted from the negligence of a health care provider as defined in s. 768.50(2)(b), the claimant shall have the burden of proving by the greater weight of evidence that the alleged actions of the health care provider represented a breach of the accepted standard of care for that health care provider. The accepted standard of care for a given health care provider shall be that level of care, skill, and treatment which is recognized by a reasonably prudent similar health care provider as being acceptable under similar conditions and circumstances.

(2)(a) If the health care provider whose negligence is claimed to have created the cause of action is not certified by the appropriate American board as being a specialist, is not trained and experienced in a medical specialty, or does not hold himself out as a specialist, a "similar health care provider" is one who:

1. Is licensed by the appropriate regulatory agency of this state;
2. Is trained and experienced in the same discipline or school of practice; and
3. Practices in the same or similar medical community.

(b) If the health care provider whose negligence is claimed to have created the cause of action is certified by the appropriate American board as a specialist, is trained and experienced in a medical specialty, or holds himself out as a specialist, a "similar health care provider" is one who:

1. Is trained and experienced in the same specialty; and
2. Is certified by the appropriate American board in the same specialty.

(c) The purpose of this subsection is to establish a relative standard of care for various categories and classifications of health care providers. Any health care provider may testify as an expert in any action if he:

1. Is a "similar health care provider" pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b); or,
2. Is not a similar health care provider pursuant to paragraph (a) or (b) but, to the satisfaction of the court, possesses sufficient training, experience, and knowledge to provide such expert testimony as to the acceptable standard of care in a given cause.

(3)(a) If the injury is claimed to have resulted from the negligent affirmative medical intervention of the health care provider, the claimant must, in order to prove a breach of an accepted standard of care, show that the injury was not within the necessary or reasonably foreseeable results of the surgical, medicinal, or diagnostic procedure constituting the medical intervention, if the intervention from which the injury is alleged to have resulted was carried out in accordance with an acceptable standard of care by a reasonably prudent similar health care provider.

(b) The provisions of this subsection shall apply only when the medical intervention was undertaken with the informed consent of the patient in compliance with the provisions of s. 768.46.

(4) The existence of a medical injury shall not create any inference or presumption of negligence against a health care provider, and the claimant must maintain the burden of proving that an injury was proximately caused by a breach of the accepted standard of care by the health care provider. However, the discovery of the presence of a foreign body, such as a sponge, clamp, forceps, surgical needle, or other paraphernalia commonly used in surgical, examination, or diagnostic procedures, shall be prima facie evidence of negligence on the part of the health care provider.

History.—s. 12, ch. 76-260; s. 8, ch. 77-64; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

768.46 Florida Medical Consent Law.—

(1) This section shall be known and cited as the "Florida Medical Consent Law."

(2) In any medical treatment activity not covered by s. 768.13, entitled the "Good Samaritan Act," this act shall govern.

(3) No recovery shall be allowed in any court in this state against any physician licensed under chapter 458, osteopath licensed under chapter 459, chiropractor licensed under chapter 460, podiatrist licensed under chapter 461, or dentist licensed under chapter 466 in an action brought for treating, examining, or operating on a patient without his informed consent when:

(a)1. The action of the physician, osteopath, chiropractor, podiatrist, or dentist in obtaining the consent of the patient or another person authorized to give consent for the patient was in accordance with an accepted standard of medical practice among members of the medical profession with similar training and experience in the same or similar medical community; and

2. A reasonable individual, from the information provided by the physician, osteopath, chiropractor, podiatrist, or dentist, under the circumstances, would have a general understanding of the procedure, the medically acceptable alternative procedures or treatments, and the substantial risks and hazards inherent in the proposed treatment or procedures, which are recognized among other physicians, osteopaths, chiropractors, podiatrists, or dentists in the same or similar community who perform similar treatments or procedures; or

(b) The patient would reasonably, under all the surrounding circumstances, have undergone such treatment or procedure had he been advised by the physician, osteopath, chiropractor, podiatrist, or dentist in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a).

(4)(a) A consent which is evidenced in writing and meets the requirements of subsection (3) shall, if validly signed by the patient or another authorized person, be conclusively presumed to be a valid consent. This presumption may be rebutted if there was a fraudulent misrepresentation of a material fact in obtaining the signature.

(b) A valid signature is one which is given by a person who under all the surrounding circumstances is mentally and physically competent to give consent.

History.—s. 11, ch. 75-9.
Note.—Former s. 768.132.

768.47 Civil medical malpractice actions; procedures; admissibility of evidence.—

(1) In the event any party rejects the decision of the Medical Liability Mediation Panel, the claimant may institute litigation based upon the claim in the appropriate court. Furthermore, in any civil medical malpractice action, the trial on the merits shall be conducted without any reference to insurance, insurance coverage, or joinder of the insurer as a codefendant in the suit.

(2) The conclusion of the hearing panel on the issue of liability may be admitted into evidence in any subsequent trial. However, no specific findings of fact shall be admitted into evidence at trial. Parties may, in the opening statement or argument to the court or jury, comment on the panel's conclusion in the same manner as any other evidence introduced at trial. If there is a dissenting opinion, the numerical vote of the panel shall also be admissible. Panel members may not be called to testify as to the merits of the case. The jury shall be instructed that the conclusion of the hearing panel shall not be binding, but shall be accorded such weight as they choose to ascribe to it.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any case in which formal suit has been instituted prior to the effective date of this section, which shall be July 1, 1975.

History.—s. 5, ch. 75-9; s. 232, ch. 77-104.
Note.—Former s. 768.134.

768.48 Itemized verdict.—

(1) In any action by a patient against a health care provider, as defined in s. 768.50(2)(b), in a tort or contract claim for malpractice in which the trier of fact determines that liability exists on the part of the defendant, the trier of fact shall, as a part of the verdict, itemize the amounts to be awarded to the claimant into the following categories of damages:

(a) Amounts intended to compensate the claimant for reasonable expenses which have been incurred, or which will be incurred, for necessary medical, surgical, x-ray, dental, or rehabilitative services, including prosthetic devices; necessary ambulance, hospital, and nursing services; drugs; and therapy;

(b) Amounts intended to compensate the claimant for lost wages or loss of earning capacity and other economic losses and for the inconvenience of the claimant, which have been incurred or will be incurred; and

(c) Amounts intended to compensate the claimant for pain and suffering, loss of companionship, embarrassment, and other items of general damages, which have been incurred or will be incurred in the future.

(2) Each category of damages shall be further itemized into amounts intended to compensate for losses which have been incurred prior to the verdict and amounts intended to compensate for losses to be incurred in the future. Future damages itemized under paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) shall be computed before and after reduction to present value. Future damages itemized under paragraph (1)(c) shall not be reduced to present value. In itemizing amounts intended to compensate for future losses, the trier of fact shall set forth the period of years over which such amounts are intended to provide compensation.

History.—s. 13, ch. 76-260; s. 9, ch. 77-64; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

768.49 Remittitur and additur.—

(1) In any action for the recovery of damages based on personal injury or wrongful death arising out of medical malpractice, whether in tort or in contract, wherein the trier of fact determines that liability exists on the part of the defendant and a verdict is rendered which awards money damages to the plaintiff, it shall be the responsibility of the court, upon proper motion, to review the amount of such award to determine if such amount is clearly excessive or inadequate in light of the facts and circumstances which were presented to the trier of fact. If the court finds that the amount awarded is clearly excessive or inadequate, it shall order a remittitur or additur as the case may be. If the party adversely affected by such remittitur or additur does not agree, the court shall order a new trial in the cause on the issue of damages only.

(2) In determining whether an award is clearly excessive or inadequate in light of the facts and circumstances presented to the trier of fact and in determining the amount, if any, that such award exceeds a reasonable range of damages or is inadequate, the court shall consider the following criteria:

(a) Whether the amount awarded is indicative of prejudice, passion, or corruption on the part of the trier of fact;

(b) Whether it clearly appears that the trier of fact ignored the evidence in reaching a verdict or misconceived the merits of the case relating to the amounts of damages recoverable;

(c) Whether the trier of fact took improper elements of damages into account or arrived at the amount of damages by speculation and conjecture;

(d) Whether the amount awarded bears a reasonable relation to the amount of damages proved and the injury suffered; and

(e) Whether the amount awarded is supported by the evidence and is such that it could be adduced in a logical manner by reasonable persons.

(3) It is the intent of the Legislature to vest the trial courts of this state with the discretionary authority to review the amounts of damages awarded by a trier of fact in light of a standard of excessiveness or inadequacy. The Legislature recognizes that the reasonable actions of a jury are a fundamental precept of American jurisprudence and that such actions should be disturbed or modified with caution and discretion. However, it is further recognized that a review by the courts in accordance with the standards set forth in this section provides an additional element of soundness and logic to our judicial system and is in the best interests of the citizens of Florida.

768.50 Collateral sources of indemnity.—

(1) In any action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death, whether in tort or in contract, arising out of the rendition of professional services by a health care provider in which liability is admitted or is determined by the trier of fact and damages are awarded to compensate the claimant for losses sustained, the court shall reduce the amount of such award by the total of all amounts paid to the claimant from all collateral sources which are available to him; however, there shall be no reduction for collateral sources for which a subrogation right exists. Upon a finding of liability and an awarding of damages by the trier of fact, the court shall receive evidence from the claimant and other appropriate persons concerning the total amounts of collateral sources which have been paid for the benefit of the claimant or are otherwise available to him. The court shall also take testimony of any amount which has been paid, contributed, or forfeited by, or on behalf of, the claimant or members of his immediate family to secure his right to any collateral source benefit which he is receiving as a result of his injury, and shall offset any restriction in the award by such amounts.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "Collateral sources" means any payments made to the claimant, or on his behalf, by or pursuant to:

1. The United States Social Security Act; any federal, state, or local income disability act; or any other public programs providing medical expenses, disability payments, or other similar benefits.

2. Any health, sickness, or income disability insurance; automobile accident insurance that provides health benefits or income disability coverage; and any other similar insurance benefits, except life insurance benefits available to the claimant, whether purchased by him or provided by others.

3. Any contract or agreement of any group, organization, partnership, or corporation to provide, pay for, or reimburse the costs of hospital, medical, dental, or other health care services.

4. Any contractual or voluntary wage continuation plan provided by employers or any other system intended to provide wages during a period of disability.

(b) "Health care provider" means hospitals licensed under chapter 395; physicians licensed under chapter 458; osteopaths licensed under chapter 459; podiatrists licensed under chapter 461; dentists licensed under chapter 466; chiropractors licensed under chapter 460; naturopaths licensed under chapter 462; nurses licensed under chapter 464; clinical laboratories registered under chapter 483; physicians' assistants certified under chapter 458; physical therapists and physical therapist assistants licensed under chapter 486; health maintenance organizations certificated under part II of chapter 641; ambulatory surgical centers as defined in paragraph (c); blood banks, plasma centers, industrial clinics, and renal dialysis facilities; or professional associations, partnerships, corporations, joint ventures, or other associations for professional activity by health care providers.

(c) "Ambulatory surgical center" means a facility the primary purpose of which is to provide elective surgical care or diagnostic or medical care or treatment and in which the patient is admitted to and discharged from said facility within the same working day, and which is not part of a hospital. However, a facility existing for the primary purpose of performing terminations of pregnancy or an office maintained by a physician or dentist for the practice of medicine or dentistry shall not be construed to be an ambulatory surgical center.

(3) In the event that the fees for legal services provided to the claimant are based on a percentage of the amount of money awarded to the claimant, such percentage shall be based on the net amount of the award as reduced by the amounts of collateral sources and as increased by insurance premiums paid.

(4) Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, no insurer or any other party providing collateral source benefits as defined in subsection (2) shall be entitled to recover the amounts of any such benefits from the defendant or any other person or entity, and no right of subrogation or assignment of rights of recovery shall exist. All policies of insurance providing benefits described in this section shall be construed in accordance with this section after the effective date of this act.

History.—s. 11, ch. 76-260; s. 7, ch. 77-64; s. 287, ch. 79-400.

768.51 Alternative methods of payment of damage awards.—

(1) In any action by a patient against a health care provider, as defined in s. 768.50(2)(b), in a tort or contract claim for malpractice in which the trier of fact determines that the amount necessary to compensate the claimant for future losses exceeds $200,000, payment of amounts intended to compensate the claimant for losses to be incurred in the future shall be made by one of the following means:

(a) The defendant may make a lump sum payment for all damages so assessed, with future economic losses and expenses reduced to present value; or

(b) The court may, at the request of either party, enter a judgment ordering the damages for future losses to be paid in whole or in part by periodic payments rather than by a lump sum payment.

1. In entering a judgment ordering the payment of future damages by periodic payments, the court shall make a specific finding as to the dollar amount of periodic payments which will compensate the judgment creditor for such future damages. The total of such periodic payments shall be equal to the amount of all future damages before any reduction to present value. The period of time over which such periodic payments shall be made shall be the period of years determined by the trier of fact in arriving at its itemized verdict. The court may order that the amounts of the payments be equal or vary in amount, depending upon the probable need of the claimant. The judgment shall provide that all economic losses and expenses incurred during any given period be paid by the defendant even though they exceed the specified payment. However, there shall be no requirement to pay more than the original lump sum judgment before any reduction to present value, and, if any periodic payments exceed the amount specified by the judgment, successive payments shall be reduced accordingly until the entire judgment is paid.

2. As a condition to authorizing periodic payments of future damages, the court shall require the judgment debtor to post security adequate to assure full payment of such damages awarded by the judgment. If the judgment debtor is unable to post the required security, the court shall order that all damages, both past and future, be paid to claimant in a lump sum, and periodic payments shall not be authorized in such a case. Upon termination of periodic payments of future damages, the court shall order the return of such security, or so much as remains, to the judgment debtor.

3. In the event that the court finds that the judgment debtor has exhibited a continuing pattern of failing to make the required periodic payments, the court shall find the judgment debtor in contempt and, in addition to the required periodic payments, shall order the judgment debtor to pay the claimant all damages caused by the failure to make such periodic payments, including court costs and attorney's fees. If insolvency of the judgment debtor is proven to the court to be probable, the court may order that the balance of payments due be placed in trust for the benefit of the claimant.

4. The judgment ordering the payment of future damages by periodic payments shall specify the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amounts of the payments, the interval between payments, and the number of payments or the period of time over which payments shall be made. Such payments shall only be subject to modification as specified in this section.

5. If the claimant has been awarded damages to be discharged by periodic payments and the claimant dies prior to the termination of the period of years during which such payments are to be made, the liability of the defendant for amounts set forth in paragraphs 768.48(1)(a) and (c) shall cease and the estate of the claimant shall have no claim for such amounts. In such event, the remaining balance of all amounts to be paid pursuant to paragraph 768.48(1)(b) shall be paid into the estate of the claimant in a lump sum. If the claimant lives longer than the period of time in which such payments are to be made, such payments shall continue for the remainder of the claimant's life at the same rate as the payments being made at the time they would otherwise have terminated.

6. Claimant's attorney's fee, if payable from the judgment, shall be based upon the total judgment, adding all amounts awarded for past and future damages. The attorney's fee shall be paid from past and future damages in the same proportion, and the periodic payments shall be reduced by the amount of attorney's fees paid from future damages payable. The attorney's fee may be paid in a lump sum upon entry of judgment or, at the attorney's option, periodically in conjunction with the claimant's payment. If paid periodically, the attorney's fee shall be paid as long as payments are made to the claimant, with the remaining balance due paid in a lump sum if the claimant dies prior to all payments having been made.

(2) Nothing in this section shall preclude any other method of payment of awards, if such method is consented to by the parties.

'768.54 Limitation of liability and patient's compensation fund.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—The following definitions apply in the interpretation and enforcement of this section:

(a) "Fund" means the Florida Patient's Compensation Fund.

(b) "Health care provider" means any:

1. Hospital licensed under chapter 395.
2. Physician licensed, or physician's assistant certified, under chapter 458.
3. Osteopath licensed under chapter 459.
4. Podiatrist licensed under chapter 461.
5. Health maintenance organization certificated under part II of chapter 641.
6. Ambulatory surgical center licensed under chapter 395.
7. "Other medical facility" as defined in paragraph (c).

8. Professional association, partnership, corporation, joint venture, or other association by the individuals set forth in subparagraphs 2., 3., and 4. for professional activity.

(c) "Other medical facility" means a facility the primary purpose of which is to provide human medical diagnostic services or a facility providing nonsurgical human medical treatment and in which the patient is admitted to and discharged from said facility within the same working day, and which is not part of a hospital. However, a facility existing for the primary purpose of performing terminations of pregnancy, or an office maintained by a physician or dentist for the practice of medicine, shall not be construed to be an "other medical facility."

(d) "Hospital" means a hospital licensed under chapter 395.

(e) "Health maintenance organization" means any health maintenance organization certificated under part II of chapter 641.

(f) "Occurrence" means an accident or incident, including continuous or repeated exposure to conditions, which results in patient injuries not intended from the standpoint of the insured.

(g) "Per claim" means all claims per patient arising out of an occurrence.

(h) "Committee" means a committee or board of trustees of a health care provider or group of health care providers established to make recommendations, policy, or decisions regarding patient institutional utilization, patient treatment, or institutional staff privileges or to perform other administrative or professional purposes or functions.

(i) "House physician" means any physician, osteopath, podiatrist, or dentist except: A physician, osteopath, podiatrist, or dentist with staff privileges at a hospital; a physician, osteopath, podiatrist, or dentist providing emergency room services; an anesthesiologist, pathologist, or radiologist; or a physician, osteopath, podiatrist, or dentist who performs a service for a fee.

(2) LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.—

(a) All hospitals shall, unless exempted under paragraph (c), and all health care providers other than hospitals may pay the yearly fee and assessment or, in cases in which such hospital or health care provider joined the fund after the fiscal year had begun, a prorated assessment into the fund pursuant to subsection (3).

<sup>2</sup>(b) A health care provider shall not be liable for an amount in excess of $100,000 per claim or $500,000 per occurrence for claims covered under subsection (3) if the health care provider had paid the fees required pursuant to subsection (3) for the year in which the incident occurred for which the claim is filed, and an adequate defense for the fund is provided, and pays at least the initial $100,000 or the maximum limit of the underlying coverage maintained by the health care provider on the date when the incident occurred for which the claim is filed, whichever is greater, of any settlement or judgment against the health care provider for the claim in accordance with paragraph (3)(e). A health care provider may have the necessary funds available for payment when due, or an adequate defense for the fund may be provided by the use of:

1. A bond in the amount of $100,000 per claim and three times the per-claim limit in the aggregate per year, plus an additional amount as determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services which is sufficient to meet claims defense and expenses; however a total escrow account for all years equal to reserved loss and expense amounts for known cases plus $345,000 shall be the maximum escrow amount required;

2. An adequate escrow account in the amount of $100,000 per claim and three times the per-claim limit in the aggregate per year, plus an additional amount as determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services which is sufficient to meet claims defense and expenses; however a total escrow account for all years equal to reserved loss and expense amounts for known cases plus $345,000 shall be the maximum escrow amount required;

3. Medical malpractice insurance in the amount of $100,000 or more per claim from private insurers or the Joint Underwriting Association established under s. 627.351(7); or

4. Self-insurance as provided in s. 627.357, providing coverage in an amount of $100,000 or more per claim and three times the per-claim limit in the aggregate per year, plus an additional amount as determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services which is sufficient to meet claims defense and expenses.

(c) Any hospital that can meet one of the following provisions demonstrating financial responsibility to pay claims and costs ancillary thereto arising out of the rendering of or the failure to render medical care or services and for bodily injury or property damage to the person or property of any patient arising out of the insured's activities in this state shall not be required to participate in the fund:

1. Post bond in an amount equivalent to $10,000 per claim for each hospital bed in said hospital, not to exceed a $2,500,000 annual aggregate.

2. Establish an escrow account in an amount equivalent to $10,000 per claim for each hospital bed in said hospital, not to exceed a $2,500,000 annual aggregate, to the satisfaction of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

3. Obtain professional liability coverage in an amount equivalent to $10,000 or more per claim for each bed in said hospital from a private insurer, from the Joint Underwriting Association established under s. 627.351(7), or through a plan of self-insurance as provided in s. 627.357. However, no hospital shall be required to obtain such coverage in an amount exceeding a $2,500,000 annual aggregate.

(d)1. Any health care provider who does not participate in the fund, or participates and does not meet the provisions of paragraph (b), shall be subject to liability under law without regard to the provisions of this section.

2. Annually, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall require documentation by each hospital that said hospital is in compliance, and shall remain in compliance, with the provisions of this section. The department shall review the documentation and then deliver the documentation to the board of governors. At least 60 days prior to the time a license will be issued or renewed, the department shall request from the board of governors a certification that each hospital is in compliance with the provisions of this section. The board of governors shall not be liable under the law for any erroneous certification. The department shall not issue or renew the license of any hospital which has not been certified by the board of governors. The license of any hospital which fails to remain in compliance or fails to provide such documentation shall be revoked or suspended by the department.

(a) The fund.—There is created a "Florida Patient's Compensation Fund" for the purpose of paying that portion of any claim arising out of the rendering of or failure to render medical care or services, or arising out of activities of committees, for health care providers or any claim for bodily injury or property damage to the person or property of any patient, including all patient injuries and deaths, arising out of the insureds' activities for those health care providers set forth in subparagraphs (1)(b)1., 5., 6., and 7. which is in excess of the limits as set forth in paragraph (2)(b). The fund shall be liable only for payment of claims against health care providers who are in compliance with the provisions of paragraph (2)(b), of reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the payment of claims, and of fund administrative expenses.

(b) Fund administration and operation.—The fund shall operate subject to the supervision and approval of a board of governors consisting of a representative of the insurance industry appointed by the Insurance Commissioner, an attorney appointed by The Florida Bar, a representative of physicians appointed by the Florida Medical Association, a representative of physicians' insurance appointed by the Insurance Commissioner, a representative of physicians' self-insurance appointed by the Insurance Commissioner, two representatives of hospitals appointed by the Florida Hospital Association, a representative of hospital insurance appointed by the Insurance Commissioner, a representative of hospital self-insurance appointed by the Insurance Commissioner, a representative of the osteopathic physicians' or podiatrists' insurance or self-insurance appointed by the Insurance Commissioner, and a representative of the general public appointed by the Insurance Commissioner. The board of governors shall, during the first meeting after June 30 of each year, choose one of its members to serve as chairman of the board and another member to serve as vice chairman of the board.

(c) Fees and assessments.—Annually, each health care provider, as set forth in subsection (2), electing to comply with paragraph (2)(b) shall pay the fees established under this act, for deposit into the fund, which shall be remitted for deposit in a manner prescribed by the Insurance Commissioner. The limitation of liability provided by the fund shall begin July 1, 1975, and run thereafter on a fiscal-year basis. For the first year of membership, each participating health care provider shall pay a base fee for deposit into the fund in the amount of $1,000 for any individual, or $300 per bed for any hospital. Those entering the fund after the fiscal year has begun shall pay a prorated share of the yearly fees for a prorated membership. The base fee charged after the first year of participation shall be $500 for any individual, or $300 per bed for any hospital. The base fees to be paid by those health care providers defined in subparagraphs (1)(b)5., 6., 7., and 8. shall be established by the fund on an actuarially sound basis. In addition, after the first year of operation, additional fees may be charged but shall be appropriately prorated for the portion of the year for which the health care provider participated in the fund, based on the following considerations:

1. Past and prospective loss and expense experience in different types of practice and in different geographical areas within the state;
2. The prior claims experience of the members covered under the fund; and
3. Risk factors for persons who are retired, semiretired, or part-time professionals.

Such base fees may be adjusted downward for any fiscal year in which a lesser amount would be adequate and in which the additional fee would not be necessary to maintain the solvency of the fund. Such additional fee shall be based on not more than two geographical areas with three categories of practice and with categories which contemplate separate risk ratings for hospitals, for health maintenance organizations, for ambulatory surgical facilities, and for other medical facilities. Each fiscal year of the fund shall operate independently of preceding fiscal years. Participants shall only be liable for assessments for claims from years during which they were members of the fund; in cases in which a participant is a member of the fund for less than the total fiscal year, a member shall be subject to assessments for that year on a prorata basis determined by the percentage of participation for the year. The fund shall be maintained at not more than $15,000,000 per fiscal year. Additional fees, assessments, or refunds shall be set by the Insurance Commissioner after consultation with the board of governors of the fund. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as imposing liability for payment of any part of a fund deficit on the Joint Underwriting Association authorized by s. 627.351(7) or its member insurers. If the fund determines that the amount of money in an account for a given fiscal year is in excess of or not sufficient to satisfy the claims made against the account, the fund shall certify the amount of the projected excess or insufficiency to the Insurance Commissioner and request the Insurance Commissioner to levy an assessment against or refund to all participants in the fund for that fiscal year, prorated, based on the number of days of participation during the year in question. The Insurance Commissioner shall order such refund to, or levy such assessment against, such participants in amounts that fairly reflect the classifications prescribed above and are sufficient to obtain the money necessary to meet all claims for said fiscal year. In no case shall any assessment for a particular year against any health care provider, other than those health care providers defined in subparagraphs (1)(b)1., 5., 6., and 7., exceed an amount equal to the fees originally paid by such health care provider for participation in the fund for the year giving rise to such assessment. If any assessments are levied in accordance with this subsection as a result of claims in excess of the limitation of a provider's liability of $500,000 per occurrence as specified in paragraph (2)(b), and such assessments are a result of the liability of certain individuals and entities specified in paragraph (2)(e), only hospitals shall be subject to such assessments.

(d) Fund accounting and audit.—

1. Moneys shall be withdrawn from the fund only upon vouchers as authorized by the board of governors.

2. All books, records, and audits of the fund shall be open for reasonable inspection to the general public, except that a claim file in possession of the fund shall not be available for review during processing of that claim. Any book, record, document, audit, or asset acquired by, prepared for, or paid for by the fund is subject to the authority of the board of governors, which shall be responsible therefor.

3. Persons authorized to receive deposits, issue vouchers, or withdraw or otherwise disburse any fund moneys shall post a blanket fidelity bond in an amount reasonably sufficient to protect fund assets.

The cost of such bond shall be paid from the fund.

4. Annually, the fund shall furnish, upon request, audited financial reports to any fund participant and to the Department of Insurance and the Joint Legislative Auditing Committee. The reports shall be prepared in accordance with accepted accounting procedures and shall include income and such other information as may be required by the Department of Insurance or the Joint Legislative Auditing Committee.

5. Moneys held in the fund shall be invested in interest-bearing investments by the board of governors of the fund as administrator. However, in no case shall such moneys be invested in the stock of any insurer participating in the Joint Underwriting Association authorized by s. 627.351(7) or in the parent company or company owning a controlling interest of said insurer. All income derived from such investments shall be credited to the fund.

6. Any health care provider participating in the fund may withdraw from such participation only at the end of a fiscal year; however, such health care provider shall remain subject to any assessment or any refund pertaining to any year in which such member participated in the fund.

(e) Claims procedures.—

1. Any person may file an action against a participating health care provider for damages covered under the fund, except that the person filing the claim shall not recover against the fund unless the fund was named as a defendant in the suit. The fund is not required to actively defend a claim until the provisions of s. 768.44 are completed or waived, suit is instituted, and the fund is named therein. If, after the facts upon which the claim is based are reviewed, it appears that the claim will exceed $100,000 or, if greater, the amount of the health care provider's basic coverage, the fund shall appear and actively defend itself when named as a defendant in the suit. In so defending, the fund shall retain counsel and pay out of the account for the appropriate year attorneys' fees and expenses, including court costs incurred in defending the fund. In any claim, the attorney or law firm retained to defend the fund shall not be retained to defend the Joint Underwriting Association authorized by s. 627.351(7). The fund is authorized to negotiate with any claimants having a judgment exceeding $100,000 cost to the fund to reach an agreement as to the manner in which that portion of the judgment exceeding that $100,000 cost is to be paid. Any judgment affecting the fund may be appealed under the Florida Appellate Rules of Procedure, as with any defendant.

2. It shall be the responsibility of the insurer or self-insurer providing insurance or self-insurance for a health care provider who is also covered by the fund to provide an adequate defense on any claim filed which potentially affects the fund, with respect to such insurance contract or self-insurance contract. The insurer or self-insurer shall act in a fiduciary relationship toward the fund with respect to any claim affecting the fund. No settlement exceeding $100,000, or any other amount which could require payment by the fund, shall be agreed to unless approved by the fund.

3. A person who has recovered a final judgment or a settlement approved by the fund against a health care provider who is covered by the fund may file a claim with the fund to recover that portion of such judgment or settlement which is in excess of $100,000 or the amount of the health care provider's basic coverage, if greater, as set forth in paragraph (2)(b). In the event an account for a given year incurs liability exceeding $100,000 to all persons under a single occurrence, the persons recovering shall be paid from the account at a rate not more than $100,000 per person per year until the claim has been paid in full, except that court costs and reasonable attorney's fees shall be paid in one lump sum within 90 days after the settlement or judgment is rendered. Such fees shall not reduce the amount of the annual award.

4. Settlements or judgments against the fund shall be paid in the order received within 90 days after the date of settlement or judgment, unless appealed by the fund. If the account for a given year does not have enough money to pay all of the settlements or judgments, those claims received after the funds are exhausted shall be immediately payable from the assessments of participants for that year, in the order in which they are received.

5. If a health care provider participating in the fund has coverage in excess of $100,000 per claim or $500,000 per occurrence, such health care provider shall be liable for losses up to the amount of his coverage, and such health care provider shall receive an appropriate reduction of the fees and assessments for participation in the fund. Such reduction shall be granted only after that health care provider has proved to the satisfaction of the fund that such health care provider had such coverage during the period of membership of the fiscal year.

6. The manager of the fund or his assistant is the agent for service of process for the plan.

CHAPTER 769

HAZARDOUS OCCUPATIONS

- 769.01 Employers affected by fellow servant act.
- 769.02 Liability of certain persons and corporations for injuries from negligence of fellow servants.
- 769.03 Recovery for injuries where employee and employer both at fault; damages; negligence of fellow servant.
- 769.04 Doctrine of "assumption of risk" abrogated.
- 769.05 Proceeds of recovery for injuries exempt from garnishment and execution.
- 769.06 Contracts limiting liability invalid.

769.01 Employers affected by fellow servant act.—This chapter shall apply to persons engaged in the following hazardous occupations in this state; namely, railroading, operating street railways, generating and selling electricity, telegraph and telephone business, express business, blasting and dynamiting, operating automobiles for public use, boating, when boat is propelled by steam, gas or electricity.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4971; CGL 7058. cf.—Ch. 440 Workers' Compensation Law.

769.02 Liability of certain persons and corporations for injuries from negligence of fellow servants.—The persons mentioned in s. 769.01 shall be liable in damages for injuries inflicted upon their agents and employees, and for the death of their agents and employees caused by the negligence of such persons, their agents and servants, unless such persons shall make it appear that they, their agents and servants have exercised all ordinary and reasonable care and diligence, the presumption in all cases being against such persons.

History.—s. 2, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4972; CGL 7059.

769.03 Recovery for injuries where employee and employer both at fault; damages; negligence of fellow servant.—The persons mentioned in s. 769.01 shall not be liable in damages for injuries to their agents and employees, or for the death of such agents and employees, where same is done by their consent, or is caused by their own negligence. If the employees or agents injured or killed, and the persons mentioned in s. 769.01, or their agents and employees are both at fault, there may be a recovery, but the amount of the recovery shall be such a proportion of the entire damages sustained, as the defendant's negligence bears to the combined negligence of both the plaintiff and the defendant; provided, that damages shall not be recovered for injuries to an employee injured in part through his own negligence and in part through the negligence of another employee, when both of such employees are fellow servants, where the former and latter are jointly engaged in performing the act causing the injury and the employer is guilty of no negligence contributing to such injury.

History.—s. 3, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4973; CGL 7060.

769.04 Doctrine of "assumption of risk" abrogated.—The doctrine of "assumption of risk" shall not obtain in any case arising under the provisions of this chapter, where the injury or death was attributable to the negligence of the employer, his agents or servants.

History.—s. 4, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4974; CGL 7061.

769.05 Proceeds of recovery for injuries exempt from garnishment and execution.—Writs of garnishment, execution or other processes, shall not issue out of any court to reach any money due or likely to become due as damages under the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 5, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4975; CGL 7062.

769.06 Contracts limiting liability invalid.—Any contract, contrivance or device whatever, having the effect to relieve or exempt the persons mentioned in s. 769.01 from the liability prescribed by this chapter shall be illegal and void.

History.—s. 6, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4976; CGL 7063.

CHAPTER 770

CIVIL ACTIONS FOR LIBEL

- 770.01 Notice condition precedent to action or prosecution for libel or slander.
- 770.02 Correction, apology, or retraction by newspaper or broadcast station.
- 770.03 Civil liability of broadcasting stations, etc.
- 770.04 Civil liability of radio or television broadcasting stations; care to prevent publication or utterance required.
- 770.05 Limitation of choice of venue.
- 770.06 Adverse judgment in any jurisdiction a bar to additional action.
- 770.07 Cause of action, time of accrual.
- 770.08 Limitation on recovery of damages.

770.01 Notice condition precedent to action or prosecution for libel or slander.—Before any civil action is brought for publication or broadcast, in a newspaper, periodical, or other medium, of a libel or slander, the plaintiff shall, at least 5 days before instituting such action, serve notice in writing on the defendant, specifying the article or broadcast and the statements therein which he alleges to be false and defamatory.

History.—s. 1, ch. 16070, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7064(1); s. 1, ch. 76-123. cf.—s. 836.07 Criminal prosecution for libel.

770.02 Correction, apology, or retraction by newspaper or broadcast station.—If it appears upon the trial that said article or broadcast was published in good faith, that its falsity was due to an honest mistake of the facts, that there were reasonable grounds for believing that the statements in said article or broadcast were true, and that, within 10 days after the service of said notice, a full and fair correction, apology or retraction was, in the case of newspapers and periodicals, published in the same editions or corresponding issues of the newspaper or periodical in which said article appeared and in as conspicuous place and type as was said original article or, in the case of broadcast, the correction, apology, or retraction was broadcast at a comparable time, then the plaintiff in such case shall recover only actual damages.

History.—s. 2, ch. 16070, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7064(2); s. 1, ch. 76-123; s. 233, ch. 77-104. cf.—s. 836.08 Criminal provision.

770.03 Civil liability of broadcasting stations, etc.—The owner, lessee, licensee, or operator of a broadcasting station shall have the right, except when prohibited by federal law or regulation, but shall not be compelled, to require the submission of a written copy of any statement intended to be broadcast over such station 24 hours before the time of the intended broadcast thereof. When such owner, lessee, licensee, or operator has so required the submission of such copy, such owner, lessee, licensee, or operator shall not be liable in damages for any libelous or slanderous utterance made by or for the person or party submitting a copy of such proposed broadcast which is not contained in such copy. This section shall not be construed to relieve the person or party or the agents or servants of such person or party making any such libelous or slanderous utterance from liability therefor.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 19616, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 7064(4); s. 1, ch. 20869; s. 1, ch. 76-123.

770.04 Civil liability of radio or television broadcasting stations; care to prevent publication or utterance required.—The owner, licensee, or operator of a radio or television broadcasting station, and the agents or employees of any such owner, licensee or operator, shall not be liable for any damages for any defamatory statement published or uttered in or as a part of a radio or television broadcast, by one other than such owner, licensee or operator, or general agent or employees thereof, unless it shall be alleged and proved by the complaining party, that such owner, licensee, operator, general agent or employee, has failed to exercise due care to prevent the publication or utterance of such statement in such broadcasts, provided, however, the exercise of due care shall be construed to include the bona fide compliance with any federal law or the regulation of any federal regulatory agency.

History.—s. 1, ch. 23802, 1947; s. 1, ch. 25278, 1949.

770.05 Limitation of choice of venue.—No person shall have more than one choice of venue for damages for libel or slander, invasion of privacy, or any other tort founded upon any single publication, exhibition, or utterance, such as any one edition of a newspaper, book, or magazine, any one presentation to an audience, any one broadcast over radio or television, or any one exhibition of a motion picture. Recovery in any action shall include all damages for any such tort suffered by the plaintiff in all jurisdictions.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-52.

770.06 Adverse judgment in any jurisdiction a bar to additional action.—A judgment in any jurisdiction for or against the plaintiff upon the substantive merits of any action for damages founded upon a single publication or exhibition or utterance as described in s. 770.05 shall bar any other action for damages by the same plaintiff against the same defendant founded upon the same publication or exhibition or utterance.

History.—s. 2, ch. 67-52.

770.07 Cause of action, time of accrual.—The cause of action for damages founded upon a single publication or exhibition or utterance, as described in s. 770.05, shall be deemed to have accrued at the time of the first publication or exhibition or utterance thereof in this state.

History.—s. 3, ch. 67-52.

770.08 Limitation on recovery of damages.—No person shall have more than one choice of venue for damages for libel founded upon a single publication or exhibition or utterance, as described in s.

770.05, and upon his election in any one of his choices of venue, then he shall be bound to recover there all damages allowed him.

History.—s. 4, ch. 67-52.

CHAPTER 771

ACTIONS FOR ALIENATION OF AFFECTIONS, ETC.

- 771.01 Certain tort actions abolished.
- 771.04 No act done in state to give cause of action.
- 771.05 Unlawful to file certain causes of action.
- 771.06 Validity of certain contracts.
- 771.07 Penalties.
- 771.08 Construction of law.

771.01 Certain tort actions abolished.—The rights of action heretofore existing to recover sums of money as damage for the alienation of affections, criminal conversation, seduction or breach of contract to marry are hereby abolished.

History.—s. 1, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.04 No act done in state to give cause of action.—No act hereafter done within this state shall operate to give rise, either within or without this state, to any of the rights of action abolished by this law. No contract to marry hereafter made or entered into in this state shall operate to give rise, either within or without this state, to any cause or right of action for the breach thereof.

History.—s. 4, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.05 Unlawful to file certain causes of action.—It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, either as a party or attorney, or an agent or other person in behalf of either, to file or serve, cause to be filed or served, threaten to file or serve, or threaten to cause to be filed or served, any process or pleading, in any court of the state, setting forth or seeking to recover a sum of money upon any cause of action abolished or barred by this law, whether such cause of action arose within or without the state.

History.—s. 5, ch. 23138, 1945; s. 234, ch. 77-104.

771.06 Validity of certain contracts.—All contracts and instruments of every kind, name, nature or description, which may hereafter be executed within this state in payment, satisfaction, settlement or compromise of any claim or cause of action abolished or barred by this law, whether such claim or cause of action arose within or without this state, are hereby declared to be contrary to the public policy of this state and absolutely void. It shall be unlawful to cause, induce or procure any person to execute such a contract or instrument; or cause, induce or procure any person to give, pay, transfer or deliver any money or thing of value in payment, satisfaction, settlement or compromise of any such claim or cause of action; or to receive, take, or accept any such money or thing of value as such payment, satisfaction, settlement, or compromise. It shall be unlawful to commence or cause to be commenced, either as party or attorney, or as agent or otherwise in behalf of either, in any court of this state, any proceeding or action seeking to enforce or recover upon any such contract or instrument, knowing it to be such, whether the same shall have been executed within or without this state; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the payment, satisfaction, settlement, or compromise of any causes of action which are not abolished or barred by this law, or any contracts or instruments heretofore executed, or to the bona fide holder in due course of any negotiable instrument which may be hereafter executed.

History.—s. 6, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.07 Penalties.—Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 7, ch. 23138, 1945; s. 698, ch. 71-136.

771.08 Construction of law.—This law shall be liberally construed to effectuate the objects and purposes thereof and the public policy of the state as hereby declared. This law shall supersede all laws and parts of laws, inconsistent with this law, to the extent of such inconsistency, but in all other respects shall be deemed supplemental to such laws and parts of laws. Nothing contained in this law shall be construed as a repeal of any of the provisions of the penal law or the code of criminal procedure or of any other law of this state relating to criminal or quasi-criminal actions or proceedings.

History.—ss. 8, 9, ch. 23138, 1945.

775.01 Common Law of England.—The Common Law of England in relation to crimes, except so far as the same relates to the modes and degrees of punishment, shall be of full force in this state where there is no existing provision by statute on the subject.

History.—s. 1, Nov. 6, 1829; s. 1, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2369; GS 3194; RGS 5024; CGL 7126.

cf.—s. 2.01 Common law in force.
s. 817.29 Punishment for common law fraud or cheat.

775.011 Short title; applicability to antecedent offenses.—

(1) This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Criminal Code."

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), the code does not apply to offenses committed prior to July 1, 1975, and prosecutions for such offenses shall be governed by the prior law. For the purposes of this section, an offense was committed prior to July 1, 1975, if any of the material elements of the offense occurred prior thereto.

(3) In any case pending on or after October 1,

1975, involving an offense committed prior to such date, the provisions of the code involving any quasi-procedural matter shall govern, insofar as they are justly applicable, and the provisions of the code according a defense or mitigation or establishing a penalty shall apply only with the consent of the defendant.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-383; s. 43, ch. 75-298.

775.012 General purposes.—The general purposes of the provisions of the code are:

(1) To proscribe conduct that improperly causes or threatens substantial harm to individual or public interest.

(2) To give fair warning to the people of the state in understandable language of the nature of the conduct proscribed and of the sentences authorized upon conviction.

(3) To define clearly the material elements constituting an offense and the accompanying state of mind or criminal intent required for that offense.

(4) To differentiate on reasonable grounds between serious and minor offenses and to establish appropriate disposition for each.

(5) To safeguard conduct that is without fault or legitimate state interest from being condemned as criminal.

(6) To insure the public safety by deterring the commission of offenses and providing for the opportunity for rehabilitation of those convicted and for their confinement when required in the interests of public protection.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

775.02 Punishment of common law offenses.

—When there exists no such provision by statute, the court shall proceed to punish such offense by fine or imprisonment, but the fine shall not exceed $500, nor the imprisonment 12 months.

History.—s. 1, Nov. 6, 1829; RS 2370; GS 3195; RGS 5025; CGL 7127.

775.021 Rules of construction.—

(1) The provisions of this code and offenses defined by other statutes shall be strictly construed; when the language is susceptible of differing constructions, it shall be construed most favorably to the accused.

(2) The provisions of this chapter are applicable to offenses defined by other statutes, unless the code otherwise provides.

(3) This section does not affect the power of a court to punish for contempt or to employ any sanction authorized by law for the enforcement of an order or a civil judgment or decree.

(4) Whoever, in the course of one criminal transaction or episode, commits an act or acts constituting a violation of two or more criminal statutes, upon conviction and adjudication of guilt, shall be sentenced separately for each criminal offense, excluding lesser included offenses, committed during said criminal episode, and the sentencing judge may order the sentences to be served concurrently or consecutively.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 76-66; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

775.03 Benefit of clergy.—The doctrine of benefit of clergy shall have no operation in this state.

History.—s. 75, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2371; GS 3196; RGS 5026; CGL 7128.

775.04 What penal acts or omissions not public offenses.—Acts or omissions to which a pecuniary penalty is attached, recoverable by action by a person for his own use or for the use, in whole or in part, of the state or of a county or a public body, or of a corporation, are not public offenses within the meaning of these statutes.

History.—RS 2349; GS 3173; RGS 5002; CGL 7101.

775.08 Classes and definitions of offenses.—When used in the laws of this state:

(1) The term "felony" shall mean any criminal offense that is punishable under the laws of this state, or that would be punishable if committed in this state, by death or imprisonment in a state penitentiary. "State penitentiary" shall include state correctional facilities. A person shall be imprisoned in the state penitentiary for each sentence which, except an extended term, exceeds 1 year.

(2) The term "misdemeanor" shall mean any criminal offense that is punishable under the laws of this state, or that would be punishable if committed in this state, by a term of imprisonment in a county correctional facility, except an extended term, not in excess of 1 year. The term "misdemeanor" shall not mean a conviction for any violation of any provision of chapter 316 or any municipal or county ordinance.

(3) The term "noncriminal violation" shall mean any offense that is punishable under the laws of this state, or that would be punishable if committed in this state, by no other penalty than a fine, forfeiture, or other civil penalty. A noncriminal violation does not constitute a crime, and conviction for a noncriminal violation shall not give rise to any legal disability based on a criminal offense. The term "noncriminal violation" shall not mean any conviction for any violation of any municipal or county ordinance. Nothing contained in this code shall repeal or change the penalty for a violation of any municipal or county ordinance.

(4) The term "crime" shall mean a felony or misdemeanor.

History.—s. 1(11), ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2352; GS 3176; RGS 5006; CGL 7105; s. 1, ch. 71-136; s. 4, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-298.

775.081 Classifications of felonies and misdemeanors.—

(1) Felonies are classified, for the purpose of sentence and for any other purpose specifically provided by statute, into the following categories:

- (a) Capital felony;
- (b) Life felony;
- (c) Felony of the first degree;
- (d) Felony of the second degree; and
- (e) Felony of the third degree.

A capital felony and a life felony must be so designated by statute. Other felonies are of the particular degree designated by statute. Any crime declared by statute to be a felony without specification of degree is of the third degree, except that this provision shall not affect felonies punishable by life imprisonment for the first offense.

(2) Misdemeanors are classified, for the purpose of sentence and for any other purpose specifically provided by statute, into the following categories:

- (a) Misdemeanor of the first degree; and
- (b) Misdemeanor of the second degree.

A misdemeanor is of the particular degree designated by statute. Any crime declared by statute to be a misdemeanor without specification of degree is of the second degree.

(3) This section is supplemental to, and is not to be construed to alter, the law of this state establishing and governing criminal offenses that are divided into degrees by virtue of distinctive elements comprising such offenses, regardless of whether such law is established by constitutional provision, statute, court rule, or court decision.

History.—s. 2, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 72-724.

775.082 Penalties.—

(1) A person who has been convicted of a capital felony shall be punished by life imprisonment and shall be required to serve no less than 25 years before becoming eligible for parole unless the proceeding held to determine sentence according to the procedure set forth in s. 921.141 results in findings by the court that such person shall be punished by death, and in the latter event such person shall be punished by death.

(2) In the event the death penalty in a capital felony is held to be unconstitutional by the Florida Supreme Court or the United States Supreme Court, the court having jurisdiction over a person previously sentenced to death for a capital felony shall cause such person to be brought before the court, and the court shall sentence such person to life imprisonment as provided in subsection (1).

(3) A person who has been convicted of any other designated felony may be punished as follows:

- (a) For a life felony, by a term of imprisonment for life or for a term of years not less than 30;
- (b) For a felony of the first degree, by a term of imprisonment not exceeding 30 years or, when specifically provided by statute, by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment;
- (c) For a felony of the second degree, by a term of imprisonment not exceeding 15 years;
- (d) For a felony of the third degree, by a term of imprisonment not exceeding 5 years.

(4) A person who has been convicted of a designated misdemeanor may be sentenced as follows:

- (a) For a misdemeanor of the first degree, by a definite term of imprisonment not exceeding 1 year;

(b) For a misdemeanor of the second degree, by a definite term of imprisonment not exceeding 60 days.

(5) Any person who has been convicted of a noncriminal violation may not be sentenced to a term of imprisonment nor to any other punishment more severe than a fine, forfeiture, or other civil penalty, except as provided in chapter 316 or by ordinance of any city or county.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the operation of any statute of this state authorizing a trial court, in its discretion, to impose a sentence of imprisonment for an indeterminate period within minimum and maximum limits as provided by law, except as provided in subsection (1).

(7) This section does not deprive the court of any authority conferred by law to decree a forfeiture of property, suspend or cancel a license, remove a person from office, or impose any other civil penalty. Such a judgment or order may be included in the sentence.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-136; ss. 1, 2, ch. 72-118; s. 2, ch. 72-724; s. 5, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

775.083 Fines.—

(1) A person who has been convicted of an offense other than a capital felony may be sentenced to pay a fine in addition to any punishment described in s. 775.082; when specifically authorized by statute, he may be sentenced to pay a fine in lieu of any punishment described in s. 775.082. A person who has been convicted of a noncriminal violation may be sentenced to pay a fine. Fines for designated crimes and for noncriminal violations shall not exceed:

(a) $15,000, when the conviction is of a life felony.

(b) $10,000, when the conviction is of a felony of the first or second degree.

(c) $5,000, when the conviction is of a felony of the third degree.

(d) $1,000, when the conviction is of a misdemeanor of the first degree.

(e) $500, when the conviction is of a misdemeanor of the second degree or a noncriminal violation.

(f) Any higher amount equal to double the pecuniary gain derived from the offense by the offender or double the pecuniary loss suffered by the victim.

(g) Any higher amount specifically authorized by statute.

(2) If a defendant is unable to pay a fine, the court may defer payment of the fine to a date certain.

History.—s. 4, ch. 71-136; s. 6, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 77-97; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

775.0835 Fines; surcharges; Crimes Compensation Trust Fund.—

(1) When any person pleads guilty or nolo contendere to, or is convicted of, any felony or misdemeanor under the laws of this state which resulted in the injury or death of another person, the court may, if it finds that the defendant has the present ability to pay the fine and finds that the impact of the fine upon the defendant's dependents will not cause such dependents to be dependent on public welfare, in addition to any other penalty, order the defendant to pay a fine, commensurate with the offense committed and with the probable impact upon the victim, but not to exceed $10,000. The fine shall be deposited in the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund.

(2) In addition to any fine, civil penalty, or other penalty provided by statute, ordinance, or other law, there shall be imposed, levied, and collected by the courts of this state the 5 percent surcharge on all fines, civil penalties, and forfeitures, as established and created in s. 960.25, which surcharge shall be deposited in the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund created by s. 960.21.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 77-452.

775.084 Habitual felony offenders and habitual misdemeanants; extended terms; definitions; procedure; penalties.—

(1) As used in this act:

(a) "Habitual felony offender" means a defendant for whom the court may impose an extended term of imprisonment, as provided in this section, if it finds that:

1. The defendant has:

a. Previously been convicted of a felony in this state;

b. Twice previously been convicted of a misdemeanor of the first degree in this state or of another qualified offense for which the defendant was convicted after the defendant's 18th birthday;

2. The felony for which the defendant is to be sentenced was committed within 5 years of the date of the conviction of the last prior felony, misdemeanor, or other qualified offense of which he was convicted, or within 5 years of the defendant's release, on parole or otherwise, from a prison sentence or other commitment imposed as a result of a prior conviction for a felony or other qualified offense, whichever is later;

3. The defendant has not received a pardon for any felony or other qualified offense that is necessary for the operation of this section; and

4. A conviction of a felony, misdemeanor, or other qualified offense necessary to the operation of this section has not been set aside in any post-conviction proceeding.

(b) "Habitual misdemeanor" means a defendant for whom the court may impose an extended term of imprisonment, as provided in this section, if it finds that:

1. The defendant has at least twice previously been convicted of the same crime committed at different times after the defendant's 18th birthday;

2. The misdemeanor for which the defendant is to be sentenced was committed within 2 years of the date of the commission of the last prior crime or within 2 years of the defendant's release, on parole or otherwise, from a prison sentence or other commitment imposed as a result of a prior conviction for a crime, whichever is later;

3. The defendant has not received a pardon on the ground of innocence for any crime that is necessary for the operation of this section; and

4. A conviction of a crime necessary to the operation of this section has not been set aside in any post-conviction proceeding.

(c) "Qualified offense" means any offense in violation of a law of another state or of the United States that was punishable under the law of such state or the United States at the time of its commission by the defendant by death or imprisonment exceeding 1 year or that was equivalent in penalty to a misdemeanor of the first degree.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the placing of a person on probation without an adjudication of guilt shall be treated as a prior conviction if the subsequent offense for which he is to be sentenced was committed during such probationary period.

(3) In a separate proceeding, the court shall determine if it is necessary for the protection of the public to sentence the defendant to an extended term as provided in subsection (4) and if the defendant is an habitual felony offender or an habitual misdemeanor. The procedure shall be as follows:

(a) The court shall obtain and consider a presentence investigation prior to the imposition of a sentence as an habitual felony offender or an habitual misdemeanor.

(b) Written notice shall be served on the defendant and his attorney a sufficient time prior to the entry of a plea or prior to the imposition of sentence so as to allow the preparation of a submission on behalf of the defendant.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (a), all evidence presented shall be presented in open court with full rights of confrontation, cross-examination, and representation by counsel.

(d) Each of the findings required as the basis for such sentence shall be found to exist by a preponderance of the evidence and shall be appealable to the extent normally applicable to similar findings.

(e) For the purpose of identification of an habitual felony offender or an habitual misdemeanor, the court shall fingerprint the defendant pursuant to s. 921.241.

(4)(a) The court, in conformity with the procedure established in subsection (3) and upon a finding that the imposition of sentence under this section is necessary for the protection of the public from further criminal activity by the defendant, shall sentence the habitual felony offender as follows:

1. In the case of a felony of the first degree, for life.

2. In the case of a felony of the second degree, for a term of years not exceeding 30.

3. In the case of a felony of the third degree, for a term of years not exceeding 10.

(b) The court, in conformity with the procedure established in subsection (3) and upon a finding that the imposition of sentence under this section is necessary for the protection of the public from further criminal activity by the defendant, may sentence the habitual misdemeanor as follows:

1. In the case of a misdemeanor of the first degree, for a term of years not exceeding 3.

2. In the case of a misdemeanor of the second degree, for a term of imprisonment not in excess of 1 year.

(c) If the court decides that imposition of sentence under this section is not necessary for the protection of the public, sentence shall be imposed without regard to this section. At any time when it appears to the court that the defendant is an habitual felony offender or an habitual misdemeanor, the court shall make that determination as provided in subsection (3).

(d) A sentence imposed under this section shall not be increased after such imposition.

History.—s. 5, ch. 71-136; s. 7, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-116; s. 2, ch. 75-298; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

775.087 Possession or use of weapon; aggravated battery; felony reclassification; minimum sentence.—

(1) Unless otherwise provided by law, whenever a person is charged with a felony, except a felony in which the use of a weapon or firearm is an essential element, and during the commission of such felony the defendant carries, displays, uses, threatens, or attempts to use any weapon or firearm, or during the commission of such felony the defendant commits an aggravated battery, the felony for which the person is charged shall be reclassified as follows:

(a) In the case of a felony of the first degree, to a life felony.

(b) In the case of a felony of the second degree, to a felony of the first degree.

(c) In the case of a felony of the third degree, to a felony of the second degree.

(2) Any person who is convicted of:

(a) Any murder, sexual battery, robbery, burglary, arson, aggravated assault, aggravated battery, kidnapping, escape, breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony, or aircraft piracy, or any attempt to commit the aforementioned crimes; or

(b) Any battery upon a law enforcement officer or firefighter while the officer or firefighter is engaged in the lawful performance of his duties and who had in his possession a "firearm," as defined in s. 790.001(6), or "destructive device," as defined in s. 790.001(4), shall be sentenced to a minimum term of imprisonment of 3 calendar years. Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 948.01, adjudication of guilt or imposition of sentence shall not be suspended, deferred, or withheld, nor shall the defendant be eligible for parole or statutory gain-time under s. 944.27 or s. 944.29, prior to serving such minimum sentence.

History.—s. 9, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-7; s. 3, ch. 75-298; s. 2, ch. 76-75.

775.089 Restitution.—

(1) In addition to any punishment, the court may order the defendant to make restitution to the aggrieved party for damage or loss caused by the defendant's offense, if the defendant is able or will be able to make such restitution. Restitution may be monetary or nonmonetary restitution. The court may make the payment of restitution a condition to probation in accordance with s. 948.03.

(2) In determining the amount and method of payment of restitution, the court shall consider the financial resources of the defendant and the burden the payment of restitution will impose on the defendant.

(3) Any defendant ordered to make restitution may petition the court which ordered him to make such restitution for remission from any payment of restitution or from any unpaid portion thereof. If the court finds that the payment of restitution due will impose an undue hardship on the defendant or his family, the court may grant remission from any payment of restitution or modify the method of payment.

(4) When a corporation or unincorporated association is ordered to make restitution, the person authorized to make disbursements from the assets of such corporation or association shall pay restitution from such assets, and such person may be held in contempt for failure to make such restitution.

(5) If a defendant who is required to make restitution defaults in any payment of restitution or installment thereof, the court may hold him in contempt unless such defendant has made a good faith effort to make restitution. If the defendant has made a good faith effort to make restitution, the court may, upon motion of the defendant, modify the order requiring restitution by:

(a) Providing for additional time to make any payment in restitution.

(b) Reducing the amount of any payment in restitution or installment thereof.

(c) Granting a remission from any payment of restitution or part thereof.

(6) Any default in payment of restitution may be collected by any means authorized by law for enforcement of a judgment.

(7) The court may order the clerk of the court to collect and disburse restitution payments in any case.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-150; s. 288, ch. 79-400.

775.091 Public service.—In addition to any punishment, the court may order the defendant to perform a specified public service.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-150.

775.13 Registration of convicted felons, exemptions; penalties.—

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a felony in any court of this state shall, within 48 hours after entering any county in this state, register with the sheriff of said county, be fingerprinted and photographed, and list the crime for which convicted, place of conviction, sentence imposed, if any, name, aliases, if any, address, and occupation.

(2) Any person who has been convicted of a crime in any federal court or in any court of a state other than Florida, or of any foreign state or country, which crime if committed in Florida would be a felony, shall forthwith within 48 hours after entering any county in this state register with the sheriff of said county in the same manner as provided for in subsection (1).

(3) Any person who is presently within any county of the state as of the effective date of this section shall likewise be required to register with the sheriff of such county within 30 days after the effective date of this section, if such person would be required to register under the terms of subsections (1) or (2), if he or she were entering such county.

(4) In lieu of registering with the sheriffs of the several counties of the state as required by this section, such registration may be made with the Department of Law Enforcement, and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as required for registration with the several sheriffs of the state. Any person so registering with the Department of Law Enforcement shall not be required to make further registration in any county in the state.

(5) The provisions of this law shall not apply to any person who:

(a) Has had his civil rights restored;

(b) Has received a full pardon for the offense for which convicted;

(c) Whose conviction of a felony was more than 10 years prior to the time provided for registration under the provisions of this law and who has been lawfully released from incarceration under a felony conviction and sentence for more than 5 years prior to such time for registration unless such person is a fugitive from justice on a felony charge;

(d) Is a parolee or probationer under the supervision of the Department of Corrections who is a probationer under the supervision of any county probation officer of the state, or who has been lawfully discharged from such parole or probation; or

(e) Is a parolee or probationer under the supervision of the United States Parole Commission which parole commission knows of and consents to the presence of such person in Florida, or is a probationer under the supervision of any federal probation officer in the state, or who has been lawfully discharged from such parole or probation.

(6) Failure of any such convicted felon to comply with this section shall constitute a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(7) All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any law of this state relating to registration of criminals where the penalties are in excess of those imposed by this section.

History.—ss. 1-7, ch. 57-19; s. 1, ch. 57-371; s. 1, ch. 63-191; s. 1, ch. 65-453; s. 3, ch. 67-2207; ss. 20, 33, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 699, ch. 71-136; s. 11, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 18, ch. 79-3; s. 21, ch. 79-8.

775.14 Limitation on withheld sentences.—

Any person receiving a withheld sentence upon conviction for a criminal offense, and such withheld sentence has not been altered for a period of 5 years, shall not thereafter be sentenced for the conviction of the same crime for which sentence was originally withheld.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-284.

775.15 Time limitations.—

(1) A prosecution for a capital or life felony may be commenced at any time. In the event the death penalty is held to be unconstitutional by the Florida Supreme Court or the United States Supreme Court, all crimes designated as capital felonies shall be considered life felonies for the purposes of this section, and prosecution for such crimes may be commenced at any time.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, prosecutions for other offenses are subject to the following periods of limitation:

(a) A prosecution for a felony of the first degree must be commenced within 4 years after it is committed.

(b) A prosecution for any other felony must be commenced within 3 years after it is committed.

(c) A prosecution for a misdemeanor of the first degree must be commenced within 2 years after it is committed.

(d) A prosecution for a misdemeanor of the second degree or a noncriminal violation must be commenced within 1 year after it is committed.

(e) A prosecution for a violation of part I of chapter 517 must be commenced within 5 years after the violation is committed.

(3) If the period prescribed in subsection (2) has expired, a prosecution may nevertheless be commenced for:

(a) Any offense, a material element of which is either fraud or a breach of fiduciary obligation, within 1 year after discovery of the offense by an aggrieved party or by a person who has a legal duty to represent an aggrieved party and who is himself not a party to the offense, but in no case shall this provision extend the period of limitation otherwise applicable by more than 3 years.

(b) Any offense based upon misconduct in office by a public officer or employee at any time when the defendant is in public office or employment, within 2 years from the time he leaves public office or employment, or during any time permitted by any other part of this section, whichever time is greater.

(4) An offense is committed either when every element has occurred or, if a legislative purpose to prohibit a continuing course of conduct plainly appears, at the time when the course of conduct or the defendant's complicity therein is terminated. Time starts to run on the day after the offense is committed.

(5) A prosecution is commenced when either an indictment or information is filed, provided the capias, summons, or other process issued on such indictment or information is executed without unreasonable delay. In determining what is reasonable, inability to locate the defendant after diligent search or the defendant's absence from the state shall be considered. If, however, an indictment or information has been filed within the time period prescribed in this section and the indictment or information is dismissed or set aside because of a defect in its content or form after the time period has elapsed, the period for commencing prosecution shall be extended 3 months from the time the indictment or information is dismissed or set aside.

(6) The period of limitation does not run during any time when the defendant is continuously absent from the state or has no reasonably ascertainable place of abode or work within the state, but in no case shall this provision extend the period of limitation otherwise applicable by more than 3 years.

CHAPTER 776

JUSTIFIABLE USE OF FORCE

- 776.012 Use of force in defense of person.
- 776.031 Use of force in defense of others.
- 776.041 Use of force by aggressor.
- 776.05 Law enforcement officers; use of force in making an arrest.
- 776.051 Use of force in resisting or making an arrest; prohibition.
- 776.06 Deadly force.
- 776.07 Use of force to prevent escape.
- 776.08 Forcible felony.

776.012 Use of force in defense of person.—A person is justified in the use of force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that he reasonably believes that such conduct is necessary to defend himself or another against such other's imminent use of unlawful force. However, he is justified in the use of deadly force only if he reasonably believes that such force is necessary to prevent imminent death or great bodily harm to himself or another or to prevent the imminent commission of a forcible felony.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383.

776.031 Use of force in defense of others.—A person is justified in the use of force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that he reasonably believes that such conduct is necessary to prevent or terminate such other's trespass on, or other tortious or criminal interference with, either real property other than a dwelling or personal property, lawfully in his possession or in the possession of another who is a member of his immediate family or household or of a person whose property he has a legal duty to protect. However, he is justified in the use of deadly force only if he reasonably believes that such force is necessary to prevent the imminent commission of a forcible felony.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383.

776.041 Use of force by aggressor.—The justification described in the preceding sections of this chapter is not available to a person who:

- (1) Is attempting to commit, committing, or escaping after the commission of, a forcible felony; or
- (2) Initially provokes the use of force against himself, unless:

(a) Such force is so great that he reasonably believes that he is in imminent danger of death or great bodily harm and that he has exhausted every reasonable means to escape such danger other than the use of force which is likely to cause death or great bodily harm to the assailant; or

(b) In good faith, he withdraws from physical contact with the assailant and indicates clearly to the assailant that he desires to withdraw and terminate the use of force, but the assailant continues or resumes the use of force.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383.

776.05 Law enforcement officers; use of force in making an arrest.—A law enforcement officer, or any person whom he has summoned or directed to assist him, need not retreat or desist from efforts to make a lawful arrest because of resistance or threatened resistance to the arrest. He is justified in the use of any force which he reasonably believes to be necessary to defend himself or another from bodily harm while making the arrest or when necessarily committed in retaking felons who have escaped or when necessarily committed in arresting felons fleeing from justice.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-64.

776.051 Use of force in resisting or making an arrest; prohibition.—

(1) A person is not justified in the use of force to resist an arrest by a law enforcement officer who is known, or reasonably appears, to be a law enforcement officer.

(2) A law enforcement officer, or any person whom he has summoned or directed to assist him, is not justified in the use of force if the arrest is unlawful and known by him to be unlawful.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383.

776.06 Deadly force.—"Deadly force" means force which is likely to cause death or great bodily harm and includes, but is not limited to:

(1) The firing of a firearm in the direction of the person to be arrested, even though no intent exists to kill or inflict great bodily harm; and

(2) The firing of a firearm at a vehicle in which the person to be arrested is riding.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383.

776.07 Use of force to prevent escape.—

(1) A law enforcement officer or other person who has an arrested person in his custody is justified in the use of any force which he reasonably believes to be necessary to prevent the escape of the arrested person from custody.

(2) A guard or other law enforcement officer is justified in the use of force, including deadly force, which he reasonably believes to be necessary to prevent the escape from a penal institution of a person whom the officer reasonably believes to be lawfully detained in such institution under sentence for an offense or awaiting trial or commitment for an offense.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383.

776.08 Forcible felony.—"Forcible felony" means treason; murder; manslaughter; sexual battery; robbery; burglary; arson; kidnapping; aggravated assault; aggravated battery; aircraft piracy; unlawful throwing, placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb; and any other felony which involves the use or threat of physical force or violence against any individual.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-383; s. 4, ch. 75-298; s. 289, ch. 79-400.

CHAPTER 777

PRINCIPALS AND ACCESSORIES; ATTEMPTS

777.011 Principal in first degree.

777.03 Accessory after the fact.

777.04 Attempts, solicitation, conspiracy, generally.

777.011 Principal in first degree.—Whoever commits any criminal offense against the state, whether felony or misdemeanor, or aids, abets, counsels, hires, or otherwise procures such offense to be committed, and such offense is committed or is attempted to be committed, is a principal in the first degree and may be charged, convicted, and punished as such, whether he is or is not actually or constructively present at the commission of such offense.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-310; s. 11, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 776.011.

777.03 Accessory after the fact.—Whoever, not standing in the relation of husband or wife, parent or grandparent, child or grandchild, brother or sister, by consanguinity or affinity to the offender, maintains or assists the principal or accessory before the fact, or gives the offender any other aid, knowing that he had committed a felony or been accessory thereto before the fact, with intent that he shall avoid or escape detection, arrest, trial or punishment, shall be deemed an accessory after the fact, and shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 6, sub-ch. 11, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2356; GS 3180; RGS 5010; CGL 7112; s. 700, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 776.03.

cf.—s. 806.10 Obstructing extinguishment of fire.

s. 910.13 Jurisdiction and venue; accessory after the fact.

777.04 Attempts, solicitation, conspiracy, generally.—

(1) Whoever attempts to commit an offense prohibited by law and in such attempt does any act toward the commission of such an offense, but fails in the perpetration or is intercepted or prevented in the execution of the same, commits the offense of criminal attempt and shall, when no express provision is made by law for the punishment of such attempt, be punished as provided in subsection (4).

(2) Whoever solicits another to commit an offense prohibited by law and in the course of such solicitation commands, encourages, hires, or requests another person to engage in specific conduct which would constitute such offense or an attempt to commit such offense commits the offense of criminal solicitation and shall, when no express provision is made by law for the punishment of such solicitation, be punished as provided in subsection (4).

(3) Whoever shall agree, conspire, combine, or confederate with another person or persons to commit any offense commits the offense of criminal conspiracy and shall, when no express provision is made by law for the punishment of such conspiracy, be punished as provided in subsection (4).

(4) Whoever commits the offense of criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy shall be punished as follows:

(a) If the offense attempted, solicited, or conspired to is a capital felony, the person convicted shall be guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If the offense attempted, solicited, or conspired to is a life felony or a felony of the first degree, the person convicted shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) If the offense attempted, solicited, or conspired to is a felony of the second degree or any burglary, the person convicted shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(d) If the offense attempted, solicited, or conspired to is a felony of the third degree, the person convicted shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(e) If the offense attempted, solicited, or conspired to is a misdemeanor of the first or second degree, the person convicted shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(5) It is a defense under this section that, under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of his criminal purpose, the defendant:

(a) Abandoned his attempt to commit the offense or otherwise prevented its commission;

(b) After soliciting another person to commit an offense, persuaded such other person not to do so or otherwise prevented commission of the offense; or

(c) After conspiring with one or more persons to commit an offense, persuaded such persons not to do so or otherwise prevented commission of the offense.

History.—s. 8, sub-ch. 11, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2594; GS 3517; RGS 5403; CGL 7544; s. 701, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 72-245; s. 1, ch. 73-142; s. 12, ch. 74-383; s. 5, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 776.04.

cf.—s. 806.01 Arson.

CHAPTER 782

HOMICIDE

- 782.02 Justifiable use of deadly force.
- 782.03 Excusable homicide.
- 782.04 Murder.
- 782.07 Manslaughter.
- 782.071 Vehicular homicide.
- 782.08 Assisting self-murder.
- 782.09 Killing of unborn child by injury to mother.
- 782.11 Unnecessary killing to prevent unlawful act.

782.02 Justifiable use of deadly force.—The use of deadly force is justifiable when a person is resisting any attempt to murder such person or to commit any felony upon him or upon or in any dwelling house in which such person shall be.

History.—ss. 4, 5, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2378; ch. 4967, 1901; s. 1, ch. 4964, 1901; GS 3203; RGS 5033; CGL 7135; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 45, ch. 75-298.

782.03 Excusable homicide.—Homicide is excusable when committed by accident and misfortune in doing any lawful act by lawful means with usual ordinary caution, and without any unlawful intent, or by accident and misfortune in the heat of passion, upon any sudden and sufficient provocation, or upon a sudden combat, without any dangerous weapon being used and not done in a cruel or unusual manner.

782.04 Murder.—

(1)(a) The unlawful killing of a human being, when perpetrated from a premeditated design to effect the death of the person killed or any human being, or when committed by a person engaged in the perpetration of, or in the attempt to perpetrate, any arson, sexual battery, robbery, burglary, kidnapping, aircraft piracy, or unlawful throwing, placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb, or which resulted from the unlawful distribution of opium or any synthetic or natural salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium by a person 18 years of age or older, when such drug is proven to be the proximate cause of the death of the user, shall be murder in the first degree and shall constitute a capital felony, punishable as provided in s. 775.082.

(b) In all cases under this section, the procedure set forth in s. 921.141 shall be followed in order to determine sentence of death or life imprisonment.

(2) The unlawful killing of a human being, when perpetrated by any act imminently dangerous to another and evincing a depraved mind regardless of human life, although without any premeditated design to effect the death of any particular individual, shall be murder in the second degree and shall constitute a felony of the first degree, punishable by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life or as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) When a person is killed in the perpetration of, or in the attempt to perpetrate, any arson, sexual battery, robbery, burglary, kidnapping, aircraft piracy, or unlawful throwing, placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb by a person other than the person engaged in the perpetration of or in the attempt to perpetrate such felony, the person perpetrating or attempting to perpetrate such felony shall be guilty of murder in the second degree, which constitutes a felony of the first degree, punishable by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life or as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) The unlawful killing of a human being, when perpetrated without any design to effect death, by a person engaged in the perpetration of, or in the attempt to perpetrate, any felony other than any arson, sexual battery, robbery, burglary, kidnapping, aircraft piracy, or unlawful throwing, placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb, shall be murder in the third degree and shall constitute a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

782.07 Manslaughter.—The killing of a human being by the act, procurement, or culpable negligence of another, without lawful justification according to the provisions of chapter 776 and in cases in which such killing shall not be excusable homicide or murder, according to the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed manslaughter and shall constitute a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

cf.—s. 860.01 Death caused by operation of motor vehicle while intoxicated.

782.071 Vehicular homicide.—“Vehicular homicide” is the killing of a human being by the operation of a motor vehicle by another in a reckless manner likely to cause the death of, or great bodily harm to, another. Vehicular homicide is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 16, ch. 74-383; s. 6, ch. 75-298.

cf.—s. 860.01 Death caused by operation of motor vehicle while intoxicated.

782.08 Assisting self-murder.—Every person deliberately assisting another in the commission of self-murder shall be guilty of manslaughter, a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 9, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2385; GS 3210; RGS 5040; CGL 7142; s. 716, ch. 71-136.

782.09 Killing of unborn child by injury to mother.—The willful killing of an unborn quick child, by any injury to the mother of such child which would be murder if it resulted in the death of such mother, shall be deemed manslaughter, a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 10, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2386; GS 3211; RGS 5041; CGL 7143; s. 717, ch. 71-136.

782.11 Unnecessary killing to prevent unlawful act.—Whoever shall unnecessarily kill another, either while resisting an attempt by such other person to commit any felony, or to do any other unlawful act, or after such attempt shall have failed, shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter, a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 13, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2388; GS 3213; RGS 5043; CGL 7145; s. 719, ch. 71-136.

CHAPTER 784

ASSAULT; BATTERY; CULPABLE NEGLIGENCE

- 784.011 Assault.
 784.021 Aggravated assault.
 784.03 Battery.
 784.045 Aggravated battery.
 784.05 Culpable negligence.
 784.07 Assault or battery of law enforcement officers or firefighters; reclassification of offenses.

784.011 Assault.—

(1) An "assault" is an intentional, unlawful threat by word or act to do violence to the person of another, coupled with an apparent ability to do so, and doing some act which creates a well-founded fear in such other person that such violence is imminent.

(2) Whoever commits an assault shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 5, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2400; GS 3226; RGS 5059; CGL 7161; s. 1, ch. 70-88; s. 729, ch. 71-136; s. 17, ch. 74-383; s. 7, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 784.02.
 cf.—s. 231.06 Assault upon school teacher.

784.021 Aggravated assault.—

(1) An "aggravated assault" is an assault:

(a) With a deadly weapon without intent to kill;
 or

(b) With an intent to commit a felony.

(2) Whoever commits an aggravated assault shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 3275, 1881; RS 2402; GS 3228; RGS 5061; CGL 7163; s. 1, ch. 29709, 1955; s. 1, ch. 57-345; s. 731, ch. 71-136; s. 18, ch. 74-383; s. 8, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 784.04.

784.03 Battery.—

(1) A person commits battery if he:

(a) Actually and intentionally touches or strikes another person against the will of the other; or

(b) Intentionally causes bodily harm to an individual.

(2) Whoever commits battery shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 5, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2401; s. 1, ch. 5135, 1903; GS 3227; RGS 5060; CGL 7162; s. 2, ch. 70-88; s. 730, ch. 71-136; s. 19, ch. 74-383; s. 9, ch. 75-298.

784.045 Aggravated battery.—

(1) A person commits aggravated battery who, in committing battery:

(a) Intentionally or knowingly causes great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement; or

(b) Uses a deadly weapon.

(2) Whoever commits aggravated battery shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-63; s. 732, ch. 71-136; s. 20, ch. 74-383; s. 10, ch. 75-298.

784.05 Culpable negligence.—

(1) Whoever, through culpable negligence, exposes another person to personal injury shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Whoever through culpable negligence inflicts actual personal injury on another shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 5212, 1903; GS 3229; RGS 5062; CGL 7164; s. 733, ch. 71-136; s. 21, ch. 74-383; s. 11, ch. 75-298.

784.07 Assault or battery of law enforcement officers or firefighters; reclassification of offenses.—

(1)(a) As used in this section, the term "law enforcement officer" includes, but shall not be limited to, any sheriff, deputy sheriff, municipal police officer, highway patrol officer, beverage enforcement agent, county probation officer, officer of the Parole and Probation Commission, and law enforcement personnel of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission and the Departments of Natural Resources and Law Enforcement.

(b) "Firefighter" as used in this section shall mean any person employed by any public employer of this state whose duty it is to extinguish fires, to protect life or property, or to enforce municipal, county, and state fire prevention codes, as well as any law pertaining to the prevention and control of fires.

(2) Whenever any person is charged with knowingly committing an assault or battery upon a law enforcement officer or firefighter while the officer or firefighter is engaged in the lawful performance of his duties, the offense for which the person is charged shall be reclassified as follows:

(a) In the case of assault, from a misdemeanor of the second degree to a misdemeanor of the first degree.

(b) In the case of battery, from a misdemeanor of the first degree to a felony of the third degree.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-75; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 22, ch. 79-8.

CHAPTER 787

KIDNAPPING; FALSE IMPRISONMENT; CUSTODY OFFENSES

- 787.01 Kidnapping.
 787.02 False imprisonment.
 787.03 Interference with custody.
 787.04 Felony to remove children from state contrary to court order.

787.01 Kidnapping.—

(1)(a) "Kidnapping" means forcibly, secretly, or by threat confining, abducting, or imprisoning another person against his will and without lawful authority, with intent to:

1. Hold for ransom or reward or as a shield or hostage.
2. Commit or facilitate commission of any felony.
3. Inflict bodily harm upon or to terrorize the victim or another person.
4. Interfere with the performance of any governmental or political function.

(b) Confinement of a child under the age of 13 is against his will within the meaning of subsection (1) if such confinement is without the consent of his parent or legal guardian.

(2) Whoever kidnaps a person is guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life or as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 5907, 1909; RGS 5058; CGL 7160; s. 1, ch. 16063, 1933; s. 784, ch. 71-136; s. 8, ch. 72-724; s. 22, ch. 74-383; s. 12, ch. 75-298; s. 1, ch. 77-174.
Note.—Former s. 805.02.

787.02 False imprisonment.—

(1)(a) "False imprisonment" means forcibly, by threat, or secretly confining, abducting, imprisoning, or restraining another person without lawful authority and against his will with any purpose other than those referred to in s. 787.01.

(b) Confinement of a child under the age of 13 is against his will within the meaning of this section if such confinement is without the consent of his parent or legal guardian.

(2) Whoever commits the offense of false imprisonment shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 43, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2399; GS 3225; RGS 5057; CGL 7159; s. 783, ch. 71-136; s. 23, ch. 74-383; s. 13, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 805.01.
 cf.—s. 910.14 Venue of prosecution for kidnapping.

787.03 Interference with custody.—

(1) Whoever, without lawful authority, knowingly or recklessly takes or entices any child 17 years of age or under or any incompetent person from the custody of his parent, guardian, or other lawful custodian commits the offense of interference with custody and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) It is a defense that:

(a) The defendant reasonably believes that his action was necessary to preserve the child or the incompetent person from danger to his welfare.

(b) The child or incompetent person was taken away at his own instigation without enticement and without purpose to commit a criminal offense with or against the child or incompetent person.

(3) Proof that a child was 17 years of age or under creates the presumption that the defendant knew the child's age or acted in reckless disregard thereof.

787.04 Felony to remove children from state contrary to court order.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person, in violation of a court order, to lead, take, entice or remove a child beyond the limits of this state with personal knowledge of the order.

(2) It is unlawful for any person, with criminal intent, to lead, take, entice or remove a child beyond the limits of this state during the pendency of any action or proceedings affecting custody of a child after having received notice as required by law of the pendency of the action or proceeding, without the permission of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending.

(3) It is unlawful for any person, who has carried beyond the limits of this state any child whose custody is involved in any action or proceeding pending in this state, pursuant to the order of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending, or pursuant to the permission of the court, thereafter, to fail to produce the child in the court or deliver the child to the person designated by the court.

(4) Any person convicted of a violation of this law shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

- 790.001 Definitions.—The following words and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall, for the purposes of this chapter, have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this chapter, except where the context otherwise requires:
- (1) "Antique firearm" means any firearm manufactured in or before 1918 (including any matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar early type of ignition system) or replica thereof, whether actually manufactured before or after the year 1918, and also any firearm using fixed ammunition manufactured in or before 1918, for which ammunition is no longer manufactured in the United States and is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade.
- (2) "Concealed firearm" means any firearm, as defined in subsection (6), when the same is carried on or about a person in such a manner as to conceal said firearm from the ordinary sight of another person.
- (3)(a) "Concealed weapon" means any dirk, metallic knuckles, slungshot, billie, tear gas gun, chemical weapon or device, or any other deadly weapon carried on or about a person in such a manner as to conceal said weapon from the ordinary sight of another person.
- (b) "Tear gas gun," "chemical weapon," or "device" shall apply to all weapons of such nature except those designed to be carried in a woman's handbag or a man's pants or coat pocket or designed as a pocket pencil or pen and containing not more than one-half ounce of chemical.
- (4) "Destructive device" means any explosive, incendiary, or poison gas bomb, grenade, mine, rocket, missile, or similar device; and includes any type of weapon which will, or is designed to, or may readily be converted to, expel a projectile by the action of any explosive and has a barrel with a bore of one-half inch or more in diameter and ammunition for such destructive devices, but not including shotgun shells or any other ammunition designed for use in a firearm other than a destructive device. "Destructive device" shall not include:
- (a) A device which is not designed, redesigned, used, or intended for use as a weapon;
- (b) Any device, although originally designed as a weapon, which is redesigned so that it may be used solely as a signaling, line-throwing, safety, or similar device;
- (c) Any shotgun other than a short-barreled shotgun; or
- (d) Any nonautomatic rifle (other than a short-barreled rifle) generally recognized or particularly suitable for use for the hunting of big game.
- (5) "Explosive" means any chemical compound or mixture that has the property of yielding readily to combustion or oxidation upon application of heat, flame, or shock, including but not limited to dynamite, nitroglycerin, trinitrotoluene, or ammonium nitrate when combined with other ingredients to form an explosive mixture, blasting caps, and detonators; but not including:

(a) Shotgun shells, cartridges or ammunition for firearms;

(b) Fireworks as defined in s. 791.01;

(c) Smokeless propellant powder or small arms ammunition primers, if possessed, purchased, sold, transported, or used in compliance with s. 552.241;

(d) Black powder in quantities not to exceed that authorized by chapter 552, or by any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder by the Department of Insurance, when used for, or intended to be used for, the manufacture of target and sporting ammunition or for use in muzzle-loading flint or percussion weapons.

The exclusions contained in paragraphs (a)-(d) shall not apply to the term "explosive" as used in the definition of "firearm" in subsection (6).

(6) "Firearm" means any weapon (including a starter gun) which will, or is designed to, or may readily be converted to, expel a projectile by the action of an explosive; the frame or receiver of any such weapon; any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; any destructive device; or any machine gun. The term "firearm" shall not include an antique firearm.

(7) "Indictment" means an indictment or an information in any court under which a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year may be prosecuted.

(8) "Law enforcement officer" means:

(a) All officers or employees of the United States or the State of Florida, or any agency, commission, department, board, division, municipality, or subdivision thereof, who have authority to make arrests;

(b) Officers or employees of the United States or the State of Florida, or any agency, commission, department, board, division, municipality, or subdivision thereof, duly authorized to carry a concealed weapon;

(c) Members of the Armed Forces of the United States, the organized reserves, state militia, or Florida National Guard, when on duty, when preparing themselves for, or going to or from, military duty, or under orders;

(d) An employee of the state prisons or correctional systems who has been so designated by the Department of Corrections or by a superintendent of an institution;

(e) All peace officers;

(f) All State Attorneys and United States Attorneys and their respective assistants and investigators.

(9) "Machine gun" means any firearm, as defined herein, which shoots, or is designed to shoot, automatically or semiautomatically, more than one shot, without manually reloading, by a single function of the trigger.

(10) "Short-barreled shotgun" means a shotgun having one or more barrels less than 18 inches in length and any weapon made from a shotgun (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if such weapon as modified has an overall length of less than 26 inches.

(11) "Short-barreled rifle" means a rifle having one or more barrels less than 16 inches in length and any weapon made from a rifle (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if such weapon as modified has an overall length of less than 26 inches.

(12) "Slungshot" means a small mass of metal, stone, sand, or similar material fixed on a flexible handle, strap, or the like, used as a weapon.

(13) "Weapon" means any dirk, metallic knuckles, slungshot, billie, tear gas gun, chemical weapon or device, or any other deadly weapon except a firearm or a common pocketknife.

(14) "Electric weapon or device" means any device which, through the application or use of electrical current, is designed, redesigned, used, or intended to be used for offensive or defensive purposes, the destruction of life, or the infliction of injury.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-306; ss. 13, 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 32, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 76-165; s. 12, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 78-200; s. 19, ch. 79-3; s. 1, ch. 79-58.

790.01 Carrying concealed weapons.—

(1) Whoever shall carry a concealed weapon or electric weapon or device on or about his person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Whoever shall carry a concealed firearm on or about his person shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Nothing in this section shall relate to persons licensed and regulated as defined in chapter 493 when acting in the performance of duties as provided in said chapter.

(4) Nothing in this section shall relate to persons licensed as set forth in ss. 790.05 and 790.06.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4929, 1901; GS 3262; RGS 5095; CGL 7197; s. 1, ch. 67-165; s. 2, ch. 69-306; s. 739, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.02 Officer to arrest without warrant and upon probable cause.—

The carrying of a concealed weapon is declared a breach of peace, and any officer authorized to make arrests under the laws of this state may make arrests without warrant of persons violating the provisions of s. 790.01 when said officer has reasonable grounds or probable cause to believe that the offense of carrying a concealed weapon is being committed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4929, 1901; GS 3263; RGS 5096; CGL 7198; s. 3, ch. 69-306; cf.—s. 901.15 When arrest by officer without warrant lawful.

790.05 Penalty for carrying pistol, electric weapon or device, or repeating rifle without first obtaining license.—

Whoever shall carry around with him, or have in his manual possession, in any county in this state, any pistol, electric weapon or device, or Winchester rifle or other repeating rifle without having a license from the county commissioners of the respective counties of this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084; provided, this section shall not apply to sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, city or town marshals, policemen, or United States marshals or their deputies as to the carrying of concealed weapons.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4147, 1893; s. 1, ch. 4928, 1901; GS 3267; RGS 5100; CGL 7202; s. 740, ch. 71-136; s. 32, ch. 73-334; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.051 Exemption from licensing requirements; law enforcement officers.—Law enforcement officers are exempt from the licensing and penal provisions of this chapter when acting at any time within the scope or course of their official duties or when acting at any time in the line of or performance of duty.

History.—s. 11, ch. 69-306.

790.052 Carrying concealed firearms; off-duty law enforcement officers.—

(1) All full-time police officers, Florida highway patrolmen, agents of the Department of Law Enforcement, and sheriffs' deputies shall have the right to carry, on or about their persons, concealed firearms, during off-duty hours, at the discretion of their superior officers, and may perform those law enforcement functions that they normally perform during duty hours, utilizing their weapons in a manner which is reasonably expected of on-duty officers in similar situations.

(2) The superior officer of any police department or sheriff's office or the Florida Highway Patrol, if he elects to direct the officers under his supervision to carry concealed firearms while off duty, shall file a statement with the governing body of such department of his instructions and requirements relating to the carrying of said firearms.

(3) No police officer, while off duty, shall carry a concealed firearm hereunder unless his bond shall cover his actions while off duty.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 72-84; s. 235, ch. 77-104; s. 23, ch. 79-8.

790.06 How license procured.—The county commissioners of the respective counties of this state may, at any regular or special meeting, adopt by ordinance a uniform policy and procedure for the issuance of licenses to carry concealed pistols on the person. Such licenses shall in any event be issued only to persons who are 18 years of age or older and of good moral character, for a period of 2 years, upon such person giving a bond payable to the Governor of the state in the sum of $100, conditioned for the proper and legitimate use of said weapons, with sureties to be approved by the county commissioners. Pursuant to the express delegation of powers contained in chapter 125, the establishment of said uniform policy shall be based upon, but not limited to, the following criteria:

(1) The applicant is not an unlawful user of, or addicted to, any controlled substance defined in chapter 893.

(2) The applicant has not been convicted of a violation of s. 790.07 or an equivalent offense under federal or state law, unless 2 years have elapsed since the person has been restored to his civil rights.

(3) The applicant has not been adjudicated a mental incompetent or has not been committed to a mental institution as being dangerous to himself or others, unless he possesses a certificate of a medical doctor licensed in this state that he no longer suffers from disability.

The commissioners shall keep a record of the name of each person taking out such a license, the name of the maker of the firearm so licensed to be carried, and the caliber and number of the same.

History.—s. 2, ch. 4147, 1893; s. 1, ch. 5139, 1903; GS 3268; RGS 5101; CGL 7203; s. 2, ch. 76-165; s. 67, ch. 77-121; s. 1, ch. 77-302; s. 176, ch. 79-164.

790.07 Persons engaged in criminal offense, having weapons.—

(1) Whoever, while committing or attempting to commit any felony or while under indictment, displays, uses, threatens, or attempts to use any weapon or electric weapon or device or carries a concealed weapon is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Whoever, while committing or attempting to commit any felony or while under indictment, displays, uses, threatens, or attempts to use any firearm or carries a concealed firearm is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, and s. 775.084.

(3) The following crimes are excluded from application of this section: Antitrust violations, unfair trade practices, restraints of trade, nonsupport of dependents, bigamy, or other similar offenses.

(4) Whoever, having previously been convicted of a violation of subsection (1) or subsection (2) and, subsequent to such conviction, displays, uses, threatens, or attempts to use any weapon, firearm, or electric weapon or device, carries a concealed weapon, or carries a concealed firearm while committing or attempting to commit any felony or while under indictment is guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Sentence shall not be suspended or deferred under the provisions of this subsection.

History.—s. 10, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2423; s. 2, ch. 4124, 1893; GS 3269; RGS 5102; CGL 7204; s. 4, ch. 69-306; s. 741, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.08 Taking possession of weapons and arms; reports; disposition; custody.—

(1) Every officer making an arrest under the preceding section, or under any other law or municipal ordinance within the state, shall take possession of any weapons, electric weapons or devices, or arms mentioned in the preceding section found upon the person arrested and deliver them to the sheriff of the county, or the chief of police of the municipality wherein the arrest is made, who shall retain the same until after the trial of the person arrested.

(2) If the person arrested as aforesaid be convicted of violating s. 790.07, or of a similar offense under any municipal ordinance, or any other offense involving the use or attempted use of such weapons, electric weapons or devices, or arms, such weapons, electric weapons or devices, or arms shall become forfeited to the state, without any order of forfeiture being necessary, although the making of such an order shall be deemed proper, and such weapons, electric weapons or devices, or arms shall be forthwith delivered to the sheriff by the chief of police or other person having custody thereof, and the sheriff is hereby made the custodian of such weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms for the state.

(3) If the person arrested as aforesaid be acquitted of the offenses mentioned in subsection (2), the said weapons, electric weapons or devices, or arms taken from him as aforesaid shall be returned to him; however, if he fails to call for or receive the same within 60 days from and after his acquittal or the dismissal of the charges against him, the same shall be delivered to the sheriff as aforesaid to be held by him as hereinafter provided. This subsection shall likewise apply to persons and their weapons, electric weapons or devices, or arms who have heretofore been acquitted or the charges against them dismissed.

(4) All such weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms now in, or hereafter coming into, the hands of any of the peace officers of this state or any of its political subdivisions, which have been found abandoned or otherwise discarded, or left in their hands and not reclaimed by the owners shall, within 60 days, be delivered by such peace officers to the sheriff of the county aforesaid.

(5) Weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms coming into the hands of the sheriff pursuant to subsections (3) and (4) aforesaid shall, unless reclaimed by the owner thereof within 6 months from the date the same come into the hands of the said sheriff, become forfeited to the state, and no action or proceeding for their recovery shall thereafter be maintained in this state.

(6) Weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms coming into the hands of the sheriff as aforesaid shall be listed, kept, and held by him as custodian for the state. Any or all such weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms suitable for use by the sheriff may be so used. All such weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms not needed by the said sheriff may be loaned to any other department of the state or to any county or municipality having use for such weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms. The sheriff shall take the receipt of such other department, county, or municipality for such weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms loaned to them. All weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms which are not needed or which are useless or unfit for use shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the sheriff as provided in chapter 705. All sums received from the sale or other disposition of the said weapon, electric weapons or devices, or arms disposed of by the sheriff under chapter 705 as aforesaid shall be paid into the State Treasury for the benefit of the State School Fund and shall become a part thereof.

(7) All weapons, electric weapons or devices, and arms confiscated, loaned, or otherwise disposed of by the sheriff shall be reported by the sheriffs to the Department of Law Enforcement or its successor. Such a report, giving serial number and other complete description, shall be filed by the 10th of each month, on a form prescribed and furnished by the department.

(8) This section shall not apply to any municipality in any county having home rule under the State Constitution.

History.—s. 3, ch. 3620, 1885; RS 2424; GS 3270; RGS 5103; CGL 7205; s. 1, ch. 22049, 1943; s. 1, ch. 65-189; ss. 1-8, ch. 67-523; s. 3, ch. 67-2207; ss. 20, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 76-165; s. 24, ch. 79-8.

790.09 Manufacturing or selling slungshot.—Whoever manufactures or causes to be manufactured, or sells or exposes for sale any instrument or weapon of the kind usually known as slungshot, or metallic knuckles, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 11, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2425; s. 3, ch. 4124, 1893; GS 3271; RGS 5104; CGL 7206; s. 742, ch. 71-136.

790.10 Improper exhibition of dangerous weapons or firearms.—If any person having or carrying any dirk, sword, sword cane, firearm, electric weapon or device, or other weapon shall, in the presence of one or more persons, exhibit the same in a rude, careless, angry, or threatening manner, not in necessary self-defense, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4532, 1897; GS 3272; RGS 5105; CGL 7207; s. 5, ch. 69-306; s. 743, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.11 Carrying firearms in national forests prohibited.—Except during the hunting season as established by law, no person shall carry, on or about his person, or in any vehicle in which such person may be riding, or on any animal which such person may be using, within the limits of a national forest area within the state, any gun or firearm of any description whatever, without first having obtained a permit as hereinafter prescribed except on state roads when securely locked within a vehicle.

History.—s. 1, ch. 17911, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7203(5); s. 1, ch. 65-188.

790.12 Permit may be granted by county commissioners.—The board of county commissioners of the county, or counties, where such national forest area is located, may grant special permit for the carrying of firearms to be specifically described in such permit, when the granting of such permit shall have been recommended in writing by the officer or employee of the United States Government in charge of such national forest area; and, where such area lies in more than one county, such permit must be granted by the board of county commissioners of each of the several counties involved before the same shall be valid.

History.—s. 2, ch. 17911, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7203(6).

790.14 Penalty for violation of ss. 790.11 and 790.12.—Any person violating the provisions of ss. 790.11 and 790.12 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 17911, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7203(8); s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 744, ch. 71-136.

790.15 Discharging firearm in public.—Any person who knowingly discharges a firearm in any public place or on the right-of-way of any paved public road, highway, or street or whosoever knowingly discharges any firearm over the right-of-way of any paved public road, highway, or street or over any occupied premises is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. This section does not apply to a person lawfully defending life or property or performing official duties requiring the discharge of a firearm or to a person discharging a firearm on public roads or properties expressly approved for hunting by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission or Division of Forestry.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3289, 1881; RS 2683; GS 3626; RGS 5557; CGL 7743; s. 1, ch. 61-334; s. 745, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 78-17.
cf.—Ch. 16249, 1933 Discharging firearms upon Tamiami Trail.

790.16 Discharging machine guns; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to shoot or discharge any machine gun upon, across, or along any road, street, or highway in the state; upon or across any public park in the state; or in, upon, or across any public place where people are accustomed to assemble in the state. The discharge of such machine gun in, upon, or across such public street; in, upon, or across such public park; or in, upon, or across such public place, whether indoors or outdoors, including all theaters and athletic stadiums, with intent to do bodily harm to any person or with intent to do damage to property not resulting in the death of another person shall be a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082. A sentence not exceeding life imprisonment is specifically authorized when great bodily harm to another or serious disruption of governmental operations results.

(2) This section shall not apply to the use of such machine guns by any United States or state militia or by any law enforcement officer while in the discharge of his lawful duty in suppressing riots and disorderly conduct and in preserving and protecting the public peace or in the preservation of public property, or when said use is authorized by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 16111, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7748(1); s. 746, ch. 71-136; s. 5, ch. 72-724; s. 1, ch. 76-38.

790.161 Making, possessing, throwing, placing, or discharging any destructive device or attempt so to do, felony; penalties.—A person who makes, possesses, throws, places, discharges, or attempts to discharge any destructive device, with intent to do bodily harm to any person or with intent to do damage to property:

(1) Shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.084.

(2) If the act results in a disruption of governmental operations, commerce, or the private affairs of another person, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.084, and the person shall be required to serve a term of imprisonment of not less than 5 calendar years before becoming eligible for parole.

(3) If the act results in bodily harm to another person or in property damage, shall be guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.084, and the person shall be required to serve a term of imprisonment of not less than 10 calendar years before becoming eligible for parole.

(4) If the act results in the death of another person, shall be guilty of a capital felony, punishable by death. In the event the death penalty in a capital felony is held to be unconstitutional by the Florida Supreme Court or the United States Supreme Court, the court having jurisdiction over a person previously sentenced to death for a capital felony shall cause such person to be brought before the court, and the court shall sentence such person to life imprisonment, and such person shall be required to serve a term of imprisonment of not less than 25 calendar years before becoming eligible for parole.

790.162 Threat to throw, place, or discharge any destructive device, felony; penalty.—It is unlawful for any person to threaten to throw, place, or discharge any destructive device with intent to do bodily harm to any person or with intent to do damage to any property of any person, and any person convicted thereof shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 59-29; s. 7, ch. 69-306; s. 748, ch. 71-136.

790.163 False reports of bombing, etc., felony; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any person to make a false report, with intent to deceive, mislead, or otherwise misinform any person, concerning the placing or planting of any bomb, dynamite, or other deadly explosive and any person convicted thereof shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 59-29; s. 749, ch. 71-136.

790.164 False reports of bombing state-owned property, etc., felony; penalty; reward.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to make a false report, with intent to deceive, mislead, or otherwise misinform any person, concerning the placing or planting of any bomb, dynamite, or other deadly explosive, or concerning any act of arson or other violence to property owned by the state or any political subdivision. Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2)(a) There shall be a $5,000 reward for the giving of information to any law enforcement agency in the state, which information leads to the arrest and conviction of any person violating the provisions of this section. Any person claiming such reward shall apply to the law enforcement agency developing the case and be paid by the Department of Law Enforcement from the deficiency fund.

(b) There shall be only one reward given for each case, regardless of how many persons are arrested and convicted in connection with the case and regardless of how many persons submit claims for the reward.

(c) The Department of Law Enforcement shall establish procedures to be used by all reward applicants, and the circuit judge in whose jurisdiction the action occurs shall review all such applications and make final determination as to those applicants entitled to receive an award.

790.17 Furnishing weapons to minors under 18 years of age, etc.—Whoever sells, hires, barter, lends, or gives any minor under 18 years of age any pistol, dirk, electric weapon or device, or other arm or weapon, other than an ordinary pocketknife, without permission of the parent of such minor, or the person having charge of such minor, or sells, hires, barters, lends, or gives to any person of unsound mind an electric weapon or device or any dangerous weapon, other than an ordinary pocketknife, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 3285, 1881; RS 2684; GS 3627; RGS 5558; CGL 7744; s. 1, ch. 65-187; s. 750, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.18 Selling arms to minors by dealers.—It is unlawful for any dealer in arms to sell to minors any pistol, Springfield rifle or other repeating rifle, bowie knife or dirk knife, brass knuckles, slungshot, or electric weapon or device, and every person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 11, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 5559; CGL 7745; s. 751, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.19 Shooting into or throwing deadly missiles into dwellings, public or private buildings, occupied or not occupied; vessels, aircraft, buses, railroad cars, streetcars, or other vehicles.—Whoever, wantonly or maliciously, shoots at, within, or into, or throws any missile or hurls or projects a stone or other hard substance which would produce death or great bodily harm, at, within, or in any public or private building, occupied or unoccupied, or public or private bus or any train, locomotive, railway car, caboose, cable railway car, street railway car, monorail car, or vehicle of any kind which is being used or occupied by any person, or any boat, vessel, ship, or barge lying in or plying the waters of this state, or aircraft flying through the airspace of this state shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 3281, 1881; RS 2696; ss. 1, 2, ch. 4987, 1901; ss. 1, 2, ch. 4988, 1901; GS 3628; RGS 5560; CGL 7746; s. 1, ch. 59-458; s. 752, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 74-67.

790.21 Duty of sheriff in such cases.—Any sheriff or deputy sheriff of any county where a river or water is the dividing line between two counties, or of such county in which the violation occurred, may board any passenger boat, with or without warrant, if he has reason to believe that any person on board said passenger boat has violated any of the provisions of the preceding section, and take into his custody any and all persons violating or who have violated any of the provisions thereof. Said sheriff or deputy sheriff shall, as soon as practical thereafter, appear before the proper court and cause a formal charge to be made. The trial of any persons violating the provisions of said section may be had in the county wherein the arrest was made.

History.—s. 4, ch. 5169, 1903; GS 3630; RGS 5562; CGL 7748; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

790.22 Use of BB guns, air or gas-operated guns, electric weapons or devices, or firearms by child under 16; limitation.—

(1) The use for any purpose whatsoever of BB guns, air or gas-operated guns, electric weapons or devices, or firearms as defined in s. 790.001 by any child under the age of 16 years is prohibited unless such use is under the supervision and in the presence of an adult.

(2) Any adult responsible for the welfare of any child under the age of 16 years who knowingly permits such child to use or have in his possession any BB gun, air or gas-operated gun, electric weapon or device, or firearm in violation of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 26946, 1951; s. 8, ch. 69-306; s. 753, ch. 71-136; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.221 Possession of short-barreled rifle, short-barreled shotgun, or machine gun; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to own or to have in his care, custody, possession, or control any short-barreled rifle, short-barreled shotgun, or machine gun which is, or may readily be made, operable; but this section shall not apply to antique firearms.

(2) Any person convicted of violating this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not to exceed 5 years.

(3) Firearms in violation hereof which are lawfully owned and possessed under provisions of federal law are excepted.

History.—s. 10, ch. 69-306.

790.23 Felons; possession of firearms or electric weapons or devices unlawful; exception; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person who has been convicted of a felony in the courts of this state or of a crime against the United States which is designated as a felony or convicted of an offense in any other state, territory, or country punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year to own or to have in his care, custody, possession, or control any firearm or electric weapon or device or to carry a concealed weapon, including all tear gas guns and chemical weapons or devices.

(2) This section shall not apply to a person convicted of a felony whose civil rights have been restored.

(3) Any person convicted of violating this section is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 29766, 1955; s. 1, ch. 63-31; s. 9, ch. 69-306; s. 754, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 71-318; s. 169, ch. 71-355; s. 2, ch. 76-165.

790.24 Report of medical treatment of gunshot wounds; penalty for violation.—Any physician, nurse, or employee thereof and any employee of a hospital, sanitarium, clinic, or nursing home knowingly treating any person suffering from a gunshot wound or other wound indicating violence, or receiving a request for such treatment shall report the same immediately to the sheriff's department of the county in which said treatment is administered or request therefor received. Any such person willfully failing to report such treatment or request therefor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-35; s. 755, ch. 71-136.

790.25 Lawful ownership, possession, and use of firearms and other weapons.—

(1) DECLARATION OF POLICY.—The Legislature finds as a matter of public policy and fact that it is necessary to promote firearms safety and to curb and prevent the use of firearms and other weapons in crime and by incompetent persons without prohibiting the lawful use in defense of life, home, and property, and the use by United States or state military organizations, and as otherwise now authorized by law, including the right to use and own firearms for target practice and marksmanship on target practice ranges or other lawful places, and lawful hunting and other lawful purposes.

(2) LAWFUL USES.—This section shall not authorize carrying a concealed weapon without a permit, as prohibited by s. 790.01 and s. 790.02. The protections of this section shall not apply to the following:

(a) A person who has been adjudged mentally incompetent, who is addicted to the use of narcotics or any similar drug, or is a habitual or chronic alcoholic, or any person using weapons or firearms in violation of ss. 790.07-790.12, 790.14-790.19, 790.21-790.24;

(b) Vagrants and other undesirable persons as defined in s. 856.02;

(c) A person in or about a place of nuisance as defined in s. 823.05, unless such person shall be there for law enforcement or some other lawful purpose.

(3) EXCEPTIONS.—The provisions of ss. 790.05 and 790.06 shall not apply in the following instances and, despite said sections, it shall be lawful for the following persons to own, possess, and lawfully use firearms and other weapons, ammunition, and supplies for lawful purposes:

(a) Members of the Militia, National Guard, Florida State Guard, Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, the organized reserves, and other armed forces of the state and of the United States, when on duty, or when training or preparing themselves for military duty, or while subject to recall or mobilization;

(b) Citizens of Florida subject to duty in the Armed Forces under s. 2, Art. X of the State Constitution, chapters 250 and 251, and under federal laws, when on duty or when training or preparing themselves for military duty;

(c) Persons carrying out or training for civil defense duties under chapter 252;

(d) Sheriffs, marshals, prison or jail wardens, policemen, Florida highway patrolmen, game wardens, revenue officers, forest officials, special officers appointed under the provisions of chapter 354, and other peace and law enforcement officers, their deputies and assistants, full-time paid peace officers of other states and of the Federal Government who are carrying out official duties while in Florida;

(e) Officers or employees of the state or United States duly authorized to carry a concealed weapon;

(f) Guards or messengers of common carriers, express companies, armored car carriers, mail carriers, banks, and other financial institutions, while actually employed in and about the shipment, transportation, or delivery of any money, treasure, bullion, bonds, or other thing of value within this state;

(g) Regularly enrolled members of any organization duly authorized to purchase or receive weapons from the United States or from this state, or regularly enrolled members of clubs organized for target, skeet, or trapshooting, while at, or going to or from shooting practice; or regularly enrolled members of clubs organized for modern or antique firearms collecting, while such members are at or going to or from their collectors' gun shows, conventions, or exhibits;

(h) A person while engaged in fishing, camping, or lawful hunting, or while going to or returning from a fishing, camping, or lawful hunting expedition;

(i) A person engaged in the business of manufacturing, repairing, or dealing in firearms, or the agent or representative of any such person while engaged in the lawful course of such business;

(j) A person firing weapons for testing or target practice under safe conditions and in a safe place not prohibited by law, or while going to or from said place;

(k) A person firing weapons in a safe and secure indoor range for testing and target practice;

(l) Any person traveling by private conveyance when the weapon is securely encased, or in a public conveyance when the weapon is securely encased and not in person's manual possession;

(m) Any person while carrying a pistol unloaded and in a secure wrapper, concealed or otherwise, from the place of purchase to his home or place of business or to a place of repair or back to his home or place of business;

(n) A person possessing arms at his home or place of business;

(o) Investigators employed by the several public defenders of the state, while actually carrying out official duties within the judicial circuits in which they are employed, provided said investigators:

1. Are employed on a full-time basis;

2. Meet the official training standards for firearms as established by the Police Standards and Training Commission as provided in s. 943.12(1) and the requirements of ss. 493.21(2)(a) and 943.13(1)-(4); and

3. Are individually designated by an affidavit of consent signed by the employing public defender and filed with the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which the employing public defender resides.

(4) CONSTRUCTION.—This act shall be liberally construed to carry out the declaration of policy herein and in favor of the constitutional right to keep and bear arms for lawful purposes. This act shall be supplemental and additional to existing rights to bear arms now guaranteed by law and decisions of the courts of Florida, and nothing herein shall impair or diminish any of such rights. This act shall supersede any law, ordinance, or regulation in conflict herewith.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-410; s. 32, ch. 69-216; s. 32, ch. 73-334; s. 2, ch. 77-302.

790.26 Assembly of handguns.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person in this state to assemble any pistol, revolver, or other handgun from parts manufactured or originating from outside the United States. This provision shall not apply to the importation of parts intended and used solely for the repair of such weapons.

(2) Any person who violates the provision of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. The assembly of each weapon in violation of this act shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

*History.—*s. 1, ch. 72-357.

790.27 Alteration or removal of firearm serial number or possession, sale, or delivery of firearm with serial number altered or removed prohibited; penalties.—

(1)(a) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly alter or remove the manufacturer's or importer's serial number from a firearm with intent to disguise the true identity thereof.

(b) Any person violating paragraph (a) is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2)(a) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly sell, deliver, or possess any firearm on which the manufacturer's or importer's serial number has been unlawfully altered or removed.

(b) Any person violating paragraph (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) This section shall not apply to antique firearms.

*History.—*s. 2, ch. 79-58.

790.28 Purchase of rifles and shotguns in contiguous states.—A resident of this state may purchase a rifle or shotgun in any state contiguous to this state if he conforms to applicable laws and regulations of the United States, of the state where the purchase is made, and of this state.

*History.—*s. 1, ch. 79-44.

CHAPTER 791

SALE OF FIREWORKS

- 791.01 "Fireworks" defined.
- 791.02 Sale of fireworks regulated; rules and regulations.
- 791.03 Bond of licensees.
- 791.04 Sale at wholesale, etc., exempted.
- 791.05 Seizure of illegal fireworks.
- 791.06 Penalties.
- 791.07 Agricultural and fish hatchery use.

791.01 "Fireworks" defined.—

(1) The term "fireworks" shall mean and include any combustible or explosive composition, or any substance or combination of substances, or, except as hereinafter provided, any article prepared for the purpose of producing a visible or an audible effect by combustion, explosion, deflagration or detonation, and shall include blank cartridges and toy cannons in which explosives are used, the type of balloons which require fire underneath to propel the same, firecrackers, torpedoes, skyrockets, roman candles, daygo bombs, and any fireworks containing any explosives or flammable compound or any tablets or other device containing any explosive substance.

(2) The term "fireworks" shall not include sparklers, toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns, or other devices in which paper caps containing twenty-five hundredths grains or less of explosive compound are used, providing they are so constructed that the hand cannot come in contact with the cap when in place for the explosion, and toy pistol paper caps which contain less than twenty hundredths grains of explosive mixture, the sale and use of which shall be permitted at all times.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20445, 1941; s. 1, ch. 57-338.

791.02 Sale of fireworks regulated; rules and regulations.—Except as hereinafter provided it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, copartnership or corporation to offer for sale, expose for sale, sell at retail, or use or explode any fireworks; provided that the board of county commissioners shall have power to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the granting of permits for supervised public display of fireworks by fair associations, amusement parks, and other organizations or groups of individuals when such public display is to take place outside of any municipality; provided, further, that the governing body of any municipality shall have power to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the granting of permits for supervised public display of fireworks within the boundaries of any municipality. Every such display shall be handled by a competent operator to be approved by the chiefs of the police and fire departments of the municipality in which the display is to be held, and shall be of such a character, and so located, discharged or fired as in the opinion of the chief of the fire department, after proper inspection, shall not be hazardous to property or endanger any person. Application for permits shall be made in writing at least 15 days in advance of the date of the display. After such privilege shall have been granted, sales, possession, use and distribution of fireworks for such display shall be lawful for that purpose only. No permit granted hereunder shall be transferable.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20445, 1941; s. 1, ch. 61-312.

791.03 Bond of licensees.—The board of county commissioners shall require a bond deemed adequate by the board of county commissioners from the licensee in a sum not less than $500 conditioned for the payment of all damages which may be caused either to a person or to property by reason of the licensee's display, and arising from any acts of the licensee, his agents, employees or subcontractors.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20445, 1941; s. 1, ch. 61-312.

791.04 Sale at wholesale, etc., exempted.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any resident wholesaler, dealer, or jobber to sell at wholesale such fireworks as are not herein prohibited; or the sale of any kind of fireworks provided the same are to be shipped directly out of state; or are to be used by a person holding a permit from any board of county commissioners at the display covered by such permit, or the use of fireworks by railroads or other transportation agencies for signal purposes or illumination or when used in quarrying or for blasting or other industrial use, or the sale or use of blank cartridges for a show or theater, or for signal or ceremonial purposes in athletics or sports, or for use by military organizations, or organizations composed of the Armed Forces of the United States; provided, nothing in this chapter shall be construed as barring the operations of manufacturers, duly licensed, from manufacturing, experimenting, exploding and storing such fireworks in their compounds or proving grounds.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20445, 1941; s. 1, ch. 61-312.

791.05 Seizure of illegal fireworks.—Each sheriff, or his appointee, or any other police officer, shall seize, take, remove or cause to be removed at the expense of the owner, all stocks of fireworks or combustibles offered or exposed for sale, stored, or held in violation of this chapter.

History.—s. 5, ch. 20445, 1941.

791.06 Penalties.—Any firm, copartnership, or corporation violating the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083 or, in the case of individuals, the members of a partnership and the responsible officers and agents of an association or corporation, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 6, ch. 20445, 1941; s. 756, ch. 71-136.

791.07 Agricultural and fish hatchery use.—Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the importation, purchase, sale or use of firecrackers used or to be used solely and exclusively in frightening birds from agricultural works and fish hatcheries and such use shall be governed entirely by the rules and regulations prescribed by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29780, 1955; s. 1, ch. 57-336; ss. 14, 35, ch. 69-106.

CHAPTER 794

SEXUAL BATTERY

- 794.011 Sexual battery.
- 794.02 Common law presumption relating to age abolished.
- 794.021 Ignorance or belief as to victim's age no defense.
- 794.022 Rules of evidence.
- 794.03 Unlawful to publish or broadcast information identifying sexual offense victim.
- 794.05 Carnal intercourse with unmarried person under 18 years.

794.011 Sexual battery.—*(1) Definitions:

(a) "Offender" means a person accused of a sexual offense.

(b) "Mentally defective" means that a person suffers from a mental disease or defect which renders that person temporarily or permanently incapable of appraising the nature of his or her conduct.

(c) "Mentally incapacitated" means that a person is rendered temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling his or her conduct due to the influence of a narcotic, anesthetic, or intoxicating substance administered to that person without his or her consent or due to any other act committed upon that person without his or her consent.

(d) "Physically helpless" means that a person is unconscious, asleep, or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act.

(e) "Serious personal injury" means great bodily harm or pain, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement.

(f) "Sexual battery" means oral, anal, or vaginal penetration by, or union with, the sexual organ of another or the anal or vaginal penetration of another by any other object; however, sexual battery shall not include acts done for bona fide medical purposes.

(g) "Victim" means the person alleging to have been the object of a sexual offense.

(h) "Consent" means intelligent, knowing, and voluntary consent and shall not be construed to include coerced submission.

(2) A person 18 years of age or older who commits sexual battery upon, or injures the sexual organs of, a person 11 years of age or younger in an attempt to commit sexual battery upon said person commits a capital felony punishable as provided in ss. 775.082 and 921.141. If the offender is under the age of 18, that person shall be guilty of a life felony, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) A person who commits sexual battery upon a person over the age of 11 years, without that person's consent, and in the process thereof uses or threatens to use a deadly weapon or uses actual physical force likely to cause serious personal injury shall be guilty of a life felony, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) A person who commits sexual battery upon a person over the age of 11 years, without that person's consent, under any of the following circumstances shall be guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084:

(a) When the victim is physically helpless to resist.

(b) When the offender coerces the victim to submit by threatening to use force or violence likely to cause serious personal injury on the victim, and the victim reasonably believes that the offender has the present ability to execute these threats.

(c) When the offender coerces the victim to submit by threatening to retaliate against the victim, or any other person, and the victim reasonably believes that the offender has the ability to execute these threats in the future. "Retaliation," as used in this section, includes, but is not limited to, threats of future physical punishment, kidnapping, false imprisonment or forcible confinement, or extortion.

(d) When the offender, without the prior knowledge or consent of the victim, administers or has knowledge of someone else administering to the victim any narcotic, anesthetic, or other intoxicating substance which mentally or physically incapacitates the victim.

(e) When the victim is older than 11 but less than 18 years of age and the offender is in a position of familial, custodial, or official authority over the victim and uses this authority to coerce the victim to submit.

(f) When the victim is mentally defective and the offender has reason to believe this or has actual knowledge of this fact.

(5) A person who commits sexual battery upon a person over the age of 11 years, without that person's consent, and in the process thereof uses physical force and violence not likely to cause serious personal injury shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-121; s. 17, ch. 75-298.

794.02 Common law presumption relating to age abolished.—The common law rule "that a boy under 14 years of age is conclusively presumed to be incapable of committing the crime of rape" shall not be in force in this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4964, 1901; GS 3222; RGS 5052; CGL 7154; s. 2, ch. 74-121.

794.021 Ignorance or belief as to victim's age no defense.—When, in this chapter, the criminality of conduct depends upon the victim's being below a certain specified age, ignorance of the age is no defense. Neither shall misrepresentation of age by such person nor a bona fide belief that such person is over the specified age be a defense.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-121.

794.022 Rules of evidence.—

(1) The testimony of the victim need not be corroborated in prosecutions under s. 794.011, however, the court may instruct the jury with respect to the weight and quality of the evidence.

(2) Specific instances of prior consensual sexual activity between the victim and any person other than the offender shall not be admitted into evidence in prosecutions under s. 794.011; however, when consent by the victim is at issue, such evidence may be admitted if it is first established to the court outside the presence of the jury that such activity shows such a relation to the conduct involved in the case that it tends to establish a pattern of conduct or behavior on the part of the victim which is relevant to the issue of consent.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-121; s. 237, ch. 77-104.

794.03 Unlawful to publish or broadcast information identifying sexual offense victim.—

No person shall print, publish, or broadcast, or cause or allow to be printed, published, or broadcast, in any instrument of mass communication the name, address, or other identifying fact or information of the victim of any sexual offense within this chapter. An offense under this section shall constitute a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6226, 1911; RGS 5053; CGL 7155; s. 2, ch. 74-121; s. 16, ch. 75-298.

794.05 Carnal intercourse with unmarried person under 18 years.—

(1) Any person who has unlawful carnal intercourse with any unmarried person, of previous chaste character, who at the time of such intercourse is under the age of 18 years, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) It shall not be a defense to a prosecution under this section that the prosecuting witness was not of previous chaste character at the time of the act when the lack of previous chaste character in the prosecuting witness was caused solely by previous intercourse between the defendant and the prosecuting witness.

 796.04 Prostitute; forcing, etc., one to become, unlawful.
 796.05 Prostitute; living on earnings.
 796.06 Prostitution, etc.; renting space.
 796.07 Prohibiting prostitution, etc.; evidence; penalties; definitions.

796.01 Keeping house of ill fame.—Whoever keeps a house of ill fame, resorted to for the purpose of prostitution or lewdness, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 13, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2615; GS 3535; RGS 5433; CGL 7576; s. 764, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 60.05 Abatement of nuisances.

796.02 Lease of house to expire on conviction.—When the lessee of a dwelling house is convicted of the offense mentioned in the preceding section, the lease or contract for letting the house shall, at the option of the lessor, become void, and the lessor shall have the like remedy to recover the possession as against a tenant holding over after the expiration of his term.

History.—s. 14, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2616; GS 3536; RGS 5434; CGL 7577.

796.03 Procuring person under age of 16 for prostitution.—Whoever procures for prostitution, or causes to be prostituted, any person who is under the age of 16 years shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—RS 2617; GS 3537; RGS 5435; CGL 7578; s. 765, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 78-45.

796.04 Prostitute; forcing, etc., one to become, unlawful.—

(1) After May 1, 1943, it shall be unlawful for anyone to force, compel, or coerce another to become a prostitute.

(2) Anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 21661, 1943; s. 766, ch. 71-136.
 cf.—ss. 384.06-384.19 Venereal diseases.

796.05 Prostitute; living on earnings.—

(1) After May 1, 1943, it shall be unlawful for anyone to live off the earnings of any other person with the knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that such earnings are derived from prostitution.

(2) Anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 21662, 1943; s. 767, ch. 71-136.

796.06 Prostitution, etc.; renting space.—

(1) After May 1, 1943, it shall be unlawful to let or rent any place, structure, or part thereof, trailer or other conveyance, with the knowledge that such place, structure, trailer, or conveyance will be used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution.

(2) Anyone violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 21663, 1943; ss. 1, 2, ch. 22025, 1943; s. 768, ch. 71-136.

796.07 Prohibiting prostitution, etc.; evidence; penalties; definitions.—

(1) As used in this section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) The term "prostitution" shall be construed to include the giving or receiving of the body for sexual intercourse for hire, and shall also be construed to include the giving or receiving of the body for licentious sexual intercourse without hire.

(b) The term "lewdness" shall be construed to include any indecent or obscene act.

(c) The term "assignation" shall be construed to include the making of any appointment or engagement for prostitution or lewdness or any act in furtherance of such appointment or engagement.

(d) The term "prostitution" as used in paragraph (a) shall be construed so as to exclude sexual intercourse between a husband and his wife.

(2) After May 1, 1943, it shall be unlawful in the state:

(a) To keep, set up, maintain, or operate any place, structure, building, or conveyance for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution.

(b) To offer, or to offer or agree to secure, another for the purpose of prostitution, or for any other lewd or indecent act.

(c) To receive, or to offer or agree to receive, any person into any place, structure, building, or conveyance for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, or to permit any person to remain there for such purpose.

(d) To direct, take or transport, or to offer or agree to take or transport, any person to any place, structure, or building, or to any other person, with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that the purpose of such directing, taking, or transporting is prostitution, lewdness, or assignation.

(3) It shall further be unlawful in the state:

(a) To offer to commit, or to commit, or to engage in, prostitution, lewdness, or assignation.

(b) To solicit, induce, entice, or procure another to commit prostitution, lewdness, or assignation with himself or herself.

(c) To reside in, enter, or remain in, any place, structure, or building, or to enter or remain in any conveyance, for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation.

(d) To aid, abet, or participate in the doing of any of the acts or things enumerated in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(4) In the trial of any persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this section, testimony concerning the reputation of any place, structure, building, or conveyance involved in said charge, and of the person or persons who reside in, operate, or frequent the same, and of the defendant, shall be admissible in evidence in support of the charge.

(5) Any person who shall violate any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 21664, 1943; s. 769, ch. 71-136.

CHAPTER 797

ABORTION

797.02 Advertising drugs, etc., for abortion.

771, ch. 71-136.

797.03 Prohibited acts; penalties.

797.02 Advertising drugs, etc., for abortion.

—Whoever knowingly advertises, prints, publishes, distributes or circulates, or knowingly causes to be advertised, printed, published, distributed or circulated, any pamphlet, printed paper, book, newspaper notice, advertisement, or reference containing words or language giving or conveying any notice, hint, or reference to any person, or the name of any person, real or fictitious, from whom, or to any place, house, shop, or office where any poison, drug, mixture, preparation, medicine, or noxious thing, or any instrument or means whatever, or any advice, direction, information, or knowledge may be obtained for the purpose of causing or procuring the miscarriage of any woman pregnant with child, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

797.03 Prohibited acts; penalties.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to perform or assist in performing an abortion on a person, except in an emergency care situation, other than in a validly licensed hospital or abortion clinic or in a physician's office.

(2) It is unlawful for any person or public body to establish, conduct, manage, or operate an abortion clinic without a valid current license.

(3) It is unlawful for any person to perform or assist in performing an abortion on a person in the third trimester other than in a hospital.

(4) Any person who willfully violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 10, ch. 78-382.

CHAPTER 806

ARSON AND CRIMINAL MISCHIEF

- 806.01 Arson.
 806.10 Preventing or obstructing extinguishment of fire.
 806.101 False alarms of fires.
 806.111 Fire bombs.
 806.13 Criminal mischief.

806.01 Arson.—

(1) Any person who willfully and unlawfully, by fire or explosion, damages or causes to be damaged:

(a) Any dwelling, whether occupied or not, or its contents;

(b) Any structure, or contents thereof, where persons are normally present, such as: Jails, prisons, or detention centers; hospitals, nursing homes, or other health care facilities; department stores, office buildings, business establishments, churches, or educational institutions during normal hours of occupancy; or other similar structures; or

(c) Any other structure that he knew or had reasonable grounds to believe was occupied by a human being, is guilty of arson in the first degree, which constitutes a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Any person who willfully and unlawfully, by fire or explosion, damages or causes to be damaged any structure, whether the property of himself or another, under any circumstances not referred to in subsection (1), is guilty of arson in the second degree, which constitutes a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) As used in this chapter, "structure" means any building of any kind, any enclosed area with a roof over it, any real property and appurtenances thereto, any tent or other portable building, and any vehicle, vessel, watercraft, or aircraft.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 15603, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 7208(8), (9); ss. 786, 787, ch. 71-136; s. 26, ch. 74-383; s. 18, ch. 75-298; s. 1, ch. 79-108.

806.10 Preventing or obstructing extinguishment of fire.—

(1) Any person who willfully and maliciously injures, destroys, removes, or in any manner interferes with the use of, any vehicles, tools, equipment, water supplies, hydrants, towers, buildings, communication facilities, or other instruments or facilities used in the detection, reporting, suppression, or extinguishment of fire shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Any person who willfully or unreasonably interferes with, hinders, or assaults, or attempts to interfere with or hinder, any firefighter in the performance of his duty shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 9, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2433; GS 3280; RGS 5113; CGL 7214; s. 1, ch. 69-232; s. 795, ch. 71-136; s. 28, ch. 74-383; s. 19, ch. 75-298. cf.—s. 777.03 Accessory after the fact.

s. 910.13 Accessory after the fact.

806.101 False alarms of fires.—Whoever, without reasonable cause, by outcry or the ringing of bells, or otherwise, makes or circulates, or causes to be made or circulated, a false alarm of fire, shall for the first conviction be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. A second or subsequent conviction under this section shall constitute a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 13, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2706; GS 3682; RGS 5626; CGL 7819; s. 934, ch. 71-136; s. 1A, ch. 71-306; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 823.03.

806.111 Fire bombs.—

(1) Any person who possesses, manufactures, transports, or disposes of a fire bomb with intent that such fire bomb be willfully and unlawfully used to damage by fire or explosion any structure or property is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Disposes of" means to give, give away, loan, offer, offer for sale, sell, or transfer.

(b) "Fire bomb" means a container containing flammable or combustible liquid with a flash point of 200° Fahrenheit or less, having a wick or similar device capable of being ignited or other means capable of causing ignition; but no device commercially manufactured primarily for the purpose of illumination, heating, or cooking shall be deemed to be such a fire bomb.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not prohibit the authorized use or possession of any material, substance, or device described therein by a member of the Armed Forces of the United States or by firemen, police officers, peace officers, or law enforcement officers so authorized by duly constituted authorities.

History.—s. 3, ch. 67-211; s. 797, ch. 71-136; s. 29, ch. 74-383; s. 19, ch. 75-298; s. 238, ch. 77-104; s. 2, ch. 79-108.

806.13 Criminal mischief.—

(1) A person commits the offense of criminal mischief if he willfully and maliciously injures or damages by any means any real or personal property belonging to another.

(2)(a) If the damage to such property is $200 or less, it is a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If the damage to such property is greater than $200 but less than $1,000, it is a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) If the damage is $1,000 or greater, or if there is interruption or impairment of a business operation or public communication, transportation, supply of water, gas or power, or other public service which costs $1,000 or more in labor and supplies to restore, it is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 27, ch. 74-383; s. 20, ch. 75-298.

CHAPTER 810

BURGLARY AND TRESPASS

- 810.011 Definitions.
- 810.02 Burglary.
- 810.06 Possession of burglary tools.
- 810.07 Prima facie evidence of intent.
- 810.08 Trespass in structure or conveyance.
- 810.09 Trespass on property other than structure or conveyance.
- 810.10 Posted land; removing notices unlawful; penalty.
- 810.11 Placing signs adjacent to highways; penalty.
- 810.115 Breaking or injuring fences.
- 810.12 Unauthorized entry on land; prima facie evidence of trespass.

810.011 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Structure" means any building of any kind, either temporary or permanent, which has a roof over it, together with the curtilage thereof.

(2) "Conveyance" means any motor vehicle, ship, vessel, railroad car, trailer, aircraft, or sleeping car; and "to enter a conveyance" includes taking apart any portion of the conveyance.

(3) An act is committed "in the course of committing" if it occurs in an attempt to commit the offense or in flight after the attempt or commission.

(4)(a) "Posted land" is that land upon which signs are placed not more than 500 feet apart along, and at each corner of, the boundaries of the land, upon which signs there appears prominently, in letters of not less than 2 inches in height, the words "no trespassing" and in addition thereto the name of the owner, lessee, or occupant of said land. Said signs shall be placed along the boundary line of posted land in a manner and in such position as to be clearly noticeable from outside of the boundary line.

(b) It shall not be necessary to give notice by posting on any enclosed land or place not exceeding 5 acres in area on which there is a dwelling house in order to obtain the benefits of ss. 810.09 and 810.12 pertaining to trespass on enclosed lands.

(5) "Cultivated land" is that land which has been cleared of its natural vegetation and is presently planted with a crop, orchard, grove, pasture, or trees or is fallow land as part of a crop rotation.

(6) "Fenced land" is that land which has been enclosed by a fence of substantial construction, whether with rails, logs, post and railing, iron, steel, barbed wire, other wire, or other material, which stands at least 3 feet in height. For the purpose of this chapter, it shall not be necessary to fence any boundary or part of a boundary of any land which is formed by water.

(7) Where lands are posted, cultivated, or fenced as described herein, then said lands, for the purpose of this chapter, shall be considered as enclosed and posted.

History.—s. 30, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 76-46.

810.02 Burglary.—

(1) "Burglary" means entering or remaining in a structure or a conveyance with the intent to commit an offense therein, unless the premises are at the time open to the public or the defendant is licensed or invited to enter or remain.

(2) Burglary is a felony of the first degree, punishable by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment or as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084, if, in the course of committing the offense, the offender:

(a) Makes an assault upon any person.

(b) Is armed, or arms himself within such structure, with explosives or a dangerous weapon.

(3) If the offender does not make an assault or is not armed, or does not arm himself, with a dangerous weapon or explosive as aforesaid during the course of committing the offense and the structure entered is a dwelling or there is a human being in the structure or conveyance at the time the offender entered or remained in the structure or conveyance, the burglary is a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Otherwise, burglary is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—RS 2435; s. 2, ch. 4405, 1895; s. 2, ch. 5411, 1905; GS 3282; RGS 5116; CGL 7217; s. 799, ch. 71-136; s. 31, ch. 74-383; s. 21, ch. 75-298.

810.06 Possession of burglary tools.—Whoever has in his possession any tool, machine, or implement with intent to use the same, or allow the same to be used, to commit any burglary or trespass shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 30, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2439; GS 3286; RGS 5120; CGL 7221; s. 804, ch. 71-136; s. 32, ch. 74-383; s. 22, ch. 75-298.

810.07 Prima facie evidence of intent.—In a trial on the charge of burglary, proof of the entering of such structure or conveyance at any time stealthily and without consent of the owner or occupant thereof shall be prima facie evidence of entering with intent to commit an offense.

History.—s. 5, ch. 4405, 1895; GS 3287; RGS 5121; CGL 7222; s. 1, ch. 70-29; s. 33, ch. 74-383.

810.08 Trespass in structure or conveyance.—

(1) Whoever, without being authorized, licensed, or invited, willfully enters or remains in any structure or conveyance, or, having been authorized, licensed, or invited, is warned by the owner or lessee of the premises, or by a person authorized by the owner or lessee, to depart and refuses to do so, commits the offense of trespass in a structure or conveyance.

(2)(a) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, trespass in a structure or conveyance is a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If there is a human being in the structure or conveyance at the time the offender trespassed, attempted to trespass, or was in the structure or conveyance, the trespass in a structure or conveyance is a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) If the offender is armed with a firearm or other dangerous weapon, or arms himself with such while in the structure or conveyance, the trespass in a structure or conveyance is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 34, ch. 74-383; s. 22, ch. 75-298; s. 2, ch. 76-46; s. 1, ch. 77-132.

810.09 Trespass on property other than structure or conveyance.—

(1) Whoever, without being authorized, licensed, or invited, willfully enters upon or remains in any property other than a structure or conveyance as to which notice against entering or remaining is given, either by actual communication to the offender or by posting, fencing, or cultivation as described in s. 810.011, commits the offense of trespass on property other than a structure or conveyance.

(2)(a) Except as provided in this subsection, trespass on property other than a structure or conveyance is a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(b) If the offender defies an order to leave, personally communicated to him by the owner of the premises or by an authorized person, or if the offender willfully opens any door, fence, or gate or does any act which exposes animals, crops, or other property to waste, destruction, or freedom, or trespasses on property other than a structure or conveyance, he is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) If the offender is armed with a firearm or other dangerous weapon during the commission of the offense of trespass on property other than a structure or conveyance, he is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 35, ch. 74-383; s. 22, ch. 75-298; s. 3, ch. 76-46.

810.10 Posted land; removing notices unlawful; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to willfully remove, destroy, mutilate, or commit any act designed to remove, mutilate, or reduce the legibility or effectiveness of any posted notice placed by the owner, tenant, lessee, or occupant of legally enclosed or legally posted land pursuant to any law of this state for the purpose of legally enclosing the same.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 25246, 1949; s. 893, ch. 71-136; s. 36, ch. 74-383; s. 23, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 821.071.

810.11 Placing signs adjacent to highways; penalty.—

(1) All persons are prohibited from placing, posting, or erecting signs upon land or upon trees upon land adjacent to or adjoining all public highways of the state, without the written consent of the owner of such land, or the written consent of the attorney or agent of such owner.

(2) Every person convicted of a violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 13801, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 7433(1); s. 892, ch. 71-136; s. 37, ch. 74-383; s. 24, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 821.02.

810.115 Breaking or injuring fences.—Whoever willfully and maliciously breaks down, mars, injures, or cuts any fence, or any part thereof, belonging to or enclosing land not his own, or whoever causes to be broken down, marred, injured, or cut any fence belonging to or enclosing land not his own, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-256.

810.12 Unauthorized entry on land; prima facie evidence of trespass.—

(1) The unauthorized entry by any person into or upon any enclosed and posted land shall be prima facie evidence of the intention of such person to commit an act of trespass.

(2) The act of entry upon enclosed and posted land without permission of the owner of said land by any workman, servant, employee, or agent while actually engaged in the performance of his work or his duties incident to such employment and while under the supervision or direction, or through the procurement, of any other person acting as supervisor, foreman, employer, or principal, or in any other capacity, shall be prima facie evidence of the causing, and of the procurement, of such act by the supervisor, foreman, employer, principal, or other person.

(3) The act committed by any person or persons of taking, transporting, operating, or driving, or the act of permitting or consenting to the taking or transporting of, any machine, tool, motor vehicle, or draft animal into or upon any enclosed and posted land without the permission of the owner of said land by any person who is not the owner of such machine, tool, vehicle, or animal, but with the knowledge or consent of the owner of such machine, tool, vehicle, or animal, or of the person then having the right to possession thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of the intent of such owner of such machine, tool, vehicle, or animal, or of the person then entitled to the possession thereof, to cause or procure an act of trespass.

(4) As used herein, the term "owner of said land" shall include the beneficial owner, lessee, occupant, or other person having any interest in said land under and by virtue of which that person is entitled to possession thereof, and shall also include the agents or authorized employees of such owner.

(5) However, this section shall not apply to any official or employee of the state or a county, municipality, or other governmental agency now authorized by law to enter upon lands or to registered engineers and surveyors authorized to enter lands pursuant to s. 472.14. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the trimming or cutting of trees or timber by municipal or private public utilities, or their employees, contractors, or subcontractors, when such trimming is required for the establishment or maintenance of the service furnished by any such utility.

812.005 Short title.—Sections 812.012-812.037 shall be known as the Florida Anti-Fencing Act.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-342.

812.012 Definitions.—As used in ss. 812.012-812.037:

- (1) "Dealer in property" means any person in the business of buying and selling property.
- (2) "Obtains or uses" means any manner of:
  - (a) Taking or exercising control over property.
  - (b) Making any unauthorized use, disposition, or transfer of property.
  - (c) Obtaining property by fraud.
  - (d)1. Conduct previously known as stealing; larceny; purloining; abstracting; embezzlement; misapplication; misappropriation; conversion; or obtaining money or property by false pretenses, fraud, or deception; or
  - 2. Other conduct similar in nature.
- (3) "Property" means anything of value, and includes:
  - (a) Real property, including things growing on, affixed to, and found in land.
  - (b) Tangible or intangible personal property, including rights, privileges, interests, and claims.

(c) Services.

(4) "Property of another" means property in which a person has an interest upon which another person is not privileged to infringe without consent, whether or not the other person also has an interest in the property.

(5) "Services" means anything of value resulting from a person's physical or mental labor or skill, or from the use, possession, or presence of property, and includes:

- (a) Repairs or improvements to property.
- (b) Professional services.
- (c) Private, public, or government communication, transportation, power, water, or sanitation services.
- (d) Lodging accommodations.
- (e) Admissions to places of exhibition or entertainment.

(6) "Stolen property" means property that has been the subject of any criminally wrongful taking.

(7) "Traffic" means:

(a) To sell, transfer, distribute, dispense, or otherwise dispose of property.

(b) To buy, receive, possess, obtain control of, or use property with the intent to sell, transfer, distribute, dispense, or otherwise dispose of such property.

(8) "Enterprise" means any individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, business trust, union chartered under the laws of this state, or other legal entity, or any unchartered union, association, or group of individuals associated in fact although not a legal entity.

(9) "Value" means value determined according to any of the following:

(a)1. Value means the market value of the property at the time and place of the offense or, if such cannot be satisfactorily ascertained, the cost of replacement of the property within a reasonable time after the offense.

2. The value of a written instrument that does not have a readily ascertainable market value, in the case of an instrument such as a check, draft, or promissory note, is the amount due or collectible or is, in the case of any other instrument which creates, releases, discharges, or otherwise affects any valuable legal right, privilege, or obligation, the greatest amount of economic loss that the owner of the instrument might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the instrument.

3. The value of a trade secret that does not have a readily ascertainable market value is any reasonable value representing the damage to the owner, suffered by reason of losing an advantage over those who do not know of or use the trade secret.

(b) If the value of property cannot be ascertained, the trier of fact may find the value to be not less than a certain amount; if no such minimum value can be ascertained, the value is an amount less than $100.

(c) Amounts of value of separate properties involved in thefts committed pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct, whether the thefts are from the same person or from several persons, may be aggregated in determining the grade of the offense.

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-342; s. 292, ch. 79-400.

812.014 Theft.—

(1) A person is guilty of theft if he knowingly obtains or uses, or endeavors to obtain or to use, the property of another with intent:

(a) To deprive the other person of a right to the property or a benefit therefrom.

(b) To appropriate the property to his own use or to the use of any person not entitled thereto.

(2)(a) If the property stolen is of the value of $20,000 or more, the offender shall be guilty of grand theft in the first degree, punishable as a felony of the second degree, as provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084.

(b) It is grand theft of the second degree and a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084, if the property stolen is:

1. Valued at $100 or more, but less than $20,000.
2. A will, codicil, or other testamentary instrument.
3. A firearm.
4. A motor vehicle.
5. Any member of the genus Bos (cattle) or the genus Equus (horse), or any hybrid of the specified genera.
6. Any fire extinguisher.
7. Any amount of citrus fruit consisting of 2,000 or more individual pieces of fruit.

(c) Theft of any property not specified in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) is petit theft and a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Upon a second conviction for petit theft, the offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Upon a third or subsequent conviction for petit theft, the offender shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084.

(d)1. Every judgment of guilty or not guilty of a petit theft shall be in writing, signed by the judge, and recorded by the clerk of the circuit court. The judge shall cause to be affixed to every such written judgment of guilty of petit theft, in open court and in the presence of such judge, the fingerprints of the defendant against whom such judgment is rendered. Such fingerprints shall be affixed beneath the judge's signature to such judgment. Beneath such fingerprints shall be appended a certificate to the following effect:

"I hereby certify that the above and foregoing fingerprints on this judgment are the fingerprints of the defendant, ....., and that they were placed thereon by said defendant in my presence, in open court, this the ..... day of ....., 19....."

Such certificate shall be signed by the judge, whose signature thereto shall be followed by the word "Judge."

2. Any such written judgment of guilty of a petit theft, or a certified copy thereof, shall be admissible in evidence in the several courts of this state as prima facie evidence that the fingerprints appearing thereon and certified by the judge as aforesaid are the fingerprints of the defendant against whom such judgment of guilty of a petit theft was rendered.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-342; s. 1, ch. 78-348; s. 1, ch. 79-124.

812.015 Retail theft; mandatory fine; alternative punishment; detention and arrest; exemption from liability for false arrest; resisting arrest; penalties.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Merchandise" means any personal property, capable of manual delivery, displayed, held, or offered for retail sale by a merchant.

(b) "Merchant" means an owner or operator, or the agent, consignee, employee, lessee, or officer of an owner or operator, of any premises or apparatus used for retail purchase or sale of any merchandise.

(c) "Value of merchandise" means the sale price of the merchandise at the time it was stolen or otherwise removed, depriving the owner of his lawful right to ownership and sale of said item.

(d) "Retail theft" means the taking possession of or carrying away of merchandise, altering or removing a label or price tag, transferring merchandise from one container to another, or removing a shopping cart, with intent to deprive the merchant of possession, use, benefit, or full retail value.

(2) Upon a second or subsequent conviction for petit theft involving merchandise taken from a merchant, the offender shall be punished as provided in s. 812.014(2)(c), except that the court shall impose a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000. However, in lieu of such fine, the court may require the offender to perform public services designated by the court. In no event shall any such offender be required to perform less than the number of hours of public service necessary to satisfy the fine assessed by the court, as provided by this subsection, at the minimum wage prevailing in the state at the time of sentencing.

(3) A peace officer, a merchant, or a merchant's employee who has probable cause to believe that merchandise has been unlawfully taken by a person and that he can recover it by taking the person into custody may, for the purpose of attempting to effect such recovery and for prosecution, take the person into custody and detain him in a reasonable manner for a reasonable length of time. Such taking into custody and detention by a peace officer, merchant, or merchant's employee, if done in compliance with all the requirements of this subsection, shall not render such police officer, merchant, or merchant's employee criminally or civilly liable for false arrest, false imprisonment, or unlawful detention. In the event a merchant or a merchant's employee takes the person into custody, a peace officer shall be called to the scene immediately after the person has been taken into custody.

(4) Any peace officer may arrest, either on or off the premises and without warrant, any person he has probable cause to believe has committed theft of merchandise in retail or wholesale establishments.

(5) A merchant or a merchant's employee who takes a person into custody, as provided in subsection (3), or who causes an arrest, as provided in subsection (4), of a person for theft of merchandise shall not be criminally or civilly liable for false arrest or false imprisonment when the merchant or merchant's employee has probable cause to believe that the person committed theft of merchandise.

(6) An individual who resists the reasonable effort of a peace officer, merchant, or merchant's employee to recover merchandise which the peace officer, merchant, or merchant's employee had probable cause to believe the individual had concealed or removed from its place of display or elsewhere and is subsequently found to be guilty of theft of the subject merchandise shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084, unless the individual did not know, or have reason to know, that the person seeking to recover the merchandise was a peace officer, merchant, or merchant's employee.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-348; s. 177, ch. 79-164.

812.016 Possession of altered property.—Any dealer in property who knew or should have known that the identifying features, such as serial numbers and permanently affixed labels, of property in his possession had been removed or altered without the consent of the manufacturer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as defined in ss. 775.082 and 775.083.

History.—s. 6, ch. 77-342.

812.019 Dealing in stolen property.—

(1) Any person who traffics in, or endeavors to traffic in, property that he knows or should know was stolen shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084.

(2) Any person who initiates, organizes, plans, finances, directs, manages, or supervises the theft of property and traffics in such stolen property shall be guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084.

History.—s. 7, ch. 77-342.

812.022 Evidence of theft or dealing in stolen property.—

(1) Proof that a person presented false identification, or identification not current with respect to name, address, place of employment, or other material aspects, in connection with the leasing of personal property, or failed to return leased property within 72 hours of the termination of the leasing agreement, unless satisfactorily explained, gives rise to an inference that such property was obtained or is now used with intent to commit theft.

(2) Proof of possession of property recently stolen, unless satisfactorily explained, gives rise to an inference that the person in possession of the property knew or should have known that the property had been stolen.

(3) Proof of the purchase or sale of stolen property at a price substantially below the fair market value, unless satisfactorily explained, gives rise to an inference that the person buying or selling the property knew or should have known that the property had been stolen.

(4) Proof of the purchase or sale of stolen property by a dealer in property, out of the regular course of business or without the usual indicia of ownership other than mere possession, unless satisfactorily explained, gives rise to an inference that the person buying or selling the property knew or should have known that it had been stolen.

History.—s. 8, ch. 77-342.

812.025 Charging theft and dealing in stolen property.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a single indictment or information may, under proper circumstances, charge theft and dealing in stolen property in connection with one scheme or course of conduct in separate counts that may be consolidated for trial, but the trier of fact may return a guilty verdict on one or the other, but not both, of the counts.

History.—s. 9, ch. 77-342.

812.028 Defenses precluded.—It shall not constitute a defense to a prosecution for any violation of the provisions of ss. 812.012-812.037 that:

(1) Any stratagem or deception, including the use of an undercover operative or law enforcement officer, was employed.

(2) A facility or an opportunity to engage in conduct in violation of any provision of this act was provided.

(3) Property that was not stolen was offered for sale as stolen property.

(4) A law enforcement officer solicited a person predisposed to engage in conduct in violation of any provision of ss. 812.012-812.037 in order to gain evidence against that person, provided such solicitation would not induce an ordinary law-abiding person to violate any provision of ss. 812.012-812.037.

History.—s. 10, ch. 77-342.

812.032 Supplemental fine.—In addition to any other fine authorized by law, a person found guilty of violating any provision of ss. 812.012-812.037, who has thereby derived anything of value, or who has caused personal injury, property damage, or other loss, may, upon motion of the State Attorney, be sentenced to pay a fine that does not exceed twice the gross value gained or twice the gross loss caused, whichever is greater, plus the cost of investigation and prosecution. The court shall hold a hearing to determine the amount of the fine to be imposed under this section.

History.—s. 11, ch. 77-342.

812.035 Civil remedies; limitation on civil and criminal actions.—

(1) Any circuit court may, after making due provisions for the rights of innocent persons, enjoin violations of the provisions of ss. 812.012-812.037 by issuing appropriate orders and judgments, including, but not limited to:

(a) Ordering any defendant to divest himself of any interest in any enterprise, including real estate.

(b) Imposing reasonable restrictions upon the future activities or investments of any defendant, including, but not limited to, prohibiting any defendant from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise in which he was engaged in violation of the provisions of ss. 812.012-812.037.

(c) Ordering the dissolution or reorganization of any enterprise.

(d) Ordering the suspension or revocation of any license, permit, or prior approval granted to any enterprise by any department or agency of the state.

(e) Ordering the forfeiture of the charter of a corporation organized under the laws of the state or the revocation of a certificate authorizing a foreign corporation to conduct business within the state, upon finding that the board of directors or a managerial agent acting on behalf of the corporation, in conducting the affairs of the corporation, has authorized or engaged in conduct in violation of ss. 812.012-812.037 and that, for the prevention of future criminal activity, the public interest requires the charter of the corporation forfeited and the corporation dissolved or the certificate revoked.

(2) All property, real or personal, including money, used in the course of, intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through, conduct in violation of a provision of ss. 812.012-812.037 is subject to civil forfeiture to the state. The state shall dispose of all forfeited property as soon as commercially feasible. If property is not exercisable or transferable for value by the state, it shall expire. All forfeitures or dispositions under this section shall be made with due provision for the rights of innocent persons.

(3) Property subject to forfeiture under this section may be seized by a law enforcement officer upon court process. Seizure without process may be made if:

(a) The seizure is incident to a lawful arrest or search or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant.

(b) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a forfeiture proceeding based upon this section.

(c) The law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to the public health or safety.

(d) The law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is otherwise subject to forfeiture under this section.

(4) In the event of a seizure under subsection (3), a forfeiture proceeding shall be instituted promptly. When property is seized under this section, pending forfeiture and final disposition, the law enforcement officer may:

(a) Place the property under seal.

(b) Remove the property to a place designated by the court.

(c) Require another agency authorized by law to take custody of the property and remove it to an appropriate location.

(5) The Department of Legal Affairs, any State Attorney, or any state agency having jurisdiction over conduct in violation of a provision of ss. 812.012-812.037 may institute civil proceedings under this section. In any action brought under this section, the circuit court shall proceed as soon as practicable to the hearing and determination. Pending final determination, the circuit court may at any time enter such injunctions, prohibitions, or restraining orders, or take such actions, including the acceptance of satisfactory performance bonds, as the court may deem proper.

(6) Any aggrieved person may institute a proceeding under subsection (1). In such proceeding, relief shall be granted in conformity with the principles that govern the granting of injunctive relief from threatened loss or damage in other civil cases, except that no showing of special or irreparable damage to the person shall have to be made. Upon the execution of proper bond against damages for an injunction improvidently granted and a showing of immediate danger of significant loss or damage, a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction may be issued in any such action before a final determination on the merits.

(7) Any person who is injured in any fashion by reason of any violation of the provisions of ss. 812.012-812.037 shall have a cause of action for three-fold the actual damages sustained and, when appropriate, punitive damages. Such person shall also recover attorneys' fees in the trial and appellate courts and costs of investigation and litigation.

(8) A final judgment or decree rendered in favor of the state in any criminal proceeding under ss. 812.012-812.037 shall estop the defendant in any subsequent civil action or proceeding as to all matters as to which such judgment or decree would be an estoppel as between the parties.

(9) The Department of Legal Affairs may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under subsection (6) or subsection (7) if he certifies that, in his opinion, the action or proceeding is of general public importance. In such action or proceeding, the state shall be entitled to the same relief as if the Department of Legal Affairs had instituted this action or proceeding.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a criminal or civil action or proceeding under ss. 812.012-812.037 may be commenced at any time within 5 years after the cause of action accrues. If a criminal prosecution or civil action or other proceeding is brought, or intervened in, to punish, prevent, or restrain any violation of the provisions of ss. 812.012-812.037, the running of the period of limitations prescribed by this section with respect to any cause of action arising under subsection (6) or subsection (7) which is based in whole or in part upon any matter complained of in any such prosecution, action, or proceeding shall be suspended during the pendency of such prosecution, action, or proceeding and for 2 years following its termination.

(11) The application of one civil remedy under any provision of ss. 812.012-812.037 shall not preclude the application of any other remedy, civil or criminal, under ss. 812.012-812.037 or any other section of the Florida Statutes.

History.—s. 12, ch. 77-342; s. 293, ch. 79-400.

812.037 Construction of ss. 812.012-812.037.—Notwithstanding s. 775.021, ss. 812.012-812.037 shall not be construed strictly or liberally, but shall be construed in light of their purposes to achieve their remedial goals.

History.—s. 13, ch. 77-342; s. 294, ch. 79-400.

812.041 Unauthorized temporary use of motor vehicle, aircraft, boat, or boat motor.—

(1) Any person who temporarily uses any motor vehicle, aircraft, boat, or boat motor without the authority of the owner or his representative, or who shall knowingly be a party to such unauthorized use, shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to any case in which the taking of the property of another is with intent to steal the same or in which the taking is under a claim of right or with the presumed consent of the owner or other person having the legal control, care, or custody of the same.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-19; s. 841, ch. 71-136; s. 3A, ch. 71-342; s. 42, ch. 74-383; s. 27, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 814.04.

812.049 Definitions.—As used in ss. 812.051 and 812.052:

(1) "Junk" means old or scrap metals.

(2) "Junk dealer" means any person who engages in the business of storing, keeping, buying, or selling junk.

(3) "Metals" means copper wire which is or can be used for transmission or distribution in a utility or communications system and railroad track and accessories. This act shall have no application except to these specific items.

(4) "Person dealing in secondhand goods" means every person who engages in the business of buying or selling metals of any kind.

(5) "Scrap-metal processor" means a person maintaining and operating machinery and equipment used to process scrap metals to specifications prescribed by, and for sale to, mills and foundries.

(6) "Foundry" means a person who uses, casts, or consumes metals of any kind.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-118.

812.051 Record of purchases and sales required of junk dealers, scrap-metal processors, persons dealing in secondhand goods and foundries.—

(1) Every junk dealer, scrap-metal processor, person dealing in secondhand goods, or foundry shall keep a record of purchases of all metals as defined in subsection 812.049(3), which record shall contain:

(a) The name and address of each person from whom the metals are purchased, including the signature of the person selling the same, together with said person's driver's license number or other identifying number.

(b) A general description of the type of utility copper wire purchased.

(c) The estimated quantity of metals purchased.

(d) The date of the purchase.

(2) The records shall at all times be subject to inspection by all law enforcement officers and shall be preserved for a period of 3 years after purchase.

(3) The records of purchases of utility copper wire or railroad track and accessories shall be submitted to the sheriff of the county in which the business is operated within 24 hours after purchase.

(4) The provisions of subsection (3) shall not apply to scrap-metal processors purchasing metals from governmental entities, public utility companies, or railroad companies or from dealers certifying in writing that a report for the metals being purchased has previously been filed as required by this act. Violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 70-91; s. 819, ch. 71-136; ss. 43, 65, ch. 74-383; s. 2, ch. 75-118; s. 28, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 811.165.

812.052 Certain purchases prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person to purchase any object used to commemorate a deceased person or placed in memory of a deceased person, or any part of such object, unless the same is sold by an authorized representative of the deceased person or of the cemetery in which such object was placed. Violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 3, ch. 75-118.

812.055 Physical inspection of junkyards, scrap metal processing plants, salvage yards, licensed motor vehicle dealers, repair shops, parking lots, public garages.—

(1) Any law enforcement officer shall have the right to inspect any junkyard, scrap metal processing plant, motor vehicle salvage yard, licensed motor vehicle dealer's lot, motor vehicle repair shop, parking lot, public garage, or other establishment dealing with salvaged motor vehicle parts.

(2) Such physical inspection shall be conducted during normal business hours and shall be for the purpose of locating stolen vehicles, investigating the titling and registration of vehicles, inspecting vehicles wrecked or dismantled, or inspecting records required in s. 319.30.

History.—s. 7, ch. 78-412.

812.061 Larceny; return of property to owner; procedure.—In every instance in which any money or motor vehicle shall have been taken from its rightful owner under circumstances constituting larceny of such money or motor vehicle and such money or motor vehicle is being held by state, county or municipal officials as evidence, the rightful owner of such money or motor vehicle may obtain the return and possession thereof in the following manner:

(1) The rightful owner shall file a petition in the court having criminal jurisdiction describing the money or motor vehicle, the time and manner in which the same was taken from the rightful owner, the value thereof if the same is money or motor vehicle, and that the petitioner is the true and lawful owner thereof. Such petition shall be under oath, sworn to by the petitioner or, if the petitioner is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or agent thereof, or by such person other than the petitioner who shall have actual knowledge of the facts alleged in such petition.

(2) Notice of the filing of such petition and a copy thereof shall be served upon any person charged with the larceny of the money or motor vehicle involved in the same manner and for the same fee as the service of a summons.

(3) If no person has been charged by indictment or information with larceny of the money or motor vehicle involved, or if a person has been so charged and cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the court out of which capias has issued and that fact has been noted on the return of such capias, then the petitioner shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the alleged larceny occurred once a week for 2 consecutive weeks, two publications being sufficient, notice of the filing of such petition. Such notice shall describe the money or motor vehicle involved and the time and particular place of its taking.

(4) Copies of the mentioned petition shall be furnished the officer having custody of the money or motor vehicle involved and also the prosecuting officer of the court having criminal jurisdiction and such officers shall be notified of any hearings and proceedings had upon such petition.

(5) Within 5 days after receipt of service of the notice hereinabove provided or within 10 days after the last publication of the mentioned notice, any person other than the petitioner claiming title or right of possession to the money or motor vehicle involved shall file his objections to the granting of such petition. Such objections shall be under oath of the person making them and shall set forth facts showing that the petitioner is not the rightful owner or not entitled to possession. If the person interposing objections to the petition desires that the question of ownership or right to possession be resolved by a jury, he shall make and file a demand for a jury trial at the time of filing his objections. If the objector fails to demand a jury trial at such time he shall be deemed to have waived such right.

(6) If objections are filed, as herein provided, the court having criminal jurisdiction may order the pleadings transferred to the court having civil jurisdiction of the cause where the same shall be adjudicated upon the pleadings, or he may defer hearing the matter until the criminal case has been adjudicated.

(7) If no objections are filed within the time herein provided, the court having criminal jurisdiction shall hear the matter and may, if satisfied that the petitioner is the rightful owner of the money or motor vehicle involved, order such money or motor vehicle returned to the petitioner. The court may, in its discretion, require the petitioner to post a bond in such amount as the court shall deem proper, conditioned that the petitioner will return the motor vehicle or the value of the money to the court within such time as shall be fixed by the court in the event it should be subsequently determined in judicial proceedings that the petitioner is not the rightful owner of such money or motor vehicle.

(8) When money or motor vehicle is returned to the rightful owner, as hereinabove provided, the court shall direct the clerk to make a detailed inventory description of such money or motor vehicle. The clerk in compliance with such direction shall make such inventory and description, including photographs of the motor vehicle involved where practicable and certify the same as being a true and correct inventory and description. The certified inventory and description shall then be filed by the clerk among the records of his office.

(9) In any trial involving the larceny of money or motor vehicle which has been returned to the rightful owner, as hereinabove provided, and it shall be necessary therein to adduce testimony concerning such money or motor vehicle, secondary evidence, including the certified inventory and description thereof shall be admissible in the same manner and to the same effect as would the admission of the said money or motor vehicle, had the same not been returned.

(10) The fact that any person charged with the larceny of money or motor vehicle has failed to object to the return of such money or motor vehicle to the alleged rightful owner thereof, or the fact that such money or motor vehicle has been returned to the alleged rightful owner thereof under the provisions of this law, shall not be offered, received or considered as evidence either for or against the defendant in such criminal action.

812.081 Trade secrets; theft, embezzlement; unlawful copying; definitions; penalty.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Article" means any object, device, machine, material, substance, or composition of matter, or any mixture or copy thereof, whether in whole or in part, including any complete or partial writing, record, recording, drawing, sample, specimen, prototype model, photograph, microorganism, blueprint, map, or copy thereof.

(b) "Representing" means completely or partially describing, depicting, embodying, containing, constituting, reflecting, or recording.

(c) "Trade secret" means the whole or any portion or phase of any formula, pattern, device, combination of devices, or compilation of information which is for use, or is used, in the operation of a business and which provides the business an advantage, or an opportunity to obtain an advantage, over those who do not know or use it. "Trade secret" includes any scientific, technical, or commercial information, including any design, process, procedure, list of suppliers, list of customers, business code, or improvement thereof. Irrespective of novelty, invention, patentability, the state of the prior art, and the level of skill in the business, art, or field to which the subject matter pertains, a trade secret is considered to be:

1. Secret;
2. Of value;
3. For use or in use by the business; and
4. Of advantage to the business, or providing an opportunity to obtain an advantage, over those who do not know or use it when the owner thereof takes measures to prevent it from becoming available to persons other than those selected by the owner to have access thereto for limited purposes.

(d) "Copy" means any facsimile, replica, photograph, or other reproduction in whole or in part of an article and any note, drawing, or sketch made of or from an article or part or portion thereof.

(2) Any person who, with intent to deprive or withhold from the owner thereof the control of a trade secret, or with an intent to appropriate a trade secret to his own use or to the use of another, steals or embezzles an article representing a trade secret or without authority makes or causes to be made a copy of an article representing a trade secret is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) In a prosecution for a violation of the provisions of this section, it is no defense that the person so charged returned or intended to return the article so stolen, embezzled, or copied.

History.—ss. 1, 2, 3, ch. 74-136.

812.13 Robbery.—

(1) "Robbery" means the taking of money or other property which may be the subject of larceny from the person or custody of another by force, violence, assault, or putting in fear.

(2)(a) If in the course of committing the robbery the offender carried a firearm or other deadly weapon, then the robbery is a felony of the first degree, punishable by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment or as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If in the course of committing the robbery the offender carried a weapon, then the robbery is a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) If in the course of committing the robbery the offender carried no firearm, deadly weapon, or other weapon, then the robbery is a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) An act shall be deemed "in the course of committing the robbery" if it occurs in an attempt to commit robbery or in flight after the attempt or commission.

History.—s. 1, ch. 28217, 1953; s. 1, ch. 29930, 1955; s. 839, ch. 71-136; s. 38, ch. 74-383; s. 29, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 813.011.

812.14 Trespass and larceny with relation to utility or cable television fixtures.—

(1) As used in this section, "utility" includes any person, firm, corporation, or association, whether private, municipal, or cooperative, which is engaged in the sale, generation, provision, or delivery of gas, electricity, heat, water, oil, sewer service, telephone service, telegraph service, radio service, or communication service.

(2) It is unlawful to:

(a) Willfully alter, tamper with, injure, or knowingly suffer to be injured any meter, meter seal, pipe, conduit, wire, line, cable, transformer, amplifier, or other apparatus or device belonging to a utility or a cable television service or community antenna line service in such a manner as to cause loss or damage or to prevent any meter installed for registering electricity, gas, or water from registering the quantity which otherwise would pass through the same; or to alter the index or break the seal of any such meter; or in any way to hinder or interfere with the proper action or just registration of any such meter or device; or knowingly to use, waste, or suffer the waste of cable television service or communication antenna line service, by any means, or electricity or gas or water passing through any such meter, wire, pipe, or fitting, or other appliance or appurtenance connected with or belonging to any such utility or cable television service or community antenna line service, after such meter, wire, pipe or fitting, or other appliance or appurtenance has been tampered with, injured, or altered.

(b) Make or cause to be made any connection with any wire, main, service pipe or other pipes, appliance, or appurtenance in such manner as to use, without the consent of the utility or cable television service or community antenna line service, any service or any electricity, gas, or water, or to cause to be supplied any service or electricity, gas, or water from a utility or a cable television service or community antenna line service to any person, firm, or corporation or any lamp, burner, orifice, faucet, or other outlet whatsoever, without such service being reported for payment or such electricity, gas, or water passing through a meter provided by the utility and used for measuring and registering the quantity of electricity, gas, or water passing through the same.

(c) Use or receive the direct benefit from the use of a utility, cable television service, or community antenna line service knowing, or under such circumstances as would induce a reasonable person to believe, that such direct benefits have resulted from any tampering with, altering of, or injury to any connection, wire, conductor, meter, pipe, conduit, line, cable, transformer, amplifier, or other apparatus or device owned, operated, or controlled by such utility or cable television service or community antenna line service, for the purpose of avoiding payment.

(3) The presence on property in the actual possession of a person of any device or alteration which effects the diversion or use of the services of a utility, cable television service, or community antenna line service so as to avoid the registration of such use by or on a meter installed by the utility or so as to otherwise avoid the reporting of use of such service for payment shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this section by such person; however, this presumption shall not apply unless:

(a) The presence of such a device or alteration can be attributed only to a deliberate act in furtherance of an intent to avoid payment for utility services;

(b) The person charged has received the direct benefit of the reduction of the cost of such utility services; and

(c) The customer or recipient of the utility services has received the direct benefit of such utility service for at least one full billing cycle.

(4) Any person who willfully violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(5) Whoever is found in a civil action to have violated the provisions hereof shall be liable to the utility involved in an amount equal to three times the amount of services unlawfully obtained or $1,000, whichever is greater.

(6) Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to licensed and certified electrical contractors while performing usual and ordinary service in accordance with recognized standards.

CHAPTER 815

COMPUTER-RELATED CRIMES

- 815.01 Short title.
- 815.02 Legislative intent.
- 815.03 Definitions.
- 815.04 Offenses against intellectual property.
- 815.05 Offenses against computer equipment or supplies.
- 815.06 Offenses against computer users.
- 815.07 This chapter not exclusive.

815.01 Short title.—The provisions of this act shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Computer Crimes Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-92.

815.02 Legislative intent.—The Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) Computer-related crime is a growing problem in government as well as in the private sector.

(2) Computer-related crime occurs at great cost to the public since losses for each incident of computer crime tend to be far greater than the losses associated with each incident of other white collar crime.

(3) The opportunities for computer-related crimes in financial institutions, government programs, government records, and other business enterprises through the introduction of fraudulent records into a computer system, the unauthorized use of computer facilities, the alteration or destruction of computerized information or files, and the stealing of financial instruments, data, and other assets are great.

(4) While various forms of computer crime might possibly be the subject of criminal charges based on other provisions of law, it is appropriate and desirable that a supplemental and additional statute be provided which proscribes various forms of computer abuse.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-92.

815.03 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Intellectual property" means data, including programs.

(2) "Computer program" means an ordered set of data representing coded instructions or statements that when executed by a computer cause the computer to process data.

(3) "Computer" means an internally programmed, automatic device that performs data processing.

(4) "Computer software" means a set of computer programs, procedures, and associated documentation concerned with the operation of a computer system.

(5) "Computer system" means a set of related, connected or unconnected, computer equipment, devices, or computer software.

(6) "Computer network" means a set of related, remotely connected devices and communication facilities including more than one computer system with capability to transmit data among them through communication facilities.

(7) "Computer system services" means providing a computer system or computer network to perform useful work.

(8) "Property" means anything of value as defined in s. 812.011 and includes, but is not limited to, financial instruments, information, including electronically produced data and computer software and programs in either machine-readable or human-readable form, and any other tangible or intangible item of value.

(9) "Financial instrument" means any check, draft, money order, certificate of deposit, letter of credit, bill of exchange, credit card, or marketable security.

(10) "Access" means to approach, instruct, communicate with, store data in, retrieve data from, or otherwise make use of any resources of a computer, computer system, or computer network.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-92.

815.04 Offenses against intellectual property.—

(1) Whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization modifies data, programs, or supporting documentation residing or existing internal or external to a computer, computer system, or computer network commits an offense against intellectual property.

(2) Whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization destroys data, programs, or supporting documentation residing or existing internal or external to a computer, computer system, or computer network commits an offense against intellectual property.

(3) Whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization discloses or takes data, programs, or supporting documentation which is a trade secret as defined in s. 812.081 or is confidential as provided by law residing or existing internal or external to a computer, computer system, or computer network commits an offense against intellectual property.

(4)(a) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, an offense against intellectual property is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If the offense is committed for the purpose of devising or executing any scheme or artifice to defraud or to obtain any property, then the offender is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-92.

815.05 Offenses against computer equipment or supplies.—

(1)(a) Whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization modifies equipment or supplies used or intended to be used in a computer, computer system, or computer network commits an offense against computer equipment or supplies.

(b)1. Except as provided in this paragraph, an offense against computer equipment or supplies as provided in paragraph (a) is a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

2. If the offense is committed for the purpose of devising or executing any scheme or artifice to defraud or to obtain any property, then the offender is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2)(a) Whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization destroys, takes, injures, or damages equipment or supplies used or intended to be used in a computer, computer system, or computer network; or whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization destroys, injures, or damages any computer, computer system, or computer network commits an offense against computer equipment or supplies.

(b)1. Except as provided in this paragraph, an offense against computer equipment or supplies as provided in paragraph (a) is a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

2. If the damage to such computer equipment or supplies or to the computer, computer system, or computer network is greater than $200 but less than $1,000, then the offender is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

3. If the damage to such computer equipment or supplies or to the computer, computer system, or computer network is $1,000 or greater, or if there is an interruption or impairment of governmental operation or public communication, transportation, or supply of water, gas, or other public service, then the offender is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s.

775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-92.

815.06 Offenses against computer users.—

(1) Whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization accesses or causes to be accessed any computer, computer system, or computer network; or whoever willfully, knowingly, and without authorization denies or causes the denial of computer system services to an authorized user of such computer system services, which, in whole or part, is owned by, under contract to, or operated for, on behalf of, or in conjunction with another commits an offense against computer users.

(2)(a) Except as provided in this subsection, an offense against computer users is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If the offense is committed for the purposes of devising or executing any scheme or artifice to defraud or to obtain any property, then the offender is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-92.

815.07 This chapter not exclusive.—The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to preclude the applicability of any other provision of the criminal law of this state which presently applies or may in the future apply to any transaction which violates this chapter, unless such provision is inconsistent with the terms of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-92.

817.02 Obtaining property by false personation.—Whoever falsely personates or represents another, and in such assumed character receives any property intended to be delivered to the party so personated, with intent to convert the same to his own use, shall be punished as if he had been convicted of larceny.

History.—s. 49, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2466; GS 3321; RGS 5156; CGL 7259.

817.03 Making false statement to obtain property or credit.—Any person who shall make or cause to be made any false statement, in writing, relating to his financial condition, assets or liabilities, or relating to the financial condition, assets or liabilities of any firm or corporation in which such person has a financial interest, or for whom he is acting, with a fraudulent intent of obtaining credit, goods, money or other property, and shall by such false statement obtain credit, goods, money or other property, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 5134, 1903; RS 3322; s. 1, ch. 6869, 1915; RGS 5160; CGL 7263; s. 843, ch. 71-136.

cf.—s. 509.151 Obtaining lodging with intent to defraud.

817.035 Schemes to defraud; proof; penalties.—

(1) Any person who engages in a scheme constituting a systematic, ongoing course of conduct with intent to defraud more than one person, or to obtain property from more than one person by false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, and who so obtains property from one or more of such persons is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Any person who engages in a scheme constituting a systematic, ongoing course of conduct with intent to defraud 10 or more persons, or to obtain property from 10 or more persons by false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, and who so obtains property from 1 or more of such persons is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) In any prosecution under this section, it shall be necessary to prove the identity of at least one person from whom the defendant so obtained property, but it shall not be necessary to prove the identity of any intended victim.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-348.

817.036 Organized fraud defined; penalties.—

(1) As used in this section, the term "organized fraud" means a scheme or operation by fraud or misrepresentation whereby any person obtains any property of an aggregate value of $50,000 or more from five or more victims.

(2) Any person who commits the crime of organized fraud shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-210.

Note.—Former s. 806.06.

817.234 False and fraudulent insurance claims.—

(1)(a) Any person who, with the intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurance company, including, but not limited to, any motor vehicle, life, disability, credit life, credit, casualty, surety, workmen's compensation, title, premium finance, reinsurance, fraternal benefit, or home or automobile warranty company:

1. Presents or causes to be presented any written or oral statement as part of, or in support of, a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy, knowing that such statement contains any false, incomplete, or misleading information concerning any fact or thing material to such claim; or

2. Prepares or makes any written or oral statement that is intended to be presented to any insurance company in connection with, or in support of, any claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy, knowing that such statement contains any false, incomplete, or misleading information concerning any fact or thing material to such claim is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) All claims forms shall contain a statement in a form approved by the Department of Insurance that clearly states in substance the following: "Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurance company files a statement of claim containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree."

(2) Any physician licensed under chapter 458, osteopath licensed under chapter 459, chiropractor licensed under chapter 460, or other practitioner licensed under the laws of this state who knowingly and willfully assists, conspires with, or urges any insured party to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this section or part X of chapter 627, or any person who, due to such assistance, conspiracy, or urging by said physician, osteopath, chiropractor, or practitioner, knowingly and willfully benefits from the proceeds derived from the use of such fraud, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. In the event that a physician, osteopath, chiropractor, or practitioner is adjudicated guilty of a violation of this section, the <sup>2</sup>State Board of Medical Examiners as set forth in chapter 458, the <sup>3</sup>State Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners as set forth in chapter 459, the <sup>4</sup>Florida State Board of Chiropractic Examiners as set forth in chapter 460, or other appropriate licensing authority shall hold an administrative hearing to consider the imposition of administrative sanctions as provided by law against said physician, osteopath, chiropractor, or practitioner.

(3) Any attorney who knowingly and willfully assists, conspires with, or urges any claimant to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this section or part X of chapter 627, or any person who, due to such assistance, conspiracy, or urging on such attorney's part, knowingly and willfully benefits from the proceeds derived from the use of such fraud, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) No person or governmental unit licensed under chapter 395 to maintain or operate a hospital, and no administrator or employee of any such hospital, shall knowingly and willfully allow the use of the facilities of said hospital by an insured party in a scheme or conspiracy to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this section or part X of chapter

627. Any hospital administrator or employee who violates this subsection is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Any adjudication of guilt for a violation of this subsection, or the use of business practices demonstrating a pattern indicating that the spirit of the law set forth in this section or part X of chapter 627 is not being followed, shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of the license to operate the hospital or the imposition of an administrative penalty of up to $5,000 by the licensing agency, as set forth in chapter 395.

(5) Any insurance company damaged as a result of a violation of any provision of this section when there has been a criminal adjudication of guilt shall have a cause of action to recover compensatory damages, plus all reasonable investigation and litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees, at the trial and appellate courts.

(6) For the purposes of this section, "statement" includes, but is not limited to, any notice, statement, proof of loss, bill of lading, invoice, account, estimate of property damages, bill for services, diagnosis, prescription, hospital or doctor records, x-ray, test result, or other evidence of loss, injury, or expense.

(7) The provisions of this section shall also apply as to any insurer or adjusting firm or its agents or representatives who, with intent, injure, defraud, or deceive any claimant with regard to any claim. The claimant shall have the right to recover the damages provided in this section.

(8) It is unlawful for any person, in his individual capacity or in his capacity as a public or private employee, or for any firm, corporation, partnership, or association, to solicit any business in or about city receiving hospitals, city and county receiving hospitals, county hospitals, justice courts, or municipal courts; in any public institution; in any public place; upon any public street or highway; in or about private hospitals, sanitariums, or any private institution; or upon private property of any character whatsoever for the purpose of making motor vehicle tort claims or claims for personal injury protection benefits required by s. 627.736. Any person who violates the provisions of this subsection is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(9) It is unlawful for any attorney to solicit any business relating to the representation of persons injured in a motor vehicle accident for the purpose of filing a motor vehicle tort claim or a claim for personal injury protection benefits required by s. 627.736. Any attorney who violates the provisions of this subsection is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Whenever any circuit or special grievance committee acting under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall find probable cause to believe that an attorney is guilty of a violation of this section, such committee shall forward to the appropriate state attorney a copy of the finding of probable cause and the report being filed in the matter. This section shall not be interpreted to prohibit advertising by attorneys which is permitted by the Code of Professional Responsibility as promulgated by the Florida Supreme Court.

817.38 Simulated process.—

(1) CIRCULATION PROHIBITED.—It is unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to send or deliver, or cause to be sent or delivered any letter, paper, document, notice of intent to bring suit, or other notice or demand, which simulates a summons, complaint, writ, or other court process, or any letter, paper, or document which simulates the seal of the state or the stationery of any state agency or fictitious state agency with intent to lead the recipient or sendee to believe that the same is genuine, for the purpose of obtaining any money or thing of value, or that a state agency is the sending party. The sending of such simulating document shall be prima facie evidence of such intent, and it shall be no defense to show that the document bears any statement to the contrary, nor shall it be a defense to show that the money or thing of value sought to be obtained was to apply as payment on a valid obligation.

(2) EVIDENCE OF DELIVERY.—In prosecutions for violation of this section, the prosecution may show that the simulating document was deposited in the post office for mailing or was delivered to any person with intent to be forwarded, and such showing shall be sufficient proof of the sending or delivery.

(3) VENUE.—Any person violating this section may be tried therefor in the county where such simulating document was so deposited, or the county where the same was received.

(4) EXCEPTION.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the printing, publication or distribution of blank forms of genuine summons and other court process.

(5) PENALTIES.—Any person, firm or corporation violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 57-73; s. 1, ch. 65-336; s. 870, ch. 71-136.

817.39 Simulated forms of court or legal process, or official seal or stationery; publication, sale or circulation unlawful; penalty.—

(1) Any person, firm, or corporation who shall print, for the purpose of sale or distribution and for use in the state, or who shall circulate, publish, or offer for sale any letter, paper, document, notice of intent to bring suit, or other notice or demand, which simulates a form of court or legal process, or any person who without authority of the state shall print, for the purpose of sale or distribution for use in the state, or who without authority of the state shall circulate, publish, use, or offer for sale any letters, papers, or documents which simulate the seal of the state, or the stationery of a state agency or fictitious state agency is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) It shall be no defense that the paper or other instrument referred to in subsection (1) shall declare that it is not a court or legal process.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent the printing, publication, sale or distribution of genuine legal forms for the use of attorneys or clerks of courts.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 57-265; s. 2, ch. 65-336; s. 871, ch. 71-136; s. 240, ch. 77-104.

817.40 False, misleading and deceptive advertising and sales; definitions.—When construing ss. 817.40, 817.41, 817.42-817.47, and each and every word, phrase or part thereof, where the context will permit:

(1) The word or term "wholesale" or "wholesale sale" shall extend to and include an "at-cost sale," "below-cost sale," and terms of similar purport, and embraces all sales purporting to be made at or below the seller's net delivered cost price, or below the average wholesale cost of the items sold or to be sold, but which are in fact made for a price in excess of the average wholesale of like items.

(2) The word or term "retail" means the sale or offering for sale of individual items of merchandise to the ultimate consumer.

(3) The term or word "retailer" means one who acquires for the purpose of sale, keeps for sale, offers or exposes for sale, or sells individual units of merchandise to the ultimate consumer and not for resale.

(4) The term or word "merchandise" includes goods, wares and merchandise, as generally understood, and in addition thereto services and other things of value.

(5) The phrase "misleading advertising" includes any statements made, or disseminated, in oral, written or printed form or otherwise, to or before the public, or any portion thereof, which are known, or through the exercise of reasonable care or investigation could or might have been ascertained, to be untrue or misleading, and which are or were so made or disseminated with the intent or purpose, either directly or indirectly, of selling or disposing of real or personal property, services of any nature whatever, professional or otherwise, or to induce the public to enter into any obligation relating to such property or services.

(6) The definitions contained in s. 1.01, insofar as the context of this act will permit, shall be applicable hereto.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-301.

817.41 Misleading advertising prohibited.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the general public of the state, or any portion thereof, any misleading advertisement. Such making or dissemination of misleading advertising shall constitute and is hereby declared to be fraudulent and unlawful, designed and intended for obtaining money or property under false pretenses.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person to advertise, in any way or by any medium whatsoever, any sale as a "wholesale sale," "below cost sale," or terms of similar purport, unless the goods, wares or merchandise offered for sale thereby are offered by the seller at or below his delivered net cost price, or below the average wholesale price of such goods, wares, or merchandise. Such advertising of goods, wares, or merchandise for sale shall constitute and is hereby declared to be fraudulent and unlawful, designed and intended for obtaining money or property under false pretenses.

(3) Any retailer using the term or phrase "wholesale sale," "below cost sale," or terms of similar purport, in connection with the sale of goods, wares, or merchandise at retail, shall, upon demand by a customer, forthwith make available, unless the same shall have theretofore been made available, to the Better Business Bureau, the Merchant's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, or to the state attorney's office for inspection, invoices, or shipping charges or true and correct copies thereof, of any goods, wares, or merchandise so offered for sale, described or represented, indicating the delivery net cost to the seller of the particular goods, wares or merchandise sold or offered for sale, from which the seller's delivered net cost may be determined. The said retailer shall also and at the same time give all reasonable assistance in determining and ascertaining his net cost price of said goods, wares, or merchandise. The said Better Business Bureau, Merchant's Division of the Chamber of Commerce or state attorney, upon determining the said delivered net cost, shall forthwith issue a certificate evidencing such delivered net cost, as determined, and deliver the same to the retailer for delivery or exhibition to the customer. Unless such certificate shall show a delivered net cost equal to or in excess of the advertised price, the retailer shall be presumed to have violated this law.

(4) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the person named in or obtaining the benefits of any misleading advertisement or any such sale is responsible for such misleading advertisement or unlawful sale.

(5) No retailer shall knowingly and willfully advertise merchandise for sale at a special or wholesale price, in any way or by any medium whatsoever, if he does not have sufficient quantities of the advertised merchandise to meet the reasonably foreseeable demand, unless the fact of limited quantity and the approximate number of items is stated in the advertisement, or unless the retailer provides a means by which the consumer may obtain the advertised item at the advertised price within a reasonable time or a value equivalent thereto.

(6) Any person prevailing in a civil action for violation of this section shall be awarded costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, and may be awarded punitive damages in addition to actual damages proven. This provision is in addition to any other remedies prescribed by law.

History.—s. 2, ch. 59-301; s. 1, ch. 73-60; s. 2, ch. 77-304.

817.411 False information; advertising.—No person, firm or corporation shall knowingly publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public, or cause directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter or poster, or over any radio or television station, or in any other way, any advertisement, announcement, or statement containing any assertion, representation, or statement that commodities, mortgages, promissory notes, securities, or other things of value offered for sale are covered by insurance guaranties where such insurance is nonexistent or does not in fact insure against the risks covered.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-110.

817.415 Florida Free Gift Advertising Law.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—

(a) The Legislature of the State of Florida recognizes that the deceptive misuse of the term "free" and words of similar meaning and intent in advertising by the unscrupulous has resulted in deception of consumers, leading them unknowingly to assume contractual obligations which were initially concealed by the deception.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature to prevent such deception by requiring disclosure of all contingent conditions, obligations, or considerations in any form in connection with the advertising of goods or services using the term "free" or words of similar meaning and intent.

(c) It is not the intent of the Legislature to prohibit the use of gifts in legitimate promotions of trade so long as the advertising of such gifts and promotions makes full disclosure of any requirement for purchase or contractual obligations to be assumed in order to qualify for the gift.

(2) SHORT TITLE.—This act may be cited as the "Florida Free Gift Advertising Law."

(3) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this act:

(a) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other entity doing business in the state.

(b) "Free" includes the use of terms such as "awarded," "prize," "absolutely without charge," "free of charge," and words or groups of words of similar intent which reasonably lead a person to believe that he may receive, or has been selected to receive, something of value, entirely or in part without a requirement of compensation in any form from the recipient.

(c) "Item" means goods, services, or any tangible or intangible thing of value and the rights therein.

(d) "Advertisement" and "advertising" includes every form of communication which offers for sale, or attempts to induce the creation of obligations in exchange for, any item or rights therein.

(4) RESTRICTIONS ON USE OF WORD "FREE."—Any item or portion of an item unconditionally offered as "free" shall in fact be free, without obligation or requirement of consideration in any form, when accepted in writing within the time limit set forth in the advertisement or within a reasonable time, if no time limit is so set. However, any person so receiving and accepting such offer may be required to pay any necessary transportation or delivery charges directly to the United States Postal Service or other regulated public carrier.

(5) TYPE REQUIREMENTS IN ADVERTISEMENTS.—Advertising in which items are offered as free with conditions or obligations necessary to acceptance shall include a statement of any such conditions or obligations with equal prominence and type size at least half that of the term "free," and advertising in compliance herewith shall not be considered deceptive.

(6) VIOLATIONS.—Any violation of this section is declared to be a deceptive trade practice and unlawful.

(7) INJUNCTIONS.—The Commissioner of Agriculture or the Attorney General may bring an action for injunction to prohibit practices in violation of this law, and any such injunction shall be issued without bond. Such suit may be brought in any circuit court of this state having jurisdiction over the party or parties defendant.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 70-164; s. 1, ch. 70-439; ss. 1-6, ch. 72-4.

817.416 Franchises and distributorships; misrepresentations.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—For the purpose of this section:

(a) The term "person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other entity doing business in Florida.

(b) The term "franchise or distributorship" means a contract or agreement, either expressed or implied, whether oral or written, between two or more persons:

1. Wherein a commercial relationship of definite duration or continuing indefinite duration is involved;

2. Wherein one party, hereinafter called the "franchisee," is granted the right to offer, sell, and distribute goods or services manufactured, processed, distributed or, in the case of services, organized and directed by another party;

3. Wherein the franchisee as an independent business constitutes a component of franchiser's distribution system; and

4. Wherein the operation of the franchisee's business franchise is substantially reliant on franchisers for the basic supply of goods.

(c) The term "goods" means any article or thing without limitation, or any part of such article or thing, including any article or thing used or consumed by a franchisee in rendering a service established, organized, directed, or approved by a franchiser.

(2) DECLARATIONS.—

(a) It is unlawful, when selling or establishing a franchise or distributorship, for any person:

1. Intentionally to misrepresent the prospects or chances for success of a proposed or existing franchise or distributorship;

2. Intentionally to misrepresent, by failure to disclose or otherwise, the known required total investment for such franchise or distributorship; or

3. Intentionally to misrepresent or fail to disclose efforts to sell or establish more franchises or distributorships than is reasonable to expect the market or market area for the particular franchise or distributorship to sustain.

(b) The execution or carrying out of a scheme, plan, or corporate organization which violates any of the provisions of this section, if knowledge or intent be proved, shall be a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082 and 775.083.

(3) CIVIL PROVISIONS.—Any person, who shows in a civil court of law a violation of this section may receive a judgment for all moneys invested in such franchise or distributorship. Upon such a showing, the court may award any person bringing said action reasonable attorney's fees and shall award such person reasonable costs incurred in bringing the action, and execution shall thereupon issue.

(4) INJUNCTIONS.—The Department of Legal Affairs, or the Department of Legal Affairs and the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services jointly, may sue in behalf of the people of this state for injunctive relief against franchise or distributorship plans or activities in violation of paragraph (2)(a).

History.—ss. 1, 2, 2A, 3, 4, ch. 71-61.

817.43 Exemption.—The provisions of s. 817.40 or s. 817.41 shall not apply to any publisher of a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or the owner or operator of a radio or television station, or any other owner or operator of a media primarily devoted to advertising, who publishes, broadcasts, or otherwise disseminates an advertisement in good faith without knowledge of its false, deceptive or misleading character.

History.—s. 4, ch. 59-301; s. 178, ch. 79-164.

817.44 Intentional false advertising prohibited.—

(1) WHAT CONSTITUTES INTENTIONAL FALSE ADVERTISING.—It is unlawful to offer for sale or to issue invitations for offers for the sale of any property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, or any services, professional or otherwise, by placing or causing to be placed before the general public, by any means whatever, an advertisement describing such property or services as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell such property or services so advertised, or with the intent not to sell such property or services at the price at which it was represented in the advertisement to be available for purchase by any member of the general public.

(2) PRESUMPTION OF VIOLATION.—The failure to sell any article or a class of articles advertised, or the refusal to sell at the price at which it was advertised to be available for purchase, shall create a rebuttable presumption of an intent to violate this section.

(3) EXEMPTION.—This section shall not apply to any publisher of a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or the owner or operator of a radio station, television station or other advertising media, who places before the public an advertisement in good faith without knowledge that the person so engaging or hiring such owner, operator, or publisher has the intent not to sell the property or services so advertised or with the intent not to sell such property or services at the price at which it was represented in the advertisement to be available for purchase by any member of the general public.

History.—s. 5, ch. 59-301.

817.45 Penalty.—Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of s. 817.41, s. 817.411, or s. 817.44 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 6, ch. 59-301; s. 872, ch. 71-136; s. 179, ch. 79-164.

817.47 Insurance advertising exempt.—Nothing in ss. 817.40, 817.41, 817.42-817.45, 817.47 shall be deemed to apply to advertising in connection with sales of insurance which are regulated under the insurance laws of this state.

History.—s. 9, ch. 59-301.

817.481 Credit cards; obtaining goods by use of false, expired, etc.; penalty.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to obtain or attempt to obtain credit, or to purchase or attempt to purchase any goods, property or service, by the use of any false, fictitious, counterfeit, or expired credit card, telephone number, credit number, or other credit device, or by the use of any credit card, telephone number, credit number, or other credit device of another without the authority of the person to whom such card, number or device was issued, or by the use of any credit card, telephone number, credit number, or other credit device in any case where such card, number or device has been revoked and notice of revocation has been given to the person to whom issued.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person to avoid or attempt to avoid or to cause another to avoid payment of the lawful charges, in whole or in part, for any telephone or telegraph service or for the transmission of a message, signal or other communication by telephone or telegraph or over telephone or telegraph facilities by the use of any fraudulent scheme, means or method, or any mechanical, electric, or electronic device.

(3)(a) If the value of the property, goods, or services obtained or which are sought to be obtained in violation of this section is $100 or more, the offender shall be guilty of grand larceny.

(b) If the value of the property, goods, or services obtained or which are sought to be obtained in violation of this section is less than $100 the offender shall be guilty of petit larceny.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 61-83; s. 1, ch. 65-245; s. 1, ch. 65-128; s. 873, ch. 71-136. cf.—Ch. 817, part II State Credit Card Crime Act.

817.482 Possessing or transferring device for theft of telecommunications service; concealment of destination of telecommunications service.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to:

(a) Make or possess any instrument, apparatus, equipment or device designed or adapted for use for the purpose of avoiding or attempting to avoid payment of telecommunications service in violation of s. 817.481; or

(b) Sell, give, transport, or otherwise transfer to another, or offer or advertise to sell, give, or otherwise transfer, any instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device described in paragraph (a), or plans or instructions for making or assembling the same; under circumstances evincing an intent to use or employ such instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device, or to allow the same to be used or employed, for a purpose described in paragraph (a), or knowing or having reason to believe that the same is intended to be so used, or that the aforesaid plans or instructions are intended to be used for making or assembling such instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device.

Any person violating the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Any person who shall make or possess, for purposes of avoiding or attempting to avoid payment for long distance telecommunication services, any electronic device capable of duplicating tones or sounds utilized in long distance telecommunications shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Any such instrument, apparatus, equipment, or device, or plans or instructions therefor, referred to in subsections (1) and (2), may be seized by court order or under a search warrant of a judge or magistrate or incident to a lawful arrest; and upon the conviction of any person for a violation of any provision of this act, or s. 817.481, such instrument, apparatus, equipment, device, plans, or instructions either shall be destroyed as contraband by the sheriff of the county in which such person was convicted or turned over to the telephone company in whose territory such instrument, apparatus, equipment, device, plans, or instructions were seized.

History.—s. 2, ch. 65-245; s. 874, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 74-137.

817.483 Transmission or publication of information regarding schemes, devices, means, or methods for theft of communication services.—Any person who transmits or publishes the number or code of an existing, canceled, revoked, or nonexistent telephone number or credit number or other credit device, or method of numbering or coding which is employed in the issuance of telephone numbers or credit numbers or other credit devices, with the intent to avoid or to cause another to avoid lawful charges is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-138.

817.49 False reports of commission of crimes; penalty.—Whoever willfully imparts, conveys or causes to be imparted or conveyed to any law enforcement officer false information or reports concerning the alleged commission of any crime under the laws of this state, knowing such information or report to be false, in that no such crime had actually been committed, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-294; s. 875, ch. 71-136.

817.50 Fraudulently obtaining goods, services, etc., from hospital.—

(1) Whoever shall, willfully and with intent to defraud, obtain or attempt to obtain goods, products, merchandise or services from any hospital in this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) If any person shall give to any hospital in this state a false or fictitious name, a false or fictitious address, any other false or fictitious information required to be obtained by such hospital in compliance with s. 382.31, et seq., or shall assign to any hospital the proceeds of any insurance contract, then knowing that such contract is no longer in force or is invalid or is void for any reason, any such action shall be prima facie evidence of the intent of such person to defraud such hospital.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 61-154; s. 876, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 382.31 Hospitals and almshouses required to keep records.

817.51 Obtaining groceries, retail poultry, dairy, bakery, and other retail products; intent to defraud.—Any person who shall obtain any items from retail grocery establishments, or retail poultry, dairy, bakery or any other retail dealers with intent to defraud the owner or keeper thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply where there has been an agreement in writing for delay in payments.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-206; s. 1, ch. 67-513; s. 877, ch. 71-136.

817.52 Obtaining vehicles with intent to defraud, failing to return hired vehicle, or tampering with mileage device of hired vehicle.—

(1) OBTAINING BY TRICK, FALSE REPRESENTATION, ETC.—Whoever, with intent to defraud the owner or any person lawfully possessing any motor vehicle, obtains the custody of such motor vehicle by trick, deceit, or fraudulent or willful false representation shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) HIRING WITH INTENT TO DEFRAUD.—Whoever, with intent to defraud the owner or any person lawfully possessing any motor vehicle of the rental thereof, hires a vehicle from such owner or such owner's agents or any person in lawful possession thereof shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. The absconding without paying or offering to pay such hire shall be prima facie evidence of such fraudulent intent.

(3) FAILURE TO REDELIVER HIRED VEHICLE.—Whoever, after hiring a motor vehicle under an agreement to redeliver the same to the person letting such motor vehicle or his agent, at the termination of the period for which it was let, shall, without the consent of such person or persons and with intent to defraud, abandon or willfully refuse to re-deliver such vehicle as agreed shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) TAMPERING WITH MILEAGE DEVICE.—Whoever, after hiring a motor vehicle from any person or persons under an agreement to pay for the use of such motor vehicle a sum of money determinable either in whole or in part upon the distance such motor vehicle travels during the period for which hired, removes, attempts to remove, tampers with, or attempts to tamper with or otherwise interfere with any odometer or other mechanical device attached to said hired motor vehicle for the purpose of registering the distance such vehicle travels, with the intent to deceive the person or persons letting such vehicle or their lawful agent as to the actual distance traveled thereby, shall upon conviction be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person who shall knowingly aid, abet or assist another in violating the provisions of this subsection shall, as a principal in the first degree, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person violating this section may be informed against or indicted in the county where such odometer or such other mechanical device is removed, or attempted to be removed, or tampered with, or attempted to be tampered with, or otherwise interfered with, or in the county where such persons knowingly aid, abet, or assist another in violating the provisions of this section, or in the county where any part of such motor vehicle upon which is attached such odometer, or such other mechanical device, is removed or attempted to be removed.

817.53 False charges for radio and television repairs and parts; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for a person to knowingly charge for any services which are not actually performed in repairing a radio or television set, or to knowingly charge for any parts which are not actually furnished, or to knowingly misinform a customer concerning what is wrong with his radio or television set, or to knowingly and fraudulently substitute parts when such substitution has no relation to the repairing or servicing of the radio or television set.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-383; s. 879, ch. 71-136.

817.54 Obtaining of mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note, etc., by false representation.—

Any person who, with intent to defraud, obtains any mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note or other instrument evidencing a debt from any person or obtains the signature of any person to any mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note or other instrument evidencing a debt by color or aid of fraudulent or false representation or pretenses, or obtains the signature of any person to a mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note, or other instrument evidencing a debt, the false making whereof would be punishable as forgery, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-142; s. 880, ch. 71-136.

817.55 Tourist attraction advertisement; misleading use of the word "free."—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, including corporations, operating a tourist attraction, event, show, or similar places of business for profit catering to the public to use or advertise in connection therewith the words "free" or "free admission" or any similar words or words of similar or like import and meaning, in a false, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent manner, calculated to cause or actually causing any member of the public to be misled, deceived or defrauded to his detriment.

(2) The State Attorney for any county in which any violation of this act occurs or the Division of Economic Development of the Department of Commerce may enjoin the use of such word or words by temporary and permanent injunction by application to any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Violations of this act whether or not enjoined as provided herein, shall be punishable as a misdemeanor of the second degree, as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-506; ss. 17, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 881, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 73-283; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

817.559 Television picture tube labels; definitions.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Picture tube" means a cathode ray tube, commonly known as a television picture tube, designed primarily for use in a home-type television receiver alone or in combination with any electronic device or appliance.

(b) "Used picture tube" means a picture tube which has been sold to and used by a consumer.

(c) "Used component or material" means any part or material salvaged from a used or secondhand picture tube.

(2) No manufacturer, processor, or distributor of television picture tubes shall sell, offer for sale, or expose for sale any such tube unless the television picture tube and its container, if any, are correctly labeled to indicate the new and used components and materials of such tube according to the schedule and manner hereinafter provided.

(3) Description of the picture tube by new and used components and materials shall be indicated by setting forth on the label the particular grade and verbatim description as selected from the following which applies to such tube:

(a) Black and white picture tube.—

1. Grade AA.—Description: All new components and materials, including new glass envelope.

2. Grade A.—Description: Used glass envelope; all other components and materials are new.

3. Grade B.—Description: Used glass envelope, used phosphorescent viewing screen, used aluminization, and used internal conductive coating; all other components and materials are new.

4. Grade C.—Description: Used picture tube for resale; all significant components and materials are used.

(b) Color picture tube.—

1. Grade AA.—Description: All new components and materials, including new glass envelope.

2. Grade A.—Description: Used glass envelope and new or used shadow mask; all other components and materials are new.

3. Grade B.—Description: New electron gun; all other components and materials are used.

4. Grade C.—Description: Used picture tube for resale; all significant components and materials are used.

(c) Used picture tube.—The fact that a used picture tube has been rejuvenated, has a new or used brightener attached to it, or has fresh paint or coating on the outside, or any combination of the above, shall not change its status or description as a grade C picture tube, and the terms "rebuilt" or "reconditioned" or words of like import shall not be used to describe such tube.

(d) Picture tube-seconds.—When a picture tube is a "second," such tube shall be designated by label as a "second" to the exclusion of any other grade designation or component description, and the following additional notation shall appear verbatim on the label: "This picture tube is a manufacturer's reject or second line quality tube, but it is capable of giving satisfactory performance."

(4) Any person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 73-239.

817.56 Misrepresentations of television picture tubes prohibited, penalty; definitions.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Tube" is an electron receiving tube or cathode ray tube (commonly known as a picture tube) designed primarily for use in a home-type television or radio receiver, phonograph, tape recorder, or any combination thereof, or other home type electronic device or appliance.

(b) "Used tube" or "secondhand tube" is a tube which has been sold to and used by a consumer.

(c) A "used component" is any part or material salvaged from a used or secondhand tube.

(d) A "tube utilizing used components" is a tube which has not been used as an entity but which in the manufacture thereof has utilized one or more used components. Such a tube shall not be deemed to be a used or secondhand tube within the meaning of that definition.

(e) A "reactivated tube" is a weak, wornout, or defective tube which has been temporarily recharged by the administration of a charge of high voltage electric current to the elements thereof.

(f) A "reduction" is the sale of a tube at a price that is less than the manufacturer's list price for that tube.

(g) A "savings" is the sale of a tube at a price that is less than the list price for a tube by the same or another manufacturer when the tubes are identical.

(2) No person shall knowingly:

(a) Distribute or sell, offer to distribute or sell, expose for distribution or sale, possess with intent to distribute or sell, or otherwise dispose of for a consideration any reactivated tube, secondhand tube, or used tube, or tube utilizing used components without clearly disclosing the true or actual quality or condition of such tube by means of a stamp, mark, tag, notice, or label attached to such tube and to any carton or container thereof in such manner that it cannot readily be removed or of such a nature as to remain affixed until removed by a purchaser at retail;

(b) Remove, deface, cover, obliterate, mutilate, alter, or cause to be removed, defaced, covered, obliterated, mutilated, or altered any notice, tag, or label from any tube, carton, or container required under paragraph (a) of this subsection;

(c) Install any reactivated tube, secondhand tube, or used tube, or tube utilizing used components, without disclosing the true or actual quality or condition of such tube on a written invoice furnished to the customer when installed by a person performing such services or repairs for any consideration. Such disclosure in the invoice is required irrespective of the fact that such tube, or carton, or container therefor contains a notice, tag, or label disclosing such quality or condition;

(d) Reactivate or cause to be reactivated any tube for the purpose of deceiving another;

(e) Represent a used tube, secondhand tube, or reactivated tube, or tube utilizing used components, directly or indirectly, to be a new tube or a first quality tube;

(f) Make representations, directly or indirectly, concerning a tube by reference to a patent license pursuant to which such tube was manufactured which could mislead another into the belief that such tube is manufactured or sponsored by said patent licensor, when such is not the fact;

(g) Represent to a retail buyer that a tube is guaranteed by the use of such word or words of similar import unless a writing disclosing the nature, extent, and duration of the guarantee, the identity of the guarantor, and the manner in which the guarantor will perform thereunder, is furnished to such purchaser at the time of purchase. No tube shall be represented as fully guaranteed or unconditionally guaranteed by the use of such word or words of similar import unless the written guarantee furnished to the purchaser is free from any conditions or limitations;

(h) Represent that a tube is being sold at a reduction or savings when the alleged reduction or savings is from a fictitious price. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, an alleged reduction or savings is from a fictitious price;

1. When the alleged reduction or savings of a reactivated tube, secondhand tube, or used tube is from the manufacturer's established list price for his first quality or new tubes;

2. When the alleged reduction of a tube utilizing used components is from the manufacturer's established list price for tubes utilizing only new components in the manufacture thereof;

3. When the alleged reduction is, in fact, a savings in that it is from the list price of a manufacturer other than the owner of the brand name appearing on the tube being sold.

(3) Nothing in this section applies to any television or sound radio broadcasting station or any publisher or printer of a newspaper, magazine, or other form of printed advertising who broadcasts, publishes, or prints such advertising.

(4) Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 65-464; s. 882, ch. 71-136.

817.561 Violations may be enjoined.—In addition to the punishments provided herein, the state attorneys of the various judicial circuits throughout the state are vested with authority and power to invoke the jurisdiction of courts of equity within their respective judicial circuits to enjoin or obtain other equitable relief against persons violating the provisions of ss. 817.06, 817.061, 817.38-817.44, and 817.55. The prevailing party shall receive court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, to be deposited in or paid from the general fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-233; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

817.562 Fraud involving a security interest.—

(1) As used in this section, the terms "proceeds," "security agreement," "security interest," and "secured party" shall be given the meanings prescribed for them in chapter 679.

(2) A person is guilty of fraud involving a security interest when, having executed a security agreement creating a security interest in personal property, including accounts receivable, which security interest secures a monetary obligation owed to a secured party, and:

(a) Having under the security agreement both the right of sale or other disposition of the property and the duty to account to the secured party for the proceeds of disposition, he sells or otherwise disposes of the property and wrongfully and willfully fails to account to the secured party for the proceeds of disposition; or

(b) Having under the security agreement no right of sale or other disposition of the property, he knowingly secretes, withholds, or disposes of such property in violation of the security agreement.

(3) Any person who knowingly violates this section shall be punished as follows:

(a) If the value of the property sold, secreted, withheld, or disposed of or the proceeds from the sale or disposition of the property is $100 or more, such person is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) If the value of the property sold, secreted, withheld, or disposed of or the proceeds obtained from the sale or disposition of the property is less than $100, such person is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

817.57 Short title.—Part II of this chapter shall be known and may be cited as the 1967 "State Credit Card Crime Act."

History.—s. 13, ch. 67-340.

817.58 Definitions.—As used in ss. 817.57-817.68:

(1) "Cardholder" means the person or organization named on the face of a credit card to whom or for whose benefit the credit card is issued by an issuer.

(2) "Credit card" means any instrument or device, whether known as a credit card, credit plate or by any other name, issued with or without fee by an issuer for the use of the cardholder in obtaining money, goods, services, or anything else of value on credit.

(3) "Expired credit card" means a credit card which is no longer valid because the term shown on it has elapsed.

(4) "Issuer" means the business organization or financial institution, or its duly authorized agent, which issues a credit card.

(5) "Receives" or "receiving" means acquiring possession or control or accepting as security for a loan a credit card.

(6) "Revoked credit card" means a credit card which is no longer valid because permission to use it has been suspended or terminated by the issuer.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-340.

817.59 False statement as to financial condition or identity.—A person who makes or causes to be made, either directly or indirectly, any false statement as to a material fact in writing, knowing it to be false and with intent that it be relied on respecting his identity or that of any other person, firm, or corporation or his financial condition or that of any other person, firm, or corporation, for the purpose of procuring the issuance of a credit card, violates this section and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1).

History.—s. 2, ch. 67-340.

817.60 Theft; obtaining credit card through fraudulent means.—

(1) THEFT BY TAKING OR RETAINING POSSESSION OF CARD TAKEN.—A person who takes a credit card from the person, possession, custody, or control of another without the cardholder's consent or who, with knowledge that it has been so taken, receives the credit card with intent to use it, to sell it or to transfer it to a person other than the issuer or the cardholder is guilty of credit card theft and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1). Taking a credit card without consent includes obtaining it by conduct defined or known as statutory larceny, common law larceny by trespassory taking, common law larceny by trick or embezzlement or obtaining property by false pretense, false promise or extortion.

(2) THEFT OF CREDIT CARD LOST, MISLAID OR DELIVERED BY MISTAKE.—A person who receives a credit card that he knows to have been lost, mislaid, or delivered under a mistake as to the identity or address of the cardholder and who retains possession with intent to use it, to sell it or to transfer it to a person other than the issuer or the cardholder is guilty of credit card theft and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1).

(3) PURCHASE OR SALE OF CREDIT CARD OF ANOTHER.—A person other than the issuer who sells a credit card or a person who buys a credit card from a person other than the issuer violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1).

(4) OBTAINING CONTROL OF CREDIT CARD AS SECURITY FOR DEBT.—A person who, with intent to defraud the issuer, a person or organization providing money, goods, services, or anything else of value or any other person, obtains control over a credit card as security for debt violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1).

(5) DEALING IN CREDIT CARDS OF ANOTHER.—A person other than the issuer who, during any 12-month period receives two or more credit cards issued in the name or names of different cardholders, which he has reason to know were taken or retained under circumstances which constitute credit card theft or a violation of this part violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(2).

(6) FORGERY OF CREDIT CARD.—

(a) A person who, with intent to defraud a purported issuer or a person or organization providing money, goods, services, or anything else of value or any other person, falsely makes or falsely embosses a purported credit card or utters such a credit card is guilty of credit card forgery and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(2).

(b) A person other than the purported issuer who possesses two or more credit cards which are falsely made or falsely embossed is presumed to have violated this subsection.

(c) A person falsely makes a credit card when he makes or draws in whole or in part a device or instrument which purports to be the credit card of a named issuer but which is not such a credit card because the issuer did not authorize the making or drawing, or alters a credit card which was validly issued.

(d) A person falsely embosses a credit card when, without the authorization of the named issuer, he completes a credit card by adding any of the matter, other than the signature of the cardholder, which an issuer requires to appear on the credit card before it can be used by a cardholder.

(7) SIGNING CREDIT CARD OF ANOTHER.—A person other than the cardholder or a person authorized by him who, with intent to defraud the issuer or a person or organization providing money, goods, services, or anything else of value or any other person, signs a credit card violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1).

History.—s. 3, ch. 67-340.

817.61 Fraudulent use of credit cards.—A person who, with intent to defraud the issuer or a person or organization providing money, goods, services or anything else of value or any other person, uses, for the purpose of obtaining money, goods, services, or anything else of value, a credit card obtained or retained in violation of this part or a credit card which he knows is forged, expired or revoked or who obtains money, goods, services or anything else of value by representing, without the consent of the cardholder, that he is the holder of a specified card or by representing that he is the holder of a card and such card has not in fact been issued, violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1), if the value of all money, goods, services, and other things of value obtained in violation of this subsection does not exceed $100 in any 6-month period. The violator is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(2), if such value does exceed $100 in any 6-month period. Knowledge of revocation shall be presumed to have been received by a cardholder 4 days after it has been mailed to him at the address set forth on the credit card or at his last known address by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and, if the address is more than 500 miles from the place of mailing, by air mail. If the address is located outside the United States, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Canal Zone or Canada, notice shall be presumed to have been received 10 days after mailing by registered or certified mail.

History.—s. 4, ch. 67-340.

817.62 Fraud by person authorized to provide goods or services.—

(1) ILLEGALLY OBTAINED OR ILLEGALLY POSSESSED CREDIT CARD; FORGED, REVOKED, OR EXPIRED CREDIT CARD.—A person who is authorized by an issuer to furnish money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card by the cardholder or any agent or employees of such person who, with intent to defraud the issuer or the cardholder, furnishes money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card obtained or retained in violation of this part or a credit card which he knows is forged, expired or revoked violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1), if the value of all money, goods, services, and other things of value furnished in violation of this subsection does not exceed $100 in any 6-month period. The violator is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(2), if such value does exceed $100 in any 6-month period.

(2) MISREPRESENTATION TO ISSUER.—A person who is authorized by an issuer to furnish money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of a credit card by the cardholder or any agent or employee of such person who, with intent to defraud the issuer or the cardholder, fails to furnish money, goods, services, or anything else of value which he represents in writing to the issuer that he has furnished, violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1), if the difference between the value of all money, goods, services, and anything else of value actually furnished and the value represented to the issuer to have been furnished does not exceed $500 in any 6-month period. The violator is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(2), if such difference does exceed $500 in any 6-month period.

History.—s. 5, ch. 67-340.

817.63 Possession of machinery, plates or other contrivance or incomplete credit cards.—

A person other than the cardholder possessing two or more incomplete credit cards with intent to complete them without the consent of the issuer or a person possessing with knowledge of its character any machinery, plates or any other contrivance designed to reproduce instruments purporting to be the credit cards of an issuer who has not consented to the preparation of such credit cards, violates this subsection and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(2). A credit card is incomplete if part of the matter other than the signature of the cardholder, which an issuer requires to appear on the credit card before it can be used by a cardholder, has not yet been stamped, embossed, imprinted, or written on it.

History.—s. 6, ch. 67-340.

817.64 Receipt of money, etc., obtained by fraudulent use of credit cards.—A person who receives money, goods, services, or anything else of value obtained in violation of s. 817.61, knowing or believing that it was so obtained, violates this section and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1). A person who obtains at a discount price a ticket issued by an airline, railroad, steamship, or other transportation company which was acquired in violation of s. 817.61 without reasonable inquiry to ascertain that the person from whom it was obtained had a legal right to possess it shall be presumed to know that such ticket was acquired under circumstances constituting a violation of s. 817.61.

History.—s. 7, ch. 67-340.

817.645 Alteration of credit card invoice; penalties.—Whoever, with intent to defraud any person, falsely alters any invoice for money, goods, services, or anything else of value obtained by use of a credit card after it has been signed by the cardholder or a person authorized by him violates this section and is subject to the penalties set forth in s. 817.67(1).

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-127.

817.65 Defenses not available.—In any prosecution for violation of this part, the state is not required to establish and it is no defense that a person, other than the defendant, who violated this part has not been convicted, apprehended or identified.

History.—s. 8, ch. 67-340.

817.66 Presumptions.—When this part establishes a presumption with respect to any fact which is an element of a crime, it has the following consequences:

(1) When there is sufficient evidence of the facts which give rise to the presumption to go to the jury, the issue of the existence of the presumed fact must be submitted to the jury, unless the court is satisfied that the evidence as a whole clearly negatives the presumed fact; and

(2) When the issue of the existence of the presumed fact is submitted to the jury, the court shall charge that while the presumed fact must, on all the evidence, be proved beyond a reasonable doubt, the law declares that the jury may regard the facts giving rise to the presumption as sufficient evidence of the presumed fact.

History.—s. 9, ch. 67-340.

817.67 Penalties.—

(1) A person who is subject to the penalties of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) A person who is subject to the penalties of this subsection shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 10, ch. 67-340; s. 883, ch. 71-136.

817.68 Part II not exclusive.—This part II shall not be construed to preclude the applicability of any other provision of the criminal law of this state which presently applies or may in the future apply to any transaction which violates this part, unless such provision is inconsistent with the terms of this part.

History.—s. 11, ch. 67-340.

CHAPTER 818

SALE OF MORTGAGED PERSONAL PROPERTY; SIMILAR OFFENSES

- 818.01 Disposing of personal property under lien, etc.
 818.02 Executing mortgage on personalty without notifying mortgagee of prior mortgages.
 818.03 Removing such property beyond the limits of county.
 818.04 Selling collateral security before debt due.
 818.05 Sale, etc., of property held under contract or conditional sale; penalty.

818.01 Disposing of personal property under lien, etc.—

(1) Whoever shall pledge, mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of any personal property to him belonging, or which shall be in his possession, and which shall be subject to any written lien, or which shall be subject to any statutory lien, whether written or not, or which shall be the subject of any written conditional sale contract under which the title is retained by the vendor, without the written consent of the person holding such lien, or retaining such title; and whoever shall remove or cause to be removed beyond the limits of the county where such lien was created or such conditional sale contract was entered into, any such property, without the consent aforesaid, or shall hide, conceal or transfer, such property with intent to defeat, hinder or delay the enforcement of such lien, or the recovery of such property by the vendor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) It shall be prima facie evidence of concealing, selling, or disposing of such personal property whenever the person owning the property at the time the lien was created, or who bought the same under such retained title contract, fails or refuses to produce such property for inspection within the county where the lien was created, or the property delivered, upon demand of the person having such lien, or retaining such title, after the debt secured by such lien has become enforceable, or the vendee has substantially defaulted in the performance of such retained title contract.

cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

s. 713.69 Removing property subject to lien of hotel, etc.

818.02 Executing mortgage on personalty without notifying mortgagee of prior mortgages.—Whoever executes a second or subsequent mortgage of personal property and receives money or thing of value therein without first notifying the second or subsequent mortgagee of the existence of the prior mortgage or mortgages, whether the same be recorded or not, and of the amount of such prior indebtedness, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 5708, 1907; RGS 5203; CGL 7317; s. 888, ch. 71-136.

818.03 Removing such property beyond the limits of county.—Whoever shall knowingly and without the written consent of the person having such a lien thereon, as mentioned in s. 818.01, buy, take, receive or remove or cause to be removed beyond the limits of the county, any personal property subject to such lien from the owner or any person in possession thereof, and whoever shall willfully conceal such property or obstruct, delay or hinder such lienholder in prosecuting his rights against any of such property, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 56, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2477; s. 2, ch. 4142, 1893; GS 3357, RGS 5204; CGL 7318; s. 889, ch. 71-136.

818.04 Selling collateral security before debt due.—Whoever holding any collateral security deposited with him for the payment of a debt which may be due him sells, pledges, loans or in any way disposes of the same, as his own, before such debt becomes due and payable, and without the authority of the person depositing the same, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 59, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2478; GS 3358; RGS 5205; CGL 7319; s. 890, ch. 71-136.

818.05 Sale, etc., of property held under contract or conditional sale; penalty.—

(1) No person who is in possession of any personal property under and by virtue of any contract or conditional sale or otherwise where the title to said personal property does not vest in the possessor, shall sell, conceal or dispose of such personal property without first having the written consent of the person then having or retaining the bona fide title to such personal property so to sell, dispose of, or conceal the same.

(2) Any person who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

s. 533.06 Permitting escape of mine waste or debris.

823.02 Building bonfires.—Whoever is concerned in causing or making a bonfire within 10 rods of any house or building shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 12, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2705; GS 3681; RGS 5625; CGL 7818; s. 933, ch. 71-136; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.04 Diseased animals.—It is unlawful for any person to bring into this state or to offer for sale therein any horses, mules, cattle, hogs, or other domestic animals, knowing at the time of such introduction or offering for sale of any such animals that they are suffering from disease known as glanders, farcy, cholera, Texas fever, or other virulent, contagious, or infectious diseases; and any person convicted of such offense shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4351, 1895; GS 3692; RGS 5637; CGL 7830; s. 935, ch. 71-136; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.041 Disposal of bodies of dead animals; penalty.—

(1) Any owner, custodian, or person in charge of domestic animals, upon the death of such animals due to disease, shall dispose of the carcasses of such animals by burning or burying at least 2 feet below the surface of the ground; provided, however, nothing in this section shall prohibit the disposal of such animal carcasses to rendering companies licensed to do business in this state.

(2) It is unlawful to dispose of the carcass of any domestic animal by dumping such carcass on any public road or right-of-way, or in any place where such carcass can be devoured by beast or bird.

(3) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(4) For the purposes of this act, the words "domestic animal" shall include any equine or bovine animal, goat, sheep, swine, dog, cat, poultry, or other domesticated beast or bird.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 61-359; s. 936, ch. 71-136; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.05 Places declared a nuisance; may be abated and enjoined.—Whoever shall erect, establish, continue, or maintain, own or lease any building, booth, tent or place which tends to annoy the community or injure the health of the community, or become manifestly injurious to the morals or manners of the people as described in s. 823.01, or shall be frequented by the class of persons mentioned in s. 856.02, or any house or place of prostitution, assignation, lewdness or place or building where games of chance are engaged in violation of law or any place where any law of the state is violated, shall be deemed guilty of maintaining a nuisance, and the building, erection, place, tent or booth and the furniture, fixtures and contents are declared a nuisance. All such places or persons shall be abated or enjoined as provided in ss. 60.05 and 60.06.

History.—s. 1, ch. 7367, 1917; RGS 5639; CGL 7832; s. 24, ch. 57-1; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

Ch. 796 Prostitution.

823.06 Doors of public buildings to open outward.—All buildings erected in this state for theatrical, operatic, or other public entertainments of whatsoever kind shall be so constructed that the shutters to all entrances to said building shall open outwardly and be so arranged as to readily allow any person inside said building to escape therefrom in case of fire or other accident. Any owner, manager, lessee, or other person having charge of any public building for the use expressed herein who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 3, ch. 4053, 1891; GS 3694; RGS 5640; CGL 7834; s. 937, ch. 71-136; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.07 Iceboxes, refrigerators, deep-freeze lockers, clothes washers, clothes dryers, or airtight units; abandonment, discard.—

(1) The purpose of ss. 823.07-823.09 is to prevent deaths due to suffocation of children locked in abandoned or discarded iceboxes, refrigerators, deep-freeze lockers, clothes washers, clothes dryers, or similar airtight units from which the doors have not been removed.

(2) It is unlawful for any person knowingly to abandon or discard or to permit to be abandoned or discarded on premises under his control any icebox, refrigerator, deep-freeze locker, clothes washer, clothes dryer, or similar airtight unit having an interior storage capacity of 1½ cubic feet or more from which the door has not been removed.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to an icebox, refrigerator, deep-freeze locker, clothes washer, clothes dryer, or similar airtight unit which is crated or is securely locked from the outside or is in the normal use on the premises of a home, or rental unit, or is held for sale or use in a place of business; provided, however, that "place of business" as used herein shall not be deemed to include a junkyard or other similar establishment dealing in secondhand merchandise for sale on open unprotected premises.

(4) It shall be unlawful for any junkyard dealer or secondhand furniture dealer with unenclosed premises used for display of secondhand iceboxes, refrigerators, deep-freeze lockers, clothes washers, clothes dryers, or similar airtight units to fail to remove the doors on such secondhand units having an interior storage capacity of 1½ cubic feet or more from which the door has not been removed. This section will not apply to any dealer who has fenced and locked his premises.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 29707, 1955; s. 1, ch. 67-135; s. 1, ch. 71-116; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.08 Iceboxes, refrigerators, deep-freeze lockers, clothes washers, clothes dryers, or similar airtight units abandoned or discarded; attractive nuisance.—Abandoned or discarded iceboxes, refrigerators, deep-freeze lockers, clothes washers, clothes dryers, or similar airtight units from which the doors have not been removed are declared to be an attractive nuisance to children and a menace to their health and safety when accessible to them whether or not such children are trespassers.

History.—s. 3, ch. 29707, 1955; s. 1, ch. 67-135; s. 2, ch. 71-116; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.09 Same; penalty.—Any person violating any provision of s. 823.07, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided, however, that in the event death of a minor child or permanent physical or mental injury to a minor child results from willful and wanton misconduct amounting to culpable negligence on the part of the person committing such violation, then such person shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 4, ch. 29707, 1955; s. 1, ch. 67-135; s. 938, ch. 71-136; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.10 Places where controlled substances are illegally kept, sold, or used, declared a public nuisance.—Any store, shop, warehouse, dwelling house, building, vehicle, ship, boat, vessel, aircraft, or any place whatever, which is visited by persons for the purpose of unlawfully using any substance controlled under chapter 893 or any drugs as described in chapter 500, or which is used for the illegal keeping, selling, or delivering of the same, shall be deemed a public nuisance. No person shall keep or maintain such public nuisance or aid and abet another in keeping or maintaining such public nuisance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-364; s. 29, ch. 73-331; s. 66, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-24; s. 41, ch. 75-298.

823.11 Abandoned and derelict vessels; removal; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to store or leave any vessel as defined by maritime law in a wrecked, junked, or substantially dismantled condition or abandoned upon or in any public water or at any port in this state without the consent of the agency having jurisdiction thereof, or docked at any private property without the consent of the owner of such property.

(2) The Department of Natural Resources, Division of Marine Resources, is hereby designated as the agency of the state authorized and empowered to remove or cause to be removed any abandoned or derelict vessel from public waters in any instance when the same obstructs or threatens to obstruct navigation or in any way constitutes a danger to the environment. All costs incurred by the department in the removal of any abandoned or derelict vessel as set out above shall be recoverable against the owner thereof.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation violating this act is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree and shall be punished as provided by law.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 73-207.

823.12 Smoking in elevators unlawful.—It is unlawful for any person to ignite any flame or to smoke any type of tobacco product or other substance while entering or occupying an elevator. Violation of the provisions of this section is a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-115.

cf.—s. 399.07 Certificates in elevators informing public that smoking in elevators is unlawful.

823.13 Places where obscene materials are illegally kept, sold, or used declared a public nuisance; drive-in theaters, films visible from public streets or public places.—

(1) Any store, shop, warehouse, building, vehicle, ship, boat, vessel, aircraft, or any place whatever, which is visited by persons for the purpose of unlawfully purchasing or viewing any obscene material or performance as described in chapter 847, or which is used for the illegal keeping, selling, or delivering of the same, shall be deemed a public nuisance. No person shall keep or maintain such public nuisance or aid and abet another in keeping or maintaining such public nuisance.

(2) It shall be unlawful and is hereby declared a public nuisance for any ticket seller, ticket taker, usher, motion picture projection machine operator, manager, owner, or any other person connected with or employed by any drive-in theater in the state to knowingly exhibit, or aid or assist in exhibiting, any motion picture, slide, or other exhibit which depicts nudity which is harmful to minors as described in s. 847.013, if such motion picture, slide, or other exhibit is visible from any public street or public place, other than that place intended for the showing of such motion pictures, slides, or other exhibits.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-172.

823.14 Commercial agricultural or farming operations.—No commercial agricultural or farming operation, place, establishment, or facility, or any of its appurtenances, or the operation thereof, shall be or shall become a nuisance as a result of changed conditions in or around the locality of such agricultural or farming operation, place, establishment, or facility if such agricultural or farming operation, place, establishment, or facility has been in operation for 1 year or more and if it was not a nuisance at the time it began operation. This section, however, shall not apply whenever a nuisance injurious to health, as defined in chapter 386, results from the operation of any such agricultural or farming operation, place, establishment, or facility or any of its appurtenances.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-61.

CHAPTER 826

BIGAMY; INCEST

826.01 Bigamy; punishment.

826.02 Exceptions.

826.03 Knowingly marrying husband or wife of another.

826.04 Incest.

826.01 Bigamy; punishment.—Whoever, having a husband or wife living, marries another person shall, except in the cases mentioned in s. 826.02, be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 4, sub-ch. 8, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2603; GS 3526; RGS 5416; CGL 7559; s. 775, ch. 71-136; s. 44, ch. 74-383; s. 30, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 799.01.

826.02 Exceptions.—The provisions of s. 826.01 shall not extend to any person:

(1) Who reasonably believes that the prior spouse is dead.

(2) Whose prior spouse has voluntarily deserted him and remained absent for the space of 3 years continuously, the party marrying again not knowing the other to be living within that time.

(3) Whose bonds of matrimony have been dissolved.

(4) Who violates its provisions because a domestic or foreign court has entered an invalid judgment purporting to terminate or annul the prior marriage and the defendant does not know that judgment to be invalid.

(5) Who reasonably believes that he is legally eligible to remarry.

History.—s. 5, sub-ch. 8, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2604; s. 1, ch. 4963, 1901; GS 3527; RGS 5417; CGL 7560; s. 1, ch. 73-300; s. 45, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 799.02.

826.03 Knowingly marrying husband or wife of another.—Whoever knowingly marries the husband or wife of another person, knowing him or her to be the spouse of another person, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 39, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2605; GS 3528; RGS 5418; CGL 7561; s. 776, ch. 71-136; s. 46, ch. 74-383; s. 30, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 799.03.

826.04 Incest.—Whoever knowingly marries or has sexual intercourse with a person to whom he is related by lineal consanguinity, or a brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece, commits incest, which constitutes a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. "Sexual intercourse" is the penetration of the female sex organ by the male sex organ, however slight; emission of semen is not required.

History.—s. 47, ch. 74-383; s. 30, ch. 75-298.

CHAPTER 827

ABUSE OF CHILDREN OR DISABLED PERSONS

- 827.01 Definitions.
- 827.03 Aggravated child abuse.
- 827.04 Child abuse.
- 827.05 Negligent treatment of children.
- 827.06 Persistent nonsupport.
- 827.07 Abuse or neglect of children.
- 827.08 Misuse of child support money.
- 827.09 Abuse of disabled persons; reports; penalties.

827.01 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Child" means any person under the age of 18 years.

(2) "Placement" means the giving or transferring of possession or custody of a child by any person to another person for adoption or with the intent or purpose of surrendering the control of the child.

(3) "Torture" means every act, omission, or neglect whereby unnecessary or unjustifiable pain or suffering is caused.

History.—s. 48, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

827.03 Aggravated child abuse.—Whoever:

- (1) Commits aggravated battery on a child;
- (2) Willfully tortures a child;
- (3) Maliciously punishes a child; or
- (4) Willfully and unlawfully cages a child shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4721, 1899; s. 1, ch. 4971, 1901; GS 3236, 3238; RGS 5069, 5071; s. 1, ch. 9331, 1923; CGL 7171, 7173; s. 1, ch. 65-113; s. 1, ch. 70-8; s. 940, ch. 71-136; s. 49, ch. 74-383; s. 30, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 828.04.
cf.—s. 450.151 Hiring and employing children.

827.04 Child abuse.—

(1) Whoever, willfully or by culpable negligence, deprives a child of, or allows a child to be deprived of, necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical treatment, or who, knowingly or by culpable negligence, permits physical or mental injury to the child, and in so doing causes great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to such child, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Whoever, willfully or by culpable negligence, deprives a child of, or allows a child to be deprived of, necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical treatment, or who, knowingly or by culpable negligence, permits physical or mental injury to the child, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Any person who commits any act which thereby causes or tends to cause or encourage any person under the age of 18 years to become a delinquent or dependent child, as defined under the laws of Florida, or which contributes thereto, or any person who shall, by act, threats, commands, or persuasion, induce or endeavor to induce any person under the age of 18 years to do or to perform any act, to follow any course of conduct, or so to live, as would cause or tend to cause such person under the age of 18 years to become or to remain a dependent or delinquent child, as defined under the laws of this state, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. It shall not be necessary for any court exercising juvenile jurisdiction to make an adjudication that any child is delinquent or dependent in order to prosecute a parent or any other person under this section. An adjudication that a child is delinquent or dependent shall not preclude a subsequent prosecution of a parent or any other person who contributes to the delinquency or dependency of the child.

History.—s. 50, ch. 74-383; s. 30, ch. 75-298; s. 1, ch. 77-73; s. 1, ch. 77-429.

827.05 Negligent treatment of children.—

Whoever, though financially able, negligently deprives a child of, or allows a child to be deprived of, necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical treatment or permits a child to live in an environment, when such deprivation or environment causes the child's physical or emotional health to be significantly impaired or to be in danger of being significantly impaired shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 65-113; s. 942, ch. 71-136; s. 51, ch. 74-383; s. 30, ch. 75-298; s. 2, ch. 77-429.

Note.—Former s. 828.042.

827.06 Persistent nonsupport.—

(1) Any person who, after notice, fails to provide support which he is able to provide to children or spouse whom he knows he is legally obligated to support, and over whom no court has jurisdiction in any proceedings for child support or dissolution of marriage, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Prior to commencing prosecution under this section, the State Attorney must advise the person responsible for support by certified mail, return receipt requested, that a prosecution under this section will be commenced against him unless he makes such delinquent support payments or provides a satisfactory explanation as to why he has not made such payments.

History.—s. 52, ch. 74-383; s. 31, ch. 75-298.

cf.—s. 1.01 Defines "registered mail" to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

827.07 Abuse or neglect of children.—

(1) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—The intent of this section is to provide for comprehensive protective services for abused<sup>1</sup> or neglected children found in the state by requiring that reports of each abused<sup>1</sup> or neglected child be made to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in an effort to prevent further harm to the child or any other children living in the home and to preserve the family life of the parents and children, to the maximum extent possible, by enhancing the parental capacity for adequate child care.

(2) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Child" means any person under the age of 18 years.

(b) "Child abuse 'or neglect'" means harm or threatened harm to a child's physical or mental health or welfare by the acts or omissions of the parent or other person responsible for the child's welfare.

(c) "Abused or neglected child" means a child whose physical or mental health or welfare is harmed, or threatened with harm, by the acts or omissions of the parent or other person responsible for the child's welfare.

(d) "Harm" to a child's health or welfare can occur when the parent or other person responsible for the child's welfare:

1. Inflicts, or allows to be inflicted, upon the child physical or mental injury, including injury sustained as a result of excessive corporal punishment;

2. Commits, or allows to be committed, sexual battery, as defined in chapter 794, against the child;

3. Exploits a child, or allows a child to be exploited, for pornographic purposes as provided in ss. 847.014 and 450.151, or for prostitution;

4. Abandons the child;

5. Fails to provide the child with supervision or guardianship by specific acts or omissions of a serious nature requiring the intervention of the department or the court; or

6. Fails to supply the child with adequate food, clothing, shelter, or health care, although financially able to do so or although offered financial or other means to do so; however, a parent or other person responsible for the child's welfare legitimately practicing his religious beliefs, who by reason thereof does not provide specified medical treatment for a child, shall not be considered abusive or neglectful for that reason alone, but such an exception shall not:

a. Eliminate the requirement that such a case be reported to the department;

b. Prevent the department from investigating such a case; or

c. Preclude a court from ordering, when the health of the child requires it, the provision of medical services by a physician, as defined herein, or treatment by a duly accredited practitioner who relies solely on spiritual means for healing in accordance with the tenets and practices of a well-recognized church or religious organization.

(e) "Other person responsible for a child's welfare" includes the child's legal guardian, legal custodian, or foster parent; an employee of a public or private child day care center, residential home, institution, or agency; or any other person legally responsible for the child's welfare in a residential setting.

(f) "Physical injury" means death, permanent or temporary disfigurement, or impairment of any bodily part.

(g) "Mental injury" means an injury to the intellectual or psychological capacity of a child as evidenced by a discernible and substantial impairment in his ability to function within his normal range of performance and behavior, with due regard to his culture.

(h) "Physician" means any licensed physician, dentist, podiatrist, or optometrist and <sup>2</sup>includes any intern or resident.

(i) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(j) "Unfounded report" means a report made pursuant to this section when an investigation determines that no indication of abuse or neglect exists.

(k) "Indicated report" means a report made pursuant to this section when a child protective investigation determines that some indication of abuse or neglect exists.

(l) "Institutional child abuse 'or neglect'" means situations of known or suspected child abuse or neglect in which the person allegedly perpetrating the child abuse or neglect is an employee of a public or private day care center, residential home, institution, or agency responsible for the child's care.

(3) REPORTS OF CHILD ABUSE OR NEGLECT REQUIRED.—Any person, including, but not limited to, any:

(a) Physician, osteopath, medical examiner, chiropractor, nurse, or hospital personnel engaged in the admission, examination, care, or treatment of persons;

(b) Health or mental health professional other than one listed in paragraph (a);

(c) Practitioner who relies solely on spiritual means for healing;

(d) School teacher or other school official or personnel;

(e) Social worker, day care center worker, or other professional child care, foster care, residential, or institutional worker; or

(f) Law enforcement officer, who knows, or has reasonable cause to suspect, that a child is an abused or neglected child shall report such knowledge or suspicion to the department in the manner prescribed in subsection (9).

(4) MANDATORY REPORTING OF DEATH AND POSTMORTEM INVESTIGATION BY MEDICAL EXAMINER.—Any person required to report or investigate cases of suspected child abuse or neglect who has reasonable cause to suspect that a child died as a result of child abuse or neglect shall report his suspicion to the appropriate medical examiner. The medical examiner shall accept the report for investigation pursuant to s. 406.11 and shall report his findings, in writing, to the local law enforcement agency, the appropriate state attorney, and the department. Autopsy reports maintained by the medical examiner shall not be subject to the confidentiality requirements provided for in this section.

(5) PHOTOGRAPHS, MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS, AND X RAYS.—Any person required to investigate cases of suspected child abuse or neglect may take or cause to be taken photographs of the areas of trauma visible on a child who is the subject of a report and, if the areas of trauma visible on a child indicate a need for a medical examination, may cause the child to be referred for diagnosis to a licensed physician or an emergency department in a hospital without the consent of the child's parents, legal guardian, or legal custodian. Any licensed physician who has reasonable cause to suspect that an injury was the result of child abuse may authorize a radiological examination to be performed on the child without the consent of the child's parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian. The county in which the child is a resident shall bear the initial costs of the examination of the allegedly abused child; however, the parents, legal guardian, or legal custodian of the child shall be required to reimburse the county for the costs of such examination and to reimburse the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for the cost of the photographs taken pursuant to this subsection. Any photograph or report on examinations made or X rays taken pursuant to this subsection, or copies thereof, shall be sent to the department as soon as possible.

(6) PROTECTIVE CUSTODY.—A law enforcement officer or authorized agent of the department may take a child into custody as provided in chapter 39. Any person in charge of a hospital or similar institution or any physician treating a child may keep that child in his custody without the consent of the parents, legal guardian, or legal custodian, whether or not additional medical treatment is required, if the circumstances are such, or if the condition of the child is such, that continuing the child in the child's place of residence or in the care or custody of the parents, legal guardian, or legal custodian presents an imminent danger to the child's life or physical or mental health. Any person taking a child into protective custody shall immediately notify the department, whereupon the department shall immediately begin a child protective investigation in accordance with the provisions of subsection (10) and shall make every reasonable effort to immediately notify the parents, legal guardian, or legal custodian that such child has been taken into protective custody. If the department determines, according to the criteria set forth in s. 39.402, that the child should remain in protective custody longer than 24 hours, it shall petition the court for an order authorizing such custody in the same manner as if the child were placed in a shelter. The department shall attempt to avoid the placement of a child in an institution whenever possible.

(7) IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.—Any person, official, or institution participating in good faith in any act authorized or required by this section shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability which might otherwise result by reason of such action.

(8) ABROGATION OF PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS.—The privileged quality of communication between husband and wife and between any professional person and his patient or client, and any other privileged communication except that between attorney and client, as such communication relates both to the competency of the witness and to the exclusion of confidential communications, shall not apply to any situation involving known or suspected child abuse or neglect and shall not constitute grounds for failure to report as required by this section, failure to cooperate with the department in its activities pursuant to this section, or failure to give evidence in any judicial proceeding relating to child abuse or neglect.

(9) INITIAL REPORTING PROCEDURE.—

(a) Each report of known or suspected child abuse or neglect pursuant to this section shall be made immediately to the department's abuse registry on the single statewide tollfree telephone number or directly to the local office of the department responsible for investigation of reports made pursuant to this section.

(b) Each report made by a person in an occupation designated in subsection (3) shall be confirmed in writing to the local office of the department within 48 hours of the initial report.

(c) Reports involving known or suspected institutional child abuse or neglect shall be made and received in the same manner as all other reports made pursuant to this section.

(10) CHILD PROTECTIVE INVESTIGATIONS.—

(a) The department shall be capable of receiving and investigating reports of known or suspected child abuse or neglect 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. If it appears that the immediate safety or well-being of a child is endangered, that the family may flee or the child will be unavailable for purposes of conducting a child protective investigation, or that the facts otherwise so warrant, the department shall commence an investigation immediately, regardless of the time of day or night. In all other child abuse or neglect cases, a child protective investigation shall be commenced within 24 hours of receipt of the report.

(b) For each report it receives, the department shall perform an onsite child protective investigation to:

1. Determine the composition of the family or household, including the name, address, age, sex, and race of each child named in the report; any siblings or other children in the same household or in the care of the same adults; the parents or other persons responsible for the child's welfare; and any other adults in the same household.

2. Determine whether there is indication that any child in the family or household is abused or neglected, including a determination of harm or threatened harm to each child; the nature and extent of present or prior injuries, abuse, or neglect, and any evidence thereof; and a determination as to the person or persons apparently responsible for the abuse or neglect.

3. Determine the immediate and long-term risk to each child if the child remains in the existing home environment.

4. Determine the protective, treatment, and ameliorative services necessary to safeguard and ensure the child's well-being and development and, if possible, to preserve and stabilize family life.

(c) The department may develop and coordinate one or more multidisciplinary child protection teams in each of the department's service districts. The department may convene such teams when necessary to assist in its diagnostic, assessment, service, and coordination responsibilities. Members of the team may include representatives of appropriate health, mental health, social service, legal service, and law enforcement agencies.

(d) If the department is denied reasonable access to a child by the parents or other persons responsible for the child's welfare and the department deems that the best interests of the child so require, it shall seek an appropriate court order or other legal authority to examine and interview the child.

(e) If the department determines that a child requires immediate or long-term protection through:

1. Medical or other health care;
2. Homemaker care, day care, protective supervision, or other services to stabilize the home environment; or
3. Foster care, shelter care, or other substitute care to remove the child from his parents' custody, such services shall first be offered for the voluntary acceptance of the parents or other person responsible for the child's welfare, who shall be informed of the right to refuse services as well as the department's responsibility to protect the child regardless of the acceptance or refusal of services. If the services are refused or the department deems that the child's need for protection so requires, the department shall take the child into protective custody or petition the court as provided in chapter 39.

(f) No later than 30 days after receiving the initial report, the local office of the department shall complete its investigation, determine whether the reported abuse was indicated or unfounded, and report its findings to the department's abuse registry.

(g) Immediately upon receipt of a report alleging, or immediately upon learning during the course of an investigation, that:

1. A child died as a result of abuse or neglect;
2. A child is a victim of aggravated child abuse as defined in s. 827.03;
3. A child received an observable injury as a result of child abuse or neglect; or
4. A child is a victim of sexual battery, the department shall orally notify the appropriate state attorney and may notify the appropriate law enforcement agency in order that they may begin a criminal investigation concurrent with the agency's child protective investigation. The department shall make a full written report to the state attorney within 3 days of the oral report. The department may notify the state attorney or law enforcement agency of any other child abuse or neglect case in which a criminal investigation is deemed appropriate by the department.

(11) RESPONSIBILITIES OF PUBLIC AGENCIES.—

(a) The department shall:

1. Have prime responsibility for strengthening and improving child abuse and neglect prevention and treatment efforts.
2. Seek and encourage the development of improved or additional programs and activities, the assumption of prevention and treatment responsibilities by additional agencies and organizations, and the coordination of existing programs and activities.
3. To the fullest extent possible, cooperate with and seek cooperation of all appropriate public and private agencies, including health, education, social services, and law enforcement agencies, and courts, organizations, or programs providing or concerned with human services related to the prevention, identification, or treatment of child abuse or neglect.

4. Provide ongoing protective, treatment, and ameliorative services to, and on behalf of, children in need of protection to safeguard and ensure their well-being and, whenever possible, to preserve and stabilize family life.

(b) All state, county, and local agencies have a duty to give such cooperation, assistance, and information to the department as will enable it to fulfill its responsibilities under this section.

(12) EDUCATION AND TRAINING.—The department shall, within available appropriations, conduct a continuing publicity and education program for district staff and officials required to report and any other appropriate persons to encourage the fullest degree of reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect. The program shall include, but not be limited to, information concerning the responsibilities, obligations, and powers provided under this chapter; the methods for diagnosis of child abuse or neglect; and the procedures of the child protective service program, the circuit court, and other duly authorized agencies. In developing training programs for district staff, the department shall place emphasis on preservice and inservice training for single intake, protective services, and foster care staff which would include skills in diagnosis and treatment of child abuse and neglect and procedures of the child protective system and judicial process.

(13) ABUSE REGISTRY.—

(a) The department shall establish and maintain a central abuse registry which shall receive reports made pursuant to this section in writing or through a single statewide tollfree telephone number which any person may use to report known or suspected child abuse or neglect at any hour of the day or night, any day of the week. The abuse registry shall be operated in such a manner as to enable the department to:

1. Immediately identify and locate prior reports or cases of child abuse or neglect.

2. Regularly evaluate the effectiveness of the department's program for abused and neglected children through the development and analysis of statistical and other information.

(b) Upon receiving an oral or written report of known or suspected child abuse or neglect, the abuse registry shall immediately notify the local office of the department with respect to the report, any previous report concerning a subject of the present report, or any other pertinent information relative thereto.

(c) Upon completion of its investigation, the local office of the department shall classify reports as indicated or unfounded. All identifying information in the abuse registry maintained in unfounded reports shall be expunged immediately. All identifying information in the abuse registry maintained in indicated reports shall be expunged from the registry 7 years from the date of the last indicated report concerning the same child, siblings, or the same perpetrator. All information, other than identifying information, maintained in indicated or unfounded reports at the time of expunction shall be disposed of in a manner deemed appropriate by the department and pursuant to ss. 119.041 and s. 267.051(6). Nothing in this section is intended to require the expunc-tion or destruction of case records or information required by the Federal Government to be retained for future audit.

(14) REPORTS OF INSTITUTIONAL CHILD ABUSE OR NEGLECT.—The department shall conduct a child protective investigation of each report of institutional child abuse<sup>1</sup> or neglect. Upon receipt of a report which alleges that an employee or agent of the department acting in an official capacity, including, but not limited to, a foster parent, has committed an act of child abuse or neglect, the department shall immediately initiate a child protective investigation and notify the state attorney in whose circuit the alleged child abuse or neglect occurred. The state attorney shall immediately investigate the report and, no later than 15 days after completing the investigation, shall report his findings to the department.

(15) CONFIDENTIALITY OF REPORTS AND RECORDS.—

(a) In order to protect the rights of the child and his parents or other persons responsible for the child's welfare, all records concerning reports of child abuse<sup>1</sup> or neglect, including reports made to the abuse registry and to local offices of the department and all records generated as a result of such reports, shall be confidential and exempt from the provisions of s. 119.07(1), and shall not be disclosed except as specifically authorized by this section.

(b) Access to such records, excluding the name of the reporter which shall be released only as provided in paragraph (e), shall be granted only to the following persons, officials, and agencies for the following purposes:

1. Employees or agents of the department responsible for carrying out child protective investigations, ongoing child protective services, or licensure or approval of adoptive homes, foster homes, or other homes used for the care of children.

2. A law enforcement agency investigating a report of known or suspected child abuse or neglect.

3. The state attorney of the judicial circuit in which the child resides or in which the alleged abuse or neglect occurred.

4. Any child, parent, or perpetrator who is the subject of a report or the subject's guardian, custodian, guardian ad litem, or counsel.

5. A court, by subpoena, upon its finding that access to such records may be necessary for the determination of an issue before the court; however, such access shall be limited to in camera inspection, unless the court determines that public disclosure of the information contained therein is necessary for the resolution of an issue then pending before it.

6. A grand jury, by subpoena, upon its determination that access to such records is necessary in the conduct of its official business.

7. Any appropriate official of the department responsible for:

a. Administration or supervision of the department's program for the prevention, investigation, or treatment of child abuse or neglect when carrying out his official function; or

b. Taking appropriate administrative action concerning an employee of the department alleged to have perpetrated institutional child abuse or neglect.

8. Any person engaged in bona fide research or audit purposes. However, no information identifying the subjects of the report shall be made available to the researcher unless such information is absolutely essential to the research purpose, suitable provision is made to maintain the confidentiality of the data, and the department has given written approval.

(c) The department may release to professional persons such information as is necessary for the diagnosis and treatment of the child or the person perpetrating the abuse.

(d) The department shall, with the written consent of a person applying to a licensed child-placing agency for the adoption of a child or for licensure as a foster home, search its abuse registry for the existence of an indicated report and advise the licensed child-placing agency of any such report found and the results of the investigation conducted pursuant thereto.

(e) The name of any person reporting child abuse<sup>1</sup> or neglect shall in no case be released to any person other than employees of the department responsible for child protective services, the abuse registry, or the appropriate state attorney without the written consent of the person reporting. This shall not prohibit the subpoenaing of a person reporting child abuse or neglect when deemed necessary by the state attorney or the department to protect a child who is the subject of a report, provided that the fact that such person made the report is not disclosed.

(16) GUARDIAN AD LITEM.—A guardian ad litem shall be appointed by the court to represent the child in any child abuse or neglect judicial proceeding. Any person participating in a judicial proceeding resulting from such appointment shall be presumed prima facie to be acting in good faith and in so doing shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might be incurred or imposed. In those cases in which the parents are financially able, the parent or parents of the child shall reimburse the court, in part or in whole, for the cost of provision of guardian ad litem services. Reimbursement to the individual providing guardian ad litem services shall not be contingent upon successful collection by the court from the parent or parents.

(17) RULES.—The department shall, by October 1, 1979, promulgate rules in furtherance of the purpose of this section and may amend such rules as may be necessary.

(18) PENALTIES.—

(a) Any person required by this section to report known or suspected child abuse or neglect who knowingly and willfully fails to do so, or who knowingly and willfully prevents another person from doing so, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) Any person who knowingly and willfully makes public or discloses any confidential information contained in the abuse registry or in the records of any child abuse or neglect case, except as provided in this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 63-24; s. 941, ch. 71-136; ss. 1, 1A, ch. 71-97; s. 32, ch. 73-334; s. 65, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 75-101; s. 1, ch. 75-185; s. 4, ch. 76-237; s. 1, ch. 77-77; s. 3, ch. 77-429; ss. 1, 2, ch. 78-322; s. 3, ch. 78-326; s. 22, ch. 78-361; s. 1, ch. 78-379; s. 181, ch. 79-164; s. 1, ch. 79-203.

Note.—Former s. 828.041.

827.08 Misuse of child support money.—Any person who willfully misapplies funds paid by another or by any governmental agency for the purpose of support of a child shall, for the first offense, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and for a second or subsequent conviction under this section, be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. A person shall be deemed to have misapplied child support funds when such funds are spent for any purpose other than for necessary and proper home, food, clothing, and the necessities of life, which expenditure results in depriving the child of the above named necessities. All public welfare agencies shall give notice of the provisions of this section at least once to each payee of any public grant made for the benefit of any child and shall report violations of this section to the proper prosecuting officer.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-216; s. 956, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 828.201.

827.09 Abuse of disabled persons; reports; penalties.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Disabled person" means any person who suffers from a condition of mental retardation, epilepsy, cerebral palsy, mental illness, or other disability which causes the person to be substantially unable to protect himself from the abusive conduct of others.

(b) "Abuse" and "maltreatment" mean neglect, malnutrition, physical or psychological injury inflicted other than by accidental means, and failure to provide necessary treatment, habilitation, care, sustenance, clothing, shelter, supervision, or medical services.

(c) "Abused person" means any disabled person who has been subjected to abuse or whose condition suggests that he has been abused.

(d) "Facility" means any public or private hospital, training center, clinic, school, or other program or service for disabled persons.

(e) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this section is to provide for the detection and correction of the abuse or maltreatment of disabled persons whose health and welfare are adversely affected or further threatened by the abusive conduct of others. It is intended that the mandatory reporting of such cases will cause the protective services of the state to be brought to bear in an effort to prevent further abuse and to protect and enhance the welfare of disabled persons.

(3) REPORTS OF ABUSE.—

(a) Any person, including, but not limited to, any physician, psychologist, nurse, teacher, social worker, employee of a public or private facility serving disabled persons, or parent of such disabled person, who has reason to believe that a disabled person has been subjected to abuse shall report, or cause reports to be made, to the department. When the attendance of any person with respect to a disabled person is pursuant to the performance of services as a member of a staff of a hospital, training center, clinic, school, or similar facility, he shall also notify the person in charge of the facility or his designated delegate, who shall also report or cause reports to be made in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Every facility serving disabled persons shall inform residents of their right to report abusive practices and shall establish appropriate policies and procedures to facilitate such reporting.

(4) CONDITIONS PRELIMINARY TO SUBMISSION OF THE REPORT.—

(a) In consideration of physical injury, the following items shall be considered evidence of maltreatment before the report is required:

1. Characteristic distribution of fractures.
2. Disproportionate amount of soft tissue injury.
3. Evidence that injuries occurred at different times or are in different stages of resolution.
4. Cause of recent trauma in question.
5. Family or facility history.
6. History of previous episodes.
7. No new lesions occurring during the abused person's hospitalization or removal from custody of parent, custodian, or facility.

(b) In consideration of abusive conduct in facilities for the disabled, in addition to those items enumerated in paragraph (a), the following items shall be considered evidence of maltreatment before the report is required:

1. Cruel and unusual disciplinary practices and procedures, including, but not limited to, corporal punishment, seclusion or excessive "time out" procedures, unnecessary or excessive medication, and unnecessary or excessive use of physical restraints.
2. Evidence of inappropriate or harmful program, habilitation, or treatment.
3. Cause of the recent abusive conduct in question.
4. Individual or facility history.
5. Evidence of degrading and dehumanizing practices and procedures.

(5) NATURE AND CONTENT OF REPORT.—

An oral report shall be made immediately by telephone or otherwise to the department, followed as soon thereafter as possible by a report in writing. Such reports shall contain, if known, the names and addresses of the disabled person and his parents or other persons responsible for his care, other disabled persons threatened by abusive conduct, the abused person's age, the nature and extent of his disability, the nature and extent of the injuries, and any other information that the reporter believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the injuries, abuse, or maltreatment and the identity of the perpetrator.

ate investigation to be made and shall in turn, upon determining probable cause, notify the state attorney. The department shall, within 24 hours of receipt of the report, notify the appropriate human rights advocacy committee, as established pursuant to s. 20.19(7), that an alleged abuse has occurred. Such notice may be accomplished verbally or in writing and shall include the name of the person alleged to have been abused and the nature of the report. All state, county, and local agencies have a duty to cooperate fully with the department, transmit reports of abuse to the department, and protect and enhance the welfare of abused disabled persons and disabled persons potentially subject to abuse detected by a report made pursuant to this section.

(7) CENTRAL REGISTRY.—Reports of abuse shall be recorded in the central registry established and maintained by the department as required by s. 827.07, dealing with abuse of children. The registry shall contain information as to the name of the abused disabled person and the members of the family or other persons responsible for his care, the facts of the investigation, and the result of the investigation. The information contained in the registry shall not be open to inspection by the public. However, appropriate disclosure may be made for use in connection with the treatment of the abused person or the person perpetrating abuse and to counsel representing either person in any criminal or civil proceeding. Appropriate disclosure may also be made for use in connection with the hiring or employment of persons to serve disabled persons. In addition, information contained in the registry may be available for purposes of research relating to the abuse of disabled persons. The department shall make such information available upon application by a researcher or research agency of professional repute provided the need for the records has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the department. Records shall not be opened under this provision unless adequate assurances are given that names and other information identifying disabled persons will not be disclosed by the applicant.

(8) TRANSMITTAL OF RECORDS.—With respect to any case of reported abuse of a disabled person, the department when appropriate shall transmit all reports received by it, which shall contain the results of the investigation, to the state attorney of the county where the incident occurred.

(9) IMMUNITY.—Anyone participating in the making of a report pursuant to this section or participating in a judicial proceeding resulting therefrom shall be presumed prima facie to be acting in good faith and in so doing shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might be incurred or imposed. Also, no resident or employee of a facility serving disabled persons shall be subjected to reprisal or discharge because of his actions in reporting abuse pursuant to the requirements of this section.

(10) PRIVILEGES.—The physician-patient privilege, husband-wife privilege, or any privilege, except the attorney-client privilege, provided for or covered by law, both as it relates to the competency of a witness and to the exclusion of confidential communications, shall not pertain in any civil or criminal litigation in which the abuse or maltreatment of a disabled person is an issue or in any judicial proceedings resulting from a report submitted pursuant to this section.

(11) PENALTIES.—Anyone knowingly and willfully violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1-11, ch. 73-176; s. 1, ch. 77-174; ss. 3, 5, ch. 79-287; s. 15, ch. 79-298.

Note.—Section 5, ch. 79-287, provides that, if subsections (6) and (7) of s. 20.19 are repealed in accordance with the intent expressed in the Sundown Act, it is the intent of the Legislature that ch. 79-287 shall also be repealed on the same date as is therein provided.

Note.—Former s. 828.043.

828.02 Definition of "animal."—In this chapter, and in every law of the state relating to or in any way affecting animals, the word "animal" shall be held to include every living dumb creature; the words "torture," "torment," and "cruelty" shall be held to include every act, omission, or neglect whereby unnecessary or unjustifiable pain or suffering is caused, except when done in the interest of medical science, permitted, or allowed to continue when there is reasonable remedy or relief; and the words "owner" and "person" shall be held to include corporations, and the knowledge and acts of agents and employees of corporations in regard to animals transported, owned, employed by or in the custody of a corporation, shall be held to be the knowledge and act of such corporation.

828.03 Agents of counties, societies, etc., may prosecute violators.—

(1) Any county or any society or association for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, organized under the laws of this state, may appoint agents for the purpose of investigating violations of any of the provisions of this chapter or any other law of the state for the purpose of protecting children and animals or preventing any act of cruelty thereto.

(2) All appointments of such agents by such societies or corporations must have the approval of the mayor of the city in which the society or association exists, and if the society or association exists or works outside of any city, the appointment must be approved by the county court judge or the judge of the circuit court for the county, and the mayor or judge shall keep a record of such appointment. The approval of the appointment of any agent by a county for either the incorporated or unincorporated areas of such county shall be by the county commission.

828.05 Killing an animal when useless.—In case any horse, mule, ox, cow, or other domestic animal shall be so injured or diseased as to be utterly useless, and of no value to the owner, and is in a suffering condition, and it shall appear by the certificate of a veterinary surgeon that such animal cannot be cured or rendered fit for service, the city or town marshal or chief of police shall, upon the application of the officers of any society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, cause such animal to be immediately killed.

History.—s. 2, ch. 4151, 1893; GS 3159; RGS 4985; CGL 7074.

828.073 Animals found in distress; when agent may take charge; hearing; disposition; sale.—

(1) The purpose of this section is to provide a means by which a neglected or mistreated animal can be removed from its present custody and given protection and an appropriate and humane disposition made.

(2) Any law enforcement officer or any agent of any county or of any society or association for the prevention of cruelty to animals appointed under the provisions of s. 828.03 may lawfully take custody of any animal found neglected or cruelly treated and shall forthwith petition the county court judge of the county wherein the animal is found for a hearing, to be set within 30 days from the date of seizure of the animal and held not more than 15 days after the setting of such date, to determine whether the owner, if known, is able to provide adequately for the animal and is fit to have custody of the animal. No fee shall be charged for the filing of the petition. Nothing herein is intended to require court action for the taking into custody and making proper disposition of stray or abandoned animals as lawfully performed by animal-control agents.

(3) The officer or agent of any county or of any society or association for the prevention of cruelty to animals taking charge of any animal pursuant to the provisions of this section shall have written notice served, at least 5 days prior to the hearing set forth in subsection (2), upon the owner of the animal, if he is known and is residing in the county where the animal was taken, in conformance with the provisions of chapter 48 relating to service of process. The sheriff of the county shall not charge a fee for service of such notice. If the owner of the animal is known but is residing outside of the county wherein the animal was taken, notice of the hearing shall be by publication in conformance with the provisions of chapter 49.

(4)(a) The officer or agent of any county or of any society or association for the prevention of cruelty to animals taking charge of an animal as provided for in this section shall provide for the animal until the owner is adjudged by the court to be able to provide adequately for, and have custody of, the animal, in which case the animal shall be returned to the owner, upon payment by the owner for the care and provision for the animal while in the agent's or officer's custody.

(b) Upon the court's judgment that the owner of the animal is unable or unfit to adequately provide for the animal:

1. The court shall order the animal to be sold by the sheriff at public auction, and shall provide in its order that the current owner shall have no further custody of the animal and that any animal not bid upon shall be remanded to the custody of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, the Humane Society, the county, or any agency or person the judge deems appropriate, to be disposed of as the agency or person sees fit; or

2. The court may order the animal destroyed or remanded directly to the custody of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, the Humane Society, the county, or any agency or person the judge deems appropriate, to be disposed of as the agency or person sees fit, upon the testimony of the agent who took custody of the animal, or upon the testimony of other qualified witnesses, that the animal requires destruction or other disposition for humanitarian reasons or is of no commercial value.

(5) In determining the person's fitness to have custody of an animal under the provisions of this act, the court may consider, among other matters:

(a) Testimony from the agent or officer who seized the animal and other witnesses as to the condition of the animal when seized.

(b) Testimony from any witnesses as to prior treatment or condition of this or other animals in the same custody.

(c) The owner's past record of judgments under the provisions of this chapter.

(d) Convictions under the statutes prohibiting cruelty to animals.

(e) Any other evidence the court considers to be material or relevant.

(6) In any case in which an animal is offered for auction under the provisions of this section, the proceeds shall be:

(a) Applied, first, to the cost of the sale.

(b) Applied, secondly, to the care and provision for the animal by the officer or agent of any county or of any society or association for the prevention of cruelty to animals taking charge.

(c) Applied, thirdly, to the payment of the owner for the sale of the animal.

(d) Paid over to the court if the owner is not known.

828.12 Cruelty to animals.—Whoever unnecessarily overloads, overdrives, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance or shelter, or unnecessarily or cruelly beats, mutilates, or kills any animal, or causes the same to be done, or carries in or upon any vehicle, or otherwise, any animal in a cruel or inhuman manner, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 4971, 1901; GS 3395; RGS 5244; CGL 7363; s. 2, ch. 70-50; s. 4, ch. 71-12; s. 949, ch. 71-136.

828.121 Conduct of simulated bullfighting exhibitions.—It shall be unlawful, and punishable as a misdemeanor, for any person to conduct or engage in a simulated or bloodless bullfighting exhibition.

History.—s. 3, ch. 71-12.

828.122 Fighting or baiting animals; penalties.—

(1) This act shall be known and may be cited as "The Animal Fighting Act of 1976."

(2) As used in this section:

(a) "Animal" means any bull, bear, or dog.

(b) "Baiting" means to attack with violence, to provoke, or to harass an animal with one or more animals, for the purpose of training an animal for, or to cause an animal to engage in, fights with or among other animals.

(c) "Person" means every natural person, firm, copartnership, association, or corporation.

(3) Any person who commits any of the following acts shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or by a fine not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000, or both:

(a) Baiting, or using any animal for the purpose of fighting or baiting any other animal;

(b) Knowingly owning, managing, or operating any facility kept or used for the purpose of fighting or baiting any animal; or

(c) Promoting, staging, advertising, or charging any admission fee to a fight or baiting between two or more animals.

(4) Any person who willfully commits any of the following acts shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, or by a fine not less than $500 and not more than $1,000, or both:

(a) Betting or wagering any money or other valuable consideration on the fighting or baiting of animals; or

(b) Attending the fighting or baiting of animals.

(5) Whenever an indictment is returned or an information is filed charging a violation of s. 828.12 of this section and, in the case of an information, a magistrate finds probable cause that a violation has occurred, the court shall order the animals seized and held until final disposition of the charges and shall provide for appropriate and humane care or disposition of the animals. This provision shall not be construed as a limitation on the power to seize animals as evidence at the time of arrest. If the animal is unable to humanely survive the final disposition of the charges, the court may order termination of the animal's life. Upon conviction of the persons charged, the animals involved shall become the property of the state, and the court shall order a humane disposition of them.

(6) The provisions of subsection (3) and paragraph (4)(b) shall not apply to:

(a) Any person simulating a fight for the purpose of using the simulated fight as part of a motion picture which will be used on television or in a motion picture, provided s. 828.12 is not violated.

(b) Any person using animals to pursue or take wildlife or to participate in any hunting as regulated or subject to being regulated by the rules and regulations of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

(c) Any person using animals to work livestock for agricultural purposes.

(d) Any person using animals to train greyhounds for legalized racing, if not otherwise prohibited by law.

(e) Any person violating s. 828.121.

(f) Any person using animals to hunt wild hogs or to retrieve domestic hogs.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 76-59.

828.13 Confinement of animals without sufficient food.—Whoever impounds or confines any animal in any place and fails to supply the same during such confinement with a sufficient quantity of good and wholesome food and water, or who keeps any animals in any enclosure without wholesome exercise and change of air, or who feeds cows on food that produces impure or unwholesome milk, or abandons to die any animal that is maimed, sick, infirm, or diseased, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 2, 4, ch. 3921, 1889; RS 2510; GS 3396; RGS 5245; CGL 7364; s. 950, ch. 71-136.

828.14 Water and food for stock on trains, vessels, etc.—

(1) No person or corporation, or agent of either, engaged in transporting livestock on railway trains or on steam or sailing vessels, or otherwise, shall detain such stock for a longer continuous period than 28 hours after the same are so placed without supplying the same with necessary food, water, and attention, or shall permit them to be crowded so as to overlie, crush, wound, or kill each other; and any person or agent as aforesaid violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and any corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

(2) Nothing in this section shall apply to owners, officers, or crew of water craft detained on the navigable waters of this state by storms and prevented by bad weather from reaching port.

History.—s. 6, ch. 4971, 1901; GS 3397; RGS 5246; CGL 7365; s. 951, ch. 71-136.

s. 352.35 Violations of regulations as to transporting livestock.

828.15 Sections 828.12, 828.13, 828.14 not to apply to poultry shipped.—Nothing in ss. 828.12, 828.13, and 828.14 shall be construed to apply to poultry shipped on steamboats or other craft.

History.—s. 4, ch. 3921, 1889; RS 2512; GS 3398; RGS 5247; CGL 7366.

828.16 Contagious diseases.—Whoever, being the owner, or having the charge of any animal, knowing the same to have any contagious or infectious disease, or to have been recently exposed thereto, sells, barter, or disposes of such animal without first disclosing to the person to whom the same is sold, bartered, or disposed of, that such animal is so diseased, or has been exposed, as aforesaid, or knowingly permits such animal to run at large, or knowingly allows the same to come into contact with any such animal of another person without his knowledge or permission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

828.161 Prohibiting artificial coloring and sale of certain animals and fowls; construction.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to dye or color artificially any animal or fowl, including but not limited to rabbits, baby chickens, and ducklings, or to bring any dyed or colored animal or fowl into this state.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or give away as merchandising premiums, baby chickens, ducklings, or other fowl under 4 weeks of age or rabbits under 2 months of age to be used as pets, toys or retail premiums.

(3) This section shall not be construed to apply to any animal or fowl, including but not limited to rabbits, baby chickens, and ducklings to be used or raised for agricultural purposes by persons with proper facilities to care for them or for poultry or livestock exhibitions.

(4) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-177; s. 953, ch. 71-136.

828.17 Officer to arrest without warrant.—Any sheriff or any other peace officer of the state, or any police officer of any city or town of the state, shall arrest without warrant any person found violating any of the provisions of ss. 828.04, 828.08, 828.12, and 828.13-828.16, and the officer making the arrest shall hold the offender until a warrant can be procured, and he shall use proper diligence to procure such warrant.

History.—s. 15, ch. 4971, 1901; GS 3401; RGS 5250; CGL 7369; s. 1, ch. 28060, 1953; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

cf.—s. 901.15 When arrest without warrant is lawful.

828.22 Humane slaughter requirement.—

(1) The Legislature of this state finds that the use of humane methods in the slaughter of livestock prevents needless suffering, results in safer and better working conditions for persons engaged in the slaughtering industry, brings about improvement of products and economy in slaughtering operations, and produces other benefits for producers, processors, and consumers which tend to expedite the orderly flow of livestock and their products.

(2) It is therefore declared to be the policy of this state to require that the slaughter of all livestock and the handling of livestock in connection with slaughter shall be carried out only by humane methods and to provide that methods of slaughter shall conform generally to those employed in other states where humane slaughter is required by law and to those authorized by the Federal Humane Slaughter Act of 1958, and regulations thereunder.

(3) Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit, abridge, or in any way hinder the religious freedom of any person or group. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, in order to protect freedom of religion, ritual slaughter and the handling or other preparation of livestock for ritual slaughter are exempted from the terms of this act. For the purposes of this action the term "ritual slaughter" means slaughter in accordance with s. 828.23(7)(b).

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-254.

828.23 Definitions.—As used in ss. 828.22 to 828.26, the following words shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.

(2) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, or association doing business in this state, in whole or in part.

(3) "Slaughterer" means any person regularly engaged in the commercial slaughtering of livestock.

(4) "Livestock" means cattle, calves, sheep, swine, horses, mules, goats, and any other animal which can or may be used in and for the preparation of meat or meat products.

(5) "Packer" means any person engaged in the business of slaughtering, or of manufacturing or preparing meat or meat products for sale, either by such person or others; or of manufacturing or preparing livestock products for sale by such person or others.

(6) "Stockyard" means any place, establishment, or facility commonly known as a stockyard, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other enclosures, and their appurtenances, for the handling, keeping, and holding of livestock for the purpose of sale or shipment.

(7) "Humane method" means either:

(a) A method whereby the animal is rendered insensible to pain by mechanical, electrical, chemical, or other means that are rapid and effective, before being shackled, hoisted, thrown, cast, or cut; or

(b) A method in accordance with ritual requirements of any religious faith whereby the animal suffers loss of consciousness by anemia of the brain caused by the simultaneous and instantaneous severance of the carotid arteries with a sharp instrument.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-254; ss. 14, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 282, ch. 71-377.

828.24 Prohibited acts; exemption.—

(1) No slaughterer, packer, or stockyard operator shall shackle, hoist, or otherwise bring livestock into position for slaughter, by any method which shall cause injury or pain.

(2) No slaughterer, packer, or stockyard operator shall bleed or slaughter any livestock except by a humane method.

(3) This act shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation slaughtering or processing for sale within the state not more than 20 head of cattle nor more than 35 head of hogs per week.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-254; ss. 14, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 241, ch. 77-104.

828.25 Administration; rules and regulations; inspection; fees.—

(1) The department shall administer the provisions of this act. It shall promulgate and may from time to time revise rules and regulations which shall conform substantially to the rules and regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States pursuant to the Federal Humane Slaughter Act of 1958, Pub. L. No. 85-765, 72 Stat. 862 and any amendments thereto; provided, however, that the use of a manually operated hammer, sledge or poleax is declared to be an inhumane method of slaughter within the meaning of this act.

(2) The department may appoint any member of its staff as an official inspector for the purposes of this act. Such inspector shall have the power to enter the premises of any slaughterer for the purposes of verifying compliance or noncompliance with the provisions of this act.

(3) As soon as practicable after October 1, 1961, an inspection shall be made of the premises of each slaughterer. Additional inspections shall be made not less frequently than quarterly. No fee shall be charged for such inspection.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-254; ss. 14, 35, ch. 69-106.

828.26 Penalty.—

(1) No slaughterer found by the department in accordance with the above not to be in compliance with the provisions of this act shall sell any meat or meat products to any public agency in the state, or to any institution supported by state, county, or municipal funds. Failure to comply with this provision shall be a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

(2) Upon failure to be in compliance with the provisions of this act after a period of 1 year from the date of the first inspection required under s. 828.25, the department shall direct the slaughterer to cease slaughtering livestock. Failure to comply with this directive shall be a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083, and constituting a separate offense for each day of continued slaughtering operations beyond the first week following mailing of such directive to the slaughterer by the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-254; ss. 14, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 958, ch. 71-136.

831.03 Forging or counterfeiting private labels.—Whoever, knowingly and willfully, forges or counterfeits, or causes or procures to be forged or counterfeited upon any goods, wares or merchandise, the private label, stamps or trademark of any mechanic or manufacturer, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, without disclosing the fact to the purchaser, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3621, 1885; RS 2481; GS 3361; RGS 5209; CGL 7327; s. 961, ch. 71-136.

cf.—Ch. 506 Stamped or marked boxes or bottles.

831.04 Penalty for changing or forging certain instruments of writing.—

(1) Any person making any erasure, alteration, interlineation or interpolation in any writing or instrument mentioned in s. 92.28, and made admissible in evidence, with the fraudulent intent to change the same in any substantial manner after the same has once been made, shall be guilty of the crime of forgery, which, for the purposes of this section, constitutes a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Any person who may be in the business of making writings or written entries, maps or plats concerning or relating to lands or real estate, in any county in this state to which said sections apply, and of furnishing to persons applying therefor abstracts or copies of such writing or written entries, maps or plats as aforesaid, for a fee, reward or compensation therefor, and shall make the same with an alteration or interpolation in any matter of substance, with fraudulent intent to alter or change the same in any material manner or matter of substance, shall be guilty of the crime of forgery, and shall be punished as provided in subsection (1).

831.05 Vending goods with counterfeit labels.—Whoever vends any goods, wares or merchandise having thereon a forged or counterfeit stamp, label or trademark of any mechanic or manufacturer, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited, without disclosing the fact to the purchaser, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

831.07 Forging bank bills or promissory notes.—Whoever falsely makes, alters, forges or counterfeits a bank bill or promissory note payable to the bearer thereof, or to the order of any person, issued by an incorporated banking company established in this state, or within the United States, or any foreign province, state or government, with intent to injure any person, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2485; GS 3366; RGS 5214; CGL 7332; s. 964, ch. 71-136.

831.08 Having forged notes, etc., in possession.—Whoever has in his possession 10 or more similar false, altered, forged or counterfeit notes, bills of credit, bank bills or notes, such as are mentioned in any of the preceding sections of this chapter, payable to the bearer thereof or to the order of any person, knowing the same to be false, altered, forged or counterfeited, with intent to utter and pass the same as true, and thereby to injure or defraud any person, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 5, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2486; GS 3367; RGS 5215; CGL 7333; s. 965, ch. 71-136.

831.09 Uttering forged bills.—Whoever utters or passes or tenders in payment as true, any such false, altered, forged or counterfeit note, or any bank bill or promissory note, payable to the bearer thereof or to the order of any person, issued as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false, altered, forged or counterfeited, with intent to injure or defraud any person, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2487; GS 3368; RGS 5216; CGL 7334; s. 966, ch. 71-136.

831.10 Second conviction of uttering forged bills.—Whoever, having been convicted of the offense mentioned in s. 831.09 is again convicted of the like offense committed after the former conviction, and whoever is at the same term of the court convicted upon three distinct charges of such offense, shall be deemed a common utterer of counterfeit bills, and shall be punished as provided in s. 775.084.

History.—s. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2488; GS 3369; RGS 5217; CGL 7335; s. 967, ch. 71-136.

831.11 Bringing into the state forged bank bills.—Whoever brings into this state or has in his possession a false, forged or counterfeit bill or note in the similitude of the bills or notes payable to the bearer thereof or to the order of any person issued by or for any bank or banking company established in this state, or within the United States, or any foreign province, state or government, with intent to utter and pass the same or to render the same current as true, knowing the same to be false, forged or counterfeited, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 8, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2489; GS 3370; RGS 5218; CGL 7336; s. 968, ch. 71-136.

831.12 Fraudulently connecting parts of genuine instrument.—Whoever fraudulently connects together parts of several banknotes or other genuine instruments in such a manner as to produce one additional note or instrument, with intent to pass all of them as genuine, shall be deemed guilty of forgery in like manner as if each of them had been falsely made or forged.

History.—s. 19, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2490; GS 3371; RGS 5219; CGL 7337.

831.13 Having in possession uncurrent bills.—Whoever has in his possession at the same time five or more uncurrent bank bills or notes, knowing the same to be worthless, or has papers, not bank bills or notes but made in the similitude of bank bills or notes of any bank which has never existed, knowing the character of such papers, with intent to pass, utter or circulate the same, or to procure any other person to do so, for the purpose of injuring or defrauding, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 22, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2491; GS 3372; RGS 5220; CGL 7338; s. 969, ch. 71-136.

831.14 Uttering uncurrent bills.—Whoever utters, or passes or tenders in payment as true, any such worthless and uncurrent bank bill or note, or any paper not a bank bill or note but made in the similitude of a bank bill or note, or any paper purporting to be the bill or note of any bank which has never existed, knowing the same to be worthless and uncurrent, as aforesaid, with intent to injure and defraud, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 23, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2492; GS 3373; RGS 5221; CGL 7339; s. 970, ch. 71-136.

831.15 Counterfeiting coin; having 10 or more such coins in possession with intent to utter.—Whoever counterfeits any gold, silver, or any metallic money coin, current by law or usage within this state, or has in his possession at the same time 10 or more pieces of false money, or coin counterfeited in the similitude of any gold, silver or metallic coin; current as aforesaid, knowing the same to be false and counterfeit, and with intent to utter or pass the same as true, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 14, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2493; GS 3374; RGS 5222; CGL 7340; s. 971, ch. 71-136.

831.16 Having less than 10 counterfeit coins in possession, with intent to utter.—Whoever has in his possession any number of pieces less than 10 of the counterfeit coin mentioned in the preceding section, knowing the same to be counterfeit, with intent to utter or pass the same as true, or who utters, passes or tenders in payment as true any such counterfeit coin, knowing the same to be false and counterfeit, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding 10 years, or in the county jail not exceeding 12 months, or by fine not exceeding $1,000.

History.—s. 15, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2494; GS 3375; RGS 5223; CGL 7341.

831.17 Having less than 10 counterfeit coins, etc.; second conviction.—Whoever having been convicted of either of the offenses mentioned in the preceding section, is again convicted of either of the same offenses, committed after the former conviction, and whoever is at the same term of the court convicted upon three distinct charges of said offenses, shall be deemed a common utterer of counterfeit coin and punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding 20 years.

History.—s. 16, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2495; GS 3376; RGS 5224; CGL 7342.

831.18 Making instruments for forging bills, etc.—Whoever engraves, makes or amends, or begins to engrave, make or amend, any plate, block, press, or other tool, instrument or implement, or makes or provides any paper or other material, adapted and designed for the making of a false and counterfeit note, certificate, or other bill of credit, purporting to be issued by lawful authority for a debt of this state, or a false or counterfeit note or bill, in the similitude of the notes or bills issued by any bank or banking company established in this state, or within the United States, or in any foreign province, state or government; and whoever has in his possession any such plate or block engraved in any part, or any press or other tool, instrument or any paper or other material adapted and designed as aforesaid, with intent to issue the same, or to cause or permit the same to be used in forging or making any such false and counterfeit certificates, bills or notes, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding 10 years, or by fine not exceeding $1,000.

History.—s. 9, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2496; GS 3377; RGS 5225; CGL 7343.

831.19 Making or having instruments for counterfeiting coin.—Whoever casts, stamps, engraves, makes or amends, or knowingly has in his possession any mould, pattern, die, puncheon, engine, press or other tool or instrument, adapted and designed for coining or making counterfeit coin in the similitude of any gold, silver or metallic coin, current by law or usage in this state, with intent to use or employ the same, or to cause or to permit the same to be used or employed in coining and making any such false and counterfeit coin as aforesaid, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding 10 years, or by fine not exceeding $1,000.

History.—s. 17, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2497; GS 3378; RGS 5226; CGL 7344.

831.20 Counterfeit bills and counterfeiters' tools to be seized.—When false, forged or counterfeit bank bills or notes, or plates, dies or other tools, instruments or implements used by counterfeiters, designed for the forging or making of false or counterfeit notes, coin or bills, or worthless and uncurrent bank bills or notes described in this chapter shall come to the knowledge of any sheriff, police officer or other officer of justice in this state, such officer shall immediately seize and take possession of and deliver the same into the custody of the court having jurisdiction of the offense of counterfeiting in the county, and the court shall, as soon as the ends of justice will permit, cause the same to be destroyed by an officer of the court who shall make return to the court of his doings in the premises.

History.—s. 25, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2498; GS 3379; RGS 5227; CGL 7345; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

831.21 Forging or counterfeiting doctor's certificate of examination.—Whoever falsely makes, alters, forges or counterfeits any doctor's certificate or record of examination to an application for a policy of insurance, or knowing such doctor's certificate or record of examination to be falsely made, altered, forged or counterfeited, shall pass, utter or publish such certificate as true, with intent to injure or defraud any person, shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not exceeding 5 years, or by fine not exceeding $500.

cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

831.22 Damaging bank bills.—Whoever willfully and maliciously cuts, or in any manner damages and impairs the usefulness for circulation of any bank bill or note of any bank in this state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083, but the possession or uttering of a bill so damaged shall not be evidence against the party charged, unless connected with other circumstances tending to prove that the note or bill was damaged by him.

History.—s. 20, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2725; GS 3717; RGS 5700; CGL 7914; s. 972, ch. 71-136.

831.23 Impeding circulation.—Whoever maliciously gathers up or retains or maliciously does any gathering up or retaining any bills or notes of any bank or banking company current by law or usage in this state for the purpose of endangering or impeding the circulation or business of such bank or banking company, or to compel it to do any act whatever out of its usual course of business, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. In the prosecution of any such offense it will not be necessary to set out and describe each bill, but it shall be sufficient to aver and prove any amount of the bills of any bank which has been gathered up or retained.

History.—s. 21, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2726; GS 3718; RGS 5701; CGL 7915; s. 973, ch. 71-136.

831.24 Issuing shop bills similar to bank notes.—Whoever engraves, prints, issues, utters or circulates a shop bill or advertisement in the similitude, form and appearance of a bank bill, on paper similar to paper used for bank bills, with vignettes, figures or decoration used on bank bills, or having the general appearance of a bank bill, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 24, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2727; GS 3719; RGS 5702; CGL 7916; s. 974, ch. 71-136.

831.25 Bringing private bills similar to bank bills into the state.—Whoever brings into this state, with intent to pass the same therein, any bills or notes in the likeness of banknotes, which said bills or notes are or have been issued by private individuals or private unincorporated companies in any or either of the states in the United States, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

831.26 Circulating any substitute for regular currency.—Whoever issues or circulates, or causes to be issued or circulated, or assists in issuing or circulating as a substitute in any respect for the currency recognized by law, any scrip, notes, bills, or any other written, engraved or lithographed paper payable in anything other than money, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3140, 1879; RS 2729; GS 3721; RGS 5704; CGL 7918; s. 976, ch. 71-136; s. 242, ch. 77-104.

831.27 Issuing notes.—Whoever issues any note, bill, order or check, other than foreign bills of exchange and notes or bills of some bank or company incorporated by the laws of this state, or by the laws of the United States, or by the laws of either of the British provinces in North America, with intent that the same shall be circulated as currency, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 18, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2730; GS 3722; RGS 5705; CGL 7919; s. 977, ch. 71-136.

831.29 Making or having instruments and material for counterfeiting operators' or chauffeurs' licenses.—Whoever has control, custody, or possession of any plate, block, press, stone, or other tool, instrument, or implement, or any part thereof, or whoever engraves, makes, or amends, or begins to engrave, make, or amend any plate, block, press, stone, or other tool, instrument, or implement, or whoever brings into the state any such plate, block, press, stone, or other tool, instrument or implement or any part thereof in the similitude of the operators' or chauffeurs' licenses issued by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles or its duly authorized agents or those of any state or jurisdiction which issues licenses recognized in this state for the operation of a motor vehicle, or whoever has control, custody, possession or makes or provides any paper or other material adapted and designed for the making of a false and counterfeit operator's or chauffeur's license purporting to be issued by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles or its duly authorized agents, or those of any state or jurisdiction which issues licenses recognized in this state for the operation of a motor vehicle; or whoever has in his possession, control or custody any such plate or block engraved in any part, or any press or other tool, instrument or any paper or other material adapted and designed as aforesaid, with intent to sell, issue, publish, pass or utter the same or to cause or permit the same to be used in forging or making any such false or counterfeit operator's or chauffeur's license; or whoever prints, photographs or in any manner makes or executes any engraved photograph print or impression by any process whatsoever in the similitude of any such licenses with the intent to sell, issue, publish or utter the same or to cause or permit the same to be used in forging or making any such false and counterfeit operator's or chauffeur's license of this state or any state or jurisdiction which issues licenses recognized in this state for the operation of a motor vehicle shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-278; s. 1, ch. 69-313; ss. 24, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 978, ch. 71-136; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

831.30 Medicinal drugs; fraud in obtaining.—Whoever:

(1) Falsely makes, alters, or forges any prescription, as defined in s. 465.031(2), for a medicinal drug other than a drug controlled by chapter 893;

(2) Knowingly causes such prescription to be falsely made, altered, forged, or counterfeited; or

(3) Passes, utters or publishes such prescription or otherwise knowingly holds out such false or forged prescription as true, with intent to obtain such drug, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. A second or subsequent conviction shall constitute a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 71-331; s. 1, ch. 72-234; s. 30, ch. 73-331.

CHAPTER 832

ISSUING WORTHLESS CHECKS AND DRAFTS

- 832.04 Stopping payment; purchase of farm or grove products.
- 832.041 Stopping payment with intent to defraud.
- 832.05 Knowingly making, issuing, etc., worthless checks, drafts; obtaining property in return for worthless checks, etc.; penalty; duty of drawee; evidence.
- 832.06 Prosecution for worthless checks given tax collector for licenses, etc., relative to motor vehicles and motorboats, etc.; refunds.
- 832.07 Prima facie evidence of intent; identity.

832.04 Stopping payment; purchase of farm or grove products.—

(1) Whoever, with intent to defraud any producer of farm or grove products or product of such products or product shall, in person or by agent, make, draw, utter, deliver, or give to such producer any check, draft or written order for the payment of money upon any bank, person or corporation, and secure from such producer such products or product for or on account of such check, draft or written order, whether such products or product be valued at the amount of such check, draft or written order or at a greater or lesser value, and shall, pursuant to and in furtherance of such intent to defraud, stop payment on such check, draft or written order, shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, if the value of the products or product secured for or on account of such check, draft or written order be $50 or more; and if the value of the products or product secured for or on account of such check, draft or written order be less than $50, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) In all prosecutions under this section, the introduction in evidence of any unpaid and dishonored check, draft or written order for the payment of money upon any bank, person or corporation, bearing the drawee's refusal to pay the same because of payment having been stopped, stamped or written thereon or attached thereto, shall be prima facie evidence of the making or uttering of said check, draft or written order, and of due presentation to the drawee for payment, and of the dishonor thereof, and that the same was properly dishonored because of payment thereof having been stopped by the maker or drawer. And, as against the maker or drawer thereof, the stopping of payment of any such check, draft or written order made, drawn, uttered, delivered, or given to a producer of farm or grove products or product in payment for any such products or product, the possession or control of which shall have been transferred upon faith of payment of such check, draft or written order, whether such products or product be valued at the amount of such check, draft or written order or at a greater or lesser amount, shall be prima facie evidence that such maker or drawer had the above mentioned intent to defraud such producer, if such maker or drawer, or his agent, shall have personally inspected such products or product at or before such transfer of possession or control.

(3) This section shall be taken to be cumulative and shall not be construed to repeal any other statute now in effect.

History.—ss. 1, 2, 4, ch. 26884, 1951; s. 979, ch. 71-136.

832.041 Stopping payment with intent to defraud.—

(1) Whoever, with intent to defraud any person shall, in person or by agent, make, draw, utter, deliver or give any check, draft or written order for the payment of money upon any bank, person or corporation, and secure from such person goods or services for or on account of such check, draft or written order, whether such goods or services be valued at the amount of such check, draft or written order or at a greater or lesser value, and shall, pursuant to and in furtherance of such intent to defraud, stop payment on such check, draft or written order, shall be deemed to be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084, if the value of the goods or services secured for or on account of such check, draft or written order be $50 or more; and if the value of the goods or services secured for or on account of such check, draft or written order be less than $50, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) This section shall be taken to be cumulative and shall not be construed to repeal any other statute now in effect.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 65-413; s. 980, ch. 71-136.

832.05 Knowingly making, issuing, etc., worthless checks, drafts; obtaining property in return for worthless checks, etc.; penalty; duty of drawee; evidence.—

(1) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this section is to remedy the evil of giving checks, drafts, bills of exchange and other orders on a bank without first providing funds in or credit with the depository on which the same are made or drawn to pay and satisfy the same, which tends to create the circulation of worthless checks, drafts, bills of exchange and other orders on banks, bad banking, check kiting and a mischief to trade and commerce.

(2) WORTHLESS CHECKS; PENALTY.—

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to draw, make, utter, issue or deliver to another any check, draft, or other written order on any bank or depository for the payment of money or its equivalent, knowing at the time of the drawing, making, uttering, issuing or delivering such check or draft that the maker or drawer thereof has not sufficient funds on deposit in or credit with such bank or depository with which to pay the same on presentation; provided, that this section shall not apply to any check where the payee or holder knows or has been expressly notified prior to the drawing or uttering of same or has reason to believe that the drawer did not have on deposit or to his credit with the drawee sufficient funds to insure payment as aforesaid, nor shall this section apply to any postdated check.

(b) Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall constitute a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, unless the check, draft or other written order drawn, made, uttered, issued or delivered be in the amount of $50, or its equivalent, or more and the payee or a subsequent holder thereof receives something of value therefor. In that event the violation shall constitute a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) CASHING OR DEPOSITING ITEM; PENALTY.—

(a) It is unlawful for any person, by act or common scheme, to cash or deposit any item, as defined in s. 674.104(1)(g), in any bank or depository with intent to defraud.

(b) Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall constitute a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) OBTAINING PROPERTY IN RETURN FOR WORTHLESS CHECKS, ETC.; PENALTY.—

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to obtain any services, goods, wares or other things of value by means of a check, draft or other written order upon any bank, person, firm or corporation, knowing at the time of the making, drawing, uttering, issuing or delivering of said check or draft that the maker thereof has not sufficient funds on deposit in or credit with such bank or depository with which to pay the same upon presentation, provided however that no crime may be charged in respect to the giving of any such check or draft or other written order where the payee knows or has been expressly notified or has reason to believe that the drawer did not have on deposit or to his credit with the drawee sufficient funds to insure payment thereof.

(b) Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall, if the check, draft or other written order be for an amount less than $50 or its equivalent, constitute a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall, if the check, draft or other written order be in the amount of $50, or its equivalent, or more, constitute a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(5) PAYMENT NO DEFENSE.—Payment of a dishonored check, draft, bill of exchange or other orders shall not constitute a defense or ground for dismissal of charges brought under this section.

(6) CREDIT DEFINED.—The word "credit" as used herein shall be construed to mean an arrangement or understanding with the drawee for the payment of such check, draft, or other written order.

(7) REASON FOR DISHONOR, DUTY OF DRAWEE.—It shall be the duty of the drawee of any check, draft, or other written order, before refusing to pay the same to the holder thereof upon presentation, to cause to be written, printed, or stamped in plain language thereon or attached thereto, the reason for drawee's dishonor or refusal to pay same. In all prosecutions under this section, the introduction in evidence of any unpaid and dishonored check, draft or other written order, having the drawee's refusal to pay stamped or written thereon, or attached thereto, with the reason therefor as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the making or uttering of said check, draft, or other written order, and the due presentation to the drawee for payment and the dishonor thereof, and that the same was properly dishonored for the reasons written, stamped or attached by the drawee on such dishonored checks, draft, or other written orders; and, as against the maker or drawer thereof, the withdrawing from deposit with the drawee named in the check, draft or other written order, the funds on deposit with such drawee necessary to insure payment of said check, draft or other written order upon presentation within a reasonable time after negotiation; or the drawing, making, uttering or delivering of a check, draft or written order, payment of which is refused by the drawee, shall be prima facie evidence of knowledge of insufficient funds in or credit with such drawee; provided, however, if it is determined at the trial in a prosecution hereunder, that the payee of any such check, draft or written order at the time of accepting such check, draft or written order, had knowledge of or reason to believe that the drawer of such check, draft or other written order did not have sufficient funds on deposit in or credit with such drawee, then the payee instituting such criminal prosecution shall be assessed all costs of court incurred in connection with such prosecution.

(8) COSTS.—Where prosecutions are initiated under this section before any committing magistrate, the party applying for the warrant shall be held liable for costs accruing in the event the case is dismissed for want of prosecution. No costs shall be charged to the county in such dismissed cases.

cf.—Ch. 812 Theft, robbery, and related crimes.

832.06 Prosecution for worthless checks given tax collector for licenses, etc., relative to motor vehicles and motorboats, etc.; refunds.—

(1) Whenever any person, firm, or corporation violates the provisions of s. 832.05 by drawing, making, uttering, issuing, or delivering to any county tax collector any check, draft, or other written order on any bank or depository for the payment of money or its equivalent for any tag, title, lien, tax (except ad valorem taxes), penalty, or fee relative to a boat, airplane, or motor vehicle; any occupational license, beverage license, or sales or use tax; or any hunting or fishing license, the county tax collector, after the exercise of due diligence to locate the person, firm, or corporation which drew, made, uttered, issued, or delivered the check, draft, or other written order for the payment of money, or to collect the same by the exercise of due diligence and prudence, shall swear out a complaint in the proper court against the person, firm, or corporation for the issuance of the worthless check or draft. If the state attorney cannot sign the information due to lack of proof, as determined by the state attorney in good faith, for a prima facie case in court, he shall issue a certificate so stating to the tax collector. If payment of the dishonored check, draft, or other written order, together with court costs expended, is not received in full by the county tax collector within 30 days after service of the warrant, 30 days after conviction, or 60 days after the collector swears out the complaint or receives the certificate of the state attorney, whichever is first, the county tax collector shall make a written report to this effect to the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles relative to airplanes and motor vehicles, to the Department of Natural Resources relative to boats, to the Department of Revenue relative to occupational licenses and the sales and use tax, to the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation relative to beverage licenses, or to the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission relative to hunting and fishing licenses, containing a statement of the amount remaining unpaid on the worthless check or draft. If the information is not signed, the certificate of the state attorney is issued, and the written report of the amount remaining unpaid is made, the county tax collector may request the sum be forthwith refunded by the appropriate governmental entity, agency, or department. If a warrant has been issued and served, he shall certify to that effect, together with the court costs and amount remaining unpaid on the check. The county tax collector may request that the sum of money certified by him be forthwith refunded by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Revenue, the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation, or the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission to the county tax collector. Within 30 days after receipt of the request, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Revenue, the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation, or the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, upon being satisfied as to the correctness of the certificate of the tax collector, or the report, shall refund to the county tax collector the sums of money so certified or reported. If any officer of any court issuing the warrant is unable to serve it within 60 days after the issuance and delivery of it to the officer for service, the officer shall make a written return to the county tax collector to this effect. Thereafter, the county tax collector may certify that the warrant has been issued and that service has not been had upon the defendant and further certify the amount of the worthless check or draft and the amount of court costs expended by the county tax collector, and the county tax collector may file the certificate with the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles relative to motor vehicles and airplanes, with the Department of Natural Resources relative to boats, with the Department of Revenue relative to occupational licenses and the sales and use tax, with the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation relative to beverage licenses, or with the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission relative to hunting and fishing licenses, together with a request that the sums of money so certified be forthwith refunded by the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Revenue, the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation, or the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission to the county tax collector, and within 30 days after receipt of the request, the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles, the Department of Natural Resources, the Department of Revenue, the Division of Alcoholic Beverages and Tobacco of the Department of Business Regulation, or the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, upon being satisfied as to the correctness of the certificate, shall refund the sums of money so certified to the county tax collector.

(2) The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed in order to effectively carry out the purposes of this act in the interest of the public.

832.07 Prima facie evidence of intent; identity.—

(1) INTENT.—

(a) In any prosecution or action under this chapter, the making, drawing, uttering, or delivery of a check, draft, or order, payment of which is refused by the drawee because of lack of funds or credit, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud or knowledge of insufficient funds in, or credit with, such bank, banking institution, trust company, or other depository, unless such maker or drawer, or someone for him, shall have paid the holder thereof the amount due thereon, together with a service charge not to exceed $10 or 5 percent of the face amount of the check, whichever is greater, within 7 days after receiving written notice that such check, draft, or order has not been paid to the holder thereof. Notice mailed by certified or registered mail, evidenced by return receipt, to the address printed on the check or given at the time of issuance shall be deemed sufficient and equivalent to notice having been received by the maker or drawer, whether such notice shall be returned undelivered or not. The form of such notice shall be substantially as follows:

"You are hereby notified that a check, numbered ....., issued by you on (date)....., drawn upon (name..... of bank)....., and payable to ....., has been dishonored. Pursuant to Florida law, you have 7 days from receipt of this notice to tender payment of the full amount of such check plus a service charge of $5 or 5 percent of the face amount of the check, whichever is greater, the total amount due being $.....and ..... cents. Unless this amount is paid in full within the time specified above, the holder of such check may turn over the dishonored check and all other available information relating to this incident to the state attorney for criminal prosecution."

Any party holding a worthless check and giving notice in substantially similar form to that provided above shall be immune from civil liability for the giving of such notice and for proceeding under the forms of such notice.

(b) When a check is drawn on a bank in which the maker or drawer has no account, it shall be presumed that such check was issued with intent to defraud, and the notice requirement set forth in this section shall be waived.

(2) IDENTITY.—

(a) In any prosecution or action under the provisions of this chapter, a check, draft, or order for which the information required in paragraph (b) is available at the time of issuance shall constitute prima facie evidence of the identity of the party issuing the check, draft, or order and that such person was a party authorized to draw upon the named account.

(b) To establish this prima facie evidence, the following information regarding the identity of the party presenting the check shall be obtained by the party accepting such check: The full name, residence address, home phone number, business phone number, place of employment, sex, date of birth, height, and race. This information shall be written upon the check.

(c) The information required in paragraph (b) may be provided by either of two methods:

1. Such information may be recorded upon the check itself; or

2. The number of a check-cashing identification card issued by the accepting party may be recorded on the check. Such check-cashing identification card shall be issued only after the information required in paragraph (b) has been placed on file by the accepting party.

(d) In addition to the information required in paragraph (b), the party accepting a check shall witness the signature or endorsement of the party presenting such check, and, as evidence of such, the accepting party shall initial the check.

History.—s. 1, ch. 75-189; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 79-345.

Note.—Although s. 1, ch. 79-345, amended this paragraph to change the maximum service charge from $5 to $10, the form of the notice was not changed.

DEFAMATION; LIBEL; THREATENING LETTERS AND SIMILAR OFFENSES

- 836.01 Punishment for libel.
- 836.02 Must give name of the party written about.
- 836.03 Owner or editor of the paper also guilty.
- 836.04 Defamation.
- 836.05 Threats; extortion.
- 836.06 Punishment for making derogatory statements concerning banks and building and loan associations.
- 836.07 Notice condition precedent to prosecution for libel.
- 836.08 Correction, apology, or retraction by newspaper.
- 836.09 Communicating libelous matter to newspapers; penalty.
- 836.10 Written threats to kill or do bodily injury; punishment.
- 836.11 Publications which tend to expose persons to hatred, contempt or ridicule prohibited.

836.01 Punishment for libel.—Any person convicted of the publication of a libel shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or 775.083.

History.—s. 15, sub-ch. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2418; GS 3256; RGS 5087; CGL 7189; s. 987, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 770.01 Civil action for libel.

836.02 Must give name of the party written about.—

(1) No person shall print, write, publish, circulate or distribute within this state any newspaper, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, or other publication of any character, either written or printed, wherein the alleged immoral acts of any person are stated or pretended to be stated, or wherein it is intimated that any person has been guilty of any immorality, unless such written or printed publication shall in such article publish in full the true name of the person intended to be charged with the commission of such acts of immorality.

(2) Any person convicted of any violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person who shall aid in any way in the writing or printing of any literature in violation of this section shall be punished in the same manner as the principal might be punished upon conviction; provided, nothing in this section shall apply to mechanical employees in printing offices, or to newsboys.

History.—ss. 1, 2, 3, ch. 4733, 1899; GS 3257; RGS 5088; CGL 7190; s. 988, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

836.03 Owner or editor of the paper also guilty.—Any owner, manager, publisher or editor of any newspaper or other publication who permits any anonymous communication or communications such as is signed otherwise than with the true name of the writer, and such name published therewith to appear in the columns of his publication in which said communication any person is attacked in his good name, or it is attempted to bring disgrace or ridicule upon any person, such owner, manager, publisher or editor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 4733, 1899; GS 3258; RGS 5089; CGL 7191; s. 989, ch. 71-136.

836.04 Defamation.—Whoever speaks of and concerning any woman, married or unmarried, falsely and maliciously imputing to her a want of chastity, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3460, 1883; RS 2419; GS 3260; RGS 5091; CGL 7193; s. 990, ch. 71-136.

836.05 Threats; extortion.—Whoever, either verbally or by a written or printed communication, maliciously threatens to accuse another of any crime or offense, or by such communication maliciously threatens an injury to the person, property or reputation of another, or maliciously threatens to expose another to disgrace, or to expose any secret affecting another, or to impute any deformity or lack of chastity to another, with intent thereby to extort money or any pecuniary advantage whatsoever, or with intent to compel the person so threatened, or any other person, to do any act or refrain from doing any act against his will, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

cf.—s. 839.11 Extortion generally.

836.06 Punishment for making derogatory statements concerning banks and building and loan associations.—Any person who shall willfully and maliciously make, circulate or transmit to another or others any false statement, rumor or suggestion, written, printed or by word of mouth, which is directly or by inference derogatory to the financial condition or affects the solvency or financial standing of any banking institution or building and loan association doing business in this state, or who shall counsel, aid, procure or induce another to start, transmit or circulate any such statement or rumor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6819, 1915; RGS 5093; s. 1, ch. 11866, 1927; CGL 7195, 7315; s. 992, ch. 71-136.

cf.—s. 817.16 False reports by officers of banks, etc., with intent to defraud.

836.07 Notice condition precedent to prosecution for libel.—Before any criminal action is brought for publication, in a newspaper periodical, of a libel, the prosecutor shall at least 5 days before instituting such action serve notice in writing on defendant, specifying the article and the statements therein which he alleges to be false and defamatory.

cf.—Ch. 770 Regulating civil actions for libel.

836.08 Correction, apology, or retraction by newspaper.—If it appears upon the trial that said article was published in good faith, that its falsity was due to an honest mistake of the facts, and that there were reasonable grounds for believing that the statements in said article were true, and that within 10 days after the service of said notice a full and fair correction, apology and retraction was published in the same editions or corresponding issues of the newspaper or periodical in which said article appeared, and in as conspicuous place and type as was said original article, then any criminal proceeding charging libel based on an article so retracted, shall be discontinued and barred.

History.—s. 2, ch. 16070, 1933; CGL 1940 Supp. 7064(2); s. 993, ch. 71-136.

836.09 Communicating libelous matter to newspapers; penalty.—If any person shall state, deliver, or transmit by any means whatever, to the manager, editor, publisher or reporter of any newspaper or periodical for publication therein any false and libelous statement concerning any person, then and there known by such person to be false or libelous, and thereby secure the publication of the same he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 5142, 1903; GS 3259; RGS 5090; CGL 7192; s. 3, ch. 16070, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7064(3); s. 994, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

836.10 Written threats to kill or do bodily injury; punishment.—If any person writes or composes and also sends or procures the sending of any letter or inscribed communication, so written or composed, whether such letter or communication be signed or anonymous, to any person, containing a threat to kill or to do bodily injury to the person to whom such letter or communication is sent, or a threat to kill or do bodily injury to any member of the family of the person to whom such letter or communication is sent, the person so writing or composing and so sending or procuring the sending of such letter or communication, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

836.11 Publications which tend to expose persons to hatred, contempt or ridicule prohibited.—

(1) It shall be unlawful to print, publish, distribute or cause to be printed, published or distributed by any means, or in any manner whatsoever, any publication, handbill, dodger, circular, booklet, pamphlet, leaflet, card, sticker, periodical, literature, paper or other printed material which tends to expose any individual or any religious group to hatred, contempt, ridicule or obloquy unless the following is clearly printed or written thereon:

(a) The true name and post-office address of the person, firm, partnership, corporation or organization causing the same to be printed, published or distributed; and,

(b) If such name is that of a firm, corporation or organization, the name and post-office address of the individual acting in its behalf in causing such printing, publication or distribution.

(2) Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the sections of this statute shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 22744, 1945; s. 996, ch. 71-136.

CHAPTER 837

PERJURY

- 837.011 Definitions.
 837.012 Perjury when not in an official proceeding.
 837.02 Perjury in official proceedings.
 837.021 Perjury by contradictory statements.
 837.05 False reports to law enforcement authorities.
 837.06 False official statements.

837.011 Definitions.—In this chapter, unless a different meaning plainly is required:

(1) "Official proceeding" means a proceeding heard, or which may be or is required to be heard, before any legislative, judicial, administrative, or other governmental agency or official authorized to take evidence under oath, including any referee, master in chancery, hearing examiner, commissioner, notary, or other person taking testimony or a deposition in connection with any such proceeding.

(2) "Oath" includes affirmation or any other form of attestation required or authorized by law by which a person acknowledges that he is bound in conscience or law to testify truthfully in an official proceeding or other official matter.

(3) "Material matter" means any subject, regardless of its admissibility under the rules of evidence, which could affect the course or outcome of the proceeding. Whether a matter is material in a given factual situation is a question of law.

History.—s. 53, ch. 74-383.

837.012 Perjury when not in an official proceeding.—

(1) Whoever makes a false statement, which he does not believe to be true, under oath, not in an official proceeding, in regard to any material matter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Knowledge of the materiality of the statement is not an element of this crime, and the defendant's mistaken belief that his statement was not material is not a defense.

History.—s. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2560; GS 3472; RGS 5341; CGL 7474; s. 997, ch. 71-136; s. 54, ch. 74-383; s. 32, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 837.01.

- cf.—s. 11.05 By persons appearing before legislative committees.
 s. 319.33 In connection with title certificate to motor vehicle.
 s. 322.33 In connection with drivers' licenses law.
 s. 440.38 False testimony in proceedings before Department of Insurance.
 s. 440.56 False testimony before Industrial Relations Commission.

837.02 Perjury in official proceedings.—

(1) Whoever makes a false statement, which he does not believe to be true, under oath in an official proceeding in regard to any material matter shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) Knowledge of the materiality of the statement is not an element of this crime, and the defendant's mistaken belief that his statement was not material is not a defense.

837.021 Perjury by contradictory statements.—

(1) Whoever, in one or more official proceedings, willfully makes two or more material statements under oath when in fact two or more of the statements contradict each other is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. The prosecution may proceed in a single count by setting forth the willful making of inconsistent statements under oath and alleging in the alternative that one or more of them are false.

(2) The question of whether a statement was material is a question of law to be determined by the court.

(3) In any prosecution for perjury by contradictory statements under this act, it is not necessary to prove which, if any, of the statements is not true.

(4) In any prosecution under this act for perjury by contradictory statements, it shall be a defense that the accused believed each statement to be true at the time he made it.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-314; s. 56, ch. 74-383; s. 34, ch. 75-298.

837.05 False reports to law enforcement authorities.—Whoever knowingly gives false information to any law enforcement officer concerning the alleged commission of any crime is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 57, ch. 74-383; s. 34, ch. 75-298.

837.06 False official statements.—Whoever knowingly makes a false statement in writing with the intent to mislead a public servant in the performance of his official duty shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 58, ch. 74-383; s. 34, ch. 75-298.

CHAPTER 838

BRIBERY; MISUSE OF PUBLIC OFFICE

- 838.014 Definitions.
 838.015 Bribery.
 838.016 Unlawful compensation or reward for official behavior.
 838.021 Corruption by threat against public servant.
 838.12 Bribery in athletic contests.

838.014 Definitions.—For the purposes of this chapter, unless a different meaning plainly is required:

(1) "Benefit" means gain or advantage, or anything regarded by the person to be benefited as a gain or advantage, including the doing of an act beneficial to any person in whose welfare he is interested.

(2) "Pecuniary benefit" is benefit in the form of any commission, gift, gratuity, property, commercial interest, or any other thing of economic value.

(3) "Harm" means loss, disadvantage, or injury to the person affected, including loss, disadvantage, or injury to any other person in whose welfare he is interested.

(4) "Public servant" means any public officer, agent, or employee of government, whether elected or appointed, including, but not limited to, any executive, legislative, or judicial officer; any person who holds an office or position in a political party or political party committee, whether elected or appointed; and any person participating as a special master, receiver, auditor, juror, arbitrator, umpire, referee, consultant, or hearing examiner, or person acting on behalf of any of these, in performing a governmental function; but the term does not include witnesses. Such term shall include a candidate for election or appointment to any such office, including any individual who seeks or intends to occupy any such office. It shall include any person appointed to any of the foregoing offices or employments before and after he qualifies.

(5) "Government" includes the state government and any city or county government or any branch, political subdivision, or agency of the state, county, or city government.

(6) "Corruptly" means done with a wrongful intent and for the purpose of obtaining or compensating or receiving compensation for any benefit resulting from some act or omission of a public servant which is inconsistent with the proper performance of his public duties.

History.—s. 59, ch. 74-383.

838.015 Bribery.—

(1) "Bribery" means corruptly to give, offer, or promise to any public servant, or, if a public servant, corruptly to request, solicit, accept, or agree to accept for himself or another, any pecuniary or other benefit with an intent or purpose to influence the performance of any act or omission which the person believes to be, or the public servant represents as being, within the official discretion of a public servant, in violation of a public duty, or in performance of a public duty.

(2) Prosecution under this section shall not require any allegation or proof that the public servant ultimately sought to be unlawfully influenced was qualified to act in the desired way, that he had assumed office, that the matter was properly pending before him or might by law properly be brought before him, that he possessed jurisdiction over the matter, or that his official action was necessary to achieve the person's purpose.

(3) Any person who commits bribery is guilty of a felony in the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 60, ch. 74-383; s. 35, ch. 75-298.

838.016 Unlawful compensation or reward for official behavior.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person corruptly to give, offer, or promise to any public servant, or, if a public servant, corruptly to request, solicit, accept, or agree to accept, any pecuniary or other benefit not authorized by law, for the past, present, or future performance, nonperformance, or violation of any act or omission which the person believes to have been, or the public servant represents as having been, either within the official discretion of the public servant, in violation of a public duty, or in performance of a public duty. Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude a public servant from accepting rewards for services performed in apprehending any criminal.

(2) It is unlawful for any person corruptly to give, offer, or promise to any public servant, or, if a public servant, corruptly to request, solicit, accept, or agree to accept, any pecuniary or other benefit not authorized by law for the past, present, or future exertion of any influence upon or with any other public servant regarding any act or omission which the person believes to have been, or which is represented to him as having been, either within the official discretion of the other public servant, in violation of a public duty, or in performance of a public duty.

(3) Prosecution under this section shall not require that the exercise of influence or official discretion, or violation of a public duty or performance of a public duty, for which a pecuniary or other benefit was given, offered, promised, requested, or solicited was accomplished or was within the influence, official discretion, or public duty of the public servant whose action or omission was sought to be rewarded or compensated.

(4) Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 60, ch. 74-383; s. 36, ch. 75-298.

838.021 Corruption by threat against public servant.—

(1) Whoever unlawfully harms or threatens unlawful harm to any public servant, to his immediate family, or to any other person with whose welfare he is interested, with the intent or purpose:

(a) To influence the performance of any act or omission which the person believes to be, or the public servant represents as being, within the official discretion of the public servant, in violation of a public duty, or in performance of a public duty.

(b) To cause or induce him to use or exert, or procure the use or exertion of, any influence upon or with any other public servant regarding any act or omission which the person believes to be, or the public servant represents as being, within the official discretion of the public servant, in violation of a public duty, or in performance of a public duty.

(2) Prosecution under this section shall not require any allegation or proof that the public servant ultimately sought to be unlawfully influenced was qualified to act in the desired way, that he had assumed office, that the matter was properly pending before him or might by law properly be brought before him, that he possessed jurisdiction over the matter, or that his official action was necessary to achieve the person's purpose.

(3)(a) Whoever unlawfully harms any public servant or any other person with whose welfare he is interested shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) Whoever threatens unlawful harm to any public servant or to any other person with whose welfare he is interested shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 61, ch. 74-383; s. 37, ch. 75-298.

839.01 False returns by auctioneer.—Any auctioneer who shall neglect to make the statement of sales required by law, or who shall knowingly make a false statement, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and upon conviction his commission shall be forfeited and void.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3847, 1889; RS 2550; GS 3459; RGS 5326; CGL 7459; s. 1011, ch. 71-136.

839.02 Default by auctioneer or other receiver of public moneys.—If any auctioneer or other receiver of public moneys shall refuse or neglect to pay the moneys so received into the state treasury at the times and under the regulations prescribed by law, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2551; GS 3460; RGS 5327; CGL 7460; s. 1012, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 116.02 Unlawful to pay commissions on funds collected but unremitted.

839.021 Prohibited bidding by employees of auctioneers; penalty.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any employee or agent of an auctioneer or any one interested directly or indirectly in the outcome of an auction to bid without notice to all bidders on any article offered for sale at any auction. No person without notice to all bidders on any article offered for sale at any auction shall act as a fictitious bidder or what is commonly known as a "capper," "booster," "by-bidder," or "shiller" and no person shall bid, offer to bid, or pretend to buy any article sold or offered for sale at any auction by a prearranged agreement with any person interested in the sale directly or indirectly as seller; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to auctions of livestock and agricultural products.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and upon second conviction the auctioneer's license shall be revoked.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 59-219; s. 1013, ch. 71-136.

839.04 County officers not to speculate in county warrants or certificates.—Any County Court Judge, Clerk of the Circuit Court, sheriff, tax collector, property appraiser or their deputies, county commissioner, school board members, superintendent of schools, or any other county officer who buys up at a discount, or in any manner, directly or indirectly, speculates in jurors' or witnesses' certificates or in any warrants drawn upon the county treasurer for the payment of money out of any public fund of this state or of any county, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and shall be removed from office.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 3419, 1883; RS 2558; GS 3465; RGS 5334; CGL 7467; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 1014, ch. 71-136; s. 32, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 77-102.

839.05 Municipal officers not to speculate in municipal scrip.—Any mayor, marshal, treasurer, clerk, tax collector or other officer of any incorporated city or town, or any deputy of such officer, who buys up at a discount, or in any manner, directly or indirectly, speculates in any scrip or other evidence of indebtedness issued by the municipal corporation of which he is an officer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and shall be removed from office.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 3464, 1883; RS 2559; GS 3466; RGS 5335; CGL 7468; s. 1015, ch. 71-136; s. 242, ch. 77-104.

839.06 Collectors not to deal in warrants, etc.; removal.—No tax collector of any county shall, either directly or indirectly, purchase or receive in exchange any Comptroller's warrants, county orders, jurors' certificates or school district orders for a less amount than expressed on the face of such orders or demand, and any such person so offending shall, for each offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083, and be removed from office.

History.—Ch. 4010, 1891; s. 40, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 3467; s. 39, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 5336; CGL 7469; s. 1016, ch. 71-136.

839.08 Public officer not to purchase supplies for public use from himself.—No state or county officer shall purchase supplies or materials for public use from himself or from any firm or corporation in which he is interested, nor in any manner share in the proceeds of such purchase. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 5186, 1903; GS 3469; RGS 5338; CGL 7471; s. 1018, ch. 71-136.

839.09 Boards not to purchase supplies from members of boards.—No state or county board or municipal board or council shall purchase supplies, goods or materials for public use from any firm or corporation in which any member of such board is either directly or indirectly interested, nor shall any such board pay for such supplies, goods or materials so purchased. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided, that no member of any board aforesaid who shall have recorded his vote against such illegal purchase, or who shall have been absent at the taking of the vote thereon, shall be convicted of a violation of this section.

839.091 Purchasing supplies; exemption from penalties.—

(1) No person shall be subject to prosecution under ss. 839.08 and 839.09 when such purchases are:

(a) Made from the lowest bidder under sealed bids;

(b) Where such purchases are made at current market prices under a rotation system by which purchases are rotated among the different suppliers; or

(c) Where purchases are made at current market prices and are for an aggregate amount in any calendar year of not more than $1,000.

(d) For utility services, newspaper advertising, telephone or telegraph service, insurance premiums, or similar services.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to counties of the state with population of more than 100,000.

History.—ss. 1, 3, ch. 26934, 1951.

839.10 No officer or board to bid for public work.—No state or county officer nor member of any state or county board shall bid for, or enter into, or be in any manner interested in any contract for public work for which the said officer or state or county board is or may be a party to the letting. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided, that no member of any board aforesaid who shall have recorded his vote against the letting of such contract, or who shall have been absent at the taking of the vote thereon, shall be convicted of a violation of this section.

History.—s. 3, ch. 5186, 1903; GS 3471; RGS 5340; CGL 7473; s. 1020, ch. 71-136.

839.11 Extortion by officers of the state.—Any officer of this state who willfully charges, receives, or collects any greater fees or services than he is entitled to charge, receive, or collect by law is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2569; GS 3481; RGS 5354; CGL 7489; s. 1021, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 79-132; s. 9, ch. 79-163.

839.12 Officer failing to keep record of costs.—If any clerk of a court, sheriff, or county court judge neglects or refuses to keep a record book of the costs which he charges, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. Such record book shall be prima facie evidence in the courts of the amounts charged therein, in all cases in which any such officer is prosecuted for charging more costs than are allowed by law.

History.—ss. 3, 4, ch. 3252, 1881; RS 2570; GS 3482; RGS 5355; CGL 7490; s. 1022, ch. 71-136; s. 32, ch. 73-334.
cf.—s. 116.04 Failure of officer to make sworn report of fees.

839.13 Falsifying records.—

(1) If any judge, justice, mayor, alderman, clerk, sheriff, coroner, or other public officer, or any person whatsoever, shall steal, embezzle, alter, corruptly withdraw, falsify or avoid any record, process, charter, gift, grant, conveyance, or contract, or any paper filed in any judicial proceeding in any court of this state, or shall knowingly and willfully take off, discharge or conceal any issue, forfeited recognizance, or other forfeiture, or other paper above mentioned, or shall forge, deface, or falsify any document or instrument recorded, or filed in any court, or any registry, acknowledgment, or certificate, or shall fraudulently alter, deface, or falsify any minutes, documents, books, or any proceedings whatever of or belonging to any public office within this state; or if any person shall cause or procure any of the offenses aforesaid to be committed, or be in anywise concerned therein, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) In any prosecution under this section, it shall not be necessary to prove the ownership or value of any paper or instrument involved.

History.—s. 19, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2571; GS 3483; RGS 5357; CGL 7492; s. 1023, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 703.18 Refusing to make abstract.
s. 703.19 Filing untrue copies of abstracts.

839.14 Officer withholding records from successor.—If any officer, after the expiration of the time for which he may have been appointed or elected, or in case of his death, his executors and administrators, or the person in possession thereof, shall willfully and unlawfully withhold or detain from his successors the records, papers, documents, or other writings appertaining and belonging to his office, or mutilate, destroy, take away, or otherwise prevent the complete possession by his successors of said records, documents, papers, or other writings, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 21, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2572; GS 3485; RGS 5360; CGL 7495; s. 1024, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 298.65 Officers failing to produce records, etc., relating to water control district for audit by auditor general.

839.15 Judicial officer withholding records.

—Any justice of the supreme court or judge of the circuit court who, upon resignation or on being impeached, fails to file all papers and records in his possession belonging to his court with the proper clerk shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 3, ch. 3007, 1877; RS 2573; GS 3486; RGS 5361; CGL 7496; s. 1025, ch. 71-136; s. 32, ch. 73-334.

839.16 Fraud of clerk in drawing jury.—If the clerk of any court shall be guilty of any fraud, either by practicing on a jury box previous to a draft, or in drawing a juror, or in returning into the box any juror which had been lawfully drawn out and drawing or substituting another in his stead, or in any other way in the drawing of jurors, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2575; GS 3491; RGS 5371; CGL 7505; s. 1026, ch. 71-136.

839.17 Misappropriation of moneys by commissioners to make sales.—Any commissioner or master in chancery, having received the purchase money or the securities resulting from any of the sales authorized by law, who shall fail to deliver such moneys and securities, or either of them, to the executor or administrator, or the person entitled to receive the same, upon the order of the court, unless he is rendered unable to do so by some cause not attributable to his own default or neglect, shall be fined in a sum equal to the amount received from the purchaser, and shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 30, ch. 1628, 1868; RS 2576; GS 3492; RGS 5372; CGL 7506; s. 1027, ch. 71-136.

839.18 Penalty for officer assuming to act before qualification.—Whoever being elected, or appointed, to any office assumes to perform any of the duties thereof before qualification, according to law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2737; GS 3732; RGS 5757; CGL 7987; s. 1028, ch. 71-136.

839.19 Failure to execute process generally.

—Any sheriff or other officer authorized to execute process, who willfully or corruptly refuses or neglects to execute and return, according to law, any process delivered to him, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2577; GS 3497; RGS 5382; CGL 7421; s. 1029, ch. 71-136.

cf.—s. 30.15 Execution of process.

839.20 Refusal to execute criminal process.

If any officer authorized to serve process, willfully and corruptly refuses to execute any lawful process to him directed and requiring him to apprehend and confine any person convicted or charged with an offense, or willfully and corruptly omits or delays to execute such process, whereby such person escapes and goes at large, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 15, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2578; GS 3498; RGS 5383; CGL 7522; s. 1030, ch. 71-136.

cf.—s. 30.15 Execution of process.

839.21 Refusal to receive prisoner.—Any jailer or other officer, who willfully refuses to receive into the jail or into his custody a prisoner lawfully directed to be committed thereto on a criminal charge or conviction, or any lawful process whatever, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

cf.—Ch. 950 Jails and Jailers.

839.23 Officer taking insufficient bail.—An official who takes bail which he knows is not sufficient, accepts a surety he knows does not have the qualifications required by law, or accepts as a surety a professional bondsman who is not registered with the clerk of the circuit court and qualified to act as surety shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. An official convicted of violating this section may be removed from office by the governor.

History.—s. 78, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(78); s. 175, ch. 70-339; s. 1032, ch. 71-136.

Note.—Former s. 903.35.

839.24 Penalty for failure to perform duty required of officer.—A sheriff, county court judge, prosecuting officer, court reporter, stenographer, interpreter, or other officer required to perform any duty under the criminal procedure law who willfully fails to perform his duty shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 317, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(330); s. 176, ch. 70-339; s. 1033, ch. 71-136; s. 32, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 77-119.

Note.—Former s. 925.01.

839.25 Official misconduct.

(1) "Official misconduct" means the commission of one of the following acts by a public servant, with corrupt intent to obtain a benefit for himself or another or to cause unlawful harm to another:

(a) Knowingly refraining, or causing another to refrain, from performing a duty imposed upon him by law; or

(b) Knowingly falsifying, or causing another to falsify, any official record or official document.

(2) "Corrupt" means done with knowledge that act is wrongful and with improper motives.

(3) Official misconduct under this section is a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 62, ch. 74-383; s. 38, ch. 75-298; s. 10, ch. 79-163.

Note.—Former s. 838.031.

839.26 Misuse of confidential information.

Any public servant who, in contemplation of official action by himself or by a governmental unit with which he is associated, or in reliance on information to which he has access in his official capacity and which has not been made public, commits any of the following acts:

(1) Acquisition of a pecuniary interest in any property, transaction, or enterprise or gaining of any pecuniary or other benefit which may be affected by such information or official action;

(2) Speculation or wagering on the basis of such information or action; or

(3) Aiding another to do any of the foregoing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 63, ch. 74-383; s. 39, ch. 75-298.

Note.—Former s. 838.041.

847.011 Prohibition of certain acts in connection with obscene, lewd, etc., materials; penalty.—

(1)(a) A person who knowingly sells, lends, gives away, distributes, transmits, shows or transmutes, or offers to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, show or transmute, or has in his possession, custody, or control with intent to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, show, transmute, or advertise in any manner, any obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, indecent, sadistic, or masochistic book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing, paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion-picture film, figure, image, phonograph record, or wire or tape or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of such character, or any article or instrument of indecent use, or purporting to be for indecent use or purpose; or who knowingly designs, copies, draws, photographs, poses for, writes, prints, publishes, or in any manner whatsoever manufactures or prepares any such material, matter, article, or thing of any such character; or who knowingly writes, prints, publishes, or utters, or causes to be written, printed, published, or uttered, any advertisement or notice of any kind, giving information, directly or indirectly, stating, or purporting to state, where, how, of whom, or by what means any, or what purports to be any, such material, matter, article, or thing of any such character can be purchased, obtained, or had; or who in any manner knowingly hires, employs, uses, or permits any person to do or assist in doing, either knowingly or innocently, any act or thing mentioned above, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. A person who, after having been convicted of a violation of this subsection, thereafter violates any of its provisions, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) The knowing possession by any person of six or more identical or similar materials, matters, articles, or things coming within the provisions of paragraph (a) is presumptive evidence of the violation of said paragraph.

(2) A person who knowingly has in his possession, custody, or control any obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, indecent, sadistic, or masochistic book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing, paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion-picture film, film, figure, image, phonograph record, or wire or tape or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of such character, or any article or instrument of indecent use, or purporting to be for indecent use or purpose, without intent to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, show, transmute, or advertise the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. A person who, after having been convicted of violating this subsection, thereafter violates any of its provisions is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. In any prosecution for such possession, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove the absence of such intent.

(3) No person shall as a condition to a sale, allocation, consignment, or delivery for resale of any paper, magazine, book, periodical, or publication require that the purchaser or consignee receive for resale any other article, paper, magazine, book, periodical, or publication reasonably believed by the purchaser or consignee to be obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, indecent, sadistic, or masochistic, and no person shall deny or threaten to deny or revoke any franchise or impose or threaten to impose any penalty, financial or otherwise, by reason of the failure of any person to accept any such article, paper, magazine, book, periodical, or publication, or by reason of the return thereof. Whoever violates this subsection is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) Any person who knowingly promotes, conducts, performs, or participates in an obscene, lewd, lascivious, or indecent show, exhibition, or performance by live persons or a live person before an audience is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person who, after having been convicted of violating this subsection, thereafter violates any of its provisions and is convicted thereof is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s.

(5) Every act, thing, or transaction forbidden by this section shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such.

(6) Proof that a defendant knowingly committed any act or engaged in any conduct referred to in this section may be made by showing that at the time such act was committed or conduct engaged in he had actual knowledge of the contents or character of the material, matter, article, or thing possessed or otherwise dealt with, or by showing facts and circumstances from which it may fairly be inferred that he had such knowledge, or by showing that he had knowledge of such facts and circumstances as would put a man of ordinary intelligence and caution on inquiry as to such contents or character.

(7) There shall be no right of property in any of the materials, matters, articles, or things possessed or otherwise dealt with in violation of this section, and upon the seizure of any such material, matter, article, or thing by any authorized law enforcement officer the same shall be delivered to and held by the clerk of the court having jurisdiction to try such violation. When the same is no longer required as evidence, the prosecuting officer or any claimant may move the court in writing for the disposition of the same and after notice and hearing, the court, if it finds the same to have been possessed or otherwise dealt with in violation of this section, shall order the sheriff to destroy the same in the presence of the clerk; otherwise, the court shall order the same returned to the claimant if he shows that he is entitled to possession. If destruction is ordered, the sheriff and clerk shall file a certificate of compliance.

(8)(a) The circuit court has jurisdiction to enjoin a threatened violation of this section upon complaint filed by the state attorney or attorney for a municipality in the name of the state upon the relation of such state attorney or attorney for a municipality.

(b) After the filing of such a complaint, the judge to whom it is presented may grant an order restraining the person complained of until final hearing or further order of the court. Whenever the relator state attorney or attorney for a municipality shall request a judge of said court to set a hearing upon an application for such a restraining order, such judge shall set such hearing for a time within 3 days after the making of such request. No such order shall be made unless such judge shall be satisfied that sufficient notice of the application therefor has been given to the party restrained of the time when and place where the application for such restraining order is to be made, provided, however, that such notice shall be dispensed with when it is manifest to such judge, from the sworn allegations of the complaint or the affidavit of the plaintiff or other competent person, that the apprehended violation will be committed if an immediate remedy is not afforded.

(c) The person sought to be enjoined shall be entitled to a trial of the issues within one day after joinder of issue and a decision shall be rendered by the court within 2 days of the conclusion of the trial.

(d) In the event that a final decree of injunction is entered, it shall contain a provision directing the defendant having the possession, custody, or control of the materials, matters, articles, or things affected by the injunction to surrender the same to the sheriff and requiring the sheriff to seize and destroy the same. The sheriff shall file a certificate of his compliance.

(e) In any action brought as provided in this subsection, no bond or undertaking shall be required of the state attorney or the municipality or its attorney before the issuance of a restraining order provided for by paragraph (b), and there shall be no liability on the part of the state or the state attorney or the municipality or its attorney for costs or for damages sustained by reason of such restraining order in any case where a final decree is rendered in favor of the person sought to be enjoined.

(f) Every person who has possession, custody, or control of, or otherwise deals with any of the materials, matters, articles, or things described in this section, after the service upon him of a summons and complaint in an action for injunction brought under this subsection, is chargeable with knowledge of the contents and character thereof.

(9) The several sheriffs and state attorneys shall vigorously enforce this section within their respective jurisdictions.

(10) This section shall not apply to the exhibition of motion-picture films permitted by s. 847.013.

(11) For the purposes of this section, the test of whether or not material is obscene is: Whether to the average person, applying contemporary community standards, the dominant theme of the material taken as a whole appeals to prurient interest.

(12) For the purposes of this section, the word person includes individuals, firms, associations, corporations, and all other groups and combinations.

History.—ss. 1-11, ch. 61-7; s. 1053, ch. 71-136; ss. 1A-3A, 4, 5A, 6, ch. 71-337; s. 171, ch. 71-355; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

847.012 Prohibition of sale or other distribution of harmful materials to persons under 17 years of age; penalty.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Juvenile" means any person under the age of 17 years.

(b) "Nudity" means the showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic area, or buttocks with less than a fully opaque covering; the showing of the female breast with less than a fully opaque covering of any portion thereof below the top of the nipple; or the depiction of covered male genitals in a discernible turgid state.

(c) "Sexual conduct" means acts of masturbation, homosexuality, sexual intercourse, or physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks or, if such person be a female, breast.

(d) "Sexual excitement" means the condition of human male or female genitals when in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal.

(e) "Sadomasochistic abuse" means flagellation or torture by or upon a person clad in undergarments, a mask, or bizarre costume or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restrained on the part of one so clothed.

(f) "Harmful to juveniles" means that quality of any description or representation, in whatever form, of nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse, when it:

1. Predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest of juveniles, and
2. Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material for juveniles, and
3. Is utterly without redeeming social importance for juveniles.

(g) "Knowingly" means having general knowledge of, or reason to know, or a belief or ground for belief which warrants further inspection or inquiry of both:

1. The character and content of any material described herein which is reasonably susceptible of examination by the defendant, and

2. The age of the juvenile; provided, however, that an honest mistake shall constitute an excuse from liability hereunder if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such juvenile.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to sell or loan for monetary consideration to a juvenile:

(a) Any picture, photograph, drawing, sculpture, motion-picture film, or similar visual representation or image of a person or portion of the human body which depicts nudity, sexual conduct, or sadomasochistic abuse and which is harmful to juveniles, or

(b) Any book, pamphlet, magazine, printed matter however reproduced, or sound recording which contains any matter enumerated in paragraph (a), or explicit and detailed verbal descriptions or narrative accounts of sexual excitement, sexual conduct, or sadomasochistic abuse and which, taken as a whole, is harmful to juveniles.

(3) Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) Every act, thing, or transaction forbidden by this section shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such.

(5)(a) The circuit court has jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this section upon complaint filed by the state attorney in the name of the state upon the relation of such state attorney.

(b) After the filing of such a complaint, the judge to whom it is presented may grant an order restraining the person complained of until final hearing or further order of the court. Whenever the relator State Attorney shall request a judge of said court to set a hearing upon an application for such a restraining order, such judge shall set such hearing for a time within three days after the making of such request. No such order shall be made unless such judge shall be satisfied that sufficient notice of the application therefor has been given to the party restrained of the time when and place where the application for such restraining order is to be made.

(c) The person sought to be enjoined shall be entitled to a trial of the issues within 1 day after joinder of issue and a decision shall be rendered by the court within 2 days of the conclusion of the trial.

(d) In the event that a final decree of injunction is entered, it shall contain a provision directing the defendant having the possession, custody, or control of the materials, matters, articles, or things affected by the injunction to surrender the same to the sheriff and requiring the sheriff to seize and destroy the same. The sheriff shall file a certificate of his compliance.

(e) In any action brought as provided in this section, no bond or undertaking shall be required of the state or the State Attorney before the issuance of a restraining order provided for by paragraph (b), and there shall be no liability on the part of the state or the State Attorney for costs or for damages sustained by reason of such restraining order in any case where a final decree is rendered in favor of the person sought to be enjoined.

(f) Every person who has possession, custody, or control of, or otherwise deals with any of the materials, matters, articles, or things described in this section, after the service upon him of a summons and complaint in an action for injunction brought under this section, is chargeable with knowledge of the contents and character thereof.

(6) The several sheriffs and State Attorneys shall vigorously enforce this section within their respective jurisdictions.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the word "person" includes individuals, firms, associations, corporations, and all other groups and combinations.

(8) This section shall not apply to the exhibition of motion pictures, shows, presentations or other representations regulated under the provisions of s. 847.013.

History.—ss. 1-7, ch. 67-153; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-41; s. 1054, ch. 71-136; s. 171, ch. 71-355; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

cf.—s. 847.011 Prohibition of certain acts in connection with obscene, lewd, etc., materials; penalty.

847.0125 Retail display of materials harmful to minors prohibited.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Minor" means any person under the age of 17 years.

(b) "Nudity" means the showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic area, or buttocks with less than a full opaque covering; the showing of the female breast with less than a full opaque covering of any portion thereof below the top of the nipple; or the depiction of covered male genitals in a discernibly turgid state.

(c) "Sexual conduct" means acts of masturbation, homosexuality, sexual intercourse, or physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks or, if such person be a female, breast or any act or conduct which constitutes the commission of the abominable and detestable crime against nature or suggests that such crime is being or will be committed.

(d) "Sexual excitement" means the condition of human male or female genitals when in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal.

(e) "Sadomasochistic abuse" means flagellation or torture by or upon a person clad in undergarments, a mask, or a bizarre costume or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restrained and subjected to flagellation or torture on the part of one so clothed.

(f) "Harmful to minors" means that quality of any description, exhibition, presentation, or representation, in whatever form, of nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse when it:

1. Predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest of minors,

2. Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material for minors, and

3. Is without serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors.

(g) "Knowingly" means having general knowledge of, or reason to know, or a belief or ground for belief which warrants further inspection or inquiry of both:

1. The character and content of any material described herein which is reasonably susceptible of examination by the defendant, and

2. The age of the minor; however, an honest mistake shall constitute an excuse from liability hereunder if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such minor.

(2) OFFENSES AND PENALTIES.—

(a) It is unlawful for anyone offering for sale in a retail establishment open to the general public any book, magazine, or other printed material the cover of which depicts nudity which is harmful to minors, to knowingly exhibit such book, magazine, or material in such establishment in such a way that it is on open display to, or within the convenient reach of, minors who may frequent the retail establishment. Such items may, however, be displayed behind an opaque covering which conceals the nudity, provided such items are not within the convenient reach of minors who may frequent the retail establishment.

(b) It is unlawful for anyone offering for sale in a retail establishment open to the general public any book, magazine, or other printed material, the content of which exploits, is devoted to, or is principally made up of descriptions or depictions of nudity which are harmful to minors, to knowingly exhibit such book, magazine, or material in such establishment in such a way that it is within the convenient reach of minors who may frequent the retail establishment.

(c) A violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-273; s. 1, ch. 79-96.

847.013 Exposing minors to harmful motion pictures, exhibitions, shows, presentations, or representations.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Minor" means any person under the age of 17 years.

(b) "Nudity" means the showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic area, or buttocks with less than a full opaque covering; the showing of the female breast with less than a full opaque covering of any portion thereof below the top of the nipple; or the depiction of covered male genitals in a discernibly turgid state.

(c) "Sexual conduct" means acts of masturbation, homosexuality, sexual intercourse, physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks or, if such person be a female, breast or any act or conduct which constitutes the commission of the abominable and detestable crime against nature or suggests that such crime is being or will be committed.

(d) "Sexual excitement" means the condition of human male or female genitals when in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal.

(e) "Sadomasochistic abuse" means flagellation or torture by or upon a person clad in undergarments, a mask, or bizarre costume or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restrained on the part of one so clothed.

(f) "Harmful to minors" means that quality of any description, exhibition, presentation, or representation, in whatever form, of nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse, when it:

1. Predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful or morbid interest of minors, and

2. Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable for minors, and

3. Is utterly without redeeming social importance for minors.

(g) "Knowingly" means having general knowledge of, or reason to know, or a belief or ground for belief which warrants further inspection or inquiry of both:

1. The character and content of any motion picture described herein which is reasonably susceptible of examination by the defendant, or the character of any exhibition, presentation, representation or show described herein, other than a motion-picture show, which is reasonably susceptible of being ascertained by the defendant, and

2. The age of the minor; provided, however, that an honest mistake shall constitute an excuse from liability hereunder if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such minor.

(2) OFFENSES AND PENALTIES.—

(a) It is unlawful for any person knowingly to exhibit for a monetary consideration to a minor or knowingly sell to a minor an admission ticket or pass or knowingly admit a minor for a monetary consideration to premises whereon there is exhibited a motion picture, exhibition, show, representation or other presentation which, in whole or in part, depicts nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse and which is harmful to minors.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) shall not apply to a minor when he is accompanied by his parents or either of them.

(c) It is unlawful for any minor to falsely represent to the owner of any premises mentioned in paragraph (a), or to his agent, that such minor is 17 years of age or older, with the intent to procure such minor's admission to such premises for a monetary consideration.

(d) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly make a false representation to the owner of any premises mentioned in paragraph (a), or to his agent, that he is the parent of any minor or that any minor is 17 years of age or older, with intent to procure such minor's admission to such premises or to aid such minor in procuring admission thereto for a monetary consideration.

(e) A violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) INJUNCTIVE PROCEEDINGS.—

(a) The circuit court has jurisdiction to enjoin a threatened violation of subsection (2) upon complaint filed by the state attorney in the name of the state upon the relation of such state attorney.

(b) After the filing of such a complaint, the judge to whom it is presented may grant an order restraining the person or persons complained of until final hearing or further order of the court. Whenever the relator shall request a judge of said court to set a hearing upon an application for such a restraining order, such judge shall set such hearing for a time within 3 days after the making of such request. No such order shall be made unless such judge shall be satisfied that sufficient notice of the application therefor has been given to the person or persons restrained of the time when and place where the application for such restraining order is to be heard. However, such notice shall be dispensed with when it is manifest to such judge, from the allegations of a sworn complaint or independent affidavit, sworn to by the relator or by some person associated with him in the field of law enforcement, and filed by the relator, that the apprehended violation will be committed if an immediate remedy is not afforded.

(c) The person or persons sought to be enjoined shall be entitled to a trial of the issues within 1 day after joinder of issue and a decision shall be rendered by the court within 2 days after the conclusion of the trial.

(d) In any action brought as provided in this section, no bond or undertaking shall be required of the state or the relator State Attorney before the issuance of a restraining order provided for by this section, and there shall be no liability on the part of the state or the relator State Attorney for costs or damages sustained by reason of such restraining order in any case in which a final decree is rendered in favor of the person or persons sought to be enjoined.

(e) Every person who has possession, custody, or control of, or otherwise deals with, any motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or presentation described in this section, after the service upon him of a summons and complaint in an action for injunction brought under this section, is chargeable with knowledge of the contents or character thereof.

(4) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—In order to make the application and enforcement of this section uniform throughout the state, it is the intent of the Legislature to preempt the field, to the exclusion of counties and municipalities, insofar as it concerns exposing persons under 17 years of age to harmful motion pictures, exhibitions, shows, representations and presentations. To that end, it is hereby declared that every county ordinance and every municipal ordinance adopted prior to July 1, 1969 and relating to said subject shall stand abrogated and unenforceable on and after such date and that no county, municipality or consolidated county-municipal government shall have the power to adopt any ordinance relating to said subject on or after such effective date.

847.014 Minors participating in harmful motion pictures, exhibitions, shows, presentations, or representations.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section:

(a) "Minor" means any person under the age of 18 years.

(b) "Nudity" means the showing of the human male or female genitals, pubic area, or buttocks with less than a full opaque covering; the showing of the female breast with less than a full opaque covering of any portion thereof below the top of the nipple; or the depiction of covered male genitals in a discernibly turgid state.

(c) "Sexual conduct" means acts of masturbation; sexual intercourse; or physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or, if such person be a female, breast or any act or conduct which constitutes the commission of sexual battery or suggests that such crime is being or will be committed.

(d) "Sexual excitement" means the condition of human male or female genitals when in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal.

(e) "Sadomasochistic abuse" means the flagellation or torture by or upon a person clad in undergarments, a mask, or a bizarre costume or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restrained on the part of one so clothed.

(f) "Harmful to minors" means that quality, whether actual or simulated, of any description, exhibition, presentation, or representation, in whatever form, of nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse, when it:

1. Predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest of minors,

2. Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable for minors, and

3. Is without serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value for minors.

(g) "Knowingly" means having general knowledge of, reason to know, or a belief or ground for belief which warrants further inspection or inquiry of the character and content of any motion picture described herein which is reasonably susceptible of examination by the defendant or the character of any exhibition, presentation, representation, or show described herein, other than a motion-picture show, which is reasonably susceptible of being ascertained by the defendant.

(2) OFFENSES AND PENALTIES.—

(a)1. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to produce, conduct, direct, perform, or participate in any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, depicts sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse involving a minor.

2. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to aid, abet, counsel, hire, or otherwise procure a minor to perform or participate in any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, depicts sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse involving a minor.

3. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to bring or cause to be brought into this state or to send or cause to be sent from this state for sale or distribution any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, depicts sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse involving a minor.

4. A violation of any provision of this paragraph shall constitute a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b)1. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to exhibit any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, depicts nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse involving a minor and which is harmful to minors.

2. It is unlawful for any person knowingly to sell; lend; give away; distribute; transmit; transmute; offer to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, or transmute; have in his possession, custody, or control with intent to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, or transmute; or advertise in any manner any photograph, motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, depicts nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, or sadomasochistic abuse involving a minor and which is harmful to minors. The possession of three or more copies of any such photograph, motion picture, representation, or presentation is prima facie evidence of intent to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, or transmute.

3. A violation of any provision of this paragraph shall constitute a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) INJUNCTIVE PROCEEDINGS.—

(a) The circuit court has jurisdiction to enjoin a violation or threatened violation of paragraph (2)(a) or a violation of paragraph (2)(b) upon complaint filed by the State Attorney in the name of the state upon the relation of such State Attorney.

(b) After the filing of such a complaint, the judge to whom it is presented may grant an order restraining the person or persons complained of until final hearing or further order of the court. Whenever the relator shall request a judge of said court to set a hearing upon an application for such a restraining order, such judge shall set such hearing for a time within 3 days after the making of such request. No such order shall be made unless such judge shall be satisfied that sufficient notice of the application therefor has been given to the person or persons restrained of the time when and place where the application for such restraining order is to be heard. However, such notice shall be dispensed with when it is manifest to such judge, from the allegations of a sworn complaint or independent affidavit, sworn to by the relator or by some person associated with him in the field of law enforcement and filed by the relator, that the apprehended violation will be committed if an immediate remedy is not afforded.

(c) The person or persons sought to be enjoined shall be entitled to a trial of the issues within 1 day after joinder of issue, and a decision shall be rendered by the court within 2 days after the conclusion of the trial.

(d) In any action brought as provided in this section, no bond or undertaking shall be required of the state or the relator State Attorney before the issuance of a restraining order provided for by this section, and there shall be no liability on the part of the state or the relator State Attorney for costs or damages sustained by reason of such restraining order in any case in which a final decree is rendered in favor of the person or persons sought to be enjoined.

(e) Every person who has possession, custody, or control of, or otherwise deals with, any motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or presentation described in this section, after the service upon him of a summons and complaint in an action for injunction brought under this section, is chargeable with knowledge of the contents or character thereof.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-103; s. 1, ch. 78-326.

847.02 Confiscation of obscene books, etc.—

Whenever anyone is convicted under s. 847.011, the court in awarding sentence shall make an order confiscating said book, pamphlet, ballad, printed paper, picture, slide, film, or other thing and authorize the executive officer of the court to destroy the same.

History.—s. 2, ch. 7359, 1917; RGS 5439; CGL 7582.

847.03 Officer to seize books, etc.—

Whenever any officer arrests any person charged with any offense under s. 847.011, he shall seize said book, pamphlet, ballad, printed paper, picture, slide, or film, or other thing, and take the same into his custody to await the sentence of the court upon the trial of the offender.

History.—s. 3, ch. 7359, 1917; RGS 5440; CGL 7583.

847.04 Open profanity.—

Whoever, having arrived at the age of discretion, uses profane, vulgar and indecent language, in any public place; or upon the private premises of another, or so near thereto as to be heard by another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; but no prosecution for any such offense shall be commenced after 20 days from the commission thereof.

History.—s. 18, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2622; GS 3542; s. 1, ch. 5921, 1909; RGS 5442; CGL 7585; s. 1056, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 231.07 Insulting school teachers.

847.05 Using indecent or obscene language.—

Any person who shall publicly use or utter any indecent or obscene language shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3284, 1881; RS 2624; GS 3544; RGS 5444; CGL 7587; s. 1057, ch. 71-136.

847.06 Obscene matter; transportation into state prohibited; penalty.—

(1) Whoever knowingly transports into the state or within the state for the purpose of sale or distribution, any obscene, lewd, lascivious, or filthy book, pamphlet, picture, film, paper, letter, writing, print, silhouette, drawing, figure, image, cast, phonograph recording, electrical transcription, or other article capable of producing sound or any other matter of indecent or immoral character, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) When any person is convicted of a violation of this section, the court in its judgment of conviction may, in addition to the penalty prescribed, order the confiscation and disposal of such items described herein which were found in the possession or under the immediate control of such person at the time of his arrest.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29849, 1955; s. 1058, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 79-134.

847.07 Distribution of obscene materials; penalties; "wholesale promote" defined.—

(1) A person commits the offense of distributing obscene materials when, knowing the obscene nature thereof, he sells, rents, leases, advertises, publishes, exhibits, or otherwise disseminates to any person any obscene material of any description, offers to do so, or possesses such material with the intent so to do.

(2) Considered as a whole and applying community standards, material is obscene if:

(a) Its predominant appeal is to prurient interest; that is, a shameful or morbid interest in nudity, sex, or excretion;

(b) It is utterly without redeeming social value; and

(c) In addition, it goes substantially beyond customary limits of candor in describing or representing such matters.

(3) Material not otherwise obscene may be deemed obscene under this section if the distribution thereof, the offer to do so, or the possession with the intent to do so is a commercial exploitation of erotica solely for the sake of their prurient appeal.

(4)(a) Whoever distributes obscene materials is guilty, upon first conviction, of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or by a fine not to exceed $5,000.

(b) Whoever distributes obscene material is guilty, upon a second or subsequent conviction, of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) Any person who knowingly wholesale promotes any obscene matter or performance, or in any manner knowingly hires, employs, uses, or permits any person to wholesale promote or assist in wholesale promoting any obscene matter or performance, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. "Wholesale promote" means to manufacture, issue, sell, provide, deliver, transfer, transmute, publish, distribute, circulate, disseminate, or offer or agree to do the same, with or without consideration, for purposes of resale or redistribution.

(5) No person shall, as a condition to sale, allocation, consignment, or delivery for resale of any matter or performance, require that the purchaser or consignee receive for resale any other matter or performance reasonably believed by the purchaser or consignee to be obscene; and no person shall deny or revoke any franchise, or threaten to do so, or impose or threaten to impose any penalty, financial or otherwise, by reason of the refusal or failure of any person to accept any such matter or by reason of the return thereof. Whoever violates this subsection is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-120.

847.08 Hearings for determination of probable cause.—Whenever an indictment, information, or trial affidavit is filed under the provisions of ss. 847.07-847.09, the state attorney or his duly appointed assistant may apply to the court for the issuance of an order directing the defendant or his principal agent or bailee or other like person to produce the allegedly obscene materials at a time and place so designated by the court for the purpose of determining whether there is probable cause to believe said material is obscene. After hearing the parties on the issue, if the court determines probable cause exists, it may order the material held by the clerk of the court pending further order of the court. This section shall not be construed to prohibit the seizure of obscene materials by any other lawful means.

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-120.

847.09 Legislative intent.—

(1) In order to make the application and enforcement of ss. 847.07-847.09 uniform throughout the state, it is the intent of the Legislature to preempt the field, to the exclusion of counties and municipalities, insofar as it concerns exposing persons over 17 years of age to harmful motion pictures, exhibitions, shows, representations, and presentations. To that end, it is hereby declared that every county ordinance and every municipal ordinance adopted prior to July 1, 1973, and relating to said subject shall stand abrogated and unenforceable on and after such date and that no county, municipality, or consolidated county-municipal government shall have the power to adopt any ordinance relating to the subject on or after such effective date. If ss. 847.07-847.09 are declared to be illegal, unconstitutional, or otherwise unenforceable, any county or municipal ordinance abrogated before ss. 847.07-847.09 were declared unconstitutional shall be in full force and effect, and each county, municipality, and consolidated county-municipal government shall have the power to adopt ordinances relating to this subject.

(2) Nothing in ss. 847.07-847.09 shall be construed to repeal or in any way supersede the provisions of s. 847.011, s. 847.012, or s. 847.013.

(3) Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the free exercise of free speech or picketing by any organization, group, or individual for the purpose of upholding community standards.

History.—ss. 3, 4, 6, ch. 73-120.

849.02 Agents, servants, etc., of keeper of gambling house.—Whoever acts as servant, clerk, agent, or employee of any person in the violation of s. 849.01 shall be punished in the manner and to the extent therein mentioned.

History.—s. 2, ch. 3764, 1887; RS 2645; GS 3573; RGS 5500; CGL 7658.

849.03 Renting house for gambling purposes.—Whoever, whether as owner or agent, knowingly rents to another a house, room, booth, tent, shelter or place for the purpose of gaming shall be punished in the manner and to the extent mentioned in s. 849.01.

History.—s. 3, ch. 3764, 1887; RS 2646; GS 3574; RGS 5501; CGL 7659.

849.04 Permitting minors and persons under guardianship to gamble.—Whoever being the proprietor, owner or keeper of any E. O., keno or pool table, or billiard table, wheel of fortune, or other game of chance, kept for the purpose of betting, willfully and knowingly allows any minor or person non compos mentis or under guardianship to play at such game or to bet on such game of chance or whoever aids or abets or otherwise encourages such playing or betting of any money or other valuable thing upon the result of such game of chance by any minor, person non compos mentis or under guardianship shall be guilty of a felony of third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3145, 1879; RS 2647; s. 9, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 3575; RGS 5502; CGL 7660; s. 1060, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 1.01 Definition of "minor."

849.05 Prima facie evidence.—If any of the implements, devices or apparatus commonly used in games of chance in gambling houses or by gamblers, are found in any house, room, booth, shelter or other place it shall be prima facie evidence that the said house, room, booth, shelter or other place where the same are found is kept for the purpose of gambling.

History.—s. 4, ch. 3764, 1887; RS 2648; GS 3576; RGS 5503; CGL 7661; s. 243, ch. 77-104.
cf.—s. 901.19 Seizure of gambling instruments.

849.051 Prima facie evidence; possession of federal gambling stamp.—

(1) The holding, owning, having in possession of, or paying the tax for a wagering occupational tax stamp issued by the internal revenue authorities of the United States shall be held in all the courts of this state as prima facie evidence against the person holding such stamp in any prosecution of such person for violation of the gambling laws of this state.

(2) In cases where the proper prosecuting officers shall produce said stamp or certified copy, the grand jury may indict the holder of such stamp or the proper prosecuting officer may file information against the holder of such stamp without further proof, charging such holder with the violation of the Florida gambling laws.

(3) Upon the trial of such person, proof of the owning, holding or possession of such stamp may be made by two witnesses who have seen such stamp in the place of business of the holder or on his person, or by the production of the original stamp with proof by one or more witnesses that it is the property of the defendant, or by production by the state of a copy of such stamp certified by the director of the issuing Federal Internal Revenue District as being a copy of the stamp originally issued to the defendant. Proof made as herein provided shall be sufficient evidence, without explanation, to convict of violation of the gambling laws.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 28057, 1953.

849.07 Permitting gambling on billiard or pool table by holder of license.—If any holder of a license to operate a billiard or pool table shall permit any person to play billiards or pool or any other game for money, or any other thing of value, upon such tables, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 14, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 5505; CGL 7663; s. 1062, ch. 71-136.

849.08 Gambling.—Whoever plays or engages in any game at cards, keno, roulette, faro or other game of chance, at any place, by any device whatever, for money or other thing of value, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2651; s. 1, ch. 4514, 1895; GS 3579; RGS 5508; CGL 7666; s. 1063, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 901.19 Seizure of gambling implements.

849.09 Lottery prohibited; exceptions.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person in this state to:

(a) Set up, promote, or conduct any lottery for money or for anything of value;

(b) Dispose of any money or other property of any kind whatsoever by means of any lottery;

(c) Conduct any lottery drawing for the distribution of a prize or prizes by lot or chance, or advertise any such lottery scheme or device in any newspaper or by circulars, posters, pamphlets, radio, telegraph, telephone, or otherwise;

(d) Aid or assist in the setting up, promoting or conducting of any lottery or lottery drawing, whether by writing, printing or in any other manner whatsoever, or be interested in or connected in any way with any lottery or lottery drawing;

(e) Attempt to operate, conduct or advertise any lottery scheme or device;

(f) Have in his possession any lottery wheel, implement or device whatsoever for conducting any lottery or scheme for the disposal by lot or chance of anything of value;

(g) Sell, offer for sale, or transmit, in person or by mail or in any other manner whatsoever, any lottery ticket, coupon, or share, or any share in or fractional part of any lottery ticket, coupon or share, whether such ticket, coupon or share represents an interest in a live lottery not yet played or whether it represents, or has represented, an interest in a lottery that has already been played;

(h) Have in his possession any lottery ticket, or any evidence of any share or right in any lottery ticket, or in any lottery scheme or device, whether such ticket or evidence of share or right represents an interest in a live lottery not yet played or whether it represents, or has represented, an interest in a lottery that has already been played;

(i) Aid or assist in the sale, disposal or procurement of any lottery ticket, coupon or share, or any right to any drawing in a lottery; or

(j) Have in his possession any lottery advertisement, circular, poster or pamphlet, or any list or schedule of any lottery prizes, gifts or drawings.

(k) Have in his possession any so-called run down sheets, tally sheets, or other papers, records, instruments, or paraphernalia designed for use, either directly or indirectly, in, or in connection with, the violation of the laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling.

Provided, that nothing in this section shall prohibit participation in any nationally advertised contest, drawing, game or puzzle of skill or chance for a prize or prizes unless it can be construed as a lottery under this section; and provided further that this exemption for national contests shall not apply to any such contest based upon the outcome or results of any horse race, harness race, dog race or jai alai game.

(2) Any person who is convicted of violating any of the provisions of paragraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d) of subsection (1) shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Any person who is convicted of violating any of the provisions of paragraphs (e), (f), (g), (i) or (k) of subsection (1) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person who, having been convicted of violating any provision thereof, thereafter violates any provision thereof shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. The provisions of this section shall not apply to bingo or guest games as provided for in s. 849.093.

(4) Any person who is convicted of violating any of the provisions of paragraphs (h) or (j) of subsection (1) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided, that any person who, having been convicted of violating any provision thereof, thereafter violates any provision thereof shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4373, 1895; GS 3582; RGS 5509; CGL 7667; s. 1, ch. 26765, 1951; s. 1, ch. 67-72; s. 1, ch. 67-435; ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-91; s. 1064, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

849.091 Chain letters, pyramid clubs, etc., declared a lottery; prohibited; penalties.—The organization of any chain letter club, pyramid club, or other group organized or brought together under any plan or device whereby fees or dues or anything of material value to be paid or given by members thereof are to be paid or given to any other member thereof, which plan or device includes any provision for the increase in such membership through a chain process of new members securing other new members and thereby advancing themselves in the group to a position where such members in turn receive fees, dues or things of material value from other members, is hereby declared to be a lottery, and whoever shall participate in any such lottery by becoming a member of, or affiliating with, any such group or organization or who shall solicit any person for membership or affiliation in any such group or organization shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 25096, 1949; s. 1065, ch. 71-136.

849.0915 Referral selling.—

(1) Referral selling, whereby the seller gives or offers a rebate or discount to the buyer as an inducement for a sale in consideration of the buyer's providing the seller with the names of prospective purchasers, is declared to be a lottery if earning the rebate or discount is contingent upon the occurrence of an event subsequent to the time the buyer agrees to buy.

(2) Any person conducting a lottery by referral selling is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) In addition to the penalty provided herein, the attorney general and his assistants, the state attorneys and their assistants, and the Division of Consumer Services of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services are authorized to apply to the circuit court within their respective jurisdictions, and such court shall have jurisdiction, upon hearing and for cause shown, to grant a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating the provisions of this section, whether or not there exists an adequate remedy at law, and such injunction shall issue without bond.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-110; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

849.092 Retail merchandising business; certain activities permitted.—The provisions of s. 849.09 shall not be construed to prohibit or prevent persons who are licensed to conduct business under s. 206.404, from giving away prizes to persons selected by lot, if such prizes are made on the following conditions:

(1) Such gifts are conducted as advertising and promotional undertakings, in good faith, solely for the purpose of advertising the goods, wares, merchandise and business of such licensee; and

(2) The principal business of such licensee is the business permitted to be licensed under s. 206.404; and

(3) No person to be eligible to receive such gift shall ever be required to:

(a) Pay any tangible consideration to such licensee in the form of money or other property or thing of value, or

(b) Purchase any goods, wares, merchandise or anything of value from such licensee.

(4) The person selected to receive any such gift or prize offered by any such licensee in connection with any such advertising or promotion is notified of his selection at his last known address. Newspapers, magazines, television and radio stations may, without violating any law, publish and broadcast advertising matter describing such advertising and promotional undertakings of such licensees which may contain instructions pursuant to which persons desiring to become eligible for such gifts or prizes may make their name and address known to such licensee.

(5) All brochures, advertisements, promotional material, and entry blanks promoting such undertakings shall contain a clause stating that residents of Florida are entitled to participate in such undertakings and are eligible to win gifts or prizes.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-553; s. 1, ch. 65-261; s. 1, ch. 71-287; s. 244, ch. 77-104.

849.093 Charitable, nonprofit organizations; certain endeavors permitted.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Bingo game" means and refers to the activity commonly known as "bingo" wherein participants pay a sum of money for the use of one or more cards. When the game commences, numbers are drawn by chance, one by one, and announced. The players cover or mark those numbers on the cards which they have purchased until a player receives a given order of numbers in sequence that has been preannounced for that particular game. This player calls out "bingo" and is declared the winner of a predetermined prize. More than one game may be played upon a bingo card, and numbers called for one game may be used for a succeeding game or games.

(b) "Bingo card" means and refers to the flat piece of paper or thin pasteboard employed by players engaged in the game of bingo. More than one set of bingo numbers may be printed on any single piece of paper.

(2) None of the provisions of this chapter shall be construed to prohibit or prevent nonprofit or veterans' organizations engaged in charitable, civic, community, benevolent, religious, or scholastic works or other similar activities, which organizations have been in existence for a period of 3 years or more, from conducting bingo games or guest games, provided that the entire proceeds derived from the conduct of such games, less actual business expenses for articles designed for and essential to the operation, conduct, and playing of bingo, shall be donated by such organizations to the endeavors mentioned above. In no case shall the net proceeds from the conduct of such games be used for any other purpose whatsoever. The proceeds derived from the conduct of bingo games shall not be considered solicitation of public donations.

(3) If an organization is not engaged in efforts of the type set out above, its right to conduct bingo or guest games hereunder shall be conditioned upon the return of all the proceeds from such games to the players in the form of prizes. If at the conclusion of play on any day during which a bingo or guest game is allowed to be played under this section there remain proceeds which have not been paid out as prizes, the nonprofit organization conducting the game shall at the next scheduled day of play conduct bingo or guest games without any charge to the players and shall continue to do so until the proceeds carried over from the previous days played have been exhausted. This provision in no way extends the limitation on the number of prize or jackpot games allowed in one night as provided for in subsection (5).

(4) The number of days during which such organizations as are authorized hereunder may conduct bingo or guest games per week shall not exceed two.

(5) No jackpot shall exceed the value of $100 in actual money or its equivalent, and there shall be no more than one jackpot in any one night.

(6) There shall be only one prize or jackpot on any one day of play of $100. All other game prizes shall not exceed $25.

(7) Each person involved in the conduct of any bingo or guest game must be a resident of the community where the organization is located and a bona fide member of the organization sponsoring such game and shall not be compensated in any way for operation of said bingo or guest game.

(8) No one under 18 years of age shall be allowed to play.

(9) Bingo or guest games shall be held only on the following premises:

(a) Property owned by the nonprofit organization;

(b) Property owned by the charity or organization that will benefit by the proceeds;

(c) Property leased full time for a period of not less than 1 year by the nonprofit organization or by the charity or organization that will benefit by the proceeds;

(d) Property owned by and leased from another nonprofit organization qualified under this section; or

(e) Property owned by a municipality or a county when the governing authority has, by appropriate ordinance or resolution, specifically authorized the use of such property for the conduct of such games.

(10) Any organization or other person who willfully and knowingly violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. For a second or subsequent offense, the organization or other person is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-178; s. 1, ch. 73-229; s. 69, ch. 77-121; s. 1, ch. 78-21; s. 1, ch. 79-318.

Note.—The word "game" was inserted by the editors.

849.094 Game promotion in connection with sale of consumer products or services.—

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Game promotion" means, but is not limited to, "contest," "game of chance," and "gift enterprise," in which the elements of chance and prize are present. However, "game promotion" shall not be construed to apply to bingo games or guest games conducted pursuant to s. 849.093.

(b) "Operator" means any person, firm, corporation, or association or agent or employee thereof who promotes, operates, or conducts a game promotion, except charitable nonprofit organizations.

(2) It is unlawful for any operator:

(a) To design, engage in, promote, or conduct such a game promotion, in connection with the promotion or sale of consumer products or services, wherein the winner may be predetermined or said game may be manipulated or rigged so as to:

1. Allocate a winning game or any portion thereof to certain lessees, agents, or franchises; or

2. To allocate a winning game or part thereof to a particular period of the game promotion or to a particular geographic area;

(b) Arbitrarily to remove, disqualify, disallow, or reject any entry;

(c) To fail to award prizes offered; or

(d) To print, publish or circulate literature or advertising material used in connection with such game promotions which is false, deceptive or misleading.

(3) All rules and regulations promulgated by the operator of such game promotion must be filed with the Department of Legal Affairs at least 30 days in advance of the commencement of the game promotion and may not thereafter be changed, modified or altered. Such rules and regulations shall be conspicuously posted in each and every retail outlet or place where such game promotion may be played or participated in by the public and be published in all advertising copy used in connection therewith. Radio and television announcements may indicate that the rules and regulations are available at retail outlets or from the operator of the promotion.

(4)(a) Every operator of such a game promotion conducted in the state shall establish a trust account in a national or state-chartered financial institution, with a balance sufficient to pay or purchase the total value of all prizes offered. In lieu of establishing such trust account, the operator may obtain a bond, with sufficient sureties, in amount equivalent to the total value of all prizes offered. A copy of a certificate of deposit indicating the balance of said trust account or of the bond shall be filed with the Department of Legal Affairs simultaneously with the filing of rules and regulations as herein provided, together with a list of all prizes and prize categories offered.

(b) The moneys so held in escrow or the bond shall at all times equal the total amount of the prizes offered. Moneys may be withdrawn, from time to time, in order to pay the prizes offered only upon certification to the Department of Legal Affairs of the name of the winner and the amount of the prize or the value thereof.

(5) Every operator of such a game promotion conducted in the state shall disclose to the public the names and addresses of all persons who have won prizes having a value of more than $25, the value of such prizes, and the dates when the same were won, by publication in a newspaper of general circulation within the local geographic area wherein such game was played, maintained, or operated, within 30 days after such winners have been determined. A certified list thereof shall be simultaneously filed with the Department of Legal Affairs. All winning entries shall be held by the operator for a period of 60 days after the close or completion of such game.

(6) The Department of Legal Affairs shall keep the certified list of winners for a period of at least 6 months after receipt of said certified list. The department thereafter may dispose of all records and lists.

(7) No operator shall force, directly or indirectly, a lessee, agent, or franchise dealer to purchase or participate in any game promotion. For the purpose of this section, coercion or force shall be presumed in these circumstances in which a course of business extending over a period of 1 year or longer is materially changed coincident with a failure or refusal of a lessee, agent, or franchise dealer to participate in such game promotions. Such force or coercion shall further be presumed when an operator advertises generally that game promotions are available at its lessee dealers or agent dealers.

(8)(a) The Attorney General shall have the power to promulgate such rules and regulations respecting the operation of game promotions as he may deem advisable.

(b) Whenever the Department of Legal Affairs has reason to believe that such a game promotion is being operated in violation of this section, it may bring an action in the Supreme Court in the name and on behalf of the people of the state against any operator thereof to enjoin the continued operation of such game promotion.

(c) An action for violation of this section may be instituted by the Department of Legal Affairs in the name of the people of the state, and in any such action, the department shall exercise all of the powers and perform all the duties which any state attorney would otherwise be authorized to exercise or to perform therein.

(9)(a) Any person, firm, corporation, or association or agent or employee thereof who engages in any acts or practices stated in this section to be unlawful, or who violates any of the rules and regulations of the Attorney General made pursuant to this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(b) Any person, firm, corporation, association, agent, or employee who violates any provision of this section or any of the rules and regulations of the Attorney General made pursuant to this section shall be liable to a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 for each such violation, which shall accrue to the state and may be recovered in a civil action brought by the Department of Legal Affairs.

(10) This section shall not apply to a game promotion conducted in less than three retail outlets or at places where such game promotion may be played or participated in by the public. Nothing herein shall apply to actions or transactions regulated by the Department of Business Regulation.

History.—ss. 1-9, ch. 71-304; s. 1, ch. 73-292.

849.10 Printing lottery tickets, etc., prohibited.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person, in any house, office, shop or building in this state to write, type, write, print, or publish any lottery ticket or advertisement, circular, bill, poster, pamphlet, list or schedule, announcement or notice, of lottery prizes or drawings or any other matter or thing in any way connected with any lottery drawing, scheme or device, or to set up any type or plate for any such purpose, to be used or distributed in this state, or to be sent out of this state.

(2) It is unlawful for the owner or lessee of any such house, shop or building knowingly to permit the printing, typewriting, writing or publishing therein of any lottery ticket or advertisement, circular, bill, poster, pamphlet, list, schedule, announcement or notice of lottery prizes or drawings, or any other matter or thing in any way connected with any lottery drawing, scheme or device, or knowingly to permit therein the setting up of any type or plate for any such purpose to be used or distributed in this state, or to be sent out of the state.

(3) Any violation of this section shall be a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 4373, 1895; GS 3583; RGS 5510; CGL 7668; s. 1066, ch. 71-136.

849.11 Plays at games of chance by lot.—Whoever sets up, promotes or plays at any game of chance by lot or with dice, cards, numbers, hazards or any other gambling device whatever for, or for the disposal of money or other thing of value or under the pretext of a sale, gift or delivery thereof, or for any right, share or interest therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 3, ch. 4373, 1895; GS 3584; RGS 5511; CGL 7669; s. 1067, ch. 71-136.

849.12 Money and prizes to be forfeited.—All sums of money and every other valuable thing drawn and won as a prize, or as a share of a prize, or as a share, percentage or profit of the principal promoter or operator, in any lottery, and all money, currency or property of any kind to be disposed of, or offered to be disposed of, by chance or device in any scheme or under any pretext by any person, and all sums of money or other thing of value received by any person by reason of his being the owner or holder of any ticket or share of a ticket in a lottery, or pretended lottery, or of a share or right in any such schemes of chance or device and all sums of money and other thing of value used in the setting up, conducting or operation of a lottery, and all money or other thing of value at stake, or used or displayed in or in connection with any illegal gambling or any illegal gambling device contrary to the laws of this state, shall be forfeited, and may be recovered by civil proceedings, filed, or by action for money had and received, to be brought by the Department of Legal Affairs or any state attorney, or other prosecuting officer, in the circuit courts in the name and on behalf of the state; the same to be applied when collected as all other penal forfeitures are disposed of.

849.15 Manufacture, sale, possession, etc., of coin-operated devices prohibited.—It is unlawful:

(1) To manufacture, own, store, keep, possess, sell, rent, lease, let on shares, lend or give away, transport, or expose for sale or lease, or to offer to sell, rent, lease, let on shares, lend or give away, or permit the operation of, or for any person to permit to be placed, maintained, or used or kept in any room, space, or building owned, leased or occupied by him or under his management or control, any slot machine or device or any part thereof; or

(2) To make or to permit to be made with any person any agreement with reference to any slot machine or device, pursuant to which the user thereof, as a result of any element of chance or other outcome unpredictable to him, may become entitled to receive any money, credit, allowance, or thing of value or additional chance or right to use such machine or device, or to receive any check, slug, token or memorandum entitling the holder to receive any money, credit, allowance or thing of value.

History.—s. 1, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-a).

849.16 "Machines" or "devices," which come within provisions of law defined.—

(1)(a) Any "machine" or "device" is a slot machine or device within the provisions of this chapter if it is one that is adapted for use in such a way that, as a result of the insertion of any piece of money, coin, or other object, such machine or device is caused to operate or may be operated and, by reason of any element of chance or of other outcome of such operation unpredictable by him, the user may receive or become entitled to receive any piece of money, credit, allowance, or thing of value, or any check, slug, token, or memorandum, whether of value or otherwise, which may be exchanged for any money, credit, allowance, or thing of value or which may be given in trade, or the user may secure additional chances or rights to use such machine, apparatus, or device, even though it may, in addition to any element of chance or unpredictable outcome of such operation, also sell, deliver, or present some merchandise, indication of weight, entertainment, or other thing of value.

(b) However, nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed as applicable to an arcade amusement center having amusement games or machines which operate by means of the insertion of a coin and which by application of skill may entitle the person playing or operating the game or machine to receive points or coupons which may be exchanged for merchandise only, excluding cash and alcoholic beverages, provided that the merchandise or prize awarded in exchange for said points or coupons shall not exceed the cost value of 75 cents on any game played. Nothing in this subsection shall be taken or construed as applicable to a coin-operated game or device designed and manufactured only for bona fide amusement purposes which game or device may by application of skill entitle the player to replay the game or device at no additional cost, if the game or device can accumulate and react to no more than 15 free replays; can be discharged of accumulated free replays only by reactivating the game or device for one additional play for each accumulated free replay; can make no permanent record, directly or indirectly, of free replays; and is not classified by the United States as requiring a federal gambling tax stamp under applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The term "arcade amusement center" as used in this section shall mean a place of business having at least 50 or more coin-operated amusement games or machines on the premises which are operated for the entertainment of the general public and tourists as a bona fide amusement facility.

History.—s. 2, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-b); s. 1, ch. 67-203; s. 1, ch. 77-275.

849.17 Confiscation of machines by arresting officer.—Upon the arrest of any person charged with the violation of any of the provisions of ss. 849.15-849.23 the arresting officer shall take into his custody any such machine, apparatus or device, and its contents, and the sheriff, at the place of seizure, shall make a complete and correct list and inventory of all such things so taken into his custody, and deliver to the person from whom such article or articles may have been seized, a true copy of the list of all such articles. Upon making such a seizure the sheriff shall, forthwith and without delay, deliver each and every item of the things taken into his custody to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which such seizure is made, and upon delivery, deliver therewith to said clerk the original list and inventory so made by said sheriff at the time and place of such seizure; and upon such delivery the clerk shall verify said list and inventory and mark each item for identification and make a complete and correct list and inventory of the things delivered to him by the sheriff, in duplicate, duly certified by him officially, and deliver one copy thereof to the sheriff, and deposit one copy in proper safety files in his office. The clerk of the circuit court shall keep and preserve all things so delivered to him and have the same forthcoming at any investigation, prosecution or other proceedings, incident to charges of violation of any of the provisions of ss. 849.15-849.23.

History.—s. 4, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-c).

849.18 Disposition of machines upon conviction.—Upon conviction of the person arrested for the violation of any of the provisions of ss. 849.15-849.23, the judge of the court trying the case, after such notice to the person convicted, and any other person whom the judge may be of the opinion is entitled to such notice, and as the judge may deem reasonable, shall issue to the sheriff of the county a written order adjudging and declaring any such machine, apparatus or device forfeited, and directing such sheriff to destroy the same, with the exception of the money. The order of the court shall state the time and place and the manner in which such property shall be destroyed, and the sheriff shall destroy the same in the presence of the clerk of the circuit court of such county.

History.—s. 5, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-d).

849.19 Property rights in confiscated machine.—The right of property in and to any machine, apparatus or device as defined in s. 849.16 and to all money and other things of value therein, is declared not to exist in any person, and the same shall be forfeited and such money or other things of value shall be forfeited to the county in which the seizure was made and shall be delivered forthwith to the clerk of the circuit court and shall by him be placed in the fine and forfeiture fund of said county.

cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

849.20 Machines and devices declared nuisance; place of operation subject to lien for fine.—Any room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure or place wherein any machine or device, or any part thereof, the possession, operation or use of which is prohibited by ss. 849.15-849.23, shall be maintained or operated, and each of such machines or devices, is declared to be a common nuisance. If a person has knowledge, or reason to believe, that his room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure or place is occupied or used in violation of the provisions of ss. 849.15-849.23 and by acquiescence or consent suffers the same to be used, such room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure or place shall be subject to a lien for and may be sold to pay all fines or costs assessed against the person guilty of such nuisance, for such violation, and the several state attorneys shall enforce such lien in the courts of this state having jurisdiction.

History.—s. 7, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-f); s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945.

849.21 Injunction to restrain violation.—An action to enjoin any nuisance as herein defined may be brought by any person in the courts of equity in this state. If it is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court, or judge in vacation, that such nuisance exists, a temporary writ of injunction shall forthwith issue restraining the defendant from conducting or permitting the continuance of such nuisance until the conclusion of the action. Upon application of the compliant in such a proceeding, the court or judge may also enter an order restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing, or in any way interfering with the machines or devices or other things used in connection with the violation of ss. 849.15-849.23 constituting such a nuisance. No bond shall be required in instituting such proceedings.

History.—s. 8, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151 (405-g).

849.22 Fees of clerk of circuit court and sheriff.—The clerks of the courts and the sheriffs performing duties under the provisions of ss. 849.15-849.23 shall receive the same fees as prescribed by general law for the performance of similar duties, and such fees shall be paid out of the fine and forfeiture fund of the county as costs are paid upon conviction of an insolvent person.

History.—s. 9, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-h).

849.23 Penalty for violations of ss. 849.15-849.22.—Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of ss. 849.15-849.22 shall, upon conviction thereof, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person convicted of violating any provision of ss. 849.15-849.22, a second time shall, upon conviction thereof, be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any person violating any provision of ss. 849.15-849.22 after having been twice convicted already shall be deemed a "common offender," and shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 8135(21); s. 1070, ch. 71-136.

849.231 Gambling devices; manufacture, sale, purchase or possession unlawful.—

(1) Except in instances when the following described implements or apparatus are being held or transported by authorized persons for the purpose of destruction, as hereinafter provided, and except in instances when the following described instruments or apparatus are being held, sold, transported, or manufactured by persons who have registered with the United States Government pursuant to the provisions of Title 15 of the United States Code, ss. 1171 et seq., as amended, so long as the described implements or apparatus are not displayed to the general public, sold for use in Florida, or held or manufactured in contravention of the requirements of 15 U.S.C. ss. 1171 et seq., it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, transport, offer for sale, purchase, own, or have in his possession any roulette wheel or table, faro layout, crap table or layout, chemin de fer table or layout, chuck-a-luck wheel, bird cage such as used for gambling, bolita balls, chips with house markings, or any other device, implement, apparatus, or paraphernalia ordinarily or commonly used or designed to be used in the operation of gambling houses or establishments, excepting ordinary dice and playing cards.

(2) In addition to any other penalties provided for the violation of this section, any occupational license held by a person found guilty of violating this section shall be suspended for a period not to exceed 5 years.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29665, 1955; s. 9, ch. 74-385; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

849.232 Property right in gambling devices; confiscation.—There shall be no right of property in any of the implements or devices enumerated or included in s. 849.231 and upon the seizure of any such implement, device, apparatus or paraphernalia by an authorized enforcement officer the same shall be delivered to and held by the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of such offenses and shall not be released by such clerk until he shall be advised by the prosecuting officer of such court that the said implement is no longer required as evidence and thereupon the said clerk shall deliver the said implement to the sheriff of the county who shall immediately cause the destruction of such implement in the presence of the said clerk or his authorized deputy.

History.—s. 2, ch. 29665, 1955.

849.233 Penalty for violation of s. 849.231.—Any person, including any enforcement officer, clerk or prosecuting official who shall violate the provisions of s. 849.231 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 3, ch. 29665, 1955; s. 1071, ch. 71-136.

849.235 Possession of certain gambling devices; defense.—

(1) It is a defense to any action or prosecution under ss. 849.15-849.233 for the possession of any gambling device specified therein that the device is an antique slot machine and that it is not being used for gambling. For the purpose of this section, an antique slot machine is one which was manufactured prior to January 1, 1941.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, upon a successful defense to a prosecution for the possession of a gambling device pursuant to the provisions of this section, the antique slot machine shall be returned to the person from whom it was seized.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-22.

849.25 "Bookmaking" defined; penalties; exceptions.—

(1) The term "bookmaking" means the act of taking or receiving any bet or wager upon the result of any trial or contest of skill, speed, power, or endurance of man or beast or between men, beasts, fowl, motor vehicles, or mechanical apparatus or upon the result of any chance, casualty, unknown, or contingent event whatsoever.

(2) Any person who engages in bookmaking shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 948.01, any person convicted under the provisions of this subsection shall not have adjudication of guilt suspended, deferred, or withheld.

(3) Any person who has been convicted of bookmaking and thereafter violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 948.01, any person convicted under the provisions of this subsection shall not have adjudication of guilt suspended, deferred, or withheld.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 777.04, any person who is guilty of conspiracy to commit bookmaking shall be subject to the penalties imposed by subsections (2) and (3).

(5) This section shall not apply to pari-mutuel wagering in Florida as authorized under chapters 550 and 551.

(6) This section shall not apply to any prosecutions filed and pending at the time of the passage hereof, but all such cases shall be disposed of under existing laws at the time of the institution of such prosecutions.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 26847, 1951; s. 1073, ch. 71-136; s. 47, ch. 75-298; s. 1, ch. 78-36.

849.26 Gambling contracts declared void; exception.—All promises, agreements, notes, bills, bonds or other contracts, mortgages or other securities, when the whole or part of the consideration is for money or other valuable thing won or lost, laid, staked, betted or wagered in any gambling transaction whatsoever, regardless of its name or nature, whether heretofore prohibited or not, or for the repayment of money lent or advanced at the time of a gambling transaction for the purpose of being laid, betted, staked or wagered, are void and of no effect; provided, that this act shall not apply to wagering on pari-mutuels or any gambling transaction expressly authorized by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.29 Persons against whom suits may be brought to recover on gambling contracts.—The following persons shall be jointly and severally liable for the items which are authorized by this act to be sued for and recovered, and any suit brought under the authorization of this act may be brought against all or any of such persons, to wit: The winner of the money or property lost in the gambling transaction; every person who, having direct or indirect charge, control or management, either exclusively or with others, of the place where the gambling transaction occurs, procures, suffers or permits such place to be used for gambling purposes; whoever promotes, sets up or conducts the gambling transaction in which the loss occurs or has an interest in it as backer, vendor, owner or otherwise; and, as to anything of value other than money, the transferees and assignees, with notice, of the persons hereinabove specified in this section; and the personal representatives of the persons specified in this section.

History.—s. 4, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.30 Plaintiff entitled to writs of attachment, garnishment and replevin.—In any suit under ss. 849.26-849.34, the plaintiff shall be entitled to writs of attachment and garnishment for the sums of money, exclusive of attorney's fees, sued for the use and benefit of persons other than the state, in the same manner and to the same extent as in an action on contract; and, in any suit under this chapter for the recovery of a thing of value other than money, the plaintiff shall be entitled to a writ of replevin for the recovery of such thing of value, in the manner and to the extent provided by the replevin statutes of the state.

History.—s. 5, ch. 26543, 1951; s. 24, ch. 57-1.

849.31 Loser's testimony not to be used against him.—In the event that suit is brought under the authorization of ss. 849.26-849.34 by someone other than the loser of the money or thing of value involved in the suit, such loser shall not be excused from being required to attend and testify or produce any book, paper or other document or evidence in such suit, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to convict him of a crime or to subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so be required to testify or produce evidence, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or prosecution. If the loser of money or thing of value involved in a suit brought under authorization of ss. 849.26-849.34, whether by him or by someone else, voluntarily attends or produces evidence in such suit, he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or prosecution. Also, neither the fact of the bringing of suit under this act by a loser nor any statement or admission in his pleadings which is material and relevant to the subject matter of the suit shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding.

History.—s. 6, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.32 Notice to state attorney; prosecution of suit.—The summons in any such suit, and copies of all pleadings and notices of all hearings in the suit, and notice of the trial and of application for the entry of final judgment, shall be served on the state attorney, whose duty it shall be to protect the interests of the state and, if the plaintiff fails to diligently prosecute the suit, to bring such failure to the attention of the court. If the plaintiff fails to effectively prosecute any such suit without collusion or deceit and without unnecessary delay, the court shall direct the state attorney to proceed with the action. No such suit shall be dismissed except upon a sworn statement filed by the plaintiff or the state attorney which satisfies the court that the suit should be dismissed.

History.—s. 7, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.33 Judgment and collection of money; execution.—Any judgment recovered in such a suit shall adjudge separately the amounts recovered for the use of the state, and the plaintiff shall not have execution therefor, and such amounts shall not be paid to the plaintiff, but shall be payable to the state attorney, who shall promptly transmit the sums collected by him to the state treasurer. The state attorney shall diligently seek the collection of such amounts and may cause a separate execution to issue for the collection thereof.

History.—s. 8, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.34 Loser's judgment; recovery of property; writ of assistance.—If the plaintiff in any such suit seek to recover property lost, and if he shall prevail as to any such property, he shall take judgment for the property itself and for the value thereof, the judgment as to such property to be satisfied by the recovery of the property or of the value thereof. The plaintiff may, at his option, sue out a separate writ of possession for the property and a separate execution for any other moneys and costs adjudged in his favor, or he may sue out an execution for the value of the property and any other moneys and costs adjudged in his favor. If he elect to sue out a writ of possession for the property, and if the officer shall return that he is unable to find the property, or any of it, the plaintiff may thereupon sue out execution for the value of the property not found. In any proceeding to ascertain the value of the property, the value of each article shall be found so that judgment for such value may be entered.

History.—s. 9, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.35 Definitions.—In construing ss. 849.36-849.46 and each and every word, phrase, or part thereof, where the context permits:

- (1) The singular includes the plural and vice versa.
- (2) The masculine includes the feminine and neuter and vice versa.
- (3) The term "vessel" includes every description of watercraft, vessel or contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation in or on water, or in or on the water and in the air.
- (4) The term "vehicle" includes every description of vehicle, carriage, animal or contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on land, in the air, or on land and in the air.
- (5) The term "gambling paraphernalia" includes every description of apparatus, implement, machine, device or contrivance used in, or in connection with, any violation of the lottery, gaming and gambling statutes, and laws of this state, except facilities and equipment furnished by a public utility in the regular course of business, and which remain the property of such utility while so furnished.

(6) The term "lottery ticket" shall include every ticket, token, emblem, card, paper or other evidence of a chance, interest, prize or share in, or in connection with any lottery, game of chance or hazard or other things in violation of the lottery and gambling statutes and laws of this state (including bolita, cuba, bond, New York bond, butter and eggs, night house and other like and similar operations, but not excluding others). The said term shall also include so-called rundown sheets, tally sheets, and all other papers, records, instruments, and things designed for use, either directly or indirectly, in, or in connection with, the violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling in this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.36 Seizure and forfeiture of property used in the violation of lottery and gambling statutes.—

(1) Every vessel or vehicle used for, or in connection with, the removal, transportation, storage, deposit or concealment of any lottery tickets, or used in connection with any lottery or game in violation of the statutes and laws of this state, shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture, as provided by the Florida Uniform Contraband Transportation Act.

(2) All gambling paraphernalia and lottery tickets as herein defined used in connection with a lottery, gambling, unlawful game of chance or hazard, in violation of the statutes and laws of this state, found by an officer in searching a vessel or vehicle used in the violation of the gambling laws shall be safely kept so long as it is necessary for the purpose of being used as evidence in any case, and as soon as may be afterwards, shall be destroyed by order of the court before whom the case is brought or certified to any other court having jurisdiction, either state or federal.

(3) The presence of any lottery ticket in any vessel or vehicle owned or being operated by any person charged with a violation of the gambling laws of the state, shall be prima facie evidence that such vessel or vehicle was or is being used in connection with a violation of the lottery and gambling statutes and laws of this state and as a means of removing, transporting, depositing or concealing lottery tickets and shall be sufficient evidence for the seizure of such vessel or vehicle.

(4) The presence of lottery tickets in any room or place, including vessels and vehicles, shall be prima facie evidence that such room, place, vessel or vehicle, and all apparatus, implements, machines, contrivances or devices therein, (herein referred to as "gambling paraphernalia") capable of being used in connection with a violation of the lottery and gambling statutes and laws of this state and shall be sufficient evidence for the seizure of such gambling paraphernalia.

(5) It shall be the duty of every peace officer in this state finding any vessel, vehicle or paraphernalia being used in violation of the statutes and laws of this state as aforesaid to seize and take possession of such property for disposition as hereinafter provided. It shall also be the duty of every peace officer finding any such property being so used, in connection with any lawful search made by him, to seize and take possession of the same for disposition as hereinafter provided.

History.—s. 2, ch. 29712, 1955; s. 1, ch. 57-236; s. 8, ch. 74-385.

849.37 Disposition and appraisal of property seized under this chapter.—

(1) Every peace officer, other than the sheriff, seizing property pursuant to the provisions of ss. 849.36-849.46 shall forthwith make return of the seizure thereof and deliver the said property to the sheriff of the county wherein the same was seized. The said return to the sheriff shall describe the property seized and give in detail the facts and circumstances under which the same was seized and state in full the reason why the seizing officer knew, or was led to believe, that the said property was being used for or in connection with a violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling in this state. The said return shall contain the names of all persons, firms and corporations known to the seizing officer to be interested in the seized property.

(2) When property is seized by the sheriff pursuant to this chapter, or when property seized by another is delivered to the sheriff as aforesaid, he shall forthwith fix the approximate value thereof and make return thereof to the clerk of the circuit court as hereinafter provided.

(3) The return of the sheriff aforesaid shall contain a schedule of the property seized describing the same in reasonable detail and give in detail the facts and circumstances under which it was seized and state in full the reason why the seizing officer knew or was led to believe that the property was being used for or in connection with a violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries or gambling in this state; and a statement of the names of all persons, firms and corporations known to the sheriff to be interested in the seized property; and in cases where the said property was seized by another the sheriff shall attach to his said return, as an exhibit thereto, the return of the seizing officer to him.

(4) The sheriff shall hold the said property seized pending its disposal by the court as hereinafter provided.

History.—s. 3, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.38 Proceedings for forfeiture; notice of seizure and order to show cause.—

(1) The return of the sheriff aforesaid to the clerk of the circuit court shall be taken and considered as the state's petition or libel in rem for the forfeiture of the property therein described, of which the circuit court of the county shall have jurisdiction without regard to value. The said return shall be sufficient as said petition or libel notwithstanding the fact that it may contain no formal prayer or demand for forfeiture, it being the intention of the Legislature that forfeiture may be decreed without a formal prayer or demand therefor. The said return shall be subject to amendment at any time before final hearing, provided that copies thereof shall be served upon all persons, firms or corporations who may have filed a claim prior to such amendment.

(2) Upon the filing of said return the clerk of the circuit court shall issue a citation, directed to all persons, firms and corporations owning, having or claiming an interest in or a lien upon the seized property, giving notice of the seizure and directing that all persons, firms or corporations owning, having or claiming an interest therein or lien thereon, to file their claim to, on, or in said property within the time fixed in said citation, as to persons, firms and corporations not personally served, and within 20 days from personal service of said citation, when personal service is had. Personal service shall be made on all parties, in Florida, having liens noted upon a certificate of title as shown by the records in the office of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles.

(3) The said citation may be in, or substantially in, the following form:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE ..... JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR ..... COUNTY, FLORIDA.
IN RE FORFEITURE OF THE FOLLOWING DE-SCRIBED PROPERTY:

(Here describe property)

THE STATE OF FLORIDA TO:

ALL PERSONS, FIRMS AND CORPORATIONS
OWNING, HAVING OR CLAIMING AN INTER-EST IN OR LIEN ON THE ABOVE DESCRIBED PROPERTY.

YOU AND EACH OF YOU are hereby notified that the above described property has been seized, under and by virtue of chapter ....., Laws of Florida, and is now in the possession of the sheriff of this county, and you, and each of you, are hereby further notified that a petition, under said chapter, has been filed in the Circuit Court of the ..... Judicial Circuit, in and for ..... County, Florida, seeking the forfeiture of the said property, and you are hereby directed and required to file your claim, if any you have, and show cause, on or before ....., 19....., if not personally served with process herein, and within 20 days from personal service if personally served with process herein, why the said property should not be forfeited pursuant to said chapter ....., Laws of Florida, 1955. Should you fail to file claim as herein directed judgment will be entered herein against you in due course. Persons not personally served with process may obtain a copy of the petition for forfeiture filed herein from the undersigned clerk of court.

WITNESS my hand and the seal of the above mentioned court, at ..... Florida, this ..... 19.....
(COURT SEAL)

.....(Clerk of the above-mentioned Court).....

By .....(Deputy Clerk).....

(4) Such citation shall be returnable, as to persons served constructively, as therein directed, not less than 21 nor more than 30 days, from the posting or publication thereof, and as to personally served with process within 20 days from service thereof. A copy of the petition shall be served with the process when personally served. Personal service of process may be made in the same manner as a summons in chancery.

(5) If the value of the property seized is shown by the sheriff's return to have an appraised value of $400 or less, the above citation shall be served by posting at three public places in the county, one of which shall be the front door of the courthouse; if the value of the property is shown by the sheriff's return to have an approximate value of more than $400, the citation shall be published once a week for 3 consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general publication published in the county, if there be such a newspaper published in the county and if not, then said notice of such publication shall be made by certificate of the clerk if publication is made by posting, and by affidavit as provided in chapter 50, if made by publication in a newspaper, which affidavit or certificate shall be filed and become a part of the record in the cause. Failure of the record to show proof of such publication shall not affect any judgment made in the cause unless it shall affirmatively appear that no such publication was made.

History.—s. 4, ch. 29712, 1955; ss. 24, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 12, ch. 73-299.

849.39 Delivery of property to claimant.—

Any person, firm or corporation filing a claim in the cause, which claim shall state fully his right, title, claim or interest, in and to the seized property, may, at any time after said claim is filed with the clerk of the court, obtain possession of the seized property by filing a petition therefor with the sheriff and posting with him, to be approved by him, a surety bond, payable to the Governor of the state in twice the amount of the value of the said property as fixed in the sheriff's return to the clerk of the circuit court, with a corporate surety duly authorized to transact business in this state as surety, conditioned upon his paying to the sheriff the value of the property together with costs of the proceeding, if judgment of forfeiture be entered by the court. Upon the posting of such bond with the sheriff and the release of the property to the applicant the cause shall proceed to final judgment in the same manner as it would have had no such bond been filed, except that any execution to be issued in the cause pursuant to judgment may run against and be enforced against the person posting said bond and his surety.

History.—s. 5, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.40 Proceeding when no claim filed.—

When no claim is filed in the cause within the time required the clerk shall enter a default against all persons, firms and corporations owning, claiming or having an interest in and to the property seized and the cause may then proceed in the same manner as a common law cause after default, and final judgment shall be entered therein ex parte, except as may be herein otherwise provided.

History.—s. 6, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.41 Proceeding when claim filed.—

When one or more claims are filed in the cause the cause shall be tried upon the issues made thereby with the petition for forfeiture with any affirmative defenses being deemed denied without further pleading. Judgment by default shall be entered against all other persons, firms and corporations owning, claiming or having an interest in and to the property seized, after which the cause shall proceed as in other common law cases; except any claimant shall prove to the satisfaction of the court that he did not know or have any reason to believe, at the time his right, title, interest, or lien arose, that the property was being used for or in connection with the violation of any of the statutes or laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling and further that at said time there was no reasonable reason to believe that the said property might be used for such purpose. Where the owner of the property has been convicted of a violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries or gambling such conviction shall be prima facie evidence that each claimant had reason to believe that the property might be used for or in connection with a violation of such statutes and laws, and it shall be incumbent upon such claimant to satisfy the court that he was without knowledge of such conviction. Trial of all such causes shall be without a jury, except in such cases as a trial by jury may be guaranteed by the state constitution and in such cases trial by jury shall be deemed waived unless demanded in the claim filed.

History.—s. 7, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.42 State attorney to represent state.—

Upon the filing of the sheriff's return with the clerk of the circuit court the said clerk shall furnish the state attorney with a copy thereof and the said state attorney shall represent the state in the forfeiture proceedings. The Department of Legal Affairs shall represent the state in all appeals from judgments of forfeiture to the appropriate district court of appeal or direct to the Supreme Court when authorized by s. 3, Art. V of the State Constitution. The state may appeal any judgment denying forfeiture in whole or in part or that may be otherwise adverse to the state.

History.—s. 8, ch. 29712, 1955; s. 34, ch. 63-559; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 13, ch. 73-299.

849.43 Judgment of forfeiture.—On final hearing the return of the sheriff to the clerk of the circuit court shall be taken as prima facie evidence that the property seized was or had been used in, or in connection with, the violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling in this state and shall be sufficient predicate for a judgment of forfeiture in the absence of other proofs and evidence. The burden shall be upon the claimants to show that the property was not so used or if so used that they had no knowledge of such violation and no reason to believe that the seized property was or would be used for the violation of such statutes and laws. Where such property is encumbered by a lien or retained title agreement under circumstances wherein the lienholder had no knowledge that the property was or would be used in violating such statutes and laws, and no reasonable reason to believe that it might be so used, then the court may declare a forfeiture of all other rights, titles and interests, subject, however, to the lien of such innocent lienholder, or may direct the payment of such lien from the proceeds of any sale of the said property. The proceedings and the judgment of forfeiture shall be in rem and shall be primarily against the property itself. Upon the entry of a judgment of forfeiture the court shall determine the disposition to be made of the property, which may include the destruction thereof, the sale thereof, the allocation thereof to some governmental function or use, or otherwise as the court may determine. Sales of such property shall be at public sale to the highest and best bidder therefor for cash after 2 weeks public notice as the court may direct. Where the property has been delivered to a claimant upon the posting of a bond the court shall determine the value of the property or portion thereof subject to forfeiture and shall enter judgment against the principal and surety of the bond in such amount for which execution shall issue in the usual manner. Upon the application of any claimant the court may fix the value of the forfeitable interest or interests in the seized property and permit such claimant to redeem the said property upon the payment of a sum equal to said value which sum shall be disposed of as would the proceeds of a sale of the said property under a judgment of forfeiture.

History.—s. 9, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.44 Disposition of proceeds of forfeiture.—

All sums received from a sale or other disposition of the seized property shall be paid into the county fine and forfeiture fund and shall become a part thereof; provided, however, that in instances where the seizure is by a municipal police officer within the limits of any municipality having an ordinance requiring such vehicles, vessels or conveyances to be forfeited, the city attorney shall act in behalf of the city in lieu of the state attorney and shall proceed to forfeit the property as herein provided, and all sums received therefrom shall go into the general operating fund of the city.

History.—s. 10, ch. 29712, 1955; s. 24, ch. 57-1.

849.45 Fees for services.—Fees for services required hereunder shall be the same as provided for sheriffs and clerks for like and similar services in other cases and matters.

History.—s. 11, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.46 Exercise of police power.—It is deemed by the Legislature that this chapter is necessary for the more efficient and proper enforcement of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling, and a lawful exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the public welfare, health, safety and morals of the people of the state. All the provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed for the accomplishment of these purposes.

History.—s. 12, ch. 29712, 1955.

CHAPTER 856

DRUNKENNESS; VAGRANCY; DESERTION

- 856.011 Disorderly intoxication.
 856.021 Loitering or prowling; penalty.
 856.031 Arrest without warrant.
 856.04 Desertion; withholding support; proviso.

856.011 Disorderly intoxication.—

(1) No person in the state shall be intoxicated and endanger the safety of another person or property, and no person in the state shall be intoxicated or drink any alcoholic beverage in a public place or in or upon any public conveyance and cause a public disturbance.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) Any person who shall have been convicted or have forfeited collateral under the provisions of subsection (1) 3 times in the preceding 12 months shall be deemed a habitual offender and may be committed by the court to an appropriate treatment resource for a period of not more than 60 days. Any peace officer, in lieu of incarcerating an intoxicated person for violation of subsection (1), may take or send the intoxicated person to his home or to a public or private health facility, and the law enforcement officer may take reasonable measures to ascertain the commercial transportation used for such purposes is paid for by such person in advance. Any law enforcement officers so acting shall be considered as carrying out their official duty.

History.—s. 16A, ch. 71-132.

856.021 Loitering or prowling; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to loiter or prowl in a place, at a time or in a manner not usual for law-abiding individuals, under circumstances that warrant a justifiable and reasonable alarm or immediate concern for the safety of persons or property in the vicinity.

(2) Among the circumstances which may be considered in determining whether such alarm or immediate concern is warranted is the fact that the person takes flight upon appearance of a law enforcement officer, refuses to identify himself, or manifestly endeavors to conceal himself or any object. Unless flight by the person or other circumstance makes it impracticable, a law enforcement officer shall, prior to any arrest for an offense under this section, afford the person an opportunity to dispel any alarm or immediate concern which would otherwise be warranted by requesting him to identify himself and explain his presence and conduct. No person shall be convicted of an offense under this section if the law enforcement officer did not comply with this procedure or if it appears at trial that the explanation given by the person is true and, if believed by the officer at the time, would have dispelled the alarm or immediate concern.

(3) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-133.

856.031 Arrest without warrant.—Any sheriff, policeman, or other law enforcement officer may arrest any suspected loiterer or prowler without a warrant in case delay in procuring one would probably enable such suspected loiterer or prowler to escape arrest.

History.—s. 2, ch. 72-133; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

856.04 Desertion; withholding support; proviso.—

(1) Any man who shall in this state desert his wife and children, or either of them, or his wife where there are no children or child, or who shall willfully withhold from them or either of them, the means of support, or any mother, who shall desert her child or children, or who shall willfully withhold from them the means of support, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. However, no husband shall be prosecuted under this section for the desertion of his wife, or for withholding from his wife the means of supporting her where there is existing, at the time of such desertion or withholding, such cause or causes as are recognized as ground or grounds for dissolution of marriage, by statute, in this state, if such person shall have provided for the support of his children, if there be any.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a child born out of wedlock shall be deemed to be the child of a man who has been adjudged or decreed to be the father of such child by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state or of any other jurisdiction.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4553, 1897; GS 3569; s. 1, ch. 6483, 1913; RGS 5496; CGL 7654; s. 1, ch. 59-147; s. 1, ch. 61-335; s. 1, ch. 65-210; s. 1077, ch. 71-136; s. 9, ch. 75-166.

CHAPTER 859

POISONS; ADULTERATED DRUGS

- 859.01 Poisoning food or water.
- 859.02 Selling certain poisons by registered pharmacists and others.
- 859.03 Sale of morphine.
- 859.04 Provisions concerning poisons.
- 859.05 Narcotics not to be sold except on prescription.
- 859.06 Sale of cigarettes and wrappers to minors.
- 859.07 Duty of officers to enforce s. 859.06.
- 859.08 Penalty for selling adulterated drugs.

859.01 Poisoning food or water.—Whoever mingles any poison with food, drink, or medicine with intent to kill or injure another person, or willfully poisons any spring, well, or reservoir of water with such intent, shall be guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2658; GS 3587; RGS 5515; CGL 7675; s. 1078, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 500.24 Violation of food, drug and cosmetic law.
s. 562.455 Adulterating liquor; penalty.

859.02 Selling certain poisons by registered pharmacists and others.—Any violation of the law, relative to sale of poisons, not specially provided for, shall constitute a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 8, ch. 3880, 1889; GS 1906, 3604; RGS 5526; CGL 7692; s. 1079, ch. 71-136.

859.03 Sale of morphine.—Any druggist or other dealer in drugs and medicines who shall sell or offer for sale any sulphate or other preparations of morphine, without wrapping the same in a scarlet wrapper and plainly labeling it, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083; provided, this section shall not apply to regular practicing physicians putting up their own prescriptions in their ordinary practice of dispensing medicines.

859.04 Provisions concerning poisons.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person not a registered pharmacist to retail any poisons enumerated below: Arsenic and all its preparations, corrosive sublimate, white and red precipitate, biniodide of mercury, cyanide of potassium, hydrocyanic acid, strychnine, and all other poisonous vegetable alkaloids and their salts, and the essential oil of almonds, opium, and its preparations of opium containing less than two grains to the ounce, aconite, belladonna, colchicum, conium, nux vomica, henbane, savin, ergot, cotton root, cantharides, creosote, veratrum digitalis, and their pharmaceutical preparations, croton oil, chloroform, chloral hydrate, sulphate of zinc, mineral acids, carbolic and oxalic acids; and he shall label the box, vessel, or paper in which said poison is contained with the name of the article, the word "poison," and the name and place of business of the seller.

(2) No person shall deliver or sell any poisons enumerated above unless upon due inquiry it be found that the purchaser is aware of its poisonous character and represents that it is to be used for a legitimate purpose. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the dispensing of poisons in not unusual quantities or doses upon the prescriptions of practitioners of medicine.

(3) Any violation of this section shall render the principal of said store guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. However, this section shall not apply to manufacturers making and selling at wholesale any of the above poisons. Each box, vessel, or paper in which said poison is contained shall be labeled with the name of the article, the word "poison," and the name and place of business of the seller.

History.—s. 8, ch. 3380, 1889; RS 822; GS 3606; RGS 5528; CGL 7694; s. 1081, ch. 71-136.

859.05 Narcotics not to be sold except on prescription.—No person shall sell, give away, or otherwise dispose of any opium, morphine, cocaine, or its salts, atropine, belladonna, or conium, to any person, except upon the written prescription of a licensed practicing physician, which prescription shall not be filled but once; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to manufacturers making and selling at wholesale to druggists, or to sales thereof, for the use of dentists, physicians, hospitals, or infirmaries. Any person who shall, for himself, or for any other person, violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 5957, 1909; RGS 5529; ss. 1, 2, ch. 10189, 1925; CGL 7695; s. 1082, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

859.06 Sale of cigarettes and wrappers to minors.—No person shall sell, barter, furnish, or give away, directly or indirectly, to any minor, any cigarette, cigarette wrapper or any substitute for either; or procure for, or persuade, advise, counsel, or compel any child under said age to smoke any cigarette. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 5716, 1907; RGS 5530; CGL 7696; s. 1083, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 1.01 "Minor" defined.

859.07 Duty of officers to enforce s. 859.06.—Sheriffs, their deputies, or any police officer shall enforce the provisions of s. 859.06, and he may summon any minor who may have or have had in his possession any cigarettes or cigarette material, and compel him to testify before the county court judge as to where and from whom he obtained such cigarettes or cigarette material.

History.—s. 3, ch. 5716, 1907; RGS 5531; CGL 7697; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

859.08 Penalty for selling adulterated drugs.

—Every registered pharmacist, and the owner or proprietor of any store dealing in drugs or medicines, shall be held responsible for the quality of all drugs, chemicals, or medicines he may sell or dispense, with the exception of those sold in the original packages of the manufacturer and those known as proprietary; and any person who fraudulently adulterates, for the purpose of sale, any drug or medicine or sells any fraudulently adulterated drug or medicine, knowing the same to be adulterated, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and such adulterated drugs and medicine shall be forfeited and destroyed under the direction of the court; and if the offender be a registered pharmacist, his name shall be stricken from the register.

History.—s. 8, ch. 6890, 1915; RGS 5532; CGL 7698; s. 1084, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 500.30 Sale of lye regulated.

CHAPTER 860

OFFENSES CONCERNING AIRCRAFT, MOTOR VEHICLES, AND RAILROADS

- 860.01 Driving automobile while intoxicated; punishment.
- 860.02 Carelessness of common carrier.
- 860.03 Intoxicated servant of common carrier.
- 860.04 Persons beating their way on railroad trains.
- 860.05 Unauthorized person interfering with railroad train, cars, or engines.
- 860.07 Unauthorized persons giving signals to railroad trains or engines.
- 860.08 Interference with railroad signals prohibited; penalty.
- 860.09 Interference with railroad track and other equipment prohibited; penalties.
- 860.091 Violations of s. 860.05, s. 860.08, or s. 860.09 resulting in death; penalty.
- 860.10 Disposing of duplicate switch keys of railroad companies; penalty.
- 860.11 Injuring railroad structures; driving cattle on tracks.
- 860.121 Crimes against railroad vehicles; penalties.
- 860.13 Operation of aircraft while intoxicated or in careless or reckless manner; penalty.
- 860.14 Motor vehicle parts and accessories; records of certain purchases.
- 860.15 Overcharging for repairs and parts; penalty.
- 860.16 Aircraft piracy; penalty.
- 860.17 Tampering with or interfering with motor vehicles or trailers.

860.01 Driving automobile while intoxicated; punishment.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person, while in an intoxicated condition or under the influence of intoxicating liquor, model glue, as defined in s. 877.11, or any substance controlled under chapter 893 to such extent as to deprive him of full possession of his normal faculties, to drive or operate over the highways, streets, or thoroughfares of Florida any automobile, truck, motorcycle, or other vehicle. Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall be punished as provided in s. 316.193.

(2) If, however, damage to property or person of another, other than damage resulting in death of any person, is done by said intoxicated person under the influence of intoxicating liquor to such extent as to deprive him of full possession of his normal faculties, by reason of the operation of any of said vehicles mentioned herein, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor or of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and if the death of any human being be caused by the operation of a motor vehicle by any person while intoxicated, such person shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter, and on conviction be punished as provided by existing law relating to manslaughter.

(3) Convictions under the provisions of this section shall not be a bar to any civil suit for damages against the person so convicted.

860.03 Intoxicated servant of common carrier.—

If any person while in charge of a locomotive engine, acting as the conductor or superintendent of a car or train, on the car or train as a brakeman, employed to attend the switches, drawbridges or signal stations on any railway, or acting as captain or pilot on any steamboat shall be intoxicated, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2693; GS 3638; RGS 5574; CGL 7760; s. 1087, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 352.37 Conductors, etc., violating regulations.

860.04 Persons beating their way on railroad trains.—

Any person who, without permission of those having authority, with the intention of being transported free, rides or attempts to ride on any railroad train in this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 4703, 1899; GS 3643; RGS 5579; CGL 7765; s. 1088, ch. 71-136.

860.05 Unauthorized person interfering with railroad train, cars, or engines.—

Any person, other than an employee or authorized agent of the railroad company acting within the line of his duty, who shall knowingly or willfully detach or uncouple any train; put on, apply, or tamper with any brake, bell cord, or emergency valve; or otherwise interfere with any train, engine, car, or part thereof is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 4704, 1899; GS 3654; RGS 5591; CGL 7777; s. 1089, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 79-360.

860.07 Unauthorized persons giving signals to railroad trains or engines.—

Any person who wrongfully, recklessly, or wantonly and without authority, signals any train or engine in this state with a red light or with a red flag, or gives any signal calculated to affect the movement or operation of any train, engine, or cars on any railroad in this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. This section shall not apply to any person giving signals to stop a train for the purpose of preventing an accident to such train, or at a regular station or flag station when the train is flagged for the purpose of taking passage on said train.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4708, 1899; GS 3656; RGS 5593; CGL 7779; s. 1091, ch. 71-136.

860.08 Interference with railroad signals prohibited; penalty.—Any person, other than an employee or authorized agent of a railroad company acting within the line of his duty, who knowingly or willfully interferes with or removes any railroad signal system used to control railroad operations, any railroad crossing warning devices, or any lantern, light, lamp, torch, flag, fuse, torpedo, or other signal used in connection with railroad operations is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 4705, 1899; GS 3657; RGS 5594; CGL 7780; s. 1092, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 79-360.

860.09 Interference with railroad track and other equipment prohibited; penalties.—Any person, other than an employee or authorized agent of a railroad company acting within the line of his duty, who knowingly or willfully moves, interferes with, removes, or obstructs any railroad switch, bridge, track, crossties, or other equipment located on the right-of-way or property of a railroad and used in railroad operations is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3755, 1887; RS 2698; GS 3660; RGS 5597; CGL 7783; s. 1093, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 79-360.

860.091 Violations of s. 860.05, s. 860.08, or s. 860.09 resulting in death; penalty.—Any person who violates the provisions of s. 860.05, s. 860.08, or s. 860.09 when such violation results in the death of another person is guilty of homicide as defined in chapter 782, punishable as provided in s. 775.082.

History.—s. 2, ch. 79-360.

860.10 Disposing of duplicate switch keys of railroad companies; penalty.—It is unlawful for any person to make, buy, sell, or give away any duplicate key to any lock belonging to or in use by any railroad company in this state on its switches or switch tracks, except on the written order of the officer of said railroad company whose duty it is to distribute and issue switch lock keys to the employees of such railroad company. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 9307, 1923; CGL 7786; s. 1094, ch. 71-136.

860.11 Injuring railroad structures; driving cattle on tracks.—Whoever otherwise wantonly or maliciously injures any bridge, trestle, culvert, cattle guard, or other superstructure of any railroad company or salts the track of any railroad company for the purpose of attracting cattle thereto, or who shall drive cattle thereon, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 3281, 1881; RS 2699; GS 3661; RGS 5598; CGL 7784; s. 1095, ch. 71-136.

860.121 Crimes against railroad vehicles; penalties.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot at, throw any object capable of causing death or great bodily harm at, or place any object capable of causing death or great bodily harm in the path of any railroad train, locomotive, car, caboose, or other railroad vehicle.

(2)(a) Any person who violates subsection (1) with respect to an unoccupied railroad vehicle is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) Any person who violates subsection (1) with respect to an occupied railroad vehicle or a railroad vehicle connected thereto is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) Any person who violates subsection (1), if such violation results in great bodily harm, is guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(d) Any person who violates subsection (1), if such violation results in death, is guilty of homicide as defined in chapter 782, punishable as provided in s. 775.082.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-360.

860.13 Operation of aircraft while intoxicated or in careless or reckless manner; penalty.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person:

(a) To operate an aircraft in the air or on the ground or water while under the influence of:

1. Alcoholic beverages;
2. Any substance controlled under chapter 893;
3. Any chemical substance set forth in s. 877.11;

or

(b) To operate an aircraft in the air or on the ground or water in a careless or reckless manner so as to endanger the life or property of another.

(2) In any prosecution charging careless or reckless operation of aircraft in violation of this section, the court, in determining whether the operation was careless or reckless, shall consider the standards for safe operation of aircraft as prescribed by federal statutes or regulations governing aeronautics.

(3) Violation of this section shall constitute a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(4) It shall be the duty of any court in which there is a conviction for violation of this statute to report such conviction to the Civil Aeronautics Administration for its guidance and information with respect to the pilot's certificate.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 25259, 1949; s. 1096, ch. 71-136; ss. 1, 2A, ch. 71-282; s. 32, ch. 73-331.

860.14 Motor vehicle parts and accessories; records of certain purchases.—Every person engaged in the business of buying and selling parts and accessories for motor vehicles who purchases such parts and accessories from any person other than manufacturers, distributors, wholesalers, retailers, or other persons usually and regularly engaged in the business of selling such parts and accessories shall keep a daily record of all such parts and accessories so purchased, which record shall show the date and time of each purchase of such parts and accessories, the name and address of each person from whom such parts and accessories were purchased, the number of the driver's license of such person or, if such person does not have a driver's license, adequate information to properly identify such person, and a detailed description of the parts and accessories purchased from such person, which description shall include all serial and other identifying numbers, if any. Such records shall be retained for not less than 1 year and shall at all times be subject to the inspection of all police or peace officers. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-420; s. 1097, ch. 71-136.

860.15 Overcharging for repairs and parts; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for a person to knowingly charge for any services on motor vehicles which are not actually performed, to knowingly and falsely charge for any parts and accessories for motor vehicles not actually furnished, or to knowingly and fraudulently substitute parts when such substitution has no relation to the repairing or servicing of the motor vehicle.

(2) Any person willfully violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-203; s. 1098, ch. 71-136.

860.16 Aircraft piracy; penalty.—Whoever without lawful authority seizes or exercises control, by force or violence and with wrongful intent, of any aircraft containing a nonconsenting person or persons within this state is guilty of the crime of aircraft piracy, a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-725.

860.17 Tampering with or interfering with motor vehicles or trailers.—Whoever, without authority, willfully, maliciously, or intentionally tampers with, attempts to tamper with, or otherwise interferes with any motor vehicle or trailer of another which results in the cargo or contents of such motor vehicle or trailer becoming unloaded or damaged, or which results in the mechanical functions of such motor vehicle or trailer becoming inoperative or impaired, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. A second or subsequent conviction of any person violating this section is a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-181.

- 861.09 Certain vehicles prohibited from using hard-surfaced roads.
- 861.11 Penalty for cutting or destroying shade trees along public roads.
- 861.12 Penalty for road official or overseer neglecting duty.

861.01 Obstructing highway.—Whoever obstructs any public road or established highway by fencing across or into the same or by willfully causing any other obstruction in or to such road or highway, or any part thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and the judgment of the court shall also be that the obstruction be removed.

History.—s. 68, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2700; GS 3662; s. 1, ch. 6884, 1915; RGS 5604; CGL 7791; s. 1099, ch. 71-136. cf.—s. 339.31 Obstructing highway.

861.02 Obstructing watercourse.—Whoever erects or fixes on any navigable watercourse any dam, bridge, hedge, seine, drag, or other obstruction, whereby the navigation of boats drawing 3 feet of water or the passage of fish may be obstructed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 72, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2701; GS 3665; RGS 5608; CGL 7797; s. 1100, ch. 71-136.

861.021 Obstructing channels; misdemeanor.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to place any crawfish, crab, or fishtrap or set net or other similar device with a buoy or marker attached so that said buoy or marker obstructs the navigation of boats in channels of the waters of the state which are marked by, and which markers are continuously maintained by, the Coast Guard of the United States.

(2) Any person willfully violating the provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-64; s. 1101, ch. 71-136.

861.03 Injuries to dams.—Whoever willfully, maliciously, and unlawfully injures, removes or destroys any dam lawfully placed in or on any stream in this state for the purpose of propelling any kind of machinery, or willfully and maliciously makes any aperture or breach in such dam with intent to destroy or injure the same, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4752, 1899; GS 3666; RGS 5609; CGL 7798; s. 1102, ch. 71-136.

861.04 Placing water hyacinths in any of the streams or waters of the state.—Whoever willfully places or causes to be placed any water hyacinths in any of the territorial waters of the state whether navigable or nonnavigable shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4752, 1899; s. 1, ch. 5196, 1903; GS 3667; RGS 5610; CGL 7799; s. 1, ch. 28046, 1953; s. 1103, ch. 71-136.

861.05 Obstruction to navigation by bridges.—Any railway company, other corporation, or person which has heretofore constructed, and which shall hereafter construct, any bridge or other causeway across any of the navigable waters of the state, is required to build and maintain a suitable draw or other proper and necessary appliances so as to be able to remove such obstruction or to turn a sufficient section thereof as to allow boats or other watercraft to pass such bridge or other causeway without delay or hindrance, and any such company, corporation, or person failing to comply with such requirements shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 3931, 1889; RS 2702; GS 3668; RGS 5611; CGL 7800; s. 1104, ch. 71-136.

861.06 Obstructing harbors, etc.—The master or other person in charge of any steamer, vessel, barge, or lighter, or any other person who violates the provisions of law relative to the protection of harbors, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 4, ch. 3142, 1879; RS 2703; GS 3669; RGS 5612; CGL 7801; s. 1105, ch. 71-136.

861.065 Divers; definitions; divers-down flag required; penalty.—

(1) "Diver" means any person who is wholly or partially submerged in the waters of the state and is equipped with a face mask and snorkel or "underwater breathing apparatus."

(2) "Underwater breathing apparatus" shall mean any apparatus, whether self-contained or connected to a distant source of air or other gas, whereby a person wholly or partially submerged in water is enabled to obtain or reuse air or any other gas or gases for breathing without returning to the surface of the water.

(3) "Divers-down flag" shall mean a flag that is either square or rectangular, to approximately 4 units high by 5 units long, with a 1-unit diagonal stripe. The divers-down flag shall have a white diagonal stripe on a red background. The stripe shall begin at the top staff-side of the flag and extend diagonally to the opposite lower corner. The flag shall be free-flying and shall be lowered when all divers are aboard or ashore. The minimum size shall be 12 by 12 inches.

(4) All divers shall prominently display a divers-down flag in the area in which the diving occurs, other than when diving in an area customarily used for swimming only.

(5) Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor of the second degree punishable as provided by s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 74-344; s. 64, ch. 74-383; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

861.07 Obstructing wagon roads.—Whenever any tie cutter or log cutter cutting ties for a railroad or logs for milling purposes shall cut or fell any tree into or across any traveled road, whether it be a county road, a road regularly used by the public, or a neighborhood road, and shall fail to remove the same within 2 hours thereafter so as to free the road from all obstruction therefrom, such tie cutter or log cutter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; and such person and his employer shall be liable or responsible for any and all damages resulting from so obstructing a traveled road.

861.08 Obstructing county and settlement roads.—

(1) Whoever shall fell, drag, or by any means place a tree, or other obstruction, in or across any county settlement or neighborhood road regularly used, or whoever causes such obstruction to be placed therein, shall remove the same from such road within 6 hours thereafter.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided, that this law shall not apply to pasture fences, gates, nor the improvement of private property.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 5238, 1903; GS 3676; s. 1, ch. 6538, 1913; RGS 5619; CGL 7808; s. 1107, ch. 71-136.

861.09 Certain vehicles prohibited from using hard-surfaced roads.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to drive, propel, or operate, or to have driven, propelled or operated, over the hard-surfaced public roads or parts of roads of this state any vehicle or implement having wheels that will carry more than 200 pounds per wheel for every vehicle having tires of 1 inch in width, or 500 pounds per wheel for every vehicle having tires of 2 inches in width, or 800 pounds per wheel for every vehicle having tires of 3 inches in width, or 1200 pounds per wheel for every vehicle having tires of 4 inches in width, or 1500 pounds per wheel for every vehicle having tires 5 inches in width, or that will carry any load greater than 6,000 pounds without first providing 1 inch of tire width per wheel for each additional 2,000 pounds, or fraction thereof, or to permit any vehicle or implement or any load or portion of load thereof to drag upon the surface of any hard-surfaced public road or parts of roads; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the use of roughened surfaces on rubber tires or on the wheels of farm implements weighing less than 1,000 pounds.

(2) "Hard-surfaced public roads or parts of roads" as used in this section shall be construed to be brick, concrete, asphaltic, sand clay, sand, or bituminous surfaced roads which are maintained by county or state funds.

(3) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 7329, 1917; ss. 1, 2, ch. 7898, 1919; RGS 5617, 5618; CGL 7806, 7807; s. 1108, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 1.01 "Person" defined.

861.11 Penalty for cutting or destroying shade trees along public roads.—

(1) The county commissioners of each county may prescribe that the public roads in their county shall not be less than 30 feet wide, and it shall be unlawful for any person to belt, cut, or destroy any shade trees on any public road or right-of-way without authority from the superintendent of public roads, supervisor, or overseer of the district in which said trees are situated.

(2) Each supervisor or overseer of each district in such counties shall enforce the provisions of this section by reporting the offenders to the nearest County Court Judge, and each offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 5005, 1901; GS 3677; RGS 5620; CGL 7809; s. 1110, ch. 71-136; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

cf.—s. 336.02 Width of county roads.

s. 336.04 Superintendent of county roads, etc.

s. 339.25 Trees and shrubbery; removal or damage; penalty.

861.12 Penalty for road official or overseer neglecting duty.—Any superintendent of public roads, supervisor, or overseer who willfully neglects to perform the duties prescribed in s. 861.11 shall be deemed guilty of, and made a party to, the offense and proceeded against as the original offender by any person.

History.—s. 4, ch. 5005, 1901; GS 3678; RGS 5621; CGL 7810.
cf.—s. 336.04 Superintendent of county roads, etc.

 865.09 Fictitious Name Statute; definitions; etc.
 865.10 Linen suppliers.

865.02 Falsely shipping oranges as Florida oranges.—Whoever ships foreign-grown fruit or oranges, representing by mark or otherwise that said fruit is the product of the state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 2, ch. 3454, 1883; RS 2708; GS 3699; RGS 5647; CGL 7851; s. 1115, ch. 71-136.

865.04 False packing of provisions.—Whoever fraudulently puts into any barrel, bale of cotton, cask or other package of sugar, rice, or pork, or any other article of provisions any dirt, rubbish, or other thing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 54, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2710; GS 3703; RGS 5655; CGL 7856; s. 1116, ch. 71-136.

865.05 Selling trees, plants or vines under false name.—All trees, plants, seeds, and vines sold, offered for sale, or exposed for sale in this state shall be properly named as to variety and kind, and any person knowingly selling, trading, exchanging, or offering or exposing for sale any trees, seeds, plants, or vines falsely named as to variety and kind, with the purpose to deceive or defraud the purchaser, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

865.07 Adulterated syrup.—

(1) Any person, or agent thereof, who shall sell, offer for sale, or advertise for sale in this state any adulterated or mixed syrups whatever, except at the time of such sale or offer for sale the percentage of such adulteration or mixture and the name and post-office address of the manufacturer is clearly stamped or labeled on the barrel, can, case, bottle, or other receptacle containing such syrup or mixture, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) The term "adulterated mixture" or "admixture," as used herein is understood to apply to all mixtures of two or more ingredients differing in their nature and quality, such as sugar cane syrup, sorghum syrup, maple syrup, molasses, or glucose.

History.—ss. 1, 2, 3, ch. 5231, 1903; GS 3706; RGS 5657; CGL 7860; s. 1119, ch. 71-136.

cf.—Ch. 500 Foods, drugs and cosmetics.

865.08 Purchase of cotton or leaf tobacco.—Whoever trades, traffics for, or buys, except from the producer or his authorized agent, any cotton or leaf tobacco, unless the same be baled or boxed in the usual manner, or unless upon some exhibition of evidence in writing that the producer has parted with his interest therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 11, ch. 1466, 1866; RS 2711; GS 3707; RGS 5658; CGL 7861; s. 1120, ch. 71-136.

865.09 Fictitious Name Statute; definitions; etc.—

(1) This section shall be known as the "Fictitious Name Statute."

(2)(a) "Persons" shall include every individual, whether natural or artificial, firm, or group or combination of individuals or partnerships, whether natural or representative.

(b) "Fictitious names" shall include any trade name, whether a single name or a group of names, other than the proper name or known called names of those persons engaged in such business or professions.

(c) "Business" shall include all enterprises or adventures wherein persons either sell, buy, exchange, barter, or deal, or any of these things, or represent the dealing in anything or article of value, or rendering services for compensation.

(3) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, as defined herein, to engage in business as herein defined under a fictitious name as herein defined unless said fictitious name shall be registered with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where the principal place of business is, which registration shall consist of recording with the clerk an affidavit signed by all interested persons, stating under oath the names of all those interested in the business enterprise, the extent of the interest of each, and the fictitious name under which said business is carried on. Said registration may not be made until the person or persons desiring to engage in business under a fictitious name shall have advertised his or their intention to register said fictitious name at least once a week for 4 consecutive weeks in some newspaper as defined by law in the county where said registration is to be made, and said registration shall not be accepted by the Clerk of the Circuit Court except upon receiving proof of such publication, which shall be recorded with the affidavit of those declaring an interest in the business enterprise.

(4) The Clerk of the Circuit Court shall receive a service charge as provided in s. 28.24 for receiving and recording said registration, to be paid by the person or persons engaged in doing business under a fictitious name, as herein defined.

(5) The penalty for failure to comply with this law shall be that neither the business nor the members nor those interested in doing such business may defend or maintain suit in any court of this state, either as plaintiff or defendant, until this law is complied with, and further that any person violating this law may have information filed against him, by anyone aggrieved or believed to be aggrieved, before the proper court and charged with a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 20953, 1941; s. 1, ch. 26760, 1951; s. 1, ch. 67-209; s. 35, ch. 70-134; s. 1121, ch. 71-136.
cf.—s. 28.24 Service charges by Clerk of Circuit Court.

865.10 Linen suppliers.—

(1) REGISTRATION OF NAME.—A person engaged in the business of supplying or furnishing for hire or compensation on a rental or lease basis clean laundered bed linen or table linen, garments, aprons, or towels who uses his name and the word "registered" on such articles or supplies may register such articles or supplies by filing in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where his principal place of business is situated, and also with the Department of State, a description of the name so used by him, and paying a fee of $25 to each office for each filing, and shall publish such description once in each of 3 successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the description has been filed.

(2) UNAUTHORIZED USE OR DISPOSITION OF REGISTERED LINENS, ETC.—No person shall without the written consent of the owner willfully take, detain, use, sell, traffic in or otherwise dispose of, or use for any purpose other than that for which such article was intended any registered bed linen or table linen, garment, apron, or towel; provided, however, that the use of such article or articles at the place where the same are placed or delivered by the owner or owners under an agreement, lease, or license from such owner shall not be unlawful; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful for any caterer, hotel, restaurant, cafe, or other public hostelry to permit and allow the use of such bed linen or table linen, garment, apron, or towel by any guest, boarder, or regularly hired employee thereof during the period of any lease, renting, or hiring agreement of said supplies with the owner thereof.

(3) PENALTY.—Anyone found guilty of violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 67-196; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1122, ch. 71-136.

870.01 Affrays and riots.—

(1) All persons guilty of an affray shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) All persons guilty of a riot, or of inciting or encouraging a riot, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 35, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2406; GS 3239; RGS 5072; CGL 7174; s. 1, ch. 67-407; s. 1125, ch. 71-136.

870.02 Unlawful assemblies.—If three or more persons meet together to commit a breach of the peace, or to do any other unlawful act, each of them shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—RS 2407; GS 3240; RGS 5073; CGL 7175; s. 1126, ch. 71-136. cf.—ss. 876.03, 876.04 Anarchy, Communism, etc., unlawful assembly for purpose of.

870.03 Riots and routs.—If any persons unlawfully assembled demolish, pull down or destroy, or begin to demolish, pull down or destroy, any dwelling house or other building, or any ship or vessel, each of them shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2408; GS 3241; RGS 5074; CGL 7176; s. 1127, ch. 71-136.

870.04 Magistrate to disperse riotous assembly.—If any number of persons, whether armed or not, are unlawfully, riotously or tumultuously assembled in any county, city or municipality, the sheriff or his deputies, or the mayor, or any commissioner, councilman, alderman or police officer of the said city or municipality, or any officer or member of the Florida Highway Patrol, or any officer or agent of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, Department of Natural Resources, or beverage enforcement agent, any personnel or representatives of the Department of Law Enforcement or its successor, or any other peace officer, shall go among the persons so assembled, or as near to them as may be with safety, and shall in the name of the state command all the persons so assembled immediately and peaceably to disperse; and if such persons do not thereupon immediately and peaceably disperse, said officers shall command the assistance of all such persons in seizing, arresting and securing such persons in custody; and if any person present being so commanded to aid and assist in seizing and securing such rioter or persons so unlawfully assembled, or in suppressing such riot or unlawful assembly, refuses or neglects to obey such command, or, when required by such officers to depart from the place, refuses and neglects to do so, he shall be deemed one of the rioters or persons unlawfully assembled, and may be prosecuted and punished accordingly.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2409; GS 3242; RGS 5075; CGL 7177; ss. 1, chs. 61-223 and 61-237; s. 1, ch. 67-2203; s. 3, ch. 67-2207; ss. 20, 25, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 34, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 29, ch. 79-8.

870.041 Preservation of the public peace by local authority.—In the event of overt acts of violence, or the imminent threat of such violence, within a county or municipality and the Governor has not declared a state of emergency to exist, local officers shall be empowered to declare such a state of emergency exists in accordance with the provisions of ss. 870.041-870.048.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-990.

870.042 Designation of local authority.—

(1) The sheriff of each of the several counties of this state, or such other county official having the duties of a sheriff in counties operating under home rule charter, by whatever name known, shall be empowered to declare that a state of emergency exists within the unincorporated areas of the county and to exercise the emergency powers conferred in ss. 870.041-870.047.

(2) The governing body of any municipality within this state may designate by duly adopted ordinance a city official who shall be empowered to declare that a state of emergency exists within the boundaries of the municipality and to exercise the emergency powers conferred in ss. 870.041-870.047. The designated city official shall be either the mayor or chief of police or the person who performs the duties of a mayor or chief of police in such municipality. In the absence of a duly adopted ordinance so designating the official so to act, the chief of police of such municipality is designated as the city official to assume the duties and powers hereof.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-990.

870.043 Declaration of emergency.—Whenever the sheriff or designated city official determines that there has been an act of violence or a flagrant and substantial defiance of, or resistance to, a lawful exercise of public authority and that, on account thereof, there is reason to believe that there exists a clear and present danger of a riot or other general public disorder, widespread disobedience of the law, and substantial injury to persons or to property, all of which constitute an imminent threat to public peace or order and to the general welfare of the jurisdiction affected or a part or parts thereof, he may declare that a state of emergency exists within that jurisdiction or any part or parts thereof.

History.—s. 3, ch. 70-990.

870.044 Automatic emergency measures.—

Whenever the public official declares that a state of emergency exists, pursuant to s. 870.043, the following acts shall be prohibited during the period of said emergency throughout the jurisdiction:

(1) The sale of, or offer to sell, with or without consideration, any ammunition or gun or other firearm of any size or description.

(2) The intentional display, after the emergency is declared, by or in any store or shop of any ammunition or gun or other firearm of any size or description.

(3) The intentional possession in a public place of a firearm by any person, except a duly authorized law enforcement official or person in military service acting in the official performance of his duty.

History.—ss. 4, 5, ch. 70-990.

870.045 Discretionary emergency measures.

—Whenever the public official declares that a state of emergency exists, pursuant to s. 870.043, he may order and promulgate all or any of the following emergency measures, in whole or in part, with such limitations and conditions as he may deem appropriate:

(1) The establishment of curfews, including, but not limited to, the prohibition of or restrictions on pedestrian and vehicular movement, standing, and parking, except for the provision of designated essential services such as fire, police, and hospital services, including the transportation of patients thereto, utility emergency repairs, and emergency calls by physicians.

(2) The prohibition of the sale or distribution of any alcoholic beverage, with or without the payment or a consideration therefor.

(3) The prohibition of the possession on any person in a public place of any portable container containing any alcoholic beverage.

(4) The closing of places of public assemblage with designated exceptions.

(5) The prohibition of the sale or other transfer of possession, with or without consideration, of gasoline or any other flammable or combustible liquid altogether or except by delivery into a tank properly affixed to an operable motor-driven vehicle, bike, scooter, boat, or airplane and necessary for the propulsion thereof.

(6) The prohibition of the possession in a public place of any portable container containing gasoline or any other flammable or combustible liquid.

Any such emergency measure so ordered and promulgated shall be in effect during the period of said emergency in the area or areas for which the emergency has been declared.

History.—ss. 4, 6, ch. 70-990.

870.046 Filing and publication.—Any state of emergency or emergency measure declared or ordered and promulgated by virtue of the terms of ss. 870.041-870.045 shall, as promptly as practicable, be filed in the office of the municipal clerk or Clerk of the Circuit Court and delivered to appropriate news media for publication and radio and television broadcast thereof. If practicable, such state of emergency declaration or emergency measure shall be published by other means such as by posting and loudspeakers.

History.—s. 7, ch. 70-990.

870.047 Duration and termination of emergency.—A state of emergency established under ss.

870.041-870.046 shall commence upon the declaration thereof by the public official and shall terminate at the end of a period of 72 consecutive hours thereafter unless, prior to the end of such 72-hour period, the public official, the Governor, county commission, or city council shall have terminated such state of emergency. Any extension of the 72-hour time limit must be accomplished by request from the public official and the concurrence of the county commission or city council by duly enacted ordinance or resolution in regular or special session.

History.—s. 8, ch. 70-990.

870.048 Violations.—Any violation of a provision of ss. 870.041-870.047 or of any emergency measure established pursuant thereto shall be a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 9, ch. 70-990; s. 1128, ch. 71-136.

870.05 When killing excused.—If, by reason of the efforts made by any of said officers or by their direction to disperse such assembly, or to seize and secure the persons composing the same, who have refused to disperse, any such person or other person present is killed or wounded, the said officers and all persons acting by their order or under their direction, shall be held guiltless and fully justified in law; and if any of said officers or any person acting under or by their direction is killed or wounded, all persons so assembled and all other persons present who when commanded refused to aid and assist said officer shall be held answerable therefor.

870.06 Unauthorized military organizations.

—No body of men, other than the regularly organized land and naval militia of this state, the troops of the United States, and the students of regularly chartered educational institutions where military science is a prescribed part of the course of instruction, shall associate themselves together as a military organization for drill or parade in public with firearms, in this state, without special license from the Governor for each occasion, and application for such license must be approved by the mayor and aldermen of the cities and towns where such organizations may propose to parade. Each person unlawfully engaging in the formation of such military organization, or participating in such drill or parade, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

cf.—s. 250.43 Uniform, etc., not to be worn by persons not in military service.

CHAPTER 871

DISTURBING RELIGIOUS AND OTHER ASSEMBLIES

- 871.01 Disturbing schools and religious and other assemblies.
 871.02 Indictments or informations for disturbing assembly.
 871.03 Peddling at camp meeting.
 871.04 Advertising; religious discrimination; public places.

871.01 Disturbing schools and religious and other assemblies.—Whoever willfully interrupts or disturbs any school or any assembly of people met for the worship of God or for any lawful purpose shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 19, 21, 22, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2627, 2629, 2630; GS 3547; s. 1, ch. 5719, 1907; RGS 5448; CGL 7591; s. 1130, ch. 71-136.

871.02 Indictments or informations for disturbing assembly.—The several grand juries of this state in their respective counties may return indictments or the several State Attorneys of the state in their respective circuits may file information against all persons violating s. 871.01, and such indictments or informations, when filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court in the county where such offense is alleged to have been committed, shall be forthwith certified by him to some court in the county having jurisdiction to try and determine such charge, and said court to which such indictment or information is certified shall proceed to try and determine such charge upon such indictment or information, the same as if affidavit had been made before such court charging the said offense.

History.—ss. 2, 3, ch. 5719, 1907; RGS 5449; CGL 7592. cf.—s. 923.03 Form of indictment or information.

871.03 Peddling at camp meeting.—Whoever during the time of holding any camp or field meeting for religious purposes, and within 1 mile of the place of holding such meeting, hawks or peddles goods, wares, merchandise, or without permission from the authorities having charge of such meeting, establishes any tent or booth for vending of provisions or refreshments, or practices or engages in gaming or horseracing, or exhibits, or offers to exhibit, shows or plays shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083; but a person having his usual and regular place of business within such limits is not hereby required to suspend his business.

History.—s. 20, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2628; GS 3548; RGS 5450; CGL 7593; s. 1131, ch. 71-136.

871.04 Advertising; religious discrimination; public places.—

(1) Except where the context clearly requires a different meaning, the following terms shall have for the purposes of this section the meaning respectively ascribed to them:

(a) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(b) "Establishment" means any building or part thereof, including, without being limited to, public inns, hotels, motels, apartment hotels, any structure, enclosure, tract of land, and all improvements, appurtenances, and additions, bodies of water whether natural or artificial, and any other place of whatsoever nature to which the general public is or will be admitted, allowed, or invited on payment of a fee, free of charge, or otherwise.

(2) No person, directly or indirectly, for himself or for another, shall publish, post, broadcast by any means, maintain, circularize, issue, display, transmit, or otherwise disseminate or place in any manner before the public with reference to an establishment any advertisement that the patronage of any person is not welcome, or is objectionable, or is not acceptable because of his religion. No person shall cause or solicit another person to violate this section.

(3) This section shall not apply to any establishment which is private or limited to membership only, to any camp administered by any religious organization, group, or sect, admission to which is based on religious belief or affiliation, or to any gathering, meeting, or assembly held under the auspices of any religious organization, group, or sect.

(4) Any person or persons violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 29845, 1955; s. 1132, ch. 71-136.

CHAPTER 872

OFFENSES CONCERNING DEAD BODIES AND GRAVES

- 872.01 Dealing in dead bodies.
 872.02 Disfiguring tomb.
 872.03 Cremating human bodies; limitation.
 872.04 Autopsies; consent required, exception.

872.01 Dealing in dead bodies.—Whoever buys, sells, or has in his possession for the purpose of buying or selling or trafficking in the dead body of any human being shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit the obtaining, dissecting, using, and disposing of dead bodies for the purpose of teaching or other appropriate university research by any medical school, dental school, school of nursing, or other university research or teaching unit which is a part of a regularly established or chartered institution of higher learning under the laws of the state.

872.02 Disfiguring tomb.—Whoever willfully destroys, mutilates, defaces, injures, or removes any tomb, monument, gravestone, or other structure or thing placed or designed for a memorial of the dead, or any fence, railing, curb, or other thing intended for the protection or ornamentation of any tomb, monument, gravestone, or other structure before mentioned, or for any enclosure for the burial of the dead, or willfully destroys, mutilates, removes, cuts, breaks, or injures any tree, shrub, or plant placed or being within any such enclosure, or wantonly and maliciously disturbs the contents of a tomb or grave, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

872.03 Cremating human bodies; limitation.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to cremate any dead human body prior to the expiration of 48 hours after the death of such human body.

(2) Anyone convicted for the violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s.

775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 21780, 1943; s. 1135, ch. 71-136.

872.04 Autopsies; consent required, exception.—

(1) "Autopsy" means a post mortem dissection of a dead human body in order to determine the cause, seat, or nature of disease or injury and includes the retention of tissues customarily removed during the course of autopsy for evidentiary, identification, diagnostic, scientific, or therapeutic purposes.

(2) Unless otherwise authorized by statute, no autopsy shall be performed without the written consent of the spouse, nearest relative, or, if no such next of kin can be found, the person who has assumed custody of the body for purposes of burial. When two or more persons assume custody of the body for such purposes, then the consent of any one of them shall be sufficient to authorize the autopsy.

(3) Any such written consent may be given by telegram, and any telegram purporting to have been sent by a person authorized to give such consent will be presumed to have been sent by such person. A duly witnessed telephone permission is acceptable in lieu of written permission in those circumstances where obtaining written permission would result in undue delay.

(4) If after diligent search and inquiry it is established by the chief law enforcement officer having jurisdiction, through his examination of missing persons records and other inquiry, that no person can be found who can authorize an autopsy as herein provided, then after a reasonable time, any person licensed to practice medicine under chapter 458 or osteopathic medicine under chapter 459, and whose practice involves the usual performance of autopsies, may conduct an autopsy, without written consent, on the remains for purposes of confirming medical diagnosis and suspected communicable diseases; and no cause of action will be brought against such physician for performance of such autopsy. A reasonable time for purposes of this provision shall be not less than 48 hours or more than 72 hours after death.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 67-87; s. 1, ch. 70-367; s. 1, ch. 78-34; s. 182, ch. 79-164. cf.—s. 406.10 Medical examiners; autopsy facilities.

876.01 Criminal anarchy, Communism, etc., prohibited.—"Criminal anarchy," "criminal Communism," "criminal Naziism," or "criminal Fascism" are doctrines that existing form of constitutional government should be overthrown by force or violence or by any other unlawful means, or by assassination of officials of the Government of the United States or of the several states. The advocacy of such doctrines either by word of mouth or writing or the promotion of such doctrines independently or in collaboration with or under the guidance of officials of a foreign state or an international revolutionary party or group is unlawful.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20216, 1941; s. 1136, ch. 71-136. cf.—ss. 870.02, 870.04 Unlawful assemblies generally.

876.02 Criminal anarchy, Communism, etc., defined and made a felony; penalty.—Any person who—

(1) By word of mouth or writing advocates, advises, or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of overthrowing or overturning existing forms of constitutional government by force or violence; of disobeying or sabotaging or hindering the carrying out of the laws, orders, or decrees of duly constituted civil, naval, or military authorities; or by the assassination of officials of the Government of the United States or of the state, or by any unlawful means or under the guidance of, or in collaboration with, officials, agents, or representatives of a foreign state or an international revolutionary party or group; or

(2) Prints, publishes, edits, issues, or knowingly circulates, sells, distributes, or publicly displays any book, paper, document, or written or printed matter in any form, containing or advocating, advising, or teaching the doctrine that constitutional government should be overthrown by force, violence, or any unlawful means; or

(3) Openly, willfully and deliberately urges, advocates, or justifies by word of mouth or writing the assassination or unlawful killing or assaulting of any official of the Government of the United States or of this state because of his official character, or any other crime, with intent to teach, spread, or advocate the propriety of the doctrines of criminal anarchy, criminal Communism, criminal Naziism, or criminal Fascism; or

(4) Organizes or helps to organize or becomes a member of any society, group, or assembly of persons formed to teach or advocate such doctrines; or

(5) Becomes a member of, associated with or promotes the interest of any criminal anarchistic, Communist, Naziistic or Fascistic organization, or helps to organize or becomes a member of or affiliated with any subsidiary organization or associated group of persons who advocates, teaches, or advises the principles of criminal anarchy, criminal Communism, criminal Naziism or criminal Fascism;

shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20216, 1941; s. 1137, ch. 71-136.

876.03 Unlawful assembly for purposes of anarchy, communism, etc.—Whenever two or more persons assemble for the purpose of promoting, advocating, or teaching the doctrine of criminal anarchy, criminal Communism, criminal Naziism or criminal Fascism, as defined in s. 876.01 of this law, such an assembly or organization is unlawful, and every person voluntarily participating therein by his presence, aid, or instigation shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20216, 1941; s. 1138, ch. 71-136.

876.04 Allowing unlawful assembly in building prohibited.—No owner, agent, superintendent, janitor, caretaker, or occupant of any place, building, or room, shall willfully and knowingly permit therein any assemblage of persons prohibited by s. 876.03, and if such person after notification that the premises are so used permits such use to be continued he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20216, 1941; s. 1139, ch. 71-136.

876.05 State employees; oath.—

(1) All persons who now or hereafter are employed by or who now or hereafter are on the payroll of the state, or any of its departments and agencies, subdivisions, counties, cities, school boards and districts of the free public school system of the state or counties, or institutions of higher learning, and all candidates for public office, are hereby required to take an oath before any person duly authorized to take acknowledgments of instruments for public record in the state in the following form:

I, ....., a citizen of the State of Florida and of the United States of America, and being employed by or an officer of ..... and a recipient of public funds as such employee or officer, do hereby solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Florida; that I am not a member of the Communist Party; that I have not and will not lend my aid, support, advice, counsel, or influence to the Communist Party; that I do not believe in the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of the State of Florida by force or violence; that I am not a member of any organization or party which believes in or teaches, directly or indirectly, the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of Florida by force or violence.

(2) Said oath shall be filed with the records of the governing official or employing governmental agency prior to the approval of any voucher for the payment of salary, expenses, or other compensation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 25046, 1949.
cf.—s. 92.50 Oaths, requirements.

876.06 Discharged for refusal to execute.—If any person required by ss. 876.05-876.10 to take the oath herein provided for fails to execute the same, the governing authority under which such person is employed shall cause said person to be immediately discharged, and his name removed from the payroll, and such person shall not be permitted to receive any payment as an employee or as an officer where he or she was serving.

History.—s. 2, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.07 Persons giving aid, advice, etc., to Communist Party.—Any person having taken the oath provided for in s. 876.05 and who thereafter should become a member of the Communist Party or who lends aid, support, advice, counsel, or influence to the Communist Party or who expresses any belief in or advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of the state by violence or force or thereafter becomes a member of an organization or party which believes in or teaches, directly or indirectly, the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of the state by force or violence, shall immediately be discharged from his employment by the employing authority and his name shall be removed from the payroll, and thereafter such person shall not be permitted to receive any payment as an employee or an officer where he or she then was serving. Any person seeking to qualify for public office who fails or refuses to file the oath required by this act shall be held to have failed to qualify as a candidate for public office, and the name of such person shall not be printed on the ballot as a qualified candidate.

History.—s. 3, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.08 Penalty for not discharging.—Any governing authority or person, under whom any employee is serving or by whom employed who shall knowingly or carelessly permit any such employee to continue in employment after failing to comply with the provisions of ss. 876.05-876.10, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 4, ch. 25046, 1949; s. 1140, ch. 71-136.

876.09 Scope of law.—

(1) The provisions of ss. 876.05-876.10 shall apply to all employees and elected officers of the state, including the Governor and constitutional officers and all employees and elected officers of all cities, towns, counties, and political subdivisions, including the educational system.

(2) This act shall take precedence over all laws relating to merit, and of Civil Service Law.

History.—s. 5, 7, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.10 False oath; penalty.—If any person required by the provisions of ss. 876.05-876.10 to execute the oath herein required executes such oath, and it is subsequently proven that at the time of the execution of said oath said individual was guilty of making a false statement in said oath, he shall be guilty of perjury.

History.—s. 6, ch. 25046, 1949; s. 1141, ch. 71-136.
cf.—Ch. 837 Perjury.

876.11 Public place defined.—For the purpose of ss. 876.11-876.21 the term "public place" includes all walks, alleys, streets, boulevards, avenues, lanes, roads, highways, or other ways or thoroughfares dedicated to public use or owned or maintained by public authority; and all grounds and buildings owned, leased by, operated, or maintained by public authority.

History.—s. 1, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.12 Unlawful to wear hood, etc.; on street, etc.—No person or persons over 16 years of age shall, while wearing any mask, hood, or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed, or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, enter upon, or be or appear upon any lane, walk, alley, street, road, highway, or other public way in this state.

History.—s. 2, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.13 Same; on public property.—No person or persons shall in this state, while wearing any mask, hood, or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed, or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, enter upon, or be, or appear upon or within the public property of any municipality or county of the state.

History.—s. 3, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.14 Same; on property of another.—No person or persons over 16 years of age shall, while wearing a mask, hood, or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed, or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, demand entrance or admission or enter or come upon or into the premises, enclosure, or house of any other person in any municipality or county of this state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.15 Same; demonstration or meeting.—No person or persons over 16 years of age, shall, while wearing a mask, hood, or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed, or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, hold any manner of meeting, make any demonstration upon the private property of another unless such person or persons shall have first obtained from the owner or occupier of the property his or her written permission to do so.

History.—s. 5, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.16 Certain exemptions.—The following are exempted from the provisions of ss. 876.11-876.15:

(1) Any person or persons wearing traditional holiday costumes;

(2) Any person or persons engaged in trades and employment where a mask is worn for the purpose of ensuring the physical safety of the wearer, or because of the nature of the occupation, trade, or profession;

(3) Any person or persons using masks in theatrical productions including use in Gasparilla celebrations and masquerade balls;

(4) Persons wearing gas masks prescribed in civil defense drills and exercises, or emergencies.

876.17 Burning or flaming cross; in public.—

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to place or cause to be placed in a public place in the state a burning or flaming cross or any manner of exhibit in which a burning or flaming cross, real or simulated, is a whole or a part.

History.—s. 7, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.18 Same; on property of another.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to place or cause to be placed on the property of another in the state a burning or flaming cross or any manner of exhibit in which a burning or flaming cross, real or simulated, is a whole or part without first obtaining written permission of the owner or occupier of the premises to do so.

History.—s. 8, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.19 Exhibits that intimidate.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to place, or cause to be placed, anywhere in the state any exhibit of any kind whatsoever with the intention of intimidating any person or persons, to prevent them from doing any act which is lawful, or to cause them to do any act which is unlawful.

History.—s. 9, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.20 Wearing mask and placing exhibit to intimidate.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons while wearing a mask or any device whereby the face is so covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer to place, or to cause to be placed, at, on, or in any place any exhibit of any kind whatsoever.

History.—s. 10, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.21 Penalty.—Any person or persons violating ss. 876.11-876.20 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor or of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 11, ch. 26542, 1951; s. 1142, ch. 71-136.

876.22 Definitions.—As used in ss. 876.23-876.31:

(1) "Organizations" means an organization, corporation, company, partnership, association, trust, foundation, fund, club, society, committee, political party, or any group of persons, whether or not incorporated, permanently or temporarily associated together for joint action or advancement of views on any subject or subjects.

(2) "Subversive organization" means any organization which engages in or advocates, abets, advises, or teaches, or a purpose of which is to engage in or advocate, abet, advise, or teach activities intended to overthrow, destroy, or to assist in the overthrow or destruction of the constitutional form of the Government of the United States, the constitution or government of the state, or of any political subdivision of either of them, by revolution, force, violence, or other unlawful means.

(3) "Foreign subversive organization" means any organization directed, dominated, or controlled, directly or indirectly, by a foreign government which engages in or advocates, abets, advises, or teaches, or a purpose of which is to engage in or to advocate, abet, advise, or teach, activities intended to overthrow, destroy, or to assist in the overthrow or destruction of the constitutional form of the Government of the United States, or of this state, or of any political subdivision of either of them, and to establish in place thereof any form of government the direction and control of which is to be vested in, or exercised by or under, the domination or control of any foreign government, organization, or individual.

(4) "Foreign government" means the government of any country, nation, or group of nations other than the Government of the United States or of one of the states thereof.

(5) "Subversive person" means any person who commits, attempts to commit, or aids in the commission, or advocates, abets, advises, or teaches by any means any person to commit, attempt to commit, or aid in the commission of any act intended to overthrow, destroy, or to assist in the overthrow or destruction of the constitutional form of the Government of the United States, or of this state, or any political subdivision of either of them, by revolution, force, violence, or other unlawful means; or who is a member of a subversive organization or a foreign subversive organization.

History.—s. 1, ch. 28221, 1953.

876.23 Subversive activities unlawful; penalty.—

(1) It shall be a felony for any person knowingly and willfully to:

(a) Commit, attempt to commit, or aid in the commission of any act intended to overthrow, destroy, to assist the overthrow or destruction of the constitutional form of the Government of the United States, or of the state, or any political subdivision of either of them, by revolution, force, violence, or other unlawful means; or

(b) Advocate, abet, advise, or teach by any means any person to commit, attempt to commit, or assist in the commission of any such act under such circumstances as to constitute a clear and present danger to the security of the United States, or of this state, or of any political subdivision of either of them; or

(c) Conspire with one or more persons to commit any such act; or

(d) Assist in the formation or participate in the management or to contribute to the support of any subversive organization or foreign subversive organization knowing said organization to be a subversive organization or a foreign subversive organization; or

(e) Destroy any books, records, or files, or secrete any funds in this state of a subversive organization or a foreign subversive organization, knowing said organization to be such.

(2) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 28221, 1953; s. 1143, ch. 71-136.

876.24 Membership in subversive organization; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any person after the effective date of this law to become or after July 1, 1953, to remain a member of a subversive organization or a foreign subversive organization knowing said organization to be a subversive organization or foreign subversive organization. Any person convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 28221, 1953; s. 1144, ch. 71-136.

876.25 Persons convicted under s. 876.23 or s. 876.24 not to hold office or vote.—Any person convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of violating any of the provisions of s. 876.23 or s. 876.24, in addition to all other penalties therein provided, shall from the date of such conviction be barred from:

(1) Holding any office, elective or appointive, or any other position of profit or trust in, or employment by, the government of the state or of any agency thereof, or of any county, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of said state;

(2) Filing or offering for election to any public office in the state; or

(3) Voting in any election held in this state.

History.—s. 4, ch. 28221, 1953.

876.26 Unlawful for subversive organizations to exist or function.—It shall be unlawful for any subversive organization or foreign subversive organization to exist or function in the state and any organization which by a court of competent jurisdiction is found to have violated the provisions of this section shall be dissolved, and if it be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the state, a finding by a court of competent jurisdiction that it has violated the provisions of this section shall constitute legal cause for forfeiture of its charter and its charter shall be forfeited, and all funds, books, records, and files of every kind and all other property of any organization found to have violated the provisions of this section shall be seized by and for the state, the funds to be deposited in the State Treasury, and the books, records, files, and other property to be turned over to the Attorney General of Florida.

History.—s. 5, ch. 28221, 1953.

876.27 Enforcement of ss. 876.22-876.31.—The Department of Legal Affairs, all State Attorneys, the Department of State, and all law enforcement officers of this state shall each be charged with the duty of enforcing the provisions of ss. 876.22-876.31.

History.—s. 6, ch. 28221, 1953; ss. 10, 11, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

876.28 Grand jury to investigate violations of ss. 876.22-876.31.—The judge of any court exercising general criminal jurisdiction when in his discretion it appears appropriate, or when informed by the Department of Legal Affairs that there is information or evidence of the character described in s. 876.27 to be considered by the grand jury, shall charge the grand jury to inquire into violations of ss. 876.22-876.31 for the purpose of proper action, and further to inquire generally into the purposes, processes, activities, and any other matters affecting communism or any related or other subversive organizations, associations, groups, or persons.

History.—s. 7, ch. 28221, 1953; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106.

876.29 Subversive person prohibited from holding office or employment.—No subversive person, as defined in s. 876.22, shall, after conviction, be eligible for employment in, or appointment to, any office or any position of trust or profit in the government of, or in the administration of the business of this state, or of any county, municipality, or other political subdivision of this state.

History.—s. 8, ch. 28221, 1953.

876.30 Subversive person not to be candidate for election.—No person shall become a candidate nor shall be certified by any political party as a candidate for election to any public office created by the Constitution or laws of this state if he has ever been tried and convicted as a subversive person as defined in s. 876.22.

History.—s. 9, ch. 28221, 1953.

876.31 Short title; ss. 876.22-876.30.—Sections 876.22-876.30 may be cited as the "Subversive Activities Law."

History.—s. 10, ch. 28221, 1953.

876.32 Treason.—Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against the same, or in adhering to the enemies thereof, or giving them aid and comfort. Whoever commits treason against this state shall be guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2372; GS 3197; RGS 5027; CGL 7129; s. 702, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.01.

876.33 Misprision of treason.—Whoever having knowledge of the commission of treason conceals the same and does not, as soon as may be, disclose and make known such treason to the Governor or one of the justices of the Supreme Court or a judge of the Circuit Court, shall be judged guilty of the offense of misprision of treason, a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, sub-ch. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2373; GS 3198; RGS 5028; CGL 7130; s. 703, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.02.

876.34 Combination to usurp government.—If two or more persons shall combine by force to usurp the government of this state, or to overturn the same, or interfere forcibly in the administration of the government or any department thereof, the person so offending shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree and punished as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 5, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2374; GS 3199; RGS 5029; CGL 7131; s. 704, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.03.

876.35 Combination against part of the people of the state.—If two or more persons shall combine to levy war against any part of the people of this state, or to remove them forcibly out of this state, or to remove them from their habitations to any other part of the state by force, or shall assemble for that purpose, every person so offending shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2375; GS 3200; RGS 5030; CGL 7132; s. 705, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.04.

876.36 Inciting insurrection.—If any person shall incite an insurrection or sedition amongst any portion or class of the population of this state, or shall attempt by writing, speaking, or by any other means to incite such insurrection or sedition, the person so offending shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 1466, 1866; RS 2376; GS 3201; RGS 5031; CGL 7133; s. 706, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.05.

876.37 Definitions.—As used in ss. 876.37-876.50:

(1) "Highway" includes any private or public street, way, or other place used for travel to or from property.

(2) "Highway commissioners" means any individual, board, or other body having authority under then existing law to discontinue the use of the highway which it is desired to restrict or close to public use and travel.

(3) "Public utility" includes any pipeline, gas, electric, heat, water, oil, sewer, telephone, telegraph, radio, railway, railroad, airplane, transportation, communication, or other system, by whomsoever owned or operated for public use.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 65, ch. 74-383; s. 246, ch. 77-104.

Note.—Former s. 779.06.

876.38 Intentional injury to or interference with property.—Whoever intentionally destroys, impairs, or injures, or interferes or tampers with, real or personal property and such act hinders, delays, or interferes with the preparation of the United States, any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or any of the states for defense or for war, or with the prosecution of war by the United States, is guilty of a life felony, punishable as provided in s. 775.082.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 707, ch. 71-136; s. 4, ch. 72-724; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.07.

876.39 Intentionally defective workmanship.—Whoever intentionally makes or causes to be made or omits to note on inspection any defect in any article or thing with reasonable grounds to believe that such article or thing is intended to be used in connection with the preparation of the United States or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or any of the states for defense or for war, or for the prosecution of war by the United States, or that such article or thing is one of a number of similar articles or things, some of which are intended so to be used, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084; provided, if such person so acts or so fails to act with the intent to hinder, delay or interfere with the preparation of the United States or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or of any of the states for defense or for war, or with the prosecution of war by the United States, the minimum punishment shall be imprisonment in the state prison for not less than 1 year.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 708, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.08.

876.40 Attempts.—Whoever attempts to commit any of the crimes defined by this law shall be liable to one-half the punishment by imprisonment, or by fine, or both, as prescribed in s. 876.39 hereof. In addition to the acts which constitute an attempt to commit a crime under the law of this state, the solicitation or incitement of another to commit any of the crimes defined by this law not followed by the commission of the crime, the collection or assemblage of any materials with the intent that the same are to be used then or at a later time in the commission of such crime, or the entry, with or without permission, of a building, enclosure, or other premises of another with the intent to commit any such crime therein or thereon shall constitute an attempt to commit such crime.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 65, ch. 74-383; s. 246, ch. 77-104.

Note.—Former s. 779.09.

876.41 Conspirators.—If two or more persons conspire to commit any crime defined by this law, each of such persons is guilty of conspiracy and subject to the same punishment as if he had committed the crime which he conspired to commit, whether or not any act be done in furtherance of the conspiracy. It shall not constitute any defense or ground of suspension of judgment, sentence or punishment on behalf of any person prosecuted under this section, that any of his fellow conspirators has been acquitted, has not been arrested or convicted, is not amenable to justice or has been pardoned or otherwise discharged before or after conviction.

History.—s. 5, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.10.

876.42 Witnesses' privileges.—No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any books, papers, or other documents before any court, magistrate, referee or grand jury upon any investigation, proceeding or trial, for or relating to or concerned with a violation of any section of this law or attempt to commit such violation, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise required by the state may tend to convict him of a crime or to subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him, upon any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial, except upon a prosecution for perjury or contempt of court, based upon the giving or producing of such testimony.

History.—s. 6, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.11.

cf.—s. 12(e), Art. V, State Const. Access by Judicial Qualifications Commission to Grand Jury information.

876.43 Unlawful entry on property.—Any individual, partnership, association, corporation, municipal corporation or state or any political subdivision thereof engaged in, or preparing to engage in, the manufacture, transportation or storage of any product to be used in the preparation of the United States, or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or of any of the states for defense or for war or in the prosecution of war by the United States, or the manufacture, transportation, distribution or storage of gas, oil, coal, electricity or water, or any of said natural or artificial persons operating any public utility, whose property, except where it fronts on water or where there are entrances for railway cars, vehicles, persons or things, is surrounded by a fence or wall, or a fence or wall and buildings, may post around his or its property at each gate, entrance, dock or railway entrance and every 100 feet of waterfront a sign reading "No Entry Without Permission." Whoever without permission of such owner shall willfully enter upon premises so posted shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 7, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 709, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383.

Note.—Former s. 779.12.

876.44 Questioning and detaining suspected persons.—Any peace officer or any other person employed as watchman, guard, or in a supervisory capacity on premises posted as provided in s. 876.43 may stop any person found on any premises to which entry without permission is forbidden by s. 876.43 and may detain him for the purpose of demanding, and may demand, of him, his name, address and business in such place. If said peace officer or employee has reason to believe from the answers of the person so interrogated that such person has no right to be in such place, said peace officer shall forthwith release such person or he may arrest such person without a warrant on the charge of violating the provisions of s. 876.43; and said employee shall forthwith release such person or turn him over to a peace officer, who may arrest him without a warrant on the charge of violating the provisions of s. 876.43.

History.—s. 8, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 65, ch. 74-383; s. 246, ch. 77-104.

Note.—Former s. 779.13.

876.45 Closing and restricting use of highway.—

(1) Any individual, partnership, association, corporation, municipal corporation or state or any political subdivision thereof engaged in or preparing to engage in the manufacture, transportation or storage of any product to be used in the preparation of the United States, or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations or any of the states for defense or for war or in the prosecution of war by the United States, or in the manufacture, transportation, distribution or storage of gas, oil, coal, electricity or water, or any of said natural or artificial persons operating any public utility, who has property so used which he or it believes will be endangered if public use and travel is not restricted or prohibited on one or more highways or parts thereof upon which such property abuts, may petition the highway commissioners of any city, town or county to close one or more of said highways or parts thereof to public use and travel or to restrict by order the use and travel upon one or more of said highways or parts thereof.

(2) Upon receipt of such petition, the highway commissioners shall set a day for hearing and give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper having general circulation in the city, town or county in which such property is located, such notice to be at least 7 days prior to the date set for hearing. If after hearing the highway commissioners determine that the public safety and the safety of the property of the petitioner so require, they shall by suitable order close to public use and travel or reasonably restrict the use of and travel upon one or more of said highways or parts thereof; provided, the highway commissioners may issue written permits to travel over the highways so closed or restricted to responsible and reputable persons for such term, under such conditions and in such form as said commissioners may prescribe. Appropriate notices in letters at least 3 inches high shall be posted conspicuously at each end of any highway so closed or restricted by such order. The highway commissioners may at any time revoke or modify any order so made.

History.—s. 9, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 65, ch. 74-383.
Note.—Former s. 779.14.

876.46 Penalty for going upon closed or restricted highway.—Whoever violates any order made under s. 876.45 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 10, ch. 20252, 1941; s. 710, ch. 71-136; s. 65, ch. 74-383; s. 246, ch. 77-104.
Note.—Former s. 779.15.

876.47 Rights of labor.—Nothing in this law shall be construed to impair, curtail, or destroy the rights of employees and their representatives to self-organization, to form, join, or assist labor organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and to engage in concerted activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

877.01 Instigation of litigation; penalty.—

(1) Whoever gives, promises, offers or conspires to give, promise or offer, to anyone any bribe, money, goods, presents, reward or any valuable thing whatsoever with the intent and purpose of stirring up strife and litigation; or with intent and purpose of assisting, seeking out, influencing, or advising the accused, sick, injured, uninformed, or others to bring suit or seek professional legal services or advice, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) Whoever, in any way, solicits, receives or accepts or agrees to receive or accept, or who conspires to receive or accept, any bribe, money, goods, presents, reward or any valuable thing whatsoever, with the intent and purpose of stirring up strife and litigation; or with the intent or purpose of seeking out, influencing, assisting or advising the accused, sick, injured, uninformed or others to bring suit, or seek professional legal services, counsel or advice, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall not be privileged from testifying, but if he does testify in response to a subpoena issued by the state attorney or court having jurisdiction of such offense, nothing said by him in his testimony shall be admissible in any civil or criminal action against him, nor shall he be subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any such testimony or evidence so given or produced.

(4) Nothing herein shall apply to the division of legal fees by and between attorneys at law.

(5) This section shall be taken to be cumulative and shall not be construed to amend or repeal any other valid law, code, ordinance, rule, or penalty now in effect.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 59-381; s. 1145, ch. 71-136; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

877.02 Solicitation of legal services or retainers therefor; penalty.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person or his agent, employee or any person acting on his behalf, to solicit or procure through solicitation either directly or indirectly legal business, or to solicit or procure through solicitation a retainer, written or oral, or any agreement authorizing an attorney to perform or render legal service, or to make it a business to solicit or procure such business, retainers or agreements; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prohibit or be applicable to banks, trust companies, lawyer reference services, legal aid associations, lay collection agencies, railroad companies, insurance companies and agencies, and real estate companies and agencies, in the conduct of their lawful businesses, and in connection therewith and incidental thereto forwarding legal matters to attorneys at law when such forwarding is authorized by the customers or clients of said businesses and is done pursuant to the canons of legal ethics as pronounced by the Supreme Court of Florida.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person in the employ of or in any capacity attached to any hospital, sanitarium, police department, wrecker service or garage, prison or court, or for a person authorized to furnish bail bonds, investigators, photographers, insurance or public adjusters, to communicate directly or indirectly with any attorney or person acting on said attorney's behalf for the purpose of aiding, assisting or abetting such attorney in the solicitation of legal business or the procurement through solicitation of a retainer, written or oral, or any agreement authorizing the attorney to perform or render legal services.

(3) Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(4) This section shall be taken to be cumulative and shall not be construed to amend or repeal any other valid law, code, ordinance, rule, or penalty now in effect.

History.—ss. 1-4, ch. 59-391; s. 1146, ch. 71-136.

877.03 Breach of the peace; disorderly conduct.—Whoever commits such acts as are of a nature to corrupt the public morals, or outrage the sense of public decency, or affect the peace and quiet of persons who may witness them, or engages in brawling or fighting, or engages in such conduct as to constitute a breach of the peace or disorderly conduct, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-325; s. 1147, ch. 71-136.

877.04 Tattooing prohibited; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to tattoo the body of any human being; except that tattooing may be performed by a person licensed to practice medicine or dentistry under chapters 458 and 459 or chapter 466, or by a person under his direction.

(2) Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 59-439; s. 1, ch. 69-118; s. 1148, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

877.05 Killing young veal for sale; penalty; exception.—Whoever kills or causes to be killed for the purpose of sale, any calf less than four weeks old, and knowingly sells, or has in his possession with intent to sell, the meat of any calf killed when less than 4 weeks old, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083. This section shall not apply to calves slaughtered on the premises of meat packing or slaughtering establishments operating under state or federal meat inspection supervision.

History.—s. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2661; GS 3590; RGS 5519; CGL 7684; s. 1, ch. 59-150; s. 1149, ch. 71-136.

Note.—See former s. 585.42.

877.06 Labeling of beef not slaughtered according to state or United States standards; enforcement; penalty.—

(1) Every person, firm or corporation operating a restaurant or any other eating place, or retail or wholesale market or packinghouse, in this state, and who sells beef that has not been slaughtered and inspected according to standards established by either the Government of Florida or of the United States, shall mark, stamp, or describe the same by the following words, "slaughtered in" followed by the name of the state or country and the words "has not been slaughtered and inspected according to federal or state standards."

(2)(a) Packinghouses and wholesale and retail meat markets before sale of beef which is within the purview of subsection (1) shall plainly stamp on each carcass, each carton, each can and each container, the words prescribed in subsection (1) and all advertising as to the sale of such beef shall include such words; provided, however, that a conspicuous sign containing the words prescribed in subsection (1) visibly displayed near the display of such beef in retail markets may be used when the stamping of individual cuts of beef is impractical.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services through its agents or inspectors to enforce the provisions of this subsection.

(3)(a) Restaurants or other eating places advertising their meals or food, by menus or otherwise, shall set out plainly in such menus, advertisements or otherwise as to beef coming within the purview of the law the words prescribed in subsection (1).

(b) It shall be the duty of the Division of Hotels and Restaurants of the Department of Business Regulation through its agents or inspectors to enforce the provisions of this subsection.

(4) Any person willfully and knowingly violating any of the provisions of this section or any person who fails to comply with any of the requirements hereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and each day during which such a violation shall continue, shall be deemed a separate violation and a separate offense.

(5) Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the use of additional words in describing the grade, quality or kind of such beef.

History.—ss. 1-5, ch. 65-29; ss. 14, 16, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1150, ch. 71-136.

877.061 Marketing establishments; maintenance of scales.—

(1) Any milk plant, meat-processing plant or any other marketing establishment which purchases dairy and agricultural products directly from the producer, his agent or employee on the basis of the weight of the product shall maintain scales in a location in the plant or other marketing establishment where the seller-producer and purchaser or their agent shall have the right and opportunity to attest to the weight thereof.

(2) The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall designate agents to inspect such scales as often as it deems practical and necessary.

(3) Any person who willfully and knowingly violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-119; ss. 14, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1151, ch. 71-136.

877.08 Coin-operated vending machines and parking meters; defined; prohibited acts, penalties.—

(1) A "coin-operated vending machine" or "parking meter," for the purposes of this act, is defined to be any machine, contrivance, or device that is adapted for use in such a way that, as the result of the insertion of any piece of money, coin or other object, the machine, contrivance, parking meter or device is caused to operate or may be operated and by reason of such operation the user may become entitled to receive any food, drink, telephone or telegraph service, insurance protection, parking privilege or any other personal property, service, protection, right or privilege of any kind or nature whatsoever.

(2) Whoever maliciously or mischievously molests, opens, breaks, injures, damages, or inserts any part of his body or any instrument into any coin-operated vending machine or parking meter of another, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3) Whoever molests, opens, breaks, injures, damages, or inserts any part of his body or any instrument into any coin-operated vending machine or parking meter of another with intent to commit larceny is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(4) Whoever violates the provisions of subsection (3) a second time, and is convicted of such second separate offense, either at the same term or a subsequent term of court, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 65-165; s. 1153, ch. 71-136.

877.09 Tampering with or damaging sewer systems.—

(1) Whoever willfully or fraudulently, without the consent of any person, firm or corporation or lessee, trustee or receiver owning, leasing, operating or managing any sewer system, shall tap, make or cause to be made any connection with, injure or knowingly to suffer to be injured, tamper or meddle with, plug or in any way hinder, use without authorization, or interfere with any lines, mains, pipes, laterals, collectors, connections, interceptors, manholes, appliances or appurtenances used for or in connection with any sewer system and belonging to such person, firm or corporation or lessee, trustee, or receiver, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(2) The existence of any tap, connection to, unauthorized use of, or interference with any line, main, pipe, lateral, collector, connection, interceptor or other appliance or appurtenance used for or in connection with any sewer system and belonging to any person, firm or corporation or lessee, trustee or receiver owning, leasing, operating or managing any sewer system shall be prima facie evidence of intent to violate this law by the person receiving the direct benefit from such tap, connection or interference.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 65-232; s. 1154, ch. 71-136.

877.10 Real property; dual contracts prohibited.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly make, issue, deliver or receive dual contracts for the purchase or sale of real property. Dual contracts, either written or oral, are two contracts concerning the same parcel of real property, one of which states the true and actual purchase price and one of which states a purchase price in excess of the true and actual purchase price and is used as an inducement for mortgage investors to make a loan commitment on such real property in reliance upon the stated inflated value.

(2) Any violation of this section is a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-531; s. 1155, ch. 71-136.

877.11 Inhalation or possession of harmful chemical substances; penalties.—

(1) DEFINITION.—As used in this section, the term "chemical substance" shall mean any natural, artificial, or pharmaceutical substance, including model glue, whether gaseous, liquid, or solid, the fumes of which, when inhaled by a human being, cause a condition of, or induce or produce symptoms of, intoxication, elation, euphoria, dizziness, excitement, irrational behavior, exhilaration, paralysis, stupefaction or dulling of the senses of the nervous system, or a distortion or disturbance of the auditory, visual, or mental processes.

(2) INHALATION PROHIBITED.—It shall be unlawful for any person intentionally to smell or inhale the fumes of any chemical substance, or to induce any other person to do so, for the purpose of causing a condition of, or inducing symptoms of, intoxication, elation, euphoria, dizziness, excitement, irrational behavior, exhilaration, paralysis, stupefaction, or dulling of the senses of the nervous system or for the purpose of in any manner changing, distorting, or disturbing the auditory, visual, or mental processes. This section shall not apply to the inhalation of any anesthesia for medical or dental purposes.

(3) POSSESSION REGULATED.—It shall be unlawful for any person intentionally to possess any chemical substance for the purpose of using the same in the manner prohibited by subsection (2).

(4) INDUCING OTHER PERSONS.—It shall be unlawful for any person intentionally to possess, buy, sell, or otherwise transfer any chemical substance for the purpose of inducing or aiding any other person to violate the provisions of subsection (2).

(5) PENALTIES.—Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 67-416; s. 1, ch. 70-165; s. 1156, ch. 71-136.

877.13 Educational institutions, unlawful interruption or interference, school campus or school function disorders prohibited.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person:

(a) Knowingly to disrupt or interfere with the lawful administration or functions of any educational institution in this state.

(b) Knowingly to advise, counsel or instruct any school pupil or school employee to disrupt any school function or classroom.

(c) Knowingly to interfere with the attendance of any other school pupil or school employee in a school or classroom.

(d) To conspire to riot or to engage in any school campus or school function disruption or disturbance which interferes with the educational processes.

(2) This section shall apply to all educational institutions.

(3) Any person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-274; s. 1158, ch. 71-136; s. 1, ch. 73-177.

877.14 Merchandising of dogs; required records; penalty for violation.—

(1) Every person engaged in the business of selling dogs shall keep a complete and true record of all transactions, showing the date of transaction and the name and address of the person from whom each dog was purchased or otherwise obtained and to whom it was sold. The record also should show a sufficient description of the dog such as breed, sex, color, markings, and distinguishing features. The record shall at all times be subject to the inspection of all police and peace officers.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-285; s. 1159, ch. 71-136.

877.15 Failure to control or report dangerous fire.—Any person who knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that a fire is endangering the life or property of another, and who fails to take reasonable measures to put out or control the fire when he can do so without substantial risk to himself, or who fails to give a prompt fire alarm, is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084, if:

(1) He knows that he is under an official, contractual, or other legal duty to control or combat the fire; or

(2) The fire was started lawfully by him or with his assent and was started on property in his custody or control.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-108.

877.16 Exhibition of deformed animals prohibited; penalty.—Whoever shall exhibit for pay or compensation any crippled or physically distorted, malformed, or disfigured beast, bird, or animal in any circus, show, or similar place, or any other place to which an admission fee is charged, whoever knowingly advertises or knowingly causes to be advertised any such exhibition, and whoever solicits or procures the attendance of others at such exhibition with knowledge of the nature thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 2, ch. 8524, 1921; CGL 7674; s. 1124, ch. 71-136.

893.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be cited and known as the "Florida Comprehensive Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-331.

893.02 Definitions.—The following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Administer" means the direct application of a controlled substance, whether by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or any other means, to the body of a person or animal.

(2) "Cannabis" means all parts of any plant of the genus Cannabis, whether growing or not; the seeds thereof; the resin extracted from any part of the plant; and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the plant or its seeds or resin.

(3) "Controlled substance" means any substance named or described in Schedules I through V of s. 893.03. Laws controlling the manufacture, distribution, preparation, dispensing, or administration of such substances are drug abuse laws.

(4) "Deliver" or "delivery" means the actual, constructive, or attempted transfer from one person to another of a controlled substance, whether or not there is an agency relationship.

(5) "Dispense" means the transfer of possession of one or more doses of a medicinal drug by a pharmacist or other licensed practitioner to the ultimate consumer thereof or to one who represents that it is his intention not to consume or use the same but to transfer the same to the ultimate consumer or user for consumption by the ultimate consumer or user.

(6) "Distribute" means to deliver, other than by administering or dispensing, a controlled substance.

(7) "Distributor" means a person who distributes.

(8) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(9) "Hospital" means an institution for the care and treatment of the sick and injured, licensed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 395 or owned or operated by the state or Federal Government.

(10) "Laboratory" means a laboratory approved by the Drug Enforcement Administration as proper to be entrusted with the custody of controlled substances for scientific, medical, or instructional purposes or to aid law enforcement officers and prosecuting attorneys in the enforcement of this chapter.

(11)(a) "Manufacture" means the production, preparation, propagation, compounding, cultivating, growing, conversion, or processing of a controlled substance, either directly or indirectly, by extraction from substances of natural origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis, and includes any packaging of the substance or labeling or relabeling of its container, except that this term does not include the preparation, compounding, packaging, or labeling of a controlled substance by:

1. A practitioner or pharmacist as an incident to his administering or delivering of a controlled substance in the course of his professional practice.

2. A practitioner, or by his authorized agent under his supervision, for the purpose of, or as an incident to, research, teaching, or chemical analysis, and not for sale.

(b) "Manufacturer" means a drug manufacturer as defined by s. 500.03(23).

(12) "Patient" means an individual to whom a controlled substance is lawfully dispensed or administered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(13) "Pharmacist" means a person who is licensed pursuant to chapter 465 to practice the profession of pharmacy in this state.

(14) "Practitioner" means a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 458, a dentist licensed pursuant to chapter 466, a veterinarian licensed pursuant to chapter 474, an osteopath licensed pursuant to chapter 459, a naturopath licensed pursuant to chapter 462, or a podiatrist licensed pursuant to chapter 461, provided such practitioner holds a valid federal controlled substance registry number.

(15) "Prescription" means and includes an order for drugs or medicinal supplies written, signed, or transmitted by word of mouth, telephone, telegram, or other means of communication by a duly licensed practitioner licensed by the laws of the state to prescribe such drugs or medicinal supplies, issued in good faith and in the course of professional practice, intended to be filled, compounded, or dispensed by another person licensed by the laws of the state to do so, and meeting the requirements of s. 893.04. The term shall also include an order for drugs or medicinal supplies so transmitted or written by a physician, dentist, veterinarian, or other practitioner licensed to practice in a state other than Florida, but only if the pharmacist called upon to fill such an order determines, in the exercise of his professional judgment, that the order was issued pursuant to a valid patient-physician relationship, that it is authentic, and that the drugs or medicinal supplies so ordered are considered necessary for the continuation of treatment of a chronic or recurrent illness. However, if the physician writing the prescription is not known to the pharmacist, the pharmacist shall obtain proof to a reasonable certainty of the validity of said prescription. A prescription order for a controlled substance shall not be issued on the same prescription blank with another prescription order for a controlled substance which is named or described in a different schedule, nor shall any prescription order for a controlled substance be issued on the same prescription blank as a prescription order for a medicinal drug, as defined in subsection 465.031(5), which does not fall within the definition of a controlled substance as defined in this act.

(16) "Wholesaler" means a drug wholesaler as defined by s. 500.03(22).

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-331; s. 1, ch. 75-18; s. 470, ch. 77-147; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 184, ch. 79-164; s. 1, ch. 79-325.

893.03 Standards and schedules.—The substances enumerated herein are controlled by this chapter. The controlled substances listed or to be listed in Schedules I, II, III, IV, and V are included by whatever official, common, usual, chemical, or trade name designated. The provisions of this act shall not be construed to include within any of the schedules herein contained any Excepted Prescription Drugs listed within the purview of 21 C.F.R. s. 1308.32, styled "Excepted Compounds."

(1) SCHEDULE I.—A substance in Schedule I has a high potential for abuse and has no currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, and in its use under medical supervision does not meet accepted safety standards except for such uses provided for in s. 402.36. The following substances are controlled in Schedule I:

(a) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any of the following substances, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, esters, and ethers, whenever the existence of such isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

1. Acetylmethadol.
2. Allylprodine.
3. Alphacetylmethadol.
4. Alphaprodine.
5. Alphamethadol.
6. Benzethidine.
7. Betacetylmethadol.
8. Betameprodine.
9. Betamethadol.
10. Betaprodine.
11. Clonitazene.
12. Dextromoramide.
13. Diampromide.
14. Diethylthiambutene.
15. Difenoxin.
16. Dimenoxadol.
17. Dimepheptanol.
18. Dimethylthiambutene.
19. Dioxaphetyl butyrate.
20. Dipipanone.
21. Ethylmethylthiambutene.

22. Etonitazene.
23. Extoteridine.
24. Furethidine.
25. Hydroxypethidine.
26. Ketobemidone.
27. Levomoramide.
28. Levophenacymorphan.
29. Morpheridine.
30. Noracymethadol.
31. Norlevorphanol.
32. Normethadone.
33. Norpipanone.
34. Phenadoxone.
35. Phenampromide.
36. Phenomorphan.
37. Phenoperidine.
38. Piritramide.
39. Proheptazine.
40. Properidine.
41. Propiram.
42. Racemoramide.
43. Trimeperidine.

(b) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any of the following substances, their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

1. Acetorphine.
2. Acetyldihydrocodeine.
3. Benzylmorphine.
4. Codeine methylbromide.
5. Codeine-N-Oxide.
6. Cyprenorphine.
7. Desomorphine.
8. Dihydromorphine.
9. Drotebanol.
10. Etorphine (except hydrochloride salt).
11. Heroin.
12. Hydromorphanol.
13. Methyldesorphine.
14. Methyldihydromorphinone.
15. Monoacetylmorphine.
16. Morphine methylbromide.
17. Morphine methylsulfonate.
18. Morphine-N-Oxide.
19. Myrophine.
20. Nicocodine.
21. Nicomorphine.
22. Normorphine.
23. Pholcodine.
24. Thebacon.

(c) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following hallucinogenic substances or which contains any of their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

1. 4-Bromo-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine.
2. Bufotenine.
3. Cannabis.
4. Diethyltryptamine.
5. 2,5-Dimethoxyamphetamine.
6. Dimethyltryptamine.

7. N-Ethyl-3-piperidyl benzilate.
8. Ibogaine.
9. Lysergic acid diethylamide.
10. Mecloqualone.
11. Mescaline.
12. 4-methoxyamphetamine.
13. 5-Methoxy-3,4-methylenedioxyamphet-amine.
14. 4-Methyl-2,5-dimethoxyamphetamine.
15. 3,4-Methylenedioxyamphetamine.
16. N-Methyl-3-piperidyl benzilate.
17. Peyote.
18. Psilocybin.
19. Psilocyn.
20. Tetrahydrocannabinols.
21. Thiophene Analog of Phencyclidine.
22. 3,4,5-Trimethoxyamphetamine.

(2) SCHEDULE II.—A substance in Schedule II has a high potential for abuse and has a currently accepted but severely restricted medical use in treatment in the United States, and abuse of the substance may lead to severe psychological or physical dependence. The following substances are controlled in Schedule II:

(a) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any of the following substances, whether produced directly or indirectly by extraction from substances of vegetable origin or independently by means of chemical synthesis:

1. Opium and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium, except isoquinoline alkaloids of opium, including but not limited to the following:

- a. Raw opium.
- b. Opium extracts.
- c. Opium fluid extracts.
- d. Powdered opium.
- e. Granulated opium.
- f. Tincture of opium.
- g. Codeine.
- h. Ethylmorphine.
- i. Etorphine hydrochloride.
- j. Hydrocodone.
- k. Hydromorphone.
- l. Metopon.
- m. Morphine.
- n. Oxycodone.
- o. Oxymorphone.
- p. Thebaine.

2. Any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of a substance which is chemically equivalent to or identical with any of the substances referred to in subparagraph 1., except that these substances shall not include the isoquinoline alkaloids of opium.

3. Any part of the plant of the species Papaver somniferum, L.

4. Coca leaves, cocaine, or ecgonine, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of coca leaves, cocaine, or ecgonine, and any salt, compound, derivative, or preparation thereof which is chemically equivalent to or identical with any of these substances, except that the substances shall not include decocainized coca leaves or extractions which do not contain cocaine or ecgonine.

(b) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any of the following substances, including their isomers, esters, ethers, salts, and salts of isomers, esters, and ethers, whenever the existence of such isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

1. Alphaprodine.
2. Anileridine.
3. Bezitramide.
4. Dihydrocodeine.
5. Diphenoxylate.
6. Fentanyl.
7. Isomethadone.
8. Levomethorphan.
9. Levorphanol.
10. Metazocine.
11. Methadone.
12. Methadone-Intermediate,4-cyano-2-dimethylamino-4,4-diphenylbutane.
13. Moramide-Intermediate,2-methyl-3-morpholino-1,1-diphenylpropane-carboxylic acid.
14. Pethidine (meperidine).
15. Pethidine-Intermediate-A,4-cyano-1-methyl-4-phenylpiperidine.
16. Pethidine-Intermediate-B,ethyl-4-phenylpiperidine-4-carboxylate.
17. Pethidine-Intermediate-C,1-methyl-4-phenylpiperidine-4-carboxylic acid.
18. Phenazocine.
19. Piminodine.
20. Racemethorphan.
21. Racemorphan.

(c) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances, including their salts, isomers, optical isomers, salts of their isomers, and salts of their optical isomers:

1. Amphetamine.
2. Methamphetamine.
3. Phenmetrazine.
4. Methylphenidate.
5. Methaqualone.
6. Amobarbital.
7. Secobarbital.
8. Pentobarbital.
9. Phencyclidine.

(3) SCHEDULE III.—A substance in Schedule III has a potential for abuse less than the substances contained in Schedules I and II and has a currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, and abuse of the substance may lead to moderate or low physical dependence or high psychological dependence. The following substances are controlled in Schedule III:

(a) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a depressant or stimulant effect on the nervous system:

1. Any substance which contains any quantity of a derivative of barbituric acid, or any salt or a derivative of barbituric acid.
2. Benzphetamine.
3. Chlorhexadol.
4. Chlorphentermine.
5. Clortermine.
6. Gluthethimide.
7. Lysergic acid.

8. Lysergic acid amide.
9. Mazindol.
10. Methypylon.
11. Sulfonmethane.
12. Phendimetrazine.
13. Sulfondiethylmethane.
14. Sulfonethylmethane.

(b) Nalorphine.

(c) Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation containing limited quantities of any of the following controlled substances or any salts thereof:

1. Not more than 1.8 grams of codeine per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with an equal or greater quantity of an isoquinoline alkaloid of opium.

2. Not more than 1.8 grams of codeine per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with recognized therapeutic amounts of one or more active ingredients which are not controlled substances.

3. Not more than 300 milligrams of dihydrocodeinone per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with a fourfold or greater quantity of an isoquinoline alkaloid of opium.

4. Not more than 300 milligrams of dihydrocodeinone per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with recognized therapeutic amounts of one or more active ingredients which are not controlled substances.

5. Not more than 1.8 grams of dihydrocodeine per 100 milliliters or not more than 90 milligrams per dosage unit, with recognized therapeutic amounts of one or more active ingredients which are not controlled substances.

6. Not more than 300 milligrams of ethylmorphine per 100 milliliters or not more than 15 milligrams per dosage unit, with one or more active, non-narcotic ingredients in recognized therapeutic amounts.

7. Not more than 50 milligrams of morphine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams, with recognized therapeutic amounts of one or more active ingredients which are not controlled substances.

(4) SCHEDULE IV.—A substance in Schedule IV has a low potential for abuse relative to the substances in Schedule III and has a currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, and abuse of the substance may lead to limited physical or psychological dependence relative to the substances in Schedule III. Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation are controlled in Schedule IV:

- (a) Barbitol.
- (b) Chloral betaine.
- (c) Chloral hydrate.
- (d) Chlordiazepoxide.
- (e) Clonazepam.
- (f) Clorazepate.

- (g) Dextropropoxyphene.
- (h) Diazepam.
- (i) Diethylpropion.
- (j) Etchlorvynol.
- (k) Ethinamate.
- (l) Fenfluramine.
- (m) Flurazepam.
- (n) Mebutamate.
- (o) Meproamate.
- (p) Methohexital.
- (q) Methylphenobarbital.
- (r) Oxazepam.
- (s) Paraldehyde.
- (t) Pemoline.
- (u) Petrichloral.
- (v) Phenobarbital.
- (w) Phentermine.
- (x) Prazepam.

(5) SCHEDULE V.—A compound, mixture, or preparation of a substance in Schedule V has a low potential for abuse relative to the substances in Schedule IV and has a currently accepted medical use in treatment in the United States, and abuse of such compound, mixture, or preparation may lead to limited physical or psychological dependence relative to the substances in Schedule IV. Substances controlled in Schedule V include any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any of the following limited quantities of controlled substances, which shall include one or more active medicinal ingredients which are not controlled substances in sufficient proportion to confer upon the compound, mixture, or preparation valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the controlled substance alone:

(a) Not more than 200 milligrams of codeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

(b) Not more than 100 milligrams of dihydrocodeine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

(c) Not more than 100 milligrams of ethylmorphine per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

(d) Not more than 2.5 milligrams of diphenoxylate and not less than 25 micrograms of atropine sulfate per dosage unit.

(e) Not more than 100 milligrams of opium per 100 milliliters or per 100 grams.

(f) Not more than 2 milligrams of loperamide per dosage unit.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-331; s. 247, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 77-174; ss. 1, 2, ch. 78-195; s. 2, ch. 79-325.

893.04 Pharmacist and practitioner.—

(1) A pharmacist, in good faith and in the course of professional practice only, may dispense controlled substances upon a written or oral prescription of a practitioner, under the following conditions:

(a) Oral prescriptions must be promptly reduced to writing by the pharmacist.

(b) The written prescription must be dated and signed by the prescribing practitioner on the day when issued.

(c) There shall appear on the face of the prescription or written record thereof for the controlled substance the following information:

1. The full name and address of the person for whom, or the owner of the animal for which, the controlled substance is dispensed.

2. The full name and address of the prescribing practitioner and his federal-controlled substance registry number shall be printed thereon.

3. If the prescription is for an animal, the species of animal for which the controlled substance is prescribed.

4. The name of the controlled substance prescribed and the strength, quantity, and directions for use thereof.

5. The number of the prescription, as recorded in the prescription files of the pharmacy in which it is filled.

6. The initials of the pharmacist filling the prescription and the date filled.

(d) The prescription shall be retained on file by the proprietor of the pharmacy in which it is filled for a period of 2 years.

(e) Affixed to the original container in which a controlled substance is delivered upon a prescription or authorized refill thereof, as hereinafter provided, there shall be a label bearing the following information:

1. The name and address of the pharmacy from which such controlled substance was dispensed.

2. The date on which the prescription for such controlled substance was filled.

3. The number of such prescription, as recorded in the prescription files of the pharmacy in which it is filled.

4. The name of the prescribing practitioner.

5. The name of the patient for whom, or of the owner and species of the animal for which, the controlled substance is prescribed.

6. The directions for the use of the controlled substance prescribed in the prescription.

7. A clear, concise warning that it is a crime to transfer the controlled substance to any person other than the patient for whom prescribed.

(f) A prescription for a controlled substance listed in Schedule II may be dispensed only upon a written prescription of a practitioner, except that in an emergency situation, as defined by regulation of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, such controlled substance may be dispensed upon oral prescription. No prescription for a controlled substance listed in Schedule II may be refilled.

(g) No prescription for a controlled substance listed in Schedules III, IV, or V may be filled or refilled more than five times within a period of 6 months after the date on which the prescription was written unless the prescription is renewed by a practitioner.

(2) The legal owner of any stock of controlled substances in a pharmacy, upon discontinuance of dealing in controlled substances, may sell said stock to a manufacturer, wholesaler, or pharmacy. Such controlled substances may be sold only upon an order form, when such an order form is required for sale by the drug abuse laws of the United States or this state, or regulations pursuant thereto.

History.—s. 4, ch. 73-331; s. 2, ch. 75-18; s. 12, ch. 79-12.

893.05 Practitioners and persons administering controlled substances in their absence.—

(1) A practitioner, in good faith and in the course of his professional practice only, may prescribe, administer, dispense, mix, or otherwise prepare a controlled substance, or he may cause the same to be administered by a licensed nurse or an intern practitioner under his direction and supervision only. A veterinarian may so prescribe, administer, dispense, mix, or prepare a controlled substance for use on animals only, and may cause it to be administered by an assistant or orderly under his direction and supervision only.

(2) When any controlled substance is dispensed by a practitioner, there shall be affixed to the original container in which the controlled substance is delivered a label on which appears:

(a) The date of delivery.

(b) The directions for use of such controlled substance.

(c) The name and address of such practitioner.

(d) The name of the patient and, if such controlled substance is prescribed for an animal, a statement describing the species of the animal.

(e) A clear, concise warning that it is a crime to transfer the controlled substance to any person other than the patient for whom prescribed.

(3) Any person who obtains from a practitioner or his agent, or pursuant to prescription, any controlled substance for administration to a patient during the absence of such practitioner shall return to such practitioner any unused portion of such controlled substance when it is no longer required by the patient.

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-331.

893.06 Distribution of controlled substances; order forms; labeling and packaging requirements.—

(1) Controlled substances in Schedules I and II shall be distributed by a duly licensed manufacturer, distributor, or wholesaler to a duly licensed manufacturer, wholesaler, distributor, practitioner, pharmacy, as defined in chapter 465, hospital, or laboratory only pursuant to an order form. It shall be deemed a compliance with this subsection if the parties to the transaction have complied with federal law respecting the use of order forms.

(2) Possession or control of controlled substances obtained as authorized by this section shall be lawful if in the regular course of business, occupation, profession, employment, or duty.

(3) A person in charge of a hospital or laboratory or in the employ of this state or of any other state, or of any political subdivision thereof, and a master or other proper officer of a ship or aircraft, who obtains controlled substances under the provisions of this section or otherwise, shall not administer, dispense, or otherwise use such controlled substances within this state, except within the scope of his employment or official duty, and then only for scientific or medicinal purposes and subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(4) It shall be unlawful to distribute a controlled substance in a commercial container unless such container bears a label showing the name and address of the manufacturer, the quantity, kind, and form of controlled substance contained therein, and the identifying symbol for such substance, as required by federal law. No person except a pharmacist, for the purpose of dispensing a prescription, or a practitioner, for the purpose of dispensing a controlled substance to a patient, shall alter, deface, or remove any labels so affixed.

History.—s. 6, ch. 73-331.

893.07 Records.—

(1) Every person who engages in the manufacture, compounding, mixing, cultivating, growing, or by any other process producing or preparing, or in the dispensing, importation, or, as a wholesaler, distribution, of controlled substances shall:

(a) On January 1, 1974, or as soon thereafter as any person first engages in such activity, and every second year thereafter, make a complete and accurate record of all stocks of controlled substances on hand. The inventory may be prepared on the regular physical inventory date which is nearest to, and does not vary by more than 6 months from, the biennial date that would otherwise apply. As additional substances are designated for control under this chapter, they shall be inventoried as provided for in this subsection.

(b) On and after January 1, 1974, maintain, on a current basis, a complete and accurate record of each substance manufactured, received, sold, delivered, or otherwise disposed of by him, except that this subsection shall not require the maintenance of a perpetual inventory.

Compliance with the provisions of federal law pertaining to the keeping of records of controlled substances shall be deemed a compliance with the requirements of this subsection.

(2) The record of controlled substances received shall in every case show:

(a) The date of receipt.

(b) The name and address of the person from whom received.

(c) The kind and quantity of controlled substances received.

(3) The record of all controlled substances sold, administered, dispensed, or otherwise disposed of shall show:

(a) The date of selling, administering, or dispensing.

(b) The correct name and address of the person to whom or for whose use, or the owner and species of animal for which, sold, administered, or dispensed.

(c) The kind and quantity of controlled substances sold, administered, or dispensed.

(4) Every inventory or record required by this chapter, including prescription records, shall be maintained:

(a) Separately from all other records of the registrant, or

(b) Alternatively, in the case of Schedule III, IV, or V controlled substances, in such form that information required by this chapter is readily retrievable from the ordinary business records of the registrant.

In either case, records shall be kept and made available for a period of at least 2 years for inspection and copying by law enforcement officers whose duty it is to enforce the laws of this state relating to controlled substances.

(5) Each person shall maintain a record which shall contain a detailed list of controlled substances lost, destroyed, or stolen, if any; the kind and quantity of such controlled substances; and the date of the discovering of such loss, destruction, or theft.

History.—s. 7, ch. 73-331.

893.08 Exceptions.—

(1) The following may be distributed at retail without a prescription, but only by a registered pharmacist:

(a) Any compound, mixture, or preparation described in Schedule V.

(b) Any compound, mixture, or preparation containing any depressant or stimulant substance described in s. 893.03(2)(a) or (c), in s. 893.03(3)(a), or in Schedule IV, if:

1. The compound, mixture, or preparation contains one or more active medicinal ingredients not having depressant or stimulant effect on the central nervous system, and

2. Such ingredients are included therein in such combinations, quantity, proportion, or concentration as to vitiate the potential for abuse of the controlled substances which do have a depressant or stimulant effect on the central nervous system.

(2) No compound, mixture, or preparation may be dispensed under subsection (1) unless such substance may, under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, be lawfully sold at retail without a prescription.

(3) The exemptions authorized by this section shall be subject to the following conditions:

(a) The compounds, mixtures, and preparations referred to in subsection (1) may be dispensed to persons under age 18 only on prescription. A bound volume must be maintained as a record of sale at retail of excepted compounds, mixtures, and preparations, and the pharmacist must require suitable identification from every unknown purchaser.

(b) Such compounds, mixtures, and preparations shall be sold by the pharmacist in good faith as a medicine and not for the purpose of evading the provisions of this chapter. The pharmacist may, in his discretion, withhold sale to any person whom he reasonably believes is attempting to purchase excepted compounds, mixtures, or preparations for the purpose of abuse.

(c) The total quantity of controlled substance listed in Schedule V which may be sold to any one purchaser within a given 48-hour period shall not exceed 120 milligrams of codeine, 60 milligrams dihydrocodeine, 30 milligrams of ethyl morphine, or 240 milligrams of opium.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the kind and quantity of any controlled substance that may be prescribed, administered, or dispensed to any person, or for the use of any person or animal, when it is prescribed, administered, or dispensed in compliance with the general provisions of this chapter.

(4) The dextrorotatory isomer of 3-methoxymethylmorphinan and its salts (dextromethorphan) shall not be deemed to be included in any schedule by reason of enactment of this chapter.

History.—s. 8, ch. 73-331; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

893.09 Enforcement.—

(1) The Department of Law Enforcement, all state agencies which regulate professions or institutions affected by the provisions of this chapter, and all peace officers of the state shall enforce all provisions of this chapter except those specifically delegated, and shall cooperate with all agencies charged with the enforcement of the laws of the United States, this state, and all other states relating to controlled substances.

(2) Any agency authorized to enforce this chapter shall have the right to institute an action in its own name to enjoin the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. Said action for an injunction shall be in addition to any other action, proceeding, or remedy authorized by law.

(3) All law enforcement officers whose duty it is to enforce this chapter shall have authority to administer oaths in connection with their official duties, and any person making a material false statement under oath before such law enforcement officers shall be deemed guilty of perjury and subject to the same punishment as prescribed for perjury.

(4) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in chapter 843 for any person to interfere with any such law enforcement officer in the performance of his official duties. It shall also be unlawful for any person falsely to represent himself to be authorized to enforce the drug abuse laws of this state, the United States, or any other state.

(5) No civil or criminal liability shall be imposed by virtue of this chapter upon any person whose duty it is to enforce the provisions of this chapter, by reason of his being lawfully engaged in the enforcement of any law or municipal ordinance relating to controlled substances.

History.—s. 9, ch. 73-331; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 30, ch. 79-8. cf.—s. 500.46 Wholesale drug and drug manufacturer permits; renewal; inspections.

893.10 Burden of proof.—

(1) It shall not be necessary for the state to negate any exemption or exception set forth in this chapter in any indictment, information, or other pleading or in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding under this chapter, and the burden of going forward with the evidence with respect to any such exemption or exception shall be upon the person claiming its benefit.

(2) In the case of a person charged under s. 893.14(1) with the possession of a controlled substance, the label required under s. 893.04(1) or s. 893.05(2) shall be admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence that such substance was obtained pursuant to a valid prescription form or dispensed by a practitioner while acting in the course of his professional practice.

History.—s. 10, ch. 73-331.

893.11 Suspension, revocation, and reinstatement of business and professional licenses.—

Upon the conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction of any practitioner, distributor, manufacturer, wholesaler, or pharmacist of a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter which constitutes a felony, the clerk of said court shall send a certified copy of the judgment of conviction to the board or officer by whom the convicted defendant has been licensed to practice his profession or to carry on his business. Such board or officer may suspend or revoke the license or registration of the convicted defendant to practice his profession or to carry on his business. Upon application of any such convicted defendant whose license or registration has been suspended or revoked, and upon proper showing and for good cause, said board or officer may reinstate such license or registration. Any court of competent jurisdiction in which such a defendant is convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall have the power, in its discretion, to suspend or revoke the license or registration of the convicted defendant and may thereafter, upon proper showing and for good cause, reinstate such license or registration when the same shall have been suspended or revoked by a court of competent jurisdiction. However, no court shall reinstate any license of such a convicted defendant which has been revoked by the board or officer by whom the convicted defendant was licensed to practice his profession or to carry on his business, except upon a proceeding brought in a court of competent jurisdiction for the purpose of setting aside or restraining such suspension or revocation of license.

History.—s. 11, ch. 73-331; s. 1, ch. 77-117; s. 19, ch. 78-95. cf.—s. 112.011 Felons; removal of disqualifications for employment, exceptions.

893.12 Contraband; seizure, forfeiture and sale of vessel, vehicle, or aircraft illegally used.—

(1) All substances controlled by this chapter which may be handled, delivered, possessed, or distributed contrary to any provisions of this chapter and all such controlled substances the lawful possession of which is not established or the title to which cannot be ascertained are declared to be contraband, shall be subject to seizure and confiscation by any person whose duty it is to enforce the provisions of the chapter, and shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) Except as in this section otherwise provided, the court having jurisdiction shall order such controlled substances forfeited and destroyed. A record of the place where said controlled substances were seized, of the kinds and quantities of controlled substances destroyed, and of the time, place, and manner of destruction shall be kept, and a return under oath reporting said destruction shall be made to the court or magistrate and to the United States Drug Enforcement Administration by the officer who destroys them.

(b) Upon written application by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the court by whom the forfeiture of such controlled substances has been decreed may order the delivery of any of them to said department for distribution or destruction as hereinafter provided.

(c) Upon application by any hospital or laboratory within the state not operated for private gain, the department may, in its discretion, deliver any controlled substances that have come into its custody by authority of this section to the applicant for medical use. The department may from time to time deliver excess stocks of such controlled substances to the United States Drug Enforcement Administration or destroy same.

(d) The department shall keep a full and complete record of all controlled substances received and of all controlled substances disposed of, showing:

1. The exact kinds, quantities, and forms of such controlled substances;
2. The persons from whom received and to whom delivered;
3. By whose authority received, delivered, and destroyed; and
4. The dates of the receipt, disposal, or destruction, which record shall be open to inspection by all persons charged with the enforcement of federal and state drug abuse laws.

(2) Any vessel, vehicle, or aircraft which has been or is being used in violation of any provision of this chapter or in, upon, or by means of which any violation of this chapter has taken or is taking place may be seized and forfeited as provided by the Florida Uniform Contraband Transportation Act.

(3) Any law enforcement agency is empowered to authorize or designate officers, agents, or other persons to carry out the seizure provisions of this section. It shall be the duty of any officer, agent, or other person so authorized or designated, or authorized by law, whenever he shall discover any vessel, vehicle, or aircraft which has been or is being used in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or in, upon, or by means of which any violation of this chapter has taken or is taking place, to seize such vessel, vehicle, or aircraft and place it in the custody of such person as may be authorized or designated for that purpose by the respective law enforcement agency pursuant to these provisions.

(4) The rights of any bona fide holder of a duly recorded mortgage or duly recorded vendor's privilege on the property seized under this chapter shall not be affected by the seizure.

History.—s. 12, ch. 73-331; ss. 10, 11, ch. 74-385; s. 471, ch. 77-147; s. 185, ch. 79-164.

893.13 Prohibited acts; penalties.—

(1)(a) Except as authorized by this chapter and chapter 500, it is unlawful for any person to sell, manufacture, or deliver, or possess with intent to sell, manufacture, or deliver, a controlled substance. Any person who violates this provision with respect to:

1. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(1)(a), (1)(b), (2)(a), or (2)(b) is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084.

2. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(1)(c), (2)(c), (3), or (4) is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084; except that the sale, delivery, or possession of in excess of 100 pounds of cannabis as controlled in s. 893.03(1)(c) shall be punishable as provided in s. 893.135.

3. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(5) is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(b) Except as provided in this chapter, it is unlawful to sell, deliver, or possess in excess of 10 grams of any substance named or described in s. 893.03(1)(a) or (1)(b), or any combination thereof. This paragraph, however shall not apply to any act proscribed by s. 893.135. Any person who violates this paragraph is guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084.

(c) Except as authorized by this chapter, it is unlawful for any person over the age of 18 years to deliver any controlled substance to a person under the age of 18 years. Any person who violates this provision with respect to:

1. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(1)(a), (1)(b), (2)(a), or (2)(b) is guilty of a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084.

2. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(1)(c), (2)(c), (3), or (4) is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

Imposition of sentence shall not be suspended or deferred, nor shall the person so convicted be placed on probation.

(d) It is unlawful for any person to bring into this state any controlled substance unless the possession of such controlled substance is authorized by this chapter or unless said person is licensed to do so by the appropriate federal agency. Any person who violates this provision with respect to:

1. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(1)(a), (1)(b), (2)(a), or (2)(b) is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084.

2. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(1)(c), (2)(c), (3), or (4) is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084.

3. A controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(5) is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(e) It is unlawful for any person to be in actual or constructive possession of a controlled substance unless such controlled substance was lawfully obtained from a practitioner or pursuant to a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of his professional practice or to be in actual or constructive possession of a controlled substance except as otherwise authorized by this chapter. Any person who violates this provision is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(f) If the offense is the possession or delivery without consideration of not more than 20 grams of cannabis, as defined in this chapter, that person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 and s. 775.083. For purposes of this subsection, "cannabis" shall not include the resin extracted from the plants of the genus Cannabis, or any compound manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of such resin.

(g) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary of the laws of this state relating to arrest, a law enforcement officer may arrest without warrant any person who he has probable cause to believe is violating the provisions of this chapter relating to possession of cannabis.

(2)(a) It is unlawful for any person:

1. To distribute or dispense a controlled substance in violation of the provisions of this chapter relating thereto.

2. To refuse or fail to make, keep, or furnish any record, notification, order form, statement, invoice, or information required under this chapter.

3. To refuse an entry into any premises for any inspection or to refuse to allow any inspection authorized by this chapter.

4. To distribute a controlled substance named or described in s. 893.03(1) or (2) except pursuant to an order form as required by s. 893.06.

5. To keep or maintain any store, shop, warehouse, dwelling, building, vehicle, boat, aircraft, or other structure or place which is resorted to by persons using controlled substances in violation of this chapter for the purpose of using these substances, or which is used for keeping or selling them in violation of this chapter.

6. To use to his own personal advantage, or to reveal, any information obtained in enforcement of this chapter except in a prosecution or administrative hearing for a violation of this chapter.

7. To possess a controlled substance lawfully dispensed to him by a pharmacist or practitioner, in a container other than that in which the controlled substance was originally delivered.

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of paragraph (a) above shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3)(a) It is unlawful for any person:

1. To acquire or obtain, or attempt to acquire or obtain, possession of a controlled substance by misrepresentation, fraud, forgery, deception, or subterfuge.

2. To affix any false or forged label to a package or receptacle containing a controlled substance.

3. To furnish false or fraudulent material information in, or omit any material information from, any report or other document required to be kept or filed under this chapter or any record required to be kept by this chapter.

4. To possess, have under his control, or deliver any device, contrivance, instrument, or paraphernalia with the intent that said device, contrivance, instrument, or paraphernalia be used for unlawfully administering any controlled substance.

(b) Any person who violates the provisions of paragraph (a) shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084, except that when the controlled substance is one that the penalty for possession of which is a misdemeanor, then the penalty under paragraph (a)4. shall be a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(4) The provisions of subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section shall not be applicable to:

(a) The delivery for medical or scientific purpose only of controlled substances to persons included in any of the classes hereinafter named, or to the agents or employees of such persons, for use in the usual course of their business or profession or in the performance of their official duties.

(b) The actual or constructive possession of controlled substances for such use by such persons or their agents or employees, to wit:

1. Pharmacists.

2. Practitioners.

3. Persons who procure controlled substances in good faith and in the course of professional practice only, by or under the supervision of pharmacists or practitioners employed by them, or for the purpose of lawful research, teaching, or testing, and not for resale.

4. Hospitals which procure controlled substances for lawful administration by practitioners, but only for use by or in the particular hospital.

5. Officers or employees of state, federal, or local governments acting in their official capacity only, or informers acting under their jurisdiction.

6. Common carriers.

7. Manufacturers, wholesalers, and distributors.

History.—s. 13, ch. 73-331; s. 1, ch. 76-200; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 79-1; s. 3, ch. 79-325.

893.135 Trafficking; mandatory sentences; suspension or reduction of sentences.—

(1) Except as authorized in this chapter or in chapter 500:

(a) Any person who knowingly sells, manufactures, delivers, or brings into this state, or who is knowingly in actual or constructive possession of, in excess of 100 pounds of cannabis is guilty of a felony of the first degree, which felony shall be known as "trafficking in cannabis." If the quantity of cannabis involved:

1. Is in excess of 100 pounds, but less than 2,000 pounds, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 3 calendar years and to pay a fine of $25,000.

2. Is 2,000 pounds or more, but less than 10,000 pounds, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 5 calendar years and to pay a fine of $50,000.

3. Is 10,000 pounds or more, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 15 calendar years and to pay a fine of $200,000.

(b) Any person who knowingly sells, manufactures, delivers, or brings into this state, or who is knowingly in actual or constructive possession of, 28 grams or more of cocaine or of any mixture containing cocaine, as described in s. 893.03(2)(a), is guilty of a felony of the first degree, which felony shall be known as "trafficking in cocaine." If the quantity involved:

1. Is 28 grams or more, but less than 200 grams, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 3 calendar years and to pay a fine of $50,000.

2. Is 200 grams or more, but less than 400 grams, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 5 calendar years and to pay a fine of $100,000.

3. Is 400 grams or more, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 10 calendar years and to pay a fine of $200,000.

onment of 15 calendar years and to pay a fine of $250,000.

(c) Any person who knowingly sells, manufactures, delivers, or brings into this state, or who is knowingly in actual or constructive possession of, 4 grams or more of any morphine, opium, or any salt, isomer, or salt of an isomer thereof, including heroin, as described in s. 893.03(1)(b) or (2)(a), or 4 grams or more of any mixture containing any such substance, is guilty of a felony of the first degree, which felony shall be known as "trafficking in illegal drugs." If the quantity involved:

1. Is 4 grams or more, but less than 14 grams, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 3 calendar years and to pay a fine of $50,000.

2. Is 14 grams or more, but less than 28 grams, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 10 calendar years and to pay a fine of $100,000.

3. Is 28 grams or more, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 25 calendar years and to pay a fine of $500,000.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 948.01, with respect to any person who is found to have violated this section, adjudication of guilt or imposition of sentence shall not be suspended, deferred, or withheld, nor shall such person be eligible for parole prior to serving the mandatory minimum term of imprisonment prescribed by this section.

(3) The state attorney may move the sentencing court to reduce or suspend the sentence of any person who is convicted of a violation of this section and who provides substantial assistance in the identification, arrest, or conviction of any of his accomplices, accessories, co-conspirators, or principals. The arresting agency shall be given an opportunity to be heard in aggravation or mitigation in reference to any such motion. Upon good cause shown, the motion may be filed and heard in camera. The judge hearing the motion may reduce or suspend the sentence if he finds that the defendant rendered such substantial assistance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-1.

893.14 Conditional discharge and expunction of records for first offense possession.—

(1) If a person who has not previously been convicted of a violation of the drug abuse laws of any state or the United States is convicted of a violation of s. 893.13(1)(e), (1)(f), (3)(a)4., or (3)(b), relating to possession, after trial or upon a plea of guilty, the court may, without entering a judgment of guilty, and with the consent of such person, defer further proceeding and place him on probation upon such reasonable condition as may be required and for such period not to exceed 1 year as the court may prescribe. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt, but a nonpublic record thereof shall be retained by the Department of Law Enforcement solely for the purpose of use by the courts in any subsequent criminal proceedings and in determining whether such person qualifies under this section. Discharge and dismissal hereunder shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of disqualification or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime, but it shall be deemed a conviction for the purpose of determining whether a defendant in a subsequent criminal prosecution is a multiple offender. Discharge and dismissal under this section may occur only once with respect to any person.

(2) Upon the discharge and dismissal of an offender under subsection (1), or if a person is acquitted or released without being adjudicated guilty, the court shall issue an order to expunge from all official records other than the nonpublic records retained by the Department of Law Enforcement under subsection (1) all official recordation relating to his arrest, indictment or information, trial, finding of guilt, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person, in contemplation of law, to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information. Except in subsequent criminal prosecutions in which the person is a defendant, no person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter, under any provision of Florida law, to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest, indictment, information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

893.15 Rehabilitation.—Any person who violates s. 893.13(1)(e) or (1)(f) relating to possession may, in the discretion of the trial judge, be required to participate in a drug rehabilitation program approved or regulated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services pursuant to the provisions of chapter 397, provided the director of such program approves the placement of the defendant in such program. Such required participation may be imposed in addition to, or in lieu of, any penalty or probation otherwise prescribed by law. However, the total time of such penalty, probation, and program participation shall not exceed the maximum length of sentence possible for the offense.

History.—s. 15, ch. 73-331.

- 901.32 Issuance of warrant on failure to appear.
- 901.33 Arrest records; expunging; exceptions.

901.01 Judicial officers to be committing magistrates.—Each state judicial officer is a conservator of the peace and a committing magistrate with authority to issue warrants of arrest, commit offenders to jail, and recognize them to appear to answer the charge. He may require sureties of the peace when the peace has been substantially threatened or disturbed.

History.—s. 1, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(1); s. 1, ch. 70-338; s. 4, ch. 70-339; s. 34, ch. 73-334.
cf.—s. 925.07 Parent or guardian to be notified before trial of minor; service of notice.

901.02 When warrant of arrest to be issued.—A warrant may be issued for the arrest of the person complained against if the magistrate, from the examination of the complainant and other witnesses, reasonably believes that the person complained against has committed an offense within his jurisdiction.

History.—s. 2, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(2); s. 5, ch. 70-339.

901.04 Direction and execution of warrant.—Warrants shall be directed to all sheriffs of the state. A warrant shall be executed only by the sheriff of the county in which the arrest is made unless the arrest is made in fresh pursuit, in which event it may be executed by any sheriff who is advised of the existence of the warrant. An arrest may be made on any day and at any time of the day or night.

History.—s. 4, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(4); s. 6, ch. 70-339; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

901.07 Admission to bail when arrest occurs in another county.—

(1) When an arrest by a warrant occurs in a county other than the one in which the alleged offense was committed and the warrant issued, if the person arrested has a right to bail, the arresting officer shall inform him of his right and, upon request, shall take him before a magistrate or other official of the same county having authority to admit to bail. The official shall admit the person arrested to bail for his appearance before the magistrate who issued the warrant.

(2) If the person arrested does not have a right to bail or, when informed of his right to bail, does not furnish bail immediately, the officer who made the arrest or the officer having the warrant shall take him before the magistrate who issued the warrant.

History.—s. 7, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(7); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.08 Issue of warrant when offense triable in another county.—

(1) When a complaint before a magistrate charges the commission of an offense that is punishable by death or life imprisonment and is triable in another county of the state, but it appears that the person against whom the complaint is made is in the county where the complaint is made, the same proceedings for issuing a warrant shall be used as prescribed in this chapter, except that the warrant shall require the person against whom the complaint is made to be taken before a designated magistrate of the county in which the offense is triable.

(2) If the person arrested has a right to bail, the officer making the arrest shall inform him of his right to bail and, on request, shall take him before a magistrate or other official having authority to admit to bail in the county in which the arrest is made. The official shall admit him to bail for his appearance before the magistrate designated in the warrant.

(3) If the person arrested does not have a right to bail or, when informed of his right to bail, does not furnish bail immediately, he shall be taken before the magistrate designated in the warrant.

History.—s. 8, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(8); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.09 When summons shall be issued.—

(1) When the complaint is for an offense that the magistrate is empowered to try summarily, he shall issue a summons instead of a warrant, unless he reasonably believes that the person against whom the complaint was made will not appear upon a summons, in which event he shall issue a warrant.

(2) When the complaint is for a misdemeanor that the magistrate is not empowered to try summarily, he shall issue a summons instead of a warrant if he reasonably believes that the person against whom the complaint was made will appear upon a summons.

(3) The summons shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense and shall command the person against whom the complaint was made to appear before the magistrate at a stated time and place.

History.—s. 9, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(9); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.10 How summons served.—A summons shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

History.—s. 10, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(10); s. 6, ch. 70-339. cf.—s. 48.031 Service of process generally.

901.11 Effect of not answering summons.—

Failure to appear as commanded by a summons without good cause is an indirect criminal contempt of court and may be punished by a fine of not more than $100. When a person fails to appear as commanded by a summons, the magistrate shall issue a warrant. If the magistrate acquires reason to believe that the person summoned will not appear as commanded after issuing a summons, he may issue a warrant.

History.—s. 11, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(11); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.12 Summons against corporation.—

When a complaint of an offense is made against a corporation, the magistrate shall issue a summons that shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense and command the corporation to appear before him at a stated time and place.

History.—s. 12, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(12); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.14 Effect of failure by corporation to answer summons.—If, after being summoned, the corporation does not appear, a plea of not guilty shall be entered by the court having jurisdiction to try the offense for which the summons was issued, and the court shall proceed to trial and judgment without further process.

History.—s. 14, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(14); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.15 When arrest by officer without warrant is lawful.—A peace officer may arrest a person without a warrant when:

(1) The person has committed a felony or misdemeanor or violated a municipal ordinance in the presence of the officer. Arrest for the commission of a misdemeanor or violation of a municipal ordinance shall be made immediately or in fresh pursuit.

(2) A felony has been committed and he reasonably believes that the person committed it.

(3) He reasonably believes that a felony has been or is being committed and reasonably believes that the person to be arrested has committed or is committing it.

(4) A warrant for the arrest has been issued and is held by another peace officer for execution.

(5) A violation of chapter 316 has been committed in the presence of the officer. Such arrest may be made immediately or on fresh pursuit.

(6) The officer has probable cause to believe that the person has committed a battery upon the person's spouse and the officer:

(a) Finds evidence of bodily harm; or

(b) The officer reasonably believes that there is danger of violence unless the person alleged to have committed the battery is arrested without delay.

History.—s. 15, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(15); s. 1, ch. 21782, 1943; s. 6, ch. 70-339; s. 4, ch. 71-982; s. 1, ch. 77-67. cf.—ss. 828.03, 828.17 Cruelty to children or animals; arrest without warrant.

901.151 Stop and Frisk Law.—

(1) This section may be known and cited as the "Florida Stop and Frisk law."

(2) Whenever any law enforcement officer of this state encounters any person under circumstances which reasonably indicate that such person has committed, is committing, or is about to commit a violation of the criminal laws of this state or the criminal ordinances of any municipality or county, he may temporarily detain such person for the purpose of ascertaining the identity of the person temporarily detained and the circumstances surrounding his presence abroad which led the officer to believe that he had committed, was committing, or was about to commit a criminal offense.

(3) No person shall be temporarily detained under the provisions of subsection (2) longer than is reasonably necessary to effect the purposes of that subsection. Such temporary detention shall not extend beyond the place where it was first effected or the immediate vicinity thereof.

(4) If at any time after the onset of the temporary detention authorized by subsection (2), probable cause for arrest of person shall appear, the person shall be arrested. If, after an inquiry into the circumstances which prompted the temporary detention, no probable cause for the arrest of the person shall appear, he shall be released.

(5) Whenever any law enforcement officer authorized to detain temporarily any person under the provisions of subsection (2) has probable cause to believe that any person whom he has temporarily detained, or is about to detain temporarily, is armed with a dangerous weapon and therefore offers a threat to the safety of the officer or any other person, he may search such person so temporarily detained only to the extent necessary to disclose, and for the purpose of disclosing, the presence of such weapon. If such a search discloses such a weapon or any evidence of a criminal offense it may be seized.

(6) No evidence seized by a law enforcement officer in any search under this section shall be admissible against any person in any court of this state or political subdivision thereof unless the search which disclosed its existence was authorized by and conducted in compliance with the provisions of subsections (2)-(5).

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 69-73.

901.16 Method of arrest by officer by a warrant.—A peace officer making an arrest by a warrant shall inform the person to be arrested of the cause of arrest and that a warrant has been issued, except when the person flees or forcibly resists before the officer has an opportunity to inform him, or when giving the information will imperil the arrest. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of arrest but on request of the person arrested shall show it to him as soon as practicable.

History.—s. 16, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(16); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.17 Method of arrest by officer without warrant.—A peace officer making an arrest without a warrant shall inform the person to be arrested of his authority and the cause of arrest except when the person flees or forcibly resists before the officer has an opportunity to inform him or when giving the information will imperil the arrest.

History.—s. 17, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(17); s. 6, ch. 70-339.

901.18 Officer may summon assistance.—A peace officer making a lawful arrest may command the aid of persons he deems necessary to make the arrest. A person commanded to aid shall render assistance as directed by the officer. A person commanded to aid a peace officer shall have the same authority to arrest as that peace officer and shall not be civilly liable for any reasonable conduct in rendering assistance to that officer.

History.—s. 18, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(18); s. 7, ch. 70-339. cf.—s. 843.04 Refusing to assist prison officers in arresting escaped convicts. s. 843.06 Neglect or refusal to aid peace officers.

901.19 Right of officer to break into building.—

(1) If a peace officer fails to gain admittance after he has announced his authority and purpose in order to make an arrest either by a warrant or when authorized to make an arrest for a felony without a warrant, he may use all necessary and reasonable force to enter any building or property where the person to be arrested is or is reasonably believed to be.

(2) When any of the implements, devices, or apparatus commonly used for gambling purposes are found in any house, room, booth, or other place used for the purpose of gambling, a peace officer shall seize and hold them subject to the discretion of the court, to be used as evidence, and afterwards they shall be publicly destroyed in the presence of witnesses under order of the court to that effect.

History.—s. 19, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(19); s. 8, ch. 70-339. cf.—s. 849.05 Finding of gambling implements prima facie evidence of gambling.

901.20 Use of force to effect release of person making arrest detained in building.—A peace officer may use any reasonable force to liberate himself or another person from detention in a building entered for the purpose of making a lawful arrest.

History.—s. 20, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(20); s. 9, ch. 70-339.

901.21 Search of person arrested.—

(1) When a lawful arrest is effected, a peace officer may search the person arrested and the area within the person's immediate presence for the purpose of:

- (a) Protecting the officer from attack;
  - (b) Preventing the person from escaping; or
  - (c) Discovering the fruits of a crime.
- (2) A peace officer making a lawful search without a warrant may seize all instruments, articles, or things discovered on the person arrested or within the person's immediate control, the seizure of which is reasonably necessary for the purpose of:
- (a) Protecting the officer from attack;
  - (b) Preventing the escape of the arrested person;

or

(c) Assuring subsequent lawful custody of the fruits of a crime or of the articles used in the commission of a crime.

History.—s. 21, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(21); s. 10, ch. 70-339.

901.215 Search of person arrested for identifying device indicating a medical disability.—

Every law enforcement officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, or other arresting officer shall, when arresting any person who appears to be inebriated, intoxicated, or not in control of his physical functions, examine such person to ascertain whether or not the person is wearing a medic-alert bracelet or necklace or has upon his person some other visible identifying device which would specifically delineate a medical disability which would account for the actions of such person. Any arresting officer who does, in fact, discover such identifying device upon such person shall take immediate steps to aid the afflicted person in receiving medication or other treatment for his disability.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-25.

901.22 Arrest after escape or rescue.—If a person lawfully arrested escapes or is rescued, the person from whose custody he escapes or was rescued or any other officer may immediately pursue and retake the person arrested without a warrant at any time and in any place.

History.—s. 22, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(22); s. 11, ch. 70-339.

901.24 Right of person arrested to consult attorney.—A person arrested shall be allowed to consult with any attorney entitled to practice in this state, alone and in private at the place of custody, as often and for such periods of time as is reasonable.

History.—s. 24, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(24); s. 13, ch. 70-339.

901.25 Fresh pursuit; arrest outside jurisdiction.—

(1) The term "fresh pursuit" as used in this act shall include fresh pursuit as defined by the common law and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a felony or who is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony. It shall also include the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony, though no felony has actually been committed, if there is reasonable ground for believing that a felony has been committed. It shall also include the pursuit of a person who has violated a city ordinance or committed a misdemeanor.

(2) Any duly authorized state, county, or municipal arresting officer is authorized to arrest a person outside his jurisdiction when in fresh pursuit. Said officer shall have the same authority to arrest and hold such person in custody outside his jurisdiction, subject to the limitations hereafter set forth, as has any authorized arresting state, county, or municipal officer of this state to arrest and hold in custody a person not arrested in fresh pursuit.

(3) If an arrest is made in this state by an officer outside his jurisdiction, he shall immediately notify the officer in charge of the jurisdiction in which the arrest is made. Said officer in charge of the jurisdiction shall, along with the officer making the arrest, take the person so arrested before a county court judge or other committing magistrate of the county in which the arrest was made without unnecessary delay.

(4) The employing agency of the state, county, or municipal officer making an arrest on fresh pursuit shall be liable for all actions of said officer in the same fashion that it is liable for his acts made while making an arrest within his jurisdiction.

(5) The officer making an arrest on fresh pursuit shall be fully protected with respect to pension, retirement, workers' compensation, and other such benefits just as if he had made an arrest in his own jurisdiction.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-515; s. 14, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 78-246; s. 120, ch. 79-40.

901.26 Recognition of International Treaties Act; identification certificate; notification upon arrest.—

(1) The following shall be known as the "Recognition Of International Treaties Act."

(2) The Department of State may, upon application, issue identification certificates to those official representatives of sovereign nations that are on official business within the boundaries of Florida.

(3) Wherever in the state a citizen of any sovereign nation to which the United States extends diplomatic recognition shall be arrested or detained for any reason whatsoever, the official who makes the arrest or detention shall immediately notify the nearest consul or other officer of the nation concerned or, if unknown, the Embassy in Washington, D.C., of the nation concerned or, if unknown, the nearest state judicial officer who shall in turn notify either of the above. Failure to give notice shall not be a defense in any criminal proceedings against any citizen of a sovereign nation and shall not be cause for his discharge from custody.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 65-523; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 15, ch. 70-339.

901.27 Definition.—As used in ss. 901.27-901.32, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, "notice to appear" means a written order issued by a law enforcement officer in lieu of physical arrest, requiring a person accused of violating the law to appear in a designated court or governmental office at a specified date and time.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-27.

901.28 Notice to appear for misdemeanors or violations of municipal or county ordinances; forms and requisites.—

(1) If a person is arrested for an offense declared to be a misdemeanor of the first or second degree or for a violation of a municipal or county ordinance triable in the county court and does not demand to be taken before a magistrate, the arresting officer or booking officer may issue such person a notice to appear unless:

(a) The accused fails to identify himself sufficiently or supply the required information;

(b) The accused refuses to sign the notice to appear;

(c) The officer has reason to believe that the continued liberty of the accused constitutes an unreasonable risk of bodily injury to himself or others;

(d) The accused has no ties with the jurisdiction reasonably sufficient to assure his appearance or there is substantial risk that he will refuse to respond to the notice;

(e) The officer has any suspicion that the accused may be wanted in any jurisdiction; or

(f) It appears that the accused has previously failed to respond to a notice or a summons or has violated the conditions of any pretrial release program.

(2) If a notice to appear is issued pursuant to subsection (1) for a misdemeanor or violation of a municipal or county ordinance, the notice shall be issued immediately upon arrest or after the person has been taken to police headquarters.

(3) If the arresting officer, in lieu of issuance of a notice to appear, determines that the accused person should be taken to police headquarters, the booking officer may issue a notice to appear if he determines that there is a likelihood that the accused will appear as directed, based on a reasonable investigation of the following:

(a) Residence and length of residence in the community;

(b) Family ties;

(c) Employment record;

(d) Character and mental condition;

(e) Past record of convictions; and

(f) Past history of appearance at court proceedings.

(4) The arresting officer shall prepare in quadruplicate a written notice to appear in court containing the name and address of the person, the offense charged, the time and place where the person shall appear in court, the name and address of the court, the name of the arresting officer, and the signature of the person. The court specified in the notice shall be the trial court having jurisdiction to try the offense charged.

(5) The issuance of a notice to appear shall not be construed to affect a law enforcement officer's authority to conduct an otherwise lawful search, as provided by law.

(6) Rules and regulations of procedure governing the exercise of authority to issue notices to appear shall be established by the chiefs of the respective law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction in order effectively to implement the provisions of ss. 901.27-901.32.

(7) Nothing contained herein shall prevent the operation of a traffic violations bureau, the issuance of citations for traffic violations, or any procedure pursuant to chapter 316.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-27.

901.29 Authorization to take person to medical facility.—Even though a notice to appear is issued, a law enforcement officer shall be authorized to take a person to a medical facility for such care as appropriate.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-27.

901.30 How notice to appear served.—The officer shall deliver one copy of the notice to appear to the arrested person, and such person, in order to secure release, shall give his written promise to appear in court by signing the two notice copies to be retained by the officer. The arresting officer or other duly authorized official shall then release the person arrested from custody.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-27.

901.31 Failure to obey written promise to appear.—Any person who willfully fails to appear before any court or judicial officer as required by a written notice to appear shall be fined not more than the fine of the principal charge or imprisoned up to the maximum sentence of imprisonment of the principal charge, or both, regardless of the disposition of the charge upon which he was originally arrested. Nothing in this section shall interfere with or prevent the court from exercising its power to punish for contempt.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-27.

901.32 Issuance of warrant on failure to appear.—When a person signs a written notice to appear and fails to respond to the notice to appear, a warrant of arrest shall be issued.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-27.

901.33 Arrest records; expunging; exceptions.—If a person who has never previously been convicted of a criminal offense or municipal ordinance violation is charged with a violation of a municipal ordinance or a felony or misdemeanor, but is acquitted or released without being adjudicated guilty, he may file a motion with the court wherein the charge was brought to expunge the record of arrest from the official records of the arresting authority. Notice of such motion shall be served upon the prosecuting authority charged with the duty of prosecuting the offense and upon the arresting authority. The court shall issue an order to expunge all official records relating to such arrest, indictment or information, trial, and dismissal or discharge. However, the court shall require that nonpublic records be retained by the Department of Law Enforcement and be made available by said department only to law enforcement agencies in the event of a future investigation of said person relative to a pending charge, indictment, or information against or upon said person for an act which, if committed, would be an offense similar in nature to the offense for which said person had been charged and not found guilty. The court shall not enter an order expunging the records as above provided when there are several acts, or said person has been charged with several offenses originating out of or related to the offense or offenses for which such person had been charged and not found guilty, and when the charge and adjudication of nonguilt did not include all such charges or all such several acts. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person, in the contemplation of the law, to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of Florida law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest in response to any nonjudicial inquiry made of him for any purpose.

CHAPTER 902

PRELIMINARY HEARINGS

- 902.15 Undertaking by witness.
 902.17 Procedure when witness does not give security.
 902.19 When prosecutor liable for costs.
 902.20 Contempts before committing magistrate.
 902.21 Commitment to jail in another county.

902.15 Undertaking by witness.—When a defendant is held to answer on a charge for a crime punishable by death or life imprisonment, the magistrate at the preliminary hearing may require each material witness to enter into a written recognizance to appear at the trial or forfeit a sum fixed by the magistrate. Additional security may be required in the discretion of the magistrate.

History.—ss. 39, 40, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(39), (40); s. 16, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 902.16.

902.17 Procedure when witness does not give security.—

(1) If a witness required to enter into a recognizance to appear refuses to comply with the order, the magistrate shall commit him to custody until he complies or he is legally discharged.

(2) If the magistrate requires a witness to give security for his appearance and the witness is unable to give the security, the witness may apply to the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant for a reduction of the security.

(3) If it appears from examination on oath of the witness or any other person that the witness is unable to give security, the magistrate or the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant shall make an order finding that fact, and the witness shall be detained pending application for his conditional examination. Within 3 days from the entry of the order, the witness shall be conditionally examined on application of the state or the defendant. The examination shall be by question and answer in the presence of the other party and counsel, and shall be transcribed by a court reporter or stenographer selected by the parties. At the completion of the examination the witness shall be discharged. The deposition of the witness may be introduced in evidence at the trial by the defendant, or, if the prosecuting attorney and the defendant and his counsel agree, it may be admitted in evidence by stipulation. The deposition shall not be admitted on behalf of the state without the consent of the defendant.

(4) If a conditional examination is not made within 3 days, the witness shall be discharged.

(5) A witness detained for conditional examination shall be entitled to fees as a witness for the period of his commitment.

History.—s. 41, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(41); s. 17, ch. 70-339.

902.19 When prosecutor liable for costs.—

(1) When a person makes a complaint before a county court judge that a crime has been committed and is recognized by the county court judge to appear at the next term of the court having jurisdiction to give evidence of the crime and fails to appear, he shall be liable for all costs occasioned by his complaint, and the county court judge may obtain a judgment and execution for the costs as in other cases.

(2) A person who voluntarily appears before a grand jury, state attorney, or county court judge shall not be paid per diem or mileage as a witness unless the grand jury finds a true bill, the state attorney files an information, or the county court judge holds the party charged for trial.

(3) A person who voluntarily appears or has himself summoned before a county court judge as a witness on the trial of a misdemeanor shall not be paid per diem or mileage as a witness unless the trial results in a conviction of the defendant.

History.—s. 43, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(43); s. 2, ch. 67-427; s. 18, ch. 70-339; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

902.20 Contempts before committing magistrate.—A committing magistrate holding a preliminary hearing shall have the same power to punish for contempts that he has while presiding at the trial of criminal cases.

History.—RS 2795; GS 3845; RGS 5940; CGL 8206; s. 19, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.04.

902.21 Commitment to jail in another county.

—If a person is committed in a county where there is no jail, the committing magistrate shall direct the sheriff to deliver the accused to a jail in another county.

History.—s. 7, ch. 6213, 1911; RS 2879; GS 3938; RGS 6039; CGL 8340; s. 20, ch. 70-339.

- 903.32 Defects in bond.
- 903.33 Bail not discharged for certain defects.
- 903.34 Who may admit to bail.
- 903.36 Guaranteed arrest bond certificates as cash bail.

903.02 Application for bail denied; "court" defined.—

(1) If application for bail is made to an authorized court and denied, no court of inferior jurisdiction shall admit applicant to bail unless such court of inferior jurisdiction is the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant.

(2) "Court" as used in this chapter includes all state courts.

History.—s. 45, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(45); s. 1, ch. 70-86; s. 1, ch. 77-119.

903.03 Jurisdiction of trial court to admit to bail; duties and responsibilities of Department of Corrections.—

(1) After a person is held to answer by a magistrate, the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant shall, before indictment, affidavit, or information is filed, have jurisdiction to hear and decide all preliminary motions regarding bail and production or impounding of all articles, writings, moneys, or other exhibits expected to be used at the trial by either the state or the defendant.

(2)(a) The Department of Corrections shall have the authority on the request of a circuit court when a person charged with a noncapital crime or bailable offense is held, to make an investigation and report to the court, including:

1. The circumstances of the accused's family, employment, financial resources, character, mental condition, and length of residence in the community;

2. His record of convictions, of appearance at court proceedings, of flight to avoid prosecution, or failure to appear at court proceedings; and

3. Other facts that may be needed to assist the court in its determination of the indigency of the accused and whether he should be released on his own recognizance.

(b) The court shall not be bound by the recommendations.

History.—s. 46, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(46); s. 1, ch. 67-151; s. 21, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 5, ch. 75-301; s. 13, ch. 77-120; s. 22, ch. 79-3.

903.05 Qualification of sureties.—A surety for the release of a person on bail, other than a company authorized by law to act as a surety, shall be a resident of the state or own real estate within the state.

History.—s. 48, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(48); s. 21, ch. 70-339.

903.06 Validity of undertaking by minor.—Minors may bind themselves by a bond to secure their release on bail in the same manner as persons sui juris.

History.—s. 49, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(49); s. 21, ch. 70-339.

903.08 Sufficiency of sureties.—The combined net worth of the sureties, exclusive of any other bonds on which they may be principal, or surety and property exempt from execution, shall be at least equal to the amount specified in the undertaking.

History.—s. 51, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(51); s. 22, ch. 70-339.

903.09 Justification of sureties.—

(1) A surety shall execute an affidavit stating that he possesses the qualifications and net worth required to become a surety. The affidavit shall describe his property and any encumbrances, and shall state the number and amount of any bonds entered into by him at any court that remain undischarged.

(2) A bondsman, as defined in s. 648.25(3), shall justify his suretyship by attaching a copy of the power of attorney issued by the company to the bond or by attaching to the bond United States currency, a United States postal money order, or a cashier's check in the amount of the bond; but the United States currency, United States postal money order, or cashier's check cannot be used to secure more than one bond.

History.—s. 52, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(52); s. 1, ch. 57-63; s. 23, ch. 70-339.

cf.—s. 837.012 Perjury not in an official proceeding.
s. 837.02 Perjury in official proceedings.

903.101 Sureties; licensed persons; to have equal access.—Subject to regulations promulgated by the Department of Insurance, every surety who meets the requirements of ss. 903.05, 903.06, 903.08, and 903.09, and every person who is currently licensed by the Department of Insurance and registered as required by s. 648.42 shall have equal access to the jails of this state for the purpose of making bonds.

History.—s. 1, ch. 61-406; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 24, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

903.131 Bail on appeal, revocation; recommendation.—If a person admitted to bail on appeal commits and is convicted of a separate felony while free on appeal, the bail on appeal shall be revoked and the defendant committed forthwith.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-2.

903.132 Bail on appeal; conditions for granting; appellate review.—

(1) No person may be admitted to bail upon appeal from a conviction of a felony unless the defendant establishes that the appeal is taken in good faith, on grounds fairly debatable, and not frivolous. However, in no case shall bail be granted if such person has previously been convicted of a felony, the commission of which occurred prior to the commission of the subsequent felony, and such person's civil rights have not been restored or if other felony charges are pending against him and probable cause has been found that the person has committed the felony or felonies at the time the request for bail is made.

(2) An order by a trial court denying bail to a person pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1) may be appealed as a matter of right to an appellate court, and such appeal shall be advanced on the calendar of the appellate court for expeditious review.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-307; s. 1, ch. 76-138.

903.14 Contracts to indemnify sureties.—

(1) A surety shall file with the bond an affidavit stating the amount and source of any security or consideration which he or anyone for his use has received or been promised for the bond.

(2) A surety may maintain an action against the indemnitor only on agreements set forth in the affidavit. In an action by the indemnitor to recover security or collateral, the surety shall have the right to retain only the security or collateral stated in the affidavit.

(3) A limited surety or licensed bondsman may file a statement in lieu of the affidavit required in subsection (1). Such statement must be filed within 30 days from the execution of the undertaking.

History.—s. 57, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(57); s. 1, ch. 65-492; s. 1, ch. 69-151; s. 25, ch. 70-339.
cf.—s. 837.012 Perjury not in an official proceeding.
s. 837.02 Perjury in official proceedings.

903.16 Deposit of money or bonds as bail.—

(1) A defendant who has been admitted to bail, or another person in his behalf, may deposit with the official authorized to take bail money or nonregistered bonds of the United States, the state, or a city, town, or county in the state, equal in market value to the amount set in the order and the personal bond of the defendant and an undertaking by the depositor if the money or bonds are deposited by another.

(2) Consent is conclusively presumed for the clerk of the circuit court to sell bonds deposited as bail after forfeiture of the bond.

History.—s. 59, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(59); s. 1, ch. 59-353; s. 26, ch. 70-339.

903.17 Substitution of cash bail for other bail.—When bail other than a deposit of money or bonds has been given, the defendant or the surety may deposit money or bonds as provided in s. 903.16 and have the original bond canceled.

History.—s. 60, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(60); s. 27, ch. 70-339.

903.18 Bail after deposit of money or bonds.—Bail by sureties may be substituted for a deposit of money or bonds as bail any time before a breach of the bond.

History.—s. 61, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(61); s. 28, ch. 70-339.

903.20 Surrender of defendant.—The defendant may surrender himself or a surety may surrender him any time before a breach of the bond.

History.—s. 63, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(63); s. 29, ch. 70-339.

903.21 Method of surrender; exoneration of obligors.—

(1) A surety desiring to surrender a defendant shall deliver a certified copy of the bond and the defendant to the official who had custody of the defendant at the time bail was taken or to the official into whose custody he would have been placed if he had been committed. The official shall take the defendant into custody, as on a commitment, and issue a certificate acknowledging the surrender.

(2) When a surety presents the certificate and a certified copy of the bond to the court having jurisdiction, the court shall order the obligors exonerated and any money or bonds deposited as bail refunded. The surety shall give the State Attorney 3 days' notice of application for an order of exoneration and furnish him a copy of the certificate and bond.

History.—s. 64, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(64); s. 30, ch. 70-339; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

903.22 Arrest of principal by surety before forfeiture.—A surety may arrest the defendant before a forfeiture of the bond for the purpose of surrendering him or he may authorize a peace officer to make the arrest by indorsing the authorization on a certified copy of the bond.

History.—s. 65, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(65); s. 31, ch. 70-339.

903.26 Forfeiture of the bond; when and how directed; discharge; how and when made; effect of payment.—

(1) A bail bond shall not be forfeited unless:

(a) The information, indictment, or affidavit was filed within 6 months from the date of arrest, and
(b) The clerk of court gave the surety at least 72 hours' notice, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, before the time of the required appearance of the defendant. Notice shall not be necessary if the time for appearance is within 72 hours from the time of arrest, or if the time is stated on the bond.

(2) If there is a breach of the bond, the court shall declare the bond and any bonds or money deposited as bail forfeited and shall notify the surety agent and surety company in writing within 72 hours of said forfeiture. The forfeiture shall be paid within 30 days.

(3) Thirty days after the forfeiture:

(a) State and county officials having custody of forfeited money shall deposit the money in the county fine and forfeiture fund;

(b) Municipal officials having custody of forfeited money shall deposit the money in a designated municipal fund;

(c) Officials having custody of bonds as authorized by s. 903.16 shall transmit the bonds to the Clerk of the Circuit Court who shall sell them at market value and disburse the proceeds as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b).

(4)(a) When a bond is forfeited, the clerk shall transmit the bond and any affidavits to the Clerk of the Circuit Court in which the bond and affidavits are filed. The Clerk of the Circuit Court shall record the forfeiture in the deed or official records book. If the undertakings and affidavits describe real property in another county, the clerk shall transmit the bond and affidavits to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where the property is located who shall record and return them.

(b) The bond and affidavits shall be a lien on the real property they describe from the time of recording in the county where the property is located for 2 years or until the final determination of an action instituted thereon within a 2-year period. If an action is not instituted within 2 years from the date of recording, the lien shall be discharged. The lien will be discharged 2 years after the recording even if an action was instituted within 2 years unless a lis pendens notice is recorded in the action.

(5) The court may discharge a forfeiture within 30 days upon:

(a) A satisfactory explanation of the breach of the bond;

(b) A determination that at the time of the required appearance the defendant was adjudicated insane and confined in an institution or hospital;

(c) A determination that, at the time of the required appearance, the defendant was adjudicated insane and confined in an institution or hospital or was confined in a jail or prison;

(d) Surrender of the defendant, unless the delay has thwarted the proper prosecution of the defendant. If the forfeiture has been before discharge, the court shall direct remission of the forfeiture to the surety. The court may condition a discharge or remission on the payment of costs and the expenses incurred by an official in returning the defendant to the jurisdiction of the court.

(6) The payment by a surety of a forfeiture under the provisions of this law shall have the same effect on the bond as payment of a judgment.

History.—s. 69, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(69); s. 1, ch. 59-354; s. 2, ch. 61-406; s. 2, ch. 65-492; s. 1, ch. 69-150; s. 32, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 77-388. cf.—s. 843.15 Failure of defendant on bail to appear.
s. 932.45 Calling of sureties upon breach of undertaking.
s. 932.46 Certificate of judge setting forth breach of conditions, etc.

903.27 Forfeiture to judgment.—

(1) If the forfeiture is not paid or discharged within 30 days and the bond is secured other than by money and bonds authorized in s. 903.16, the state attorney shall file a certified copy of the order of forfeiture with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the county where the order was made. The clerk shall enter a judgment against the surety for the amount of the penalty and issue execution. The clerk shall furnish the surety company at its home office a certified copy of the judgment within 10 days. If the judgment is not paid within 60 days, the clerk shall furnish the Department of Insurance two certified copies of the judgment and a certificate stating that the judgment remains unsatisfied.

(2) After notice of judgment against the surety given by the clerk of the circuit court, the surety or bail bondsman may within 45 days file a motion to set aside the judgment. The court entering the judgment may at any time set aside the judgment in whole or in part for reasonable cause shown. During the pendency of such motion the court may stay execution on judgment or other process.

History.—s. 70, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(70); ss. 3, 24, ch. 61-406; s. 3, ch. 65-492; ss. 13, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 69-149; s. 33, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 173, ch. 71-355; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

903.28 Remission of forfeiture; conditions.—

(1) Within 1 year after forfeiture, the court may direct a partial or complete remission for reasonable cause. On application within 1 year from forfeiture, the court shall order remission if it determines that there was no breach of the bond. If the surety apprehends and surrenders the defendant within 1 year from forfeiture, the court shall order the forfeiture remitted unless the delay has thwarted the proper prosecution of the defendant.

(2) Application for remission must be accompanied by affidavits setting forth the facts on which it is founded. The State Attorney must be given 5 days' notice before a hearing on an application and be furnished copies of all papers. Remission shall be granted on the condition of payment of costs unless the ground for remission is that there was no breach of the bond.

History.—ss. 71, 73, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(71), (73); s. 2, ch. 59-354; ss. 4, 6, ch. 61-406; s. 4, ch. 65-492; s. 34, ch. 70-339; s. 34, ch. 73-334.

903.29 Arrest of principal by surety after forfeiture.—

Within 1 year from the date of forfeiture of a bond that has been paid, the surety may arrest the principal for the purpose of surrendering him to the official in whose custody he was at the time bail was taken or in whose custody he would have been placed had he been committed.

History.—s. 72, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(72); s. 1, ch. 59-192; s. 5, ch. 61-406; s. 5, ch. 65-492; s. 35, ch. 70-339.

903.31 Canceling the bond.—When the conditions of a bond have been satisfied or the forfeiture discharged or remitted, the court shall order the bond canceled. Conviction or acquittal of the defendant will satisfy a bond unless the court otherwise provides in the judgment.

History.—s. 74, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(74); s. 2, ch. 59-192; s. 36, ch. 70-339.

903.32 Defects in bond.—

(1) A bond shall not be held invalid because of any irregularity if it was taken by a legally authorized official and states the place of appearance and the amount of bail.

(2) If no day, or an impossible day, is stated in a bond for the defendant's appearance before a magistrate for a hearing, the defendant shall be bound to appear 10 days after receipt of notice to appear by the defendant, his counsel, or any surety on the undertaking. If no day, or an impossible day, is stated in a bond for the defendant's appearance for trial, he shall be bound to appear on the first day of the next term of court that will commence more than 3 days after the undertaking is given.

History.—s. 75, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(75); s. 37, ch. 70-339.

903.33 Bail not discharged for certain defects.—The liability of a surety shall not be affected by his lack of any qualifications required by law, any agreement not expressed in the undertakings, or the failure of the defendant to join in the bond.

History.—s. 76, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(76); s. 38, ch. 70-339.

903.34 Who may admit to bail.—In criminal actions instituted or pending in any state court, bonds given by defendants before trial until appeal shall be approved by a committing magistrate or the sheriff. Appeal bonds shall be approved as provided in s. 924.15.

History.—s. 77, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(77); s. 39, ch. 70-339.

903.36 Guaranteed arrest bond certificates as cash bail.—A guaranteed arrest bond certificate provided for in s. 627.758 shall be accepted as bail in an amount not to exceed $200 for the appearance of the person named in the certificate in any court to answer for the violation of a motor vehicle law or ordinance, except driving while under the influence of intoxicants, or any felony.

905.01 Number and procurement of grand jury.—

<sup>1</sup>(1) The grand jury shall consist of not less than 15 or more than 18 persons. The provisions of law governing the qualifications, disqualifications, excusals, drawing, summoning, supplying deficiencies, compensation, and procurement of petit jurors shall apply to grand jurors. In addition, no elected public official shall be eligible for service on a grand jury.

(2) The judge of any circuit court may dispense with the convening of the grand jury at any term of court by filing a written order with the clerk of court directing that a grand jury not be summoned.

History.—s. 80, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(80); s. 41, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 72-68; s. 19, ch. 79-235.

cf.—s. 40.01 Qualifications of jurors.

905.02 Who may challenge.—The state or a person who has been held to answer may challenge the panel or individual grand jurors.

History.—s. 81, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(81); s. 42, ch. 70-339.

905.03 Ground for challenge to panel.—A challenge to the panel may be made only on the ground that the grand jurors were not selected according to law.

History.—s. 82, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(82); s. 42, ch. 70-339.

905.04 Grounds for challenge to individual prospective grand juror.—

(1) The state or a person who has been held to answer may challenge an individual prospective grand juror on the ground that the juror:

(a) Does not have the qualifications required by law;

(b) Has a state of mind that will prevent him from acting impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging;

(c) Is related by blood or marriage within the third degree to the defendant, to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or to the person on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted.

(2) The state may challenge an individual prospective grand juror on the ground that the prospective juror is surety on the bail undertaking of any person whose case will come before the grand jury.

History.—s. 83, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(83); s. 43, ch. 70-339.
cf.—ss. 40.01, 40.013 Qualifications of jurors.

905.05 When challenge or objection to be made.—A challenge or objection to the grand jury may not be made after it has been empaneled and sworn. This section shall not apply to a person who did not know or have reasonable ground to believe, at the time the grand jury was empaneled and sworn, that cases in which he was or might be involved would be investigated by the grand jury.

History.—s. 84, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(84); s. 44, ch. 70-339.

905.06 How challenge made and tried.—Challenges to an individual grand juror or to the panel shall be tried by the court. A challenge to an individual grand juror may be oral, but a challenge to the panel shall be in writing.

History.—s. 85, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(85); s. 45, ch. 70-339.

905.07 Effect of sustaining challenge to pan- el.—If a challenge to the panel is sustained, the grand jury shall be discharged.

History.—s. 86, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(86).

905.075 Excusing grand juror related to person being investigated.—A grand juror may excuse himself, be excused by a majority vote of the other grand jurors, or be excused by order of the court on its own motion or on motion of the state attorney, and be relieved from deliberating and voting in any case being investigated by the grand jury in which the party being investigated is related by blood or marriage to the grand juror. When excused or relieved, the grand juror shall retire from the grand jury room during the investigation and voting on a true bill against his relative. The failure of a grand juror to excuse himself or be relieved from participation in the investigation and voting shall not invalidate an indictment found or returned against the relative.

History.—s. 1, ch. 17058, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4452(1); s. 46, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.16.

905.08 Appointment of foreman.—After the grand jury has been impaneled, the court shall appoint one of the grand jurors as foreman and another to act as foreman during absence of the foreman.

History.—s. 87, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(87); s. 47, ch. 70-339.

905.09 Discharge and recall of grand jury.—A grand jury that has been dismissed may be recalled at any time during the same term of court.

History.—s. 88, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(88); s. 48, ch. 70-339.

905.095 Extension of grand jury term.—Upon petition of the state attorney or the foreman of the grand jury acting on behalf of a majority of the grand jurors, the circuit court may extend the term of a grand jury impaneled under this chapter beyond the term of court in which it was originally impaneled. A grand jury whose term has been extended as provided herein shall have the same composition and the same powers and duties it had during its original term. In the event the term of the grand jury is extended under this section, it shall be extended for a time certain, not to exceed a total of 90 days, and only for the purpose of concluding one or more specified investigative matters initiated during its original term.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-1.

905.10 Oath of grand jurors.—The clerk shall prepare a list of the names of the grand jurors. After the jury is impaneled, the following oath shall be administered to the jurors:

"You, as grand jurors for ..... County do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will diligently inquire into all matters put in your charge and you will make true presentments of your findings; unless ordered by a court, you will not disclose the nature or substance of the deliberations of the grand jury, the nature or substance of any testimony or other evidence, the vote of the grand jury, or the statements of the state attorney; you shall not make a presentment against a person because of envy, hatred, or malice, and you shall not fail to make a presentment against a person because of love, fear, or reward. So help you God."

History.—s. 89, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(89); s. 49, ch. 70-339.

905.11 Charge of court.—After the grand jurors are sworn the court shall charge them concerning their duties.

History.—s. 90, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(90).

905.12 Retirement of grand jurors.—After being charged by the court, the grand jury shall retire to a private place and perform their duties.

History.—s. 91, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(91); s. 50, ch. 70-339.

905.13 Appointment of clerk.—The foreman shall appoint one of the grand jurors as clerk to keep minutes of the proceedings.

History.—s. 92, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(92); s. 50, ch. 70-339.

905.15 Appointment of interpreter.—The foreman shall appoint an interpreter to interpret the testimony of any witness who does not speak the English language well enough to be readily understood. The interpreter must take an oath not to disclose any information coming to his knowledge, except on order of the court.

History.—s. 94, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(94); s. 51, ch. 70-339.

905.16 Duties of grand jury.—The grand jury shall inquire into every offense triable within the county for which any person has been held to answer, if an indictment has not been found or an information or affidavit filed for the offense, and all other indictable offenses triable within the county that are presented to it by the state attorney or his designated assistant or otherwise come to its knowledge.

History.—s. 95, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(95); s. 52, ch. 70-339.

905.165 Grand jury to make presentments.—The grand jury may make presentments for offenses against the criminal laws, whether or not specific punishment is provided for the offense.

History.—s. 16, Nov. 19, 1828; RS 2805; GS 3854; RGS 5949; CGL 8215; s. 53, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.15.

905.17 Who may be present during session of grand jury.—

(1) No person shall be present at the sessions of the grand jury except the witness under examination, the state attorney and his assistant state attorneys, designated assistants as provided for in s. 27.18, the court reporter or stenographer, and the interpreter. The stenographic records, notes, and transcriptions made by the court reporter or stenographer shall be filed with the clerk who shall keep them in a sealed container not subject to public inspection. The notes, records, and transcriptions shall be released by the clerk only on request by a grand jury for use by the grand jury or on order of the court pursuant to s. 905.27.

(2) No person shall be present while the grand jurors are deliberating or voting.

(3) An intentional violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute indirect criminal contempt of court.

History.—s. 96, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(96); s. 1, ch. 26584, 1951; s. 54, ch. 70-339; s. 2, ch. 74-627.

905.18 Duty of court.—When requested, the court shall advise the grand jury about its legal duties. In its original charge or thereafter the court shall not restrict an investigation of any matter into which the grand jury is by law entitled to inquire.

History.—s. 97, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(97); s. 55, ch. 70-339.

905.185 State attorney to issue process.—When requested by the grand jury, the state attorney or his designated assistant shall issue process to secure the attendance of witnesses.

History.—s. 20, ch. 1628, 1868; RS 2807; GS 3856; RGS 5951; CGL 8217; s. 56, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.17.

905.19 Duty of state attorney.—The state attorney or an assistant state attorney shall attend sessions of the grand jury to examine witnesses and give legal advice about any matter cognizable by the grand jury. The state attorney may designate one or more assistant state attorneys to accompany and assist him in the performance of his duties, or he may designate one or more assistant state attorneys to attend sessions, examine witnesses, and give legal advice to the grand jury. The state attorney or an assistant state attorney shall draft indictments.

History.—s. 98, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(98); s. 57, ch. 70-339; s. 3, ch. 74-627.

905.195 List of witnesses; minutes.—

(1) The foreman of the grand jury shall return to the court a list under his hand of all witnesses who have been sworn by the grand jury during the term. The list shall be filed by the clerk of the court.

(2) When directed by the grand jury, the clerk shall deliver the minutes of the proceedings to the state attorney.

History.—ss. 14, 15, ch. 1628, 1868; RS 2806, 2809; GS 3855, 3858; RGS 5950, 5953; CGL 8216, 8219; s. 58, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.18.

905.20 Duty of grand juror having knowledge of offense.—A grand juror who knows or has reason to believe that an indictable offense triable within the county has been committed shall report the information to the grand jury and may be sworn as a witness in the investigation.

History.—s. 99, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(99); s. 59, ch. 70-339.

905.21 When grand jury of another county may indict in other cases.—When an offense has been committed in a county and the circuit court has determined that conditions in that county make it impractical to convene a grand jury, any grand jury within the circuit or in any circuit to which the judge of the circuit court refers the matter may inquire into the offense. If an indictment is returned, it shall be certified and transferred for trial to the county where the offense was committed.

History.—s. 100, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(100); s. 60, ch. 70-339.

905.22 Swearing of witnesses.—The foreman, state attorney, or assistant state attorney shall administer an oath or affirmation in the manner prescribed by law to any witness who testifies before the grand jury.

History.—s. 101, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(101); s. 61, ch. 70-339.

905.23 Number of grand jurors required to return indictment.—An indictment shall not be found without the concurrence of 12 grand jurors.

History.—s. 102, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(102); s. 62, ch. 70-339.

905.24 Proceedings of grand jury to be kept secret.—Grand jury proceedings are secret, and a grand juror shall not disclose the nature or substance of the deliberations or vote of the grand jury.

History.—s. 103, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(103); s. 63, ch. 70-339.

cf.—s. 12(e), Art. V, State Const. Access by Judicial Qualifications Commission to Grand Jury information.

905.25 Grand juror not permitted to state or testify.—A grand juror shall not be permitted to state or testify in any court how he or any other grand juror voted on any matter before them or what opinion was expressed by himself or any other grand juror about the matter.

History.—s. 104, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(104); s. 64, ch. 70-339.

905.26 Not to disclose finding of indictment.—Unless ordered by the court, a grand juror, reporter, stenographer, interpreter, or officer of the court shall not disclose that an indictment for a felony has been found against a person not in custody or under recognizance, except by issuing or executing process on the indictment, until the person has been arrested.

History.—s. 105, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(105); s. 65, ch. 70-339.

905.27 Testimony not to be disclosed; exceptions.—

(1) A grand juror, state attorney, assistant state attorney, reporter, stenographer, interpreter, or any other person appearing before the grand jury shall not disclose the testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury or other evidence received by it except when required by a court to disclose the testimony for the purpose of:

(a) Ascertaining whether it is consistent with the testimony given by the witness before the court;

(b) Determining whether the witness is guilty of perjury; or

(c) Furthering justice.

(2) It is unlawful for any person knowingly to publish, broadcast, disclose, divulge, or communicate to any other person, or knowingly to cause or permit to be published, broadcast, disclosed, divulged, or communicated to any other person, in any manner whatsoever, any testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury, or the content, gist, or import thereof, except when such testimony is or has been disclosed in a court proceeding. When a court orders the disclosure of such testimony pursuant to subsection (1) for use in a criminal case, it may be disclosed to the prosecuting attorney of the court in which such criminal case is pending, and by him to his assistants, legal associates, and employees, and to the defendant and his attorney, and by the latter to his legal associates and employees. When such disclosure is ordered by a court pursuant to subsection (1) for use in a civil case, it may be disclosed to all parties to the case and to their attorneys and by the latter to their legal associates and employees. However, the grand jury testimony afforded such persons by the court can only be used in the defense or prosecution of the civil or criminal case and for no other purpose whatsoever.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the attorney-client relationship. A client shall have the right to communicate to his attorney any testimony given by the client to the grand jury, any matters involving the client discussed in the client's presence before the grand jury, and any evidence involving the client received by or proffered to the grand jury in the client's presence.

(4) Persons convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or both.

(5) A violation of this section shall constitute criminal contempt of court.

History.—s. 106, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(106); s. 1, ch. 26940, 1951; s. 66, ch. 70-339; ss. 1, 1A, ch. 71-66. cf.—s. 12(e), Art. V, State Const. Access by Judicial Qualifications Commission to Grand Jury information.

905.28 Publication of report or presentment; motion to repress.—

(1) No report or presentment of the grand jury relating to an individual which is not accompanied by a true bill or indictment shall be made public or be published until the individual concerned has been furnished a copy thereof and given 15 days to file with the Circuit Court a motion to repress or expunge the report or that portion which is improper and unlawful.

(2) Any such motion, whether granted or denied, shall automatically act as a stay of public announcement of such report, or portion thereof, until the Circuit Court's ruling on the motion is either affirmed or denied by the District Court of Appeal or, if no appeal is taken, until expiration of the period within which an appeal could have been taken.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132; s. 1, ch. 73-194; s. 1, ch. 77-174.

905.31 Short title.—Sections 905.31-905.40 shall be known and may be cited as the "Statewide Grand Jury Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132.

905.32 Legislative intent.—It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to strengthen the grand jury system and enhance the ability of the state to detect and eliminate organized criminal activity by improving the evidence-gathering process in matters which transpire or have significance in more than one county.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132.

905.33 Petition to Supreme Court by Governor; order.—

(1) Whenever the Governor, for good and sufficient reason, deems it to be in the public interest to impanel a statewide grand jury, he may petition in writing to the Supreme Court for an order impaneling a statewide grand jury. The petition shall state the general crimes or wrongs to be inquired into and shall state that said crimes or wrongs are of multi-county nature. The Supreme Court may order the impaneling of a statewide grand jury, in accordance with the petition, for a term of 12 calendar months. Upon petition by a majority of the statewide grand jury or by the legal advisor to the statewide grand jury, the Supreme Court, by order, may extend the term of the statewide grand jury for a period of up to 6 months.

(2) The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall designate a Judge of a Circuit Court to preside over the statewide grand jury; such judge shall be referred to herein as the presiding judge.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132; s. 3, ch. 77-403.

905.34 Powers and duties; law applicable.—

The jurisdiction of a statewide grand jury impaneled under this chapter shall extend throughout the state. The subject matter jurisdiction of the statewide grand jury shall be limited to the offenses of bribery, burglary, criminal fraud, criminal usury, extortion, gambling, kidnapping, larceny, murder, prostitution, perjury, and robbery; crimes involving narcotic or other dangerous drugs; any violation of the provisions of the Florida RICO (Racketeer-Influenced and Corrupt Organization) Act; any violation of the provisions of the Florida Anti-Fencing Act; or any attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy to commit any violation of the crimes specifically enumerated above, when any such offense is occurring, or has occurred, in two or more counties as part of a related transaction, or when any such offense is connected with an organized criminal conspiracy affecting two or more counties. The statewide grand jury may return indictments and presentments irrespective of the county or judicial circuit where the offense is committed or triable. If an indictment is returned, it shall be certified and transferred for trial to the county where the offense was committed. The powers and duties of, and law applicable to, county grand juries shall apply to a statewide grand jury except when such powers, duties, and law are inconsistent with the provisions of ss. 905.31-905.40.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132; s. 6, ch. 77-334; s. 14, ch. 77-342.

905.35 Appointment of foreman and deputy foreman.—The statewide grand jury shall elect, by majority vote, a foreman and deputy foreman from among its members.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132.

905.36 Duty of State Attorney or other legal advisor; presentation of evidence.—

The State Attorney designated by the Governor shall attend sessions of the statewide grand jury and serve as its legal advisor. The State Attorney, the State Attorney and one or more of his assistant state attorneys, or one or more assistant state attorneys shall examine witnesses; present evidence; and draft indictments, presentments, and reports upon the direction of the statewide grand jury. The State Attorney may designate one or more assistant state attorneys to accompany and assist him in the performance of his duties, or he may designate one or more assistant state attorneys to attend sessions of the statewide grand jury and perform such duties. The State Attorney who advises the statewide grand jury when an indictment is returned shall be empowered to prosecute such indictment in the judicial circuit where the proper venue lies.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132; s. 4, ch. 74-627; s. 4, ch. 77-403.

905.37 List of prospective jurors; impanelment; composition of jury; compensation.—

(1) On or before July 15, 1973, and not later than the first week in December of each year thereafter, the chief judge of each judicial circuit shall cause to be compiled a list of persons called and certified for jury duty in each of the several counties in the circuit. From the lists of persons certified for jury duty in each of the several counties in his judicial circuit, the chief judge shall select by lot and at random a list of eligible prospective grand jurors from each county. The number of prospective statewide grand jurors to be selected from each county shall be determined on the basis of three such jurors for each 3,000 residents, or fraction thereof, in each county. When such lists are compiled, the Chief Judge of each judicial circuit shall cause the lists to be submitted to the state courts administrator on or before August 15, 1973, and not later than February 15 of each year thereafter.

(2) The state courts administrator, upon receipt of the order of the Supreme Court granting a petition to impanel a statewide grand jury, shall certify and submit to the presiding judge the lists submitted by the chief judge of each judicial circuit. The Supreme Court shall provide in its order impaneling the statewide grand jury whether the prospective jurors are to be drawn from the jury lists, as selected, certified, and submitted pursuant to this section, from a designated circuit or circuits or from a statewide list containing the names of all persons who are named in the certified jury lists submitted by the chief judge of each judicial circuit. If the Supreme Court determines, based upon the facts set forth in the Governor's petition, that the principal scope of the investigation to be conducted by the statewide grand jury is limited to a particular region or section of the state, or if, in the interest of convenience to the prospective grand jury witnesses, law enforcement officers, or others, the investigation could more appropriately operate within a particular region or section of the state, then, in either such event, the Supreme Court may designate the judicial circuits within said region of the state which shall be the base operating area for the statewide grand jury, from which designated circuits the prospective jurors of the statewide grand jury shall be selected. The presiding judge shall, by lot and at random, select and impanel the statewide grand jury from the jury lists of the designated circuits certified and submitted through state courts administrator, or of the composite statewide list, in accordance with the order of the Supreme Court. In selecting and impaneling the statewide grand jury in the manner prescribed herein the presiding judge shall select no less than one statewide grand juror from each congressional district in the state. Each such prospective juror may be excused by the presiding judge upon a showing that service on the statewide grand jury will result in an unreasonable personal or financial hardship by virtue of the location or projected length of the grand jury investigation.

<sup>1</sup>(3) A statewide grand jury shall be composed of 18 members, of which 15 members shall constitute a quorum. Each member of the statewide grand jury shall be a registered elector in the county in which he resides. In all other respects a statewide grand juror shall have the same qualifications as provided in this chapter in the case of a county grand jury.

(4) While serving on the statewide grand jury, each grand juror shall receive mileage and a per diem allowance of $25 per day. Upon receiving a summons to report for jury duty, any employee shall, on the next day he is engaged in his employment, exhibit the summons to his immediate superior, and the employee shall thereupon be excused from his employment for the period that he is actually required to be in court attendance, plus reasonable travel time.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132; s. 20, ch. 79-235.

905.38 Summoning of jurors.—The Clerk of the Supreme Court, upon receipt of the venire for the statewide grand jury from the presiding judge, shall issue and cause to be delivered to the sheriff of the county in which a member of the statewide grand jury resides, a venire of the grand jury commanding the sheriff to summon, in accordance with the venire, the persons named in the venire who reside in the county.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132.

905.39 Judicial supervision; returns.—Judicial supervision of the statewide grand jury shall be maintained by the presiding judge, and all indictments, presentments, and formal returns of any kind made by such grand jury shall be returned to the presiding judge.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132.

905.40 Payment of costs and expenses.—The costs and expenses incurred by the statewide grand jury in the performance of its functions and duties shall be paid by the state out of funds appropriated to the circuit courts.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-132.

CHAPTER 907

PROCEDURE AFTER ARREST

- 907.04 Disposition of defendant upon arrest.
907.045 Habeas corpus; motion to dismiss; preliminary hearing.
907.05 Criminal cases in Circuit Court to be tried first.
907.055 Trial of persons in custody.

907.04 Disposition of defendant upon arrest.

—If a person who is arrested does not have a right to bail for the offense charged, he shall be delivered immediately into the custody of the sheriff of the county in which the indictment, information, or affidavit is filed. If the person who is arrested has a right to bail, he shall be released after giving bond on the amount specified in the warrant.

History.—s. 133a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(139); s. 67, ch. 70-339.

907.045 Habeas corpus; motion to dismiss; preliminary hearing.—A defendant who is in custody when an indictment, information, or affidavit on which he can be tried is filed may apply for a writ of habeas corpus attacking the indictment, information, or affidavit, or he may move to dismiss the indictment, information, or affidavit. A defendant who has been confined for 30 days after his arrest without a trial shall be allowed a preliminary hearing upon application.

History.—s. 140, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(147); s. 1, ch. 26767, 1951; s. 69, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 909.04.

907.05 Criminal cases in Circuit Court to be tried first.—Cases on the criminal docket shall be tried first at each term of the Circuit Court, if they can be tried without injury to the interests of the state or defendant. Cases presented by the grand jury during a term may be tried during the term.

History.—s. 133b, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(140); s. 68, ch. 70-339.

907.055 Trial of persons in custody.—A defendant who is in custody when an indictment or information for a felony is filed shall be arraigned and tried during the term when the indictment or information is filed unless good cause is shown for a continuance.

History.—s. 159, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(166); s. 71, ch. 70-339.

CHAPTER 910

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 910.005 State criminal jurisdiction.
- 910.01 Offenses committed partly in this state.
- 910.02 Offense committed while in transit.
- 910.03 Place of trial generally.
- 910.035 Transfer from county for plea and sentence.
- 910.04 Where aider in one county and offense committed in another.
- 910.05 Where acts constituting one offense are committed in two or more counties.
- 910.06 Where person in one county commits offense in another.
- 910.09 Cause of death inflicted in one county and death occurs in another.
- 910.10 Where stolen property brought into another county.
- 910.11 Conviction or acquittal bar to prosecution.
- 910.12 Trial of aider.
- 910.13 Accessory after the fact.
- 910.14 Kidnapping.

910.005 State criminal jurisdiction.—

(1) A person is subject to prosecution in this state for an offense that he commits, while either within or outside the state, by his own conduct or that of another for which he is legally accountable, if:

(a) The offense is committed wholly or partly within the state;

(b) The conduct outside the state constitutes an attempt to commit an offense within the state;

(c) The conduct outside the state constitutes a conspiracy to commit an offense within the state, and an act in furtherance of the conspiracy occurs in the state; or

(d) The conduct within the state constitutes an attempt or conspiracy to commit in another jurisdiction an offense under the laws of both this state and the other jurisdiction.

(2) An offense is committed partly within this state if either the conduct that is an element of the offense or the result that is an element, occurs within the state. In homicide, the "result" is either the physical contact that causes death, or the death itself; and if the body of a homicide victim is found within the state, the death is presumed to have occurred within the state.

(3) An offense that is based on an omission to perform a duty imposed by the law of this state is committed within the state, regardless of the location of the offender at the time of the omission.

History.—s. 72, ch. 70-339.

910.01 Offenses committed partly in this state.—

(1) If the commission of an offense commenced outside the state is consummated within this state, the offender shall be tried in the county where the offense is consummated.

(2) If the commission of an offense commenced within this state is consummated outside the state, the offender shall be tried in the county where the offense is commenced.

History.—RS 2360; GS 3185; RGS 5015; CGL 7117; s. 160, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(167); s. 73, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.07.

910.02 Offense committed while in transit.—

If an offense is committed on a railroad car, vehicle, watercraft, or aircraft traveling within this state and it is not known in which county the offense was committed, the accused may be tried in any county through which the railroad car, vehicle, watercraft, or aircraft has traveled. The accused is entitled to elect the county in which he will be tried, as provided in s. 910.03.

History.—ss. 161, 166, 167, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(168), (173), (174); s. 74, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former ss. 910.07 and 910.08.

910.03 Place of trial generally.—Except as provided in s. 910.035 criminal prosecutions shall be tried in the county where the offense was committed; but if the county is not known, the accused may be charged in two or more counties conjunctively, and before trial the accused may elect the county in which he will be tried. By his election, the accused waives the right to trial in the county in which the crime was committed. Such election shall have the force and effect of the granting of an application of the accused for change of venue from the county in which the offense was committed to the county in which the case is tried.

History.—s. 162, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(169); s. 75, ch. 70-339; s. 2, ch. 72-45.

cf.—s. 817.04 Prosecution for making false statement to obtain goods on credit.

910.035 Transfer from county for plea and sentence.—

(1) INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION PENDING.—A defendant arrested or held in a county other than that in which an indictment or information is pending against him may state in writing that he wishes to plead guilty or nolo contendere, to waive trial in the county in which the indictment or information is pending, and to consent to disposition of the case in the county in which he was arrested or is held, subject to the approval of the prosecuting attorney of the court in which the indictment or information is pending. Upon receipt of the defendant's statement and the written approval of the prosecuting attorney, the clerk of the court in which the indictment or information is pending shall transmit the papers in the proceeding, or certified copies thereof, to the clerk of the court of competent jurisdiction for the county in which the defendant is held, and the prosecution shall continue in that county upon the information or indictment originally filed. In the event a fine is imposed upon the defendant in that county, two-thirds thereof shall be returned to the county in which the indictment or information was originally filed.

(2) INDICTMENT OR INFORMATION NOT PENDING.—A defendant arrested on a warrant issued upon a complaint in a county other than the county of arrest may state in writing that he wishes to plead guilty or nolo contendere, to waive trial in the county in which the warrant was issued, and to consent to disposition of the case in the county in which he was arrested, subject to the approval of the prosecuting attorney of the court in which the indictment or information is pending. Upon receipt of the defendant's statement and the written approval of the prosecuting attorney, and upon the filing of an information or the return of an indictment, the clerk of the court from which the warrant was issued shall transmit the papers in the proceeding, or certified copies thereof, to the clerk of the court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the defendant was arrested, and the prosecution shall continue in that county upon the information or indictment originally filed.

(3) EFFECT OF NOT GUILTY PLEA.—If, after the proceeding has been transferred pursuant to subsections (1) or (2), the defendant pleads not guilty, the clerk shall return the papers to the court in which the prosecution was commenced, and the proceeding shall be restored to the docket of that court. The defendant's statement that he wishes to plead guilty or nolo contendere shall not be used against him.

(4) APPEARANCE IN RESPONSE TO A SUMMONS.—For the purpose of initiating a transfer under this section, a person who appears in response to a summons shall be treated as if he had been arrested on a warrant in the county of such appearance.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-45.

910.04 Where aider in one county and offense committed in another.—If a person in one county aids, abets, or procures the commission of an offense in another county, he may be tried in either county.

History.—s. 163, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(170); s. 76, ch. 70-339.

910.05 Where acts constituting one offense are committed in two or more counties.—If the acts constituting one offense are committed in two or more counties, the offender may be tried in any county in which any of the acts occurred.

History.—s. 164, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(171); s. 77, ch. 70-339.

910.06 Where person in one county commits offense in another.—If a person in one county commits an offense in another county, the offender may be tried in either county.

History.—s. 165, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(172); s. 78, ch. 70-339.

910.09 Cause of death inflicted in one county and death occurs in another.—If the cause of death is inflicted in one county and death occurs in another county, the offender may be tried in either county.

History.—s. 168, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(175); s. 79, ch. 70-339.

910.10 Where stolen property brought into another county.—A person who obtains property by larceny, robbery, or embezzlement may be tried in any county in which he exercises control over the property.

History.—s. 169, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(176); s. 80, ch. 70-339.

910.11 Conviction or acquittal bar to prosecution.—

(1) No person shall be held to answer on a second indictment, information, or affidavit for an offense for which he has been acquitted. The acquittal shall be a bar to a subsequent prosecution for the same offense, notwithstanding any defect in the form or circumstances of the indictment, information, or affidavit.

(2) When a person may be tried for an offense in two or more counties, a conviction or acquittal in one county shall be a bar to prosecution for the same offense in another county.

History.—s. 170, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(177); s. 81, ch. 70-339.

910.12 Trial of aider.—A person, within or outside this state, who counsels, hires, or procures a felony to be committed may be tried in the same county in which the principal felon might be tried.

History.—s. 5, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2366; GS 3191; RGS 5021; CGL 7123; s. 82, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.12.

910.13 Accessory after the fact.—A person who becomes an accessory after the fact to a felony may be tried in the county in which he became an accessory or in any county in which the principal in the first degree might be tried. Prosecution of a person who is an accessory after the fact to a felony shall not be contingent on prosecution or conviction of the principal in the first degree.

History.—s. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2367; GS 3192; RGS 5022; CGL 7124; s. 83, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.13.

cf.—s. 777.03 Accessory after the fact.
s. 806.10 Obstructing extinguishment of fire.

910.14 Kidnapping.—A person who commits an offense provided for in ss. 805.01 and 805.02 may be tried in any county in which his victim has been taken or confined during the course of the offense.

History.—s. 44, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2368; GS 3193; RGS 5023; CGL 7125; s. 84, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.14.

CHAPTER 913

TRIAL JURY

- 913.03 Grounds for challenge to individual jurors for cause.
 913.08 Number of peremptory challenges.
 913.10 Number of jurors.
 913.12 Qualifications of jurors.
 913.13 Jurors in capital cases.
 913.15 Special jurors.

913.03 Grounds for challenge to individual jurors for cause.—A challenge for cause to an individual juror may be made only on the following grounds:

- (1) The juror does not have the qualifications required by law;
- (2) The juror is of unsound mind or has a bodily defect that renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror;
- (3) The juror has conscientious beliefs that would preclude him from finding the defendant guilty;
- (4) The juror served on the grand jury that found the indictment or on a coroner's jury that inquired into the death of a person whose death is the subject of the indictment or information;
- (5) The juror served on a jury formerly sworn to try the defendant for the same offense;
- (6) The juror served on a jury that tried another person for the offense charged in the indictment, information, or affidavit;
- (7) The juror served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant for the act charged as an offense;
- (8) The juror is an adverse party to the defendant in a civil action, or has complained against or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution;
- (9) The juror is related by blood or marriage within the third degree to the defendant, the attorneys of either party, the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or the person on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted;
- (10) The juror has a state of mind regarding the defendant, the case, the person alleged to have been injured by the offense charged, or the person on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted that will prevent him from acting with impartiality, but the formation of an opinion or impression regarding the guilt or innocence of the defendant shall not be a sufficient ground for challenge to a juror if he declares and the court determines that he can render an impartial verdict according to the evidence;

(11) The juror was a witness for the state or the defendant at the preliminary hearing or before the grand jury or is to be a witness for either party at the trial;

(12) The juror is a surety on defendant's bail bond in the case.

History.—s. 184, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(191); s. 85, ch. 70-339.

cf.—s. 40.01 Qualifications of jurors.

913.08 Number of peremptory challenges.—

(1) The state and the defendant shall each be allowed the following number of peremptory challenges:

(a) Ten, if the offense charged is punishable by death or imprisonment for life;

(b) Six, if the offense charged is punishable by imprisonment for more than 12 months but is not punishable by death or imprisonment for life;

(c) Three, for all other offenses.

(2) If two or more defendants are tried jointly, each defendant shall be allowed the number of peremptory challenges specified in subsection (1), and the state shall be allowed as many challenges as are allowed to all of the defendants.

History.—s. 189, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(196); s. 86, ch. 70-339.

913.10 Number of jurors.—Twelve persons shall constitute a jury to try all capital cases, and six persons shall constitute a jury to try all other criminal cases.

History.—s. 191, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(198); s. 87, ch. 70-339.

913.12 Qualifications of jurors.—The qualifications of jurors in criminal cases shall be the same as their qualifications in civil cases.

History.—RS 2849; GS 3905; RGS 6003; CGL 8297; s. 88, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.19.

913.13 Jurors in capital cases.—A person who has beliefs which preclude him from finding a defendant guilty of an offense punishable by death shall not be qualified as a juror in a capital case.

History.—s. 12, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2850; GS 3906; RGS 6004; CGL 8298; s. 89, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.20.

913.15 Special jurors.—The court may summon jurors in addition to the regular panel.

History.—RS 2853; GS 3909; RGS 6007; CGL 8301; s. 91, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.22.

CHAPTER 914

WITNESSES; CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

- 914.001 Witnesses; subpoenas to run throughout the state; all names to be included in one subpoena.
- 914.03 Attendance of witnesses.
- 914.04 Witnesses; person not excused from testifying in certain prosecutions on ground testimony might incriminate him; immunity from prosecution.
- 914.05 Compelled testimony tending to incriminate witness; immunity.
- 914.06 Compensation of expert witnesses in felony cases.
- 914.07 Competency of evidence.
- 914.09 Compensation of witness summoned in two or more cases.
- 914.11 Indigent defendants.
- 914.12 Memorandum of recognizance of witness; removal for violation.
- 914.13 Commitment for perjury.
- 914.14 Witnesses accepting bribes.
- 914.15 Law enforcement officers; nondisclosure of personal information.

914.001 Witnesses; subpoenas to run throughout the state; all names to be included in one subpoena.—

(1) Subpoenas for witnesses in criminal cases shall run throughout the state and be directed to all of the sheriffs of the state.

(2) When possible, the names of all witnesses summoned for, or at the cost of, the state in a criminal case shall be included in one subpoena, and the prosecuting officer shall, when possible, include the names of all such witnesses in one praecipe for such subpoena.

History.—s. 2, ch. 871, 1859; ss. 2, 4, 6, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2859, 2860; GS 3915, 3916; RGS 6013, 6014; CGL 8307, 8308; s. 94, ch. 70-339.

914.03 Attendance of witnesses.—A witness summoned by a grand jury or in a criminal case shall remain in attendance until excused by the court. A witness who departs without permission of the court shall be in criminal contempt of court. A witness shall attend each succeeding term of court until the case is terminated.

History.—s. 4, ch. 159, 1843; s. 2, ch. 2094, 1877; RS 2862; GS 3918; RGS 6016; CGL 8310; s. 96, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.28.

914.04 Witnesses; person not excused from testifying in certain prosecutions on ground testimony might incriminate him; immunity from prosecution.—No person, having been duly served with a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, shall be excused from attending and testifying or producing any book, paper, or other document before any court having felony trial jurisdiction, grand jury, or state attorney, upon investigation, proceeding, or trial for a violation of any of the criminal statutes of this state upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to convict him of a crime or to subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding.

History.—s. 1, ch. 5400, 1905; s. 1, ch. 7850, 1919; RGS 6017; CGL 8311; s. 1, ch. 69-316; s. 97, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 71-99; s. 36, ch. 73-334.

Note.—Former s. 932.29.

cf.—s. 12(e), Art. V, State Const. Access by Judicial Qualifications Commission to Grand Jury information.

914.05 Compelled testimony tending to incriminate witness; immunity.—The testimony or evidence of a witness who has been ordered by a court of the United States to testify or produce evidence regarding treason, sabotage, espionage, or seditious conspiracy against the United States, after claiming his privilege against self-incrimination, shall not subsequently be used against him in a criminal prosecution in this state. A witness shall not be exempt from prosecution for perjury committed while giving testimony or producing evidence under compulsion as provided in this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 29987, 1955; s. 98, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.291.

914.06 Compensation of expert witnesses in felony cases.—In a felony case, on motion of the state or an indigent defendant, the court may require the attendance of an expert witness whose opinion is relevant to the issues of the case. The court shall award reasonable compensation to the expert witness that shall be taxed as costs in the same manner as other costs.

Note.—Former s. 932.31.

914.09 Compensation of witness summoned in two or more cases.—A witness subpoenaed in two or more cases pending at the same time shall be paid one charge for per diem and mileage, but when the costs are taxed against the defendant, a witness may charge the full amount in each case.

History.—s. 4, ch. 159, 1848; RS 2865; s. 1, ch. 5133, 1903; GS 3921; RGS 6020; CGL 8314; s. 102, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 932.34.

914.11 Indigent defendants.—If a court decides, on the basis of an affidavit, that a defendant in a preliminary hearing or trial is indigent and unable to pay the cost of procuring the attendance of witnesses and that certain witnesses are necessary to the defense, the court shall order the witnesses subpoenaed, and the costs shall be paid by the county.

Note.—Former s. 932.41.

914.14 Witnesses accepting bribes.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person who is a witness in a proceeding instituted by a duly constituted prosecuting authority of this state to solicit, request, accept, or agree to accept any money or anything of value as an inducement to:

(a) Testify or inform falsely; or

(b) Withhold any testimony, information, document, or thing.

(2) Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 4, ch. 72-315.

914.15 Law enforcement officers; nondisclosure of personal information.—Any law enforcement officer of the state or of any political subdivision thereof who provides information relative to a criminal investigation or in proceedings preliminary to a criminal case may refuse, unless ordered by the court, to disclose his residence address, home telephone number, or any personal information concerning his family. Any law enforcement officer who testifies as a witness in a criminal case may refuse to disclose personal information concerning his family unless it is determined by the court that such evidence is relevant to the case.

CHAPTER 917

MENTALLY DISORDERED SEX OFFENDERS

- 917.011 Mentally disordered sex offenders committed to Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services before July 1, 1979; disposition.
- 917.012 Mentally disordered sex offenders; procedures for handling and treatment.
- 917.014 Credit for time spent in treatment program.
- 917.016 Probation; revocation; treatment programs.
- 917.018 Escape from treatment program; penalties.
- 917.019 Training in postdischarge treatment of mentally disordered sex offenders.

917.011 Mentally disordered sex offenders committed to Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services before July 1, 1979; disposition.—

(1) Upon completion of the treatment program, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall return those mentally disordered sex offenders committed to its custody pursuant to this chapter, as this chapter existed prior to July 1, 1979, to the committing court for recommencement of criminal proceedings. The court shall have the following alternatives for disposition of such offenders:

(a) The court may suspend the sentence of the offender and place the offender on probation subject to such terms and conditions as provided in s. 917.016.

(b) The court may sentence the offender and commit him to the custody of the Department of Corrections.

(c) The court may make any other suitable disposition of the offender as provided by law.

(2) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1981.

History.—ss. 2, 10, ch. 79-341.

917.012 Mentally disordered sex offenders; procedures for handling and treatment.—

(1) On July 1, 1979, and thereafter, the following procedures shall apply to the handling and treatment of mentally disordered sex offenders:

(a) The Department of Corrections shall establish, for each offender who has been sentenced for a violation of law involving a sex offense and placed in its custody, procedures for the classification of the offender based on the type of offense he committed. Such classification shall include the following sex offenses:

1. Sexual battery or attempted sexual battery.
2. Incest or attempted incest.
3. An unnatural and lascivious act or an attempted unnatural and lascivious act.
4. Lewd and lascivious behavior.
5. Assault or aggravated assault when a sexual act is completed or attempted.
6. Battery or aggravated battery when a sexual act is completed or attempted.

(b) The Department of Corrections, jointly with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, shall by rule establish procedures to identify those offenders who have been sentenced for the commission of a crime involving a sex offense, who are not psychotic, and who suffer from a psychosexual disorder, 'but are competent and amenable to treatment. From such group of offenders, the Department of Corrections and the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, jointly, shall also identify those offenders who may be treated by the Department of Corrections and those offenders who require the specialized services of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, using professional psychiatric and psychological teams of the respective agencies.

(c) Each offender who is identified as needing the specialized services of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be evaluated at a Department of Corrections facility and may be transferred to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services pursuant to the provisions of s. 945.12.

(d) An offender transferred from the Department of Corrections to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services under s. 945.12 shall be evaluated by the treatment facility during the first 90 days after admission as to his amenability to treatment. If the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services determines at any time that the offender does not meet the definition of an offender identified in paragraph (b), or that the treatment program to which the offender was assigned by the department has exhausted all appropriate treatment for the offender, a written report to that effect shall be furnished by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services to the Department of Corrections, which shall be responsible for the immediate transportation of the offender to an appropriate corrections facility.

(e) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall determine, for each offender transferred pursuant to paragraph (c), the manner and sequence of treatment based on his length of sentence and his presumptive parole eligibility date; however, no such offender shall participate in a community furlough or work-release program while he is in a formal treatment program of the department.

(f) No person previously committed to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services as a sex offender under this act who commits a subsequent offense shall be again committed for treatment pursuant to this act.

(g) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall determine which facility shall provide necessary care, treatment, and rehabilitation for an offender committed to the department under this act. Decisions on treatment modalities for all offenders committed or transferred to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services under this act shall be made by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(h) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall cause each offender transferred pursuant to paragraph (c) to be examined at least once annually to determine the progress of the treatment and shall file a written report of each examination with the Department of Corrections not less than once a year.

(2) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1981.

History.—ss. 3, 10, ch. 79-341.

Note.—The word "but" was substituted for "yet" by the editors.

917.014 Credit for time spent in treatment program.—

(1) Time spent in the treatment programs of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall be considered time served on the sentence imposed upon the offender by the court.

(2) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1981.

History.—ss. 4, 10, ch. 79-341.

917.016 Probation; revocation; treatment programs.—

(1) A judge who suspends the sentence of an offender convicted of a crime involving a sex offense and places the offender on probation:

(a) May at any time, for cause, revoke the order placing such offender on probation and impose such sentence of commitment as might have been imposed at the time of conviction.

(b) May require that such sex offender who is placed on probation be provided regular treatment in a community-based mental health program approved or operated by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services. The agency or person treating the offender shall make written reports at least every 6 months to the court and to the probation officer supervising the offender. If the agency or person providing treatment exhausts treatment for the offender, or if such agency or person determines that the offender will make no progress in the treatment program, the court, upon notification of such fact, shall terminate mandatory probation visits by the offender to that treatment program. The court may require the offender to be provided further treatment in another suitable community-based program approved by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or may make such other disposition as provided by law.

(2) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1981.

History.—ss. 5, 10, ch. 79-341.

917.018 Escape from treatment program; penalties.—

(1) An offender transferred to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services under the provisions of this act who escapes or attempts to escape from the department is guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1981.

History.—ss. 3, 10, ch. 79-341.

917.019 Training in postdischarge treatment of mentally disordered sex offenders.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may establish, within available appropriations, a program to train persons to provide postdischarge treatment for mentally disordered sex offenders.

(2) The provisions of this section shall stand repealed on July 1, 1981.

History.—ss. 6, 10, ch. 79-341.

CHAPTER 918

CONDUCT OF TRIAL

- 918.015 Right to speedy trial.
- 918.016 Trial of remaining defendants after grant of continuance to others.
- 918.03 Procedure when offense committed outside state.
- 918.04 Procedure when offense committed in another county.
- 918.05 View by jury.
- 918.06 Separation and detention of jurors; admonition by court.
- 918.07 Admonition to officer in charge of jurors.
- 918.10 Charge to jury; request for instructions.
- 918.12 Tampering with jurors.
- 918.13 Tampering with or fabricating physical evidence.
- 918.14 Tampering with witnesses.
- 918.15 Mental competence to stand trial.
- 918.16 Sex offenses; testimony of person under age 16; courtroom cleared; exceptions.
- 918.17 Sexual battery or child abuse cases; videotaping of testimony of victims under age 12 permitted.

918.015 Right to speedy trial.—

(1) In all criminal prosecutions the state and the defendant shall each have the right to a speedy trial.

(2) The Supreme Court shall, by rule of said court, provide procedures through which the right to a speedy trial as guaranteed by subsection (1) and by s. 16, Art. I of the State Constitution shall be realized.

History.—s. 195, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(202); s. 6, ch. 71-1(B).
Note.—Former s. 916.01.

918.016 Trial of remaining defendants after grant of continuance to others.—When a continuance is granted to one or more of several defendants, the court may proceed with the trial of the defendants who have not been granted a continuance.

History.—s. 202, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(210); s. 110, ch. 70-339.
Note.—Former s. 916.09.

918.03 Procedure when offense committed outside state.—When a court determines that it does not have jurisdiction because the offense charged was committed outside this state, the court may discharge the defendant or direct the clerk to communicate the location of the defendant to the chief executive of the state, territory, or district where the offense was committed. The court may commit the defendant to custody or admit him to bail for a reasonable period of time to await a requisition for his extradition. If a requisition is not received within the time set by the court, the defendant shall be discharged. If the defendant has been admitted to bail, the court shall order the bond canceled and any deposit of money or bonds returned.

History.—s. 208, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(216); s. 112, ch. 70-339.

918.04 Procedure when offense committed in another county.—When a court determines that it does not have jurisdiction because the offense charged was committed in another county of this state, the defendant shall be committed to custody or admitted to bail for a reasonable time to await a warrant for his arrest from the proper county. The clerk shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the proper county of the location of the defendant. If the defendant is not arrested on a warrant from the proper county within the time set by the court, he shall be discharged. If the defendant has been admitted to bail, the court shall order the bond canceled and any deposit of money or bonds returned.

History.—s. 209, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(217); s. 113, ch. 70-339.

918.05 View by jury.—When a court determines that it is proper for the jury to view a place where the offense may have been committed or other material events may have occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body to the place, in custody of a proper officer. The court shall admonish the officer that no person, including the officer, shall be allowed to communicate with the jury about any subject connected with the trial. The jury shall be returned to the courtroom in accordance with the directions of the court. The judge and defendant, unless the defendant absents himself without permission of court, shall be present, and the prosecuting attorney and defense counsel may be present at the view.

History.—s. 210, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(218); s. 114, ch. 70-339.

918.06 Separation and detention of jurors; admonition by court.—The court shall admonish the jury that it is their duty not to converse among themselves or with anyone else on a subject connected with the trial or to form or express an opinion on a subject connected with the trial until the cause is submitted to them. When the jurors leave the jury box, the court may direct that the jury be kept together in the charge of a proper officer or allow them to separate. If the court permits the jurors to separate, it shall admonish them not to view the place where the offense appears to have been committed.

History.—s. 211, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(219); s. 115, ch. 70-339.

918.07 Admonition to officer in charge of jurors.—When the jury is committed to the charge of an officer, he shall be admonished by the court to keep the jurors together in the place specified and not to permit any person to communicate with them on any subject except with the permission of the court given in open court in the presence of the defendant or his counsel. The officer shall not communicate with the jurors on any subject connected with the trial and shall return the jurors to court as directed by the court.

History.—s. 212, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(220); s. 116, ch. 70-339.

918.10 Charge to jury; request for instructions.—

(1) At the conclusion of argument of counsel, the court shall charge the jury. The charge shall be only on the law of the case and must include the penalty for the offense for which the accused is being charged.

(2) All charges to the jury shall be delivered orally and shall be taken by the court reporter, transcribed, and filed.

(3) At or after the close of the evidence, a party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as stated in the requests. The court shall inform counsel of its proposed action on the requests before their arguments to the jury.

History.—s. 215, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(223); s. 1, ch. 22775, 1945; s. 117, ch. 70-339.

918.12 Tampering with jurors.—Any person who influences the judgment or decision of any grand or petit juror on any matter, question, cause, or proceeding which may be pending, or which may by law be brought, before him as such juror, with intent to obstruct the administration of justice, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-315.

918.13 Tampering with or fabricating physical evidence.—

(1) No person, knowing that a criminal trial or proceeding or an investigation by a duly constituted prosecuting authority, law enforcement agency, grand jury or legislative committee of this state is pending or is about to be instituted, shall:

(a) Alter, destroy, conceal, or remove any record, document, or thing with the purpose to impair its verity or availability in such proceeding or investigation; or

(b) Make, present, or use any record, document, or thing, knowing it to be false.

(2) Any person who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083 or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 72-315.

918.14 Tampering with witnesses.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person, knowing that a criminal trial, an official proceeding, or an investigation by a duly constituted prosecuting authority, a law enforcement agency, a grand jury or legislative committee, or the Judicial Qualifications Commission of this state is pending, or knowing that such is about to be instituted, to endeavor or attempt to induce or otherwise cause a witness to:

(a) Testify or inform falsely; or

(b) Withhold any testimony, information, document, or thing.

(2) If any person violates the provisions of this section by the use of force, deception, threat, or offer of pecuniary benefit to induce any conduct described in subsection (1), the violation shall constitute a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. In all other cases, a violation shall constitute a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

(3)(a) It is unlawful for any person:

1. To cause a witness to be placed in fear by force or threats of force;

2. To make an assault upon any witness or informant; or

3. To harm a witness by any unlawful act in retaliation against the said witness for anything lawfully done in the capacity of witness or informant.

(b) Any person violating the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 72-315; s. 44, ch. 75-298.

918.15 Mental competence to stand trial.—

(1) A person accused of a crime who is incompetent to stand trial shall not be proceeded against while he is incompetent. A person is incompetent to stand trial within the meaning of this act if he does not have sufficient present ability to consult with his lawyer with a reasonable degree of rational understanding or if he does not have rational, as well as factual, understanding of the proceedings against him.

(2) If, before or during trial, the court, of its own motion or upon motion of counsel for the defendant or for the state, has reasonable ground to believe that the defendant is not mentally competent to stand trial, the court shall immediately initiate proceedings pursuant to s. 925.10.

(3) If a motion under subsection (2) is filed or made, the court may order the defendant taken into custody, if he is not already in custody, until the determination of his competency can be made. If the defendant has been released from custody on bail or other pretrial release provision, and the court is satisfied that evaluation is necessary but that the defendant need not be taken into custody for such evaluation, the court may order the defendant to appear at a designated place for evaluation at a specific time.

(4)(a) A defendant who, because of psychotropic medication, is able to understand the nature of the proceedings against him and to assist in his defense shall not automatically be deemed incompetent to stand trial simply because his satisfactory mental functioning is dependent upon the medication.

(b) As used in this subsection, the term "psychotropic medication" means any drug or compound affecting the mind, behavior, intellectual functions, perception, moods, and emotion and includes antipsychotic, antidepressant, antimanic, and antianxiety drugs.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-312; s. 1, ch. 79-336; s. 295, ch. 79-400.

Note.—The words "against him" were inserted by the editors.

918.16 Sex offenses; testimony of person under age 16; courtroom cleared; exceptions.—In the trial of any case, civil or criminal, when any person under the age of 16 is testifying concerning any sex offense, the court shall clear the courtroom of all persons except parties to the cause and their immediate families or guardians, attorneys and their secretaries, officers of the court, jurors, newspaper reporters or broadcasters, and court reporters.

History.—s. 28, ch. 77-312.

'918.17 Sexual battery or child abuse cases; videotaping of testimony of victims under age 12 permitted.—

(1) Upon application to the court and reasonable notice to the defendant, the state may apply for an order to videotape out of open court the testimony of a child 11 years of age or younger who has been the victim of a sexual battery under s. 794.011 or to videotape the testimony of a child 11 years of age or younger who has been the victim of aggravated child abuse under s. 827.03 or child abuse under s. 827.04. The court may grant an order to videotape testimony as provided herein only if it finds that:

(a) The victim of the offense is a child 11 years of age or younger; and

(b) There is a substantial likelihood that such child will suffer severe emotional or mental strain if required to testify in open court.

(2) The trial judge shall preside at such proceeding and shall rule on all questions as if at trial.

(3) The application referred to in subsection (1) shall be made prior to trial, and the videotaping of the testimony shall be made only after the trial has commenced. The videotaped testimony shall be admissible as evidence in the trial of the cause.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 79-69.

Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-69, repeals Rule 3.190(j), Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, " . . . insofar as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this. . . ." section.

CHAPTER 921

SENTENCE

- 921.09 Fees of physicians who determine sanity at time of sentence.
- 921.12 Fees of physicians when pregnancy is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.
- 921.141 Sentence of death or life imprisonment for capital felonies; further proceedings to determine sentence.
- 921.143 Appearance of victim to make statement at sentencing hearing; submission of written statement.
- 921.15 Stay of execution of sentence to fine; bond and proceedings.
- 921.16 When sentences to be concurrent and when consecutive.
- 921.161 Sentence not to run until imposed; credit for county jail time after sentence; certificate of sheriff.
- 921.18 Sentence for indeterminate period for non-capital felony.
- 921.185 Sentence; restitution a mitigation in certain crimes.
- 921.20 Classification summary; Parole and Probation Commission.
- 921.21 Progress reports to Parole and Probation Commission.
- 921.22 Determination of exact period of imprisonment by Parole and Probation Commission.
- 921.231 Presentence investigation reports.
- 921.241 Felony judgments; fingerprints required in record.

921.09 Fees of physicians who determine sanity at time of sentence.—The court shall allow reasonable fees to physicians appointed by the court to determine the mental condition of a defendant who has alleged insanity as a cause for not pronouncing sentence. The fees shall be paid by the county in which the indictment was found or the information or affidavit filed.

History.—s. 255, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(264); s. 121, ch. 70-339.

921.12 Fees of physicians when pregnancy is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.—The court shall allow reasonable fees to the physicians appointed to examine a defendant who has alleged her pregnancy as a cause for not pronouncing sentence. The fees shall be paid by the county in which the indictment was found or the information or affidavit filed.

History.—s. 258, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(267); s. 122, ch. 70-339.

921.141 Sentence of death or life imprisonment for capital felonies; further proceedings to determine sentence.—

(1) SEPARATE PROCEEDINGS ON ISSUE OF PENALTY.—Upon conviction or adjudication of guilt of a defendant of a capital felony, the court shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the defendant should be sentenced to death or life imprisonment as authorized by s. 775.082. The proceeding shall be conducted by the trial judge before the trial jury as soon as practicable. If, through impossibility or inability, the trial jury is unable to reconvene for a hearing on the issue of penalty, having determined the guilt of the accused, the trial judge may summon a special juror or jurors as provided in chapter 913 to determine the issue of the imposition of the penalty. If the trial jury has been waived, or if the defendant pleaded guilty, the sentencing proceeding shall be conducted before a jury impaneled for that purpose, unless waived by the defendant. In the proceeding, evidence may be presented as to any matter that the court deems relevant to the nature of the crime and the character of the defendant and shall include matters relating to any of the aggravating or mitigating circumstances enumerated in subsections (5) and (6). Any such evidence which the court deems to have probative value may be received, regardless of its admissibility under the exclusionary rules of evidence, provided the defendant is accorded a fair opportunity to rebut any hearsay statements. However, this subsection shall not be construed to authorize the introduction of any evidence secured in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution of the State of Florida. The state and the defendant or his counsel shall be permitted to present argument for or against sentence of death.

(2) ADVISORY SENTENCE BY THE JURY.—After hearing all the evidence, the jury shall deliberate and render an advisory sentence to the court, based upon the following matters:

(a) Whether sufficient aggravating circumstances exist as enumerated in subsection (5);

(b) Whether sufficient mitigating circumstances exist which outweigh the aggravating circumstances found to exist; and

(c) Based on these considerations, whether the defendant should be sentenced to life imprisonment or death.

(3) FINDINGS IN SUPPORT OF SENTENCE OF DEATH.—Notwithstanding the recommendation of a majority of the jury, the court, after weighing the aggravating and mitigating circumstances, shall enter a sentence of life imprisonment or death, but if the court imposes a sentence of death, it shall set forth in writing its findings upon which the sentence of death is based as to the facts:

(a) That sufficient aggravating circumstances exist as enumerated in subsection (5), and

(b) That there are insufficient mitigating circumstances to outweigh the aggravating circumstances.

In each case in which the court imposes the death sentence, the determination of the court shall be supported by specific written findings of fact based upon the circumstances in subsections (5) and (6) and upon the records of the trial and the sentencing proceedings. If the court does not make the findings requiring the death sentence, the court shall impose sentence of life imprisonment in accordance with s. 775.082.

(4) REVIEW OF JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE.—The judgment of conviction and sentence of death shall be subject to automatic review by the Supreme Court of Florida within 60 days after certification by the sentencing court of the entire record, unless the time is extended for an additional period not to exceed 30 days by the Supreme Court for good cause shown. Such review by the Supreme Court shall have priority over all other cases and shall be heard in accordance with rules promulgated by the supreme court.

(5) AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCES.—Aggravating circumstances shall be limited to the following:

(a) The capital felony was committed by a person under sentence of imprisonment.

(b) The defendant was previously convicted of another capital felony or of a felony involving the use or threat of violence to the person.

(c) The defendant knowingly created a great risk of death to many persons.

(d) The capital felony was committed while the defendant was engaged, or was an accomplice, in the commission of, or an attempt to commit, or flight after committing or attempting to commit, any robbery, rape, arson, burglary, kidnapping, or aircraft piracy or the unlawful throwing, placing, or discharging of a destructive device or bomb.

(e) The capital felony was committed for the purpose of avoiding or preventing a lawful arrest or effecting an escape from custody.

(f) The capital felony was committed for pecuniary gain.

(g) The capital felony was committed to disrupt or hinder the lawful exercise of any governmental function or the enforcement of laws.

(h) The capital felony was especially heinous, atrocious, or cruel.

(i) The capital felony was a homicide and was committed in a cold, calculated, and premeditated manner without any pretense of moral or legal justification.

(6) MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES.—Mitigating circumstances shall be the following:

(a) The defendant has no significant history of prior criminal activity.

(b) The capital felony was committed while the defendant was under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance.

(c) The victim was a participant in the defendant's conduct or consented to the act.

(d) The defendant was an accomplice in the capital felony committed by another person and his participation was relatively minor.

(e) The defendant acted under extreme duress or under the substantial domination of another person.

(f) The capacity of the defendant to appreciate the criminality of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law was substantially impaired.

(g) The age of the defendant at the time of the crime.

History.—s. 237a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(246); s. 119, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 72-72; s. 9, ch. 72-724; s. 1, ch. 74-379; s. 248, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 79-353.

Note.—Former s. 919.23.

921.143 Appearance of victim to make statement at sentencing hearing; submission of written statement.—

(1) At the sentencing hearing, and prior to the imposition of sentence upon any defendant who has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to any crime, the sentencing court shall permit the victim of the crime for which the defendant is being sentenced to:

(a) Appear before the sentencing court for the purpose of making a statement under oath for the record; or

(b) Submit a written statement under oath to the office of the state attorney, which shall be filed with the sentencing court.

(2) The state attorney or any assistant state attorney shall advise all victims that statements, whether oral or written, shall relate solely to the facts of the case and the extent of any injuries, financial losses, and loss of earnings directly resulting from the crime for which the defendant is being sentenced.

(3) The court may refuse to accept a negotiated plea and order the defendant to stand trial.

History.—ss. 9, 10, ch. 76-274.

921.15 Stay of execution of sentence to fine; bond and proceedings.—

(1) When a defendant is sentenced to pay a fine, he shall have the right to give bail for payment of the fine and the costs of prosecution. The bond shall be executed by the defendant and two sureties approved by the sheriff or the officer charged with execution of the judgment.

(2) The bond shall be made payable in 90 days to the governor and his successors in office.

(3) If the bond is not paid at the expiration of 90 days, the sheriff or the officer charged with execution of the judgment shall indorse the default on the bond and file it with the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered. The clerk shall issue an execution as if there had been a judgment at law on the bond, and the same proceedings shall be followed as in other executions. After default of the bond, the convicted person may be proceeded against as if bond had not been given.

History.—s. 260a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 8426, 8427; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(270); s. 123, ch. 70-339.

921.16 When sentences to be concurrent and when consecutive.—

(1) A defendant convicted of two or more offenses charged in the same indictment, information, or affidavit or in consolidated indictments, informations, or affidavits shall serve the sentences of imprisonment concurrently unless the court directs that two or more of the sentences be served consecutively. Sentences of imprisonment for offenses not charged in the same indictment, information, or affidavit shall be served consecutively unless the court directs that two or more of the sentences be served concurrently.

(2) A county court or circuit court of this state may direct that the sentence imposed by such court be served concurrently with a sentence imposed by a court of another state or of the United States. In such case, the Department of Corrections may designate the correctional institution of the other jurisdiction as the place for reception and confinement of such person and may also designate the place in Florida for reception and confinement of such person in the event that confinement in the other jurisdiction terminates before the expiration of the Florida sentence. Upon imposing such a sentence, the court shall notify the Florida Parole and Probation Commission as to the jurisdiction in which the sentence is to be served. Any prisoner so released to another jurisdiction shall be eligible for consideration for parole by the Florida Parole and Probation Commission pursuant to the provisions of chapter 947, except that the commission shall determine the presumptive parole release date and the effective parole release date by requesting such person's file from the receiving jurisdiction. Upon receiving such records, the commission shall determine these release dates based on the relevant information in that file and shall give credit toward reduction of the Florida sentence for gain-time granted by the jurisdiction where the inmate is serving the sentence. The Parole and Probation Commission may concur with the parole release decision of the jurisdiction granting parole and accepting supervision.

History.—s. 261, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(271); s. 124, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 78-219; s. 24, ch. 79-3; s. 12, ch. 79-42; s. 1, ch. 79-310.

921.161 Sentence not to run until imposed; credit for county jail time after sentence; certificate of sheriff.—

(1) A sentence of imprisonment shall not begin to run before the date it is imposed, but the court imposing a sentence shall allow a defendant credit for all of the time he spent in the county jail before sentence. The credit must be for a specified period of time and shall be provided for in the sentence.

(2) In addition to other credits, a person sentenced to imprisonment in custody of the Department of Corrections shall receive credit on his sentence for all time spent between sentencing and being placed in custody of the department. When delivering a prisoner to the department, the sheriff shall certify to it in writing:

(a) The date the sentence was imposed and the date the prisoner was delivered to the department.

(b) The dates of any periods after sentence the prisoner was at liberty on bond.

(c) The dates and reasons for any other times the prisoner was at liberty after sentence.

The certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts certified.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-457; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 125, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-441; s. 1, ch. 73-71; s. 14, ch. 77-120; s. 25, ch. 79-3.

921.18 Sentence for indeterminate period for noncapital felony.—The court in its discretion may sentence a defendant convicted of a noncapital felony to the custody of the Department of Corrections for an indeterminate period of 6 months to a maximum period of imprisonment. The maximum sentence may be less than the maximum prescribed by law, but shall not be less than the minimum, if any, prescribed for the offense. This section shall not apply to sentences imposed under s. 775.084 or any other statute providing for punishment of habitual criminals.

History.—ss. 2, 7-11, ch. 57-366; s. 1, ch. 59-109; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 1, ch. 63-306; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 126, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-441; s. 15, ch. 77-120; s. 26, ch. 79-3.

921.185 Sentence; restitution a mitigation in certain crimes.—In the imposition of a sentence for any felony or misdemeanor involving property, but not injury or opportunity for injury to persons, the court, in its discretion, shall consider any degree of restitution a mitigation of the severity of an otherwise appropriate sentence.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-125.

921.20 Classification summary; Parole and Probation Commission.—As soon as possible after a prisoner has been placed in the custody of the Department of Corrections, the classification board shall furnish a classification summary to the Parole and Probation Commission for use as provided in s. 947.14. The summary shall include the criminal, personal, social, and environmental background and other relevant factors considered in classifying the prisoner for a penal environment best suited for his rapid rehabilitation.

History.—ss. 3, 4, ch. 57-366; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 127, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-441; s. 16, ch. 77-120; s. 27, ch. 79-3.

921.21 Progress reports to Parole and Probation Commission.—From time to time the Department of Corrections shall submit to the Parole and Probation Commission progress reports and recommendations regarding prisoners sentenced under s. 921.18. When the classification board of the Department of Corrections determines that justice and the public welfare will best be served by paroling or discharging a prisoner, it shall transmit its finding to the Parole and Probation Commission. The commission shall have the authority to place the prisoner on parole as provided by law or give him a full discharge from custody. The period of a parole granted by the Parole and Probation Commission shall be in its discretion, but the parole period shall not exceed the maximum term for which the prisoner was sentenced.

History.—s. 5, ch. 57-366; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 128, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-441; s. 28, ch. 79-3.

921.22 Determination of exact period of imprisonment by Parole and Probation Commission.—Upon the recommendation of the Department of Corrections, the Parole and Probation Commission shall have the authority to determine the exact period of imprisonment to be served by defendants sentenced under the provisions of s. 921.18, but a prisoner shall not be held in custody longer than the maximum sentence provided for the offense.

History.—s. 6, ch. 57-366; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 129, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-441; s. 17, ch. 77-120; s. 29, ch. 79-3.

921.231 Presentence investigation reports.—

(1) Any circuit court of the state, when the defendant in a criminal felony case has been found guilty or has entered a plea of nolo contendere or guilty, shall, and in misdemeanor cases in its discretion may, refer the case to the Department of Corrections for investigation and recommendation. It shall be the duty of the department to make a report in writing to the circuit court at a specified time prior to sentencing, depending upon the circumstances of the offender and the offense. Said report shall include:

(a) A complete description of the situation surrounding the criminal activity with which the offender has been charged, including a synopsis of the trial transcript, if one has been made, and, at the offender's discretion, his version and explanation of the act.

(b) The offender's educational background.

(c) The offender's employment background, including any military record, his present employment status, and his occupational capabilities.

(d) The social history of the offender, including his family relationships, marital status, interests, and related activities.

(e) The residence history of the offender.

(f) The offender's medical history and, as appropriate, a psychological or psychiatric evaluation.

(g) Information about the environments to which the offender might return or to which he could be sent should a sentence of nonincarceration or community supervision be imposed by the court.

(h) Information about any resources available to assist the offender, such as:

1. Treatment centers.
2. Residential facilities.
3. Vocational training programs.
4. Special education programs.
5. Services that may preclude or supplement commitment to the department.

(i) The views of the person preparing the report as to the offender's motivations and ambitions and an assessment of the offender's explanations for his criminal activity.

(j) An explanation of the offender's criminal record, if any, including his version and explanation of any previous offenses.

(k) A recommendation as to disposition by the court. It shall be the duty of the department to make a written determination as to the reasons for its recommendation. The department shall include an evaluation of the following factors:

1. The appropriateness or inappropriateness of community facilities, programs, or services for treatment or supervision.

2. The ability or inability of the department to provide an adequate level of supervision for the offender in the community and a statement of what constitutes an adequate level of supervision.

3. The existence of other treatment modalities which the offender could use but which do not exist at present in the community.

(2) In those instances in which a presentence investigation report has been previously compiled, the department may elect to complete a short-form report updating the above information.

(3) All information in the presentence investigation report should be factually presented and verified if reasonably possible by the preparer of the report. On examination at the sentencing hearing, the preparer of the report, if challenged on the issue of verification, shall bear the burden of explaining why it was not possible to verify the challenged information.

(4) The nonconfidential portion of the presentence investigation shall constitute the basic classification and evaluation document of the Department of Corrections and shall contain a recommendation to the court on the treatment program most appropriate to the diagnosed needs of the offender, based upon the offender's custody classification, rehabilitative requirements, and the utilization of treatment resources in proximity to the offender's home environment.

History.—s. 8, ch. 74-112; s. 12, ch. 75-49; s. 2, ch. 75-301; s. 18, ch. 77-120; s. 30, ch. 79-3.

921.241 Felony judgments; fingerprints required in record.—

(1) Every judgment of guilty or not guilty of a felony shall be in writing, signed by the judge, and recorded by the clerk of the court. The judge shall cause to be affixed to every written judgment of guilty of a felony, in open court and in the presence of such judge, the fingerprints of the defendant against whom such judgment is rendered. Such fingerprints shall be affixed beneath the judge's signature to such judgment. Beneath such fingerprints shall be appended a certificate to the following effect:

"I hereby certify that the above and foregoing fingerprints on this judgment are the fingerprints of the defendant, ....., and that they were placed thereon by said defendant in my presence, in open court, this the ..... day of ....., 19....."

Such certificate shall be signed by the judge, whose signature thereto shall be followed by the word "Judge."

(2) Any such written judgment of guilty of a felony, or a certified copy thereof, shall be admissible in evidence in the several courts of this state as prima facie evidence that the fingerprints appearing thereon and certified by the judge as aforesaid are the fingerprints of the defendant against whom such judgment of guilty of a felony was rendered.

CHAPTER 922

EXECUTION

- 922.02 Execution of sentence imposing fine.
- 922.04 Discharge of prisoner unable to pay fine.
- 922.051 Imprisonment in county jail, term of 1 year or less.
- 922.06 Stay of execution of death sentence.
- 922.07 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be insane.
- 922.08 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be pregnant.
- 922.09 Capital cases.
- 922.10 Execution of death sentence.
- 922.11 Regulation of execution.
- 922.111 Transfer to state prison for safekeeping before death warrant issued.
- 922.12 Return of warrant of execution issued by Governor.
- 922.14 Sentence of death unexecuted for unjustifiable reasons.
- 922.15 Return of warrant of execution issued by Supreme Court.

922.02 Execution of sentence imposing fine.—Execution on a sentence imposing a fine may be issued in the same manner as execution on a judgment in a civil action, whether or not the sentence also imposes imprisonment.

History.—s. 263, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(273); s. 7, ch. 22000, 1943; s. 130, ch. 70-339.

922.04 Discharge of prisoner unable to pay fine.—When the court determines on the written application of a prisoner that he has been imprisoned for 60 days solely for failure to pay a fine or costs which total not more than $300 and that the prisoner is indigent and unable to pay the fine or costs, the court shall order the prisoner discharged from custody.

History.—s. 265, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(275); s. 1, ch. 29661, 1955; s. 131, ch. 70-339.

922.051 Imprisonment in county jail, term of 1 year or less.—When a statute expressly directs that imprisonment be in a state prison, the court may impose a sentence of imprisonment in the county jail if the total of the prisoner's cumulative sentences is not more than 1 year.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-72; s. 1, ch. 61-168; s. 1, ch. 67-241; s. 132, ch. 70-339.

922.06 Stay of execution of death sentence.—The execution of a death sentence may be stayed only by the Governor or incident to an appeal.

History.—s. 267, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(277); s. 133, ch. 70-339.

922.07 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be insane.—

(1) When the Governor is informed that a person under sentence of death may be insane, he shall stay execution of the sentence and appoint a commission of three psychiatrists to examine the convicted person. The Governor shall notify the psychiatrists in writing that they are to examine the convicted person to determine whether he understands the nature and effect of the death penalty and why it is to be imposed upon him. The examination of the convicted person shall take place with all three psychiatrists present at the same time. Counsel for the convicted person and the State Attorney may be present at the examination. If the convicted person does not have counsel, the court that imposed the sentence shall appoint counsel to represent him.

(2) After receiving the report of the commission, if the Governor decides that the convicted person has the mental capacity to understand the nature of the death penalty and the reasons why it was imposed upon him, he shall issue a warrant to the warden directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in the warrant.

(3) If the Governor decides that the convicted person does not have the mental capacity to understand the nature of the death penalty and why it was imposed on him, he shall have him committed to the state hospital for the insane.

(4) When a person under sentence of death has been committed to the state hospital for the insane, he shall be kept there until the proper official of the hospital determines that he has been restored to sanity. The hospital official shall notify the Governor of his determination, and the Governor shall appoint another commission to proceed as provided in subsection (1).

(5) The Governor shall allow reasonable fees to psychiatrists appointed under the provisions of this section which shall be paid by the state.

History.—s. 268, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(278); s. 134, ch. 70-339.

922.08 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be pregnant.—

(1) When the Governor is informed that a person under sentence of death may be pregnant, he shall stay execution of the sentence and appoint a qualified physician to examine the convicted person and determine if she is pregnant.

(2) After receiving the report of the physician, if the Governor determines that the convicted person is not pregnant, he shall issue a warrant to the warden directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in the warrant.

(3) If the Governor determines that a convicted person whose execution has been stayed because of pregnancy is no longer pregnant, he shall issue a warrant to the warden directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in the warrant.

(4) The Governor shall allow a reasonable fee to the physician appointed under the provisions of this section which shall be paid by the state.

History.—s. 269, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(279); s. 135, ch. 70-339.

922.09 Capital cases.—When a person is sentenced to death, the clerk of the court shall prepare a certified copy of the record of the conviction and sentence, and the sheriff shall send the record to the Governor. The sentence shall not be executed until the Governor issues a warrant, attaches it to the copy of the record, and transmits it to the warden, directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in the warrant.

History.—s. 270, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(280); s. 136, ch. 70-339.

922.10 Execution of death sentence.—A death sentence shall be executed by electrocution. The warden of the state prison shall designate the executioner. The warrant authorizing the execution shall be read to the convicted person immediately before execution.

History.—s. 271, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(281); ss. 19, 22, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 137, ch. 70-339.

922.11 Regulation of execution.—

(1) The superintendent of the state prison or a deputy designated by him shall be present at the execution. The superintendent shall set the day for execution within the week designated by the Governor in the warrant.

(2) Twelve citizens selected by the superintendent shall witness the execution. A qualified physician shall be present and announce when death has been inflicted. Counsel for the convicted person and ministers of religion requested by the convicted person may be present. Representatives of news media may be present under rules approved by the Secretary of Corrections. All other persons, except prison officers and guards, shall be excluded during the execution.

(3) The body of the executed person shall be prepared for burial and, if requested, delivered at the prison gates to relatives of the deceased. If a coffin has not been provided by relatives, the body shall be delivered in a plain coffin. If the body is not claimed by relatives, it shall be given to physicians who have requested it for dissection or to be disposed of in the same manner as are bodies of prisoners dying in the state prison.

History.—s. 272, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(282); s. 1, ch. 20520, 1941; s. 1, ch. 59-90; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 138, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 77-189; s. 31, ch. 79-3.

922.111 Transfer to state prison for safekeep- ing before death warrant issued.—The sheriff shall deliver a person sentenced to death to the state prison to await the death warrant. A circuit judge of the circuit in which a death sentence was imposed may order the convicted person transferred to the state prison before the issuance of a warrant of execution if he determines that the transfer is necessary for the safekeeping of the prisoner.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-215; s. 139, ch. 70-339.

922.12 Return of warrant of execution issued by Governor.—After the death sentence has been executed, the warden of the state prison shall return to the Governor the warrant and a signed statement of the execution. The warden shall file an attested copy of the warrant and statement with the clerk of the court that imposed the sentence.

History.—s. 273, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(283); s. 140, ch. 70-339.

922.14 Sentence of death unexecuted for unjustifiable reasons.—If a death sentence is not executed because of unjustified failure of the Governor to issue a warrant, or for any other unjustifiable reason, on application of the Department of Legal Affairs, the Supreme Court shall issue a warrant directing the sentence to be executed during a week designated in the warrant.

History.—s. 275, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(285); ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 141, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 70-439.

922.15 Return of warrant of execution issued by Supreme Court.—After the sentence has been executed pursuant to a warrant issued by the Supreme Court, the warden of the state prison shall return to the Supreme Court the warrant and a signed statement of the execution. The warden shall file an attested copy of the warrant and statement with the clerk of the court that imposed the sentence. The warden shall send to the Governor an attested copy of the warrant and statement.

History.—s. 276, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(286); s. 142, ch. 70-339.

CHAPTER 923

FORM OF INDICTMENT AND OTHER FORMS

- 923.01 Criminal report.
 923.02 Notice of setting case for trial.
 923.03 Indictment and information.

923.01 Criminal report.—Each committing magistrate at the time commitment papers are sent by him to the proper trial court, and the sheriff when an arrest is made, other than on a capias, shall transmit to the prosecuting attorney of the trial court having jurisdiction, a report in the following form:

.....
 (Prosecuting Officer)

If such rule is adopted by any court and the rule is not complied with by the clerk the failure so to comply with the rule shall not constitute reversible error nor affect the obligations of the bond.

History.—s. 278, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(288).

923.03 Indictment and information.—

(1) The following forms of indictment and information, in all cases to which they are applicable, shall be deemed sufficient, as a charge of the offense to which they relate as defined by the laws of this state, and analogous forms may be used in all other cases:

(a) As to first degree murder:

In the name and by the authority of the State of Florida: The Grand Jurors of the County of ..... charge that A. B. unlawfully and from a premeditated design to effect the death of ..... (or while robbing the house of ..... as the case may be) did murder ..... in said county, by shooting him with a gun or pistol (or by striking him with a club—or by giving him poison to drink—or by pushing him into the water whereby he was drowned).

(b) As to second degree murder:

Unlawfully by an act imminently dangerous to another, and evincing a depraved mind, regardless of human life; that is to say, by firing his shotgun into the store of ..... (or by striking ..... with an adz, as the case may be) but without a premeditated design to effect the death of any particular person, did kill ..... in said county.

(c) As to third degree murder:

Unlawfully, and while feloniously stealing cattle (or timber, or while feloniously assaulting ..... as the case may be), but without any design to effect death, did kill ..... in said county, by sinking his boat (or by running over him with an automobile—or by shooting him with a gun or pistol, as the case may be).

(d) As to manslaughter:

Unlawfully and by culpable negligence, in driving an automobile (or firing a boiler—or by performing a surgical operation) or (in the heat of passion—omitting in this latter case the allegation of culpable negligence), but without intent to murder, did kill ..... in said county, by running over him with said automobile (or by causing said boiler to explode—or by infecting him with a deadly infection—or by striking him with a hammer).

(e) As to perjury:

In the hearing of a cause in the ..... court of ..... County, Florida, in which ..... and others were plaintiffs and ..... others were defendants, after being duly sworn to speak the truth, falsely swore, etc. (stating the substance of the false testimony) such matter being material in said cause, and the said ..... then and there knowing that he swore falsely.

(2) An information shall be in the same form and signed by the State Attorney who shall also append thereto the oath of the State Attorney to the effect following:

Personally appeared before me ..... (official title of state attorney) who, being first duly sworn, says that the allegations as set forth in the foregoing information are based upon facts that have been sworn to as true and which, if true, would constitute the offense therein charged.

The affidavit shall be made by the State Attorney before some person qualified to administer an oath.

- 924.37 Order or decision when state appeals.
- 924.38 When removal shall be allowed on new trial.

924.02 Who may appeal.—The defendant or the state may appeal in criminal cases.

History.—s. 281, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(291); s. 143, ch. 70-339.

924.04 Appeal by one of several defendants.—One or more defendants who are tried jointly may appeal, but those who do not join shall not be affected by the appeal except by express provision of the appellate court.

History.—s. 283, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(293); s. 145, ch. 70-339.

924.05 Appeal as matter of right.—Appeals provided for in this chapter are a matter of right.

History.—s. 284, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(294); s. 146, ch. 70-339.

924.06 Appeal by defendant.—

- (1) A defendant may appeal from:
  - (a) A final judgment of conviction when probation has not been granted under chapter 948, except as provided in subsection (3);
  - (b) An order granting probation under chapter 948;
  - (c) An order revoking probation under chapter 948; or
  - (d) A sentence, on the ground that it is illegal.
- (2) An appeal of an order granting probation shall proceed in the same manner and have the same effect as an appeal of a judgment of conviction. An appeal of an order revoking probation may review only proceedings after the order of probation. If a judgment of conviction preceded an order of probation, the defendant may appeal from the order or the judgment or both.

(3) A defendant who pleads guilty or nolo contendere with no express reservation of the right to appeal shall have no right to a direct appeal. Such a defendant shall obtain review by means of collateral attack.

History.—s. 285, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(295); s. 22, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 3, ch. 59-130; s. 147, ch. 70-339; s. 7, ch. 76-274.

924.065 Denial of motion for new trial or arrest of judgment; appeal bond; supersedeas.—

(1) Immediately after denial of a motion for a new trial or a motion in arrest of judgment, the court shall dictate the denial to the court reporter and sentence the defendant. The defendant may file notice of appeal following denial of the motion and sentencing. Upon filing of notice of appeal, the court shall set the amount of the appeal bond if the defendant is entitled to bail. The clerk shall prepare a certificate setting forth the filing and approval of the supersedeas bond, and the certificate shall be sufficient authority for release of the defendant.

(2) An appeal shall not be a supersedeas to the execution of the judgment, sentence, or order until the appellant has entered into a bond with at least two sureties to secure the payment of the judgment, fine, and any future costs that may be adjudged by the appellate court. The bond shall be conditioned on the appellant's personally answering and abiding by the final order, sentence, or judgment of the appellate court and, if the action is remanded, on the appellant's appearing at the next term of the court in which the case was originally determined and not departing without leave of court.

(3) An appellant who has been sentenced to death shall not be released on bail.

History.—s. 239, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(248); s. 120, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former s. 920.02.

924.07 Appeal by state.—The state may appeal from:

- (1) An order dismissing an indictment or information or any count thereof;
- (2) An order granting a new trial;
- (3) An order arresting judgment;
- (4) A ruling on a question of law when the defendant is convicted and appeals from the judgment;
- (5) The sentence, on the ground that it is illegal;
- (6) A judgment discharging a prisoner on habeas corpus;
- (7) An order adjudicating a defendant insane under the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure; or
- (8) All other pretrial orders, except that it may not take more than one appeal under this subsection in any case.

Such appeal shall embody all assignments of error in each pretrial order that the state seeks to have reviewed. The state shall pay all costs of such appeal except for the defendant's attorney's fee.

History.—s. 286, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(296); s. 1, ch. 69-15; s. 148, ch. 70-339.

924.071 Additional grounds for appeal by the state; time for taking; stay of cause.—

(1) The state may appeal from a pretrial order dismissing a search warrant, suppressing evidence obtained by search and seizure, or suppressing a confession or admission made by a defendant. The appeal must be taken before the trial.

(2) An appeal by the state from a pretrial order shall stay the case against each defendant upon whose application the order was made until the appeal is determined. If the trial court determines that the evidence, confession, or admission that is the subject of the order would materially assist the state in proving its case against another defendant and that the prosecuting attorney intends to use it for that purpose, the court shall stay the case of that defendant until the appeal is determined. A defendant in custody whose case is stayed either automatically or by order of the court shall be released on his own recognizance pending the appeal if he is charged with a bailable offense.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 67-123; s. 1, ch. 69-267; s. 149, ch. 70-339.

924.08 Courts of appeal.—

(1) Appeals from final judgments imposing the death penalty, passing upon the validity of a state or federal statute, or construing a controlling provision of the State or Federal Constitution shall be to the supreme court.

(2) Appeals from final judgments in all other cases in which the Circuit Court has original jurisdiction and from all other final judgments except those which may be appealed directly to the Supreme Court or a Circuit Court shall be to the District Court of Appeal.

(3) Appeals from final judgments in misdemeanor cases tried by County Courts shall be to the Circuit Court.

History.—s. 287, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(297); s. 35, ch. 63-559; s. 150, ch. 70-339; s. 40, ch. 73-334.

924.09 When appeal to be taken by defendant.—An appeal may be taken by the defendant only within the time provided by the Florida Appellate Rules after the judgment, sentence, or order appealed from is entered, except that an appeal by a person who has not been granted probation may be taken from both judgment and sentence within the time provided by said rules after the sentence is entered.

History.—s. 288, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(298); s. 4, ch. 59-130; s. 1, ch. 69-267.

924.14 Stay of execution when defendant appeals.—An appeal by a defendant from either the judgment or sentence shall stay execution of the sentence, subject to the provisions of s. 924.065.

History.—s. 293a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(303); s. 151, ch. 70-339.

924.15 Approval of appeal bonds.—Appeal bonds shall be approved by the court which originally determined the action and shall be filed with the clerk of that court.

History.—s. 293b, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(304); s. 152, ch. 70-339.

924.16 Discharge pending appeal.—If a defendant is in custody after judgment of conviction at the time of appeal, the appeal and supersedeas shall not discharge him from custody. The court appealed from or a judge of the appellate court may order the defendant released on bail in cases that are bailable.

History.—s. 293c, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(305); s. 153, ch. 70-339.

924.17 Costs when appellant is indigent.—If the court determines that the defendant is indigent and unable to pay costs, the appeal shall be a supersedeas without payment of costs.

History.—s. 293d, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(306); s. 1, ch. 28009, 1953; s. 154, ch. 70-339.

924.18 Bail when state appeals.—If the state appeals after a conviction of the defendant, a justice or judge of the appellate or trial court may in his discretion admit the defendant to bail.

History.—s. 294, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(307); s. 155, ch. 70-339.

924.19 When operation of order in favor of defendant not stayed.—An appeal by the state shall not stay the operation of an order in favor of the defendant except as provided in s. 924.071(2), or when the appeal is from an order granting a new trial.

History.—s. 295, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(308); s. 155, ch. 70-339.

924.20 Duty of court upon breach of undertaking.—When an appellant at liberty on bail fails to prosecute the appeal as required by the undertaking, the appellate court, in addition to declaring the bond forfeited, may dismiss the appeal and remand the case for further proceedings.

History.—s. 296, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(309); s. 156, ch. 70-339.

924.22 Stay when execution of sentence already commenced.—A defendant who is in custody and has started serving a sentence before an appeal may elect to continue to serve the sentence during the pendency of the appeal even though he may be eligible for bail.

History.—s. 298, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(311); s. 157, ch. 70-339.

924.28 Failure of clerk to transmit appeal papers as required.—Failure of the clerk to transmit appeal papers within the time provided shall not prejudice the rights of the parties. The appellate court or trial court may direct the clerk to transmit the papers on its own motion and shall do so on the motion of either party.

History.—s. 304, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(317); s. 158, ch. 70-339.

924.31 When argument necessary.—A judgment may be affirmed if the appellant fails to argue, but it shall not be reversed unless the appellant submits a written brief or makes oral argument.

History.—s. 307, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(320); s. 159, ch. 70-339.

924.33 When judgment not to be reversed or modified.—No judgment shall be reversed unless the appellate court is of the opinion, after an examination of all the appeal papers, that error was committed that injuriously affected the substantial rights of the appellant. It shall not be presumed that error injuriously affected the substantial rights of the appellant.

History.—s. 309, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(322); s. 160, ch. 70-339.

924.34 When evidence sustains only conviction of lesser offense.—When the appellate court determines that the evidence does not prove the offense for which the defendant was found guilty but does establish his guilt of a lesser statutory degree of the offense or a lesser offense necessarily included in the offense charged, the appellate court shall reverse the judgment and direct the trial court to enter judgment for the lesser degree of the offense or for the lesser included offense.

History.—s. 310, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(323); s. 161, ch. 70-339.

924.35 Enforcement of judgment on affirm- ance.—When the judgment against the defendant is affirmed, the judgment shall be enforced by the trial court.

History.—s. 311, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(324); s. 162, ch. 70-339.

924.37 Order or decision when state appeals.—

(1) When the state appeals from an order dismissing an indictment, information, or affidavit, or a count of it, or an order granting a new trial and the order is affirmed, the appellate court shall direct the trial court to implement the order. If an order dismissing an indictment, information, or affidavit, or a count of it, is reversed, the appellate court shall direct the trial court to permit the defendant to be tried on the reinstated indictment, information, or affidavit. If an order granting a new trial is reversed, the appellate court shall direct that judgment of conviction be entered against the defendant.

(2) When the state appeals from a ruling on a question of law adverse to the state, the appellate court shall decide the question.

History.—s. 313, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(326); s. 163, ch. 70-339.

924.38 When removal shall be allowed on new trial.—When the appellate court orders a new trial, it shall be held in the court from which the appeal was taken unless the appellate court determines that the trial court improperly denied the defendant's application for removal of the original trial. If the appellate court determines that removal is proper, it shall designate the court for the new trial.

History.—s. 314, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(327); s. 164, ch. 70-339.

CHAPTER 925

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

- 925.035 Appointment and compensation of an attorney in capital cases; appeals from judgments imposing the death penalty.
- 925.036 Appointed counsel; compensation.
- 925.05 Statements or confessions; availability to defendant.
- 925.06 Sale or destruction of unclaimed personal property in criminal proceedings.
- 925.07 Parent or guardian to be notified before trial of minor; service of notice.
- 925.08 Prisoners awaiting trial may be worked on roads.
- 925.09 Authority of state attorney to order autopsies.
- 925.10 Procedure when court has reasonable ground to believe defendant is incompetent to stand trial.

925.035 Appointment and compensation of an attorney in capital cases; appeals from judgments imposing the death penalty.—

(1) If the court determines that the defendant in a capital case is insolvent and desires counsel, it shall appoint an attorney to represent the defendant. If the court appoints an attorney other than the public defender, the attorney shall be allowed reasonable compensation for representing the defendant, as determined by the court. In addition to such compensation, a reasonable amount shall be allowed for the cost of investigation and preparation of the case.

(2) If the defendant is convicted and the death sentence imposed, the appointed attorney shall prosecute an appeal to the Supreme Court. The attorney shall be allowed reasonable compensation for the appeal, as determined by the court. If the attorney first appointed is unable to prosecute the appeal, the court shall appoint another attorney and allow reasonable compensation therefor, as determined by the court.

(3) If there is a second trial of the same case, the appointed attorney shall be allowed reasonable compensation for the defense at the trial.

(4) If the death sentence is imposed, and affirmed on appeal to the Supreme Court, the appointed attorney shall be allowed reasonable compensation, not to exceed $1,000, for attorney's fees and costs incurred in representing the defendant as to an application for executive clemency, such compensation to be paid out of general revenue from funds budgeted to the Department of Offender Rehabilitation. The public defender or an attorney appointed pursuant to this section may be appointed by the trial court that rendered the judgment imposing the death penalty, to represent an indigent defendant who has applied for executive clemency as relief from the execution of the judgment imposing the death penalty.

(5) When the appointed attorney in capital cases has completed the duties imposed by this section, he shall file a written report in the trial court stating the duties performed by him and apply for discharge.

(6) All compensation and costs provided for in this section, except as provided in subsection (4), shall be paid by the county in which the trial is held unless the trial was moved to that county on the ground that a fair and impartial trial could not be held in another county, in which event the compensation and costs shall be paid by the original county from which the cause was removed.

History.—s. 157, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(164); s. 1, ch. 29656, 1955; s. 1, ch. 67-502; s. 70, ch. 70-339; ss. 2, 4, ch. 76-287; s. 1, ch. 77-243.

Note.—Former s. 909.21.
cf.—s. 925.036 Appointed counsel; compensation.

925.036 Appointed counsel; compensation.—

An attorney appointed pursuant to s. 925.035 or s. 27.53 shall, at the conclusion of the representation, be compensated at an hourly rate fixed by the chief judge or senior judge of the circuit in an amount not to exceed the prevailing hourly rate for similar representation rendered in the circuit. Such attorney shall be reimbursed for expenses reasonably incurred, including the costs of transcripts authorized by the court. The compensation for representation shall not exceed the following per case per defendant:

(1) For misdemeanors and juveniles represented at the trial level: $500.

(2) For noncapital, nonlife felonies represented at the trial level: $1,500.

(3) For life felonies represented at the trial level: $2,000.

(4) For capital cases represented at the trial level: $2,500.

(5) For representation on appeal: $1,000.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-344.

925.05 Statements or confessions; availability to defendant.—On motion of the defendant after an indictment, information, or affidavit has been filed, the court shall order the prosecuting attorney to permit the defendant to photograph or copy any written or recorded statements or confessions of the defendant, whether they are signed or not. The order shall specify the time, place, and manner of taking the photographs or copies and any other conditions.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-263; s. 170, ch. 70-339.

925.06 Sale or destruction of unclaimed personal property in criminal proceedings.—

(1) Unclaimed personal property in custody of the court from a criminal proceeding, if of appreciable value, shall either be sold at public sale by the appropriate city or county law enforcement department or be retained by the appropriate department for departmental use, if such use is approved by the appropriate governmental authority having budgetary control over the department. If the property is to be sold, the notice, procedure, and department's fees for the sale shall be the same as provided for sales under execution by the sheriff. The proceeds shall be paid to any person making proper claim or, if unclaimed for 60 days, to the general fund of the governmental agency having budgetary control over the law enforcement department that originally took into its possession the personal property. If the property is retained by the law enforcement department for official use and is not claimed within 60 days after the conclusion of said criminal proceeding, title to said property shall permanently vest in the respective city, county, or state. If the property is not of appreciable value, the court may order the sheriff to destroy it.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to repeal or supersede the provisions of s. 790.08 relating to the disposition of weapons and firearms.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 63-180; s. 171, ch. 70-339; s. 3, ch. 78-150.

925.07 Parent or guardian to be notified before trial of minor; service of notice.—

(1) When an unmarried minor is charged with an offense before any court in this state, notice of the charge shall be given before trial to the parent or guardian of the minor if the name and address is known. If the name and address is not known, notice shall be given to any friend or relative designated by the minor.

(2) Notice required by this section may be made in the same manner as the service of summons. If the person to be notified is beyond the jurisdiction of the court, notice may be given by registered mail or telegram, and return of the service shall be made in the same manner as the return on a summons.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 62-21, 1911; RGS 6028; CGL 8322; s. 172, ch. 70-339; s. 1, ch. 77-119.

Note.—Former s. 932.38.
cf.—s. 1.01 Defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

s. 48.031 Service of process generally.

925.08 Prisoners awaiting trial may be worked on roads.—

(1) When the county commissioners decide it will be for the benefit of a prisoner and in the public interest, they may employ at labor on the streets of incorporated cities or towns, or on the roads, bridges, or other public works in the county, a person charged with a misdemeanor and confined in the county jail for failure to give bail.

(2) No person shall be employed under this section without his written consent.

(3) No person shall work more than 10 hours in a 24-hour period.

(4) If a person employed under this section is acquitted or discharged from further prosecution, he shall be paid by the county at the rate of $5 for each day he was employed.

(5) If a person employed under this section is convicted, the time he was actually employed may be credited on any sentence of imprisonment, and if he is fined, the value of the labor at $5 per day shall be credited to his fine and costs.

(6) No charge for food and lodging shall be made against a prisoner employed under this section.

(7) The county commissioners shall cause records to be kept of employment under this section, and a copy of the record shall be furnished to the court having jurisdiction of the prisoner.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 5260, 1903; GS 3945-3947; RGS 6047-6049; CGL 8348-8350; s. 173, ch. 70-339.

Note.—Former ss. 932.42-932.44.

925.09 Authority of state attorney to order autopsies.—The state attorney may have an autopsy performed, before or after interment, on a dead body found in the county when he decides it is necessary in determining whether or not death was the result of a crime. Physicians performing the autopsy shall be paid reasonable fees from the county fine and forfeiture fund upon the approval of the county commission and the state attorney ordering the autopsy.

History.—s. 1, ch. 28019, 1953; s. 1, ch. 57-311; s. 174, ch. 70-339; s. 42, ch. 73-334.

Note.—Former s. 932.57.

925.10 Procedure when court has reasonable ground to believe defendant is incompetent to stand trial.—If the court has reasonable ground to believe the defendant is incompetent to stand trial, pursuant to the provisions of s. 918.15, the court shall proceed as follows:

(1)(a) The court shall issue an order for the defendant to be examined by at least three expert witnesses to determine whether the defendant does or does not meet the criteria for involuntary hospitalization pursuant to s. 394.467(1) or the criteria for involuntary retardation residential services pursuant to s. 393.11. To the extent possible, at least one of the appointed experts shall be a state-employed psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician, if in the local vicinity; a psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician as designated by the district mental health board; or a community mental health center psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician. The examination shall be conducted prior to the transmittal of the defendant to a forensic unit of a state treatment facility. If the defendant requires security which the receiving facility cannot provide, the panel of experts may evaluate the defendant in jail or in another appropriate secure local facility. The receiving facility shall complete its court-ordered evaluation of the defendant within 5 days of receipt of the order.

(b) The court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant meets the criteria for involuntary hospitalization or residential services.

1. If the court finds the defendant meets the criteria for involuntary hospitalization or residential services, the court shall order the defendant committed to a Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services intake facility. The defendant shall be diagnosed and examined within 30 days of his admission to such facility to evaluate his competency to participate in his own defense. Appropriate treatment shall be provided to the defendant. Within the 30-day period, a hearing shall be held by the court of criminal jurisdiction to determine if the defendant is competent to participate in his own defense. The staff of the treatment facility may present testimony at the hearing on the defendant's competency to participate in his own defense. Other evidence concerning the defendant's mental condition for participating in his own defense may be introduced at the hearing by either party; provided that if the court orders an additional examination of the defendant prior to the hearing, it shall appoint at least three expert witnesses to evaluate and diagnose the competence of the defendant, and, to the extent possible, at least one of the experts shall be a psychiatrist or psychologist specified in paragraph (a).

a. If, at the hearing, the court determines the defendant competent to stand trial, the court shall proceed to trial.

b. If, at the hearing, the court determines the defendant incompetent to stand trial, the defendant shall be returned to the treatment facility for an additional stay not to exceed 60 days. Within the 60-day stay, another competency hearing shall be held. If, after three consecutive 60-day treatment periods, the defendant remains incompetent, the court may dismiss all charges and order an involuntary admission hearing as provided in s. 393.11 or s. 394.467. If the defendant is involuntarily admitted, prior to releasing the defendant, the administrator of the facility shall notify the state attorney's office which was involved in the adjudication of the original criminal case.

2. If the court finds the defendant does not meet the criteria for hospitalization, the court shall appoint at least three expert witnesses for the purpose of evaluating and diagnosing the competence of the defendant. At least one of the experts shall be a psychiatrist or psychologist specified in paragraph (a). The court may utilize the experts who examined the defendant pursuant to paragraph (a) or the staff of the local mental health receiving facility as expert witnesses whenever possible. The clerk shall notify the prosecuting attorney and counsel for the defendant of such appointments and shall give the names and addresses of experts so appointed. Other evidence concerning the defendant's competence may be introduced at the hearing by either party. The hearing shall be held within 5 days of the appointment of the experts. If the defendant is not in custody, the court may order that he be taken into custody until a determination of his competency can be made. If the court is satisfied that evaluation is necessary but that the defendant need not be taken into custody for such evaluation, the court may order the defendant to appear at a designated place for evaluation at a specific time.

a. If, at the hearing, the court determines the defendant competent to stand trial, the court shall proceed to trial.

b. If, at the hearing, the court determines the defendant incompetent to stand trial, the defendant may be released on reasonable bail or on other appropriate release conditions for a period not to exceed 6 months. The court may order that the defendant receive outpatient treatment at an appropriate local facility to restore the defendant's competency. The court shall conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant has regained his competency within 30 days of the initial commitment and every 60 days thereafter until the defendant either regains his competency to proceed with trial or until the defendant has received outpatient services for 6 months. If at the end of the 6-month period the defendant remains incompetent, the court may dismiss all charges against the defendant.

(c) If the defendant is declared incompetent to stand trial and the criminal charges are dismissed, and he is later declared competent to stand trial, his other incompleted trial shall not constitute former jeopardy. The statute of limitations applicable to the criminal charges which are dismissed shall be tolled during the period the person is declared incompetent to stand trial.

(2) An adjudication of incompetency to stand trial shall not operate as an adjudication of incompetency for purposes of civil proceedings unless such adjudication is specifically set forth in the order, in which case a guardian of the person shall be appointed.

(3) Expert witnesses appointed by the court pursuant to this section to determine the mental condition of a defendant in a criminal case shall be allowed reasonable fees for services rendered as witnesses, which shall be paid by the county where the indictment was found or the information or affidavit was filed. State employees shall be paid expenses pursuant to s. 112.061. The fees shall be taxed as costs in the case.

932.45 Proceedings on estreat of bond; sureties to be called.—When any bond is taken for the appearance of any person charged with a criminal offense before any court in this state, and such person fails to attend said court as prescribed in the bond, the presiding judge of said court shall cause the sureties on the bond to be called upon to produce the body of the person for whose appearance they have given bond.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4403, 1895; GS 3949; RGS 6051; CGL 8352. cf.—s. 903.26 Directing forfeiture of bond.

932.46 Same; certificate of judge.—When the sureties have been called as required in this chapter, and have failed to produce the body of the person for whose appearance the bond has been given, the presiding judge of the court shall, during said term of court, or as soon thereafter as possible make and sign a certificate setting forth the facts of the giving of the bond, the breach of its conditions, and the failure of the sureties thereon to produce the body of the defendant, which certificate, under the hand of the judge of said court, shall, in any court in this state, have all the force and validity of other record evidence, and shall be prima facie proof of all the facts set forth therein, and shall be substantially as follows:

In ..... Court for ..... County

vs.
A ..... B .....
(Affidavit) or (Information) or (Indictment) as the case may be.
This is to certify that the said A ..... B ..... together with C ..... D ....., and E ..... F ....., agreed to pay the State of Florida ..... dollars unless the said A ..... B ..... should appear at this term of the ..... Court, for ..... County, to answer the charge in this case; that the said A ..... B ..... has failed to appear in this court to answer said charge, and that the sureties have been called upon and have failed to produce the body of said A ..... B ..... in this court, as their bond requires. In witness whereof, I have on this the ..... day of ..... A. D. 19..... made and signed this certificate.

(Signed) G ..... H .....
Judge ..... Court
For ..... County.

The certificate, together with the bond shall be by the judge of said court forthwith transmitted to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county, where said bond is made payable, who shall give his receipt for the same.

History.—s. 2, ch. 4403, 1895; GS 3950; RGS 6052; CGL 8353; s. 42, ch. 73-334.

932.47 Indictments and informations; informations filed by prosecuting attorney.—Informations may be filed by the prosecuting attorney of the Circuit Court with the Clerk of the Circuit Court in vacation or in term without leave of the court first being obtained.

History.—s. 1, ch. 17172, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 8363(1).

932.48 Same; duties of clerks of courts.—Upon the filing of an information, the Clerk of the Circuit Court shall docket the information and shall, without leave or order of the court first being had and obtained, issue a capias for the arrest of the person charged; and the clerk shall likewise issue any and all other necessary process incident to the information.

History.—s. 2, ch. 17172, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 8363(1).

932.49 Same; failure of motor vehicle operators to stop and assist persons injured; form of information.—Informations and indictments under ss. 316.062 and 316.063 shall be deemed sufficient if made in substantially the following form:

"That one A. B. while operating or being in charge of a motor vehicle then and there being driven along the ..... thoroughfare in ..... County, Florida, did strike and injure or put in jeopardy the person or property (as the case may be, giving details sufficient to identify the occurrence) of one ..... (or unknown as the case may be) and without stopping to render aid to the persons injured or put in jeopardy thereby or (without making known to the persons present his full, true and correct name and address as the case may be) did unlawfully depart from the scene of such accident contrary to the statute in such case made and provided."

History.—s. 3, ch. 13699, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 8374(1); s. 182, ch. 73-333.

932.50 Evidence necessary in treason.—No person shall be convicted of treason except by the testimony of two lawful witnesses to the same overt act of treason for which he is prosecuted, unless he confess the same in open court.

History.—s. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2909; GS 3980; RGS 6082; CGL 8387.
cf.—Ch. 876 Criminal anarchy, treason, and other crimes against the public order.

932.51 Execution on affirmance of judgment.—Upon the affirmance of a judgment, sentence or order, the appellate court shall order and direct the court in which the case was originally determined to carry into effect the original judgment, sentence or order, or the appellate court shall itself proceed to pass such judgment, sentence or order as to it shall seem proper.

History.—s. 5, ch. 138, 1848; RS 2978; GS 4051; RGS 6155; CGL 8469. cf.—s. 924.35 Enforcement of judgment on affirmance.

932.58 Forfeiture of charter and revocation of permit.—The Department of Legal Affairs is authorized to institute civil proceedings in the circuit court to forfeit the charter of a corporation organized under the laws of this state or to revoke the permit authorizing a foreign corporation to conduct business in this state, when:

(1) Any of the corporation officers or any other person controlling the management or operation of such corporation, with the knowledge of the president and a majority of the board of directors or under such circumstances wherein the president and a majority of the board of directors should have knowledge, is a person or persons engaged in activities such as organized violent revolutionary or unlawful activity aimed at the overthrow of the government of the state or any of its political subdivisions, institutions, or agencies, organized homosexuality, organized crimes against nature, organized prostitution, organized gambling, organized narcotics, organized extortion, or organized embezzlement, or who is connected, directly or indirectly, with organizations, syndicates, or criminal societies engaging in such activities; or

(2) A director, officer, employee, agent, or stockholder, acting for, through or on behalf of such corporation, has, in conducting the corporation's affairs, purposely engaged in a persistent course of violent revolutionary or unlawful activity aimed at the overthrow of the government of the state or any of its political subdivisions, institutions or agencies, homosexuality, crimes against nature, intimidation and coercion, bribery, prostitution, gambling, extortion, embezzlement, unlawful sale of narcotics, or other such illegal conduct, with the knowledge of the president and a majority of the board of directors or under such circumstances wherein the president and a majority of the board of directors should have knowledge, with the intent to compel or induce other persons, firms or corporations to deal with such corporation or engage in any such illegal conduct, and for the prevention of future illegal conduct of the same character, the public interest requires the charter of the corporation to be forfeited and the corporation to be dissolved or the permit to be revoked.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-272; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106.

932.59 Enjoining operation of a business.—The Department of Legal Affairs is authorized to institute civil proceedings in the circuit court to enjoin the operation of any business other than a corporation, including a partnership, joint venture, or sole proprietorship, when:

(1) Any person in control of any such business, who may be a partner in a partnership, a participant in a joint venture, the owner of a sole proprietorship, an employee or agent of any such business, or a person who, in fact, exercises control over the operations of any such business, has, in conducting its business affairs, purposely engaged in a persistent course of violent revolutionary or unlawful activity aimed at the overthrow of the government of the state or any of its political subdivisions, institutions or agencies, homosexuality, crimes against nature, intimidation, coercion, bribery, prostitution, gambling, extortion, embezzlement, unlawful sale of narcotics, or other such illegal conduct with the intent to compel or induce other persons, firms, or corporations to deal with such business or engage in any such illegal conduct, and

(2) For the prevention of future illegal conduct of the same character, the public interest requires the operation of the business to be enjoined.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-272; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106.

932.60 Institution and conduct of proceedings.—

(1) The proceedings authorized by s. 932.58, may be instituted against a corporation in any county in which it is doing business, and the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and the applicable rules of court. Such proceedings shall be deemed additional to any other proceeding authorized by law for the purpose of forfeiting the charter of a corporation or revoking the permit of a foreign corporation.

(2) The proceedings authorized by s. 932.59, may be instituted against a business other than a corporation in any county in which it is doing business and the proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and the applicable rules of court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-272.

932.61 Transfer of county or municipal charge to court providing trial by jury.—A person charged in a court with a violation of a county or municipal ordinance for which no jury trial is provided may, when the violation of a county or municipal ordinance is also a violation of a state law, cause the transfer of the violation to the appropriate court in which a trial by jury is provided, in the following manner:

(1) Prior to the commencement of the trial in the court not providing trial by jury, the person charged, or his attorney, shall file a petition requesting transfer to the appropriate court providing trial by jury. The original petition shall be filed with the court where the charge is docketed and pending, and copies shall be furnished to the court where jury trial is provided and to the prosecuting authority of both courts.

(2) The petition shall be signed by the defendant or his attorney and shall contain:

- (a) The defendant's name, age, and address;
- (b) A description and citation of the charges filed against the defendant;
- (c) A citation indicating that these charges also constitute a violation of state law;
- (d) The date and amount of bond set, if any;
- (e) An agreement to appear, answer, and attend the court to which the charge may be transferred;
- (f) The date of incarceration, if incarcerated at the time of the making of the petition; and
- (g) The demand for trial by jury.

(3) The judge of the court in which the person is charged shall entertain defendant's petition forthwith and shall, upon finding the petition to be correct in all its allegations of fact, order by written endorsement on the petition the transfer of defendant's cause to the appropriate court providing criminal jury trial jurisdiction.

(4) The clerk of the court not providing trial by jury, upon receipt of the judge's order directing transfer, shall within 3 days transmit to the clerk of the court providing criminal jury trial jurisdiction all the original record materials, including bond and the petition to transfer, filed in the petitioner's cause, certifying that they are all the original papers filed in the cause and kept by the clerk. The clerk of the court not providing trial by jury shall also transmit copies of all the record materials to the prosecuting attorney of the court providing jury trial jurisdiction to which defendant's cause is being transferred. The clerk shall also furnish notice of transfer to the surety or bail bondsman, if there is one. Upon the entry of the order transferring the cause, it shall be the duty of the police authority of the court from which the cause is being transferred to transfer a complete and exact duplicate of all reports, records, and other papers relating to the cause to the prosecuting attorney of the court to which the cause is transferred.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-372.

932.62 Date for arraignment upon transfer; petitioner not incarcerated.—If the person whose case is transferred is at liberty on bond or on his own recognizance, his appearance date for arraignment to the court to which the cause has been transferred shall be within 45 days from the date of transfer, and, if the defendant is on his own recognizance, he shall sign an agreement to appear before the court to which his case is transferred as a part of his petition to transfer. If the defendant is at liberty on a cash or property bond, the clerk of the transferring court shall endorse the new returnable date on its face prior to transfer.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-372.

932.63 Filing of charges; petitioner not incarcerated.—If the petitioner is not incarcerated, the prosecuting attorney shall, within 30 days of receipt of the petition, after due and diligent consideration and investigation of defendant's cause, file charges on behalf of the state against the defendant in the court providing criminal jury trial jurisdiction, or shall decline to file charges against the defendant, and the cause shall be dismissed upon the filing of a no true bill by the prosecuting attorney with the clerk. Upon failure of the prosecuting attorney to take action within 30 days, the cause shall be dismissed by the clerk of the court in which the cause is pending.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-372.

932.64 Transfer of surety bond.—With the written consent of the bondsman, surety bonds shall be transferred and made returnable to the court in which trial by jury is provided.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-372.

932.65 Filing formal charges; petitioner incarcerated.—When a person is incarcerated for a violation of a county or municipal ordinance and fails, or is otherwise unable, to be released on bond and requests a trial by jury, the person shall be transferred within 5 days to the jail facilities of the criminal court providing trial by jury. The prosecuting authority shall file formal charges within 3 days of the transfer of the person who fails, or is unable to post bond. Upon the failure or inability of the prosecuting authority to file charges, the person incarcerated shall be released and the provisions of s. 932.62, shall apply. It shall be the responsibility of the jailer releasing the prisoner to have him execute and sign an agreement to appear before the court to which his case has been transferred in accordance with s. 932.62.

History.—s. 1, ch. 70-372.

932.66 Suggested forms for transfer.—The petition for transfer, order of transfer, and agreement of bail bondsman to transfer bond shall be substantially as follows:

CHAPTER 933

SEARCH WARRANTS

- 933.01 Persons competent to issue search warrant.
- 933.02 Grounds for issuance of search warrant.
- 933.03 Destruction of obscene prints and literature.
- 933.04 Affidavits.
- 933.05 Issuance in blank prohibited.
- 933.06 Sworn application required before issuance.
- 933.07 Issuance of search warrants.
- 933.08 Search warrants to be served by officers mentioned therein.
- 933.09 Officer may break open door, etc., to execute warrant.
- 933.10 Execution of search warrant during day or night.
- 933.101 Service on Sunday.
- 933.11 Duplicate to be delivered when warrant served.
- 933.12 Return and inventory.
- 933.13 Copy of inventory shall be delivered upon request.
- 933.14 Return of property taken under search warrant.
- 933.15 Obstruction of service or execution of search warrant; penalty.
- 933.16 Maliciously procuring search warrant to be issued; penalty.
- 933.17 Exceeding authority in executing search warrant; penalty.
- 933.18 When warrant may be issued for search of private dwelling.
- 933.19 Searches and seizures of vehicles carrying contraband or illegal intoxicating liquors or merchandise.

933.01 Persons competent to issue search warrant.—A search warrant authorized by law may be issued by any judge, including the judge of any circuit court of this state or county court judge, or committing magistrate having jurisdiction where the place, vehicle or thing to be searched may be.

History.—RS 3006; GS 4082; RGS 6186; s. 3, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8500, 8505; s. 42, ch. 73-334.

933.02 Grounds for issuance of search warrant.—Upon proper affidavits being made a search warrant may be issued under the provisions of this chapter upon any of the following grounds:

- (1) When the property shall have been stolen or embezzled in violation of law;
- (2) When any property shall have been used:
  - (a) As a means to commit any crime,
  - (b) In connection with gambling, gambling implements and appliances, or
- (c) In violation of s. 847.011 or other laws in reference to obscene prints and literature;
- (3) When any property constitutes evidence relevant to proving that a felony has been committed;
- (4) When any property is being held or possessed:
  - (a) In violation of any of the laws prohibiting the manufacture, sale, and transportation of intoxicating liquors, or

- (b) In violation of the fish and game laws, or
- (c) In violation of the laws relative to food and drug;

(5) When the laws in relation to cruelty to animals have been or are violated in any particular building or place, but no search shall be made in such building or place after sunset, unless specially authorized by the officer issuing the warrant upon satisfactory cause shown; in which case such property may be taken on the warrant so issued from any house or place in which it is concealed, or from any vehicle, aircraft, or watercraft in which it may be found, or from the possession of any person by whom it shall have been used in the commission of any offense or from any person in whose possession it may be.

The provisions of this section shall apply also to any papers or documents used as a means of or in aid of the commission of any offense against the laws of the state.

History.—s. 16, sub-ch. 8, ch. 1637, 1868; s. 6, ch. 3921, 1889; RS 3007, 3008; GS 4083, 4084; RGS 6187, 6188; s. 4, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8501, 8502, 8506; s. 2, ch. 74-318; s. 1, ch. 77-174. cf.—s. 506.03 Issuance of search warrant to discover stamped or marked bottles and boxes.

933.03 Destruction of obscene prints and literature.—All obscene prints and literature, or other things mentioned in s. 847.011 found by an officer in executing a search warrant, or produced or brought into court, shall be safely kept so long as is necessary for the purpose of being used as evidence in any case, and as soon as may be afterwards, shall be destroyed by order of the court before whom the case is brought.

History.—s. 16, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 3007; GS 4083; RGS 6187; CGL 8501.

933.04 Affidavits.—The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable seizures and searches shall not be violated and no search warrant shall be issued except upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation particularly describing the place to be searched and the person and thing to be seized.

History.—s. 2, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8504.

933.05 Issuance in blank prohibited.—A search warrant cannot be issued except upon probable cause supported by affidavit or affidavits, naming or describing the person, place or thing to be searched and particularly describing the property or thing to be seized; no search warrant shall be issued in blank and any such warrant shall be returned within ten days after issuance thereof.

History.—s. 5, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8507.

933.06 Sworn application required before issuance.—The judge or magistrate must, before issuing the warrant, have the application of some person for said warrant duly sworn to and subscribed, and may receive further testimony from witnesses or supporting affidavits, or depositions in writing, to support the application. The affidavit and further proof, if same be had or required, must set forth the facts tending to establish the grounds of the application or probable cause for believing that they exist.

History.—s. 6, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8508.

933.07 Issuance of search warrants.—The judge, upon examination of the application and proofs submitted, if satisfied that probable cause exists for the issuing of the search warrant, shall thereupon issue a search warrant signed by him with his name of office, to any sheriff and his deputies or any police officer or other person authorized by law to execute process, commanding the officer or person forthwith to search the property described in the warrant or the person named, for the property specified, and to bring the property and any person arrested in connection therewith before the magistrate or some other court having jurisdiction of the offense.

History.—s. 7, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8509; s. 42, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 79-131.

933.08 Search warrants to be served by officers mentioned therein.—The search warrant shall in all cases be served by any of the officers mentioned in its direction, but by no other person except in aid of the officer requiring it, said officer being present and acting in its execution.

History.—s. 8, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8510.

933.09 Officer may break open door, etc., to execute warrant.—The officer may break open any outer door, inner door or window of a house, or any part of a house or anything therein, to execute the warrant, if after due notice of his authority and purpose he is refused admittance to said house or access to anything therein.

History.—s. 9, ch. 9321, 1923; s. 1, ch. 10273, 1925; CGL 8511. cf.—s. 901.19 Right of officer to break into building.

933.10 Execution of search warrant during day or night.—A search warrant issued under the provisions of this chapter may, if expressly authorized in such warrant by the judge or magistrate issuing the same, be executed by being served either in the daytime or in the nighttime, as the exigencies of the occasion may demand or require.

History.—s. 10, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8512.
cf.—s. 901.04 Execution of warrant of arrest.

933.101 Service on Sunday.—A search warrant may be executed by being served on Sunday, if expressly authorized in such warrant by the judge or magistrate issuing the same.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-289.

933.11 Duplicate to be delivered when warrant served.—All search warrants shall be issued in duplicate. The duplicate shall be delivered to the officer with the original warrant, and when the officer serves the warrant, he shall deliver a copy to the person named in the warrant, or in his absence to some person in charge of, or living on the premises. When property is taken under the warrant the officer shall deliver to such person a written inventory of the property taken and receipt for the same, specifying the same in detail, and if no person is found in possession of the premises where such property is found, shall leave the said receipt on the premises.

History.—s. 11, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8513.
cf.—s. 901.21 Search of person arrested.

933.12 Return and inventory.—Upon the return of the warrant the officer shall attach thereto or thereon a true inventory of the property taken under the warrant, and at the foot of the inventory shall verify the same by affidavit taken before some officer authorized to administer oaths, or before the issuing officer, said verification to be to the following effect:

I, A. B., the officer by whom the warrant was executed, do swear that the above inventory contains a true and detailed account of all the property taken by me on said warrant.

History.—s. 12, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8514.

933.13 Copy of inventory shall be delivered upon request.—The judge or magistrate to whom the warrant is returned, upon the request of any claimant or any person from whom said property is taken, or the officer who executed the search warrant, shall deliver to said applicant a true copy of the inventory of the property mentioned in the return on said warrant.

History.—s. 13, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8515.

933.14 Return of property taken under search warrant.—

(1) If it appears to the magistrate or judge before whom the warrant is returned that the property or papers taken are not the same as that described in the warrant, or that there is no probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds upon which the warrant was issued, or if it appears to the magistrate before whom any property is returned that the property was secured by an "unreasonable" search, the judge or magistrate may order a return of the property taken; provided, however, that in no instance shall contraband such as slot machines, gambling tables, lottery tickets, tally sheets, rundown sheets, or other gambling devices, paraphernalia and equipment, or narcotic drugs, obscene prints and literature be returned to anyone claiming an interest therein, it being the specific intent of the Legislature that no one has any property rights subject to be protected by any constitutional provision in such contraband; provided, further, that the claimant of said contraband may upon sworn petition and proof submitted by him in the circuit court of the county where seized, show that said contraband articles so seized were held, used or possessed in a lawful manner, for a lawful purpose, and in a lawful place, the burden of proof in all cases being upon the claimant. The sworn affidavit or complaint upon which the search warrant was issued or the testimony of the officers showing probable cause to search without a warrant or incident to a legal arrest, and the finding of such slot machines, gambling tables, lottery tickets, tally sheets, rundown sheets, scratch sheets, or other gambling devices, paraphernalia, and equipment, including money used in gambling or in furtherance of gambling, or narcotic drugs, obscene prints and literature, or any of them, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the illegal possession of such contraband and the burden shall be upon the claimant for the return thereof, to show that such contraband was lawfully acquired, possessed, held, and used.

(2) No intoxicating liquor seized on any warrant from any place other than a private dwelling house shall be returned, but the same may be held for such other and further proceedings which may arise upon a trial of the cause, unless it shall appear by the sworn petition of the claimant and proof submitted by him that said liquors so seized were held, used or possessed in a lawful manner, and in lawful place, or by a permit from the proper federal or state authority, the burden of proof in all cases being upon the claimant. The sworn affidavit or complaint upon which the search warrant was issued and the finding of such intoxicating liquor shall constitute prima facie evidence of the illegal possession of such liquor, and the burden shall be upon the claimant for the return thereof, to show that such liquor was lawfully acquired, possessed, held, and used.

(3) No pistol or firearm taken by any officer with a search warrant or without a search warrant upon a view by the officer of a breach of the peace shall be returned except pursuant to an order of a circuit judge or a county court judge.

(4) If no cause is shown for the return of any property seized or taken under a search warrant, the judge or magistrate shall order that the same be impounded for use as evidence at any trial of any criminal or penal cause growing out of the having or possession of said property, but perishable property held or possessed in violation of law may be sold where the same is not prohibited, as may be directed by the court, or returned to the person from whom taken. The judge or magistrate to whom said search warrant is returned shall file the same with the inventory and sworn return in the proper office, and if the original affidavit and proofs upon which the warrant was issued are in his possession, he shall apply to the officer having the same and the officer shall transmit and deliver all of the papers, proofs, and certificates to the proper office where the proceedings are lodged.

933.15 Obstruction of service or execution of search warrant; penalty.—Whoever shall knowingly and willfully obstruct, resist, or oppose any officer or person aiding such officer, in serving or attempting to serve or execute any search warrant, or shall assault, beat or wound any person or officer, or his deputies or assistants, knowing him to be such an officer or person so authorized, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 15, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 7534; s. 1160, ch. 71-136.

933.16 Maliciously procuring search warrant to be issued; penalty.—Any person who maliciously and without probable cause procures a search warrant to be issued and executed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 16, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 7434; s. 1161, ch. 71-136.

933.17 Exceeding authority in executing search warrant; penalty.—Any officer who in executing a search warrant willfully exceeds his authority or exercises it with unnecessary severity, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 17, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 7519; s. 1162, ch. 71-136.

933.18 When warrant may be issued for search of private dwelling.—No search warrant shall issue under this chapter or under any other law of this state to search any private dwelling occupied as such unless:

(1) It is being used for the unlawful sale, possession, or manufacture of intoxicating liquor;

(2) Stolen or embezzled property is contained therein;

(3) It is being used to carry on gambling;

(4) It is being used to perpetrate frauds and swindles;

(5) The law relating to narcotics or drug abuse is being violated therein;

(6) A weapon, instrumentality, or means by which a felony has been committed, or evidence relevant to proving said felony has been committed, is contained therein;

(7) It is in part used for some business purpose such as a store, shop, saloon, restaurant, hotel, or boarding, or lodging house;

(8) It is being used for the unlawful sale, possession, or purchase of wildlife or freshwater fish being unlawfully kept therein; or

(9) The laws in relation to cruelty to animals have been or are being violated therein, except that no search pursuant to such a warrant shall be made in any private dwelling after sunset and before sunrise unless specially authorized by the judge issuing the warrant, upon a showing of probable cause. Property relating to the violation of such laws may be taken on a warrant so issued from any private dwelling in which it is concealed or from the possession of any person therein by whom it shall have been used in the commission of such offense or from any person therein in whose possession it may be.

The term "private dwelling" shall be construed to include the room or rooms used and occupied, not transiently but solely as a residence, in an apartment house, hotel, boardinghouse, or lodging house. No warrant shall be issued for the search of any private dwelling under any of the conditions hereinabove mentioned except on sworn proof by affidavit of some creditable witness that he has reason to believe that one of said conditions exists, which affidavit shall set forth the facts on which such reason for belief is based.

933.19 Searches and seizures of vehicles carrying contraband or illegal intoxicating liquors or merchandise.—

(1) The provisions of the opinion rendered by the Supreme Court of the United States on March 2, 1925, in that certain cause wherein George Carroll and John Kiro were plaintiffs in error and the United States was defendant in error, reported in 267 United States Reports, beginning at page 132, relative to searches and seizures of vehicles carrying contraband or illegal intoxicating liquors or merchandise, and construing the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, are adopted as the statute law of the state applicable to searches and seizures under s. 12, Art. I of the State Constitution, when searches and seizures shall be made by any duly authorized and constituted bonded officer of this state exercising police authority in the enforcement of any law of the state relative to the unlawful transportation or hauling of intoxicating liquors or other contraband or illegal drugs or merchandise prohibited or made unlawful or contraband by the laws of the state.

(2) The same rules as to admissibility of evidence and liability of officers for illegal or unreasonable searches and seizures as were laid down in said case by the Supreme Court of the United States shall apply to and govern the rights, duties and liabilities of officers and citizens in the state under the like provisions of the Florida Constitution relating to searches and seizures.

(3) All points of law decided in the aforesaid case relating to the construction or interpretation of the provisions of the Constitution of the United States relative to searches and seizures of vehicles carrying contraband or illegal intoxicating liquors or merchandise shall be taken to be the law of the state enacted by the Legislature to govern and control such subject.

- 934.091 Unlawful to publish names of parties to intercepted communications; penalty.
- 934.10 Recovery of civil damages authorized.

934.01 Legislative findings.—On the basis of its own investigations and of published studies, the Legislature makes the following findings:

(1) Wire communications are normally conducted through the use of facilities which form part of an intrastate network. The same facilities are used for intrastate and intrastate communications.

(2) In order to protect effectively the privacy of wire and oral communications, to protect the integrity of court and administrative proceedings, and to prevent the obstruction of intrastate commerce, it is necessary for the Legislature to define the circumstances and conditions under which the interception of wire and oral communications may be authorized and to prohibit any unauthorized interception of such communications and the use of the contents thereof in evidence in courts and administrative proceedings.

(3) Organized criminals make extensive use of wire and oral communications in their criminal activities. The interception of such communications to obtain evidence of the commission of crimes or to prevent their commission is an indispensable aid to law enforcement and the administration of justice.

(4) To safeguard the privacy of innocent persons, the interception of wire or oral communications when none of the parties to the communication has consented to the interception should be allowed only when authorized by a court of competent jurisdiction and should remain under the control and supervision of the authorizing court. Interception of wire and oral communications should further be limited to certain major types of offenses and specific categories of crime with assurance that the interception is justified and that the information obtained thereby will not be misused.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-17.

934.02 Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

(1) "Wire communication" means any communication made in whole or in part through the use of facilities for the transmission of communications by the aid of wire, cable, or other like connection between the point of origin and the point of reception, furnished or operated by any person engaged as a common carrier in providing or operating such facilities for the transmission of intrastate, interstate, or foreign communications;

(2) "Oral communication" means any oral communication uttered by a person exhibiting an expectation that such communication is not subject to interception under circumstances justifying such expectation and does not mean any public oral communication uttered at a public meeting;

(3) "Intercept" means the aural acquisition of the contents of any wire or oral communication through the use of any electronic, mechanical, or other device;

(4) "Electronic, mechanical, or other device" means any device or apparatus which can be used to intercept a wire or oral communication other than:

(a) Any telephone or telegraph instrument, equipment or facility or any component thereof furnished to the subscriber or user by a communications common carrier in the ordinary course of its business and being used by the subscriber or user in the ordinary course of its business, or being used by a communications common carrier in the ordinary course of its business, or by an investigative or law enforcement officer in the ordinary course of his duties;

(b) A hearing aid or similar device being used to correct subnormal hearing to not better than normal;

(5) "Person" means any employee or agent of the state or political subdivision thereof and any individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, trust, or corporation;

(6) "Investigative or law enforcement officer" means any officer of the state or political subdivision thereof or of the United States who is empowered by law to conduct investigations of, or to make arrests for, offenses enumerated in this chapter or similar federal offenses and any attorney authorized by law to prosecute or participate in the prosecution of such offenses;

(7) "Contents," when used with respect to any wire or oral communication, includes any information concerning the identity of the parties to such communication or the existence, substance, purport, or meaning of that communication;

(8) "Judge of competent jurisdiction" means Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of a District Court of Appeal, Circuit Judge, or judge of any court of record having felony jurisdiction of the state;

(9) "Aggrieved person" means a person who was a party to any intercepted wire or oral communication or a person against whom the interception was directed.

History.—s. 2, ch. 69-17; s. 1, ch. 72-294; s. 1, ch. 74-249.

934.03 Interception and disclosure of wire or oral communications prohibited.—

(1) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, any person who:

(a) Willfully intercepts, endeavors to intercept, or procures any other person to intercept or endeavor to intercept any wire or oral communication;

(b) Willfully uses, endeavors to use, or procures any other person to use or endeavor to use any electronic, mechanical, or other device to intercept any oral communication when:

1. Such device is affixed to, or otherwise transmits a signal through, a wire, cable, or other like connection used in wire communication; or

2. Such device transmits communications by radio or interferes with the transmission of such communication;

(c) Willfully discloses, or endeavors to disclose, to any other person the contents of any wire or oral communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of a wire or oral communication in violation of this subsection; or

(d) Willfully uses, or endeavors to use, the contents of any wire or oral communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of a wire or oral communication in violation of this subsection;

shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2)(a)1. It is lawful under this chapter for an operator of a switchboard, or an officer, employee, or agent of any communication common carrier whose facilities are used in the transmission of a wire communication, to intercept, disclose, or use that communication in the normal course of his employment while engaged in any activity which is a necessary incident to the rendition of his service or to the protection of the rights or property of the carrier of such communication; provided, that said communication common carriers shall not utilize service observing or random monitoring except for mechanical or service quality control checks.

2. It shall not be unlawful under this chapter for an officer, employee, or agent of any communication common carrier to provide information, facilities, or technical assistance to an investigative or law enforcement officer who, pursuant to this chapter, is authorized to intercept a wire or oral communication.

(b) It is lawful under this chapter for an officer, employee, or agent of the Federal Communications Commission, in the normal course of his employment and in discharge of the monitoring responsibilities exercised by the commission in the enforcement of 47 U.S.C. Ch. 5, to intercept a wire communication or oral communication transmitted by radio or to disclose or use the information thereby obtained.

(c) It is lawful under this chapter for a law enforcement officer or a person acting under the direction of a law enforcement officer to intercept a wire or oral communication when such person is a party to the communication or one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to such interception and the purpose of such interception is to obtain evidence of a criminal act.

(d) It is lawful under this chapter for a person to intercept a wire or oral communication when all of the parties to the communication have given prior consent to such interception.

(e) It is unlawful to intercept any communication for the purpose of committing any criminal act.

(f) It is lawful under this chapter for an employee of a telephone company to intercept a wire communication for the sole purpose of tracing the origin of such communication when the interception is requested by the recipient of the communication and the recipient alleges that the communication is obscene, harassing, or threatening in nature. The individual conducting the interception shall notify local police authorities within 48 hours after the time of the interception.

(g) It is lawful under this chapter for an employee of:

1. An ambulance service licensed pursuant to s. 401.25, a fire station employing firefighters as defined by s. 633.30, a public utility as defined by ss. 365.01 and 366.02, or any other entity with published emergency telephone numbers, or

2. An agency operating an emergency telephone number "911" system established pursuant to s. 365.171, to intercept and record incoming wire communications; however, such public utility may intercept and record incoming wire communications on published emergency telephone numbers only.

History.—s. 3, ch. 69-17; s. 1163, ch. 71-136; ss. 2, 3, ch. 74-249; s. 249, ch. 77-104; s. 1, ch. 78-376; s. 187, ch. 79-164.

934.04 Manufacture, distribution, possession, and advertising or wire or oral communication intercepting devices prohibited.—

(1) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, any person who willfully:

(a) Sends through the mail or sends or carries any electronic, mechanical, or other device, with the intention of rendering it primarily useful for the purpose of the illegal interception of wire or oral communications as specifically defined by this chapter; or

(b) Manufactures, assembles, possesses, or sells any electronic, mechanical, or other device, with the intention of rendering it primarily useful for the purpose of the illegal interception of wire or oral communications as specifically defined by this chapter;

shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) It is not unlawful under this section for:

(a) A communication common carrier or an officer, agent, or employee of, or a person under contract with, a communication common carrier, in the normal course of the communication common carrier's business; or

(b) An officer, agent, or employee of, or a person under contract with, bidding upon contracts with, or in the course of doing business with, the United States, a state, or a political subdivision thereof, in the normal course of the activities of the United States, a state, or a political subdivision thereof, to send through the mail, send or carry in interstate or foreign commerce, or manufacture, assemble, possess, or sell any electronic, mechanical, or other device, knowing or having reason to know that the design of such device renders it primarily useful for the purpose of the surreptitious interception of wire or oral communications.

History.—s. 4, ch. 69-17; s. 1164, ch. 71-136.

934.05 Confiscation of wire or oral communication intercepting devices.—Any electronic, mechanical, or other device used, sent, carried, manufactured, assembled, possessed, or sold in violation of this chapter may be seized and forfeited to the state.

History.—s. 5, ch. 69-17.

934.06 Prohibition of use as evidence of intercepted wire or oral communications.—Whenever any wire or oral communication has been intercepted, no part of the contents of such communication and no evidence derived therefrom may be received in evidence in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in or before any court, grand jury, department, officer, agency, regulatory body, legislative committee, or other authority of the state, or a political subdivision thereof, if the disclosure of that information would be in violation of this chapter.

History.—s. 6, ch. 69-17.

934.07 Authorization for interception of wire or oral communications.—The Governor, the Attorney General, or any State Attorney may authorize an application to a judge of competent jurisdiction for, and such judge may grant in conformity with this chapter, an order authorizing or approving the interception of wire or oral communications by the Department of Law Enforcement or any law enforcement agency of this state or any political subdivision thereof having responsibility for the investigation of the offense as to which the application is made, when such interception may provide or has provided evidence of the commission of the offense of murder, kidnapping, gambling, robbery, burglary, theft, dealing in stolen property, prostitution, criminal usury, bribery, extortion, or dealing in narcotic drugs or other dangerous drugs; any violation of the provisions of the Florida Anti-Fencing Act; or any conspiracy to commit any violation of the laws of this state relating to the crimes specifically enumerated above.

History.—s. 7, ch. 69-17; ss. 11, 20, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 42, ch. 73-334; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 15, ch. 77-342; s. 33, ch. 79-8.

934.08 Authorization for disclosure and use of intercepted wire or oral communications.—

(1) Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by this chapter, has obtained knowledge of the contents of any wire or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom may disclose such contents to another investigative or law enforcement officer to the extent that such disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the officer making or receiving the disclosure.

(2) Any investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by this chapter, has obtained knowledge of the contents of any wire or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom may use such contents to the extent such use is appropriate to the proper performance of his official duties.

(3) Any person who has received, by any means authorized by this chapter, any information concerning a wire or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom intercepted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter may disclose the contents of that communication or such derivative evidence while giving testimony under oath or affirmation in any criminal proceeding in any court of the state or of the United States in any grand jury proceedings, or in any investigation or proceeding in connection with the Judicial Qualifications Commission, if such testimony is otherwise admissible.

(4) No otherwise privileged wire or oral communication intercepted in accordance with, or in violation of, the provisions of this chapter shall lose its privileged character.

(5) When an investigative or law enforcement officer, while engaged in intercepting wire or oral communications in the manner authorized herein, intercepts wire or oral communications relating to offenses for which an order or authorization or approval could have been secured pursuant to s. 934.07, other than those specified in the order of authorization or approval, the contents thereof and evidence derived therefrom may be disclosed or used as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section. Such contents and any evidence derived therefrom may be used under subsection (3) of this section when authorized or approved by a judge of competent jurisdiction when such judge finds on subsequent application that the contents were otherwise intercepted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such application shall be made as soon as practicable.

History.—s. 8, ch. 69-17; s. 2, ch. 72-294; s. 1, ch. 73-361.

934.09 Procedure for interception of wire or oral communications.—

(1) Each application for an order authorizing or approving the interception of a wire or oral communication shall be made in writing upon oath or affirmation to a judge of competent jurisdiction and shall state the applicant's authority to make such application. Each application shall include the following information:

(a) The identity of the investigative or law enforcement officer making the application and the officer authorizing the application;

(b) A full and complete statement of the facts and circumstances relied upon by the applicant to justify his belief that an order should be issued, including details as to the particular offense that has been, is being, or is about to be committed, a particular description of the nature and location of the facilities from which, or the place where, the communications are to be intercepted, a particular description of the type of communications sought to be intercepted, and the identity of the person, if known, committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted;

(c) A full and complete statement as to whether or not other investigative procedures have been tried and failed or why they reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or to be too dangerous;

(d) A statement of the period of time for which the interception is required to be maintained and, if the nature of the investigation is such that the authorization for interception should not automatically terminate when the described type of communication has been first obtained, a particular description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communications of the same type will occur thereafter;

(e) A full and complete statement of the facts concerning all previous applications known to the individual authorizing and making the application, made to any judge for authorization to intercept, or for approval of interceptions of, wire or oral communications involving any of the same persons, facilities, or places specified in the application, and the action taken by the judge on each such application; and

(f) When the application is for the extension of an order, a statement setting forth the results thus far obtained from the interception or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain such results.

(2) The judge may require the applicant to furnish additional testimony or documentary evidence in support of the application.

(3) Upon such application, the judge may enter an ex parte order, as requested or as modified, authorizing or approving interception of wire or oral communications within the territorial jurisdiction of the court in which the judge is sitting if the judge determines on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant that:

(a) There is probable cause for belief that an individual is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a particular offense enumerated in s. 934.07;

(b) There is probable cause for belief that particular communications concerning that offense will be obtained through such interception;

(c) Normal investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or to be too dangerous;

(d) There is probable cause for belief that the facilities from which, or the place where, the wire or oral communications are to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used, in connection with the commission of such offense, or are leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used by such person.

(4) Each order authorizing or approving the interception of any wire or oral communication shall specify:

(a) The identity of the person, if known, whose communications are to be intercepted;

(b) The nature and location of the communications facilities as to which, or the place where, authority to intercept is granted;

(c) A particular description of the type of communication sought to be intercepted and a statement of the particular offense to which it relates;

(d) The identity of the agency authorized to intercept the communications and of the person authorizing the application; and

(e) The period of time during which such interception is authorized, including a statement as to whether or not the interception shall automatically terminate when the described communication has been first obtained.

An order authorizing the interception of a wire or oral communication shall, upon the request of the applicant, direct that a communication common carrier, landlord, custodian, or other person shall furnish the applicant forthwith all information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the interception unobtrusively and with a minimum of interference with the services that such carrier, landlord, custodian, or person is according the person whose communications are to be intercepted. Any communication common carrier, landlord, custodian, or other person furnishing such facilities or technical assistance shall be compensated therefor by the applicant at prevailing rates.

(5) No order entered under this section may authorize or approve the interception of any wire or oral communication for any period longer than is necessary to achieve the objective of the authorization, or in any event longer than 30 days. Extensions of an order may be granted, but only upon application for an extension made in accordance with subsection (1) and upon the court making the findings required by subsection (3). The period of extension shall be no longer than the authorizing judge deems necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was granted and in no event for longer than 30 days. Every order and extension thereof shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept shall be executed as soon as practicable, shall be conducted in such a way as to minimize the interception of communications not otherwise subject to interception under this chapter, and must terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective or in any event in 30 days.

(6) Whenever an order authorizing interception is entered pursuant to this chapter, the order may require reports to be made to the judge who issued the order showing what progress has been made toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for continued interception. Such reports shall be made at such intervals as the judge may require.

(7)(a) The contents of any wire or oral communication intercepted by any means authorized by this chapter shall, if possible, be recorded on tape or wire or other comparable device. The recording of the contents of any wire or oral communication under this subsection shall be kept in such a way as will protect the recording from editing or other alterations. Immediately upon the expiration of the period of the order, or extensions thereof, such recordings shall be made available to the judge issuing such order and sealed under his directions. Custody of the recordings shall be wherever the judge orders. They shall not be destroyed except upon an order of the issuing or denying judge and in any event shall be kept for 10 years. Duplicate recordings may be made for use or disclosure pursuant to the provisions of s. 934.08(1) and (2) for investigations.

(b) The presence of the seal provided for by this subsection, or a satisfactory explanation for the absence thereof, shall be a prerequisite for the use or disclosure of the contents of any wire or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom under s. 934.08(3).

(c) Applications made and orders granted under this chapter shall be sealed by the judge. Custody of the applications and orders shall be wherever the judge directs. Such applications and orders shall be disclosed only upon a showing of good cause before a judge of competent jurisdiction and shall not be destroyed except on order of the issuing or denying judge, and in any event shall be kept for 10 years.

(d) Any violation of the provisions of this subsection may be punished as contempt of the issuing or denying judge.

(e) Within a reasonable time but not later than 90 days after the termination of the period of an order or extension thereof, the issuing or denying judge shall cause to be served on the persons named in the order or the application, and such other parties to intercepted communications as the judge may determine in his discretion that is in the interest of justice, an inventory which shall include notice of:

1. The fact of the entry of the order or the application;
2. The date of the entry and the period of authorized, approved, or disapproved interception, or the denial of the application; and
3. The fact that during the period wire or oral communications were or were not intercepted.

The judge, upon the filing of a motion, may make available to such person or his counsel for inspection such portions of the intercepted communications, applications, and orders as the judge determines to be in the interest of justice. On an ex parte showing of good cause to a judge of competent jurisdiction, the serving of the inventory required by this paragraph may be postponed.

(8) The contents of any intercepted wire or oral communication or evidence derived therefrom shall not be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding unless each party, not less than 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, has been furnished with a copy of the court order and accompanying application under which the interception was authorized or approved. This 10-day period may be waived by the judge if he finds that it was not possible to furnish the party with the above information 10 days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding and that the party will not be prejudiced by the delay in receiving such information.

(9)(a) Any aggrieved person in any trial, hearing, or proceeding in or before any court, department, officer, agency, regulatory body, or other authority may move to suppress the contents of any intercepted wire or oral communication, or evidence derived therefrom, on the grounds that:

1. The communication was unlawfully intercepted;
2. The order of authorization or approval under which it was intercepted is insufficient on its face; or
3. The interception was not made in conformity with the order of authorization or approval.

Such motion shall be made before the trial, hearing, or proceeding unless there was no opportunity to make such motion or the person was not aware of the grounds of the motion. If the motion is granted, the contents of the intercepted wire or oral communication, or evidence derived therefrom, shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of this chapter. The judge, upon the filing of such motion by the aggrieved person, may make available to the aggrieved person or his counsel for inspection such portions of the intercepted communication or evidence derived therefrom as the judge determines to be in the interests of justice.

(b) In addition to any other right to appeal, the state shall have the right to appeal from an order granting a motion to suppress made under paragraph (a) or the denial of an application for an order of approval if the attorney shall certify to the judge or other official granting such motion or denying such application that the appeal is not taken for purposes of delay. Such appeal shall be taken within 30 days after the date the order was entered and shall be diligently prosecuted.

History.—s. 9, ch. 69-17; s. 2, ch. 78-376.

934.091 Unlawful to publish names of parties to intercepted communications; penalty.—

(1) No person shall print, publish, or broadcast, or cause to be printed, published, or broadcasted, in any newspaper, magazine, periodical, or other publication, or from any television or radio broadcasting station, the name or identity of any person served with, or to be served with, an inventory or notification of interception of wire or oral communications pursuant to s. 934.09(7)(e) until said person has been indicted or informed against by the appropriate prosecuting authority.

(2) Whoever is convicted of the violation of the provisions of this section is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, by a fine not to exceed $10,000, or as provided in s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-95.

934.10 Recovery of civil damages authorized.

—Any person whose wire or oral communication is intercepted, disclosed, or used in violation of this chapter shall have a civil cause of action against any person who intercepts, discloses, or uses, or procures any other person to intercept, disclose, or use, such communications and shall be entitled to recover from any such person:

- (1) Actual damages, but not less than liquidated damages computed at the rate of $100 a day for each day of violation or $1,000, whichever is higher;
- (2) Punitive damages; and
- (3) A reasonable attorney's fee and other litigation costs reasonably incurred.

A good faith reliance on a court order or legislative authorization as provided in this chapter shall constitute a complete defense to any civil or criminal action under the laws of this state.

History.—s. 10, ch. 69-17; s. 3, ch. 78-376.

CHAPTER 936

INQUESTS OF THE DEAD

- 936.001 Purpose.
936.002 Inquest defined.
936.003 Procedure.

936.001 Purpose.—The purpose of this chapter is to provide a procedure whereby a public inquest may be made into a death for which an autopsy is required, when there is a question of the occurrence of a criminal act, criminal negligence, or foul play associated with the death.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-294.

936.002 Inquest defined.—As used in this chapter, the term "inquest" means a formal, nonadversary, nonjury presentation of evidence concerning a death, discovered by the medical examiner, State Attorney, and law enforcement agency during their respective examinations and investigations into the death.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-294.

936.003 Procedure.—

(1) The State Attorney may petition the county court in the county in which the body was found to hold an inquest into any death for which an examination, investigation, or autopsy is required to be performed by the medical examiner pursuant to the provisions of s. 406.11 when there is a question of the involvement of a criminal act, criminal negligence, or foul play in the death. The county court judge presiding at the inquest shall be deemed coroner only insofar as he is empowered to thus preside. Except as provided in this subsection, all duties and responsibilities of a coroner provided by law shall be vested in a medical examiner regulated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 406.

(2) Upon receipt of the petition of the State Attorney, the county court judge shall schedule the time and place of the inquest. The county court judge shall send his warrant for witnesses, to be served by a sheriff, commanding the witnesses to come to the inquest to be examined and to declare their knowledge concerning the death. Any witness appearing at, or summoned to appear at, an inquest shall be entitled to the same compensation as that provided by law for witnesses in any criminal proceeding held in the county.

(3) After the evidence has been presented, the court shall deliver a verdict stating whether or not there exists probable cause to believe that the death was the result of a criminal act, criminal negligence, or foul play. The verdict shall also state the name of the person or persons believed to be responsible for the death, if reasonably known.

(4) All inquests shall be open to the public.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 77-294; s. 297, ch. 79-400.

CHAPTER 939

COSTS

- 939.01 Judgment for costs on conviction.
- 939.02 Costs before committing magistrate.
- 939.03 Execution for costs in capital cases.
- 939.04 Execution for costs in other cases.
- 939.05 Insolvent defendant discharged without payment of costs.
- 939.06 Acquitted defendant not liable for costs.
- 939.07 Pay of defendant's witnesses.
- 939.08 Costs to be certified by county commissioners before audit.
- 939.09 Sheriff's mileage.
- 939.10 Duty of board of county commissioners.
- 939.11 Unnecessary charge for confining prisoner not to be allowed.
- 939.12 Cost against state in supreme court.
- 939.13 Power of comptroller.
- 939.14 County not to pay costs in cases where information is not filed or indictment found.
- 939.15 Costs paid by county in cases of insolvency.
- 939.17 Application of cash deposit to fine and costs.

939.01 Judgment for costs on conviction.—In all cases of conviction for crime the costs of prosecution shall be included and entered up in the judgment rendered against the convicted person.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76, 1846; RS 2983; GS 4057; RGS 6161; CGL 8475.
cf.—s. 57.091 Refund of costs to counties in certain proceedings relating to state prisoners.

- s. 142.16 Change of venue, county payable.
- s. 902.19 When prosecutor liable for costs.

939.02 Costs before committing magistrate.—All costs accruing before a committing magistrate shall be taxed against the defendant on conviction or estreat of recognizance.

History.—s. 3, ch. 1949, 1873; RS 2984; GS 4058; RGS 6162; CGL 8476.

939.03 Execution for costs in capital cases.—In all capital cases the costs in case of conviction shall be entered up against the prisoner, and the bill of costs, when taxed by the clerk and certified in the manner required by law to give a bill of costs the force of an execution, shall have the force of an execution, and may be levied upon any property of the prisoner found in the state. If the sheriff shall return said bill to the office of the clerk and make affidavit thereon that sufficient property cannot be found to pay the same, and shall state in the affidavit the amount left unpaid after exhausting all the property found, the bill, or the balance unpaid thereon, shall then be audited according to law and such amount shall be paid out of the county treasury.

History.—s. 7, ch. 159, 1848; RS 2985; GS 4059; RGS 6163; CGL 8477.

939.04 Execution for costs in other cases.—In all cases less than capital, wherein the defendant may be adjudged to pay costs, a capias may be issued, as is provided for the collection of fines and forfeitures.

History.—s. 5, ch. 217, 1849; RS 2986; GS 4060; RGS 6164; CGL 8478.

939.05 Insolvent defendant discharged without payment of costs.—In all cases less than capital, when it appears from due proof made in open court that the person convicted is wholly unable to pay costs, and that the judgment has in other respects been complied with, the court before which such person was convicted may discharge him without the payment of costs.

History.—s. 2, ch. 76, 1846; RS 2987; GS 4061; RGS 6165; CGL 8479.

939.06 Acquitted defendant not liable for costs.—No defendant in a criminal prosecution who is acquitted or discharged shall be liable for any costs or fees of the court or any ministerial office, or for any charge of subsistence while detained in custody. If he shall have paid any taxable costs in the case, the clerk or judge shall give him a certificate of the payment of such costs, with the items thereof, which, when audited and approved according to law, shall be refunded to him by the county.

History.—s. 3, ch. 76-1846; RS 2988; GS 4062; RGS 6166; CGL 8480; s. 44, ch. 73-334.

939.07 Pay of defendant's witnesses.—In all criminal cases prosecuted in the name of the state in the circuit courts or county courts in this state where the defendant is insolvent or discharged, the county shall pay the legal expenses and costs, as is prescribed for the payment of costs incurred by the county in the prosecution of such cases; provided, that there shall not be more than two witnesses summoned and paid to prove the same fact; and provided further, that before any witness is subpoenaed on behalf of a defendant in the circuit or county court an application shall be made to the judge, in writing, on behalf of the defendant, setting forth the substance of the facts sought to be proved by the witness or witnesses, making affidavit that the defendant is insolvent, and if upon such showing the judge is satisfied that the witness or witnesses are necessary for the proper defense of the defendant, he shall order that subpoena issue, and that the costs as herein provided shall be paid by the county, and not otherwise.

History.—s. 1, chs. 5131 and 5132, 1903; GS 4063; RGS 6167; CGL 8481; s. 44, ch. 73-334. cf.—s. 914.11 Indigent defendants.

939.08 Costs to be certified by county commissioners before audit.—In all cases wherein is claimed the payment of bills of costs, fees or expenses, other than juror and witness fees, in the prosecution of any criminal case which are payable by the county, an itemized bill or statement thereof shall be submitted to the county commissioners of the county in which such cases are prosecuted, and the same shall not be paid until the board of county commissioners shall have approved it and certified thereon that the same is just, correct and reasonable, and that no unnecessary or illegal item is contained therein.

History.—ss. 3, 5, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2989; GS 4064; RGS 6168; CGL 8482; s. 44, ch. 73-334.

cf.—s. 142.10 Officer to make out accounts as directed.

939.09 Sheriff's mileage.—Every sheriff, in presenting a bill for mileage against the state or county, shall certify that no constructive mileage is charged therein.

History.—s. 7, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2990; GS 4065; RGS 6169; CGL 8483. cf.—s. 902.19 When prosecutor liable for costs.

939.10 Duty of board of county commissioners.—The board of county commissioners, before approving any bill against the state or county, shall ascertain that no constructive mileage, or charge for anything but actual miles necessarily traveled by the nearest route, or actual and necessary services, or actual and necessary expenses which may be chargeable against the state or county, is contained therein.

History.—s. 7, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2991; GS 4066; RGS 6170; CGL 8484.

939.11 Unnecessary charge for confining prisoner not to be allowed.—No charge for rent of any house for confining a prisoner, or for guarding a prisoner, any longer than may be necessary for transferring such prisoner to jail or place of safekeeping, or during the session of court at which such prisoner shall be arraigned, or to which he may be brought for trial, shall be allowed against the state or county.

History.—s. 6, ch. 159, 1848; RS 2992; GS 4067; RGS 6171; CGL 8485.

939.12 Cost against state in supreme court.—The clerk of the supreme court shall give, upon application, a certified copy of any judgment against the state upon appeal in criminal cases, and the county commissioners of the county from the court of which such appeal was taken shall pay the same to the appellant, or his agent or attorney, on demand.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3266, 1881; RS 2993; GS 4068; RGS 6172; CGL 8486.

939.13 Power of comptroller.—The comptroller may audit and approve or disapprove any claim or any item thereof against the state for costs, fees or expenses of criminal cases prosecuted in the name of the state, and for which the state is liable, if he is satisfied that the same is legal, just, necessary and correct or otherwise, and may prescribe forms and methods for the same. The comptroller shall not dispend with any of the requirements of law relative to the auditing and payment of such accounts, but he may prescribe additional requirements.

History.—s. 8, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2995; GS 4069; RGS 6173; CGL 8487.

939.14 County not to pay costs in cases where information is not filed or indictment found.—When a committing magistrate holds to bail or commits any person to answer a criminal charge in a county court or a circuit court, and an information is not filed nor an indictment found against such person, the costs of such committing trial shall not be paid by the county, except the costs for executing the warrant.

History.—s. 1, ch. 4123, 1893; GS 4070; RGS 6174; CGL 8488; s. 44, ch. 73-334.

cf.—s. 142.09 Defendant not convicted, or dies.

939.15 Costs paid by county in cases of insolvency.—When the defendant in any criminal case pending in any circuit or county court, a district court of appeal or the supreme court of this state has been adjudged insolvent by the circuit judge or the judge of the county court, upon affidavit and proof as required by s. 924.17 in cases of appeal, or when the defendant is discharged or the judgment reversed, the costs allowed by law shall be paid by the county in which the crime was committed, upon presentation to the county commissioners of a certified copy of the judgment of the court against such county for such costs.

History.—Ch. 4401, 1895; GS 4071; RGS 6175; CGL 8489; s. 44, ch. 73-334. cf.—s. 57.091 Refunding costs paid by county in certain proceedings affecting state prisoners.

939.17 Application of cash deposit to fine and costs.—In any prosecution for an offense against the state or any political subdivision thereof, when money has been deposited by or on behalf of the defendant upon a judgment for the payment of a fine and costs, the clerk shall, under the direction of the court, apply the money deposited in satisfaction of such fine and costs and return the remainder to the depositor.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-235.

CHAPTER 940

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

- 940.01 Clemency; suspension of fines, pardons, restoration of civil rights, etc.
- 940.02 Notice to be given.
- 940.03 Application for executive clemency.
- 940.04 Copy of information or indictment to be furnished without charge.
- 940.05 Restoration of civil rights.
- 940.06 Submission of names of qualified persons.

940.01 Clemency; suspension of fines, pardons, restoration of civil rights, etc.—

(1) Except in cases of treason and in cases when impeachment results in conviction, the Governor may, by executive order filed with the Department of State, suspend collection of fines and forfeitures, grant reprieves not exceeding 60 days and, with the approval of three members of the cabinet, grant full or conditional pardons, restore civil rights, commute punishment, and remit fines and forfeitures for offenses.

(2) In cases of treason, the Governor may grant reprieves until adjournment of the regular session of the Legislature convening next after the conviction, at which session the legislature may grant a pardon or further reprieve; otherwise the sentence shall be executed.

(3) The Governor shall communicate to the Legislature, at the beginning of every session, every case of fine and forfeiture remitted or reprieved, pardon or commutation granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence, its date, and the date of its remission, commutation, pardon or reprieve.

History.—RS 2997; GS 4073; RGS 6177; CGL 8491; s. 1, ch. 69-29; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106.

940.02 Notice to be given.—

(1) When any person intends to apply for the remission of any fine or forfeiture, or the commutation of any punishment, or for a pardon, he shall cause to be posted for the period of 10 days, at the courthouse door and in two or more other places in the county where the offense for which the fine, forfeiture, punishment, penalty or sentence sought to be remitted, commuted or pardoned shall have been committed, or to be published for such period in a newspaper in said county, a notice that he will make application, one copy of which shall, except when published in a newspaper, be posted in the neighborhood or settlement where the same was committed. Such notice shall state the nature of the charge or offense of which he was convicted, and the time or term of the court when convicted. At the time of such posting or publication, the applicant shall cause a copy of such notice to be furnished by mail to each of the following: The prosecuting attorney of the court in which the applicant was convicted and the judge of said court.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any proceedings for restoration of civil rights.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3018, 1877; RS 2998; GS 4074; RGS 6178; CGL 8492; s. 1, ch. 67-75; s. 5, ch. 69-29.

940.03 Application for executive clemency.—

When any person intends to apply for remission of any fine or forfeiture or the commutation of any punishment, he shall submit an application to the board of pardons. The application shall be in writing accompanied by a copy of the indictment or information upon which the conviction was had, a statement of the facts testified to at the trial, and such other information as shall be required by the board of pardons. A copy of the application complete with all attachments shall be furnished to the prosecuting attorney of the court in which the applicant was convicted and to the presiding judge of said court.

History.—s. 2, ch. 3018, 1877; RS 2999; GS 4075; RGS 6179; CGL 8493; s. 2, ch. 67-75; s. 2, ch. 69-29.

940.04 Copy of information or indictment to be furnished without charge.—The clerk shall furnish said copy of indictment or information to any applicant for the same, free of charge and without delay.

History.—s. 3, ch. 3018, 1877; RS 3000; GS 4076; RGS 6180; CGL 8494; s. 44, ch. 73-334.

940.05 Restoration of civil rights.—Any person who has been convicted of a felony may be entitled to the restoration of all the rights of citizenship enjoyed by him prior to his conviction if he complied with one of the following criteria:

(1) Has received a full pardon from the board of pardons, or

(2) Has served the maximum term of the sentence imposed upon him, or

(3) Has been granted his final release by the Parole and Probation Commission.

History.—s. 1, ch. 3467, 1883; RS 3001; GS 4077; RGS 6181; CGL 8495; s. 3, ch. 69-29.

940.06 Submission of names of qualified persons.—The Parole and Probation Commission shall submit to the Governor and cabinet the names of persons who qualify for the restoration of civil rights in accordance with s. 940.05.

History.—s. 4, ch. 69-29.

- 941.42 Same; purpose of law.

941.01 Definition.—Where appearing in this chapter, the term "Governor" includes any person performing the functions of Governor by authority of the law of this state. The term "executive authority" includes the Governor and any person performing the functions of Governor in a state other than this state. The term "state," referring to a state other than this state, includes any other state or territory, organized or unorganized, of the United States.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.02 Fugitives from justice; duty of Governor.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all Acts of Congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the Governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this state.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20460, 1941.
cf.—s. 88.061 Interstate rendition.

941.03 Form of demand.—No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another state shall be recognized by the Governor unless in writing alleging, except in cases arising under s. 941.06, that the accused was present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter he fled from the state, and accompanied by an authenticated copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of a warrant supported by an affidavit made before a committing magistrate of the demanding state; or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the executive authority of the demanding state that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state; and the copy of indictment, information, affidavit, judgment of conviction, or sentence must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.04 Governor may investigate case.—

When a demand shall be made upon the Governor of this state by the executive authority of another state for the surrender of a person so charged with crime, the Governor may call upon the Department of Legal Affairs or any prosecuting officer in this state to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20460, 1941; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106.

941.05 Extradition of persons imprisoned or awaiting trial in another state or who have left the demanding state under compulsion.—

(1) When it is desired to have returned to this state a person charged in this state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against him in another state, the Governor of this state may agree with the executive authority of such other state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of such proceedings or his term of sentence in such other state, upon condition that such person be returned to such other state at the expense of this state as soon as the prosecution in this state is terminated.

(2) The Governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the executive authority of any other state any person in this state who is charged in the manner provided in s. 941.23 with having violated the laws of the state whose executive authority is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding state involuntarily.

History.—s. 5, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.06 Extradition of persons not present in demanding state at time of commission of crime.—

The Governor of this state may also surrender, on demand of the executive authority of any other state, any person in this state charged in such other state in the manner provided in s. 941.03 with committing an act in this state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the state whose executive authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this chapter not otherwise inconsistent, shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in that state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom.

History.—s. 6, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.07 Issue of Governor's warrant of arrest; its recitals.—If the Governor decides that the demand should be complied with, he shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the state seal, and be directed to any peace officer or other person whom he may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof. The warrant shall be sufficient if it substantially recites facts to show that an extraditable crime has been committed under the laws of the demanding state.

History.—s. 7, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.08 Manner and place of execution.—Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where he may be found within the state and to command the aid of all peace officers or other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this chapter, to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state.

History.—s. 8, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.09 Authority of arresting officer.—Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

History.—s. 9, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.10 Rights of accused person; application for writ of habeas corpus.—

(1) No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prisoner or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the State Attorney for the county in which the arrest is made, and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state.

(2) Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge of a court of record in this state before whom the prisoner has been taken, or any other judicial officer having power of commitment in this state, including the judge before whom an application may be filed for a writ of habeas corpus, may, in his discretion, admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him or before the judge to whom a writ of habeas corpus may be returnable, to abide the outcome of habeas corpus proceedings and any consequent appeal therefrom.

(3) The admission of a prisoner to bail by bond shall not be construed as depriving the prisoner from custody of those who have arrested him upon the warrant of arrest of the Governor, and for purposes of any application for a writ of habeas corpus, the prisoner shall be considered in the custody of the arresting agent or agents.

History.—s. 10, ch. 20460, 1941; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 1, ch. 65-518; s. 44, ch. 73-334.

941.11 Penalty for noncompliance with preceding section.—Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding state a person in his custody under the Governor's warrant, in willful disobedience to the last section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 11, ch. 20460, 1941; s. 1165, ch. 71-136.

941.12 Confinement in jail when necessary.—

(1) The officer or persons executing the Governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered, may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the legal sufficiency of his arrest has been determined by the court and the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route; such officer or person shall pay the jailer holding the prisoner the costs of his jailing and keeping.

(2) The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other state, and who is passing through this state with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding state may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or agent, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping; provided, however, that such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that he is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding state after a requisition by the executive authority of such demanding state. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this state.

History.—s. 12, ch. 20460, 1941; s. 24, ch. 57-1.

941.13 Arrest prior to requisition.—Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this state with the commission of any crime in any other state, and except in cases arising under s. 941.06 with having fled from justice or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the accused has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and, except in cases arising under s. 941.06, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole, and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this state, and to bring him before the same or any other judge, magistrate, or court who or which may be available in, or convenient of, access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

History.—s. 13, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.14 Arrest without a warrant.—The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer or a private person, without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a state with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding 1 year, but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the preceding section; and thereafter his answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant.

History.—s. 14, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.15 Commitment to await requisition; bail.—If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged and, except in cases arising under s. 941.06, that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by a warrant reciting the accusation, commit him to the county jail for such a time not exceeding 30 days and specified in the warrant, as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the Governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the state having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged.

History.—s. 15, ch. 20460, 1941; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945.

941.16 Bail; in what cases; conditions of bond.—Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or other judicial officer having power of commitment in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the Governor of this state.

History.—s. 16, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.17 Extension of time of commitment, adjournment.—If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the Governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or magistrate may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period not to exceed 60 days, or a judge or magistrate judge may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in s. 941.16, but within a period not to exceed 60 days after the date of such new bond.

History.—s. 17, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.18 Forfeiture of bail.—If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge, or magistrate by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this state. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the state as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this state.

History.—s. 18, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.19 Persons under criminal prosecution in this state at time of requisition.—If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this state and is still pending, the Governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the executive authority of another state or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this state.

History.—s. 19, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.20 Guilt or innocence of accused, when inquired into.—The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the Governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime.

History.—s. 20, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.21 Governor may recall warrant or issue alias.—The Governor may recall his warrant or warrants of arrest or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper.

History.—s. 21, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.22 Fugitives from this state; duty of Governors.—Whenever the Governor of this state shall demand a person charged with crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of his bail, probation, or parole in this state, from the executive authority of any other state, or from the Chief Justice or an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, he shall issue a warrant under the seal of this state, to some agent, commanding him to receive the person so charged if delivered to him and convey him to the proper officer of the county in this state in which the offense was committed.

History.—s. 22, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.23 Application for issuance of requisition; by whom made; contents.—

(1) When the return to this state of a person charged with crime in this state is required, the bailiff or State Attorney shall present to the Governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which application shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place, and circumstances of its commission, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein, at the time the application is made and certifying that, in the opinion of the said state attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this state for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.

(2) When the return to this state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this state and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole, the State Attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the Parole and Probation Commission, the Department of Corrections, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county, from which escape was made, shall present to the Governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement, or of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation, or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.

(3) The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge, stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment of conviction, or of the sentence. The prosecuting officer, Parole and Probation Commission, Department of Corrections, warden, or sheriff may also attach such further affidavits and other documents in duplicate as he shall deem proper to be submitted with such application. One copy of the application, with the action of the Governor indicated by endorsement thereon, and one of the certified copies of the indictment, complaint, information, and affidavits, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence shall be filed in the office of the Department of State, to remain of record in that office. The other copies of all papers shall be forwarded with the Governor's requisition.

History.—s. 23, ch. 20460, 1941; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; ss. 10, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 44, ch. 73-334; s. 19, ch. 77-120; s. 32, ch. 79-3.

941.24 Costs and expenses.—The costs and expenses of confinement of persons convicted in this state after extradition shall be paid as now or hereafter provided by law.

History.—s. 24, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.25 Immunity from service of process in certain civil actions.—A person brought into this state by, or after waiver of, extradition based on a criminal charge shall not be subject to service of personal process in civil actions arising out of the same facts as the criminal proceedings to answer which he is being or has been returned, until he has been convicted in the criminal proceeding, or, if acquitted, until he has had reasonable opportunity to return to the state from which he was extradited.

History.—s. 25, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.26 Written waiver of extradition proceedings.—

(1) Any person arrested in this state charged with having committed any crime in another state or alleged to have escaped from confinement, or broken the terms of his bail, probation, or parole may waive the issuance and service of the warrant provided for in ss. 941.07 and 941.08, and all other procedure incidental to extradition proceedings, by executing or subscribing in the presence of a judge of any court of record within this state a writing which states that he consents to return to the demanding state; provided, however, that before such waiver shall be executed or subscribed by such person, it shall be the duty of such judge to inform such person of his rights to the issuance and service of a warrant of extradition and to obtain a writ of habeas corpus as provided for in s. 941.10.

(2) If and when such consent has been duly executed, it shall forthwith be forwarded to the office of the Governor of this state and filed therein. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding state, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such agent or agents a copy of such consent; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the rights of the accused person to return voluntarily and without formality to the demanding state, nor shall this waiver procedure be deemed to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights, or duties of the officers of the demanding state or of this state.

History.—s. 25-A, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.27 Nonwaiver by this state.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by this state of its right, power, or privilege to try such demanded person for crime committed within this state, or of its right, power, or privilege to regain custody of such person by extradition proceedings or otherwise for the purpose of trial, sentence, or punishment for any crime committed within this state, nor shall any proceedings had under this chapter which result in, or fail to result in, extradition be deemed a waiver by this state of any of its rights, privileges, or jurisdiction in any way whatsoever.

History.—s. 25-B, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.28 No right of asylum; no immunity from other criminal prosecutions while in this state.—After a person has been brought back to this state by, or after waiver of, extradition proceedings, he may be tried in this state for other crimes which he may be charged with having committed here as well as that specified in the requisition for his extradition.

History.—s. 26, ch. 20460, 1941; s. 250, ch. 77-104.

941.29 Interpretation.—The provisions of ss. 941.01-941.30 shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purposes to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History.—s. 27, ch. 20460, 1941; s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945.

941.30 Short title.—ss. 941.01-941.29 may be cited as the "Uniform Criminal Extradition Law."

History.—s. 30, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.31 Fresh pursuit; authority of officers of other states; etc.—Any duly authorized state, county, or municipal arresting officer of another state of the United States who enters this state in fresh pursuit, and continues within this state in such fresh pursuit, of a person in order to arrest him on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in such other state, shall have the same authority to arrest and hold such person in custody, as has any authorized arresting officer, state, county, or municipal, of this state, to arrest and hold in custody a person on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in this state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.32 Fresh pursuit; arrest; etc.—If an arrest is made in this state by an officer of another state in accordance with the provisions of s. 941.31, he shall without unnecessary delay take the person so arrested before a County Court Judge or other judicial officer having jurisdiction of commitment, of the county in which the arrest was made, who shall conduct a hearing for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the arrest. If the committing judicial officer determines that the arrest was lawful, he shall commit the person arrested to await for a reasonable time the issuance of an extradition warrant by the Governor of this state, or admit him to bail for such purpose. If the committing judicial officer determines that the arrest was unlawful, he shall discharge the person arrested.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20461, 1941; s. 44, ch. 73-334.

941.33 Fresh pursuit; validity of arrest.—Section 941.31 shall not be construed so as to make unlawful any arrest in this state which would otherwise be lawful.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.34 Definition of "state."—For the purpose of this law the word "state" shall include the District of Columbia.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.35 Definition of "fresh pursuit."—The term "fresh pursuit" as used in this law shall include fresh pursuit as defined by the common law, and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a felony or who is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony. It shall also include the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony, though no felony has actually been committed, if there is reasonable ground for believing that a felony has been committed. Fresh pursuit as used herein shall not necessarily imply instant pursuit, but pursuit without unreasonable delay.

History.—s. 5, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.37 Short title.—ss. 941.31-941.36 may be cited as the "Uniform Law on Fresh Pursuit."

History.—s. 8, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.38 Extradition of persons alleged to be of unsound mind.—A person alleged to be of unsound mind found in this state, who has fled from another state, in which at the time of his flight, he was under detention by law in a hospital, asylum, or other institution for the insane as a person of unsound mind; or he had been heretofore determined by legal proceedings to be of unsound mind, the finding being unreversed and in full force and effect, and the control of his person having been acquired by a court of competent jurisdiction of the state from which he fled; or he was subject to detention in such state, being then his legal domicile (personal service of process having been made) based on legal proceedings then pending to have him declared of unsound mind, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up to be removed thereto.

History.—s. 2, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.39 Same; definitions.—In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

(1) "Flight" or "fled" means any voluntary or involuntary departure from the jurisdiction of the court where the proceedings hereinafter mentioned may have been instituted and are still pending, with the effect of avoiding, impounding, or delaying the action of the court in which said proceedings may have been instituted or be pending, or any such departure from the state where the person demanded then was, if he then was under detention by law as a person of unsound mind and subject to detention.

(2) "State" means states, territories, districts and insular and other possessions of the United States.

(3) "Justice of Supreme Court of District of Columbia" as applied to a request to return any person within the purview of this chapter to or from the District of Columbia shall be included and have the same meaning as the terms "executive authority," "governor," and "chief magistrate."

History.—s. 1, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.40 Same; procedure; limitation of detention; costs.—

(1) Whenever the executive authority of any state demands of the executive authority of this state any fugitive within the purview of the preceding section, and produces a copy of the commitment, decree of other judicial process and proceeding, certified as authentic by the governor or chief magistrate of the state whence the person so charged has fled, with an affidavit made before a proper officer showing the person to be such a fugitive, it shall be the duty of the executive authority of this state to cause him to be apprehended and secured, if found in this state, and to cause immediate notice of the apprehension to be given to the executive authority making such demand, or to the agent of such authority appointed to receive the fugitive and to cause the fugitive to be delivered to such agent when he shall appear.

(2) Any agent so appointed who receives the fugitive into custody shall be empowered to transmit him to the state from which he has fled.

(3) If no such agent appears within 30 days from the time of the apprehension, the fugitive may be discharged.

(4) All costs and expenses incurred in the apprehending, securing, maintaining, and transmitting such fugitive to the state making such demand, shall be paid by such state.

History.—ss. 3-6, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.41 Same; Governor to demand.—The Governor is vested with the power, on the application of any person interested, to demand the return to this state of any fugitive within the purview of this statute.

History.—s. 7, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.42 Same; purpose of law.—This law is remedial and shall be in addition and as a supplement to any and all existing methods of procedure, including reciprocal agreements between this state and any other state for the transfer of persons of unsound mind; and shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History.—ss. 8, 9, ch. 29686, 1955.

PART II

INTERSTATE AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS

941.45 Agreement on Detainers.

941.46 Definition.

941.47 Cooperation with other states.

941.49 Responsibility of delivery.

941.50 Designation of officer.

941.45 Agreement on Detainers.—The interstate compact known as the "Agreement on Detainers" is enacted into law and entered into by the state as a party, and is of full force and effect between the state and any other states joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

(1) POLICY AND PURPOSE.—The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainees based on untried indictments, informations, or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainees based on untried indictments, informations, or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainees, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of cooperative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such cooperative procedures.

(2) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this agreement:

(a) "State" means the United States of America, a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(b) "Sending state" means a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time he initiates a request for final disposition pursuant to subsection (3) or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to subsection (4).

(c) "Receiving state" means the state in which trial is to be had on an indictment, information, or complaint pursuant to subsection (3) or subsection (4).

(3) REQUEST FOR FINAL DISPOSITION.—

(a) Whenever a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information, or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, he shall be brought to trial within 180 days after he shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecuting officer's jurisdiction written notice of the place of his imprisonment and his request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information, or complaint; provided that, for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

(b) The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of him, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

(c) The warden, commissioner of corrections, or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform him of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against him and shall also inform him of his right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information, or complaint on which the detainer is based.

(d) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (a) shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations, or complaints on the basis of which detainers have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections, or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice, request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information, or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information, or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

(e) Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph (a) shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph (d), and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon him, after completion of his term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of his body in any court where his presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this section. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

(f) Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to his execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph (a) shall void the request.

(4) REQUEST FOR CUSTODY OR AVAILABILITY.—

(a) The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information, or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with subsection (5)(a) upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated; provided that the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information, or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded, and transmitted the request and provided further that there shall be a period of 30 days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon his own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

(b) Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph (a), the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainers against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

(c) In respect of any proceeding made possible by this subsection, trial shall be commenced within 120 days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

(d) Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which he may have to contest the legality of his delivery as provided in paragraph (a), but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

(e) If trial is not had on any indictment, information, or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to paragraph (e) of subsection (5), such indictment, information, or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

(5) OFFER TO DELIVER TEMPORARY CUSTODY.—

(a) In response to a request made under subsection (3) or subsection (4), the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information, or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in subsection (3). In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this section or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

(b) The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

1. Proper identification and evidence of his authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given, and

2. A duly certified copy of the indictment, information, or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.

(c) If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information, or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in subsection (3) or subsection (4), the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information, or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

(d) The temporary custody referred to in this section shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations, or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for his attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which his presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

(e) At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this section, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

(f) During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this section, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

(g) For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this section is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

(h) From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this section until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations, or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping, and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies, and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs or responsibilities therefor.

(6) TOLLING PERIOD AND LIMITATIONS.—

(a) In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in subsections (3) and (4), the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

(b) No provision of this section, and no remedy made available by this section, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

(7) DESIGNATION OF OFFICER.—Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this section.

(8) EFFECTIVENESS AND WITHDRAWAL.—This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect, nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

(9) CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY.—This section shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this section shall be severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this section and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-287.

941.46 Definition.—As used in this part, "appropriate court" means, with reference to the courts of this state, the circuit court possessing the proper venue.

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-287.

941.47 Cooperation with other states.—All courts, departments, agencies, officers, and employees of this state and its political subdivisions are hereby directed to enforce the agreement on detainees and to cooperate with one another and with other party states in enforcing the agreement and effectuating its purpose.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-287.

941.49 Responsibility of delivery.—It shall be lawful and mandatory upon the warden or other official in charge of a penal or correctional institution in this state to give over the person of any inmate thereof whenever so required by the operation of the Agreement on Detainers.

History.—s. 5, ch. 73-287.

941.50 Designation of officer.—The officer who will serve as central administrator of, and information agent for, the Agreement on Detainers shall be designated by the secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

History.—s. 6, ch. 73-287.

PART III

INTERSTATE CORRECTIONS COMPACT

941.55 Title.

941.56 Interstate Corrections Compact.

941.57 Powers.

941.55 Title.—This part may be cited as the "Interstate Corrections Compact."

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-288.

941.56 Interstate Corrections Compact.—The Interstate Corrections Compact is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with any other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE CORRECTIONS COMPACT

ARTICLE I

Purpose and Policy

The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment, and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of cooperation with one another, thereby serving the best interests of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of cooperation or the confinement, treatment, and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.

ARTICLE II

Definitions

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "State" means a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(b) "Sending state" means a state party to this compact in which conviction or court commitment was had.

(c) "Receiving state" means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had.

(d) "Inmate" means a male or female offender who is committed, under sentence to, or confined in, a penal or correctional institution.

(e) "Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, including, but not limited to, a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates as defined in (d) above may lawfully be confined.

ARTICLE III

Contracts

(a) Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

1. Its duration.

2. Payments to be made to the receiving state by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs, or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance.

3. Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from, or disposal of, any products resulting therefrom.

4. Delivery and retaking of inmates.

5. Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities, and rights of the sending and receiving states.

(b) The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto, and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

ARTICLE IV

Procedures and Rights

(a) Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this compact which has entered into a contract pursuant to Article III shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care or an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

(b) The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

(c) Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state; provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of Article III.

(d) Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact, including a conduct record of each inmate, and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

(e) All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

(f) Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record together with any recommendations of the hearing officials shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.

(g) Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

(h) Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

(i) The parent, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise, or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.

ARTICLE V

Acts Not Reviewable in Receiving State: Extradition

(a) Any decision of the sending state in respect of any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge, or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.

(b) An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

ARTICLE VI

Federal Aid

Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision, provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen, the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

ARTICLE VII

Entry into Force

This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

ARTICLE VIII

Withdrawal and Termination

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until 1 year after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE IX

Other Arrangements Unaffected

Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a nonparty state for the confinement, rehabilitation, or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements.

ARTICLE X

Construction and Severability

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

History.—s. 2, ch. 73-288.

941.57 Powers.—The Department of Corrections is hereby authorized and directed to do all things necessary or incidental to the carrying out of the compact in every particular.

History.—s. 3, ch. 73-288; s. 20, ch. 77-120; s. 33, ch. 79-3.

CHAPTER 942

INTERSTATE EXTRADITION OF WITNESSES

- 942.01 Definitions.
- 942.02 Summoning witness in this state to testify in another state.
- 942.03 Witness from another state summoned to testify in this state.
- 942.04 Exemption from arrest and service of process.
- 942.05 Uniformity of interpretation.
- 942.06 Short title.

942.01 Definitions.—

(1) "Witness," as used in this chapter, includes a person whose testimony is desired in any proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or in a criminal action, prosecution, or proceeding held by the prosecution or the defense.

(2) "State" includes any territory of the United States and District of Columbia.

(3) "Summons" includes a subpoena, order, or other notice requiring the appearance of a witness.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.02 Summoning witness in this state to testify in another state.—

(1) If a judge of a court of record, in any state which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within that state to attend and testify in this state, certifies under the seal of such court that there is a criminal prosecution pending in such court, or that a grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence, that a person being within this state is a material witness in such prosecution or grand jury investigation, and that his presence will be required for a specified number of days, upon presentation of such certificate to any judge of a court of record in the county in which such person is, such judge shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall make an order directing the witness to appear at a time and place certain for the hearing. The witness shall at all times be entitled to counsel.

(2) If at a hearing the judge determines that the witness is material and necessary, that it will not cause undue hardship to the witness to be compelled to attend and testify in the prosecution or a grand jury investigation in the other state, and that the laws of the state in which the prosecution is pending, or grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence, will give to him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process, he shall issue a summons, with a copy of the certificate attached, directing the witness to attend and testify in the court where the prosecution is pending, or where a grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence at a time and place specified in the summons. In any such hearing the certificate shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts stated therein.

(3) If said certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state to assure his attendance in the requesting state, such judge may, in lieu of notification of the hearing, direct that such witness be forthwith brought before him for said hearing; and the judge at the hearing being satisfied of the desirability of such custody and delivery, for which determination the certificate shall be prima facie proof of such desirability, may, in lieu of issuing subpoena or summons, order that said witness be forthwith taken in custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state.

(4) If the witness, who is summoned as above provided, after being paid or tendered by some properly authorized person the sum of 10 cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending and $5 for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20458, 1941; s. 1, ch. 61-491.

942.03 Witness from another state summoned to testify in this state.—

(1) If a person in any state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within its borders to attend and testify in criminal prosecutions or grand jury investigations commenced or about to commence in this state, is a material witness in a prosecution pending in a court of record in this state, or in a grand jury investigation which has commenced or is about to commence, a judge of such court may issue a certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specifying the number of days the witness will be required. Said certificate may include a recommendation that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of this state to assure his attendance in this state. This certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in which the witness is found.

(2) If the witness is summoned to attend and testify in this state, he shall be tendered the sum of 10 cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending, and $5 for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness. A witness who has appeared in accordance with the provisions of the summons shall not be required to remain within this state a longer period of time than the period mentioned in the certificate, unless otherwise ordered by the court. If such witness, after coming into this state, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.04 Exemption from arrest and service of process.—

(1) If a person comes into this state in obedience to a summons directing him to attend and testify in this state, he shall not while in this state pursuant to such summons be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

(2) If a person passes through this state while going to another state in obedience to a summons to attend and testify in that state, or while returning therefrom, he shall not while so passing through this state be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.05 Uniformity of interpretation.—This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it, and shall be only applicable to such state as shall enact reciprocal powers to this state relative to the matter of securing attendance of witnesses as herein provided.

History.—s. 5, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.06 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the “Uniform Law to Secure the Attendance of Witnesses from Within or Without a State in Criminal Proceedings.”

History.—s. 6, ch. 20458, 1941.

- 943.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be known as the "Department of Law Enforcement Act of 1974."
- History.—s. 1, ch. 74-386; s. 2, ch. 78-347.
- 943.02 Definitions.—For the purpose of this chapter:
- (1) "Department" means the Department of Law Enforcement.
- (2) "Executive director" means the executive director of the Department of Law Enforcement.
- History.—s. 2, ch. 74-386; s. 2, ch. 78-347.
- 943.03 Department of Law Enforcement.—
- (1) The executive director shall have served at least 5 years as a police executive or possess training and experience in police affairs or public administration and shall be a bona fide resident of the state. It shall be the duty of the executive director to supervise, direct, coordinate, and administer all activities of the department and to exercise the duties prescribed for the State Law Enforcement Coordinator under part VII of chapter 23, known as the Florida Mutual Aid Act.
- (2) The department shall employ such administrative, clerical, technical, and professional personnel, including division directors as hereinafter provided, as may be required, at salaries to be established by the department, to perform such duties as the department may prescribe.
- (3) Pursuant to chapter 120, the department shall adopt the rules and regulations deemed necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities under this chapter.
- (4) The department may make and enter into all contracts and agreements with other agencies, organizations, associations, corporations, individuals, or federal agencies as the department may determine are necessary, expedient, or incidental to the performance of its duties or the execution of its power under this chapter. However, nothing in this chapter shall authorize the employment of private investigative personnel by contract to conduct investigations.
- (5)(a) The department shall be governed by all laws regulating the purchase of supplies and equipment as other state agencies and may enter into contracts with other state agencies to make photographs and photostats, to transmit information by teletype, and to perform all those services consonant with the purpose of this chapter.

(b) It may use without charge the technical personnel and equipment of any state agency.

(6) The powers herein enumerated, or set forth in other parts of this chapter, shall be deemed an exercise of the state police power for the protection of the welfare, health, peace, safety, and morals of the people and shall be liberally construed.

(7) The Department of Legal Affairs shall be the legal advisor to and shall represent the department.

(8) The department may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this chapter any and all donations of property, real, personal, or mixed, and grants of money, from any governmental unit or public agency or from any institution, person, firm, or corporation. Such moneys shall be deposited, disbursed, and administered in a trust fund as provided by law.

(9) The department shall make an annual report of its activities to the governor and to the legislature and include in such report its recommendations for additional legislation.

(10) The department shall establish headquarters in Tallahassee. The Department of General Services shall furnish the department with proper and adequate housing for its operation.

History.—ss. 3, 9, ch. 74-386.

943.04 Division of Criminal Investigation; creation; investigative and related authority.—

(1) There is created a Division of Criminal Investigation within the Department of Law Enforcement. The division shall be supervised by a director who shall be employed by the department upon the recommendation of the executive director. It shall be the duty of the director to supervise, direct, coordinate, and administer all activities of the division.

(2)(a) Under appropriate rules and regulations adopted by the department, or upon written order of the Governor or by direction of the Legislature acting by a concurrent resolution, and at the direction of the executive director, the Division of Criminal Investigation may investigate violations of any of the criminal laws of the state, and shall have authority to bear arms, make arrests and apply for, serve and execute search warrants, arrest warrants, capias and other process of the court.

(b) Investigations may also be conducted in connection with the faithful execution and effective enforcement of the laws of the state with reference to organized crime, vice, racketeering, rioting, inciting to riot and insurrection, and, upon specific direction by the Governor in writing to the executive director, the misconduct, in connection with their official duties, of public officials and employees and of officials and members of public corporations and authorities subject to suspension or removal by the Governor.

(c) All investigators employed by the department shall be considered peace officers for all purposes. The executive director shall have the authority to designate the person occupying any appropriate position within the department as a peace officer, if such person is qualified under the department's personnel regulations relating to agents, and all persons thus employed by the department shall be considered peace officers for all purposes and shall be entitled to the privileges, protection, and benefits of ss. 112.19, 121.051, 122.34, and 870.05.

(3) Whenever it shall appear to the department that there is cause for the prosecution of a crime, the department shall refer the evidence of such crime to the officials authorized to conduct the prosecution.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-386; s. 5, ch. 76-247; s. 1, ch. 77-127; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-347; s. 34, ch. 79-8.

943.05 Division of Criminal Justice Information Systems; duties; crime reports.—

(1) There is created a Division of Criminal Justice Information Systems within the Department of Law Enforcement. The division shall be supervised by a director who shall be employed upon the recommendation of the executive director.

(2) The division shall:

(a) Establish a system of fingerprint analysis and identification.

(b) Establish a system of intrastate communication of vital statistics and information relating to crimes, criminals, and criminal activity. The division may cooperate with state, county, municipal, and federal agencies in the establishment of such a system.

(c) Establish a system of uniform crime reports and statistical analysis.

1. All state, county, and municipal law enforcement agencies shall submit to the department uniform crime reports setting forth their activities in connection with law enforcement.

2. It shall be the duty of the division, under the supervision of the executive director, to adopt and promulgate rules and regulations prescribing the form, general content, and time and manner of submission of such uniform crime reports required pursuant to subparagraph 1. The rules so adopted and promulgated shall be filed with the Department of State pursuant to chapter 120, and shall have the force and effect of law. Willful or repeated failure by any state, county, or municipal law enforcement official to submit the uniform crime reports required by subparagraph 1. shall constitute neglect of duty in public office.

3. The division shall correlate the reports submitted to it pursuant to subparagraph 1. and shall compile and submit to the governor and the legislature semiannual reports based on such reports. A copy of said reports shall be furnished to all prosecuting authorities and law enforcement agencies.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

943.06 Criminal Justice Information Systems Council.—There is created a Criminal Justice Information Systems Council within the Department of Law Enforcement.

(1) The council shall be composed of nine members, consisting of the Attorney General or a designated assistant; the chairman of the Parole and Probation Commission; the state courts administrator; and six members, to be appointed by the Governor, consisting of two sheriffs, two police chiefs, one public defender, and one state attorney.

(2) Members appointed by the Governor shall be appointed for terms of 4 years, except that in the first appointment under this section, two members shall be appointed for terms of 2 years, two members for terms of 3 years, and two members for terms of 4 years; and the terms of such members shall be designated by the Governor at the time of appointment. No appointive member shall serve beyond the time he ceases to hold the office or employment by reason of which he was eligible for appointment to the council. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring because of death, resignation, or ineligibility for membership shall serve only for the unexpired term of his predecessor or until a successor is appointed and qualifies.

(3) The council shall annually elect its chairman and other officers. The council shall hold at least four regular meetings each year at the call of the chairman or upon the written request by three members of the council. A majority of the members of the council constitutes a quorum.

(4) Membership on the council shall not disqualify a member from holding any other public office or being employed by a public entity except that no member of the Legislature shall serve on the council. The Legislature finds that the council serves a state, county, and municipal purpose and that service on the council is consistent with a member's principal service in a public office or employment.

(5) Members of the council shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to be reimbursed for per diem and traveling expenses as provided by s. 112.061.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§943.07 Definitions; ss. 943.06-943.08.—The following words and phrases as used in ss. 943.06, 943.07, and 943.08 shall have the following meanings, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Information system" means a system, whether automated or manual, operated or leased by state or local government or governments, including the equipment, facilities, procedures, agreements, and organizations thereof, for the collection, processing, preservation, or dissemination of information.

(2) "Criminal justice information system" means an information system for the collection, processing, preservation, or dissemination of criminal justice information.

(3) "Criminal justice information" means information on individuals collected or disseminated as a result of arrest, detention, or the initiation of a criminal proceeding by criminal justice agencies, including arrest record information, correctional and release information, criminal history record information, conviction record information, identification record information, and wanted persons record information. The term shall not include statistical or analytical records or reports in which individuals are not identified and from which their identities are not ascertainable. The term shall not include criminal justice intelligence information.

(4) "Criminal justice intelligence information" means information about an individual on matters pertaining to the administration of criminal justice, other than criminal justice information, which is indexed under an individual's name or which is retrievable by reference to identifiable individuals by name or otherwise. This term shall not include information on criminal justice agency personnel or information on lawyers, victims, witnesses, or jurors collected in connection with a case in which they were involved.

(5) "Dissemination" means the transmission of information, whether orally or in writing.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-386; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§943.08 Duties; Criminal Justice Information Systems Council.—The council shall develop and recommend operating policies and procedures relating to the following areas:

(1) The exchange of criminal justice information and criminal justice intelligence information and the operation of criminal justice information systems and criminal justice intelligence information systems, both interstate and intrastate;

(2) The installation of criminal justice information systems and criminal justice intelligence information systems and the exchange of information by such systems within the state and with similar systems and criminal justice agencies in other states and in the Federal Government;

(3) The physical security of the system, to prevent unauthorized disclosure of information contained in the system and to insure that the criminal justice information in the system is currently and accurately revised to include subsequently revised information;

(4) The purging or sealing of criminal justice information upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction or when required by law;

(5) The dissemination of criminal justice information to persons or agencies not associated with criminal justice when such dissemination is authorized by law;

(6) The access to criminal justice information maintained by any criminal justice agency by any person about whom such information is maintained for the purpose of challenge, correction, or addition of explanatory material; and

(7) Such other areas as relate to the collection and dissemination of criminal justice information and criminal justice intelligence information.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

§943.09 Division of Standards and Training.—There is created a Division of Standards and Training within the Department of Law Enforcement. The department shall employ a division director with the approval of the Police Standards and Training Commission.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

§943.10 Definitions; ss. 943.09-943.24.—The following words and phrases as used in ss. 943.09-943.24 shall have the following meanings unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Police officer" means any person employed full time by any municipality or the state or any political subdivision thereof, whose primary responsibility is the prevention and detection of crime or the enforcement of the penal, traffic, or highway laws of this state.

(2) "Employing agency" means any municipality or the state or any political subdivision thereof em-playing police officers as defined in subsection (1).

(4) "Part-time" or "auxiliary" police officer means any person employed, with or without compensation, less than full time by the state or any political subdivision or municipality thereof, whose primary responsibility is the prevention and detection of crime or the enforcement of the penal, traffic, or highway laws of this state.

(5) "Private police training school" means any private school, corporation, or institution, for profit or not for profit, devoted wholly or in part to instruction, by correspondence or otherwise, in police services, police administration, police training, police education, and law enforcement, which awards any type of certificate, diploma, degree, or recognition for attendance, graduation, study, or participation to students, enrollees, or participants. This definition applies to all such schools operating wholly or in part within the state, including those chartered, incorporated, or formed outside the state.

(1) There is created a Police Standards and Training Commission within the Department of Law Enforcement. The commission shall be composed of 12 members, consisting of the Attorney General or a designated assistant; the Commissioner of Education or a designated assistant; the special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Florida in charge of training; the executive director of the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles; and eight members, to be appointed by the Governor, consisting of three sheriffs, three chiefs of police, and two police officers who are neither sheriffs nor chiefs of police. Prior to the appointment, the sheriff, chief of police, and police officer members shall have had at least 8 years' experience in law enforcement as police officers.

(2) Members appointed by the Governor shall be appointed for terms of 4 years except that in the first appointments under this section, two members shall be appointed for terms of 1 year, two members for terms of 2 years, two members for terms of 3 years, and two members for terms of 4 years; and the terms of such members shall be designated by the Governor at the time of appointment. No appointive member shall serve beyond the time he ceases to hold the office or employment by reason of which he was eligible for appointment to the commission. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring because of death, resignation, or ineligibility for membership shall serve only for the unexpired term of his predecessor or until a successor is appointed and qualifies.

(3) The Governor, in appointing the three sheriffs, three chiefs of police, and two police officers, shall take into consideration representation by geography, population, and other relevant factors in order that the representation on the commission be apportioned to give representation to the state at large rather than to a particular area.

(4) Membership on the commission shall not disqualify a member from holding any other public office or being employed by a public entity, except that no member of the Legislature shall serve on the commission. The Legislature finds that the commission serves a state, county, and municipal purpose and that service on the commission is consistent with a member's principal service in a public office or employment.

(5) The commission shall hold at least four regular meetings each year at the call of the chairman or upon the written request by three members of the commission. A majority of the members of the commission constitutes a quorum.

(6) Members of the commission shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to be reimbursed for per diem and traveling expenses as provided by s. 112.061.

(1) Establish uniform minimum standards for the employment and training of police officers, including standards with respect to parking enforcement specialists as described in s. 316.640(3)(c), and including qualifications and requirements as may be established by the commission subject to specific provisions which are contained in this chapter.

(2) Establish uniform minimum standards, with reasonable classifications as determined by the commission, for the employment and training of part-time or auxiliary police officers.

(3) Establish minimum curricular requirements for schools operated by or for any municipality or the state or any political subdivision thereof for the specific purpose of training police recruits or police officers.

(4) Consult and cooperate with municipalities or the state or any political subdivision thereof and with universities, colleges, community colleges, and other educational institutions concerning the development of police training schools and programs or courses of instruction, including, but not necessarily limited to, education and training in the areas of police science, police administration, and all allied and supporting fields.

(5) Approve institutions and facilities for school operation by or for any municipality or the state or any political subdivision thereof for the specific purpose of training police officers and police recruits.

(6) Issue certificates of competency to persons who, by reason of experience and completion of advanced education or inservice or specialized training, are especially qualified for particular aspects or classes of police work.

(7) Make or encourage studies on any aspect of police education and training or recruitment.

(8) Make recommendations concerning any matter within its purview pursuant to this chapter.

(9) Promulgate rules and regulations for the administration of this chapter pursuant to chapter 120.

(10) Make and enter into contracts and agreements with other agencies, organizations, associations, corporations, individuals, or federal agencies as the commission may determine are necessary, expedient, or incidental to the performance of its duties or the execution of its powers.

(11) Accept, for any of its purposes and functions, any and all donations of money from any governmental unit or public agency or from any institution, person, firm, or corporation. Such moneys shall be deposited, disbursed, and administered in a trust fund as provided by law.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 2, ch. 76-270; s. 2, ch. 78-291; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 298, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

943.13 Police officers; qualifications for employment.—After August 1, 1974, any person employed as a police officer shall:

(1) Be at least 18 years of age.
(2) Be a citizen of the United States, notwithstanding chapter 74-37, Laws of Florida, or any act of the Legislature passed during the 1976 Regular Session.

(3) Be a high school graduate or its "equivalent" as the term may be determined by the commission.

(4) Not have been convicted of a felony or of a misdemeanor involving "moral turpitude" as the term is defined by law and who has not been released or discharged under any other than honorable conditions from any of the Armed Forces of the United States.

<sup>1</sup>(7) Have a good moral character as determined by investigation under procedures established by the commission.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 76-277; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this subsection prior to that date.

943.14 Police training programs; private police schools; certificates and diplomas; exemptions; injunction proceedings.—

(1) The commission shall establish and maintain a police training program with such curriculum, and administered by such agencies and institutions, as it approves, and shall issue a certificate of completion to any person satisfactorily completing the training program established.

(2) The commission shall issue a certificate of compliance to any person satisfactorily complying with the training program established in subsection (1) and the qualifications for employment in s. 943.13, and no person shall be employed as a police officer by any employing agency until he has obtained such certificate of compliance.

(a) The commission may issue a temporary employment authorization to an individual meeting the qualifications for employment in s. 943.13, pending basic certification under this subsection, upon submission of evidence from an employing agency that a critical need exists and the individual is enrolled in an approved training program, or will be enrolled in the next approved training program available in the geographic area, or no assigned state training program for state officers is available within a reasonable time as determined by the commission.

(b) Any person issued a temporary employment authorization as a police officer pending basic certification under this subsection must enroll in the first training program offered in the geographic area, or assigned state training program for a state officer offered as determined by the commission, subsequent to his employment. In no case shall a temporary employment authorization be in force for more than 180 consecutive days, and such temporary employment authorization shall not be renewable or transferable.

(3) The commission may issue a certificate to any person who has received training which the commission has determined is at least equivalent to that required by the commission in the state and who has satisfactorily complied with all other requirements of this chapter.

(4) All training or educational subjects which are taught, instructed, or used in any police or law enforcement schools or taught, instructed, or used in any private police training school shall first be approved in writing by the commission.

(5) Any certificates or diplomas issued by any police or law enforcement school or any private police training school which relate to completion, graduation, or attendance in police training or educational subjects, or related matter, shall be approved by the commission.

(6) All personnel used as instructors, teachers, or evaluators by any of the aforementioned schools, corporations, or institutions shall be certified by the commission.

(7) Police or law enforcement schools, courses which are accredited and certified by the Department of Education in accordance with the rules and regulations of the commission, and any schools authorized specifically by the Department of State to train those persons to be qualified pursuant to s. 493.43(6) are exempt from the requirements of subsections (4), (5), and (6).

(8) Police science or police administration courses or subjects which are a part of the curriculum of any accredited college, university, or community college of this state, and all full-time instructors of such institutions, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section.

(9) At the request of the commission, the Department of Legal Affairs shall apply directly to the circuit court of any county wherein any such school conducts or carries on any business or where any unlawful practice contrary to this section is being committed for an injunction restraining any such school from operating contrary to this section. The court, in its discretion, may grant a temporary injunction restraining the operation of any such school contrary to this section, pending the outcome of said cause, and, upon final hearing, shall permanently enjoin such unlawful operations as are contrary to this section. The commission and the Department of Legal Affairs shall not be required to give any bond in any proceedings hereunder.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 2, ch. 76-277; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 78-259; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1943.15 Reimbursement of employing agency by commission.—The commission shall, subject to the availability of funds, reimburse an employing agency an amount equivalent to 50 percent of the salary, if any, and allowable living expenses of recruit trainees in attendance at approved training programs.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1943.16 Payment of tuition by employing agency.—

(1) An employing municipality, state agency, or political subdivision of the state is authorized to pay any costs of tuition of trainees in attendance at approved training programs.

(2) A trainee who attends such approved training program at the expense of a municipality, state agency, or political subdivision must remain in the employment of such municipality, state agency, or political subdivision for a period of not less than 1 year. If his employment is terminated on his own initiative within 1 year, he shall reimburse the municipality, state agency, or political subdivision for his participation in such training program, and such municipality, state agency, or political subdivision may institute a civil action to collect such tuition costs if not reimbursed.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1943.17 Inservice training and promotion; participation, grants.—

(1)(a) The commission, by rules and regulations, shall prescribe curricula and standards for advanced and specialized training courses and training in addition to those prescribed in ss. 943.12 and 943.14.

(b) The standards provided by this section shall be deemed as those approved by the commission for promotional purposes but shall not be construed as binding on any employing agency for promotional requirements.

(2) Law enforcement agencies participating under the provisions of ss. 943.09-943.24 shall adhere to the standards and procedures established by the commission.

(3) Institutions and agencies offering approved programs of inservice or advanced training may receive grants from the commission, subject to the availability of funds, not to exceed 50 percent of the cost of offering approved training courses.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1943.18 Salary scale study; report, recommendation.—The commission shall make a comprehensive study of the compensation paid to police officers throughout the state. Among the items to be researched shall be variation in salary scale, education and training of officers, retirement and pension programs, and any other factors on which compensation is based. The commission shall report its findings to each regular session of the legislature and make recommendations for achieving uniformity in compensation for officers with equal or comparable responsibilities, experience, education, and training.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1943.19 Saving clause.—All police officers certified by the commission on August 1, 1974, shall not be required to meet the provisions of ss. 943.12(1) and 943.13 as a condition of tenure or continued employment; nor shall their failure to fulfill such requirements make them ineligible for any promotional examination for which they are otherwise eligible.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

1943.20 Qualifications and standards above minimum.—Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude an employing agency from establishing qualifications and standards for hiring, training, or promoting police officers that exceed the minimum set by the commission.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

943.21 Exception; elected officers.—The provisions of ss. 943.09-943.24 shall not apply to any elected officers.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386.

943.22 Salary incentive program for local and state law enforcement officers.—

(1) For the purpose of this section the following terms shall have the meaning ascribed below:

(a) "Local unit" means any municipality, county, or other political subdivision of this state employing law enforcement officers.

(b) "Law enforcement officer" means any person elected, appointed, or employed full-time by any municipality or the state or any political subdivision thereof, who is vested with authority to bear arms and make arrests and whose primary responsibility is the prevention and detection of crime or the enforcement of the criminal, traffic, or highway laws of the state. The term includes supervisory and command officers who hold active certification from the commission, but shall not include support personnel employed by the employing agency.

(c) "Basic certification" means that a law enforcement officer has been certified for employment as required by s. 943.12, s. 943.13, s. 943.14, or s. 943.19 or has been excepted as provided under s. 943.21.

(d) "Approved training course" means the satisfactory completion, other than basic certification, of approved police training courses under the Police Standards Career Development Program. For the purposes of this section, no course of the career development program shall consist of less than 40 hours of advanced or technical police training or work in the police sciences.

(e) "Community college" means a community college as approved in s. 230.761(1).

(f) Requirement of a "community college degree or equivalent" is satisfied when a law enforcement officer holds a document from the commission certifying that commission records indicate his graduation or completion of at least 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours at a community college with a major study concentration relating to the criminal justice system. The commission may authorize the completion of 60 semester hours or 90 quarter hours at an accredited college or university as meeting the equivalent of a community college degree. For the purpose of this section the commission shall establish which major study concentration areas relate to the criminal justice system.

(g) "Accredited college or university" means a college or university which has been accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities or other accrediting agency which is recognized by the state for accreditation purposes.

(h) Requirement of a "bachelor's degree" is satisfied when a law enforcement officer holds a document from the commission certifying that its records indicate his graduation from an accredited college or university with a major study concentration relating to the criminal justice system. For the purpose of this section, the commission shall establish which major study concentration areas relate to the criminal justice system.

(2)(a) Each law enforcement officer who meets basic certification shall receive a sum not exceeding $25 per month in the manner provided for in paragraph (g).

(b) Each law enforcement officer who has a community college degree or equivalent shall receive a sum not exceeding $30 per month in the manner provided for in paragraph (g).

(c) Any law enforcement officer who receives a bachelor's degree shall receive a sum not exceeding $50 per month in the manner provided for in paragraph (g).

(d) Each law enforcement officer who completes 320 hours of approved training courses as established by the career development program of the commission shall receive a sum not exceeding $80 per month. However, the commission may provide for proportional shares for courses completed in 80-hour units in a manner provided for in paragraph (g).

(e) The maximum aggregate amount any law enforcement officer may receive under this section is $130 per month. However, no education incentive awards shall be made for any state law enforcement position for which the class specification requires the minimum of a 4-year degree, or higher. No contributions shall be required and no benefits shall be paid under the provisions of the Florida Retirement System with regard to any compensation paid under the provisions of this section.

(f) No local unit or state agency employing law enforcement officers shall use any state funds received, or any federal funds made available, under s. 943.03(8) for the purpose of circumventing payment of any currently planned or existing salary or compensation plan which provides normal pay increases periodically to its law enforcement officers.

(g) The Division of Police Standards and Training through its commission shall establish rules in cooperation with the department as necessary to provide effectively for the proper administration of the salary incentive program. Such rules shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Proper documentation and verification of any claimed training or education requirement.

2. Proper documentation and verification that the local unit or state agency employing law enforcement officers has provided in its salary structure and salary plans incentive pay for law enforcement officers as required in this section.

(h) Each local unit and state agency employing law enforcement officers shall submit reports to the commission on December 31, March 31, June 30, and September 30 of each year containing information relative to compensation of law enforcement officers employed by it.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 77-436; s. 299, ch. 79-400.

943.23 Notice of employment; inactive status; reinstatement.—An employing agency shall immediately report to the commission the employment, appointment, or termination of employment or appointment of any police officer or of any part-time or auxiliary police officer. In cases of termination it shall be the duty of the employing agency to notify the commission in writing, setting forth in detail the reasons for such termination. Upon receipt of such notification of termination by the commission, the police officer's certificate for employment, as provided for by s. 943.13, s. 943.14 or s. 943.19, shall be deemed temporarily inactive. Before an employing agency may employ a police officer whose certificate for employment has become inactive by virtue of this section, the employing agency shall contact the commission to determine the eligibility of the police officer for further employment and to inquire as to the reasons the police officer terminated employment with his previous employing agency. If the employing agency, after being informed of the reasons for prior termination of the police officer and of his eligibility for further employment, does in fact employ the police officer, the police officer's certificate of employment shall be reinstated by the commission upon notification of such employment.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386.

943.24 Intent.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to strengthen and upgrade law enforcement in Florida by attracting competent, highly qualified young people for professional careers in this field and to retain well-qualified and experienced officers for the purpose of providing maximum protection and safety to the citizens of, and visitors to, this state.

(2) It is the further intent of the Legislature to establish a minimum foundation program for law enforcement officers which will provide a statewide minimum salary for all such officers, to provide state monetary supplement in order to effectuate an upgrading of compensation for all law enforcement officers, and to upgrade the educational and training standards of such officers.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-386.

943.25 Advanced training; program; costs; funding.—

(1) The Division of Standards and Training is directed to establish and supervise, as approved by the commission, an advanced and highly specialized training program for the purpose of training police officers and support personnel in the prevention, investigation, detection, and identification of crime, and, upon request, to instruct law enforcement agencies within this state in these highly advanced and specialized areas.

(2) No fee or other charge shall be assessed against any person, municipality, sheriff, county, or state law enforcement agency for the training, room, or board of any person; said expenses shall be borne by the state. Any compensation to any person during the period of his or her training shall be fixed and determined by the proper authority within the municipality, county, or state law enforcement agency sponsoring the person, and such compensation, if any, shall be paid directly to the person.

(3) All courts created by Art. V of the State Constitution shall assess $1 as a court cost against every person convicted for violation of a state penal or criminal statute or convicted for violation of a municipal or county ordinance. In addition, $1 from every bond estreature or forfeited bail bond related to such penal statutes or penal ordinances shall be forwarded to the State Treasurer as hereinafter described. However, no such assessment shall be made against any person convicted for violation of any state statute, municipal ordinance, or county ordinance relating to the parking of vehicles. All such costs collected by the aforesaid courts shall be collected and remitted to the Department of Revenue, in accordance with administrative rules promulgated by the Executive Director of the Department of Revenue, for deposit in the State Treasury and be earmarked to the Department of Law Enforcement and the trust fund for block grant matching, equally, and be disbursed by the Executive Office of the Governor to the Bureau of Criminal Justice Assistance of the Department of Community Affairs and to the Department of Law Enforcement, equally, as provided herein. All funds earmarked to the Department of Law Enforcement shall be disbursed only for those purposes provided for in subsection (7). At such time as matching federal funds are no longer available under the provisions of Pub. L. No. 90-351, all funds collected shall be earmarked to the Department of Law Enforcement.

(4) The Auditor General is directed in his audit of courts to ascertain that such assessments have been collected and shall report to the Legislature annually. All such records of such courts shall be open for his inspection.

(5) Municipalities and counties may assess an additional $1, as aforesaid, for law enforcement education expenditures for their respective law enforcement officers.

(6) All funds which have accumulated to the Florida Police Academy Fund as of August 1, 1974, shall be transferred and made available to the Department of Law Enforcement for implementation of training programs and training facilities. No such funds, or funds from any other source, shall be expended for the planning or construction of any new facility or expansion of any existing facility without the specific prior approval of the Legislature, designating the location and the amount to be expended for the training facility. However, this shall not prohibit the expenditure of any such funds for establishment or construction of, or improvements to, any facility for law enforcement training on a regional basis.

(7) The Executive Office of the Governor is authorized to approve, for disbursement from funds allocated for, and which are credited to, the Department of Law Enforcement, those sums necessary and required for the implementation of the training programs and training facilities submitted by the department and approved by the commission.

(8) A trust fund for block grant matching by the state is created under the administration of the Bureau of Criminal Justice Assistance. Disbursement of said funds shall be made for the purpose of matching, implementing, administering, and qualifying for federal funds provided under the provisions of Pub. L. No. 90-351, as amended, and Pub. L. No. 93-415, as amended, referred to as the "Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968" and the "Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Act of 1974," including providing technical assistance to local governments for meeting criminal justice program planning requirements. The Executive Office of the Governor is authorized to approve, for disbursement from said trust fund, those sums necessary and required by the state for block grant matching federal funds on grants approved pursuant to Pub. L. Nos. 90-351 and 93-415, as amended. Disbursements from the trust fund for the purpose of supplanting shortfalls in LEAA program or planning funds shall not be made without specific legislative appropriation.

(9)(a) The commission, either by contract or agreement, may authorize any state university or community college in the state, or any other organization, to provide training for, or facilities for training, peace officers, which training shall include, but not be limited to, police techniques in detecting crime, apprehending criminals, and securing and preserving evidence.

(b) All law enforcement officers selected by the various law enforcement agencies, if their selection is approved by the commission, shall receive such training without cost.

History.—s. 8, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 77-119; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 3, ch. 78-291; s. 2, ch. 78-347; s. 9, ch. 78-420; s. 189, ch. 79-164; s. 144, ch. 79-190.

943.26 Division of Local Law Enforcement Assistance.—There is created a Division of Local Law Enforcement Assistance within the Department of Law Enforcement. The division shall be supervised by a director who shall be employed upon the recommendation of the executive director. The division, upon the direction of the executive director of the department, shall be authorized to:

(1) Adopt and recommend cooperative policies for the coordination of the law enforcement work of all state, county, and municipal agencies possessing law enforcement responsibilities.

(2) Upon request of a sheriff or police chief, assist the requesting agency by providing consultation, research and planning assistance, or field technical services, and may engage in such other activities as will aid local law enforcement officers in preventing or solving crimes and controlling criminal activity.

History.—s. 9, ch. 74-386; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

943.29 Division of Staff Services.—There is created a Division of Staff Services within the Department of Law Enforcement. The division shall be supervised by a director who shall be employed upon the recommendation of the executive director. The division shall establish a system of administrative and technical services for the department.

History.—s. 12, ch. 74-386; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

943.31 Legislative intent.—The Legislature finds and declares that:

(1) The existing crime laboratory system is inadequate or virtually nonexistent in certain areas of the state, while other areas are capably being served.

(2) Inadequate crime laboratory services produce a detrimental effect on the criminal justice system, in that vital evidence may not be timely and expertly analyzed.

(3) Local law enforcement agencies in areas without sufficient crime laboratory services have voiced a need for such services, and statistics based on population, number of law enforcement officers, and the incidence of crimes for which laboratory analysis is necessary document this need.

(4) It is the intent of the Legislature to:

(a) Provide a statewide criminal analysis laboratory system to meet the needs of the criminal justice agencies.

(b) Provide state-operated laboratories in certain regions of the state where a distinct need for a significant level of laboratory services has been established.

(c) Provide financial assistance to certain other crime laboratories presently in existence and adequately serving the needs of specific portions of the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 74-362.

943.32 Statewide criminal analysis laboratory system.—There shall be established a statewide criminal analysis laboratory system to be composed of:

(1) The state-operated laboratories under the jurisdiction of the Department of Law Enforcement in Jacksonville, Pensacola, Tallahassee, Tampa, and such other areas of the state as may be necessary;

(2) The existing locally funded laboratories in Broward, Dade, Palm Beach, Indian River, and Seminole Counties, specifically designated in s. 943.35 to be eligible for state matching funds; and

(3) Such other laboratories as render criminal analysis laboratory services to criminal justice agencies in the state.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-362; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

943.33 State-operated criminal analysis laboratories.—The state-operated laboratories shall furnish laboratory service upon request to law enforcement officials in the state. The services of such laboratories shall also be available to any defendant in a criminal case upon showing of good cause and upon order of the court with jurisdiction in the case. The court may assess the costs of such service to the defendant or local public defender's office.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-362.

943.34 Powers and duties of department in relation to state-operated laboratories.—The department shall exercise full operational control of the state-operated laboratories and shall exercise, among others, the power and duty to:

(1) Establish the organizational structure of such laboratories to include the designation of the geographical regions which the laboratories shall serve.

(2) Establish policy and procedures to be employed by the laboratories.

(3) Promote coordination, cooperation, and standardization between the various state-operated laboratories.

(4) Promote cooperation between the state-operated laboratories and other criminal analysis laboratories in the state in order to achieve a coordinated statewide system of criminal analysis laboratory services to serve all geographic areas of the state.

(5) Establish standards of education and experience for professional and technical personnel employed by the state-operated laboratories.

(6) Adopt internal procedures for the review and evaluation of state-operated laboratory services.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-362.

943.35 Matching funds for existing laboratories.—

(1) The following existing criminal analysis laboratories shall be eligible for receipt of state matching funds:

(a) The Broward County Sheriff's Crime Laboratory;

(b) The Dade County Department of Public Safety Crime Laboratory;

(c) The Palm Beach County Crime Laboratory;

(d) The Region IV Crime Laboratory in Seminole County; and

(e) The Indian River Crime Laboratory.

(2) The state shall provide matching funds not to exceed 75 percent of the operating cost of such laboratories previously enumerated. The state shall match only that portion of the operating budget which is from local contributions. The following functions are not to be considered laboratory operations for the purpose of appropriating state matching funds:

(a) Identification photography;

(b) Identification of fingerprints, other than latent;

(c) Polygraph;

(d) Electronic surveillance;

(e) Crime scene technicians; and

(f) Medical examiners.

These functions shall be excluded for the purpose of providing matching funds, unless such functions become included in the state-operated system at a later time.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-362.

943.36 Submission of annual budget.—

(1) For the purpose of providing matching funds, each laboratory designated in s. 943.35 shall submit to the Executive Office of the Governor, on or before November 1, a written report containing an estimate in itemized form showing the amount needed for operational expenses for the fiscal year beginning July 1 thereafter. Each such estimate shall itemize the expenditures required for the laboratory submitting it. The report shall indicate the portion of operating expenses to be funded by utilizing federal funds and that portion utilizing local funds. The report shall specify the amount of the local appropriation to be used as the basis for computing the state's matching contribution.

(2) The form of such reports shall be prescribed by the Executive Office of the Governor.

(3) Laboratories which are partially funded by the state shall continue to be locally operated but shall provide services when possible to any law enforcement official, upon request.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-362; s. 145, ch. 79-190.

943.37 Option to become state-operated laboratory; operational control.—

(1) Those laboratories specified in s. 943.35 may submit to the Department of Law Enforcement a request to become state-operated laboratories. Such request shall include an offer to convey to the state the laboratory facility, including the physical plant, fixtures, equipment, and property on which such facility is located.

(2) The Department of Law Enforcement shall evaluate the request and make a determination based on the crime laboratory needs of the state. If the department concurs with the request, a plan for the transfer of the laboratory shall be jointly developed between representatives of the department and the chief of such laboratory or his designated representative. Such transfer plan shall include:

(a) A provision to allow any employee of such laboratory to maintain his position, or a position with comparable duties, with no decrease in pay for a reasonable transition period.

(b) A provision specifying the duration of the transition period.

(c) A provision to insure that there shall be no reduction in the level of services provided by the laboratory during the transition period. Implementation of the transfer plan is conditioned upon the approval of the Governor through inclusion of the expenses entailed in such transfer in his budget recommendations to the Legislature and the Legislature approving such recommendation.

(3) At such time as the state assumes the full financial responsibility for the operation of the laboratory, the Department of Law Enforcement will assume operational control, subject to the provisions of the transfer plan. The laboratory facility, including the physical plant, fixtures, equipment, and property on which such facility is located, shall be conveyed to the state upon assumption of full financial responsibility by the state.

History.—ss. 8, 9, ch. 74-362; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

943.38 Creation of Crime Laboratory Council.—

(1) There is created a Crime Laboratory Council within the Department of Law Enforcement. The council shall be composed of 10 members, to be appointed by the Governor, consisting of two sheriffs, three police chiefs, three laboratory directors, an educator in the field of forensic science or criminology, and a state attorney.

(2) Members shall be appointed for terms of 2 years.

(3) The Governor, in appointing the members, shall take into consideration representation by geography, population, and any other relevant factors in order that the representation on the council will be apportioned to give representation to the state at large rather than to a particular area.

History.—s. 10, ch. 74-362; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

943.39 Crime Laboratory Council; organization; meetings; compensation.—

(1) As soon as possible after July 1, 1974, the Governor shall appoint the 10 members required by s. 943.38. Thirty days after such appointments have been made, the council shall hold its first meeting. The council shall at this time elect its chairman and other officers.

(2) The council shall meet at the call of the chairman, upon the written request of three members of the council, or at the call of the executive director of the Department of Law Enforcement. A majority of the members of the council constitutes a quorum.

(3) Members of the council shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to be reimbursed for per diem and traveling expenses as provided by s. 112.061.

History.—ss. 12, 13, ch. 74-362; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

943.40 Duties of Crime Laboratory Council.—

The council shall serve in an advisory capacity to the Department of Law Enforcement. The council shall provide advice and make recommendations as necessary to improve the operation of the laboratories.

History.—s. 11, ch. 74-362; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 2, ch. 78-347.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

943.405 Prevention of crimes against the elderly.—

(1) It is the express intent of the Legislature that all state agencies cooperate with the Bureau of Criminal Justice Assistance of the Department of Community Affairs in carrying out the provisions of this section.

(2) The Bureau of Criminal Justice Assistance of the Department of Community Affairs, in carrying out its assigned purposes under Pub. L. No. 90-351 of providing for the preparation and implementation of annual comprehensive statewide plans for the reduction of crime and improvement of the criminal justice system, and under the state plan requirement of Pub. L. No. 94-503 of providing for the development of programs and projects for the prevention of crime against the elderly, in conjunction with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in carrying out its purposes of providing needed health and social services for the elderly, shall give priority to the preparation of yearly plans and a comprehensive 5-year plan for the development, implementation, and operation of programs designed to prevent crime against the elderly and to reduce the fear of crime in the elderly. The bureau shall identify, through research and through monitoring and evaluation of programs and projects conducted outside of the bureau, any social, economic, or educational methods, techniques, or procedures which have the potential effectively to prevent crime against the elderly and reduce fear of crime in the elderly. The bureau shall determine the costs and benefits that would be associated with such prevention and reduction efforts and shall develop, or recommend the implementation of, those methods, techniques, and procedures which are found likely to be cost-efficient. The bureau shall identify funding needs for such programs.

(3) In planning and developing programs and recommendations relating to the prevention of crime against elderly persons and reduction of fear of crime in elderly persons, the bureau shall consider and evaluate the potential for new or improved programs in, but not limited to, the following areas:

- (a) Public education and awareness;
- (b) Community coordination in areas of social services and criminal justice;
- (c) Use of the elderly as a resource in community crime prevention and the voluntary involvement of elderly persons and retired professionals in the criminal justice system itself in order to improve the responsiveness and effectiveness of the existing system;
- (d) Victim and witness assistance;
- (e) Reduction of the economic and physical consequences of crime against the elderly; and
- (f) Reduction of isolation of the elderly in the community.

(4) Other agencies of state government shall cooperate with and assist the bureau, within their available resources, in gathering statistical data and in implementing programs which have the potential to prevent crime against elderly persons and to reduce the fear of crime in elderly persons and shall consider the findings and recommendations of the bureau in developing and implementing agency programs and formulating agency budget requests. The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall participate in the preparation and implementation of the comprehensive plans. The Department of Law Enforcement shall collect statistical data on the characteristics of victims of crime similar to that collected by it with respect to those who commit crimes.

(5) The bureau shall submit to the Governor for transmittal to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives the first yearly plan to prevent crime against the elderly and to reduce the fear of crime in the elderly not later than March 1, 1978, and such plan shall be updated and resubmitted not later than March 1 of each calendar year thereafter through 1982. The plan shall outline bureau proposals for the identification of appropriate prevention and reduction efforts and the development of prevention and reduction programs and the provisions for services under such programs. The yearly plan shall contain, but not be limited to, the following elements:

(a) A compilation and analysis of statistical data on types of crimes committed against the elderly in this state and the incidence of such crime. Included in this shall be an identification of the areas of the state where crime against the elderly is of significant proportions. Such data should also reflect an assessment of the degree of unreported, as well as officially reported, criminal acts.

(b) An identification and projection of the potential population for which prevention programs should be considered.

(c) An inventory and evaluation of existing prevention and reduction programs, facilities, and services in the state or nationally, including population served, cost of services provided, percentage of unmet needs, and an identification of any needed program improvement or change.

(d) A listing of potential prevention efforts identified by the bureau, the estimated annual cost of providing such prevention services for the anticipated target population, an identification of potential funding sources, and the projected benefits of providing such services.

(6) The yearly plans shall be compiled and analyzed by the bureau in the 5-year comprehensive plan, which shall be submitted to the Governor for transmittal to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives with the last yearly plan on or before March 1, 1982.

(7) All funding sources, including reallocated LEAA funds, shall be considered by the bureau for implementing programs and projects for crimes against the elderly.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 77-315; s. 2, ch. 78-347; s. 190, ch. 79-164; s. 146, ch. 79-190.

943.41 Short title; definition.—

(1) Sections 943.41-943.44 shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Uniform Contraband Transportation Act."

(2) As used in ss. 943.41-943.44, "contraband article" means:

(a) Any controlled substance as defined in chapter 893.

(b) Any gambling paraphernalia, lottery tickets, money, and currency used or intended to be used in the violation of the gambling laws of the state.

(c) Any equipment, liquid or solid, which is being used or intended to be used in violation of the beverage or tobacco laws of the state.

(d) Any motor fuel upon which the motor fuel tax has not been paid as required by law.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 74-385.

943.42 Unlawful to transport, conceal, or possess contraband articles; use of vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft.—It is unlawful:

(1) To transport, carry, or convey any contraband article in, upon, or by means of any vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft.

(2) To conceal or possess any contraband article in or upon any vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft.

(3) To use any vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft to facilitate the transportation, carriage, conveyance, concealment, receipt, possession, purchase, sale, barter, exchange, or giving away of any contraband article.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-385.

943.43 Forfeiture of vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft; exceptions.—Any vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft which has been or is being used in violation of any provision of s. 943.42 or in, upon, or by means of which, any violation of said section has taken or is taking place shall be seized and may be forfeited. No vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier nor any other vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft shall be forfeited under the provisions of ss. 943.41-943.44, unless the owner or person legally in charge of such vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft was at the time of the alleged illegal act a consenting party or privy thereto. No vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft shall be forfeited under the provisions of ss. 943.41-943.44 by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted by any person other than such owner while such vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft was unlawfully in the possession of a person who acquired possession thereof in violation of the criminal laws of this state or any political subdivision thereof, any other state, or the United States.

History.—s. 3, ch. 74-385.

943.44 Forfeiture proceedings.—

(1) The State Attorney within whose jurisdiction the vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft has been seized because of its use or attempted use in violation of any provisions of law dealing with contraband as herein defined may proceed against the vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft by rule to show cause in the circuit court within the jurisdiction in which the offense occurred and may have such vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft forfeited to the use of, or to be sold by, the law enforcement agency making the seizure, upon producing due proof that the vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft was being used in violation of the provisions of said law. However, the provisions of this section shall not apply to innocent parties or destroy any valid lien or retain title contract on vessels, motor vehicles, or aircraft as defined by existing registration law, and the notation of a lien upon the face of the certificate of title shall be deemed prima facie valid. The seizing agency may release said vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft to the innocent party or lienholder upon the filing of a sworn affidavit by said innocent party or lienholder that he had no knowledge of the alleged violation causing such seizure and upon then producing a valid certificate of title.

(2) When it appears by affidavit that the residence of the owner of the vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft is out of the state or is unknown to the State Attorney, the court shall appoint an attorney at law to represent the absent owner against whom the rule shall be tried contradictorily within 10 days after its filing. This affidavit may be made by the State Attorney or one of his assistants. The attorney so appointed may waive service and citation of the petition or rule, but shall not waive time nor any legal defense.

(3) Whenever the head of the law enforcement agency effecting the forfeiture deems it necessary or expedient to sell the property forfeited rather than retain it for the use of the law enforcement agency, he shall cause a notice to be made by publication as provided by law and thereafter shall dispose of said property at public auction to the highest bidder for cash without appraisal.

(4) Upon the sale of any vessel, motor vehicle, or aircraft, the state shall issue a title certificate to the purchaser subject to any existing valid liens or retain title contract.

(5) The proceeds of all funds collected from any such sale shall be paid into the fine and forfeiture fund of the municipality or county whose law enforcement agency made the seizure, forfeiture, and sale.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-385.

943.46 Short title.—Sections 943.46-943.465 shall be known as the Florida RICO (Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization) Act.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-334; s. 2, ch. 79-218.

23. Section 849.09, s. 849.14, s. 849.15, s. 849.23, s. 849.24, or s. 849.25, relating to gambling.

24. Chapter 893, relating to drug abuse prevention and control.

25. Sections 918.12-918.14, relating to tampering with jurors, evidence, and witnesses.

(b) Any conduct defined as "racketeering activity" under 18 U.S.C. s. 1961(1)(A), (B), (C), and (D).

(2) "Unlawful debt" means any money or other thing of value constituting principal or interest of a debt that is legally unenforceable in the state in whole or in part because the debt was incurred or contracted:

(a) In violation of any one of the following provisions of law:

1. Section 550.24, s. 550.35, or s. 550.36, relating to dogracing and horseracing.

2. Section 551.09, relating to jai alai frontons.

3. Chapter 687, relating to interest and usury.

4. Section 849.09, s. 849.14, s. 849.15, s. 849.23, s. 849.24, or s. 849.25, relating to gambling.

(b) In gambling activity in violation of federal law or in the business of lending money at a rate usurious under state or federal law.

(3) "Enterprise" means any individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, business trust, union chartered under the laws of this state, or other legal entity, or any unchartered union, association, or group of individuals associated in fact although not a legal entity, and it includes illicit as well as licit enterprises and governmental, as well as other, entities.

(4) "Pattern of racketeering activity" means engaging in at least two incidents of racketeering conduct that have the same or similar intents, results, accomplices, victims, or methods of commission or otherwise are interrelated by distinguishing characteristics and are not isolated incidents, provided at least one of such incidents occurred after the effective date of this act and that the last of such incidents occurred within 5 years after a prior incident of racketeering conduct.

(5) "Documentary material" means any book, paper, document, writing, drawing, graph, chart, photograph, phonorecord, magnetic tape, computer printout, other data compilation from which information can be obtained or from which information can be translated into useable form, or other tangible item.

History.—s. 2, ch. 77-334; s. 3, ch. 79-218; s. 300, ch. 79-400.

943.462 Prohibited activities and defense.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person who has with criminal intent received any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt to use or invest, whether directly or indirectly, any part of such proceeds, or the proceeds derived from the investment or use thereof, in the acquisition of any title to, or any right, interest, or equity in, real property or in the establishment or operation of any enterprise.

(2) It is unlawful for any person, through a pattern of racketeering activity or through the collection of an unlawful debt, to acquire or maintain, directly or indirectly, any interest in or control of any enterprise or real property.

(3) It is unlawful for any person employed by, or associated with, any enterprise to conduct or participate, directly or indirectly, in such enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity or the collection of an unlawful debt.

(4) It is unlawful for any person to conspire or endeavor to violate any of the provisions of subsections (1), (2), or (3).

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-334.

943.463 Criminal penalties and alternative fine.—

(1) Any person convicted of engaging in activity in violation of the provisions of s. 943.462 is guilty of a felony of the first degree and shall be punished as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(2) In lieu of a fine otherwise authorized by law, any person convicted of engaging in conduct in violation of the provisions of s. 943.462, through which he derived pecuniary value, or by which he caused personal injury or property damage or other loss, may be sentenced to pay a fine that does not exceed three times the gross value gained or three times the gross loss caused, whichever is the greater, plus court costs and the costs of investigation and prosecution, reasonably incurred.

(3) The court shall hold a hearing to determine the amount of the fine authorized by subsection (2).

(4) For the purposes of subsection (2), "pecuniary value" means:

(a) Anything of value in the form of money, a negotiable instrument, or a commercial interest or anything else the primary significance of which is economic advantage; or

(b) Any other property or service that has a value in excess of $100.

History.—s. 4, ch. 77-334.

943.464 Civil remedies.—

(1) Any circuit court may, after making due provision for the rights of innocent persons, enjoin violations of the provisions of s. 943.462 by issuing appropriate orders and judgments, including, but not limited to:

(a) Ordering any defendant to divest himself of any interest in any enterprise, including real property.

(b) Imposing reasonable restrictions upon the future activities or investments of any defendant, including, but not limited to, prohibiting any defendant from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the enterprise in which he was engaged in violation of the provisions of s. 943.462.

(c) Ordering the dissolution or reorganization of any enterprise.

(d) Ordering the suspension or revocation of a license, permit, or prior approval granted to any enterprise by any agency of the state.

(e) Ordering the forfeiture of the charter of a corporation organized under the laws of the state, or the revocation of a certificate authorizing a foreign corporation to conduct business within the state, upon finding that the board of directors or a managerial agent acting on behalf of the corporation, in conducting the affairs of the corporation, has authorized or engaged in conduct in violation of s. 943.462 and that, for the prevention of future criminal activity, the public interest requires the charter of the corporation forfeited and the corporation dissolved or the certificate revoked.

(2) All property, real or personal, including money, used in the course of, intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through, conduct in violation of a provision of ss. 943.46-943.464 is subject to civil forfeiture to the state. The state shall dispose of all forfeited property as soon as commercially feasible. If property is not exercisable or transferable for value by the state, it shall expire. All forfeitures or dispositions under this section shall be made with due provision for the rights of innocent persons. The proceeds realized from such forfeiture and disposition shall be promptly deposited in the treasury of the state and immediately credited to the General Revenue Fund of the state.

(3) Property subject to forfeiture under this section may be seized by a law enforcement officer upon court process. Seizure without process may be made if:

(a) The seizure is incident to a lawful arrest or search or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant.

(b) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a forfeiture proceeding based upon this section.

(4) In the event of a seizure under subsection (3), a forfeiture proceeding shall be instituted promptly. Property taken or detained under this section shall not be subject to replevin, but is deemed to be in the custody of the law enforcement officer making the seizure, subject only to the order of the court. When property is seized under this section, pending forfeiture and final disposition, the law enforcement officer may:

(a) Place the property under seal.

(b) Remove the property to a place designated by court.

(c) Require another agency authorized by law to take custody of the property and remove it to an appropriate location.

(5) The Department of Legal Affairs, any State Attorney, or any state agency having jurisdiction over conduct in violation of a provision of this act may institute civil proceedings under this section. In any action brought under this section, the circuit court shall proceed as soon as practicable to the hearing and determination. Pending final determination, the circuit court may at any time enter such injunctions, prohibitions, or restraining orders, or take such actions, including the acceptance of satisfactory performance bonds, as the court may deem proper.

(6) Any aggrieved person may institute a proceeding under subsection (1). In such proceeding, relief shall be granted in conformity with the principles that govern the granting of injunctive relief from threatened loss or damage in other civil cases, except that no showing of special or irreparable damage to the person shall have to be made. Upon the execution of proper bond against damages for an injunction improvidently granted and a showing of immediate danger of significant loss or damage, a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction may be issued in any such action before a final determination on the merits.

(7) Any person who is injured by reason of any violation of the provisions of s. 943.462 shall have a cause of action for three-fold the actual damages sustained and, when appropriate, punitive damages. Such person shall also recover attorneys' fees in the trial and appellate courts and costs of investigation and litigation, reasonably incurred.

(a) The defendant or any injured person may demand a trial by jury in any civil action brought pursuant to this section.

(b) Any injured person shall have a right or claim to forfeited property or to the proceeds derived therefrom superior to any right or claim the state has in the same property or proceeds.

(8) A final judgment or decree rendered in favor of the state in any criminal proceeding under this act shall estop the defendant in any subsequent civil action or proceeding as to all matters as to which such judgment or decree would be an estoppel as between the parties.

(9) The Department of Legal Affairs may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under subsection (6) or subsection (7) if he certifies that, in his opinion, the action or proceeding is of general public importance. In such action or proceeding, the state shall be entitled to the same relief as if the Department of Legal Affairs had instituted the action or proceeding.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a criminal or civil action or proceeding under this act may be commenced at any time within 5 years after the conduct in violation of a provision of this act terminates or the cause of action accrues. If a criminal prosecution or civil action or other proceeding is brought, or intervened in, to punish, prevent, or restrain any violation of the provisions of this act, the running of the period of limitations prescribed by this section with respect to any cause of action arising under subsection (6) or subsection (7) which is based in whole or in part upon any matter complained of in any such prosecution, action, or proceeding shall be suspended during the pendency of such prosecution, action, or proceeding and for 2 years following its termination.

(11) The application of one civil remedy under any provision of this act shall not preclude the application of any other remedy, civil or criminal, under this act or any other provision of law. Civil remedies under this act are supplemental, and not mutually exclusive.

cf.—s. 16.53 Legal Affairs Revolving Trust Fund.

943.465 Civil investigative subpoenas.—

(1) As used in this section, "investigative agency" means the Department of Legal Affairs or the office of a state attorney.

(2) If, pursuant to the civil enforcement provisions of s. 943.464, an investigative agency has reason to believe that a person or other enterprise has engaged in, or is engaging in, activity in violation of this act, the investigative agency may administer oaths or affirmations, subpoena witnesses or material, and collect evidence pursuant to the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure.

(3) If matter that the investigative agency seeks to obtain by the subpoena is located outside the state, the person or enterprise subpoenaed may make such matter available to the investigative agency or its representative for examination at the place where such matter is located. The investigative agency may designate representatives, including officials of the jurisdiction in which the matter is located, to inspect the matter on its behalf and may respond to similar requests from officials of other jurisdictions.

(4) Upon failure of a person or enterprise, without lawful excuse, to obey a subpoena, and after reasonable notice to such person or enterprise, the investigative agency may apply to the circuit court for the judicial circuit in which such person or enterprise resides, is found, or transacts business for an order compelling compliance.

944.01 Short title.—This act may be cited as "The Florida Corrections Code of 1957."

History.—s. 45, ch. 57-121.

944.012 Legislative intent.—The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(1) Florida spends each year in excess of $60 million for its state correctional system, but Florida citizens have not received a fair return on that investment. Florida correctional institutions have contributed little to the reduction of crime. To the contrary, crime rates continue to rise; recidivism rates are notoriously high; and large prisons have for the most part become schools for crime, making successful reintegration into the community unlikely.

(2) It is clear that major changes in correctional methods are required. It is essential to abate the use of large institutions and continue the development of community-based corrections; to equip judges with more effective evaluative tools to deal with the criminal offender; and to provide alternatives to institutionalization, including the availability of probationers' residences and community correctional centers.

(3) One of the chief factors contributing to the high recidivism rate in the state is the general inability of ex-offenders to find or keep meaningful employment. Although 90 percent of all offenders sent to prison return to society one day, the correctional system has done little to provide the offender with the vocational skills he needs to return to society as a productive citizen. This failure virtually guarantees the probability of return to crime. Vocational training and assistance in job placement must be looked to on a priority basis as an integral part of the process of changing deviant behavior in the institutionalized offender, when such change is determined to be possible.

(4) These changes must not be made out of sympathy for the criminal or out of disregard of the threat of crime to society. They must be made precisely because that threat is too serious to be countered by ineffective methods.

(5) In order to make the correctional system an efficient and effective mechanism, the various agencies involved in the correctional process must coordinate their efforts. Where possible, interagency offices should be physically located within major institutions and should include representatives of the Florida State Employment Service, the vocational rehabilitation programs of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and the Parole and Probation Commission. Duplicative and unnecessary methods of evaluating offenders must be eliminated and areas of responsibility consolidated in order to more economically utilize present scarce resources.

(6) It is the intent of the Legislature:

(a) To provide a mechanism for the early identification, evaluation, and treatment of behavioral disorders of adult offenders coming into contact with the correctional system.

(b) To separate dangerous or repeat offenders from nondangerous offenders, who have potential for rehabilitation, and place dangerous offenders in secure and manageable institutions.

(c) When possible, to divert from expensive institutional commitment those individuals who, by virtue of professional diagnosis and evaluation, can be placed in less costly and more effective environments and programs better suited for their rehabilitation and the protection of society.

(d) To make available to those offenders who are capable of rehabilitation the job-training and job-placement assistance they need to build meaningful and productive lives when they return to the community.

(e) To provide intensive and meaningful supervision for those on probation so that the condition or situation which caused the person to commit the crime is corrected.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-112; s. 472, ch. 77-147.

944.02 Definitions.—The following words and phrases used in this chapter shall, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, have the following meanings:

(1) "Correctional system" means all prisons and other state correctional institutions now existing or hereafter created under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Corrections.

(3) "Commission" means the Parole and Probation Commission.

(4) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Corrections.

(5) "Prisoner" means any person who is under arrest and in the lawful custody of any law enforcement official, or any person convicted and sentenced by any court and committed to any municipal or county jail or state prison, prison farm, or penitentiary, or to the custody of the department, as provided by law.

(6) "State correctional institution" means any prison, road camp, prison industry, prison forestry camp, or any prison camp or prison farm or other correctional facility, temporary or permanent, in which prisoners are housed, worked or maintained, under the custody and jurisdiction of the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 1, ch. 71-345; s. 283, ch. 71-377; s. 3, ch. 74-112; s. 21, ch. 77-120; s. 34, ch. 79-3.

944.023 Correctional Improvement Plan.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the department to:

(a) Develop a plan for the decentralization of reception and classification facilities for the implementation of a regionally based diagnosis and evaluation capability for adult offenders. The plan shall provide for a system of psychological testing and evaluation as well as medical screening through department resources or with other public or private agencies through a purchase-of-services agreement. Priority in planning shall be given to the placement and location of facilities and programs in regions of the state representative of the geographic origin of commitments to the prison system.

(b) Develop plans for comprehensive vocational and educational training of offenders and their evaluation within each institution, program, or facility of the department, based upon the identified needs of the offender and the requirements of the employment market to which he shall return upon release.

(c) Develop a plan for the utilization of local jail facilities as short-term confinement resources of the department for offenders with sentences of 3 years or less and for the integration of detention services with community-based programs. Included in this plan shall be the designation of such facilities and programs within a regional framework of the state.

(d) Develop a detailed study of methods to implement diversified alternatives to institutionalization when such alternatives can be safely utilized.

(2) It shall be the duty of the department to develop a mechanism for the evaluation of adult offenders coming before the courts of the state and of those individuals under the parole or probation supervision of the department. Priority in the plan shall be given to:

(a) The utilization of community-based resources of the department for pretrial intervention analysis or presentence evaluation.

(b) A purchase-of-services arrangement with public or private agencies capable of providing the necessary diagnostic programs.

(c) The development of a diagnostic and evaluation mechanism internal to the programs of the department.

(3) Each year, commencing with the 1976 fiscal year, the department and the commission shall each render a written report to the Legislature, updating the Correctional Improvement Plan, making recommendations for modification or improvement, and giving a detailed analysis of the manner and method, including funding, by which the Legislature can continue to implement the overall goals of the Correctional Improvement Plan.

History.—s. 4, ch. 74-112; s. 252, ch. 77-104; s. 22, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 35, ch. 79-3.

944.024 Adult intake and evaluation.—The state system of adult intake and evaluation shall include:

(1) The performance of pretrial investigation through a decentralized community-based procedure.

(2) Assistance in the evaluation of offenders for diversion from the criminal justice system or referral to residential or nonresidential programs.

(3) The provision of secure detention services for pretrial detainees who are unable to comply with the conditions of release established by the court or who represent a serious threat to the community.

(4) The provision of diagnostic, evaluation, and classification services at the presentence stage to assist the court and the department in planning programs for rehabilitation of convicted offenders.

(5) The performance of postsentence intake by the department. Any physical facility established by the department for the intake and evaluation process prior to the offender's entry into the correctional system shall provide for specific office and work areas for the staff of the commission. The purpose of such a physical center shall be to combine in one place as many of the rehabilitation-related functions as possible, including pretrial and posttrial evaluation, parole and probation services, vocational rehabilitation services, family assistance services of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and all other rehabilitative and correctional services dealing with the offender.

History.—s. 5, ch. 74-112; s. 13, ch. 75-49; s. 23, ch. 77-120; s. 473, ch. 77-147. cf.—s. 944.026 Community-based facilities and programs.

944.025 Pretrial intervention program.—

(1) The department shall supervise pretrial intervention programs for persons charged with a crime, before or after any information has been filed or an indictment has been returned in the Circuit Court. Such programs shall provide appropriate counseling, education, supervision, and medical and psychological treatment as available and when appropriate for the persons released to such programs.

(2) Any first offender who is charged with any misdemeanor or felony of the third degree is eligible for release to the pretrial intervention program on the approval of the administrator of the program and the consent of the victim, the State Attorney, and the judge who presided at the initial appearance hearing of the offender. In no case, however, shall any individual be so released unless, after consultation with his attorney or one made available to him if he is indigent, he has voluntarily agreed to such program and has knowingly and intelligently waived his right to a speedy trial for the period of his diversion. In no case shall the defendant or his immediate family personally contact the victim or his immediate family to acquire the victim's consent under the provisions of this act.

(3) The criminal charges against an individual admitted to the program shall be continued without final disposition for a period of 90 days from the date the individual was released to the program, if the offender's participation in the program is satisfactory, and for an additional 90 days upon the request of the program administrator and consent of the State Attorney, if the offender's participation in the program is satisfactory.

(4) Resumption of pending criminal proceedings shall be undertaken at any time if the program administrator or State Attorney finds such individual is not fulfilling his obligations under this plan or if the public interest so requires.

(5) At the end of the intervention period, the administrator shall recommend:

(a) That the case revert to normal channels for prosecution in instances in which the offender's participation in the program has been unsatisfactory;

(b) That the offender is in need of further supervision; or

(c) That dismissal of charges without prejudice shall be entered in instances in which prosecution is not deemed necessary.

The State Attorney shall make the final determination as to whether the prosecution shall continue.

(6) The chief judge in each circuit may appoint an advisory committee for the pretrial intervention program. Said committee shall be composed of the chief judge or his designate, who shall serve as chairman; the State Attorney, Public Defender, and program administrator, or their representatives; and such other persons as the chairman shall deem appropriate. The committee may also include persons representing any other agencies to which persons released to the pretrial intervention program may be referred.

(7) The department may contract for the services and facilities necessary to operate pretrial intervention programs.

History.—s. 6, ch. 74-112; s. 1, ch. 75-301; s. 24, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 36, ch. 79-3.

944.026 Community-based facilities and programs.—

(1) In addition to those facilities and services described elsewhere in this chapter, the department shall develop, provide, or contract for a statewide system of community-based facilities, services, and programs dealing with the rehabilitation of offenders, which shall include, but shall not necessarily be limited to:

(a) A system of community correctional centers to be located at various places throughout the state as required. The purpose of these centers is to facilitate the reintegration of offenders back into the community by means of participation in various work-release, study-release, or other community rehabilitation programs. However, no facility shall be constructed, leased, or purchased in any county until public hearings have been held in that county. Such public hearings shall be pursuant to uniform rules adopted by the department.

(b) Adult intake and evaluation programs and services where required. It is the intent of this subsection to decentralize the intake and evaluation function of the corrections system so that intake services are located in urban areas of the state. For the purpose of this act the term "intake and evaluation services" may include a physical center, programs and services carried out in municipal or county jails or other areas of local communities, or a combination of the above.

(c) Drug treatment facilities or services providing in part for secure detention as a part of facilities serving major population centers.

(2) The following facilities or services shall be provided or contracted for by the department:

(a) Residential facilities in Dade, Broward, Palm Beach, Duval, Escambia, Leon, Orange, Brevard, Hillsborough, Pinellas, Sarasota (or Manatee), and Polk Counties, in which probationers, participants in pretrial intervention programs, and others committed to or under the supervision of the department may reside while working or attending school. A plan shall be established for the phasing-in of these residential facilities over a period of 5 years from July 1, 1974. The purpose of these facilities and services is to provide the court with an alternative to commitment to other state correctional institutions and to assist in the supervision of probationers.

(b) Pretrial intervention programs in appropriate counties to provide early counseling and supervision services to specified first offenders.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-112; s. 25, ch. 77-120; s. 37, ch. 79-3.

(2) This institution shall be located in Sumter County.

(3) The primary purpose of this institution shall be for the imprisonment of youthful male offenders who, in the opinion of the department seem capable of moral rehabilitation and restoration to good citizenship.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-100; s. 30, ch. 77-120; s. 41, ch. 79-3.

944.08 Commitment to custody of department; venue of institutions.—

(1) The words "penitentiary" or "state prison" or "state prison farm," whenever the same are used in any of the laws of this state, as a place of confinement or punishment for a crime, shall be construed to mean and refer to the custody of the Department of Corrections within the state correctional system.

(2) For the purposes of all judicial proceedings, the institutions of the state correctional system and the precincts thereof shall be deemed to be within and part of the county in which they are situated, and the courts of such counties or circuits shall have jurisdiction of all crimes and offenses committed therein.

History.—s. 6, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 32, ch. 77-120; s. 42, ch. 79-3.

944.09 Supervision of offenders committed to the department; rules and regulations; punishment.—

(1) All persons committed to the department shall be supervised by it.

(2) The department shall publish rules and regulations and make a copy available for review by each employee and inmate. The rules and regulations shall include or relate to:

(a) The rights of inmates.

(b) The rules of conduct to be observed by inmates and the categories of violations according to degrees or levels of severity as well as the degrees of punishment applicable and appropriate to such violations.

(c) Disciplinary procedures and punishment.

(d) Grievance procedures.

(e) The operation and management of the correctional institution or facility and its personnel and functions.

(f) Mail to and from the state correctional system.

(3) Regulations of the department shall be adopted and filed with the Department of State as provided in chapter 120.

(4) It shall be the duty of the superintendents to supervise the government, discipline, and policy of the state correctional institutions and to enforce all orders, rules, and regulations.

(5) The department shall cause a record to be kept of violations of rules of conduct, the rule or rules violated, the nature of punishment administered, the authority ordering such punishment, the duration of time during which the offender was subjected to punishment, and the condition of the prisoner's health.

History.—s. 7, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 14, ch. 74-112; s. 33, ch. 77-120; s. 43, ch. 79-3.

944.091 United States prisoners, board authorized.—The department is authorized upon request to board prisoners of the United States committed to their custody by any agency of the United States if such prisoners have less than 6 months remaining of their federal sentence, and if such prisoners have family relationships or job opportunities in this state, on a space-available basis only. Daily compensation for the board of such prisoners shall be paid at a rate to be mutually agreed upon by the department and the appropriate United States agency. Such compensation is to recover the total maintenance cost of such prisoners which shall be not less than the average cost per inmate per day for all inmates confined by the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-240; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 34, ch. 77-120; s. 44, ch. 79-3.

944.10 Division of Building Construction and Property Management to provide buildings; sale and purchase of land.—

(1) The Division of Building Construction and Property Management of the Department of General Services shall cause all necessary buildings, facilities, and physical plants to be erected to accommodate all prisoners, and from time to time shall make such additional alterations as may be necessary to provide for any increase in the number of prisoners; it shall cause to be established proper accommodations for such officers of the Department of Corrections who are required to reside constantly within the precincts of the institutions.

(2) The Division of Building Construction and Property Management of the Department of General Services may sell, to the best possible advantage, any or all detached parcels of land belonging to the bodies of land purchased for the state correctional institutions. The Division of Building Construction and Property Management is authorized to purchase any contiguous parcels of land within the boundary lines of the lands purchased for state correctional institutions.

History.—s. 8, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 22, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 2, ch. 75-70; s. 35, ch. 77-120; s. 45, ch. 79-3.

944.11 Department to adopt rules as to admission of books.—The department shall adopt such regulations as it may deem proper governing the admission of educational and other reading matter within the state institutions for the use of the prisoners, and for the proper observance of days of religious significance within the institutions and for the proper instruction of the prisoners in their basic moral and religious duties.

History.—s. 9, ch. 57-121; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 36, ch. 77-120; s. 46, ch. 79-3.

944.13 Annual report.—The department shall have a detailed account kept of all matters pertaining to the state correctional system and shall each year report fully to the Legislature, making such recommendations concerning the prisoners and the correctional system as may appear to be necessary and expedient.

History.—s. 11, ch. 57-121; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 73-305; s. 38, ch. 77-120; s. 47, ch. 79-3.

944.14 Supervision of correctional institutions; enforcement of orders and regulations.—Subject to the orders, policies, and regulations established by the department, it shall be the duty of the wardens or superintendents to supervise the government, discipline, and policy of the state correctional institutions, and to enforce all orders, rules and regulations.

History.—s. 12, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 39, ch. 77-120; s. 48, ch. 79-3.

944.15 Register of institution violations.—The department shall cause to be kept at each institution a register of institution violations and what kind of punishments, if any, are administered to the prisoners; the offense committed; the rule or rules violated; the nature of the punishment administered; the authority ordering such punishment; the duration of time during which the offender was subjected to punishment; and the condition of the prisoners' health.

History.—s. 13, ch. 57-121; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 40, ch. 77-120; s. 49, ch. 79-3.

944.16 Prisoners; how received.—All prisoners shall be delivered to the custody of the department at such reception and classification centers as shall be provided for this purpose. No prisoner shall be received by the department, unless the sheriff, United States Marshal, or other officer having such prisoner in charge, shall also deliver a commitment in due form issued by authority of the court committing such prisoners.

History.—s. 14, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 41, ch. 77-120; s. 50, ch. 79-3.
cf.—s. 945.09 Commitment of prisoners; classification; reception and classification center; transfer.

944.17 Uniform commitments to department.—The department shall design and supply to the several clerks of the courts a uniform commitment to be used by said clerks in the issuing of commitments to the department of all persons who may be convicted and sentenced in their respective courts. No prisoner shall be received into the custody of the department by other commitment forms.

History.—s. 15, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 42, ch. 77-120; s. 51, ch. 79-3.

944.18 Copy of indictment or information to be transmitted to department.—When any person has been convicted of any criminal offense in this state and is sentenced to serve any term under the custody of the department, the clerk of the court in which such person is convicted shall, with the commitment of such person, transmit to the department a certified copy of the indictment or information upon which such person shall have been convicted, and such copy of the indictment or information shall be kept on file in the office of the department at Tallahassee.

History.—s. 16, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 43, ch. 77-120; s. 52, ch. 79-3.

944.19 Vocational, adult, and academic education of prisoners under the jurisdiction of the department.—

(1) The department shall establish educational programs for the prisoners under its jurisdiction utilizing its personnel, or by arranging for instruction to be given by public or private educational agencies of the state.

(2) The department shall cooperate with the school board and the State Department of Education, which may establish and maintain classes for prisoners under the jurisdiction of the department, to provide instruction of a vocational, adult, or academic nature designed to meet the needs of said prisoners. Such instruction is to be under the supervision and control of the school board in which the institution is located. For the organization and operation of these classes, school boards are authorized to expend funds available to them either from local sources or through the minimum foundation program as provided by law.

(3) This program shall be operated in the various institutions only with the approval of the State Board of Education.

History.—s. 17, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 69-300; s. 44, ch. 77-120; s. 53, ch. 79-3.

944.23 Persons authorized to visit state prisons.—The following persons shall be authorized to visit at their pleasure all state correctional institutions: The Governor, all cabinet members, members of the Legislature, judges of state courts, State Attorneys, Public Defenders, and authorized representatives of the commission. No other person not otherwise authorized by law shall be permitted to enter a state correctional institution except under such regulations as the department may prescribe. Permission shall not be unreasonably withheld from those who give sufficient evidence to the department that they are bona fide reporters or writers.

History.—s. 21, ch. 57-121; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 19, ch. 74-112; s. 45, ch. 77-120; s. 54, ch. 79-3.

944.24 Administration of correctional institutions for women.—

(1) All regularly employed assistants, officers, and employees whose duties bring them into contact with the inmates of the institution shall be women as far as practicable.

(2) If any woman received by or committed to said institution shall give birth to a child while an inmate of said institution, such child and its welfare shall be within the jurisdiction of the appropriate circuit court if the mother chooses to keep the infant. Upon petition by the Department of Corrections, the mother, or another interested party, a temporary custody hearing before the circuit court judge without a jury shall be held as soon as possible to determine the best interests of the child. The department shall provide and maintain facilities or parts of facilities, within existing facilities, suitable to ensure the safety and welfare of such mothers and children, to be used at the discretion of the court.

(3) Any woman inmate who gives birth to a child during her term of imprisonment may be temporarily taken to a hospital outside the prison for the purpose of childbirth, and the charge for hospital and medical care shall be charged against the funds allocated to the institution. The department shall provide for the care of any children so born and shall pay for their care until suitably placed.

944.25 Registry of prisoners; facts required to be entered.—

There shall be entered the name of each prisoner, the crime of which he is convicted, the period of his sentence, from what county sentenced, his nativity, to what degree educated, at what institution and under what system, an accurate description of the person, and whether he has been previously confined in any state or federal prison and if so, when and how he was discharged, and such other facts as shall be found necessary to the department. A copy of this report will be transmitted to the office of the secretary.

History.—s. 23, ch. 57-121; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 47, ch. 77-120; s. 56, ch. 79-3.

944.275 Gain-time.—

(1) The department shall grant the following deductions for gain-time on a monthly basis, as earned, from the sentence of every prisoner who has committed no infraction of the rules of the department or of the laws of the state and who has performed in a satisfactory and acceptable manner the work, duties, and tasks assigned, as follows:

(a) Three days per month off the first and second years of the sentence;

(b) Six days per month off the third and fourth years of the sentence; and

(c) Nine days per month off the fifth and all succeeding years of the sentence; and the prisoner shall be entitled to credit for a month as soon as the prisoner has served such time as, when added to the deduction allowable, would equal a month.

(2)(a) It is the intent of the Legislature that work programs be recognized as an integral part of the rehabilitative process and that gain-time under this section be awarded only if earned as provided herein.

(b) The department is authorized to grant additional gain-time allowances on a monthly basis, as earned, up to 1 day for each day of productive or institutional labor performed by any prisoner who has committed no infraction of the rules of the department or of the laws of this state and who has accomplished, in a satisfactory and acceptable manner, the work, duties, and tasks assigned. Such gain-time allowances under this section shall be awarded on the basis of diligence of the inmate, the quality and quantity of work performed, and the skill required for performance of the work.

(c) The amount of time in a work program equivalent to 1 day shall be determined by the department. The department may provide for the award of gain-time under this subsection on a fractional basis for less than 1 day's participation in work programs.

(d) Any prisoner who, without approval, refuses or neglects to perform the work, duties, and tasks assigned in the correctional work program shall forfeit gain-time as provided in s. 944.28.

(e) The department may grant additional gain-time allowances up to 6 days per month for any inmate who, because of age, illness, infirmity, or confinement for reasons other than discipline, does not participate in a correctional work program, who demonstrates a constructive utilization of time, and who has committed no infraction of the rules of the department or the laws of the state. However, no prisoner shall receive additional gain-time credits under both paragraph (b) and this paragraph during the same month.

(3)(a) An inmate who faithfully performs the assignments given to him in a conscientious manner over and above that which may normally be expected of him, against whom no disciplinary report has been filed within the preceding 6 months, and whose conduct, personal adjustment, and individual effort towards his own rehabilitation show his desire to be a better than average inmate or who diligently participates in an approved course of academic or vocational study may be granted, on an individual basis, from 1 to 6 days per month extra gain-time to be deducted from the term of his sentence.

(b) An inmate who does some outstanding deed, such as the saving of a life or assisting in recapturing an escaped inmate, or who in some other manner performs an outstanding service that would merit the granting of additional deductions from the term of his sentence, may be granted special gain-time on the basis of from 1 to 60 days.

(4) When a prisoner is under two or more concurrent sentences, the prisoner shall be allowed gain-time as if such sentences were all one sentence; and the prisoner's gain-time, including any additional gain-time allowed under subsection (2) and extra gain-time allowed under subsection (3), shall be subject to forfeiture as though such sentences were all one sentence.

(5) No gain-time shall be awarded except as provided in this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-304; s. 57, ch. 79-3.

944.28 Forfeiture of gain-time and right to earn gain-time in the future.—

(1) If a prisoner is convicted of escape, or if the clemency or parole granted to him is revoked, the department may, without notice or hearing, declare a forfeiture of all gain-time earned and extra gain-time allowed such prisoner, if any, prior to such escape or his release under such clemency or parole, as the case may be.

(2)(a) All or any part of the gain-time earned by a prisoner and extra gain-time allowed him, if any, shall be subject to forfeiture if such prisoner shall unsuccessfully attempt to escape, or assault another person, or threaten or knowingly endanger the life or person of another person, or by action or word refuse to carry out any instruction duly given to him, or neglect to perform the work, duties, and tasks assigned to him in a faithful, diligent, industrious, orderly, and peaceful manner, or violate any law of the state or any rule or regulation of the department or institution.

(b) The method of forfeiting gain-time which is subject to forfeiture under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be as follows: A written charge shall be prepared, which shall specify the misconduct upon which it is based and the approximate date thereof. A copy of such charge shall be delivered to the prisoner and he shall be given notice of a hearing before the disciplinary committee created under the authorization of the rules and regulations heretofore or hereafter adopted by the department for the institution in which he is confined. He shall be present at such hearing. If at such hearing the prisoner pleads guilty to the charge or such committee determines from the proof presented that he is guilty thereof, it shall find him guilty; and, if it considers that all or a part of the prisoner's gain-time and extra gain-time should be forfeited, it shall so recommend in its written report, which shall be presented to the superintendent of the institution. If such superintendent approves such recommendation in whole or in part, he shall so indicate over his signature on the report, and forward the report to the department. The department may thereupon, at its discretion, declare the forfeiture thus approved by the superintendent, or any part thereof.

(3)(a) A prisoner's right to earn gain-time during all or any part of the remainder of the sentence or sentences under which he is imprisoned may be declared forfeited because of the seriousness of a single instance of misconduct for which all of his earned gain-time and extra gain-time, if any, have been forfeited or because of the seriousness of an accumulation of instances of misconduct, each of which has resulted in the forfeiture of all or a part of his earned gain-time and extra gain-time.

(b) The method of declaring such a forfeiture shall be as follows: A written charge shall be prepared, which shall specify each instance of misconduct upon which it is based, the approximate date thereof, and the amount of gain-time forfeited on account thereof. A copy of such charge shall be delivered to the prisoner and he shall be given notice of a hearing before the disciplinary committee created under the authorization of rules and regulations heretofore or hereafter adopted by the department, for the institution in which he is confined. Such notice shall specify that such hearing will be held for the purpose of determining whether such committee shall recommend a forfeiture of the prisoner's right to earn gain-time during all or a part of the remainder of his sentence or sentences. If at such hearing the prisoner pleads guilty to the charge or such committee determines that he is guilty thereof upon the basis of proof presented at such hearing, it shall find him guilty; and, if it considers that the misconduct of which the prisoner is thus found guilty is serious enough, it may recommend in its written report the forfeiture of the prisoner's right to earn gain-time during all or some specified part of the remainder of his sentence or sentences. Such report shall be presented to the superintendent of such institution, who may approve such recommendation in whole or in part by endorsing such approval on such report. In the event of such an approval, the superintendent shall forward such report to the department. Thereupon, the department may, in its discretion, declare the forfeiture thus approved by the superintendent or any specified part thereof.

(4) Upon the recommendation of the superintendent, the department may, in its discretion, restore all or any part of any gain-time forfeited under this section.

(5) In order to facilitate the speedy administration of the gain-time program, the department may delegate its functions, duties, and powers under this section to one of its agents.

History.—s. 26, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 2, ch. 63-243; s. 1, ch. 65-197; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 20, ch. 74-112; s. 48, ch. 77-120; s. 58, ch. 79-3.

944.291 Prisoner released by reason of gain-time allowances.—

(1) A prisoner who has served his term or terms, less allowable statutory gain-time deductions and extra good-time allowances, as provided by law, shall, upon release, be under the supervision and control of the department and shall be subject to all statutes relating to parole, but in no event shall such supervision extend beyond 2 years, as determined by the Parole and Probation Commission.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to prisoners who, at the time of sentence, could not have earned at least 180 days' gain-time.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-421; s. 21, ch. 74-112; s. 50, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 78-223; s. 59, ch. 79-3.

944.292 Suspension of civil rights.—Upon conviction of a felony as defined in s. 10, Art. X of the State Constitution, the civil rights of the person convicted shall be suspended in Florida until such rights are restored by a full pardon, conditional pardon, or restoration of civil rights granted pursuant to s. 8, Art. IV of the State Constitution.

History.—s. 28, ch. 74-112; s. 1, ch. 76-139.

944.293 Initiation of restoration of civil rights.—With respect to those persons convicted of a felony, the following procedure shall apply: Prior to the time an offender is discharged from supervision, an authorized agent of the department shall obtain from the Governor the necessary application and other forms required for the restoration of civil rights. The authorized agent shall assist the offender in completing these forms and shall insure that the application and all necessary material are forwarded to the Governor before the offender is discharged from supervision.

History.—s. 29, ch. 74-112; s. 1, ch. 76-139; s. 60, ch. 79-3.

944.30 Life prisoners; commutation to term for years.—Any prisoner who is sentenced to life imprisonment, who has actually served 10 years and has sustained no charge of misconduct and has a good institutional record, shall be recommended by the department for a reasonable commutation of his sentence, and if the same be granted, commuting the life sentence to a term for years, then such prisoner shall have the benefit of the ordinary commutation, as if the original sentence was for a term for years, unless it shall be otherwise ordered by the Board of Pardons.

History.—s. 28, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 51, ch. 77-120; s. 61, ch. 79-3.

944.31 Prison inspectors' duties.—Prison inspectors shall be employed by the department and charged with the duty of inspecting the penal and correctional systems of the state. The prison inspectors shall inspect each jail, stockade or correctional institution or any place in which state or county prisoners are housed, worked, or kept within the state, with reference to the physical conditions, cleanliness, sanitation, safety, comfort, the quality and supply of all bedding, the quality, quantity, and diversity of food served and the manner in which it is served, the number and condition of the prisoners confined therein, and the general conditions of each institution. They shall see that all the rules and regulations issued by the department are strictly observed and followed by all persons connected with the correctional systems of the state. The inspectors will be directly responsible to the department which shall coordinate and supervise their work throughout the state. Each prison inspector may enter any place where prisoners in this state are kept and shall be immediately admitted to such place as he desires; and, he may consult and confer with any prisoner privately and without molestation.

History.—s. 29, ch. 57-121; s. 6, ch. 61-192; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 52, ch. 77-120; s. 62, ch. 79-3.

944.32 Reports of prison inspectors; recordation; inspection.—Upon completing an inspection of any jail or a correctional institution the inspector shall make a full and complete report on such forms as shall be provided by the department. One copy of each report shall be filed with the department, one copy with the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where the inspection is made and as many other copies as the department shall require; these reports shall at all times be open to inspection in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, and shall be matters of public record and subject to inspection by the public at any time.

History.—s. 30, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 53, ch. 77-120; s. 63, ch. 79-3.

944.33 Failure of inspector to make report; false report; penalty.—If any prison inspector shall fail to make a report of his findings, he shall be immediately discharged and shall not be again employed in such capacity. If any prison inspector shall knowingly make a false report of his findings, he shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 31, ch. 57-121; s. 1166, ch. 71-136.

944.34 Order and punishment.—All necessary means shall be used by the superintendents, and such punishments as may be needful shall be adopted to maintain order, enforce obedience and discipline, suppress insurrection, prevent escapes, and compel performance of labor; but no cruel or inhuman punishment shall be inflicted upon any prisoner, and no punishment injurious to the mind or the body of the prisoner shall be permitted, nor shall any prisoner be compelled to labor without sufficient food.

History.—s. 32, ch. 57-121.

944.35 Corporal punishment prohibited; penalty.—It is unlawful for any corporal punishment, any cruel or inhuman punishment, or any punishment by which the flesh of the body is broken, bruised, or lacerated to be inflicted upon any prisoner at any time. Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be discharged immediately and shall not again be employed in any capacity in connection with the correctional system and shall be punished as provided by law for whatever offense he may have committed in perpetrating the act. No prisoner shall be punished because of any report or representation which he may have made to any inspector.

History.—s. 33, ch. 57-121.

944.36 Cruel treatment of prisoners; permitting prisoners to escape.—Any agent, employee, or officer of the department, or guard, having supervision over state prisoners being worked under the provisions of law, who shall be guilty of any cruel or inhuman treatment to any prisoner by neglect or otherwise, or shall willfully or negligently permit any prisoner to escape, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 34, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 1167, ch. 71-136; s. 54, ch. 77-120; s. 64, ch. 79-3.

944.37 Acceptance of unauthorized compensation; penalty.—No officer or employee of the department shall receive, directly or indirectly, from any prisoner or from anyone on behalf of such prisoner, any gift, reward, or any compensation whatsoever for his services or supplies other than that prescribed or authorized by law or the department. Whoever violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 35, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 1168, ch. 71-136; s. 55, ch. 77-120; s. 65, ch. 79-3.

944.38 Acceptance of remuneration from contractor; dealing or barter with prisoners; interest in contract; penalty.—

(1) No officer or employee of the department shall receive any compensation whatsoever, directly or indirectly, for any act or service which he may do or perform for or on behalf of any officer or employee or agent, or employee of a contractor; nor shall any officer or employee of the department or the state be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or purchase made, or authorized to be made, by anyone for or on behalf of the department.

(2) No officer or employee of the department or of the state, or any contractor, or employee of a contractor, shall, without permission of the department, make any gift or present to a prisoner, or receive the same from any prisoner, or have any barter or dealings with any prisoner.

(3) For any violation of the provisions of this section the officer or employee of the state shall be discharged from his office or service; and every contractor, or employee, or agent of a contractor engaged therein, and a party thereto, shall be expelled from the institutional grounds, and not again permitted within the same as a contractor, agent, or employee.

History.—s. 36, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 56, ch. 77-120; s. 66, ch. 79-3.

944.39 Interference with prisoners; penalty.—Any person who, without authority, interferes with or in any way interrupts the work of any prisoner under the custody of the department or who in any way interferes with the discipline or good conduct of any prisoner shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. No person shall, by disguise, misrepresentation of identity or other illicit means, attempt to gain admission to or enter upon the grounds of any state correctional institution for the purpose of visiting any prisoner in violation of the general visiting policy adopted by the department. A person, upon conviction of an offense as outlined in this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. Any peace officer or any officer or guard of the department or any prison inspector or any employee of the department may arrest without warrant any person violating the provisions of this section.

944.42 Assault by prisoner other than life; penalty.—Every person undergoing a sentence of less than life in a state correctional institution who, with malice aforethought, commits an assault upon the person of another with a deadly weapon or instrument or by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury but which is not an assault with intent to commit a felony shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 2, ch. 57-313; s. 1171, ch. 71-136.

944.43 Possession of weapon; penalty.—Every prisoner committed to the custody of the department who, while in such custody, possesses or carries upon his person or has under his control any instrument or weapon of any kind or any explosive substance, contrary to any rule or regulation promulgated by the department, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 3, ch. 57-313; s. 13, ch. 59-1; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1172, ch. 71-136; s. 58, ch. 77-120; s. 68, ch. 79-3.

944.44 Holding persons as hostages; penalty.—Any prisoner who holds as hostage any person within any correctional institution or anywhere while under the jurisdiction of the department, or who by force, or threat of force holds any person or persons against their will in defiance of official orders, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 4, ch. 57-313; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 1173, ch. 71-136; s. 59, ch. 77-120; s. 69, ch. 79-3.

944.45 Mutiny, riot, strike; penalty.—Whoever instigates, contrives, willfully attempts to cause, assists, or conspires to cause any mutiny, riot, or strike in defiance of official orders, in any state correctional institution, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 5, ch. 57-313; s. 1174, ch. 71-136.

944.46 Harboring, concealing, aiding escaped prisoners; penalty.—Whoever harbors, conceals, maintains, or assists, or gives any other aid to any prisoner after his escape from any state correctional institution, knowing that he is an escaped prisoner, shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 6, ch. 57-313; s. 1175, ch. 71-136.

944.47 Introduction or removal of certain articles unlawful; penalty.—

(1)(a) It is unlawful to introduce into or upon the grounds of any correctional or penal institution under the supervision or control of the department, or to take or attempt to take or send therefrom, any of the following articles which are hereby declared to be contraband for the purposes of this section, to wit:

1. Any written or recorded communication or any currency or coin given or transmitted or intended to be given or transmitted to any inmate of any correctional or penal institution under the supervision and direction of the department;
2. Any article of food or clothing;
3. Any intoxicating beverage or beverage which causes or may cause an intoxicating effect;
4. Any narcotic or hypnotic or excitative drug or any drug of whatever kind or nature including, but not limited to, nasal inhalators of any variety, sleeping pills, barbiturates of any variety, and any controlled substance as defined in s. 893.02(3); and
5. Any firearm or any instrumentality customarily used as a dangerous weapon; except through regular channels as authorized by the officer in charge of each correctional or penal institution.

(b) It is unlawful to transmit or attempt to transmit or cause or attempt to cause to be transmitted to, or received by, any inmate of any state correctional institution any article or thing declared by this subsection to be contraband, at any place which is outside of the grounds of such institution, except through regular channels as authorized by the officer in charge of such institution.

(2) Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 7, ch. 57-313; s. 8, ch. 61-192; s. 1, ch. 65-225; s. 1, ch. 67-160; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1176, ch. 71-136; s. 60, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 78-42; s. 70, ch. 79-3.

944.48 Service of sentence.—Whenever any prisoner is convicted under the provisions of ss. 944.41-944.47 the punishment of imprisonment imposed shall be served consecutively to any former sentence imposed upon any prisoner convicted hereunder.

History.—s. 8, ch. 57-313.

944.485 Department to adopt plan for subsistence fees with respect to certain prisoners; time of adoption; requirements.—

(1) In recognition of the fact that many prisoners in the correctional system have sources of income and assets outside of the correctional system, which may include bank accounts, inheritances, real estate, social security payments, veteran's payments, and other types of financial resources, and in recognition of the fact that the daily subsistence cost of incarcerating prisoners in the correctional system is a great burden on the taxpayers of the state, each prisoner in the state correctional system, except those who have entered into an agreement under s. 947.135 prior to October 1, 1978:

(a) Shall disclose all revenue or assets as a condition of parole eligibility.

(b) Shall pay from such income and assets, except where such income is exempt by state or federal law, all or a fair portion of the prisoner's daily subsistence costs, based upon the inmate's ability to pay, the liability or potential liability of the inmate to the victim or the guardian or the estate of the victim, and the needs of his dependents.

(2) Any prisoner who is directed to pay all or a fair portion of daily subsistence costs is entitled to reasonable advance notice of the assessment and shall be afforded an opportunity to present reasons for opposition to the assessment.

(3) The department shall promulgate, within 90 days of October 1, 1978, rules which implement this section.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-441.

944.49 Requirement of labor; compensation; amount; crediting of account of prisoner; forfeiture; civil rights; prisoner not employee or entitled to compensation insurance benefits.—

(1) The department shall require of every able-bodied prisoner imprisoned in any institution as many hours of faithful labor in each day and every day during his term of imprisonment as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the department.

(2)(a) Each prisoner who is engaged in productive work in any state correctional institution, program, or facility under the jurisdiction of the department may receive for work performed such compensation as the department shall determine. Such compensation shall be in accordance with a schedule based on quality and quantity of work performed and skill required for performance, and said compensation shall be credited to the account of the prisoner or the prisoner's family.

(b) Any monetary payments made directly to the prisoner shall be used in whole or in part to satisfy restitution ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction to the victim of the criminal act.

(c) It shall be the policy of the department to require inmates receiving compensation for work performed in community programs to reimburse the state for lodging, food, transportation, and other expenses incurred for sustaining the inmate. Reimbursement shall be according to rules promulgated by the department, which shall provide that the inmate retain only a minimal amount of money for personal items and shall take into consideration compensation that may be allocated for the support of the inmate's family and for restitution for the victim of the crime committed.

(3) Said compensation shall be paid from the Department of Corrections Correctional Work Program Trust Fund. Whenever any price is fixed on any article, material, supply, or service, to be produced, manufactured, supplied, or performed in connection with the work program of the department, the compensation paid to the prisoners shall be included as an item of cost in the final price.

(4) When any prisoner escapes, the department shall determine what portion of his earnings shall be forfeited, and such forfeiture shall be deposited in the State Treasury in the Inmate Welfare Fund of the department.

(5) Nothing in this section is intended to restore, in whole or in part, the civil rights of any prisoner. No prisoner compensated under this section shall be considered as an employee of the state or the department, nor shall such prisoner come within any other provision of the Workers' Compensation Act.

History.—s. 39, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 2, 16, ch. 76-273; s. 253, ch. 77-104; s. 61, ch. 77-120; s. 71, ch. 79-3; s. 121, ch. 79-40.

944.50 Forfeiture of earnings of prisoners; determination of amount to be forfeited; deposit in Correctional Work Program Trust Fund.—When any prisoner shall willfully violate the terms of his employment or the rules and regulations of the department, the department may in its discretion determine what portion of all moneys earned by the prisoner shall be forfeited by said prisoner and such forfeiture shall be redeposited to the Department of Corrections Correctional Work Program Trust Fund.

History.—s. 40, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 253, ch. 77-104; s. 62, ch. 77-120; s. 72, ch. 79-3.

944.512 State lien on proceeds from literary or other type of account of crime for which imprisoned.—

(1) A lien prior in dignity to all others shall exist in favor of the state upon royalties, commissions, proceeds of sale, or any other thing of value payable to or accruing to a convicted felon or a person on his behalf, including any person to whom the proceeds may be transferred or assigned by gift or otherwise, from any literary, cinematic, or other account of the crime for which he was convicted.

(2) The proceeds of such account shall be distributed as follows:

(a) Twenty-five percent to the dependents of the convicted felon.

(b) Twenty-five percent to the victim or victims of the crime or to their dependents, to the extent of their damages as determined by the court in the lien enforcement proceedings.

(c) An amount equal to pay court costs, which shall include jury fees and expenses, court reporter fees, and reasonable per diem for the prosecuting attorneys for the state, shall go to the General Revenue Fund. Additional costs shall be assessed for the computed per capita cost of imprisonment in the state correctional institution. Such costs shall be determined by the Auditor General.

(d) The rest, residue, and remainder to the convicted felon upon his or her release or parole or upon the expiration of his or her sentence.

(3) The department is hereby authorized and directed to report to the Department of Legal Affairs the existence or reasonably expected existence of circumstances which would be covered by this section. Upon such notification, the Department of Legal Affairs is authorized and directed to take such legal action as is necessary to perfect and enforce the lien created by this section.

History.—ss. 1-3, ch. 77-45; s. 73, ch. 79-3; s. 302, ch. 79-400.

944.52 Legal advisor.—The Department of Legal Affairs shall be the legal advisor of the Department of Corrections.

History.—s. 42, ch. 57-121; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 63, ch. 77-120; s. 74, ch. 79-3.

944.54 Transportation furnished prisoners upon release.—

(1) The superintendents or wardens of the several state correctional institutions are authorized to furnish each prisoner, upon his release from a state correctional institution, transportation from such institution to such place as the classification committee may determine to be in the best interest of the prisoner. The transportation furnished shall be by the most economical means, utilizing a common carrier of the state, and such cost of transportation shall not exceed $50. The classification committee may, in its discretion, determine that the best interests of the state will be served by providing transportation for the prisoner to a place outside the state, in which instance transportation in excess of $50 may be authorized with the excess being paid only from surplus transportation funds available to the institution. However, the transportation furnished shall be the most economical available, utilizing a common carrier.

(2) Transportation as authorized herein shall be furnished by a nonnegotiable travel voucher payable to the common carrier being utilized and in no event shall there be any cash disbursement to the releasee or any person, firm, or corporation. Such travel voucher shall not be valid 60 days after issuance thereof.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 59-317; s. 1, ch. 78-14.

944.551 Vocational education and career development services; coordination with other agencies.—

(1) The department shall coordinate and develop job training and job placement in cooperation with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the Division of Vocational Education of the Department of Education, and the Florida State Employment Service of the Department of Labor and Employment Security.

(2) The department shall have the capability of evaluating current job-training programs and performing follow-up investigations and studies to determine the effectiveness of these programs. Job histories of each offender enrolled in the program shall be maintained, tracing the offender's employment after leaving prison for a period of at least 2 years.

944.57 Manpower development programs.

Commencing July 1, 1975, the department shall expand the manpower development training program to appropriate institutions designated by it. The program shall provide for vocational testing and training of offenders in the custody of the department and shall contain the basic components of the manpower development and training program existing on July 1, 1974, in the Apalachee Correctional Institution. The department is authorized to apply for and receive gifts, grants, and other payments, including property and services, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person to effect the purposes of the manpower programs provided in this chapter.

History.—s. 17, ch. 74-112; s. 66, ch. 77-120; s. 76, ch. 79-3.

944.58 Definitions; ss. 944.581-944.593.—As used in ss. 944.581-944.593:

(1) "Correctional officer" means any person employed by this state or any subdivision thereof whose responsibility is the supervision, protection, care, custody, and control of inmates within the correctional institutions of this state. It is the intent of this definition to exclude from this act secretarial, clerical, and professionally trained personnel.

(2) "Employing agency" means this state or any subdivision thereof employing correctional officers as defined in subsection (1).

(3) "Council" means the Correctional Standards Council.

History.—s. 2, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

944.581 Correctional Standards Council.

(1)(a) There is created a Correctional Standards Council. The council shall be composed of 11 members, consisting of the Attorney General or his designated assistant, the Commissioner of Education or his designated assistant, the <sup>2</sup>Secretary of Offender Rehabilitation or his designated assistant, and eight members to be appointed by the Governor. The eight members appointed by the Governor shall consist of two state correctional officers, one of whom shall be an administrator and the other a correctional officer who is not an administrator; one person who is in charge of a municipal correctional institution; one person who is in charge of a county correctional institution; two sheriffs; and two representatives at large, one of whom shall be in charge of a correctional education program in a 4-year or 2-year educational institution.

(b) Members appointed by the Governor shall be appointed for terms of 2 years. No appointive member shall serve beyond the time he ceases to hold the office or employment by reason of which he was eligible for appointment to the council. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy because of death, resignation, or ineligibility for membership shall serve only for the unexpired term of his predecessor or until a qualified successor is appointed.

(2)(a) The council shall annually elect its chairman and other officers.

(b) The council shall hold at least four regular meetings each year at the call of the chairman or upon written request by two members of the council. A majority of the members of the council constitutes a quorum.

(3) Members of the council shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to be reimbursed for per diem and traveling expenses as provided by s. 112.061.

(4) The council shall make an annual report of its activities to the Governor and to the Legislature and shall include in such report its recommendations for additional legislation.

History.—ss. 3-6, ch. 74-107; s. 1, ch. 75-271; s. 254, ch. 77-104; s. 67, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

Note.—Section 1, ch. 78-53, changed the title of "Secretary of Offender Rehabilitation" to "Secretary of Corrections."

944.582 General powers of the council.—The council is authorized to:

(1) Promulgate rules and regulations for the administration of this act, pursuant to chapter 120.

(2) Employ a director and such other personnel as may be necessary in the performance of its functions.

(3) Provide rules of procedure for its internal management and control.

(4) Enter into contracts or do such things as may be necessary and incidental to the administration of its authority pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 7, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.583 Special powers; correctional officer training.—In connection with the employment and training of correctional officers, the council shall have the special powers to:

(1) Establish uniform minimum standards for the employment and training of correctional officers, including qualifications and requirements as may be established by the council subject to specific provisions contained in this act.

(2) Establish minimum curricular requirements for schools operated by the state or any subdivision thereof for the purpose of training correctional officer recruits or correctional officers.

(3) Consult and cooperate with the state or any subdivision thereof and with universities, colleges, community colleges, and other educational institutions concerning the development of correctional officer training schools and programs or courses of instruction.

(4) Approve institutions and facilities for school operation by or for the state or any subdivision thereof for the specific purpose of training correctional officers and correctional officer recruits.

(5) Issue certificates of competency to persons who, by reason of experience and completion of inservice advanced education or specialized training, are especially qualified for particular aspects or classes of correctional work.

(6) Make or encourage studies on any aspect of corrections education and training or recruitment.

(7) Make or encourage studies on compensation paid correctional officers throughout the state. The council shall study the salary scale, education, training, and any other items on which compensation is based and make recommendations to the next regular session of the legislature regarding this study.

(8) Make recommendations concerning any aspect of corrections which is within the purview of the council pursuant to this act.

History.—s. 8, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.584 Correctional officers; qualifications for employment.—After July 1, 1974, any person employed as a correctional officer shall:

(1) Have reached the age of majority.
 (2) Be a high school graduate or its "equivalent" as the term may be determined by the council.
 (3) Have his fingerprints on file with the council or any agency designated by the council.

<sup>1</sup>(5) Have a good moral character as determined by investigation under procedures established by the council.

History.—s. 9, ch. 74-107; s. 1, ch. 77-116; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this subsection prior to that date.

944.585 Correctional officer training program established.—

(1) The council shall establish and maintain a correctional officer training program with such curriculum and administered by such agencies and institutions as it approves and shall issue a certificate of completion to any person satisfactorily completing the training program established.

(2) The council shall issue a certificate of compliance to any person satisfactorily complying with the training program established in subsection (1) and the qualifications for employment in s. 944.584, and any person employed as a correctional officer shall obtain such certificate of compliance within 12 months after the date he began his employment or within 12 months of July 1, 1977, whichever is later. No person employed as a correctional officer shall become a permanent state employee until he has received the certificate of compliance.

(3) The council may issue a certificate to any person who has received training in another state when the council has determined that such training was at least equivalent to that required by the council for approved correctional officer education and training programs in this state and when such person has satisfactorily complied with all other requirements of this act.

(4) Correctional officers who began their employment between July 1, 1974, and June 30, 1976, shall be required to meet the provisions of subsection (2) or subsection (3) as a condition of eligibility for promotion.

History.—s. 10, ch. 74-107; ss. 1, 2, ch. 77-210; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 303, ch. 79-400.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.586 Reimbursement of employing agency by council.—The council shall, subject to the availability of funds, reimburse an employing agency an amount equivalent to 50 percent of the salary, if any, and allowable living expenses of recruit trainees in attendance at approved training programs.

History.—s. 11, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.587 Payment of tuition by employing agency.—An employing agency, state agency, or political subdivision of this state is authorized to pay any or all costs of tuition of trainees in attendance at approved training programs.

History.—s. 12, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.588 Inservice training and promotion; participation, grants.—

(1) The council, by rules and regulations, shall prescribe curricula and standards for advanced and specialized training courses and training in addition to those prescribed in ss. 944.584 and 944.585.

(2) Correctional institutions and employing agencies participating under the provisions of this section shall adhere to the standards and procedures established by the council.

(3) Institutions and agencies offering approved programs of inservice or advanced training may receive grants from the council, subject to the availability of funds, not to exceed 50 percent of the cost of offering approved training courses.

History.—s. 13, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.589 Financing of council.—The council may accept, for any of its purposes and functions under this act, any donations of property, real, personal, or mixed, and grants of money from any governmental unit, public agency, institution, person, firm, or corporation. Such moneys shall be deposited, or disbursed and administered in a trust fund as provided by the laws of Florida.

History.—s. 14, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.590 Salary scale study; report, recommendation.—The council shall make a comprehensive study of the compensation paid to correctional officers throughout the state. Among the items to be researched shall be variation in salary scale, education and training of officers, retirement and pension programs, comparison of salaries received by correctional officers with salaries of other law enforcement officers within the state, and any other factors on which compensation is based. The council shall report its findings to each regular session of the legislature and make recommendations for achieving uniformity in compensation for correctional officers with equal or comparable responsibilities, experience, education, and training.

History.—s. 15, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.591 Intent.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to strengthen and upgrade the correctional institutions in Florida by attracting competent, highly qualified young people for professional careers in this field and to retain well-qualified and experienced correctional officers.

(2) It is the further intent of the Legislature to establish a minimum foundation program for correctional officers which will provide a statewide minimum salary for all such officers, to provide a state monetary supplement to effectuate an upgrading of compensation for all correctional officers, and to upgrade the educational and training standards of such officers.

History.—s. 16, ch. 74-107; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.592 Saving clause.—

(1) Correctional officers employed on July 1, 1974, shall not be required to meet the provisions of ss. 944.583(1) and 944.584 as a condition of tenure or continued employment; nor shall their failure to fulfill such requirements make them ineligible for any promotional examination for which they are otherwise eligible.

(2) The provisions of this act shall not apply to any elected officers.

(3) Correctional officers who began employment between July 1, 1974, and June 30, 1976, shall not be required to meet the provisions of s. 944.585 as a condition of continued employment.

History.—ss. 17, 19, ch. 74-107; s. 3, ch. 77-210; s. 4, ch. 78-323.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

944.593 Qualifications and standards above minimum.—Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude an employing agency from establishing qualifications and standards for hiring, training, or promoting correctional officers that exceed the minimum set by the council.

945.01 Definitions.—As used herein, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise:

(1) "Correctional system" means all prisons and other correctional institutions now existing or hereafter created under the jurisdiction of the department.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Corrections.

(3) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Corrections.

(4) "Reception center" means a temporary custodial institution for offenders committed to the department for classification and assignment to an appropriate institution in the correctional system.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-213; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 283, ch. 71-377; s. 68, ch. 77-120; s. 77, ch. 79-3.

945.025 Jurisdiction of department.—

(1) The Department of Corrections shall have supervisory and protective care, custody, and control of the inmates, buildings, grounds, property, and all other matters pertaining to the following institutions, facilities, and programs for the imprisonment, correction, and rehabilitation of adult offenders:

- (a) Apalachee Correctional Institution;
- (b) Florida Correctional Institution;
- (c) Glades Correctional Institution;
- (d) Florida State Prison;
- (e) Department of Corrections Road Prisons;
- (f) Sumter Correctional Institution;
- (g) Avon Park Correctional Institution;
- (h) Union Correctional Institution;
- (i) Reception and Medical Center at Lake Butler;
- (j) Cross City Correctional Institution;
- (k) Lake Correctional Institution;
- (l) Brevard Correctional Institution;
- (m) Department of Corrections Community Correctional Centers;
- (n) Department of Corrections Vocational Centers; and
- (o) DeSoto Correctional Institution.

(2) In establishing, operating, and utilizing these facilities, the department shall attempt, whenever possible, to avoid the placement of nondangerous offenders with potential for rehabilitation with repeat offenders or dangerous offenders. Medical, mental, and psychological problems shall be diagnosed and treated whenever possible. The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall cooperate to insure the delivery of services to persons under the department's custody or supervision. When it is the intent of the department to transfer a mentally ill or retarded prisoner to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, an involuntary commitment hearing shall be held according to the provisions of chapter 393 or chapter 394.

(3) There shall be other correctional facilities, including detention facilities of varying levels of security, work-release facilities, and community correctional facilities, halfway houses, and other approved community residential and nonresidential facilities and programs; however, no adult correctional facility shall be established by changing the use and purpose of any mental health facility or mental health institution under the jurisdiction of any state agency or department without authorization in the General Appropriation Act or other approval by the Legislature. Any facility the purpose and use of which was changed subsequent to January 1, 1975, shall be returned to its original use and purpose by July 1, 1977. However, the G. Pierce Wood Memorial Hospital located at Arcadia, DeSoto County, shall not be converted into a correctional facility as long as such hospital is in use as a state mental health hospital. Any community residential facility may be deemed a part of the state correctional system for purposes of maintaining custody of offenders, and for this purpose the department may contract for and purchase the services of such facilities.

Note.—Former s. 965.01(1).

945.031 Official seal.—The Department of Corrections is authorized to adopt an official seal. The seal shall be used for the purpose of authenticating its official documents and such other purposes as it may prescribe.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-163; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 70, ch. 77-120; s. 79, ch. 79-3.

945.04 Department of Corrections; general function.—The Department of Corrections shall be responsible for the inmates and for the operation of, and shall have supervisory and protective care, custody, and control of, all buildings, grounds, property of, and matters connected with, the correctional system.

History.—s. 4, ch. 57-213; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 71, ch. 77-120; s. 80, ch. 79-3.

945.045 Department duty to use inmate labor.—The Department of Corrections shall maximize the use of inmate labor in the construction of inmate housing and the conduct of all maintenance projects so that such activities provide work opportunities for the optimum number of inmates in the most cost-effective manner.

History.—s. 18, ch. 76-273; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 81, ch. 79-3.

945.047 Licensing requirements for physicians, osteopaths, and chiropractors employed by the department.—

(1) The Department of Corrections shall employ only physicians, osteopathic physicians, or chiropractic physicians holding licenses in good standing to practice medicine in this state, except that, by October 1, 1980, no more than 10 percent of the total number of such physicians employed by the department may be exempted from the provisions of this subsection. Each such exempted physician shall hold a valid license to practice medicine, osteopathy, or chiropractic in another state and shall have been certified by the appropriate board as eligible for admission for examination in this state under chapter 458, chapter 459, or chapter 460, as applicable. The appropriate board shall not certify as eligible for admission for examination any person who has been adjudged unqualified or guilty of any of the acts enumerated in the disciplinary provisions contained in chapter 458, chapter 459, or chapter 460, as applicable.

(2) No person subject to the provisions of this section shall, by virtue of his continued employment in accordance with such provisions, be in violation of the unauthorized practice provisions of chapter 458, chapter 459, or chapter 460 during such period of employment.

History.—s. 3, ch. 79-302.

945.06 Correctional work programs.—

(1) The department shall adopt and put into effect an agricultural and industrial production and marketing program to provide training facilities for persons confined in the adult correctional institutions under the control and supervision of the department. The emphasis of this program shall be to provide inmates with useful work experience, on a full-time basis when feasible, and appropriate job skills that will facilitate their reentry into society and provide an economic benefit to the public and the department through effective utilization of inmates.

(2) The department is authorized to cause to be manufactured, processed, or produced by the inmates of the adult correctional institutions under the control and supervision of the department such items as are practical and adaptable for prison industry and are needed and used in state institutions and agencies and in other governmental jurisdictions of the state. The department shall give priority to the implementation of those activities and services that will directly assist in reducing the reliance of the department upon external sources of supply in the areas of agriculture, animal husbandry, and the allied craft trades that are capable of producing a fiscal benefit to the state and which will facilitate self-sufficiency for the inmate, the department, and other units of government.

History.—s. 6, ch. 57-213; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 2, ch. 72-24; s. 3, ch. 76-273.

945.061 Correctional work program objectives.—In adopting or modifying master plans for correctional work programs, and in the administration of the Department of Corrections, it shall be the objective of the department to develop:

(1) Attitudes favorable to work, the work situation, and a law-abiding life in each inmate employed in the correctional work program.

(2) Training opportunities that are reasonably broad, but which develop specific work skills.

(3) Programs that motivate inmates to use their abilities. Inmates who do not adjust to these programs shall be reassigned.

(4) In cooperation with its regional advisory councils, training programs which will be of mutual benefit to all governmental jurisdictions of the state by reducing the costs of government to the taxpayers and which integrate all instructional programs into a unified curriculum suitable for all inmates, but taking account of the different abilities of each inmate. The department shall avail itself of the services of local manpower planning councils to assess the employment opportunities for released inmates.

History.—s. 6, ch. 76-273; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 82, ch. 79-3.

945.062 Financing of correctional work programs.—

(1) The department shall explore new financing arrangements, including the involvement of private industry and expertise within or outside the institutions, to the maximum extent allowed by law. Nothing in this section shall be construed or interpreted as authorizing or permitting the department to incur a state debt of any kind or nature as contemplated by the State Constitution in relation to such financing arrangements.

(2) The correctional work program shall be efficient and shall stress productive labor for all inmates physically able to engage in it.

History.—s. 7, ch. 76-273.

945.063 Operational guidelines for the correctional work programs.—

(1) The department shall establish guidelines for the operation of correctional work programs, which shall include the following procedures:

(a) The education, work experience, emotional and mental abilities, and physical capabilities of the inmate and the length of sentence imposed on the inmate are to be analyzed before assignment of the inmate into the various processes best suited for training.

(b) When feasible, the department shall attempt to obtain training credit for an inmate seeking apprenticeship status.

(c) The inmate may begin in a general work skills program and progress to a specific work skills training program, depending upon the ability, desire, and work record of the inmate.

(d) Modernization and upgrading of equipment and facilities should include greater automation and improved production techniques to expose inmates to the latest technological procedures to facilitate their adjustment to real work situations.

(2) Evaluations of correctional work programs shall be conducted according to the following guidelines:

(a) Systematic evaluations shall be implemented, in accordance with s. 20.315(15), to determine whether the correctional work programs are related to successful post-release adjustments.

(b) Operations and policies of work programs shall be reevaluated to determine if they are consistent with their primary objectives.

(3) The department shall seek the advice of private labor and management to:

(a) Assist its work programs in the development of statewide policies aimed at innovation and organizational change.

(b) Obtain technical and practical assistance, information, and guidance.

(c) Encourage the cooperation and involvement of the private sector.

History.—s. 8, ch. 76-273.

945.065 Prison Industry Commission; creation; membership; meetings; compensation.—

(1) There is created within the Department of Corrections the Prison Industry Commission composed of eight commissioners.

(a) Seven commissioners shall be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate. Two of such commissioners shall be representatives of Florida-based business enterprises; two shall be representatives of agricultural enterprises; two shall be knowledgeable in the field of vocational training.

(b) One commissioner shall be the Secretary of Corrections.

(2) All members of the Prison Industry Commission shall serve for 4-year terms, except that the Secretary of Corrections shall be a member of the Prison Industry Commission so long as he shall remain in that position. The terms of the initial members of the Prison Industry Commission shall be as follows: two of the commissioners appointed by the Governor shall have terms of 2 years, two shall have terms of 3 years, and two shall have terms of 4 years. Commissioners may be reappointed. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the term by the occupant of the office from which the appointment to the vacant seat was originally made.

(3) As soon as practicable after appointment, the members of the Prison Industry Commission shall hold an organizational meeting and elect a chairman and such other officers as the Prison Industry Commission deems necessary; however, the Secretary of Corrections shall not be elected to any office. Officers shall serve for 1 year and may be reelected.

(4) The Prison Industry Commission shall meet a minimum of four times each year and may also hold additional meetings at the call of the chairman, provided each member is given at least 3 days' notice of such meeting. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Action may be taken by a majority of the members present at a meeting where a quorum is present.

(5) Commissioners shall receive no compensation but shall receive travel expenses and per diem in accordance with s. 112.061.

History.—s. 4, ch. 76-273; s. 4, ch. 78-323; s. 83, ch. 79-3.

Note.—Repealed by s. 4, ch. 78-323, effective October 1, 1981, except for the possible effect of laws affecting this section prior to that date.

945.066 Commission powers and duties.—

(1) The Prison Industry Commission shall:

(a) Plan a correctional work program which provides suitable training and work experience to assist in the rehabilitation and training of persons confined to adult correctional institutions and which will not result in undue competition with private enterprise.

(b) Recommend the establishment and maintenance of industrial plants which can be operated primarily by inmates in a manner profitable to the state and beneficial in the training of inmates through the manufacture, processing, or producing of such items as are practical and adaptable for prison industry and are needed and used by state institutions and agencies; counties, municipalities, school districts, or other political subdivisions; any federal agency or institution; or any agency, institution, or political subdivision of another state.

(c) Review the operation of correctional work programs annually, to determine if undue competition with private enterprise exists, and recommend adjustments necessary to prevent undue competition.

(d) Determine which existing industries are operated on a self-sustaining basis and recommend policies which would assist in achieving a financially self-sustaining basis for all correctional work programs.

(e) Provide an annual report to the Governor, the secretary of the department, and the Legislature prior to October 1 of each year summarizing the status of the correctional work program. The report may also include any other relevant information and recommendations for changes in any other area of offender rehabilitation which would aid in the establishment or success of a correctional work program.

(2) The department is authorized to implement a correctional work program, taking into consideration the recommendations of the Prison Industry Commission, including recommendations for providing for gain-time credits for those inmates who participate in the correctional work program. The department shall work with the Prison Industry Commission, shall be responsible for the administration of the correctional work program, and shall provide the Prison Industry Commission with staff assistance to carry out the provisions of this act.

History.—s. 5, ch. 76-273.

945.081 Classification regulations.—The Department of Corrections shall adopt regulations for the classification of all offenders according to age, sex, and such other factors as it may deem advisable and shall provide for the separation of prisoners by sex.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-171; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 72, ch. 77-120; s. 84, ch. 79-3.

945.09 Commitment of prisoners; classification; reception and classification program; transfer.—

(1) All prisoners sentenced to the state penitentiary shall be committed by the court to the custody of the Department of Corrections.

(2) All prisoners committed to its custody shall be conveyed to such institution, facility, or program in the correctional system as the department shall direct, in accordance with its classification scheme. The department shall establish a program of graduated punishment with the following classification of inmates:

(a) Class I.—Incorrigible inmates for whom a total lockup will be required; facilities shall include, but not be limited to, a portion of the Florida State Prison;

(b) Class II.—An intermediate class between Class I and Class III for those inmates who have had difficulty in the system but who have not yet proven themselves to be incorrigible;

(c) Class III.—Inmates for whom there exists hope of rehabilitation.

(3) Each prisoner shall be processed through a reception and evaluation program in the area where the prisoner was committed or where he was incarcerated.

(4) Pursuant to such regulations as it may provide, the department is authorized to transfer prisoners from one institution to another institution in the correctional system and to classify and reclassify prisoners as circumstances may require.

History.—s. 9, ch. 57-213; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 1, ch. 67-38; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 27, ch. 74-112; s. 73, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 85, ch. 79-3.
cf.—ss. 921.18, 921.20-921.22 Handling of persons receiving indeterminate sentences for noncapital felonies.

s. 944.16 Prisoners; how received.

945.091 Extend the limits of confinement; restitution by employed inmates.—

(1) The department is authorized to adopt regulations permitting the extension of the limits of the place of confinement of an inmate as to whom there is reasonable cause to believe he will honor his trust, by authorizing him, under prescribed conditions, and following investigation and approval by the secretary, who shall maintain a written record of such action, to leave the confines of that place unaccompanied by a custodial agent for a prescribed period of time to:

(a) Visit, for a specified period, a specifically designated place or places for the purpose of visiting a dying relative, attending the funeral of a relative, or arranging for employment or for a suitable residence for use when released, to otherwise aid in the rehabilitation of the inmate, or for another compelling reason consistent with the public interest, and return to the same or another institution or facility designated by the Department of Corrections; or

(b) Work at paid employment, participate in an education or a training program, or voluntarily serve a public or nonprofit agency in the community, while continuing as an inmate of the institution or facility in which he shall be confined, except during the hours of his employment, education, training, or service and traveling thereto and therefrom. Inmates shall participate in paid employment only during the last 18 months of their confinement, unless sooner requested by the Parole and Probation Commission.

(2) The department may adopt regulations as to the eligibility of inmates for this extension of confinement, the disbursement of any earnings of these inmates, or the entering into of agreements between itself and any city or county or federal agency for the housing of these inmates in a local place of confinement.

(3) The willful failure of an inmate to remain within the extended limits of his confinement or to return within the time prescribed to the place of confinement designated by the department shall be deemed as an escape from the custody of the department and shall be punishable as prescribed by law.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not be deemed to authorize any inmate who has been convicted of any murder, manslaughter, sexual battery, robbery, burglary, arson, aggravated assault, aggravated battery, kidnapping, escape, breaking and entering with intent to commit a felony, or aircraft piracy, or any attempt to commit the aforementioned crimes, to attend any classes at any state community college or any university which is a part of the State University System.

(5)(a) The department may require inmates working at paid employment as provided in paragraph (1)(b) to provide restitution to the aggrieved party for the damage or loss caused by the offense of the inmate, in an amount to be determined by the department.

(b) An offender who is required to provide restitution or reparation may petition the circuit court to amend the amount of restitution or reparation required or to revise the schedule of repayment established by the department or the Parole and Probation Commission.

History.—s. 1, ch. 67-59; s. 1, ch. 69-6; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 71-112; s. 9, ch. 76-273; s. 74, ch. 77-120; s. 4, ch. 77-150; s. 86, ch. 79-3.

945.10 Investigations; information confidential.—

(1) Except as provided below, information in a presentence investigation report made by the Department of Corrections shall be confidential and shall be available only to officers and employees of the court, the Legislature, the Parole and Probation

Commission, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, the Department of Corrections, and public law enforcement agencies in the performance of a public duty or, with the written permission of the Department of Corrections, to parties establishing legitimate research purposes. The Department of Corrections shall promulgate rules and regulations stating what portions of its files, reports, or records are considered confidential and subject to restricted view. The Department of Corrections shall promulgate rules and regulations to prevent the disclosure of confidential information to unauthorized parties, except as provided above. However, nothing in this subsection shall alter other provisions of the law relating to the accessibility of inmate records.

(2) No inmate of any institution, facility, or program of the Department of Corrections shall have access to any information contained in the files of the department. The department shall restrict release of information to any person except members of the news media and those listed in subsection (1) when there is reasonable cause to believe that such person may divulge such information to the inmate.

(3) The Department of Corrections and the commission shall mutually cooperate for the proper performance of the respective functions of each agency.

History.—s. 10, ch. 57-213; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 1, ch. 65-453; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 24, ch. 74-112; s. 255, ch. 77-104; s. 87, ch. 79-3.
cf.—ss. 921.18, 921.20-921.22 Handling of persons receiving indeterminate sentences for noncapital felonies.

945.11 Use of prisoners in public works.—

(1) The department is authorized to enter into agreements with such political subdivisions of the state, as defined by s. 1.01(9), and with such agencies and institutions of the state as might, under supervision of employees of the department, use the services of inmates of correctional institutions and camps when it is determined by the department that such services will not be detrimental to the welfare of such inmates or the interests of the state in a program of rehabilitation.

(2) The budget of the department may be reimbursed from the budget of any political subdivision of the state, as defined by s. 1.01(9), state agency, or state institution for the services of inmates and personnel of the department in such amounts as may be determined by agreement between the department and the head of such political subdivision, agency, or institution.

History.—s. 11, ch. 57-213; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 10, ch. 76-273.

945.12 Transfers for rehabilitative treatment.—

(1) The Department of Corrections is authorized to transfer drug dependents, as defined in chapter 397, and retarded, addicted, tuberculous, mentally ill, or other prisoners requiring specialized services to appropriate public or private facilities or programs for the purpose of providing such specialized service or treatment for as long as such service or treatment is needed, but for no longer than the remainder of the prisoner's sentence. When it is the intent of the department to transfer a mentally ill or retarded prisoner to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, an involuntary commitment hearing shall be held according to the provisions of chapter 393 or chapter 394.

If the committing court finds, after a hearing, that the patient does not meet the criteria for involuntary admission, he shall be returned to the Department of Corrections. If, at the hearing, the court concludes that the patient meets the criteria for involuntary hospitalization under s. 393.11 or s. 394.467(1), the judge shall order the patient to be transferred to a state mental health treatment facility or a retardation facility for treatment. The patient shall be retained by the Department [of Health and Rehabilitative Services] for a period not to exceed the remainder of his sentence. If the administrator of the facility and the patient's physician find that the patient no longer meets the criteria for involuntary admission, he shall be returned to the Department of Corrections immediately. If the patient remains hospitalized when his sentence expires, then an involuntary commitment hearing shall immediately be held in accordance with the provisions of s. 393.11 or s. 394.467.

(2) The Department of Corrections is authorized to enter into agreements with the controlling authorities of such state institutions as shall have or be provided with appropriate facilities for the secure confinement and treatment of drug addicts, alcoholics, insane, and tuberculous persons. In any such agreement, the department shall provide for custodial personnel to maintain proper security of persons transferred from the correctional system to any other state institution. Such custodial personnel shall be employed and paid by the department and subject to such rules as shall be agreed upon jointly by it and the controlling authority entering into such agreement.

(3) The department shall reimburse the institution furnishing treatment at a figure agreed upon by it and the controlling authority of such institution.

(4) When, in the opinion of the superintendent of an institution to which a prisoner has been transferred, such prisoner has been cured, or will no longer benefit from treatment at that institution, other than an insane prisoner, the superintendent shall notify the department which shall, at the earliest practicable date thereafter, convey such prisoner to the appropriate classification center for reclassification.

(5) When the department plans to release a mentally ill or retarded offender, an involuntary commitment hearing shall be held, as soon as possible prior to release, according to the provisions of chapter 393 or chapter 394.

(6)(a) A prisoner who has been determined by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the Department of Corrections to be amenable to rehabilitative treatment for sexual deviation, and who has voluntarily agreed to participate in such rehabilitative treatment, may be transferred to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services provided that appropriate bed space is available.

(b) The provisions of this subsection shall stand repealed on July 1, 1981.

Note.—Former s. 959.01.

945.14 Sale of goods made by prisoners prohibited.—

(1) No goods, wares, or merchandise manufactured or mined in whole or in part by prisoners (except prisoners on parole or probation) shall be sold or offered for sale in this state by any person, or by any federal authority, state, or political subdivision thereof; provided, however that nothing in this section and s. 945.15 shall be construed to forbid the sale, exchange, or disposition of such goods within the limitations set forth in s. 945.16(1).

(2) When in the planning of the rehabilitation program of the Department of Corrections through its recreational facilities, plans are made for prisoners to engage in hobbies and hobbycrafts after their normal working hours and when they are not required by the superintendent or warden of a state prison or correctional institution to be on their assigned duties, they may make items of a hobby or hobbycraft nature which may be disposed of by the prisoner through the institutional canteen or commissary to persons visiting the institution.

945.16 Use of goods and services produced in correctional work programs.—

(1) All services or items manufactured, processed, grown, or produced by the department in its present programs or in future programs and not required for use therein may be furnished or sold to all state agencies, departments, and institutions; political subdivisions of the state; other states; or agencies of the federal government within the state.

(2) No similar article of comparable price and quality found necessary for use by any state agency may be purchased from any other source when the Department of Corrections shall certify that the same is available and can be furnished by the department. The purchasing authority of any such state agency shall have the power to make reasonable determinations of need, price, and quality with reference to articles available for sale by such correctional work programs operated by the department. In the event of a dispute between the department and any purchasing authority, based upon price or quality, the matter shall be referred to the Executive Office of the Governor, whose decision shall be final.

945.161 Sale of "Florida" tags to Jaycees.—

The Department of Corrections is authorized to sell to the Jaycees, at a price to be determined by the department, "FLORIDA" tags manufactured by the tag plant at the state prison for the purpose of advertising the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-332; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 78, ch. 77-120; s. 92, ch. 79-3; s. 193, ch. 79-164.

945.17 Creation of Correctional Work Program Trust Fund.—There is hereby created a Department of Corrections Correctional Work Program Trust Fund, available for the purpose of financing the operation of correctional work programs authorized and required by s. 945.06. This account shall be a separate fund in the State Treasury and shall be the depository of all funds used for this purpose by all institutions under the supervision and control of the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-314; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 12, ch. 76-273; s. 93, ch. 79-3.

945.18 Sources of fund.—Should any general service operation of an institution be transferred to the correctional work program operation by the department, all assets and liabilities of such operation shall become a part of the Correctional Work Program Trust Fund. All income, receipts, earnings, and profits from industrial enterprises shall hereafter be credited to the Correctional Work Program Trust Fund, to be used for the purposes herein set forth; however, if the earned surplus in the fund at the end of any fiscal year exceeds $5,000,000, one-half of such amount as is determined by the Auditor General to be in excess of this amount shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund, and the other half shall be utilized by the department for the expansion and improvement of the correctional work program.

History.—s. 2, ch. 57-314; s. 1, ch. 61-384; s. 18, ch. 61-530; s. 3, ch. 63-176; s. 8, ch. 69-82; s. 13, ch. 76-273; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 1, ch. 77-317.

945.19 Use of fund.—The funds shall be used for the purposes of financing the operation of the correctional work programs herein set forth, and all costs of operation of correctional work programs shall be paid from this fund, including compensation of all personnel whose time or proportion of time is devoted to such work program operations. The department shall establish budgeting and cost accounting procedures to provide comparative analysis of each work program unit. The department shall prepare and issue annual consolidated and individual institution financial statements, including, but not limited to, balance sheets and operating statements for the correctional work programs. Any withdrawals from the Correctional Work Program Trust Fund which do not relate to the operation of the correctional work program shall be identified separately in the operating statements. The Department of Corrections shall have the authority to use moneys in the Correctional Work Program Trust Fund to enter into lease-purchase agreements for the lease of fixtures and equipment over periods of time exceeding the current fiscal year, except that such agreements are subject to annual legislative appropriations. The department shall have the authority to construct buildings or make capital improvements for the operation of said work programs.

History.—s. 3, ch. 57-314; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 14, ch. 76-273; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 94, ch. 79-3.

945.20 Disbursements from fund.—The funds shall be deposited in the State Treasury and paid out only on warrants drawn by the State Comptroller, duly approved by the Department of Corrections. The department shall maintain all necessary records and accounts relative to such funds.

History.—s. 4, ch. 57-314; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 79, ch. 77-120; s. 95, ch. 79-3.

945.21 Regulations of the department.—

(1) The department is authorized to adopt and promulgate regulations governing the administration of the correctional system and the operation of the department. In addition to specific subjects otherwise provided for herein, regulations of the department may relate to:

- (a) Conduct to be observed by prisoners.
- (b) Punishment of prisoners.
- (c) Gain-time for good conduct of, release payments to, and release transportation of, inmates.
- (d) Uniforms for inmates and custodial personnel.
- (e) Rules of conduct of custodial and other personnel.
- (f) Classification of personnel and duties assigned thereto.
- (g) Credits for confinement prior to commitment to the Department of Corrections.
- (h) Payments to prisoners for work performed. Such payments, if any, shall include restrictions on the use of earnings, including payments for support of dependents and release reserves. The regulations shall provide that no payment shall be made to any prisoner who fails to perform the work assigned satisfactorily.
- (i) Visiting hours and privileges.
- (j) Mail to and from inmates.
- (k) The operation of canteens and the participation in canteen funds.
- (l) The feeding of prisoners, including diet and menus, and the furnishing of health and comfort items to indigent prisoners.
- (m) Such other regulations as in the opinion of the department may be necessary for the efficient operation and management of the correctional system.

(2) Regulations of the department shall be adopted and filed with the Department of State as provided in chapter 120.

History.—s. 14, ch. 57-213; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 10, 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 17, ch. 76-273; s. 80, ch. 77-120; s. 96, ch. 79-3.

945.215 Inmate Welfare and Employee Benefit Trust Funds.—

(1)(a) All moneys now held in any auxiliary, canteen, welfare, donated, or similar fund in any state institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections shall be deposited in the Inmate Welfare Trust Fund of the department, which fund is created in the State Treasury, or in a place which the department shall designate. The money in this fund is hereby appropriated for the benefit, education, and general welfare of inmates of any state institution under the jurisdiction of the department, including but not limited to the establishment of, maintenance of, employment of personnel for, and the purchase of items for resale at canteens or vending machines maintained at state institutions and for the establishment of, maintenance of, employment of personnel for, and necessary expenses in connection with the operation of hobby shops, recreational facilities, or other like facilities or programs at the institutions under the jurisdiction of the department.

(b) There shall be deposited in the Inmate Welfare Trust Fund all net proceeds from the operation of canteens, vending machines, hobby shops, and other such facilities and any moneys which may be assigned to the department by inmates or others for deposit in said fund. The moneys of said fund shall constitute a trust held by the department for the benefit and welfare of the inmates of the institutions under the jurisdiction of the department.

(c) Any contraband found upon, or in the possession of, any inmate in any institution under the jurisdiction of the department shall be confiscated and liquidated, and the proceeds thereof shall be deposited in the Inmate Welfare Trust Fund of the department.

(d) The secretary of the department or his designee may invest in the manner authorized by law for fiduciaries any money in the Inmate Welfare Trust Fund of the department that in his opinion is not necessary for immediate use, and the interest earned and other increments derived from such investments made pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Inmate Welfare Trust Fund of the department.

(2) The department may establish an Employee Benefit Trust Fund from the proceeds of vending machines or other such services not intended for use by inmates. Such fund shall be maintained and audited separately and apart from the Inmate Welfare Trust Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 79-78.

945.25 Records.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the Department of Corrections to obtain and place in its permanent records information as complete as may be practicably available on every person who may become subject to parole. Such information shall be obtained as soon as possible after imposition of sentence and shall, in the discretion of the department, include, among other things:

- (a) A copy of the indictment or information and a complete statement of the facts of the crime for which such person has been sentenced.
- (b) The court in which the person was sentenced.
- (c) The terms of the sentence.
- (d) The name of the presiding judge, the prosecuting officers, the investigating officers, and the attorneys for the person convicted.

(e) A copy of all probation reports which may have been made.

(f) Any social, physical, mental, psychiatric, or criminal record of such person.

(2) The department, in its discretion, shall also obtain and place in its permanent records such information on every person who may be placed on probation, and on every person who may become subject to pardon and commutation of sentence.

(3) It shall be the duty of the court and its prosecuting officials to furnish to the department upon its request such information and also to furnish such copies of such minutes and other records as may be in their possession or under their control.

(4) The department may make such rules as to the privacy or privilege of such information and its use by others than the department or the Parole and Probation Commission and its staff as may be deemed expedient in the performance of their duties.

(5) Following the initial hearing provided for in s. 947.172(1), the commission shall prepare and the department shall include in the official record a copy of the seriousness-of-offense and favorable-parole-outcome scores and shall include a listing of the specific factors and information used in establishing a presumptive parole release date for the inmate.

History.—s. 11, ch. 20519, 1941; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 81, 87, ch. 77-120; s. 20, ch. 78-417; s. 97, ch. 79-3.

Note.—Former s. 947.14(1), (2), (4), and (6).

945.26 Department powers and duties relating to parolees and probationers.—

(1) The Department of Corrections shall:

(a) Investigate all cases referred to it by the circuit court and make its findings and report thereon in writing to such court with its recommendation.

(b) Cause to be delivered to each person placed on probation under its supervision a certified copy of the terms of such probation and any change or modification thereof, and cause said person to be instructed regarding the same.

(c) Keep informed concerning the conduct, habits, associates, employment, recreations, and whereabouts of such probationer, by visits, requiring reports and in other ways.

(d) Make such reports in writing or otherwise as the court may reasonably require.

(e) Use all practicable and proper methods to aid and encourage persons on probation and to bring about improvement in their conduct and condition.

(f) Keep records on each probationer referred to it.

(g) Cooperate with circuit courts exercising criminal jurisdiction by supervising such probationers and prisoners upon whom the pronouncing of sentence has been deferred and making such reports to said courts as directed thereby.

(h) Supervise all persons placed on parole.

(i) Aid parolees and probationers in securing employment.

(2) The department is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with the federal government or any department or agency thereof, with any county or municipality in this state or any department or agency thereof, or with any nonprofit charitable corporation or foundation concerned with the rehabilitation of persons who are probationers or parolees or who are under presentence investigation, for the performance by the department of services relating to the evaluation and rehabilitation of such persons. Any such agreement shall provide for payment to the department of the actual cost of rendering the services contracted for.

History.—s. 21, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 65-453; s. 4, ch. 75-301; s. 82, ch. 77-120; s. 98, ch. 79-3.

Note.—Former s. 948.02.

cf.—ss. 949.07, 949.08 Compacts with other states.

945.27 Proceedings by department.—

(1) Whenever it becomes necessary for the welfare and convenience of any of the institutions now under, or which may hereafter be placed under, the supervision and control of the Department of Corrections to acquire private property for the use of any of said institutions and the same cannot be acquired by agreement satisfactory to the said department and the parties interested in, or the owners of, said private property, the department is hereby empowered and authorized to exercise the right of eminent domain and to proceed to condemn the said property in the same manner as provided by law for the condemnation of property.

(2) Any suit or actions brought by the said department to condemn property as provided in this section shall be brought in the name of the Department of Corrections, and it shall be the duty of the Department of Legal Affairs to conduct the proceedings for, and to act as counsel for, the said department.

History.—s. 83, ch. 77-120; s. 99, ch. 79-3.

945.30 Payment for cost of supervision and rehabilitation.—

(1) Any person under probation or parole supervision, except a person on probation or parole within or without the state under an interstate compact adopted pursuant to chapter 949, shall be required to contribute no less than $10 or more than $50 per month as decided by the sentencing court, to a court-approved public or private entity providing him with supervision and rehabilitation. Any failure to pay such contribution shall constitute grounds for the revocation of probation by the court or the revocation of parole by the Parole and Probation Commission. The Department of Corrections may exempt a person from the payment of all or any part of the foregoing contribution if it finds any of the following factors to exist:

(a) The offender has diligently attempted, but been unable, to obtain employment which provides him sufficient income to make such payments.

(b) The offender is a student in a school, college, university, or course of vocational or technical training designed to fit the student for gainful employment. Certification of such student status shall be supplied to the Secretary of Corrections by the educational institution in which the offender is enrolled.

(c) The offender has an employment handicap, as determined by a physical, psychological, or psychiatric examination acceptable to, or ordered by, the secretary.

(d) The offender's age prevents him from obtaining employment.

(e) The offender is responsible for the support of dependents, and the payment of such contribution constitutes an undue hardship on the offender.

(f) There are other extenuating circumstances, as determined by the secretary.

(2) In addition to the contribution required under subsection (1), the department shall provide a maximum payment of $10 per month for each probationer who is contributing $10 per month to the court-approved public or private entity providing him with supervision or rehabilitation. The department shall make such payment to the court-approved public or private entity providing supervision to the offender under this section. Such payment shall be implemented through a contract to be entered into by the Secretary of Corrections and the public or private entity. Terms of the contract shall state, but not be limited to, the extent of services to be rendered by the public or private entity providing supervision or rehabilitation. In addition, the public or private entity shall supply the department with a monthly report documenting the acceptance of each offender placed under its supervision by the court, documenting the payment of the required contribution by each offender under supervision or rehabilitation, and notifying the department of all offenders for whom supervision or rehabilitation shall be terminated. Supervisory records of the public or private entity shall be open to inspection upon the request of the department or its agents.

947.001 Short title.—This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Objective Parole Guidelines Act of 1978."

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-417.

947.002 Intent.—

(1) The present system lacks objective criteria for paroling and, thus, is subject to allegations of arbitrary and capricious release and, therefore, potential abuses. It is the intent of this act to establish an objective means for determining and establishing parole dates for inmates.

(2) Objective parole criteria will be designed to give primary weight to the seriousness of the offender's present criminal offense and his past criminal record. In considering the risk of recidivism, practice has shown that the best predictor is prior record.

(3) The functional reorganization of the commission shall begin on July 1, 1978. However, full implementation of objective parole guidelines shall be delayed until January 1, 1979, to provide sufficient time for integration of the full intent of this act.

(4) The chairman shall be the agency head. While the commission is responsible for making decisions on the granting and revoking of parole, the chairman shall establish, execute, and be held accountable for all administrative policy decisions. The routine administrative decisions are the full responsibility of the chairman.

(5) Hearing examiner panels are assigned on the basis of caseload needs as determined by the chairman.

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-417.

947.005 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Commission" means the Parole and Probation Commission.

(2) "Department" means the Department of Corrections.

(3) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Corrections.

(4) "Hearing examiner panel" means a panel consisting of two hearing examiners.

(5) "Presumptive parole release date" means the tentative parole release date as determined by objective parole guidelines.

(6) "Effective parole release date" means the actual parole release date as determined by the presumptive parole release date, satisfactory institutional conduct, and an acceptable parole plan.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-417; s. 101, ch. 79-3.

947.01 Creation of Parole and Probation Commission; number and qualifications of its members.—A Parole and Probation Commission is created to consist of eight citizens who are residents of the state. The members of the commission shall include:

(1) Seven members who are qualified by their knowledge of penology and allied social sciences to discharge the duties and perform the work of the commission efficiently; and

(2) One member who shall be the Secretary of Corrections. The secretary shall participate in the policymaking decisions of the commission, including the development and review of objective parole guidelines, but shall not participate in decisions on the granting and revocation of parole. The secretary shall be ineligible for appointment as chairman, shall receive no compensation for his services on the commission, and shall not be required to attend any minimum number of meetings.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 63-83; s. 1, ch. 65-453; s. 30, ch. 74-112; s. 84, ch. 77-120; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 4, ch. 78-417; s. 102, ch. 79-3.

947.02 Commission; appointment.—

(1) The members of the commission shall be appointed in the following manner: Whenever there is an appointment of a member of the commission to be made or a vacancy to be filled, the Governor and Cabinet shall appoint a Parole and Probation Commission Qualifications Committee, which shall consist of five persons having special knowledge of penology, the administration of criminal justice, and offender rehabilitation programs, and shall designate one member thereof as chairman. The Parole and Probation Commission Qualifications Committee shall provide for statewide advertisement of the position and the receiving of applications for the position as member of the commission and shall devise a plan for the determination, by investigation and comprehensive evaluation, of the qualification of applicants including, but not limited to, the character, habits, and philosophy of the applicants. From such investigations and evaluations, said qualifications committee shall compile a list of persons eligible for said position of member of the commission. Eligibility for appointment to membership on the commission shall expire at the end of 2 years. The qualifications committee shall recommend three such eligibles to the Governor and Cabinet who shall make the appointment to the position of member of the commission from those three eligible persons. The appointments of members of the commission shall be certified to the Senate by the Governor and Cabinet for confirmation.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the membership of the commission by reason of the expiration of a member's term, the Parole and Probation Commission Qualifications Committee shall evaluate the incumbent member and shall recommend to the Governor and Cabinet one of the following:

- (a) That the incumbent member be reappointed without examination of new applicants;
- (b) That the incumbent be considered with other eligible persons in accordance with the selection process; or
- (c) That upon finding reasonable and sufficient cause the incumbent not be reappointed to the commission.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 2, ch. 65-453; s. 33, ch. 69-106; s. 31, ch. 74-112; s. 1, ch. 75-207; s. 5, ch. 78-417.

947.03 Commission; tenure and removal.—

(1) Members of the commission shall be appointed for terms of 6 years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(2) Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the Governor and Cabinet for the unexpired term in the manner provided for in s. 947.02.

(3) Each member shall devote his whole time and capacity to the duties of his office, and shall be subject to removal by the Governor and Cabinet for the same reasons that a state officer may be removed as provided in s. 7, Art. IV of the State Constitution. All such removals shall be submitted to the Senate for its consent as provided by said section of the Constitution.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 3, ch. 65-453; s. 6, ch. 69-216; s. 33, ch. 69-106; s. 1, ch. 79-42.

947.04 Organization of commission; officers; offices.—

(1) On July 1 of each even-numbered year, the members of the commission shall meet and select from their number a chairman who shall serve for a period of 2 years and until a successor is elected and qualified. The chairman shall not succeed himself. The chairman, as chief administrative officer of the commission, shall have the authority and responsibility to plan, direct, coordinate, and execute the powers, duties, and responsibilities assigned to the commission, except those of granting and revoking parole as provided for in this chapter. The chairman is authorized to provide or disseminate information relative to parole by means of documents, seminars, programs, or otherwise as he shall determine necessary. The chairman shall establish, execute, and be held accountable for all administrative policy decisions. However, parole granting and revocation decisions shall be made in accordance with the provisions of ss. 947.172, 947.174, and 947.23. The commissioners shall be directly accountable to the chairman in the execution of their duties as commissioners, and the chairman shall have authority to recommend to the Governor suspension of a commissioner who fails to perform the duties as provided for by statute.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 20.05(7), the chairman shall appoint administrators with responsibility for the management of commission activities in the following functional areas:

- (a) Parole grant and work release.
- (b) Parole revocation.
- (c) Clemency.
- (d) Administrative services.

(3) The commissioners shall select from their number a secretary who shall serve for a period of 1 year or until a successor is elected and qualified.

(4) The commission may establish and maintain offices in centrally and conveniently located places in Florida. Headquarters shall be located in Tallahassee for the transaction of business. The commission shall keep its official records and papers at the headquarters, which it shall furnish and equip.

(5) Acts and decisions of the chairman may be modified as provided in s. 947.06.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 6, ch. 78-417; s. 2, ch. 79-42.

947.05 Seal.—The commission shall adopt an official seal of which the courts shall take judicial notice.

History.—s. 3, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.06 Meeting; when commission may act.—

The commission shall meet at regularly scheduled intervals and from time to time as may otherwise be determined by the chairman. The making of recommendations to the Governor and Cabinet in matters of executive clemency and modifications of acts and decisions of the chairman as provided in s. 947.04(1) shall be by a majority vote of the commission. No prisoner shall be placed on parole except as provided in ss. 947.172 and 947.174 by a panel of no fewer than two commissioners appointed by the chairman. All matters relating to the granting, denying, or revoking of parole shall be decided in a meeting at which the public shall have the right to be present. Persons not members or employees of the commission may participate in deliberations concerning the granting and revoking of paroles only upon the prior written approval of the chairman of the commission.

History.—s. 4, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 23757, 1947; s. 7, ch. 78-417; s. 3, ch. 79-42.

947.07 Rules and regulations.—The commission shall have power to make such rules and regulations as it deems best for its governance, including among other things rules of practice and procedure and rules prescribing qualifications to be possessed by its employees.

History.—s. 27, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 23757, 1947.

947.071 Rulemaking procedures.—It is the intent of the Legislature that all rulemaking procedures by the commission shall be conducted pursuant to the Florida Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 120.

History.—s. 34, ch. 74-112.

947.09 Competitive examinations for certain full-time employees.—

(1) The commission shall from time to time as may be necessary prepare and conduct, or cause to be prepared and conducted, free competitive examinations for all full-time positions requiring special knowledge in penology, social welfare, or correctional supervision which the commission may have the power to fill. Such examinations may be written or oral. Written portions of such examinations shall be conducted so that the identity of the examinees shall not be known to the examiners. Only citizens of Florida who have resided in and have been bona fide residents of the state for 2 years or more next prior to the date thereof shall be eligible to take such examinations and for employment by the commission.

(2) From the examinations so conducted, the commission shall compile lists of eligibles from which it shall make its selections to the positions for which said examinations shall have been held. Such lists shall not remain in force for a longer period than 2 years, and at the expiration of said period, or upon the exhaustion of any list, a new list shall be compiled by the commission before another selection may be made to a position for which the expired or exhausted list was applicable, except that in an emergency the commission may provisionally employ a person for a position for which no eligible list is available. No such provisional employment shall be for a longer period than 3 months, and successive provisional employment shall not be made by the commission.

(3) Persons taking such examinations shall rank upon such eligible lists in the order of their relative fitness as determined by such examination. To fill any such full-time position, and any vacancy occurring therein, the commission shall employ one person from the three persons standing highest on the applicable eligible list.

History.—s. 6, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 2, ch. 21775, 1943.

947.095 Hearing examiner panels; organization and authority.—Hearing examiner panels shall consist of two hearing examiners assigned on the basis of caseload needs, as determined by the chairman.

(1) The hearing examiner panels shall have the authority to conduct hearings and make recommendations with respect to presumptive and effective parole release dates.

(2) Hearing examiner panels shall function in panels of two members each, and the concurrence of the two examiners shall be required for their recommendation as provided for in s. 947.172. In the event that such concurrence is not reached, the administrator for parole grant and work-release or his designee shall make the final decision on the recommendation to the commission.

(3) The implementation of hearing examiner panels shall take place by January 1, 1980, or earlier as resources are provided to the commission.

History.—ss. 8, 25, ch. 78-417; s. 4, ch. 79-42.

947.10 Business and political activity upon part of members and full-time employees of commission.—No member of the commission and no full-time employee thereof shall, during their service upon or under the commission, engage in any other business or profession nor hold any other public office; nor shall they serve as the representative of any political party, or any executive committee or other governing body thereof, or as an executive officer or employee of any political committee, organization, or association, or be engaged on the behalf of any candidate for public office in the solicitation of votes, or otherwise. However, this shall not be deemed to exclude the appointment of the Secretary of Corrections to the commission under the terms and conditions set forth in this chapter.

History.—s. 7, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 32, ch. 74-112; s. 85, ch. 77-120; s. 103, ch. 79-3.

947.11 Legal adviser.—The Department of Legal Affairs shall be the legal adviser of the commission.

History.—s. 8, ch. 20519, 1941; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106.

947.12 Members, employees, expenses.—

(1) The members of the commission and its employees shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in s. 112.061. All bills for expenses shall be properly receipted, audited, and approved and forwarded to the Comptroller, and shall be paid in a manner and form as the bills for the expenses of the several departments of the state government are paid. All expenses, including salaries and other compensation, shall be paid from the General Revenue Fund and within the appropriation as fixed therefor by the Legislature. Such expenses shall be paid by the State Treasurer upon proper warrants issued by the Comptroller of the state, drawn upon vouchers and requisitions approved by the commission, signed by the Comptroller and countersigned by the Governor.

(2) The members of the examining board created in s. 947.02 shall each be paid $10 per diem for each full day spent in performing the duties of said board, and in addition thereto said members shall be paid by the state their necessary traveling expenses when traveling in the performance of their duties.

History.—s. 9, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 22864, 1945; s. 1, ch. 24033, 1947; s. 8, ch. 57-401; s. 19, ch. 63-400.

947.13 Powers and duties of commission.—

(1) The commission shall have the powers and perform the duties of:

(a) Determining what persons shall be placed on parole, subject to the provisions of ss. 947.172 and 947.174.

(b) Fixing the time and conditions of parole, as provided in this chapter.

(c) Determining violations of parole and what action shall be taken with reference thereto.

(d) Making such investigations as may be necessary.

(e) Reporting to the Board of Pardons the facts, circumstances, criminal records, and social, physical, mental, and psychiatric conditions and histories of persons under consideration by the Board of Pardons for pardon, commutation of sentence, or remission of fine, penalty, or forfeiture.

(2)(a) The commission shall immediately examine records of the department under s. 945.25, and any other records which it obtains, and may make such other investigations as may be necessary.

(b) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and all other state, county, and city agencies, sheriffs and their deputies, and all peace officers shall cooperate with the commission and the department and shall aid and assist them in the performance of their duties.

History.—s. 10, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 72-256; ss. 86, 87, ch. 77-120; s. 476, ch. 77-147; s. 9, ch. 78-417; s. 104, ch. 79-3.

947.135 Mutual participation program.—

(1) SHORT TITLE.—This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Mutual Participation Program Act of 1976."

(2) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.—It is the intent of the Legislature to:

(a) Involve the department and the commission in program planning with the offender while he is incarcerated, leading to the establishment of certain criteria affecting the grant of parole and release from parole.

(b) Involve the offender in developing his individual rehabilitation program for the period of incarceration and parole with the department and the commission.

(c) Require establishment of criteria to be used in determining which offenders are eligible for this program;

however, no offender shall be eligible to participate in this program who was sentenced as an habitual felony offender pursuant to s. 775.084 or who was convicted of a capital or life felony as provided by s. 775.081, s. 775.082, or s. 775.083. Offenders meeting these criteria may be offered the opportunity to participate in the program which will include a parole date.

(3) MUTUAL PARTICIPATION PROGRAM: DEVELOPMENT: CRITERIA; DEPARTMENT AND COMMISSION RULES.—

(a) The department and the commission shall jointly develop a mutual participation program which sets forth for each eligible offender the terms of his institutional confinement, a parole date, and terms of parole supervision and release, provided each offender meets the criteria set forth in this act and any additional criteria established by the department and the commission.

1. The department and the commission, as a portion of the mutual participation program, shall require that each eligible offender satisfactorily participate in a correctional work program pursuant to s. 945.06, and only through satisfactory completion of this phase of the program shall an offender become eligible to progress to a less restrictive program.

2. Additional criteria shall be established and required by the commission and the department for participation in the program, including, but not limited to, vocational counseling and work release programs; however, criteria for satisfactory participation in the program shall not include academic classroom instruction at the college level.

3. The commission shall establish a parole date for each eligible offender, based on the satisfactory completion of the program. In no case shall such date fall after the date which would have been established under s. 947.172.

(b) The commission shall promulgate rules on criteria used to establish parole dates, conditions precedent to the granting of parole, terms of parole, and release from parole. The department and the commission shall establish such criteria relating to parole supervision, which criteria shall include, but not be limited to, the requirements for participation in vocational or counseling programs available in the community, stipulations related to employment, and other criteria considered necessary for the successful reintegration of the offender into society.

(c) Periodic written reports of the offender's progress in the program shall be submitted to the department and the commission.

(4) The department and the commission shall submit to the Legislature an annual evaluation of the mutual participation program.

(5) The department and the commission shall promulgate rules required pursuant to subsection (4)(b) by September 1, 1976.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 76-274; s. 1, ch. 77-174; s. 10, ch. 78-417; s. 105, ch. 79-3; s. 13, ch. 79-42; s. 194, ch. 79-164.

947.15 Reports.—On or before January 1 of each year, the commission shall make a written report to the Governor and Cabinet of its activities together with a full and detailed financial statement, copies of which shall be sent to the Department of Legal Affairs and to such other officials and persons as the commission may deem advisable. One copy of said report shall become a part of the records of the commission.

History.—s. 28, ch. 20519, 1941; ss. 11, 33, 35, ch. 69-106.

947.16 Eligibility for parole; powers and duties of commission.—

(1) Every person who has been, or who may hereafter be, convicted of a felony or who has been convicted of one or more misdemeanors and whose sentence or cumulative sentences total 12 months or more, who is confined in execution of the judgment of the court, and whose record during confinement is good, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be eligible for consideration for parole. An inmate who has been sentenced for an indeterminate term or a term of 5 years or less shall have an initial interview conducted by a hearing examiner panel within 6 months after the initial date of confinement in execution of the judgment. An inmate who has been sentenced for a minimum term in excess of 5 years shall have an initial interview conducted by a hearing examiner panel within 1 year after the initial date of confinement in execution of the judgment. An inmate convicted of a capital crime shall be interviewed at the discretion of the commission. As used in this section, the term "confined" shall be deemed to include presence in any appropriate treatment facility, public or private, by virtue of transfer from the Department of Corrections under any applicable law.

(2) An initial hearing may be postponed for a period not to exceed 60 days. Such postponement shall be for good cause, and the reasons therefor shall be noted in writing and included in the official record. However, in no case shall such postponement result in a hearing being conducted any time later than 1 year after the initial date the inmate is confined in execution of the judgment of the court. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, an initial interview may be deferred for an inmate who is out to court or transferred to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for psychological or psychiatric treatment or observation. If an inmate is returned to the department within 1 year of the date of confinement in execution of the judgment, the provisions of subsection (1) shall apply. In all other cases an initial interview shall be conducted within 3 months of the date the inmate returned to the department.

(3) Persons who have become eligible for parole and who may, according to the objective parole guidelines of the commission, be granted parole shall be placed on parole in accordance with the provisions of this law; except that, in any case of a person convicted of murder, robbery, aggravated assault, aggravated battery, kidnapping, sexual battery or attempted sexual battery, incest or attempted incest, an unnatural and lascivious act or an attempted unnatural and lascivious act, lewd and lascivious behavior, assault or aggravated assault when a sexual act is completed or attempted, battery or aggravated battery when a sexual act is completed or attempted, arson, or any felony involving the use of a firearm or other deadly weapon or the use of intentional violence, at the time of sentencing the judge may enter an order retaining jurisdiction over the offender for review of a commission release order. This jurisdiction of the trial court judge is limited to the first third of the maximum sentence imposed. When any person is convicted of two or more felonies and concurrent sentences are imposed, then the jurisdiction of the trial court judge as provided herein shall apply to the first third of the maximum sentence imposed for the highest felony charged and proven. When any person is convicted of two or more felonies and consecutive sentences are imposed, then the jurisdiction of the trial court judge as provided herein shall apply to one-third of the total consecutive sentences imposed.

(a) In retaining jurisdiction for the purposes of this act, the trial court judge shall state the justification with individual particularity, and said justification shall be made a part of the court record.

(b) Gain-time as provided for in ss. 944.27, 944.271, and 944.29 shall accrue; except that an offender over whom the trial court has retained jurisdiction as provided herein shall not be released during the first one-third of his sentence by reason of gain-time.

(c) In such cases of retained jurisdiction, the commission, within the time requirements of s. '947.17(4), shall send notice of its release order to the original sentencing court and to the appropriate state attorney. Such notice shall stay the time requirements of s. '947.17(4).

(d) Within 10 days of receipt of the notice provided for in paragraph (c), the original sentencing court shall notify the commission as to whether or not it further desires to retain jurisdiction. If the original sentencing court does not so notify the commission within the 10-day period or the court notifies the commission that it does not desire to retain jurisdiction, then the commission may dispose of the matter as it sees fit.

(e) Upon receipt of notice of intent to retain jurisdiction from the original sentencing court, the commission shall, within 10 days, forward to the court its release order, findings of fact, parole hearing examiner's report and recommendation, and all supporting information upon which its release order was based.

(f) Within 30 days of receipt of the items listed in paragraph (e), the original sentencing court shall review the order, findings, and evidence, and, if the court finds the commission's order is not based on competent substantial evidence or that the parole is not in the best interest of the community or the inmate, the court may vacate the release order. The court shall notify the commission of its decision, and, if the release order is vacated, such notification shall contain the evidence relied on and the reasons for denial. A copy of such notice shall be sent to the inmate.

(g) The decision of the trial court judge to vacate any parole release order as provided in this act shall not be appealable.

(4) Within 45 days after any interview for parole, the inmate shall be advised of the presumptive parole release date. Subsequent to the establishment of the presumptive parole release date, the commission may, at its discretion, review the official record or conduct additional interviews with the inmate. However, the presumptive parole release date shall not be changed except for reasons of institutional conduct or the acquisition of new information not available at the time of the initial interview.

<sup>1</sup>Note.—Section 947.17 was repealed by s. 24, ch. 78-417.

947.165 Objective parole guidelines.—

(1) The commission shall develop and implement objective parole guidelines which shall be the criteria upon which parole decisions are made. Such guidelines shall be established by rule and promulgated pursuant to chapter 120 before January 1, 1979. The objective parole guidelines shall be developed according to an acceptable research method and shall be based on the seriousness of offense and the likelihood of favorable parole outcome. Factors used in arriving at the salient factor score and the severity of offense behavior category shall not be applied as aggravating circumstances.

(2) The commission shall review the objective parole guidelines before January 1, 1980, and make any revisions considered necessary by virtue of experience. Thereafter, such review and necessary revision shall be conducted no less than on an annual basis. The commission shall be responsible for notifying the department of the statistical information and automated data requirements necessary for program review and monitoring by the commission, and the department shall consider such a request on a priority basis in accordance with the provisions of s. 20.315(20).

History.—s. 12, ch. 78-417; s. 6, ch. 79-42; s. 3, ch. 79-310.

<sup>1</sup>Note.—Section 3, ch. 79-310, purported to create s. 947.165, effective January 1, 1979, but, in effect, constituted an amendment of subsection (1) of existing s. 947.165.

947.172 Establishment of presumptive parole release date.—

(1) The hearing examiner panel shall conduct an initial hearing in accordance with the provisions of s. 947.16(1). This hearing shall include introduction and explanation of the objective parole guidelines as they relate to presumptive and effective parole release dates and discussion relative to the inmate's institutional conduct record.

(2) Based on the objective parole guidelines and any other competent evidence relevant to aggravating and mitigating circumstances, the hearing examiner panel shall, within 10 days after the interview, recommend in writing to a panel of no fewer than two commissioners appointed by the chairman a presumptive parole release date for the inmate. The chairman shall assign cases to such panels on a random basis, without regard to the inmate or to the commissioners sitting on the panel. If the recommended presumptive parole release date falls outside the objective parole guidelines, the hearing examiner panel shall include a statement in writing as to the reasons for the decision, specifying individual particularities, with the recommendation, and the chairman shall sit on the panel in addition to the two or more commissioners. If a panel fails to reach a decision on a recommended presumptive parole release date, the chairman shall cast the deciding vote. Within 45 days from the date of the initial interview, the inmate shall be notified in writing of the decision as to the inmate's presumptive parole release date.

(3) A presumptive parole release date shall become binding on the commission when agreement on a presumptive parole release date is reached. Should the presumptive parole release date fall outside the objective parole guidelines, the reasons for this decision shall be stated in writing with individual particularities.

(4) On or before January 1, 1980, a presumptive parole release date developed pursuant to this section shall be established for each inmate in the custody of the department who will not be released from incarceration on or before January 1, 1980, by virtue of parole, accumulation of gain-time, or expiration of sentence. However, the presumptive parole release date need not be established on or before such date for:

(a) Those inmates sentenced to a minimum term of 5 years or less who were confined in execution of the judgment of the court on or after August 1, 1979. Presumptive parole release dates for these inmates shall be established pursuant to this section.

(b) Those inmates sentenced to a minimum term in excess of 5 years who were confined in execution of the judgment of the court on or after February 1, 1979. Presumptive parole release dates for these inmates shall be established pursuant to this section.

(c) The commission shall continue its current schedule of annual interviews until January 1, 1980, or until such time as the objective parole guidelines are implemented, whichever comes first.

History.—ss. 13, 21, ch. 78-417; s. 107, ch. 79-3; s. 7, ch. 79-42.

947.173 Review of presumptive parole release date.—

(1) An inmate may request review of his presumptive parole release date by the commission if the inmate shows cause in writing, with individual particularities, within 60 days after the date of the decision on the presumptive parole release date.

(2) A panel of no fewer than two commissioners appointed by the chairman shall review the inmate's request for review and shall notify the inmate in writing of its decision within 60 days after the date of receipt of the request by the commission. Such panel shall not include the commissioners who authorized the original presumptive parole release date, except when that date has been established by the full commission.

(3) The commission may affirm or modify the authorized presumptive parole release date. However, in the event of a decision to modify the presumptive parole release date, in no case shall this modified date be after the date established under the procedures of s. 947.172. It is the intent of this legislation that, once set, presumptive parole release dates be modified only for good cause in exceptional circumstances.

History.—s. 14, ch. 78-417; s. 8, ch. 79-42; s. 196, ch. 79-164.

947.174 Subsequent hearings; establishment of effective parole release dates.—

(1) For any inmate whose presumptive parole release date falls more than 2 years after the date of the initial hearing date, a hearing examiner panel shall schedule a hearing for review of the presumptive parole release date. Such hearing shall take place within 2 years after the initial hearing and every 2 years thereafter. Such hearings shall be limited to determining whether or not information has been gathered which might affect the presumptive parole release date. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to an inmate serving a concurrent sentence in another jurisdiction pursuant to s. 921.16(2).

(2) The commission, for good cause, may at any time request that a hearing examiner panel conduct a subsequent hearing according to the procedures outlined in this section. Such request shall specify in writing the reasons for such review.

(3) The department shall, within a reasonable amount of time, make available and bring to the attention of the commission such information as is deemed important to the review of the presumptive parole release date, including, but not limited to, current progress reports, psychological reports, and disciplinary reports.

(4) The department or a hearing examiner panel may recommend that an inmate be placed in a work-release program prior to the last 18 months of his confinement before the presumptive parole release date. If the commission does not deny the recommendation within 30 days of the receipt of the recommendation, the inmate may be placed in such a program, and the department shall advise the commission of the fact prior to such placement.

(5) For purposes of this section, the commission shall develop and make available to all inmates guidelines which shall:

(a) Define what shall constitute an unsatisfactory institutional record. In developing such guidelines, the commission shall consult with the department.

(b) Define what constitutes a satisfactory release plan.

(6) Provided that the inmate's institutional conduct has been satisfactory, the presumptive parole release date shall become the effective parole release date as follows:

(a) Sixty days prior to the presumptive parole release date, a hearing examiner panel shall conduct a final interview with the inmate in order to establish an effective parole release date. If it is determined that the inmate's institutional conduct has been unsatisfactory, a statement to this effect shall be made in writing with particularity and forwarded to a panel of no fewer than two commissioners appointed by the chairman. Within 14 days, the panel shall determine whether or not to authorize the effective parole release date, and the inmate shall be notified of the decision in writing within 30 days of the final interview.

(b) When an effective date of parole has been established, release on that date shall be conditioned upon the completion of a satisfactory plan for parole supervision. An effective date of parole may be delayed for up to 30 days without a hearing for development and approval of release plans.

History.—s. 15, ch. 78-417; s. 9, ch. 79-42; s. 4, ch. 79-310.

947.175 Notice to local agencies.—

(1) The Parole and Probation Commission shall, at least 10 days prior to the effective parole release date of an inmate, inform the appropriate local criminal justice agencies in the community in which the inmate is scheduled to be released.

(2) The department shall, at least 7 days prior to the anticipated date of release on work release of an inmate, inform the sheriff and the state attorney in the community in which the inmate is scheduled to be released and in the community in which the inmate was convicted.

History.—s. 15, ch. 75-49; s. 1, ch. 77-303; s. 16, ch. 78-417; s. 108, ch. 79-3.

947.18 Conditions of parole.—No person shall be placed on parole merely as a reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties assigned in prison. No person shall be placed on parole until and unless the commission shall find that there is reasonable probability that, if he is placed on parole, he will live and conduct himself as a respectable and law-abiding person and that his release will be compatible with his own welfare and the welfare of society. No person shall be placed on parole unless and until the commission is satisfied that he will be suitably employed in self-sustaining employment, or that he will not become a public charge. The commission shall determine the terms upon which such persons shall be granted parole. In addition to any other lawful condition of parole, the commission may make the payment of the debt due and owing to the state under s. 960.17 a condition of parole, subject to modification based on change of circumstances.

History.—s. 14, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 4, ch. 77-452.

947.181 Victim restitution.—

(1) The Parole and Probation Commission may require, as a condition of parole, reparation or restitution to the aggrieved party for the damage or loss caused by the offense for which the parolee was imprisoned. The maximum amount of reparation or restitution allowable may be determined by the court at the time of sentencing. The amount of such reparation or restitution shall be determined by the Parole and Probation Commission.

(2) If the parolee fails to make the reparation or restitution to the aggrieved party, as authorized in subsection (1), it shall be considered by the commission as a violation of parole as specified in s. 947.21 and may be cause for revocation of his parole.

History.—s. 3, ch. 77-150; s. 304, ch. 79-400.

947.19 Terms of parole.—

(1) The commission, upon authorizing an effective parole release date, shall specify in writing the terms and conditions of the parole, a certified copy of which shall be given to the parolee. The terms and conditions of parole shall be based on objective guidelines.

(2) A parolee may, within 30 days of receipt of the certified copy of the terms and conditions of parole, request that the commission modify the terms and conditions of parole, provided that the parolee specify in writing the reasons for requesting such modifications.

(3) A panel of no fewer than two commissioners appointed by the chairman shall consider requests for review of the terms and conditions of parole, render a written decision to continue or to modify the terms and conditions of parole, specifying the reasons therefor, and inform the parolee of the decision in writing within 30 days of the date of receipt of request for review. Such panel shall not include those commissioners who authorized the original conditions of parole.

(4) During any period of requested review of terms and conditions of parole, the parolee shall be subject to the authorized terms and conditions of parole until such time according to the provisions of this section a decision is made to continue or modify the terms and conditions of parole.

History.—s. 15, ch. 20519, 1941; am. s. 7, ch. 22858, 1945; s. 17, ch. 78-417; s. 10, ch. 79-42.

947.20 Rules of commission.—The commission shall adopt general rules on the terms and conditions of parole and what shall constitute the violation thereof and may make special rules to govern particular cases. Such rules, both general and special, may include, among other things, a requirement that the parolee shall not leave the state or any definite area in Florida without the consent of the commission; that he shall contribute to the support of his dependents to the best of his ability; that he shall make reparation or restitution for his crime; that he shall not associate with persons engaged in criminal activity; and that he shall carry out the instructions of his parole supervisor and, in general, comport himself in accordance with the terms and conditions of his parole.

History.—s. 15, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 18, ch. 78-417.

947.21 Violations of parole.—

(1) A violation of the terms of parole may render the parolee liable to arrest and a return to prison to serve out the term for which he was sentenced.

(2) An offender whose parole is revoked may, at the discretion of the commission, be credited with any portion of the time he has satisfactorily served on parole.

History.—s. 15, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 22, ch. 74-112.

947.22 Authority of certain officers to arrest parole violators with and without a warrant.—

(1) If any member of the commission shall have reasonable grounds to believe that any parolee has violated the terms and conditions of his parole in a material respect, such member may issue a warrant for the arrest of such parolee. The warrant shall be returnable before a member of the commission or his authorized representative and shall command that the parolee be brought before him, at which time a determination may be made by the commission to admit him to bail conditioned for his appearance before the commission or, if he is not admitted to bail, commit him to jail pending a hearing before the commission as hereinafter provided. Any parole or probation supervisor, any officer authorized to serve criminal process, and any peace officer of this state shall be authorized to execute said warrant.

(2) Any parole or probation supervisor, when he has reasonable ground to believe that a parolee has violated the terms and conditions of his parole in a material respect, shall have the right to arrest without warrant said parolee and bring him forthwith before the commission, or some member thereof, and proceedings shall thereupon be had as provided herein when a warrant has been issued by a member of the commission.

History.—s. 16, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 71-111.

947.23 Action of commission upon arrest of parolee.—

(1) As soon as practicable after the arrest of a person charged with violation of the terms and conditions of his parole, the parolee shall be afforded a prompt preliminary hearing, conducted by a member of the commission or its duly authorized representative, at or near the place of violation or arrest to determine if there is probable cause or reasonable grounds to believe that the parolee has committed a violation of the terms or conditions of his parole. The parolee may knowingly execute a waiver of this hearing, up until the time of such hearing, provided that the consequences of such action have been fully explained. If the parolee elects to proceed with the preliminary hearing:

(a) He shall be afforded a timely notice of the preliminary hearing, which notice shall state the purpose of the hearing and state the alleged violation;

(b) He shall be permitted to cross-examine adverse witnesses, unless it is determined that good cause exists not to allow such examination;

(c) He shall be allowed to call witnesses and present evidence in his own behalf; and

(d) He may be represented by counsel.

The findings based on the evidence presented at the preliminary hearing shall be made available to the parolee either immediately following the hearing or within a reasonable time thereafter.

(2) If the preliminary hearing results in a finding of probable cause or reasonable grounds to believe that a violation of the terms or conditions of parole has occurred, the commission or a member thereof shall convene a hearing on the alleged violation. The parolee shall appear before the commission or commissioner in person, and, if he desires, he may be represented by counsel. At such hearing, the state and the parolee may introduce such evidence as is necessary and pertinent to the charge of parole violation.

(3) The commission, a member thereof, or a duly authorized representative of the commission shall have the authority to administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses at such hearing by the issuance, under the seal of the commission and signature of a commissioner, of summons, subpoenas, and subpoenas duces tecum. Subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum shall be enforceable by appropriate proceedings in circuit court, and failure to comply with a court order enforcing a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum shall constitute contempt of court. The commission shall issue subpoenas on behalf of the state or the parolee, provided the party requesting the subpoenas furnishes to the commission, or a duly authorized representative thereof, the names and addresses of his proposed witnesses at least 7 days prior to the hearing date.

(4) At the hearing, the parolee shall be informed orally and in writing of:

(a) The violation of the terms and conditions of parole with which he has been charged;

(b) The right to be represented by counsel;

(c) The right to be heard in person;

(d) The right to secure, present, and compel the attendance of witnesses and production of documents on his behalf;

(e) The right of access to all evidence used against him; and

(f) The right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, unless the commission or the member conducting the hearing finds specifically, and states in writing, good cause not to allow the confrontation.

(5)(a) At any such hearing convened by the commission, or a member thereof, the accused may waive his right to proceed further if, after being informed of his rights and after being advised of the consequences of a waiver in regard to the nature of the order which may be entered as a result of such waiver, he affirms, in writing, knowledge and understanding of such rights and consequences and elects, in writing, to execute the waiver.

(b) At any such hearing convened by a member of the commission, the parolee shall be informed orally and in writing of his right to have a hearing before a majority of the commission. The hearing may proceed before the member of the commission if the parolee waives, in writing, his right to have a hearing before a majority of the commission. At any such hearing so convened, the parolee, if he has waived his right to have a hearing before a majority of the commission, may also waive, in the manner provided in paragraph (a), his right to proceed further.

(6) Within a reasonable time after the hearing, the commission or the member who conducted the hearing shall make findings of fact in regard to the alleged parole violation and the commission shall enter an order determining whether the charges of parole violation have been sustained. By such order, the commission shall revoke the parole and return the parolee to prison to serve the sentence theretofore imposed upon him, reinstate the original order of parole, or enter such other order as is proper; however, any decision to revoke parole shall be based on a violation of a term or condition specifically enumerated in the parole release order. In cases in which parole is revoked, the commission shall make a written statement of the evidence relied on and the reasons for revoking parole.

(7) Whenever a parole is revoked by the commission and said parolee ordered by said commission to be returned to prison, the parolee, by reason of his misconduct, shall be deemed to forfeit all gain-time or commutation of time for good conduct, as provided for by s. 944.27, earned up to the date of his release on parole. Nothing herein shall deprive the prisoner of his right to gain-time or commutation of time for good conduct, as provided by s. 944.27, from the date he is returned to prison.

947.24 Discharge from parole.—When a person is placed on parole, the commission shall determine the period of time the person shall be on parole, such time not to exceed a maximum period of 2 years unless the commission designates a longer period of time, in which case it will advise the parolee in writing of the reasons for the extended period. In any event, the period of parole shall not exceed the maximum period for which the person has been sentenced. The commission, after having retained jurisdiction of a person for a sufficient length of time to evidence satisfactory rehabilitation and cooperation, may discharge the person from parole, may relieve a person on parole from making further reports, or may permit such person to leave the state or country, upon determination that such action is in the best interests of the person and of society.

947.25 Recommendations for clemency.—When a parolee has, in the opinion of the commission, so conducted himself as to deserve clemency, a commutation of sentence, or the remission in whole or in part of any fine, forfeiture, or penalty, the commission may recommend that such clemency be extended to such parolee by order of the Governor approved by three members of the cabinet. In such case, the commission shall fully advise the office of the Governor of the facts upon which such recommendation is based.

History.—s. 18, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 23, ch. 74-112.

947.26 Cooperation of custodian of prisoner; right of access.—The superintendent, warden, or jailer of any jail or prison in which persons convicted of crime may be confined, and all officers or employees thereof, shall at all times cooperate with the commission, and upon its request shall furnish it with such information as they may have respecting any person inquired about as will enable the commission properly to perform its duties. Such officials shall at all reasonable times, when the public safety permits, give the members of the commission and its authorized agents and employees access to all prisoners in their charge.

PROBATION

- 948.01 When courts may place defendant on probation.
- 948.011 When court may impose fine and place on probation as to imprisonment.
- 948.03 Terms and conditions of probation.
- 948.031 Condition of probation; public service.
- 948.04 Period of probation; duty of probationer.
- 948.05 Court to admonish or commend probationer.
- 948.06 Violation of probation; revocation; modification; continuance.

948.01 When courts may place defendant on probation.—

(1) Any court of the state having original jurisdiction of criminal actions, where the defendant in a criminal case has been found guilty by the verdict of a jury or has entered a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere or has been found guilty by the court trying the case without a jury, except for an offense punishable by death, may at a time to be determined by the court, either with or without an adjudication of the guilt of the defendant, hear and determine the question of the probation of such defendant.

(2) When the penalty for the offense may involve imprisonment in the state prison, the Circuit Court, prior to such hearing, shall, and in misdemeanor cases may, refer the case to the Department of Corrections for investigation and recommendation. The court, upon such reference, shall direct the department, and it shall be the duty of the department, to make an investigation and report in writing at a specified time prior to sentencing to the court upon the circumstances of the offense, the criminal record, the social history, and the present condition of the defendant, together with its recommendation pursuant to the provisions of s. 921.231.

(3) If it appears to the court upon a hearing of the matter that the defendant is not likely again to engage in a criminal course of conduct and that the ends of justice and the welfare of society do not require that the defendant shall presently suffer the penalty imposed by law, the court, in its discretion, may either adjudge the defendant to be guilty or stay and withhold the adjudication of guilt, and in either case stay and withhold the imposition of sentence upon such defendant, and shall place him upon probation under the supervision and control of the department for the duration of such probation. And the department shall thereupon and thereafter, during the continuance of such probation, have the supervision and control of the defendant. However, no defendant placed on probation for a misdemeanor shall be placed under the supervision of the department unless the court affirmatively and specifically orders such supervision after finding that supervision in the community is necessary to provide adequate protection to the community or to assist in the rehabilitation of the offender, or both.

(4) Whenever punishment by imprisonment for a misdemeanor or a felony, except for a capital felony, is prescribed, the court, in its discretion, may, at the time of sentencing, direct the defendant to be placed on probation upon completion of any specified period of such sentence. In such case, the court shall stay and withhold the imposition of the remainder of sentence imposed upon the defendant, and direct that the defendant be placed upon probation after serving such period as may be imposed by the court.

(5) In no case shall the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant thereupon placed on probation unless such defendant be placed under the custody of the department, Salvation Army, or other public or private entity.

(6) When the court, under any of the foregoing subsections, places the defendant on probation, it may specify that the defendant serve all or part of the probationary period in a community residential facility under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections or the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or owned or operated by the Salvation Army or any public or private entity providing such services, and it shall require the payment prescribed in s. 945.30.

 s. 949.01 Juvenile matters unaffected.

948.011 When court may impose fine and place on probation as to imprisonment.—When the law authorizes the placing of a defendant on probation, and when his offense is punishable by both fine and imprisonment, the trial court may, in its discretion, impose a fine upon him and place him on probation as to imprisonment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 59-175.

948.03 Terms and conditions of probation.—

(1) The court shall determine the terms and conditions of probation and may include among them the following, that the probationer shall:

- (a) Avoid injurious or vicious habits.
- (b) Avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character.
- (c) Report to the probation and parole supervisors as directed.
- (d) Permit such supervisors to visit him at his home, or elsewhere.
- (e) Work faithfully at suitable employment insofar as may be possible.
- (f) Remain within a specified place.
- (g) Make reparation or restitution to the aggrieved party for the damage or loss caused by his offense in an amount to be determined by the court.
- (h) Support his legal dependents to the best of his ability.
- (i) Make payment of the debt due and owing to the state under s. 960.17, subject to modification based on change of circumstances.
- (2) The enumeration of specific kinds of terms and conditions shall not prevent the court from adding thereto such other or others as it considers proper. The court may rescind or modify at any time of the terms and conditions theretofore imposed by the court upon the probationer.

History.—s. 23, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 5, ch. 77-452. cf.—ss. 949.07, 949.08 Compacts with other states.

948.031 Condition of probation; public service.—Any person who is convicted of a felony or misdemeanor and who is placed on probation may be required as a condition of probation to perform some type of public service for a tax-supported or tax-exempt entity, with the consent, and under the supervision, of such entity. Such public service shall be performed at a time other than during such person's regular hours of employment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 76-70.

948.04 Period of probation; duty of probationer.—

(1) Defendants found guilty of misdemeanors who are placed on probation shall be under supervision not to exceed 6 months unless otherwise specified by the court. Defendants found guilty of felonies who are placed on probation shall be under supervision not to exceed 2 years unless otherwise specified by the court. No defendant placed on probation pursuant to subsection 948.01(4) shall be subject to the probation limitations of this subsection.

(2) Upon the termination of the period of probation, the probationer shall be released from probation and shall not be liable to sentence for the crime for which probation was allowed. During the period of probation, the probationer shall perform the terms and conditions of his probation. The Department of Corrections may recommend early termination of probation to the court at any time prior to the scheduled termination date.

History.—s. 24, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 5, ch. 21775, 1943; s. 10, ch. 74-112; s. 1, ch. 79-77.

948.05 Court to admonish or commend probationer.—The court may at any time cause the probationer to appear before it to be admonished, or commended, and when satisfied that its action will be for the best interests of justice and the welfare of society, may discharge the probationer from further supervision.

History.—s. 25, ch. 20519, 1941. cf.—s. 949.04 Construction of law.

948.06 Violation of probation; revocation; modification; continuance.—

(1) Whenever within the period of probation there is reasonable ground to believe that a probationer has violated his probation in a material respect, any parole or probation supervisor may arrest such probationer without warrant wherever found, and forthwith shall return him to the court granting such probation. Any committing magistrate may issue a warrant upon the facts being made known to him by affidavit of one having knowledge of such facts for the arrest of the probationer, returnable forthwith before the court granting such probation. Any parole or probation supervisor, all officers authorized to serve criminal process, and all peace officers of this state shall be authorized to serve and execute said warrant. The court, upon the probationer being brought before it, shall advise him of such charge of violation and if such charge is admitted to be true may forthwith revoke, modify, or continue probation and, if revoked, shall adjudge the probationer guilty of the offense charged and proven or admitted, unless he shall have previously been adjudged guilty, and impose any sentence which it might have originally imposed before placing the probationer on probation. If such violation of probation is not admitted by the probationer, the court may commit him or release him with or without bail to await further hearing, or it may dismiss the charge of probation violation. If such charge is not at said time admitted by the probationer and if it is not dismissed, the court, as soon as may be practicable, shall give the probationer an opportunity to be fully heard on his behalf in person or by counsel. After such hearing, the court may revoke, modify, or continue the probation. If such probation is revoked, the court shall adjudge the probationer guilty of the offense charged and proven or admitted, unless he shall have previously been adjudged guilty, and impose any sentence which it might have originally imposed before placing the probationer on probation.

(2) No part of the time that the defendant is on probation shall be considered as any part of the time that he shall be sentenced to serve.

CHAPTER 949

PAROLE AND PROBATION; GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 949.01 Juvenile matters unaffected.
- 949.02 Youth parolees.
- 949.04 Law to be liberally construed.
- 949.05 Constitutionality.
- 949.06 Short title.
- 949.07 Compacts with other states.
- 949.071 Definition of "state" as used in s. 949.07; further declaration relating to interstate compacts.
- 949.08 Department of Corrections to enact rules and regulations relating to compacts.
- 949.09 Same; short title.
- 949.10 Subsequent felony arrest of felony parolee or probationer prima facie evidence of violation.
- 949.11 Hearing.
- 949.12 Immediate temporary revocation; bail not allowed.

949.01 Juvenile matters unaffected.—Nothing in chapters 947-949 shall be construed to change or modify the law respecting parole and probation as administered by a circuit court exercising juvenile jurisdiction.

History.—s. 30, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 44, ch. 73-334.

949.02 Youth parolees.—Nothing in chapters 947-949 shall be construed to change or modify the law respecting paroles as administered by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

History.—s. 31, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 57-317; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 477, ch. 77-147.

949.04 Law to be liberally construed.—Chapters 947-949 shall be liberally construed that its objects may be achieved.

History.—s. 33, ch. 20519, 1941.

949.05 Constitutionality.—

(1) If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of chapters 947-949 shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, invalid, or void, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of the law, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

(2) If the method of selecting the commission members as herein provided is found to be invalid by reason of the vesting of the appointing power in the Governor and the cabinet, the members of the Parole and Probation Commission herein provided for shall be appointed by the Governor.

History.—s. 34, ch. 20519, 1941; s. 1, ch. 65-453; s. 33, ch. 69-106.

949.06 Short title.—Chapters 947, 948, and 949 (except ss. 949.07-949.09) shall be known as the "Parole and Probation Law."

History.—s. 36, ch. 20519, 1941.

949.07 Compacts with other states.—The Governor is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a compact on behalf of the state with any state of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

A compact entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of the Congress, granted by an act entitled "An act granting the consent of Congress to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes."

The contracting states solemnly agree;

(1) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact, herein called "sending state," to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact, herein called "receiving state," while on probation or parole, if:

(a) Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there.

(b) Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there.

Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person. A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than 1 year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than 6 continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

(2) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

(3) That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of states party hereto as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; provided however, that if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

(4) That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact without interference.

(5) That the Governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary more effectively to carry out the terms of this compact.

(6) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratifying. When ratified, it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of ratification to be in accordance with the laws of the ratifying state.

(7) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each ratifying state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which ratified it, by sending 6 months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto.

History.—s. 1, ch. 20455, 1941.

949.071 Definition of "state" as used in s. 949.07; further declaration relating to interstate compacts.—

(1) It is hereby declared that the term "state," as used in s. 949.07, relating to and authorizing and directing the governor to enter into an interstate compact in behalf of Florida with any state of the United States for out-of-state supervision of probationers and parolees, and prescribing the form to be substantially used for any such compact, means any one of the several states and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the District of Columbia.

(2) It is hereby recognized and further declared that pursuant to the consent and authorization contained in s. 111(b) of Title 4 of the United States Code as added by Pub. L. No. 970-84th Congress, Chapter 941-2d Session, this state shall be a party to said interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers with any additional jurisdiction legally joining therein when such jurisdiction shall have enacted said compact in accordance with the terms thereof.

History.—s. 1, ch. 57-89.

949.08 Department of Corrections to enact rules and regulations relating to compacts.—

The Department of Corrections shall have power and shall be charged with the duty of promulgating such rules and regulations and the expenditures of funds as may be deemed necessary to carry out the terms, conditions, and intents of a compact entered into by the state pursuant to s. 949.07.

History.—s. 2, ch. 20455, 1941; s. 1, ch. 65-453; s. 91, ch. 77-120; s. 110, ch. 79-3.

949.09 Same; short title.—ss. 949.07-949.08 shall be known as the "Uniform Law for Out-of-state Probation and Parole Supervision."

History.—s. 4, ch. 20455, 1941.

949.10 Subsequent felony arrest of felony parolee or probationer prima facie evidence of violation.—

The subsequent arrest on a felony charge, in this state, of any person who has been placed on parole or probation following a finding of guilt of any felony, or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to any felony, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of the terms and conditions of such parole or probation. Upon such arrest, the parole agreement or probation order shall immediately be temporarily revoked and such person shall remain in custody until a hearing by the Parole and Probation Commission or the court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 72-232.

949.11 Hearing.—Any person whose parole or probation agreement is revoked pursuant to s. 949.10 shall be given a hearing pursuant to s. 947.23 or s. 948.06. The hearing shall be held within 10 days from the date of such arrest, the provisions of s. 947.23 or s. 948.06 notwithstanding. Failure of the commission or the court to hold the hearing within 10 days from the date of arrest shall cause the immediate release of such person from incarceration on the temporary revocation.

History.—s. 2, ch. 72-232.

949.12 Immediate temporary revocation; bail not allowed.—A person whose parole or probation has been temporarily revoked pursuant to s. 949.10 shall not be admitted to bail prior to the hearing provided for in s. 949.11.

History.—s. 3, ch. 72-232.

CHAPTER 950

JAILS AND JAILERS

- 950.01 Confinement in jail of another county.
- 950.02 Removal to jail of another county.
- 950.03 County jailers to receive United States prisoners.
- 950.04 Penalty for neglect of duty in keeping prisoners of the United States.
- 950.051 Jails to be constructed so male and female prisoners may be separated.
- 950.061 Unlawful for male and female prisoners to be confined together.
- 950.07 Appropriation authorized to remodel jail so classes of prisoners may be separated.
- 950.08 Officers refusing to comply with law subject to removal.
- 950.09 Malpractice by jailers.

950.01 Confinement in jail of another county.

—When it appears to the court at the time of passing sentence upon any prisoner who is to be punished by imprisonment in the county jail that there is no jail in the county suitable for the confinement of such prisoner, the court may order the sentence to be executed in any county in this state in which there may be a jail suited to that purpose, and the expense of supporting such prisoner shall be borne by the county in which the offense was committed.

History.—s. 25, ch. 1637, sub-ch. 13, 1868; RS 3027; GS 4104; RGS 6208; CGL 8540; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

cf.—s. 839.21 Penalty for refusal to receive prisoner.

950.02 Removal to jail of another county.—

(1) When in the opinion of the Governor the interests of the state demand it, the circuit judge shall, upon the request of the Governor, make an order directing that any person held under a criminal charge shall be confined in the jail of another county of the state than that in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed.

(2) When it shall be made to appear to a circuit judge to be necessary to quickly remove a prisoner to the jail of another county for safekeeping or to prevent injury to such prisoner, and the Governor is not easily accessible, or it is deemed inadvisable, by reason of circumstances, to first communicate with the Governor, the circuit judge shall make an order directing that any person held under a criminal charge shall be confined in the jail of another county of the state than that in which the offense is alleged to have been committed. Immediately after the removal the sheriff of the county from which the prisoner was removed shall make full report to the Governor of the state of the reasons for such removal and attach a copy of the said judge's order.

(3) No order above referred to shall be made except by the judge of the circuit in which the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed is located. Such order shall be of full force and effect throughout the state, but the county to which the prisoner is sent, or any officer thereof, is not required to incur or pay any expense or charge of maintaining such prisoner.

History.—ss. 1, 2, ch. 3207, 1881; RS 3028; GS 4105; RGS 6209; CGL 8541; ss. 1-3, ch. 20414, 1941.

950.03 County jailers to receive United States prisoners.—The keeper of the jail in each county within this state shall receive into his custody any prisoner who may be committed to his charge under the authority of the United States and shall safely keep each prisoner according to the warrant or precept for such commitment until he is discharged by due course of law of the United States.

History.—s. 1, ch. 85, 1847; RS 3029; GS 4106; RGS 6210; CGL 8542.

950.04 Penalty for neglect of duty in keeping prisoners of the United States.—The keeper of each jail shall be subject to the same penalties for any neglect or failure of duty in keeping prisoners who are committed to his charge under the authority of the United States as he would be subject to under the laws of this state for the like neglect or failure in the case of prisoners committed under the authority of the said laws; provided, the United States pays or causes to be paid to the jailer such fees as he would be entitled to for like service rendered by virtue of the existing laws of this state during the time such prisoners shall be therein confined; and moreover, supports such of the prisoners as shall be committed for offenses.

History.—s. 2, ch. 85, 1847; RS 3030; GS 4107; RGS 6211; CGL 8543.

950.051 Jails to be constructed so male and female prisoners may be separated.—The county commissioners of the respective counties of this state shall so construct and arrange the jails of their respective counties that it shall be unnecessary to confine in said jails male and female prisoners in the same room, cell, or apartment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-172.

950.061 Unlawful for male and female prisoners to be confined together.—It is unlawful for male and female prisoners in said jails to be confined in the same cell, room, or apartment, or be so confined as to be permitted to commingle, and the sheriffs of this state shall confine and separate all prisoners in their custody or charge in accordance with this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 65-172.

950.07 Appropriation authorized to remodel jail so classes of prisoners may be separated.—The county commissioners of the several counties of this state are authorized to appropriate from the general revenue fund of the said counties such moneys as are necessary to carry into effect the provisions of ss. 950.051 and 950.061.

History.—s. 8, ch. 5967, 1909; RGS 6215; CGL 8547.

950.08 Officers refusing to comply with law subject to removal.—Any board of county commissioners and any sheriff willfully refusing to carry out and comply with the provisions of ss. 950.051 and 950.061 in their respective spheres of duty shall be removed from office by the Governor.

History.—s. 4, ch. 5967, 1909; RGS 6216; CGL 8548.

950.09 Malpractice by jailers.—If any jailer shall, by too great duress of imprisonment or otherwise, make or induce a prisoner to disclose and give evidence against some other person, or be guilty of willful inhumanity and oppression to any prisoner under his care and custody, he shall be punished by removal from office and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

951.01 County prisoners may be put to labor.

—The board of county commissioners of each county may employ all persons in the jail of their respective counties under sentence upon conviction for crime at labor upon the roads, bridges, or other public works of the county where they are so imprisoned. County prisoners shall be kept and worked under such rules and regulations and supervisions as may be prescribed by the Department of Corrections, and the department may enforce all such rules and regulations. Upon the failure of any person in charge of said county prisoners to comply with such rules and regulations, the department may require the discharge of such person.

cf.—s. 336.42 County convicts may be put to labor.

s. 951.12 Working prisoners on public roads and exchange of prisoners between counties.

951.02 Duty of prison inspectors for state prisoners.—Prison inspectors for state prisoners shall inspect and supervise all county prison camps and municipal detention facilities under the direction of the Department of Corrections. The prison inspectors shall make written reports to the Secretary of Corrections and shall send duplicate copies of said reports to the board of county commissioners of the county or the city commissioners of the municipality in which said prisoners so inspected were sentenced, which reports shall at all times be open to public inspection.

History.—s. 1, ch. 2090, 1877; RS 3032; GS 4109; s. 1, ch. 5705, 1907; s. 1, ch. 5963, 1909; RGS 6217; s. 1, ch. 7323, 1917; s. 1, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8549; s. 44, ch. 57-121; ss. 1, chs. 61-198, 61-488; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 1, ch. 71-113; s. 93, ch. 77-120; s. 112, ch. 79-3.

951.03 County commissioners to provide food, etc.—Boards of county commissioners, when working county prisoners on the public works of the counties shall provide, or cause to be provided, substantial food, clothes, shoes, medical attention, etc., for said prisoners as are required for state prisoners in the state.

History.—s. 1, ch. 2090, 1877; RS 3032; GS 4109; s. 1, ch. 5705, 1907; s. 1, ch. 5963, 1909; RGS 6217; s. 1, ch. 7323, 1917; s. 1, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8549; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.04 Duty of county commissioners upon discharge of prisoner.—When a prisoner is discharged by reasons of having served his sentence, or upon receiving a pardon or parole, he shall be furnished transportation, or its equivalent in money, back to the place from which he was sentenced, together with the sum of $5, where the sentence is for 4 months or more, and the sum of $3 where the sentence is for a lesser period than 4 months, in addition to his transportation, all of which shall be paid out of the general fund of the county in which he was convicted, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the clerk of the board of county commissioners of each county shall, under the directions of said board, issue a check on said fund with which to pay these amounts to the prisoners being discharged at the time of their release.

History.—s. 1, ch. 2090, 1877; RS 3032; GS 4109; s. 1, ch. 5705, 1907; s. 1, ch. 5963, 1909; RGS 6217; s. 1, ch. 7323, 1917; s. 1, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8549; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.05 Working county prisoners on roads and bridges or other public works of the county; hiring out to another county.—The board of county commissioners of the several counties may require all county prisoners under sentence confined in the jail of their respective counties for any offense to labor upon the public roads, bridges, farms, or other public works owned and operated by the county, or in the event the county commissioners of any county deem it to the best interest of their county, they may hire out their prisoners to any other county in the state to be worked upon the public roads, bridges, or other public works of that county, or they may, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between themselves and the Division of Road Operations of the Department of Transportation, lease or let said prisoners to the division instead of keeping them in the county jail where they are sentenced. The money derived from the hire of such prisoners shall be paid to the county hiring out such prisoners and placed to the credit of the fine and forfeiture fund of the county.

History.—s. 13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; s. 2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550; s. 1, ch. 61-488; ss. 23, 35, ch. 69-106.

951.06 Employment of guards; duties; salary.—

(1) The county commissioners shall employ a captain or warden and such guards as they deem necessary, pursuant to standards for employment established and administered by the Department of Corrections.

(2) All captains or wardens of prisoners shall see that all rules and regulations prescribed by law or the department are fully observed and complied with; enforce discipline among the prisoners in and about the camps; and administer punishment to prisoners, when in their judgment the same is necessary in order to enforce proper discipline, conforming always to the law and rules and regulations.

(3) All boards of county commissioners shall immediately discharge any captain, warden, or guard in their employ who shall be guilty of gross negligence or cruel and inhuman treatment of prisoners under their control and their action shall be final.

(4) The salaries of captains, wardens, and guards provided for in this chapter shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners employing them, and the captain or warden shall be furnished means of transportation over the roads of the county when necessary, the upkeep and operation of which shall be furnished by the county; provided, however, the county shall not in any case be required to furnish a driver of such conveyance where such services are required to be paid for.

(5) All salaries contemplated by this chapter shall be paid from the general revenue fund of the county.

History.—s. 13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; s. 2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550; s. 44, ch. 57-121; ss. 1, 2, ch. 61-198; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 94, ch. 77-120; s. 113, ch. 79-3. cf.—s. 336.43 Employment of convict guards.

951.07 Punishment of prisoners; rules and regulations.—The flogging or whipping of prisoners in this state is prohibited, but the Department of Corrections may make and enforce suitable and reasonable rules and regulations for the government of such prisoners while serving sentences in prison camps or jails and enforce the same by solitary confinement, restriction of privileges, or any other humane and reasonable method of punishment. Any prisoner in any jail or prison camp of this state who shall repeatedly, knowingly, and willfully refuse to obey any such reasonable rule or regulation while being subject thereto shall be guilty of a misdemeanor or of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083, and such punishment shall upon his conviction be in addition to the sentence he is then serving.

History.—s. 13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; s. 2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550; s. 44, ch. 57-121; s. 1, ch. 61-488; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 1179, ch. 71-136; s. 95, ch. 77-120; s. 114, ch. 79-3.

951.075 Assault, battery, or assault and battery in a county or municipal jail or detention facility; penalty.—Every person being detained or undergoing a sentence in a county or municipal jail or detention facility who commits assault, battery, or assault and battery upon the person of another with a deadly weapon or instrument or by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, but which is not an assault with intent to commit a felony, shall be guilty of a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-41.

951.08 Working prisoner more than 10 hours per day prohibited.—No prisoner shall be compelled to labor more than 10 hours per day nor be subject to punishment for any refusal to labor beyond such limit; provided, that the 10 hours shall be the time embraced from the leaving to the return of the prisoner to his place of detention.

History.—s. 13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; s. 2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.10 Leasing prisoners to work for private interests prohibited.—No county prisoners shall be leased to work for any private interests.

History.—s. 3, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8551; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.11 Turning prisoners over to board of bond trustees, etc.—The board of county commissioners in counties where a board of bond trustees, board of public works, or other duly constituted board, has charge of the construction and maintenance of the public roads may turn the county prisoners over to the said trustees to be worked on the public roads of said county, subject to all the rules and regulations herein provided.

History.—s. 4, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8552; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.12 Working prisoners on public roads and exchange of prisoners between counties.—All persons confined in the county jail under sentence of a court may be worked on the roads of the county. In case the number of prisoners in any county at any time be less than five, the county commissioners of such county may arrange with the county commissioners of any other county for an exchange of prisoners. The county commissioners shall not be required to work the prisoners on the public roads when there is no contract between the counties as provided herein, nor when in their judgment the number of prisoners is insufficient to justify the employment of a guard to work them.

History.—s. 4, ch. 4769, 1899; GS 4110; RGS 6219; CGL 8553; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.13 Transferring from one county to another.—

(1) When the county commissioners of any county shall have made provision for the expenses of supporting and guarding, while at work on the public roads, a larger number of prisoners than can be supplied from that county, upon the application of the county commissioners of such county, the county commissioners of any other county which has not otherwise provided for the working of its prisoners or otherwise disposed of its prisoners, or may hereafter dispose of its prisoners, shall deliver to said county or counties applying for same, in the order of their application, such prisoners as may be confined in the county jail or hereafter be sentenced to such county jail.

(2) Provided, that the cost of guarding and maintaining such prisoners shall be paid by the county applying for and receiving the same and any and all such prisoners from such other counties may at any time be returned to the sheriff of such other counties at the expense of the county having received and used them; provided, further, that no prisoners shall be sent out of the county in which they have been convicted and sentenced to work to any other county unless a contract for that purpose shall have been entered into by the boards of county commissioners of the respective counties, and arrangements made for their safekeeping, proper care, and safe return by the employing counties to the county or counties from which such prisoners were sentenced.

History.—s. 5, ch. 4769, 1899; GS 4111; RGS 6220; CGL 8554; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.14 Failure of person to discharge his duty; penalty.—Any person appointed by virtue of the laws of the state relative to working county prisoners on the public road, or to whom duties are assigned in this chapter, who shall fail to make complete return within the time specified therein, or who shall otherwise fail to discharge the duties imposed upon him by this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

History.—s. 8, ch. 4769, 1899; GS 4112; RGS 6221; CGL 8555; s. 7, ch. 29615, 1955; s. 1, ch. 61-488; s. 1180, ch. 71-136.

951.15 Credit on fines and costs.—Every working prisoner shall be entitled to receive, together with subsistence, a credit at the rate of 30 cents per diem, on account of fines and costs adjudged against him.

History.—RS 3033; s. 2, ch. 2090, 1897; GS 4113; RGS 6222; CGL 8556; s. 1, ch. 61-488.

951.16 Prisoners entitled to receive credit on fine based on imprisonment.—Every person who may be imprisoned in the county jail for failure to pay a fine and costs, or either, under sentence imposed upon conviction for crime shall be entitled to receive, together with subsistence, a credit on such fine and costs, or either, as the case may be, in proportion to the time such person may be imprisoned.

History.—s. 1, ch. 6176, 1911; RGS 6223; CGL 8557.

951.17 Corporal punishment prohibited.—The Department of Corrections shall prohibit corporal punishment upon county prisoners.

History.—s. 1, ch. 9332, 1923; CGL 8558; s. 44, ch. 57-121; s. 1, ch. 61-488; s. 18, ch. 61-530; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 96, ch. 77-120; s. 115, ch. 79-3.

951.18 Punishment other than corporal punishment.—The Department of Corrections shall devise such other adequate and proper punishment as shall seem wise to supply in place of corporal punishment.

History.—s. 3, ch. 9332, 1923; CGL 8559; s. 44, ch. 57-121; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 97, ch. 77-120; s. 116, ch. 79-3.

951.19 Interference with county prisoners.—Whoever shall interfere with county prisoners while at work, at their meals, at rest, or while going to and from their quarters or with the guards in charge of them, either by assaulting them or by inciting them or attempting to incite the prisoners to disobedience, revolt, or escape, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.083.

History.—s. 2, ch. 4391, 1895; GS 3508; RGS 5394; CGL 7533; s. 1181, ch. 71-136.

951.21 Gain-time for good conduct for county prisoners.—

(1) Commutation of time for good conduct of county prisoners shall be granted by the board of county commissioners, and the following deductions shall be made from the term of sentence when no charge of misconduct has been sustained against a county prisoner: 5 days per month off the first and second years of the sentence; 10 days per month off the third and fourth years of the sentence; 15 days per month off the fifth and all succeeding years of the sentence. Where no charge of misconduct is sustained against a county prisoner, the deduction shall be deemed earned and the prisoner shall be entitled to credit for a month as soon as the prisoner has served such time as, when added to the deduction allowable, will equal a month. A county prisoner under two or more cumulative sentences shall be allowed commutation as if they were all one sentence.

(2) For each sustained charge of escape or attempted escape, mutinous conduct, or other serious misconduct, all the commutation which shall have accrued in favor of a county prisoner up to that day shall be forfeited, except that in case of escape if the prisoner voluntarily returns without expense to the state or county then such forfeiture may be set aside by the board of county commissioners if in its judgment his subsequent conduct entitles him thereto.

(3) The board of county commissioners upon recommendation of the warden or sheriff may adopt a policy to allow for county prisoners, in addition to time credits, an extra good-time allowance for meritorious conduct or exceptional industry, in accordance with the Department of Offender Rehabilitation's existing policy for such awards for state prisoners.

(4) All or any part of the gain-time earned by a county prisoner and any extra gain-time allowed him, if any, shall be subject to forfeiture by the board of county commissioners upon recommendation of the sheriff or warden for violation of any law of the state or any rule or regulation of the board or institution.

Note.—Former s. 954.06.

951.22 County detention facilities; contraband articles.—

(1) It is unlawful except through regular channels as duly authorized by the sheriff or officer in charge to introduce into or possess upon the grounds of any county detention facility as defined in s. 951.23 or to give to or receive from any inmate of any such facility wherever said inmate is located at the time or to take or to attempt to take or send therefrom any of the following articles which are hereby declared to be contraband for the purposes of this act, to wit: Any written or recorded communication; any currency or coin; any article of food or clothing; any intoxicating beverage or beverage which causes or may cause an intoxicating effect; any narcotic, hypnotic, or excitative drug or drug of any kind or nature, including nasal inhalators, sleeping pills, barbiturates, and controlled substances as defined in s. 893.02(3); any firearm or any instrumentality customarily used or which is intended to be used as a dangerous weapon; and any instrumentality of any nature that may be or is intended to be used as an aid in effecting or attempting to effect an escape from a county facility.

(2) Whoever violates subsection (1) shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 63-140; s. 1182, ch. 71-136; s. 180, ch. 71-355; s. 33, ch. 74-112; s. 1, ch. 78-41.

951.23 County and municipal detention facilities; definitions.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—

(a) As used in this section, the term "county detention facility" means a county jail, a county stockade, a county prison camp, and any other place except a municipal detention facility used by a county or county officer for the detention of persons charged with or convicted of either felony or misdemeanor.

(b) The term "county prisoner" means a person who is detained in a county detention facility by reason of being charged with or convicted of either felony or misdemeanor.

(c) The term "municipal detention facility" means a city jail, a city stockade, a city prison camp, and any other place except a county detention facility used by a municipality or municipal officer for the detention of persons charged with or convicted of violation of municipal laws or ordinances.

(d) The term "municipal prisoner" means a person who is detained in a municipal detention facility by reason of being charged with or convicted of violation of municipal law or ordinance.

(2) RULES PRESCRIBING STANDARDS AND REQUIREMENTS.—The Department of Corrections is authorized and directed to adopt rules and regulations prescribing standards and requirements with reference to:

(a) The construction, equipping, maintenance, and operation of county and municipal detention facilities;

(b) The cleanliness and sanitation of county and municipal detention facilities; the number of county and municipal prisoners who may be housed therein per specified unit of floor space; the quality, quantity, and supply of bedding furnished to such prisoners; the quality, quantity, and diversity of food served to them and the manner in which it is served; the furnishing to them of medical attention and health and comfort items; and the disciplinary treatment which may be meted out to them.

(c) The confinement of prisoners by classification, such rules being established with the participation of local detention units and the final approval of the Department of Corrections, and providing, whenever possible, for classifications which separate males from females, juveniles from adults, felons from misdemeanants, those awaiting trial from those convicted, and, in addition, providing for the separation of unusual prisoners, such as the mentally ill, alcoholic or narcotic addicts, sex deviates, suicide risks, and any other classification which the local unit and the department may deem necessary for the safety of the prisoners and the operation of the facility.

(3) ENFORCEMENT BY DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS.—The Department of Corrections shall enforce such rules and regulations and shall designate personnel of the department to inspect all county and municipal detention facilities in order to determine whether such standards and requirements are being met. Upon complaint filed by him in circuit court, he may be granted an injunction prohibiting the confinement of any county or municipal prisoner in any county or municipal detention facility which does not meet such standards and requirements.

(4) REMOVAL OF PRISONERS TO ANOTHER COUNTY OR MUNICIPALITY.—

(a) If the department finds that county or municipal prisoners are detained in any county or municipal detention facility which does not meet such standards and requirements, he may so certify to the circuit court, and thereupon the court shall order the prisoners, or any part of them, removed to and confined in a county or municipal detention facility which does meet such standards and requirements, whether it be in the same county or municipality or in some other county or municipality.

(b) The expense of maintaining prisoners removed to another county or municipality under the provisions of paragraph (a) shall be borne by the county or municipality from which they are removed.

(c) Promptly upon the making of any order authorized by paragraph (a), copies thereof shall be sent to the officer in charge of the county or municipal detention facility from which the county or municipal prisoners affected by such order are required to be removed, to the board of county commissioners of the county or the city commissioners of the municipality in which such county or municipal detention facility is situated, and to the officer in charge of the county or municipal detention facility to which they are required to be removed. If the order requires the removal of county or municipal prisoners to a county or municipal detention facility in another county or municipality, a copy thereof shall also be promptly sent to the board of county commissioners of the county, or the city commissioners of the municipality, in which it is situated.

History.—ss. 1-6, ch. 67-17; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; ss. 1, 2, ch. 70-441; s. 2, ch. 71-113; s. 99, ch. 77-120; s. 117, ch. 79-3.

951.24 Extend the limits of confinement for county prisoners.—

(1) Any county shall be deemed to have a work-release program upon the motion of that county's board of county commissioners which shall require the concurrence of the sheriff of said county.

(2) Whenever punishment by imprisonment in the county jail is prescribed, the sentencing court, in its discretion, may at any time during the sentence consider granting the privilege to the prisoner to leave the confines of the jail or county facility during necessary and reasonable hours, subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by the court, to work at paid employment, conduct his own business or profession, or participate in an educational or vocational training program, while continuing as an inmate of the county facility in which he shall be confined except during the period of his authorized release.

(3) Any prisoner, at the time of sentencing or thereafter, may request the court in writing for the privilege of being placed on the work-release program. The Department of Corrections, upon the request of the court, is authorized to conduct such investigations as are necessary and to make recommendations to the court pertaining to the suitability of the plan for the prisoner and to supervise said prisoner if released under this program. Such a release may be granted by the court with the advice and consent of the sheriff and upon agreement by the prisoner. The court may withdraw the privilege at any time, with or without notice.

(4) The wages or salary of prisoners employed under this program may be disbursed by the sheriff pursuant to court order for the following purposes in the order listed:

- (a) Board of the prisoner.
- (b) Necessary travel expense to and from work and other necessary incidental expenses of the prisoner.
- (c) Support of the prisoner's legal dependents.
- (d) Payment, either in full or ratable, of the prisoner's obligations acknowledged by him in writing or which have been reduced to judgment.
- (e) The balance to the prisoner upon discharge from his sentence, or until an order of the court is entered declaring that the prisoner has left lawful confinement, declaring that the balance remaining is forfeited, and directing the sheriff to deposit the funds in the general fund of the county to be spent for general purposes.

(5) The sheriff may collect from a prisoner the wages or salary earned pursuant to this program. He shall deposit the same in a trust checking account and shall keep a ledger showing the status of the account of each prisoner. Such wages and salaries shall not be subject to garnishment in the hands of either the employer or the sheriff during the prisoner's sentence and shall be disbursed only as provided in this section.

(6) Every prisoner gainfully employed is liable for the cost of his board in the jail as fixed by the county. The sheriff shall charge his account, if he has one, for such board. If the prisoner is gainfully self-employed he shall deposit with the sheriff an amount determined by the court sufficient to accomplish the provisions of paragraphs (a) through (e) of subsection (4), in default of which his privileges under this section are automatically forfeited.

(7) Any prisoner who willfully fails to remain within the extended limits of his confinement or to return within the time prescribed to the place of confinement shall be deemed an escapee from custody and shall be subject to punishment as prescribed by law.

(8) Exchange for the purpose of work-release of county prisoners among other counties of the state that have implemented work-release programs is hereby authorized, with the concurrence of the sheriffs of the involved counties. For the purpose of this subsection, upon exchange, the prisoner shall be deemed a prisoner of the county where confined unless or until he is removed from extended confinement status. Prisoners from other jurisdictions, serving lawful sentences, may also be received into a county work-release program as above provided.

(9) In carrying out the purpose of this section, any board of county commissioners may provide in its annual budget for payment to the Department of Corrections out of funds collected from those being supervised such amounts as are agreed upon by the board and department to be reasonable and necessary. County Judges are hereby authorized to levy $10 per month upon those supervised for purposes of paying for supervision under this act.

(10) The board of county commissioners of any county may, upon the recommendation of the sheriff, authorize the person in charge of a county stockade or workcamp to implement subsections (4), (5), and (6), when such facility is not directly under the sheriff.

951.25 Sale of goods and services produced by county prisoners.—

(1) Any service or item manufactured, processed, grown, or produced, in whole or in part, by county prisoners in a county operating under a home rule charter adopted pursuant to ss. 10, 11, and 24 of Art. VIII of the State Constitution of 1885, as preserved by s. 6(e), Art. VIII of the 1968 Revised Constitution, and not required for use in the work program may be furnished or sold to any state agency, department, or institution; political subdivision of the state; other state; or agency of the Federal Government within the state or to the public.

(2) Any sale made under this section shall be in accordance with rules established by the governing body of such county.

958.011 Short title.—Sections 958.011-958.15 shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Youthful Offender Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 78-84.

958.021 Legislative intent.—The purpose of this act is to improve the chances of correction and successful return to the community of youthful offenders sentenced to imprisonment by preventing their association with older and more experienced criminals during the terms of their confinement. It is the further intent of the Legislature to provide an additional sentencing alternative to be used in the discretion of the court when dealing with offenders who have demonstrated that they can no longer be handled safely as juveniles and who require more substantial limitations upon their liberty to ensure the protection of society.

History.—s. 2, ch. 78-84.

958.03 Definitions.—As used in this act:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Corrections.

(2) "Community control program" means an individualized program of restriction or noninstitutional confinement for youthful offenders placed in the community in lieu of commitment to the custody of the department and for youthful offenders subsequent to release from the custody of the department as provided by law.

History.—s. 3, ch. 78-84; s. 119, ch. 79-3.

958.04 Eligibility for youthful offender; classification.—

(1) The court may classify as a youthful offender any person:

(a) Who is at least 18 years of age or who has been transferred for prosecution to the criminal division of the circuit court pursuant to chapter 39;

(b) Who is found guilty of or who has tendered, and the court has accepted, a plea of nolo contendere or guilty to a crime which is, under the laws of this state, a felony of the first, second, or third degree if such crime was committed before the defendant's 21st birthday; and

(c) Who has not previously been classified a youthful offender under the provisions of this act; however, no person who has been found guilty of a capital or life felony may be classified a youthful offender under this act.

(2) A person shall be classified a youthful offender if such person meets the criteria of subsection (1) and such person:

(a) Has not previously been found guilty of a felony, whether or not the adjudication of guilt has been withheld; or

(b) Has not been adjudicated delinquent for an act which would be a capital, life, or first degree felony if committed by an adult.

(3) A person excluded from classification as a youthful offender under subsection (2) by virtue of having been previously found guilty of a crime which if committed in Florida would be a felony of the first, second, or third degree under the laws of this state may be classified a youthful offender after consideration of the following criteria:

(a) The seriousness of the offense to the community and the protection of the community;

(b) Whether the offense was committed in an aggressive, violent, premeditated, or willful manner;

(c) Whether the offense was against persons or against property;

(d) The sophistication and maturity of the defendant, as determined by consideration of his home, environmental situation, emotional attitude, and pattern of living;

(e) The record and previous history of the defendant, including:

1. Previous contacts with the department, the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, other law enforcement agencies, and courts;

2. Prior periods in a community control program;

3. Prior violations of law; and

4. Prior commitments to institutions;

(f) The likelihood of reasonable rehabilitation of the defendant if he is assigned to youthful offender services and facilities; and

(g) Whether classification would:

1. Reflect the seriousness of the offense, promote respect for law, and provide just punishment for the offense; and

2. Provide the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner.

History.—s. 5, ch. 78-84.

958.05 Judicial disposition of youthful offenders.—If the court classifies a person a youthful offender, in lieu of other criminal penalties authorized by law, the court shall dispose of the criminal case as follows:

(1) The court may place the youthful offender on probation in a community control program, with or without an adjudication of guilt, for a period not to exceed 2 years or extend beyond the 23rd birthday of the defendant.

(2) The court may commit the youthful offender to the custody of the department for a period not to exceed 6 years. The sentence of the court shall specify a period of not more than the first 4 years to be served by imprisonment and a period of not more than 2 years to be served in a community control program. The defendant shall serve the sentence of the court unless sooner released as provided by law.

(3) If the court finds that any one of the following aggravating factors exists, the court may impose a minimum term of imprisonment of 1 year before eligibility for parole, and the court shall sentence the defendant to a term of imprisonment not to exceed more than the first 4 years and a period of not more than 2 years to be served in a community control program. The court shall make written findings as to the aggravating factors found to exist.

(a) The defendant inflicted or attempted to inflict serious bodily injury to another during the commission of the felony or in flight therefrom. "Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury which creates a substantial risk of death or serious disfigurement, serious impairment of health, or serious loss or impairment of the function of any organ or part of the body.

(b) The defendant presents a continuing risk of physical harm to the public.

(c) The defendant knowingly created a great risk of bodily injury or death to any person.

(d) The defendant committed a felony that was heinous or involved physical violence.

History.—s. 6, ch. 78-84.

958.06 Suspension of sentence by court.—The court, upon motion of the defendant, or upon its own motion, may within 60 days after imposition of sentence suspend the further execution of the sentence and place the defendant on probation in a community control program upon such terms as the court may require. The department shall forward to the court, not later than 3 working days prior to the hearing on the motion, all relevant material on the youthful offender's progress while in custody.

History.—s. 7, ch. 78-84.

958.07 Presentence report; access by defendant.—The defendant is entitled to an opportunity to present to the court facts which would materially affect the decision of the court to adjudicate the defendant a youthful offender. The defendant, his attorney, and the state shall be entitled to inspect all factual material contained in the presentence report or diagnostic reports prepared or received by the department. The court may withhold from disclosure to the defendant and his attorney sources of information which have been obtained through a promise of confidentiality. In all cases in which parts of the report are not disclosed, the court shall state for the record the reasons for its action and shall inform the defendant and his attorney that information has not been disclosed.

History.—s. 8, ch. 78-84.

958.08 Community control program; supervision.—Community control programs shall be supervised by the department or other public or private agencies designated by the department and shall include, but shall not be limited to:

(1) Supervised activities designed to encourage noncriminal behavior, with appropriate sanctions for violation of the terms of the program by the youthful offender; and

(2) Restitution in money or in kind or through public service.

History.—s. 4, ch. 78-84.

958.09 Extension of limits of confinement.—

(1) The department is authorized to adopt regulations permitting the extension of the limits of the place of confinement of a youthful offender when there is reasonable cause to believe that he will honor the trust placed in him. The department may authorize a youthful offender, under prescribed conditions and following investigation and approval by the department which shall maintain a written record of such action, to leave the place of his confinement unaccompanied by a custodial agent for a prescribed period of time to:

(a) Visit a designated place or places for the purpose of visiting a dying relative, attending the funeral of a relative, or arranging for employment or for a suitable residence for use when released, to otherwise aid in the correction of the youthful offender, or for another compelling reason consistent with the public interest, and return to the same or another institution or facility designated by the department; or

(b) Work at paid employment, participate in an educational or a training program, or voluntarily serve a public or nonprofit agency or a public service program in the community; provided, that the youthful offender shall be confined except during the hours of his employment, education, training, or service and while traveling thereto and therefrom.

(2) The department may adopt rules as to the eligibility of youthful offenders for such extension of confinement, the disbursement of any earnings of youthful offenders, or the entering into of agreements between the department and any municipal, county, or federal agency for the housing of youthful offenders in a local place of confinement.

(3) The willful failure of a youthful offender to remain within the extended limits of confinement or to return within the time prescribed to the place of confinement designated by the department is an escape from the custody of the department and a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided by s. 775.082.

(4) The department may contract with other public and private agencies for the confinement or community supervision of youthful offenders when consistent with the youthful offender's welfare and the interest of society.

History.—s. 9, ch. 78-84.

958.10 Community control program; maximum term.—

(1) A youthful offender, when placed in a community control program upon release from imprisonment by parole or by accumulation of statutory gain-time allowances, shall be supervised in the program for a period not to exceed either 2 years or the balance of the maximum term to which he was sentenced, whichever is less; and the release shall be under such conditions as may be set by written order of the Parole and Probation Commission.

(2) During the period spent in the community control program, the youthful offender shall perform the terms and conditions of his release agreement and shall be subject to revocation or modification of the release agreement as if he were on parole. The provisions of s. 945.30 shall apply to youthful offenders released on parole or by accumulation of statutory gain-time allowances, except those youthful offenders within or without the state under an interstate compact adopted pursuant to chapter 949.

(3) The department shall develop policies which will provide for enhanced supervision programs for youthful offenders who have violated the technical terms of their release agreements where such violations do not constitute misdemeanors or felonies. The policies shall stress alternatives other than revocation and confinement in prison and may include community residential or community nonresidential activities.

History.—s. 10, ch. 78-84.

958.11 Designation of facilities for youthful offenders; certification of facility capacity.—

(1) The department shall designate and adapt facilities and programs for youthful offenders and shall employ and utilize personnel specially qualified by training and experience to operate facilities and programs for youthful offenders.

(2) Insofar as is practical, youthful offender facilities and programs shall be used only for youthful offenders, and such youthful offenders shall be segregated from other offenders.

History.—s. 11, ch. 78-84.

958.12 Participation in certain activities required.—A youthful offender may be required to participate in vocational, educational, correctional, or public service training or activities. Income derived by a youthful offender from participation in such training or activities may be used, in part, to defray a portion of the costs of his incarceration or supervision, to satisfy pre-existing obligations, or to pay restitution to the victim of the crime for which the youthful offender has been convicted in an amount determined by the sentencing court. The court may recommend placement of the youthful offender in a community residential facility as a condition of supervision, subject to budgetary limitations and the availability of bed space.

History.—s. 12, ch. 78-84.

958.13 Sealing, expunction, and dissemination of records.—

(1) The records relating to the arrest, indictment, information, trial, or disposition of alleged offenses of a person adjudicated a youthful offender under this act shall be subject to such sealing, expunction, and control of dissemination as are the criminal justice records of other adult offenders under applicable provisions of law.

(2) The records relating to the incarceration, rehabilitation, and postcustodial supervision of a youthful offender under this act shall be accessible only to criminal justice agencies, other public and private entities having responsibilities under this act, and, otherwise, only to such public and private entities able to demonstrate to a court of competent jurisdiction that access to such records is in the interest of a youthful offender, a group of youthful offenders, or the public welfare.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting a youthful offender or his attorney from discovery of records or information as otherwise authorized by law or required by the state or the federal constitution.

History.—s. 13, ch. 78-84.

958.14 Violation of community control program.—A violation or alleged violation of the terms of a community control program shall subject the youthful offender to the provisions of ss. 948.06(1), 949.10, 949.11, and 949.12.

History.—s. 14, ch. 78-84.

958.15 Mutual participation agreements.—The provisions of this act shall not restrict the participation of youthful offenders in a mutual participation agreement adopted pursuant to s. 947.135.

History.—s. 15, ch. 78-84.

959.001 Definitions.—When used in this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services as defined in s. 20.19.

(2) "Intake" means the acceptance and screening of complaints to determine the action to be taken in the best interest of the child and the community, including such alternatives as:

(a) The disposition of the complaint without court action when appropriate;

(b) The referral of the child to another public or private agency when appropriate; and

(c) The instigation of court action when necessary.

Also included in intake is the performance of necessary activities to further the prevention of juvenile delinquency.

(3) "Child" means a child as defined in chapter 39, who is alleged to be, or has been adjudicated, delinquent.

(4) "Detention facilities" means the county or state facilities used for detention, including the physical plant, fixtures, equipment, and properties on which such facilities are located, and shall include the outdoor areas customarily used by the detention facility.

(5) "Court" means the circuit court with juvenile jurisdiction.

(6) "Detention care" means the temporary care of children in secure or nonsecure custody.

(7) "Volunteer" means a person screened and selected by the department to advise and assist in programs for the prevention, control, and treatment of juvenile delinquency.

(8) "Secure facility" means a physically restricting facility for the temporary care of children, pending adjudication or court disposition.

(9) "Nonsecure facility" means a physically unrestricted facility for the temporary care of children, pending adjudication or court disposition.

(10) "Attention home" means a residence in the community to house one or more, but not exceeding six, children in a physically unrestricted environment, pending adjudication.

(11) "Home detention" means any child, pending adjudication, released to the custody of his parents, guardian, or custodian under the supervision of a community youth leader.

History.—s. 1, ch. 73-230; s. 1, ch. 73-241; s. 257, ch. 77-104; s. 478, ch. 77-147.

959.011 Administration.—

(1) The <sup>1</sup>[department] shall be responsible for the planning, development, and coordination of a statewide, comprehensive youth services program for the prevention, control, and treatment of juvenile delinquency.

(2) The <sup>1</sup>[department] shall develop and implement diversified and innovative programs in order to provide for the treatment of persons referred or committed to the <sup>2</sup>division. Such programs may include, but shall not be limited to, training schools, foster homes, halfway houses, forestry camps, training ships, regional diagnostic and classification centers, detention care, aftercare, intake, probation, shelter care, individual and group counseling, volunteer assistance, prevention services, and other state and local community-based residential and nonresidential programs.

(3) The <sup>1</sup>[department] shall have exclusive supervisory care, custody, and active control of persons committed to it. Pursuant to such regulations as the department may provide, the <sup>1</sup>[department] is authorized to transfer persons from one facility or program to another facility or program within the <sup>1</sup>[department], including, but not limited to, furlough in the community and the revocation of such furlough.

(4) The <sup>1</sup>[department] is authorized to receive and expend state, federal or private funds which are appropriated, awarded, or designed primarily for use in juvenile delinquency programs or facilities. The <sup>1</sup>[department] is also authorized to receive and expend federal funds under programs of the Federal Government or its agencies which require the state or appropriate state agency to provide supporting or matching funds if said supporting or matching funds are appropriated by the legislature.

(5) In order to instill the virtues of work, thriftiness, and responsibility for the management of their own funds in persons in its care, and to further prepare these persons for return to the community, the department is authorized to provide payment to these persons of reasonable sums of money for work performed while employed through its work programs, which either benefit the <sup>2</sup>division, the department, or the state or their properties, provided the funds shall be specifically provided to make such payments and that payments are made pursuant to a plan approved by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services and the Executive Office of the Governor.

(6) The department shall maintain a close and continuing relationship with the State Department of Education for the purposes of benefiting from the consultant services available therein and of cooperation with the commissioner of education and public school systems in preventing truancy and dropouts.

(7) The <sup>1</sup>[department] shall make studies and prepare social histories of persons when commitment to the <sup>3</sup>[youth services programs of the department] is being considered by the court.

(8) The <sup>1</sup>[department] may provide consultation services and technical assistance to courts, law enforcement agencies, and other public and private organizations. The <sup>1</sup>[department] shall develop programs to stimulate community action relating to the prevention, control, and treatment of juvenile delinquency.

(9) The department shall study all available statistical data for the purpose of a continuing evaluation of all programs relating to the prevention, control, and treatment of juvenile delinquency. The department shall also develop, and annually revise, Florida's comprehensive plan for the prevention, control, and treatment of juvenile delinquency, to include the evaluation of programs together with recommendations and comprehensive multiyear planning.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 31, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 8, ch. 71-130; s. 2, ch. 73-241; s. 148, ch. 79-190.

959.021 Authority of department; regulations; annual report.—

(1) The department shall be responsible for the implementation of law and policy relating to youth services and for the coordination of its efforts with those of the Federal Government and other state departments and agencies, county governments, municipal governments, and private agencies concerned with providing youth services. It shall be responsible for establishing standards, providing technical assistance, and exercising the requisite supervision, as it relates to youth services programs, over all state-supported juvenile facilities.

(2) The department shall employ such personnel as is necessary to implement diversified programs for the training, care, and treatment of persons committed or referred to it.

(3) The department shall promulgate its own rules, regulations, and policies as are needed for the efficient government and maintenance of all facilities and programs. Said rules, regulations, and policies shall be in accord, insofar as possible, with currently accepted standards of juvenile care and treatment.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 3, ch. 73-241; s. 479, ch. 77-147.

959.022 State-operated detention.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized to develop and implement a state-operated, regionally administered system of detention services for children.

(2)(a) The department shall develop a comprehensive plan for the implementation of the regional administration of all detention services in the state. The plan shall provide for the availability of detention services for all counties, and shall be fully implemented by December 31, 1973.

(b) The initial implementation plan shall be comprised of 18 catchment areas, with each area having a secure facility, attention homes, and a home detention program. The department shall have the authority to alter or modify the initial implementation plan.

(c) The department shall establish the catchment areas under the initial implementation plan as follows:

1. Area 1.—Escambia, Santa Rosa, and Okaloosa Counties;
2. Area 2.—Walton, Holmes, Jackson, Calhoun, Gulf, Bay, and Washington Counties;
3. Area 3.—Gadsden, Leon, Jefferson, Madison, Liberty, Franklin, Wakulla, and Taylor Counties;
4. Area 4.—Hamilton, Lafayette, Dixie, Columbia, Suwannee, Union, Gilchrist, Levy, Alachua, Bradford, and Putnam Counties;
5. Area 5.—Nassau, Baker, Duval, Clay, and St. Johns Counties;
6. Area 6.—Flagler and Volusia Counties;
7. Area 7.—Seminole, Orange, and Osceola Counties;
8. Area 8.—Marion, Sumter, Lake, Citrus, and Hernando Counties;
9. Area 9.—Pinellas County;
10. Area 10.—Pasco and Hillsborough Counties;
11. Area 11.—Polk County;
12. Area 12.—Brevard and Indian River Counties;
13. Area 13.—Manatee, Hardee, Okeechobee, and Highlands Counties;
14. Area 14.—Sarasota and DeSoto Counties;
15. Area 15.—Charlotte, Glades, Lee, Hendry, and Collier Counties;
16. Area 16.—Palm Beach, St. Lucie, and Martin Counties;
17. Area 17.—Broward County;
18. Area 18.—Dade and Monroe Counties.

This designation of catchment areas shall not be construed to restrict the department from temporarily placing or transferring children from one catchment area into another.

(d) The department shall, if it has not already done so by the effective date of this act, assume the operation of the secure detention facilities in the counties of Alachua, Bay, Brevard, Broward, Dade (Youth Hall until the new county-built facility is completed), Duval, Escambia (Youth Harbor until the new county-built facility is completed), Highlands, Hillsborough (Seffner facility only), Lake, Lee, Leon, Manatee, Marion, Orange, Palm Beach, Pinellas, Polk, Sarasota, Seminole (when county-built facility is completed), and Volusia. In Monroe County, the department shall close the current secure detention facility and change the location of detention to another facility provided by the county.

(e) In assuming the operation of secure and nonsecure detention facilities, the department shall accept the facilities on one of the following conditions at the option of the county:

1. That the department accept full title for the county detention facility; or
2. That the state and county enter into a token lease agreement of $1 per year for a period as long as this statute remains in effect, with the exception that should the need outgrow the existing facility and it appear unrealistic to add or build new facilities on the same property, the facility would then revert to the county.

Under either option, it shall be the responsibility of the state to maintain the property and buildings at no cost to the county.

(f) In counties where the need for new secure detention facilities has been determined by the county prior to the effective date of this act, or where the need for modifications to existing buildings has been determined by the department prior to the effective date of this act, the department shall notify the affected counties, and such counties shall obtain the necessary construction plans and bids as prescribed by law. The plans shall be approved by the department, and the counties shall proceed with the required construction or modification and shall be responsible for the full construction or modification cost of the facility.

(g) The department shall develop federal funding proposals and assist the counties in applying for all available federal funds to carry out the purposes of this section.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to abridge the powers granted local units of government in chapters 39 and 416 and other applicable provisions of law to operate detention programs, except that on the implementation date, the counties within the region where the state has assumed detention services shall lose the statutory authority to provide such services, whether such authority is granted by chapter 39, chapter 416, or other applicable law. On said implementation date the statutory authority to provide operation of detention services in that region shall be transferred to and be vested in the department.

(4) Any employee of a county detention facility who is performing services which the department will begin to perform as a result of this section will be offered a position with comparable duties, at no decrease in salary, by the department. For the purpose of this section, a salary shall be construed to include the cash equivalent of employee benefits. Any county employee who desires employment pursuant to the provisions of this subsection must elect this option prior to the implementation date.

959.05 Consultants.—The department may hire consultants to advise and confer with the judges of the circuit courts upon request of any such court and for the purpose of advising the department on programs, institutions, care, control, and all manner of treatment of children committed to the department's care.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 44, ch. 73-334; s. 481, ch. 77-147.

959.06 Legal representative; contracting powers.—

(1) The Department of Legal Affairs shall be the legal representative of the '[Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services].

(2) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may contract with the federal government, other state departments and agencies, and with county and municipal governments and agencies, public and private agencies, and with private individuals and corporations in carrying out the purposes and the responsibilities of the youth services programs of the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 11, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 14, ch. 79-12.

Note.—Bracketed language substituted for "division." See s. 3(3), ch. 75-48.

959.10 Discipline at department facilities; security units.—

(1) The department shall establish policies for the maintenance of good order and discipline in its youth services programs. Said policies shall be in accordance with currently accepted standards of juvenile care and treatment and due process of law.

(2) The department may approve any appropriate facilities for use as security units. When any person is committed to the department and is thereafter found incorrigible, or his continued presence in a facility of the department is deemed injurious to its management and discipline, the department may, in its discretion, transfer such person to any one of such security units, there to be kept, disciplined, and supervised. The department shall have the discretionary authority to transfer any such person from one security unit to another, and may at any time transfer him to a youth services program. The department may make transfers as herein provided under such procedures as the department may prescribe.

(3) The department shall provide for a record of the use of security and adjustment units.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 7, ch. 73-241; s. 15, ch. 79-12.

959.116 Transfer of minors from the Department of Corrections to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.—

(1) When any person under the age of 18 years is sentenced by any court of competent jurisdiction to the Department of Corrections, the secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services may transfer such person to the youth services programs of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for the remainder of his sentence, or until his '21st birthday, whichever results in the shorter term. If, upon such person's attaining his '21st birthday, his sentence has not terminated, he shall be transferred to the Department of Corrections for placement in a youthful offender program or, with the commission's consent, to the supervision of the department or be given any other transfer which may lawfully be made.

(2) If such person is under sentence for a term of years, after the <sup>2</sup>[Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services] has supervised such person for a sufficient length of time to ascertain that such person has attained satisfactory rehabilitation, the <sup>3</sup>director of the Division of Youth Services, upon determination that such action is in the best interest of the person and society, may relieve such person from making further reports.

(3) When such person has, in the opinion of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, so conducted himself as to deserve a pardon, a commutation of sentence, or the remission in whole or in part of any fine, forfeiture, or penalty, the secretary may recommend that such clemency be extended to such person. In such case the secretary shall fully advise the governor of the facts upon which such recommendation is based.

(4) The <sup>2</sup>[Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services] shall grant gain-time for good conduct, may grant extra good-time allowances, and may declare a forfeiture of same, as described in ss. 944.27-944.29. Any person transferred to the <sup>2</sup>[department] who is released pursuant to s. 944.291 shall be supervised by the <sup>2</sup>[department]. If any person is transferred to the <sup>2</sup>[department] who was sentenced pursuant to s. 921.18, the <sup>3</sup>director of the Division of Youth Services shall have the authority to determine the exact sentence of such person, but the sentence shall not be longer than the maximum sentence which was imposed by the court pursuant to s. 921.18. All time spent in the <sup>2</sup>[department] shall count toward the expiration of sentence. Any person so transferred to the <sup>2</sup>[department] may, at the discretion of the secretary, be returned to the Department of Corrections.

(5) Any person who has been convicted of a capital felony while under the age of 18 years shall not be furloughed on juvenile parole without the consent of the governor and three members of the cabinet.

History.—s. 11, ch. 72-179; s. 17, ch. 78-84; s. 120, ch. 79-3.

<sup>2</sup>Note.—The Division of Youth Services was abolished and its functions assigned. See s. 3(3), ch. 75-48. Bracketed language substituted by the editors to reflect these changes.

<sup>3</sup>Note.—The division, of which the director was head, was abolished by s. 3(3), ch. 75-48.

cf.—s. 1.01 Definition of minor.

s. 743.07 Rights, privileges and obligations of persons 18 years of age or older.

959.12 Term of commitment.—When any child is committed to the department, the commitment shall be for such period of time as the department deems proper, or until he reaches his 21st birthday, unless otherwise discharged as required by law.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 483, ch. 77-147.

cf.—s. 1.01 Definition of minor.

s. 743.07 Rights, privileges and obligations of persons 18 years of age or older.

959.13 Transfer to mental health and retardation services.—Any person committed to youth services programs of the department may be transferred to mental health and retardation facilities for diagnosis and evaluation pursuant to the procedures and criteria provided in chapters 394 and 393, respectively, for a period not to exceed 90 days.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 4, ch. 70-353; s. 9, ch. 73-241; s. 22, ch. 78-414.

959.15 Detention of furloughed person or escapee on authority of the department.—

(1) If an authorized agent of the department has reasonable ground to believe that any delinquent child committed to the department has committed an act for which he could be adjudicated delinquent, violated his furlough agreement in a material respect, or escaped from a facility of the department, such agent may take such person into his active custody. The superintendent, warden, or jailer of any facility, state, county, or municipal, is authorized to take such child into custody for the purpose of assuring that the child is delivered to the appropriate intake office or appropriate facility of the department. However, no child shall be held in detention longer than 48 hours, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, unless a special order so directing is made by the judge after a detention hearing finding that detention is required based on the criteria in s. 39.032(2). The order shall state the reasons for such finding. The reasons shall be reviewable by appeal or in habeas corpus proceedings in the district court of appeal.

(2) Any sheriff or other peace officer shall, upon request of the director of the <sup>1</sup>[department] or his duly authorized agent, assist in the apprehension and detention of any escapee from the <sup>1</sup>[department], any person who has violated his furlough agreement in a material respect, or any child who there is reasonable cause to believe has committed an act for which he could be adjudicated delinquent.

959.156 Furlough revocation hearing.—Upon a recommendation that a person committed to the department have his furlough revoked, the department shall, within 30 days from the date the recommendation was made, hold an administrative hearing pursuant to chapter 120.

History.—s. 11, ch. 73-241; s. 19, ch. 78-95.

959.185 Service of process.—Any summons, subpoena, or other process requiring the presence or the taking into custody of a person committed to the department and placed in a residential treatment facility shall be served by delivering two copies of such process to the person in charge of the facility, who shall deliver one of the copies to the committed person and be responsible for said committed person's compliance with the process.

History.—s. 12, ch. 73-241; s. 16, ch. 79-12.

959.19 Contracts for the transfer of Florida juveniles under federal custody.—To the extent that maintenance costs are borne entirely from federal funds, the department is empowered to contract with federal authorities for the return of juvenile citizens of Florida who are in the custody of a federal court or a federal correctional institution for violations of a federal law. Said juveniles under contract are to be transferred to the exclusive custody and active control of the department, under the terms, agreements and provisions of the aforementioned contract.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 484, ch. 77-147.

959.20 Form of commitment.—When any child is committed to the department, the commitment form to be used by the judge of the committing court shall be as prescribed by the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 485, ch. 77-147.

959.21 Certified copy of charge to be attached to the commitment.—The clerk of each court committing a child to the department, or the judge thereof if it has no clerk, shall prepare and attach to each commitment form a certified copy of the petition upon which the person is being committed to the department.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; s. 17, ch. 79-12.

959.22 Case history of each child committed.—In addition to the requirements of ss. 959.20 and 959.21, the clerk of each court, or the judge thereof if it has no clerk, shall prepare and forward to the department, at the time of committing a child to the active control of the department, a case history of said child, in such form as prescribed by the department. Said case history shall include information about:

- (1) The sociopsychological history of each child committed.
- (2) The medical history of the child.
- (3) The educational and homelife history of each child committed, including his school records.
- (4) Such other information deemed necessary by the department and requested in writing to be submitted by the court.

History.—s. 1, ch. 69-365; ss. 4, 19, 35, ch. 69-106; s. 286, ch. 71-377; s. 486, ch. 77-147.

959.225 Records; privileged information.—

(1) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services shall make records regarding the persons it serves pursuant to this chapter. Records pertaining to persons committed to or supervised by the department pursuant to a court order shall be preserved until the person reaches the age of 21. Records pertaining to all other children served pursuant to this chapter shall be preserved in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the secretary. The destruction of all records shall be subject to the provisions of the Florida Archives and History Act, chapter 267.

(2) Records regarding children shall not be open to inspection by the public. Such records shall be inspected only upon order of the secretary of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services or his authorized agent by persons determined to have a sufficient reason and upon such conditions for their use and disposition as the secretary or his authorized agent may deem proper. The secretary or his authorized agent may permit properly qualified persons to inspect and make abstracts from records for statistical purposes under whatever conditions upon their use and disposition the secretary or his authorized agent may deem proper, provided adequate assurances are given that children's names and other identifying information will not be disclosed by the applicant.

(3) All information obtained in the discharge of official duty relating to youth services by an employee of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is privileged. Such information may be disclosed only to other employees of the department who have a need therefor in order to perform their official duty and to other persons as authorized by the rules and regulations of the department.

History.—s. 7, ch. 72-179; s. 13, ch. 73-241; s. 487, ch. 77-147.

<sup>1</sup>Note.—Ch. 73-21, Laws of Florida, removed the disability of nonage for persons 18 years of age and older.

cf.—s. 1.01 Definition of minor.

s. 743.07 Rights, privileges and obligations of persons 18 years of age or older.

959.23 Duty of juvenile detention inspectors.—

(1) Juvenile detention inspectors shall, under the direction of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, inspect all juvenile detention facilities at least semiannually and on other occasions as directed.

(2) The juvenile detention inspectors shall make written reports to the department and send duplicate copies of said reports to:

- (a) The board of county commissioners of the appropriate county;
- (b) The judge of the circuit court exercising juvenile jurisdiction;
- (c) The person in charge of the detention facility; and
- (d) The sheriff of the appropriate county.

Such reports shall at all times be open to public inspection.

History.—s. 2, ch. 70-353; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 44, ch. 73-334; s. 488, ch. 75-147.

959.24 County and state detention facilities.—

(1) "Juvenile detention facility" means a detention home as defined in s. 39.01(16) or a county detention facility as defined in s. 951.23 if such detention home or county detention facility is used for the detention of children adjudicated delinquent or children awaiting hearing in delinquency proceedings in a circuit court exercising juvenile jurisdiction.

(2)(a) The Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services is authorized and directed to adopt rules and regulations prescribing standards and requirements with reference to:

1. The construction, equipping, maintenance, staffing, programming, and operation of juvenile detention facilities;
2. The treatment, training, and education of children confined therein;
3. The cleanliness and sanitation of juvenile detention facilities;
4. The number of children who may be housed in such facilities per specified unit of floor space;
5. The quality, quantity and supply of bedding furnished to children housed in such facilities;
6. The quality, quantity and diversity of food served and the manner in which it is served;

7. The furnishing of medical attention and health and comfort items; and

8. The disciplinary treatment administered.

(b) In setting standards and requirements, the department shall consult with officers of counties which operate juvenile detention facilities. After standards and requirements are changed, counties which operate juvenile detention facilities shall be provided with copies of such standards and requirements. After the adoption or alteration of standards and requirements, a reasonable time shall be allowed for counties to implement any required changes.

(3) The department shall enforce such rules and regulations and shall designate personnel of the department to inspect all such detention facilities in order to determine whether such standards and requirements are being met. If the standards and requirements are not being met, the use of such facility may be prohibited by an order of the judge of the circuit court. In the absence of such an order, the department may file a complaint in circuit court, whereupon an injunction may be granted to prohibit the confinement of any child in any juvenile detention facility which does not meet such standards and requirements.

(4)(a) If the department finds that children are detained in any juvenile detention facility which does not meet such standards and requirements, it may so certify to the circuit court and thereupon the court shall either order such deficiency corrected so as to meet minimum standards and requirements or order such children, or any part of them, removed to and confined in a juvenile detention facility which does meet such standards and requirements, whether it is in the same or another county, if such county is willing to receive such child or children.

(b) The expense of maintaining children who are removed to another county under the provisions of paragraph (a) shall be borne by the county from which they are removed.

(c) Promptly upon the issuing of any order authorized by paragraph (a), copies thereof shall be sent to the officer in charge of the detention facility from which the children affected by such order are required to be removed, to the board of county commissioners and sheriff of the county in which such detention facility is situated, to the officer in charge of the county detention facility to which they are required to be removed, and to the parents or guardians of all children required to be moved. If the order requires the removal of children to a detention facility in another county, a copy thereof shall also be promptly sent to the board of county commissioners and sheriff of the county in which it is situated and to the judge of the circuit court.

959.25 Exceptional child educational program.—

(1) The Legislature recognizes that the wards of the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services, by reason of their commitment to state custody, are as a group the most seriously socially maladjusted children within the state. It is recognized that a meaningful compensatory educational and work readiness program is an essential component of the treatment process for youthful offenders. High priority should be given to the development of innovative educational techniques in order to remedy the deficiencies of children within the department. It is the intent of the Legislature that sufficient funds and personnel be provided for an exceptional child educational program for children in the custody of the department. The educational resources for the department should be equal to or greater than the resources available in the public schools for the education of children with similar social maladjustments and learning disabilities. Funds shall annually be appropriated to the department from the General Revenue Fund by the methods and for the educational purposes hereinafter specified. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent, upon demonstration of need, the appropriation of moneys for educational purposes in addition to those moneys and purposes provided in this section. Moneys for construction and maintenance of physical plant, transportation, and food shall be appropriated separately from this section.

(2) The department shall establish an exceptional child educational program pursuant to the Florida School Code and the regulations of the State Board of Education. The department shall each year, prior to April 1, submit to the Department of Education a plan for the exceptional child educational program. Upon approval of such plan by the Department of Education, the funds appropriated pursuant to this section shall be released to the department.

(3) Each year there shall be appropriated from the General Revenue Fund, educational moneys for the department. Such funds shall be made available for educational programs in facilities under the control and supervision of the department. The procedures for determining such appropriation, for expenditures other than for construction and maintenance of physical plants, transportation, food, and salaries for instructional personnel pursuant to subsection (4) shall be as follows:

(a) The number of instructional units shall be projected by the department and certified by the Department of Education for the fiscal year for which funds are being appropriated, and funds shall be appropriated based on such projections. For each 10 children, or major fraction thereof, in average daily attendance for 228 days, the department shall earn one instructional unit. Average daily attendance shall include all children receiving educational services provided by the department.

(b) For each four instructional units, or fraction thereof, the department shall earn one unit for special teacher services.

(c) The sum of the instructional units and units for special teacher services shall be multiplied by the amount provided per instruction unit for current expenses other than instructional salaries and transportation pursuant to s. 236.07(5).

(d) For each two units, determined as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b), the department may employ one teacher aide, to be paid from funds appropriated pursuant to subsection (4).

(4)(a) There shall annually be appropriated from the General Revenue Fund to the department sufficient moneys for salaries for instructional personnel.

(b) The department may request positions and salary levels for a director of education, an assistant director of education, specialists in exceptional child education, vocational education, and the evaluation of educational programs, and such other educational personnel as may be needed to exercise administrative and supervisory authority over all educational programs of the department. Moneys shall be appropriated for such positions in addition to the moneys provided for in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature that the curriculum utilized in such institutions shall be consistent with that of the public school system, but with emphasis on direct job-related vocational-technical education. The department shall conduct continuous evaluation of its educational programs and shall report annually to the Legislature and to the Commissioner of Education. Such reports shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Education and the chairmen of the appropriate education committees of the Legislature.

History.—s. 5, ch. 70-353; s. 1, ch. 70-439; s. 14, ch. 73-241; s. 18, ch. 79-12.

959.28 Field services.—

(1) The department shall establish intake services for the circuit courts of Florida for the purpose of conducting preliminary screening for future action on the case, to include possible alternatives of filing a petition for court action, nonjudicial supervision, nonresidential treatment, shelter care, and individual and group counseling.

(2) With regard to persons referred or committed to the department, the function of the department may include, but shall not be limited to:

(a) Providing counseling and such other services as may be necessary for said persons brought before the intake section of the court of persons referred or committed to the department.

(b) Providing nonjudicial supervision or voluntary counseling services for said persons in the absence of a judicial proceeding, but only if the parents and child agree to such supervision.

(c) Providing counseling and other services as may be necessary for the families of persons brought before the court or persons referred or committed to the department and preparing their homes for the return of the person, in order that the value of the training he has received shall not be lost.

(d) Supervising any person furloughed into the community from a facility of the department.

History.—s. 10, ch. 71-130; s. 15, ch. 73-241; s. 44, ch. 73-334; s. 19, ch. 79-12.

960.01 Short title.—The provisions of this chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Florida Crimes Compensation Act."

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.02 Declaration of policy and legislative intent.—The Legislature recognizes that many innocent persons suffer personal injury or death as a direct result of criminal acts or in their efforts to prevent crime or apprehend persons committing or attempting to commit crimes. Such persons or their dependents may thereby suffer disabilities, incur financial hardships, or become dependent upon public assistance. The Legislature finds and determines that there is a need for government financial assistance for such victims of crime. Accordingly, it is the intent of the Legislature that aid, care, and support be provided by the state, as a matter of moral responsibility, for such victims of crime. It is the express intent of the Legislature that all state departments and agencies cooperate with the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.03 Definitions.—As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Claimant" means any person filing a claim pursuant to this chapter.
- (2) "Commission" means the Florida Crimes Compensation Commission.
- (3) "Crime" means the commission by any person of a felony or misdemeanor under the laws of this state, which is punishable under the criminal laws of the State of Florida and which results in physical injury to or death of a resident of this state. However, no act involving the operation of a motor vehicle, boat, or aircraft which results in injury or death shall constitute a crime for the purpose of this chapter unless the injury or death was intentionally inflicted through the use of such vehicle, boat, or aircraft, or unless such vehicle, boat, or aircraft is an implement of a crime to which this act applies.

(4) "Department" means the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(5) "Intervenor" means any person who goes to the aid of another and suffers bodily injury or death as a direct result of acting, not recklessly, to prevent the commission of a crime, to lawfully apprehend a person reasonably suspected of having committed a crime, or to aid the victim of a crime.

(6) "Victim" means any person who suffers personal physical injury or death as a direct result of a crime.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.04 Eligibility for awards.—

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the following persons shall be eligible for awards pursuant to this section:

- (a) A victim.
- (b) An intervenor.
- (c) A surviving spouse, parent, or child of a deceased victim or intervenor.

(d) Any other person who is dependent for his principal support upon a deceased victim or intervenor.

(e) A dependent child of a deceased victim of a crime who is related to or residing in the same household as the person who committed the crime.

(2) Any person who:

- (a) Committed or aided in the commission of the crime upon which the claim was based;
- (b) Was engaged in an unlawful activity at the time of the crime upon which the claim is based;
- (c) Is related within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity to the person who committed the crime, except as provided in paragraph (1)(e);
- (d) Is maintaining a sexual relationship with the person who committed the crime; or
- (e) Resides in the same household as the person who committed the crime, except as provided in paragraph (1)(e), shall not be eligible to receive an award with respect to such claim.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 1, ch. 79-297.

Note.—Section 2, ch. 79-297, provides that, "this act shall extend to any child who would have been eligible for an award under the provisions of this act after December 31, 1977."

960.05 Florida Crimes Compensation Commission.—

(1) There is hereby created within the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services the Florida Crimes Compensation Commission, to be composed of a chairman and two other members to be appointed by the Governor, subject to confirmation by the Senate. Members shall serve for terms of 4 years, except that members first appointed shall serve for terms of 4, 3, and 2 years, respectively. A vacancy for the unexpired term of a member shall be filled in the same manner as herein provided for on original appointment. The commission, in the performance of its duties and powers under this chapter, shall not be subject to control, supervision, or direction by the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services.

(2) The chairman and members shall receive a salary as established pursuant to the provisions of s. 216.251. The commission shall have the authority to employ an executive director and such other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.06 Commission; powers and duties.—

(1) The commission shall have the power and duty:

(a) To establish and maintain an office in Tallahassee and to prescribe the duties of the employees of the commission.

(b) To adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind such rules as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including rules for the approval of attorney's fees for representation before the commission or before the court upon judicial review as hereinafter provided.

(c) To request from the state attorney or from the law enforcement agencies involved such investigation and data as will enable the commission to determine if, in fact, a crime was committed or attempted, and the extent, if any, to which the victim or claimant was responsible for his own injury or death.

(d) To hear and determine all claims for awards filed with the commission pursuant to this chapter, considering all other programs providing valid and collectible benefits to the claimant, and to reinvestigate or reopen cases as the commission deems necessary.

(e) To require the submission of such medical records as are required and, when necessary, to direct medical examination of the victim or intervenor.

(f) To hold hearings, to administer oaths or affirmations, to examine persons under oath or affirmation and to issue summons requiring the attendance and giving of testimony of witnesses, and to require the production of any books or papers or documentary or other evidence. The powers provided in this subsection may be delegated by the commission to any member or employee thereof.

(g) To take, or cause to be taken, affidavits or depositions within or without the state.

(h) To render, prior to January 1 of each year, to the Governor, to the Secretary of Health and Rehabilitative Services, and to the presiding officers of the Senate and House of Representatives a written report of its activities.

(2) The Department of Legal Affairs shall be the legal advisor to the commission.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 306, ch. 79-400.

960.07 Filing of claims for compensation.—

(1) A claim for compensation may be filed by a person eligible for compensation as provided in s. 960.04 or, if such person is a minor, by his parent or guardian or, if the person entitled to make a claim is mentally incompetent, by his guardian or such other individual authorized to administer his estate.

(2) A claim must be filed not later than 1 year after the occurrence of the crime upon which the claim is based or not later than 1 year after the death of the victim or intervenor. However, for good cause the commission may extend the time for filing for a period not exceeding 2 years after such occurrence.

(3) Claims may be filed in the Tallahassee office of the commission in person or by mail or with the department in person. Any employee of the department receiving a claim for compensation shall, immediately upon receipt of such claim, mail the claim to the commission at its office in Tallahassee. In no event and under no circumstances shall the rights of a claimant under this chapter be prejudiced or lost by the failure or delay of the employees of the department in mailing claims to the commission in Tallahassee.

(4) Upon filing of a claim pursuant to this chapter, the commission shall promptly notify the state attorney of the circuit wherein the crime is alleged to have occurred. If within 10 days after such notification such state attorney advises the commission that a criminal prosecution is pending upon the same alleged crime and requests that action by the commission be deferred, the commission shall defer all proceedings under this chapter until such time as a trial verdict has been rendered, and shall so notify such state attorney and claimant. When a trial verdict has been rendered, such state attorney shall promptly notify the commission. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the authority of the commission to grant emergency awards pursuant to s. 897.12.

(5) The state attorney's office shall aid claimants in the filing and processing of claims, as may be required.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.08 Out-of-pocket loss.—"Out-of-pocket loss" shall mean unreimbursed and unreimbursable expenses or indebtedness incurred for medical care, nonmedical remedial care, or other treatment rendered in accordance with a religious method of healing, as approved by the commission, or for other services necessary as a result of the injury or death upon which such claim is based.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.09 Determination of claims by a commissioner.—

(1) A claim when accepted for filing shall be assigned by the chairman to himself or to another member of the commission. All claims arising from the death of an individual as a result of a single crime shall be considered together by a single commission member.

(2) The commission member to whom such claim is assigned shall examine the papers filed in support of the claim and shall thereupon cause an investigation to be conducted into the validity of the claim. The investigation shall include, but not be limited to, an examination of police, court, and official records and reports concerning the crime and an examination of medical and hospital reports relating to the injury or death upon which the claim is based.

(3) Claims shall be investigated and determined, regardless of whether the alleged criminal has been apprehended or prosecuted for, or convicted of, any crime based upon the same incident, or has been acquitted or found not guilty of the crime in question owing to lack of criminal responsibility or to other legal exemption or defense.

(4) The commission member to whom a claim is referred may decide the claim in favor of a claimant on the basis of the papers filed in support thereof and the report of the investigation of the claim. If the commission member is unable to decide the claim upon the basis of said papers and report, he shall order a hearing. At the hearing any relevant evidence not legally privileged shall be admissible.

(5) After examining the papers filed in support of the claim and the report of the investigation, and after a hearing, if any, the commission member to whom the claim was assigned shall make a decision either granting the award or denying the claim.

(6) The commission member making a decision shall file with the executive director a written report setting forth such decision and his reasons therefor. The executive director shall thereupon notify the claimant and furnish him a copy of such report, upon request.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 307, ch. 79-400.

960.10 Determination of claims by the full commission.—

(1) The claimant may, within 30 days after receipt of the report of the commissioner to whom his claim was assigned, make an application in writing to the commission for consideration of the decision by the full commission.

(2) Upon receipt of an application pursuant to subsection (1) or upon its own motion, the commission shall review the record and affirm or modify the decision of the commission member to whom the claim was assigned. The action of the commission in affirming or modifying such decision shall be final. If the commission receives no application pursuant to subsection (1) or takes no action upon its own motion, the decision of the commission member to whom the claim was assigned shall become the final decision of the commission.

(3) The executive director of the commission shall promptly notify the claimant and the appropriate state fiscal officer of the final decision of the commission and furnish each with a copy of the report setting forth the decision.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.11 Judicial review of decisions of the commission.—The final decisions of the commission are reviewable in the district court of appeal as provided in s. 120.68.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.12 Emergency awards.—Notwithstanding the provisions of ss. 960.07 and 960.09, if it appears to the commission member to whom the claim is assigned, prior to taking action upon such claim, that such claim is one with respect to which an award probably will be made, and that either the claimant is a recipient of benefits under the Federal Social Security Act or that undue hardship will result to the claimant if immediate payment is not made, the commission member may make an emergency award to the claimant, pending a final decision in the case, on the following conditions:

(1) The amount of such emergency award shall not exceed $500;

(2) The amount of such emergency award shall be deducted from any final award made to the claimant; and

(3) The amount of such emergency award which is in excess of the final award, or the full amount of the emergency award if no final award is made, shall be repaid by the claimant to the commission.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 1, ch. 78-44.

960.13 Awards.—

(1)(a) No award shall be made unless the commission or the commission member, as the case may be, finds that:

1. A crime was committed;
2. Such crime directly resulted in personal injury to, or death of, the victim or intervenor; and
3. Such crime was promptly reported to the proper authorities.

(b) In no case may an award be made when the record shows that such report was made more than 72 hours after the occurrence of such crime unless the commission, for good cause shown, finds the delay to have been justified. The commission, upon finding that any claimant or award recipient has not duly cooperated with all law enforcement agencies, may deny, reduce, or withdraw any award, as the case may be.

(2) Any award shall be granted on an "actual need" basis and shall be provided subsequent to all benefits provided by primary insurance carriers, including, but not limited to, health and accident insurers, workers' compensation, and automobile accident coverage.

(3) Any award made pursuant to this chapter shall be made in accordance with the schedule of benefits and degrees of disability specified in s. 440.15, excluding subsection (5) of that section. If a claimant does not have "average weekly wages" so as to qualify under the formula in s. 440.15, the award shall be in an amount equal to the arithmetic average between the maximum and minimum awards listed in the applicable portions of ss. 440.15 and 440.12.

(4) If there are two or more persons entitled to an award as a result of the death of a person which is the direct result of a crime, the award shall be apportioned among the claimants.

(5) Any award made pursuant to this chapter shall be reduced by the amount of any payments received or to be received by the claimant as a result of the injury or death:

(a) From or on behalf of the person who committed the crime.

(b) From any other public or private source, including an award of workers' compensation pursuant to chapter 440.

(c) From an emergency award under s. 960.12.

(6) In determining the amount of an award, the commission or commission member, as the case may be, shall determine whether, because of his conduct, the victim of such crime or the intervenor contributed to the infliction of his injury or to his death, and the commission or commission member shall reduce the amount of the award or reject the claim altogether, in accordance with such determination. However, the commission or commission member, as the case may be, may disregard for this purpose the contribution of the intervenor to his own injury or death when the record shows that such contribution was attributed to efforts by an intervenor as set forth in s. 960.03(5).

(7) If the commission or commission member, as the case may be, finds that the claimant, if not granted assistance pursuant to this chapter to meet the loss of earnings, support, or out-of-pocket loss, will not suffer serious financial hardship as a result of the loss of earnings or support and the out-of-pocket loss incurred as a result of the injury, the commission or commission member shall deny the award. In determining serious financial hardship, the commission or commission member shall consider all the financial resources of the claimant. Unless a total dependency is established, members of a family are considered to be partially dependent upon a homemaker with whom they reside, without regard to actual earnings.

(8) No claimant shall receive an award in excess of $10,000.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 122, ch. 79-40; s. 308, ch. 79-400.

960.14 Manner of payment; execution or attachment.—

(1) Any award made under this chapter shall be in accordance with the discretion and direction of the commission as to the manner of payment. No award made pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to execution or attachment other than for expenses resulting from the injury or death which is the basis for the claim. In every case providing for compensation to a claimant under this chapter, the commission may, if in its opinion the facts and circumstances of the case warrant it, convert the compensation to be paid into a partial or total lump sum without discount.

(2) The commission may reconsider a claim at any time and modify or rescind previous orders for compensation, based upon a change in financial circumstances of a victim or intervenor, or one or more of the surviving dependents of either.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 309, ch. 79-400.

960.15 Records.—The record of a proceeding before the commission or a commission member shall be a public record. However, any record or report obtained by a commission member or the commission, the confidentiality of which is protected by any other law or regulation, shall remain confidential, subject to such law or regulation.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.16 Subrogation.—Payment of an award pursuant to this chapter shall subrogate the state, to the extent of such payment, to any right of action accruing to the claimant or to the victim or intervenor to recover losses resulting from the crime with respect to which the award is made.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.17 Award constitutes debt owed to state.—

(1) Any payment of benefits to, or on behalf of, a victim or other claimant under this chapter creates a debt due and owing to the state by any person found, in either a civil or criminal court proceeding in which he is a party, to have committed such criminal act.

(2) The court, when placing on probation as provided in chapter 948 any person who owes a debt to the state as a consequence of a criminal act, may set as a condition of probation the payment of the debt to the state. The court may also set the schedule or amounts of payments subject to modification based on change of circumstances.

(3) The Parole and Probation Commission shall have the right to make payment of the debt to the state a condition of parole under chapter 947, subject to modification based on change of circumstances.

(4) Payments authorized under this section are to be paid to the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 310, ch. 79-400.

960.18 Penalty for fraud.—Any person who procures compensation under this chapter by any fraud, or any person who counsels another person to procure compensation under this chapter by any fraud, is guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084. Any moneys so procured shall be recoverable by the commission, including punitive damages, costs of such action plus interest, and any attorney's fees paid by the commission.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.19 Attorney's fees.—The commission may determine and award reasonable attorney's fees, commensurate with services rendered, to be paid by the commission to the attorney representing the claimant. Attorney's fees may be denied on a finding that a claim or appeal is frivolous. Attorney's fees shall be in addition to awards and may be made whether or not an award is granted. Any attorney who contracts for, or receives, any larger sum than the amount allowed shall be guilty of a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.20 Additional costs.—When any person, after January 1, 1978, pleads guilty or nolo contendere to, or is convicted of, any felony or misdemeanor under the laws of this state, there shall be imposed as an additional cost in the case, in addition to any other cost required to be imposed by law, the sum of $10. The court may waive, modify, or defer payment of the additional costs imposed by this act if it finds they would impose a severe financial hardship. All such sums shall be paid over to the State Treasurer, to be deposited in the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund. Under no condition shall a political subdivision be held liable for the payment of this sum of $10.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452; s. 311, ch. 79-400.

960.21 Crimes Compensation Trust Fund.—

(1) There is hereby created a special fund, to be known as the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund, for the purpose of providing for the payment of all necessary and proper expenses incurred by the operation of the commission and the payment of claims. The commission shall administer the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund.

(2) The moneys placed in the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund shall consist of all moneys appropriated by the Legislature for the purpose of compensating the victims of crime and other claimants under this act, and of moneys recovered on behalf of the commission by subrogation or other action, recovered through restitution, received from the Federal Government, received from additional court costs, received from fines, or received from any other public or private source.

(3) All administrative costs of this chapter shall be paid out of moneys collected pursuant to this chapter and deposited in the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund.

History.—ss. 1, 7, ch. 77-452; s. 312, ch. 79-400.

960.22 Application for federal funds.—The commission is authorized to apply for funds from, and to submit all necessary forms to, any federal agency participating in a cooperative program to compensate victims of crime.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.23 Notice of provisions of this chapter.—

It shall be the duty of every hospital licensed under the laws of this state to display prominently in its emergency room posters giving notification of the existence and general provisions of this chapter. The department shall provide posters, application forms as approved by the commission, and general information regarding the provisions of this chapter to each hospital licensed to operate in this state and to each law enforcement agency.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.24 Duties and functions of the department.—It shall be the duty of the department to assist persons who are victims of crime. The department shall:

(1) Seek to identify the victims of crime and inform them of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Serve as a clearinghouse for information relating to the problems encountered by the victims of crime.

(3) Enlist the assistance of public and voluntary health, education, welfare, and rehabilitation agencies or groups in a concerted effort to aid persons who are victims of crime.

(4) Assist public agencies and local governments to provide assistance for victims of crime.

(5) Act as an advocate for the victims of crime to obtain aid and services from public or private health, education, welfare, or rehabilitation agencies or groups to treat persons who have been victims of crime.

History.—s. 1, ch. 77-452.

960.25 Surcharge on fines, civil penalties, and bail bonds.—In addition to any fine or civil penalty prescribed by law, there is hereby established and created an additional 5 percent surcharge thereon which shall be imposed, levied, and collected together with such fine or civil penalty. The principal amount of any bail bond given as prescribed by law shall be increased by an additional 5 percent surcharge which is established hereby.

History.—s. 6, ch. 77-452.
